3 Administration

- (1) This Act is administered as follows:
 - (a) Parts 2 and 2A are administered in the Ministry of Health;
 - (b) the rest of this Act is administered in the department for the time being responsible for the administration of the Social Security Act 2018.
- (2) The Director-General, under the general direction and control of the Minister—
 - (a) carries out the administration of provisions of this Act; and
 - (b) exercises all the powers conferred on the Director-General by this Act.

Section 3: substituted, on 1 October 1999, by section 13 of the Department of Child, Youth and Family Services Act 1999 (1999 No 82).

Section 3(1)(b): amended, on 26 November 2018, by section 459 of the Social Security Act 2018 (2018 No 32).

3A Effect on Disabled Persons Employment Promotion Act 1960

Nothing in this Act restricts—

- (a) the Disabled Persons Employment Promotion Act 1960; or
- (b) any Act providing for the rehabilitation and placement in employment of sick or disabled persons.

Section 3A: inserted, on 16 December 1997, by section 3(1) of the Disabled Persons Community Welfare Amendment Act 1997 (1997 No 69).

4 Aims of Minister and Director-General

Without limiting in any way the functions and powers conferred on the Minister or on the Director-General by this Act, the aims of the Minister and the Director-General in the exercise of those functions and powers shall include—

- (a) to assist and encourage disabled persons to become socially and financially independent:
- (b) to promote schemes providing for the assessment, work experience, training, sheltered employment, and other suitable activities of disabled persons:
- (c) to promote the general well-being, recreational opportunities, and welfare in the community of disabled persons by assisting individuals, families, and sections of the community to overcome social problems associated with physical or mental handicap:
- (d) to assist voluntary or charitable organisations engaged in the provision of services and facilities for the welfare in the community of disabled persons:
- (e) to foster close working relationships, and (as appropriate) consult, with government departments, district health boards, and other bodies, organisations, and professions concerned with rehabilitation and training of disabled persons and their placement in employment:
- (f) to co-operate with the Accident Compensation Corporation under the Accident Compensation Act 2001 in so far as its responsibilities relate to the promotion of the rehabilitation of persons who suffer personal injury for which they have cover under that Act:
- (g) to promote the co-ordination of services and facilities within the community designed to advance the welfare of disabled persons:
- (h) to encourage and stimulate public interest in the provision of services and facilities for the welfare in the community of disabled persons.

Section 4(e): amended, on 1 January 2001, by section 111(1) of the New Zealand Public Health and Disability Act 2000 (2000 No 91).

Section 4(f): substituted, on 1 April 2002, by section 337(1) of the Accident Compensation Act 2001 (2001 No 49).

Section 4(f): amended, on 3 March 2010, pursuant to section 5(1)(b) of the Accident Compensation Amendment Act 2010 (2010 No 1).

5 Delegation of functions and powers by Director-General

- (1) With the written consent of the Minister, the Director-General may from time to time, either generally or particularly, delegate to such department of State, body corporate, or other agent (whether or not a body corporate) as he thinks fit all or any of the functions and powers exercisable by him under this Act, but (except as provided in subsection (2)) not including this present power of delegation.

