Section 4(a): amended, on 26 March 2015, by section 5 of the Local Government Official Information and Meetings Amendment Act 2015 (2015 No 23).

Part 1

Access to local authority information

5 Principle of availability

The question whether any official information is to be made available, where that question arises under this Act, shall be determined, except where this Act otherwise expressly requires, in accordance with the purposes of this Act and the principle that the information shall be made available unless there is good reason for withholding it.

Compare: 1982 No 156 s 5

6 Conclusive reasons for withholding official information

Good reason for withholding official information exists, for the purpose of section 5, if the making available of that information would be likely—

- (a) to prejudice the maintenance of the law, including the prevention, investigation, and detection of offences, and the right to a fair trial; or
- (b) to endanger the safety of any person.

Compare: 1982 No 156 s 6(c), (d); 1987 No 8 s 3

7 Other reasons for withholding official information

- (1) Where this section applies, good reason for withholding official information exists, for the purpose of section 5, unless, in the circumstances of the particular case, the withholding of that information is outweighed by other considerations which render it desirable, in the public interest, to make that information available.
- (2) Subject to sections 6, 8, and 17, this section applies if, and only if, the withholding of the information is necessary to—
 - (a) protect the privacy of natural persons, including that of deceased natural persons; or
 - (b) protect information where the making available of the information—
 - (i) would disclose a trade secret; or
 - (ii) would be likely unreasonably to prejudice the commercial position of the person who supplied or who is the subject of the information; or
 - (ba) in the case only of an application for a resource consent, or water conservation order, or a requirement for a designation or heritage order, under the Resource Management Act 1991, to avoid serious offence to tikanga Maori, or to avoid the disclosure of the location of waahi tapu; or
 - (c) protect information which is subject to an obligation of confidence or which any person has been or could be compelled to provide under the authority of any enactment, where the making available of the information—
 - (i) would be likely to prejudice the supply of similar information, or information from the same source, and it is in the public interest that such information should continue to be supplied; or
 - (ii) would be likely otherwise to damage the public interest; or
 - (d) avoid prejudice to measures protecting the health or safety of members of the public; or

- (e) avoid prejudice to measures that prevent or mitigate material loss to members of the public; or
- (f) maintain the effective conduct of public affairs through—
 - (i) the free and frank expression of opinions by or between or to members or officers or employees of any local authority, or any persons to whom section 2(5) applies, in the course of their duty; or
 - (ii) the protection of such members, officers, employees, and persons from improper pressure or harassment; or
- (g) maintain legal professional privilege; or
- (h) enable any local authority holding the information to carry out, without prejudice or disadvantage, commercial activities; or
- (i) enable any local authority holding the information to carry on, without prejudice or disadvantage, negotiations (including commercial and industrial negotiations); or
- (j) prevent the disclosure or use of official information for improper gain or improper advantage.

Compare: 1982 No 156 s 9; 1987 No 8 ss 4(2), 5

Section 7(2)(ba): inserted, on 1 October 1991, by section 362 of the Resource Management Act 1991 (1991 No 69).

8 Information concerning existence of certain information

Where a request under this Act relates to information to which section 6 or section 7(2)(b) applies, or would, if it existed, apply, the local authority dealing with the request may, if it is satisfied that the interest protected by section 6 or section 7(2)(b) would be likely to be prejudiced by the disclosure of the existence or non-existence of such information, give notice in writing to the applicant that it neither confirms nor denies the existence or non-existence of that information.

Compare: 1982 No 156 s 10; 1987 No 8 s 4(2)

9 Exclusion of public interest immunity

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the rule of law which authorises or requires the withholding of any document, or the refusal to answer any question, on the ground that the disclosure of the document or the answering of the question would be injurious to the public interest shall not apply in respect of—
 - (a) an investigation by or proceedings before an Ombudsman in relation to any decision under this Act; or
 - (b) any application under section 8 of the Judicial Review Procedure Act 2016 for the review of any decision under this Act;—

but not so as to give any party any information that that party would not, apart from this section, be entitled to.

- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) affects—
- (a) section 31; or
 - (b) section 20(1) of the Ombudsmen Act 1975.

Compare: 1982 No 156 s 11

- (2) The official information requested shall be specified with due particularity in the request.

- (b) in making a request under section 10, has not made that request in accordance with that section; or
- (c) has not made that person's request to the appropriate local authority or department or Minister of the Crown or organisation,— to make a request in a manner that is in accordance with that section or to direct that person's request to the appropriate local authority or department or Minister of the Crown or organisation.

Compare: 1982 No 156 s 13

12 Transfer of requests

Where—

- (a) a request in accordance with section 10 is made to any local authority; and
- (b) the information, or some of the information, to which the request relates—
 - (i) is not held by that local authority but is believed by the person dealing with the request to be held by another local authority or a department or Minister of the Crown or organisation; or

- (a) decide whether the request is to be granted and, if it is to be granted, in what manner and for what charge (if any); and
 - (b) give or post to the person who made the request notice of the decision on the request.
- (1A) Subject to section 23, every local authority (including a local authority whose activities are funded in whole or in part by another person) may charge for the supply of official information under this Act.
- (2) Any charge for the supply of official information under this Act shall not exceed the prescribed amount.

- (4) The local authority may require that the whole or part of any charge be paid in advance.
- (5) Where a request in accordance with section 10 is made or transferred to a local authority, the decision on that request shall be made by the chief executive of that local authority or an officer or employee of that local authority authorised by that chief executive unless that request is transferred in accordance with section 12 to another local authority or to a department, Minister of the Crown, or organisation.
- (6) Nothing in subsection (5) prevents the chief executive of a local authority or any officer or employee of a local authority from consulting a local authority or any other person in relation to the decision that the chief executive or officer or employee proposes to make on any request made to the local authority in accordance with section 10 or transferred to the local authority in accordance with section 12 of this Act or section 14 of the Official Information Act 1982.
- (7) If a request (the original request) is amended or clarified after the date on which it is received, the local authority that receives the request may treat the amended or clarified request as a new request that, for the purposes of subsection (1), replaces the original request.
- (8) However, subsection (7) does not apply if—
- (a) the original request is amended or clarified because the local authority sought an amendment to, or a clarification of, the request; and
