gang insignia—

(b) includes any item of clothing to which a sign, symbol, or representation referred to in paragraph (a) is attached

public place—

(a) means a place—

- (i) that is under the control of the Council; and
 - (ii) that is open to, or being used by, the public, whether or not there is a charge for admission; and
- (b) includes—
- (i) a road, whether or not the road is under the control of the Council; and
 - (ii) any part of a public place specified place means a public place designated as a specified place for the purpose of this Act in a bylaw made under section 5.

- (2) Without limiting the definition of the term public place or specified place in subsection (1), for the purposes of this Act, a person is in a specified place if he or she is in or on a vehicle that is in a specified place.

5 Power to make bylaws designating specified places or gangs

- (1) The Council may, from time to time, make bylaws—
- (a) designating any public place as a specified place for the purposes of this Act;
 - (b) identifying an organisation, association, or group of persons as a gang for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) In making a bylaw under subsection (1), the Council must use the special consultative procedure set out in section 83 of the Local Government Act 2002.
- (3) Section 86(2)(a) and (b) of the Local Government Act 2002 apply to the making of a bylaw under subsection (1) as if it were an activity described in section 86(1) of that Act.
- (4) The Council must not make a bylaw identifying a gang under subsection (1)(b) unless it is satisfied that the organisation, association, or group proposed to be identified has the following characteristics:
- (a) a common name or common identifying signs, symbols, or representations; and
 - (b) its members, associates, or supporters individually or collectively promote, encourage, or engage in a pattern of criminal activity.

- (5) The Council may make a bylaw under this section only if it is satisfied that the bylaw is reasonably necessary in order to prevent or reduce the likelihood of intimidation or harassment of members of the public in a specified place or to avoid or reduce the potential for confrontation by or between gangs.
- (6) A bylaw must not be made under subsection (1)(a) if the effect of the bylaw, either by itself or in conjunction with other bylaws made under subsection (1)(a), would be that all the public places in the district are specified places.

6 Signposting of specified places

- (1) The Council must, where reasonably practicable, indicate the location of a specified place designated by a bylaw made under section 5 by 1 or more clearly legible notices affixed in 1 or more conspicuous places on, or adjacent to, the place to which the notice relates.
- (2) No prosecution under section 12, and no arrest or seizure under section 13, may be challenged on the ground that a notice was not affixed in accordance with subsection (1).

7 Public notice of bylaws and availability of copies

Section 157 of the Local Government Act 2002 applies to a bylaw made under section 5 as if the bylaw had been made under that Act.

8 Review of bylaws

The Council must review a bylaw made by it under section 5 no later than 5 years after the date on which the bylaw was made.

9 Further reviews of bylaws every 10 years

The Council must review a bylaw made by it under section 5 no later than 10 years after it was last reviewed as required by section 8 or this section.

10 Procedure for and nature of review

- (1) The Council must review a bylaw to which section 8 or 9 applies by making the determinations required by section 5(4) and (5).
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), section 5(4) and (5) apply with all necessary modifications.
- (3) If, after the review, the Council considers that the bylaw—
 - (a) should be amended, revoked, or revoked and replaced, it must act in accordance with section 5(2) and (3):
 - (b) should continue without amendment, it must use the special consultative procedure in section 83 of the Local Government Act 2002, and section 5(3) does not apply.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3)(b), the statement of proposal referred to in section 83(1)(a) of the Local Government Act 2002 must include—
 - (a) a copy of the bylaw to be continued; and
 - (b) the reasons for the proposal.

11 Bylaw not reviewed within specified time frame revoked

A bylaw that is not reviewed as required under section 8 or 9, if not earlier revoked by the Council, is revoked on the date that is 2 years after the last date on which the bylaw should have been reviewed under that section.

12 Prohibition of display of gang insignia

- (1) No person may display gang insignia at any time in a specified place in the district.
- (2) Every person who, without reasonable excuse, contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000.
- (3) Without limitation, and to avoid doubt, a Judge may apply section 128 of the Evidence Act 2006 in deciding whether a sign, symbol, or representation is gang insignia for the purposes of this Act.

Section 12(2): amended, on 1 July 2013, by section 413 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 (2011 No 81).

 - (a) arrest a person who the constable has good cause to suspect has committed an offence against section 12(2);
 - (b) seize and remove gang insignia (by the use of force if necessary) that has been or is being displayed in a specified place.
- (2) Gang insignia seized under subsection (1)(b) is forfeited to the Crown if the person from whom the gang insignia is taken pleads guilty to, or is convicted of, an offence against section 12(2).
- (3) If gang insignia is forfeited to the Crown under subsection (2), the gang insignia may be destroyed or otherwise disposed of as the court, either at the time of the conviction for the offence under section 12(2) or on a subsequent application, directs.