- (2) In the case of any such delegation to the Accident Compensation Corporation,—
 - (a) the Director-General must consult the chairperson of the Accident Compensation Corporation as to the terms and conditions of the delegation before he or she makes it:
 - (b) the delegation may authorise the Corporation to subdelegate all or any of the functions and powers delegated to it to any of its agents appointed under clause 25 of Schedule 5 of the Accident Compensation Act 2001 and (subject to the provisions of this Act) the provisions of that clause apply to any such subdelegation as if it were a delegation under that clause.
- (3) Subject to any general or special directions given or conditions attached by the Director-General, the department of State, body corporate, or agent to which or to whom any powers are delegated or subdelegated under this section may exercise those powers in the same manner and with the same effect as if they had been conferred on it or him directly by this section and not by delegation.
- (4) Every department of State, body corporate, and agent purporting to act pursuant to any delegation or subdelegation under this section shall be presumed to be acting in accordance with the terms of the delegation or subdelegation in the absence of proof to the contrary.
- (5) Any delegation under this section may be made to a specified person or to persons of a specified class, or may be made to the holder or holders for the time being of a specified office or class of offices.
- (6) Any delegation or subdelegation under this section shall, with the written consent of the Minister, be revocable at will, and no such delegation or subdelegation shall prevent the exercise of any power by the Director-General.
- (7) Any such delegation shall, until revoked, continue in force according to its tenor, notwithstanding that the Director-General by whom it was made may have ceased to hold office, and shall continue to have effect as if made by the successor in office of that Director-General.
- (8) The Director-General may grant to any department of State, body corporate, or other agent such sums as may reasonably be required to enable it or him to exercise any functions or powers conferred on it or him by the Director-General under this section.

Section 5(2): substituted, on 1 July 1999, by section 415(1) of the Accident Insurance Act 1998 (1998 No 114).

Section 5(2)(b): amended, on 3 March 2010, pursuant to section 5(1)(b) of the Accident Compensation Amendment Act 2010 (2010 No 1).

Section 5(2)(b): amended, on 1 April 2002, by section 337(1) of the Accident Compensation Act 2001 (2001 No 49).

5A Exercise of Director-General's discretion

In the exercise of his or her powers of discretion under this Act, the Director-General shall have regard to the income and assets of the disabled person and his or her spouse or partner, and, in the case of a disabled child, the income and assets of that child's parents and any other person who is liable in law to maintain that child.

Section 5A: inserted, on 1 October 1991, by section 2 of the Disabled Persons Community Welfare Amendment Act 1991 (1991 No 79).

25C Procedure and time limits for applying for review

- (1) An application for a review must—
 - (a) be made to the Director-General; and
 - (b) be in writing; and
 - (c) contain an address at which the applicant wishes to receive correspondence relating to the review.
- (2) An applicant for a review may at any time change the address for correspondence by notifying the Director-General in writing of the new address.
- (3) An application for a review must be made within 3 months of the latest of the following dates:

- (a) the date on which a copy of the disability services needs assessment is given or sent to the person; or
 - (b) the date on which the person enters residential care; or
 - (c) the date on which the Minister of Health—
 - (i) enters into a Crown funding agreement with a service provider to provide residential care services to the person; or
 - (ii) enters into a Crown funding agreement in renewal of or substitution for a previous agreement, being a renewed or substituted agreement that contains a change in the residential care services to be provided to the person; or
 - (d) the date on which a district health board—
 - (i) enters into a service agreement or an arrangement of the kind described in section 88 of the New Zealand Public Health and Disability Act 2000 with a service provider to provide residential care services to the person; or
 - (ii) enters into a service agreement or into an arrangement of that kind in renewal of or substitution for a previous service agreement or arrangement, being a renewed or substituted agreement or arrangement that contains a change in the residential care services to be provided to the person.
- (4) The Director-General may accept an application for a review after the time stated in subsection (3) if the Director-General is satisfied that there is good reason for the delay.

Section 25C: substituted, on 1 January 2001, by section 111(1) of the New Zealand Public Health and Disability Act 2000 (2000 No 91).

25D Director-General to appoint disability services review officers

- (1) The Director-General must appoint a sufficient number of persons to conduct reviews.
- (2) Every review officer must—
 - (a) be suitable, in the opinion of the Director-General, to conduct reviews; and
 - (b) be experienced in relation to the provision of disability services; and
 - (c) have a recognised qualification relating to the provision of disability services.
- (3) A review officer may be either—
 - (a) an employee of the Ministry of Health; or
 - (b) a person engaged by the Director-General to conduct a particular review or reviews generally. The person may carry out other functions for the Ministry of Health.

