Note

Changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in this reprint.

A general outline of these changes is set out in the notes at the end of this reprint, together with other explanatory material about this reprint.

An Act to close the burial ground on the grounds of St John's Anglican Church, Johnsonville, in the City of Wellington; and to empower The Wellington Diocesan Board of Trustees to remove all headstones, monuments, and grave surrounds, to level and plant the ground, and to erect a monument common to all persons interred in the said burial ground

Preamble

Whereas The Wellington Diocesan Board of Trustees, a body incorporated pursuant to the provisions of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957, is registered as the proprietor of an estate in fee simple in all that piece of land more particularly hereinafter described: And whereas the said piece of land has been used as a burial ground: And whereas the Trustees have experienced difficulty in keeping the said piece of land and the headstones, monuments, and grave surrounds thereon in a neat and tidy condition: And whereas it is expedient that the said headstones, monuments, and grave surrounds should be removed and the said piece of land levelled and laid out in lawns with ornamental trees and shrubs: And whereas the Trustees have no power without legislation to give effect to their wishes.

1 Short Title

This Act may be cited as the St John's Anglican Church (Parochial District of Johnsonville) Burial Ground Act 1964.

2 Interpretation

In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,— the said piece of land means the burial ground forming part of the St John's Anglican Church property on the corner of Bassett Road and Middleton Road, Johnsonville, in the City of Wellington, being part of section 13, Porirua District, Block XI, Belmont Survey District, containing 3 roods 28.4 perches, more or less, and being Lot 2 on Land Transfer Plan No 26113, and being part of the land comprised and described in certificate of title, Volume 623, folio 79, Wellington Registry the Trustees means The Wellington Diocesan Board of Trustees duly incorporated pursuant to The Charitable Trusts Act 1957.

3 Closing burial ground

The burial ground on the said piece of land shall, as from the passing of this Act, be deemed to have been closed in accordance with the provisions of the Cemeteries Act 1908 and thenceforth, notwithstanding the provisions of that Act, no further interment of bodies shall take place therein.

4 Power to remove headstones, etc

The Trustees may and they are hereby empowered to remove all headstones, monuments, and grave surrounds at present erected on the said piece of land.

5 Records to be kept

The Trustees shall cause to be kept as complete a record as possible of the names of all persons known to be buried in the said piece of land and of the position in the same of the graves of such persons, and such record shall be available for inspection at the offices of the Trustees at all reasonable times.

6 Land to be laid out and kept tidy and common memorial to be erected

The Trustees shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the removal of the said headstones, monuments, and grave surrounds, cause the said piece of land to be levelled and planted in grass, trees, and shrubs, and shall, at all times thereafter, cause the said piece of land to be kept in a tidy condition, and also shall cause to be erected on the said piece of land a suitable memorial inscribed with the names of the persons known to be interred therein.

7 Remains not to be removed nor land used except as closed burial ground

Nothing herein shall empower or be deemed to empower the Trustees to remove or disturb the remains of any persons buried in the said piece of land nor to dispose of the said piece of land nor to use the same for any purpose other than as a closed burial ground.

8 Private Act

This Act is hereby declared to be a private Act.

Notes

1 General

This is a reprint of the St John's Anglican Church (Parochial District of Johnsonville) Burial Ground Act 1964. The reprint incorporates all the amendments to the Act as at 14 November 1964, as specified in the list of amendments at the end of these notes.

Relevant provisions of any amending enactments that contain transitional, savings, or application provisions that cannot be compiled in the reprint are also included, after the principal enactment, in chronological order. For more information, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/reprints/>.

2 Status of reprints

Under section 16D of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, reprints are presumed to correctly state, as at the date of the reprint, the law enacted by the principal enactment and by the amendments to that enactment. This presumption applies even though editorial changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in the reprint.

This presumption may be rebutted by producing the official volumes of statutes or statutory regulations in which the principal enactment and its amendments are contained.

3 How reprints are prepared

A number of editorial conventions are followed in the preparation of reprints. For example, the enacting words are not included in Acts, and provisions that are repealed or revoked are omitted. For a detailed list of the editorial conventions, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/editorial-conventions/> or Part 8 of the Tables of New Zealand Acts and Ordinances and Statutory Regulations and Deemed Regulations in Force.

4 Changes made under section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989

Section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 authorises the making of editorial changes in a reprint as set out in sections 17D and 17E of that Act so that, to the extent permitted, the format and style of the reprinted enactment is consistent with current legislative drafting practice. Changes that would alter the effect of the legislation are not permitted. A new format of legislation was introduced on 1 January 2000. Changes to legislative drafting style have also been made since 1997, and are ongoing. To the extent permitted by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, all legislation reprinted after 1 January 2000 is in the new format for legislation and reflects current drafting practice at the time of the reprint.

In outline, the editorial changes made in reprints under the authority of section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 are set out below, and they have been applied, where relevant, in the preparation of this reprint:

- omission of unnecessary referential words (such as “of this section” and “of this Act”)
- typeface and type size (Times Roman, generally in 11.5 point)
- layout of provisions, including:
 - indentation
 - position of section headings (eg, the number and heading now appear above the section)
- format of definitions (eg, the defined term now appears in bold type, without quotation marks)

- format of dates (eg, a date formerly expressed as “the 1st day of January 1999” is now expressed as “1 January 1999”)
- position of the date of assent (it now appears on the front page of each Act)
- punctuation (eg, colons are not used after definitions)
- Parts numbered with roman numerals are replaced with arabic numerals, and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- case and appearance of letters and words, including:
 - format of headings (eg, headings where each word formerly appeared with an initial capital letter followed by small capital letters are amended so that the heading appears in bold, with only the first word (and any proper nouns) appearing with an initial capital letter)
 - small capital letters in section and subsection references are now capital letters
- schedules are renumbered (eg, Schedule 1 replaces First Schedule), and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- running heads (the information that appears at the top of each page)
- format of two-column schedules of consequential amendments, and schedules of repeals (eg, they are rearranged into alphabetical order, rather than chronological).