14 Power to stop vehicle to exercise powers of arrest or seizure

- (1) A constable may stop a vehicle without a warrant to exercise either or both of the powers in section 13(1) in relation to a person if the constable has reasonable grounds to believe that the person is in or on the vehicle.

- (3) A constable exercising the stopping power conferred by subsection (1) must, immediately after the vehicle has stopped,—
 - (a) identify himself or herself to the driver of the vehicle; and
 - (b) tell the driver that the stopping power is being exercised under this section for the purpose of exercising powers under section 13(1); and
 - (c) if not in uniform and if so required, produce evidence that he or she is a constable.

- (4) Without limiting section 13(1), a constable exercising the stopping power conferred by subsection (1) may do any 1 or more of the following:
- (a) search the vehicle to locate a person referred to in subsection (1);
 - (b) search the vehicle to locate gang insignia that the constable may seize under section 13(1)(b);
 - (c) require any person in or on the vehicle to state his or her name, address, and date of birth, or any of those particulars that the constable may specify;
 - (d) require the vehicle to remain stopped for as long as is reasonably necessary to exercise the powers—
 - (i) in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c); and
 - (ii) in section 13(1), in relation to a person referred to in subsection (1) of this section.
- (5) Every person commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000 who, without reasonable excuse,—

 - (b) fails to comply with a requirement made by a constable under subsection (4)(c) or (d).
- (6) A constable may arrest without warrant any person who the constable has good cause to suspect has committed an offence against subsection (5).

Notes1 General

This is a reprint of the Wanganui District Council (Prohibition of Gang Insignia) Act 2009. The reprint incorporates all the amendments to the Act as at 1 July 2013, as specified in the list of amendments at the end of these notes.

Relevant provisions of any amending enactments that contain transitional, savings, or application provisions that cannot be compiled in the reprint are also included, after the principal enactment, in chronological order. For more information, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/reprints/>.

2 Status of reprints

Under section 16D of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, reprints are presumed to correctly state, as at the date of the reprint, the law enacted by the principal enactment and by the amendments to that enactment. This presumption applies even though editorial changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in the reprint.

This presumption may be rebutted by producing the official volumes of statutes or statutory regulations in which the principal enactment and its amendments are contained.

3 How reprints are prepared

A number of editorial conventions are followed in the preparation of reprints. For example, the enacting words are not included in Acts, and provisions that are repealed or revoked are omitted. For a detailed list of the editorial conventions, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/editorial-conventions/> or Part 8 of the Tables of New Zealand Acts and Ordinances and Statutory Regulations and Deemed Regulations in Force.

4 Changes made under section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989

Section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 authorises the making of editorial changes in a reprint as set out in sections 17D and 17E of that Act so that, to the extent permitted, the format and style of the reprinted enactment is consistent with current legislative drafting practice. Changes that would alter the effect of the legislation are not permitted. A new format of legislation was introduced on 1 January 2000. Changes to legislative drafting style have also been made since 1997, and are ongoing. To the extent permitted by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, all legislation reprinted after 1 January 2000 is in the new format for legislation and reflects current drafting practice at the time of the reprint.

In outline, the editorial changes made in reprints under the authority of section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 are set out below, and they have been applied, where relevant, in the preparation of this reprint:

- omission of unnecessary referential words (such as “of this section” and “of this Act”)
- typeface and type size (Times Roman, generally in 11.5 point)
- layout of provisions, including:
 - indentation
 - position of section headings (eg, the number and heading now appear above the section)
- format of definitions (eg, the defined term now appears in bold type, without quotation marks)
- format of dates (eg, a date formerly expressed as “the 1st day of January 1999” is now expressed as “1 January 1999”)

- position of the date of assent (it now appears on the front page of each Act)
- punctuation (eg, colons are not used after definitions)
- Parts numbered with roman numerals are replaced with arabic numerals, and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- case and appearance of letters and words, including:
 - format of headings (eg, headings where each word formerly appeared with an initial capital letter followed by small capital letters are amended so that the heading appears in bold, with only the first word (and any proper nouns) appearing with an initial capital letter)
 - small capital letters in section and subsection references are now capital letters
- schedules are renumbered (eg, Schedule 1 replaces First Schedule), and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- running heads (the information that appears at the top of each page)
- format of two-column schedules of consequential amendments, and schedules of repeals (eg, they are rearranged into alphabetical order, rather than chronological).