- (4) A review officer must not conduct a review if he or she was connected in any material way with—
- (a) any disability services needs assessment made for the person; or
 - (b) the entry into residential care of the person; or
 - (c) any Crown funding agreement or service agreement or an arrangement of the kind described in section 88 of the New Zealand Public Health and Disability Act 2000 for residential care services for the person.
- (5) The Ministry of Health must supply all the secretarial and administrative services that the review officer needs to carry out his or her functions.

Section 25D: substituted, on 1 January 2001, by section 111(1) of the New Zealand Public Health and Disability Act 2000 (2000 No 91).

25E Conduct of review

- (1) A review officer appointed to conduct a review must have regard to—
- (a) the application for the review and any written submissions made by or on behalf of the person; and
 - (b) any relevant disability services needs assessment in respect of the person; and
 - (c) any explanation or submissions made by the Ministry of Health or any person who assessed the needs of the person.
- (2) A review officer is not required to hold an oral hearing for the purposes of a review but may do so if he or she thinks fit, and may from time to time adjourn the hearing.
- (3) A review officer may request any person to attend before him or her to answer any questions or provide any information relevant to the review.
- (4) A person requested to attend before a review officer—
- (a) is under no compulsion to do so; and
 - (b) has the same privileges in relation to answering questions put by the review officer or providing information to the review officer as witnesses have in courts of law.

Section 25E: inserted, on 16 December 1997, by section 6(1) of the Disabled Persons Community Welfare Amendment Act 1997 (1997 No 69).

Section 25E(1)(c): amended, on 1 January 2001, by section 111(1) of the New Zealand Public Health and Disability Act 2000 (2000 No 91).

25F Outcome of review

- (1) A review officer who has conducted a review must, after considering the matter, either—
- (a) make such recommendations as he or she thinks fit to the Ministry of Health concerning any 1 or more of the following matters:
 - (i) the disability services needs assessment in respect of the person:

- (ii) the residential care of the person:
 - (iii) the residential care services provided to the person; or
 - (b) decide to make no recommendation concerning the subject matter of the review.
- (2) A review officer must notify the applicant for the review of—
 - (a) any recommendation or decision made by the review officer; and
 - (b) the reasons for any such recommendation or decision.
- (3) The Ministry of Health has a public duty to—
 - (a) consider the recommendation and the reasons for it; and
 - (b) take such action in respect of it as the Ministry of Health considers appropriate; and
 - (c) notify the applicant for the review of the action it has taken.
- (4) Every notification under this section to the applicant for the review must—
 - (a) be in writing; and
 - (b) be—
 - (i) delivered personally to the applicant; or
 - (ii) left at the last address for correspondence notified to the Ministry of Health under section 25C(1) or (2); or
 - (iii) posted in a letter addressed to the applicant at that address.
- (5) The Ministry of Health must include in its annual report a statement setting out, in respect of the year to which the report relates, the following information in relation to reviews:
 - (a) the number and nature of the applications that have been made; and
 - (b) the number in which recommendations have been made to the Ministry of Health and a summary of those recommendations; and
 - (c) the number of recommendations acted upon by the Ministry of Health and a summary of the actions taken by the Ministry of Health.

Part 3

Vocational training of the disabled

26 Programme for vocational training

- (1) The Director-General shall, under the general direction and control of the Minister, administer a programme for the training, sheltered employment, and day care of disabled persons.
- (2) The Director-General shall make such arrangements as he considers necessary—
 - (a) for disabled persons to—
 - (i) undergo assessment, and undertake work experience or training, for employment:
 - (ii) receive education or technical training with a view to employment:
 - (iii) obtain practical experience necessary in each case to qualify the disabled person to undertake any employment that, in the opinion of the Director-General, is suitable having regard to any educational qualifications, skill, or aptitude of that disabled person:
 - (iv) undertake employment in a sheltered workshop:
 - (b) to enable disabled persons to attend an occupational centre for day care.
- (3) For the purpose of the foregoing provisions of this section the Director-General may:
 - (a) grant financial assistance towards the expenses of any disabled person undergoing any period of assessment, work experience, training, or education:
 - (b) grant financial assistance towards travelling and accommodation expenses of any disabled person to whom the provisions of paragraph (a) apply in cases where the person is required to reside away from his ordinary place of residence:
 - (c) grant financial assistance towards the cost of training or education or clothing, or the obtaining of practical experience or equipment, necessary to enable any disabled person to engage in any occupation that in the opinion of the Director-General is suitable:

- (d) set up or arrange for facilities for research into aspects of training, sheltered employment, and day care:
 - (e) provide for the instruction and training of staff engaged in the provision of training, sheltered employment, and day care facilities for disabled persons:
 - (f) provide, equip, and administer buildings and institutions for the establishment of facilities for the training, sheltered employment, and day care of disabled persons:
 - (g) appoint or approve the appointment of suitably qualified staff necessary to operate any establishment administered by the Director-General under this Act:
 - (h) provide, or arrange, in consultation with the chief executive of the Department of Labour, for selected disabled persons, including persons selected under section 16, to undertake training or work experience in any office, factory, or other place of employment; and in doing so require that the terms and conditions of the placement of the persons with an employer be the subject of an agreement between—
 - (i) the Director-General or any department of State, body corporate, or agent authorised by the Director-General under section 5; and
 - (ii) that employer; and
 - (iii) such union registered under the Employment Relations Act 2000 as the Director-General may specify.
 - (i) [Repealed]
- (4) In determining the extent of any financial assistance for disabled persons under subsection (3), the chief executive of the department for the time being responsible for the administration of the Social Security Act 2018 may have regard to any assistance provided under the Accident Compensation Act 2001 or from any other source.

Section 26(3)(h): amended, on 16 October 1989, pursuant to section 2(8) of the Labour Department Act Repeal Act 1989 (1989 No 82).

Section 26(3)(h)(iii): substituted, on 2 October 2000, by section 240 of the Employment Relations Act 2000 (2000 No 24).

Section 26(4): substituted, on 1 July 1999, by section 415(1) of the Accident Insurance Act 1998 (1998 No 114).

Section 26(4): amended, on 26 November 2018, by section 459 of the Social Security Act 2018 (2018 No 32).

Section 26(4): amended, on 3 March 2010, pursuant to section 5(2) of the Accident Compensation Amendment Act 2010 (2010 No 1).

Section 26(4): amended, on 1 April 2002, by section 337(1) of the Accident Compensation Act 2001 (2001 No 49).

27 Financial assistance to approved agencies

- (1) Subject to any general or special directions that he may give, the Director-General may from time to time grant financial assistance towards:
 - (a) the remuneration of authorised staff of approved voluntary or charitable organisations engaged in the training, sheltered employment, and day care of disabled persons, or in operating sheltered workshops or occupational centres for the disabled:
 - (b) the provision of buildings and equipment required by approved voluntary or charitable organisations for the purpose of the training, sheltered employment, and day care of the disabled, or in connection with the operation of sheltered workshops or occupational centres for the disabled:
 - (c) the provision of buildings and equipment and financial assistance required by approved co-operatives or any other approved organisations established for the purpose of providing full-time or part-time employment for disabled persons:
 - (d) the provision of financial assistance to enable a disabled person to become self-employed.
- (2) If the organisation or co-operative to which any financial assistance under this section has been made sells or otherwise disposes of its buildings and equipment or ceases to provide services of a nature or standard consistent with the conditions under which the grant was made, the Minister may direct the Director-General to take such action as the Minister considers justified and possible to obtain repayment of that grant in part or in full.

28 Rehabilitation allowance

- (1) In any case where a disabled person is undertaking assessment, work experience, education, or training for employment in an organisation carrying out an approved training programme under this Part, the Director-General may, in his discretion, grant a rehabilitation allowance to that person.
- (2) Any rehabilitation allowance granted under this section shall be at a rate determined to be appropriate in the circumstances by the Director-General, but shall not in any case exceed the maximum rate that may from time to time be prescribed by regulations made under section 31.
- (3) Amendment(s) incorporated in the Act(s).

Part 4 General provisions

29 Financial provisions

There shall from time to time be paid out of a Crown Bank Account, from money appropriated by Parliament for the purposes of this Act, all remuneration ation, allowances, and other expenditure payable or incurred under or in the administration of this Act.

Section 29: amended, on 25 January 2005, pursuant to section 83(7) of the Public Finance Act 1989 (1989 No 44).

30 Provisions in special circumstances

- (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, the Minister may make such special arrangements as in the circumstances he considers advisable, for the purpose of providing that adequate services instead of or in addition to the assistance provided for by this Act, will be made available for the benefit of any person or classes of persons.
- (2) The Minister may, from time to time as occasion requires in any particular case or class of case, make such special arrangements as in his opinion are necessary for the effective operation of this Act and of any regulations made pursuant to section 31.
- (3) All fees and other money payable in respect of any arrangements made under this section shall be paid by the Director-General.

30A Effect of depriving oneself of income or assets

- (1) If the Director-General is satisfied that any person whose assets or income affect the exercise of the Director-General's discretion under section 5A has directly or indirectly deprived himself or herself of any income or assets which results in the applicant becoming entitled to receive assistance under this Act, the Director-General may, in the Director-General's discretion, refuse to grant, reduce, or terminate any assistance to the applicant.
- (2) If any person whose assets or income affect the exercise of the Director-General's discretion under section 5A—
 - (a) lets his or her home; or
 - (b) sells it on terms that—
 - (i) provide for the payment of the whole or any part of the purchase money by instalments; or
 - (ii) secure the whole or any part of the purchase money by mortgage—

the Director-General may, in the Director-General's discretion, set off against the rent or interest that person derives from letting or selling his or her home—

- (c) any rent payable by that person in respect of the tenancy of another home:
- (d) any interest payable, or unpaid purchase money owing, by that person in respect of the purchase of another home:
- (e) any interest payable by that person, or any money advanced to that person, for the purchase of another home:

- (f) any money payable by that person in respect of his or her board, lodging, or maintenance, whether in a private home or in any public or private institution.

Section 30A: inserted, on 1 October 1991, by section 5 of the Disabled Persons Community Welfare Amendment Act 1991 (1991 No 79).

31 Regulations

The Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council, make regulations for all or any of the following purposes:

- (a) prescribing the maximum amount of the payments, and conditions in respect of the payments, to be made by the Director-General in respect of financial assistance provided for by this Act or by any regulations made under this Act to disabled persons and other persons:
- (b) prescribing the terms and conditions under which financial assistance may be granted to voluntary and charitable organisations under this Act:
- (c) prescribing the terms and conditions under which special arrangements may be made under section 26(2):
- (d) [Repealed]
- (e) [Repealed]
- (f) prescribing the conditions under which the staff of voluntary or charitable organisations may be regarded as authorised for the purposes of section 27(1)(a):
- (g) providing for the release of medical or other information necessary for the Director-General to carry out his functions under this Act:
- (h) prescribing the maximum rates of rehabilitation allowances:
- (i) prescribing fees for the registration of homes under section 18:
- (j) prescribing income tests or assets tests in relation to the receiving of financial assistance under this Act:
- (k) providing for such matters as are contemplated by or necessary for giving full effect to this Act and for its due administration.

Section 31(d): repealed, on 1 October 2004, by section 59(1) of the Health and Disability Services (Safety) Act 2001 (2001 No 93).

Section 31(e): repealed, on 1 October 2004, by section 59(1) of the Health and Disability Services (Safety) Act 2001 (2001 No 93).
