 - (6) Where an instrument received by the Registrar for registration under section 16(1) is a spectrum licence in a form prescribed for the purposes of section 48,—
 - (a) the Registrar may require the Secretary to provide to the Registrar a certificate stating whether or not the exercise of the rights to which the spectrum licence relates will cause harmful interference to the exercise of any rights conferred by any spectrum licence or radio licence that is not available for search by virtue of section 28; and
 - (b) if any such certificate states that harmful interference will, or is likely to, occur, the Registrar must decline to register the spectrum licence, and must return the spectrum licence in accordance with section 18(a).
 - (7) Except as provided in subsections (1) to (6), it is not the duty of the Registrar to determine whether or not the exercise of any or all of the rights to which a Section 57C: amended, on 19 December 2002, by section 5 of the Radiocommunications Amendment Act 2002 (2002 No 74).

57D Registrar's duties in relation to registration of modification or cancellation of spectrum licence

- (1) Where an instrument received by the Registrar for registration under section 16(1) is a modification to a spectrum licence or the cancellation of a spectrum licence, the Registrar must not register that modification or cancellation unless that modification or cancellation is in the prescribed form.
- (2) Where an instrument is a modification to the spectrum licence that proposes to modify the frequency band specified in the spectrum licence by including any frequency not within the range of frequencies on the record of management rights to which the spectrum licence relates, the Registrar must decline to register that modification to the spectrum licence and must return the modification to the spectrum licence in accordance with section 18(a).
- (3) Where—

- (a) an instrument is a modification to the spectrum licence that proposes to modify the unwanted emission limits specified in the spectrum licence or include unwanted emission limits in the spectrum licence; and
- (b) any frequency to which the unwanted emission limits specified in the modification to the spectrum licence apply is a frequency subject to the adjacent frequencies emission limit specified in the record of management rights to which the spectrum licence relates; and
- (c) the maximum power of emissions specified as being permitted on that frequency exceeds the adjacent frequencies emission limit for that frequency in the record of management rights,— the Registrar must decline to register that modification to the spectrum licence and must return the modification to the spectrum licence in accordance with section 18(a).

- (4) The Registrar must not register any modification to a spectrum licence, other than a modification to any of the matters referred to in paragraphs (a), (g), (h), or (i) of section 49(1), unless the Registrar receives, from or on behalf of the applicant for registration, a certificate from an approved radio engineer dated not more than 3 months before the receipt of that certificate by the Registrar.
- (5) The radio engineer's certificate must certify that, in the opinion of that engineer, the exercise of rights to which the spectrum licence, as modified, relates—
 - (a) will not endanger the functioning of any radionavigation service; and
 - (b) will not endanger the functioning of any radio service essential to the protection of life and property; and
 - (c) will not cause harmful interference to rights conferred by registered spectrum or radio licences; and
 - (d) is technically compatible with services authorised to be operated under existing spectrum licences and radio licences; and
 - (e) will sufficiently define the protection area and the nature and characteristics of the proposed transmissions to enable subsequent spectrum licences and radio licences to be co-ordinated with the exercise of rights to which the spectrum licence relates for the purpose of avoiding harmful interference.
- (6) Where a modification to a spectrum licence is received by the Registrar,—
 - (a) the Registrar may require the Secretary to provide to the Registrar a certificate stating whether or not the exercise of the rights to which the spectrum licence, as modified, relates will cause harmful interference to the exercise of any rights conferred by any spectrum licence or radio licence that is not available for search under section 28(3); and
 - (b) if any such certificate states that harmful interference will, or is likely to, occur, the Registrar must decline to register the modification to the spectrum licence, and must return the modification to the spectrum licence in accordance with section 18(a).

- (7) The Registrar must not register a modification to a spectrum licence that purports to alter a provision of that spectrum licence relating to the cancellation of that licence.
- (8) Except as provided in subsections (1) to (7), it is not the duty of the Registrar to determine whether or not the effect of any modification to a spectrum licence received for registration under section 16(1) is to make the exercise of all or any of the rights conferred by that spectrum licence technically compatible with the exercise of any rights by any person under any spectrum licence or any radio licence.

Section 57D: inserted, on 12 October 2001, by section 25 of the Radiocommunications Amendment Act 2000 (2000 No 8).

57E Matters relevant to radio engineer's certificate under section 57D

A radio engineer issuing a certificate under section 57D—

- (a) must, before issuing the certificate, have regard to—
- (i) the nature and characteristics of the rights described in the spectrum licence; and
 - (ii) the International Radio Regulations; and
 - (iii) the ITU-R reports and recommendations; and
 - (iv) Annex 10 of the Convention on International Civil Aviation; and
 - (v) the International Convention for the Safety of Life at Sea; and
 - (vi) the nature of the service proposed to be operated under the spectrum licence; and
 - (vii) any relevant reference standards issued by the Secretary; but
- (b) must not, in considering whether to issue the certificate, have regard to the reception of radio waves by inappropriate receivers.

Section 57E: inserted, on 31 October 2006, by section 22 of the Radiocommunications Amendment Act 2006 (2006 No 54).

- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the production of a certified copy of a spectrum licence registered under this Act shall, unless the contrary is proved by production of the register or a certified copy of the register, be held in every court of law or equity and for all purposes to be conclusive proof that the rightholder shown in the certified copy is entitled to the rights of a rightholder in relation to the radio frequency to which the certified copy relates.
- (3) Nothing in subsection (1) or subsection (2) shall apply in respect of any action brought by any person deprived of management rights in relation to any radio frequencies, or of any rights as rightholder in relation to any spectrum licence, or of any rights as mortgagee of any management rights or any spectrum licence, by fraud, as against—
 - (a) the person registered as manager or rightholder through fraud; or
 - (b) a person deriving otherwise than as a transferee bona fide for value from or through a person registered as manager or rightholder through fraud.

- (a) shall be required—
 - (i) to inquire into or ascertain the circumstances in or the consideration for which that manager or any previous manager, or, as the case may require, that rightholder or any previous rightholder, is or was registered; or
 - (ii) to see to the application of the purchase money or of any part of it; or
- (b) shall be affected by notice, direct or constructive, of any trust or unregistered interest, and the knowledge that any such trust or unregistered interest is in existence shall not of itself be imputed as fraud.

- (2) No person to whom this section applies shall be subject to action for recovery of damages, or be deprived of the management rights or spectrum licence in respect of which the person is registered or, as the case may be, that person's interest as mortgagee, on the ground that the vendor from whom the registered manager or rightholder so acquired the management rights or spectrum licence or, as the case may require, the mortgagor of the management rights or spectrum licence—

- (b) who is deprived of any management rights or spectrum licence in respect of which the person is registered as the manager or rightholder, or of any interest as mortgagee of any management rights or spectrum licence, by the registration of any other person as the manager or rightholder of those management rights or that spectrum licence or, as the case may require, as mortgagee of those management rights or that spectrum licence, or by any error, omission, or misdescription in any record of management rights, or in any entry or memorial in the register, or has sustained any loss or damage by the wrongful inclusion of management rights in any record of management rights, and who by virtue of section 58 is unable to bring an action in respect of those management rights or, as the case may require, that spectrum licence or that interest—may bring an action against the Crown for recovery of damages.

Section 61(b): amended, on 12 October 2001, by section 54 of the Radiocommunications Amendment Act 2000 (2000 No 8).

transaction to which this section applies means any agreement or arrangement entered into in respect of any management rights or spectrum licence under this Act whereby one party (in this section referred to as the purchaser) is to acquire or has acquired from the other party (in this section referred to as the vendor) an interest in those management rights or that spectrum licence for valuable consideration.

(2) For the purposes of this section, except as the parties may expressly agree a transaction is settled when the purchaser pays, gives, or otherwise makes available to the vendor the purchase money or other consideration, either in full or to the extent necessary to entitle the purchaser, in terms of the agreement or arrangement relating to the transaction, to call upon the vendor to do everything required of the vendor under that agreement or arrangement to enable the purchaser to register the interest to which the transaction relates.

(3) Any purchaser under a transaction to which this section applies who obtains, at any time during the first operative period, a search copy in respect of the management rights or spectrum licence that is the subject of the transaction and who sustains any loss or damage through the registration or lodging under this Act of any instrument or other document relating to those management rights or that spectrum licence may bring an action against the Crown for the recovery of damages if—

(a) no entry or memorial in the register relating to that registration or lodging appears in the search copy; and

- (b) the registration or lodging was effected at any time before the expiry of the second operative period or the sooner registration of all instruments and other documents necessary to give effect to the transaction.
- (4) For the purposes of an action under this section, the court may, on application made to it in that behalf by the purchaser (whether before or after the expiry of the second operative period), extend the second operative period for such length of time as it thinks just where it is satisfied that the registration of all instruments and other documents giving effect to the transaction have not been registered within that period and that the delay in such registration is attributable otherwise than to the fault of the purchaser, or of the purchaser's solicitor or agents.

Section 62(1) search copy: amended, on 12 October 2001, by section 54 of the Radiocommunications Amendment Act 2000 (2000 No 8).

- (1) Notice in writing of every action against the Crown under section 61 or section 62, and of the cause of the action, and of the amount claimed, shall be served upon the Attorney-General, and also upon the Registrar, at least 20 working days before the commencement of the action.
- (2) If those officers concur that the claim ought to be admitted, as to the whole or any part of the claim, without suit or action, and jointly certify to that effect, the amount of the claim may, without further appropriation than this section, be paid, out of public money appropriated by Parliament, in whole or in part to the person entitled to that amount in accordance with the certificate.
- (3) If, after notice of the admission has been served on the claimant, or the solicitor or agent of the claimant, the claimant proceeds with the action, and recovers no more than the amount admitted, the claimant—
- (a) shall not be entitled to recover any costs as against the Crown; and
 - (b) shall be liable to the Crown for the costs of defending the action in the same manner as if judgment had been given for the defendant in the action.

- (1) Where any sum of money has been lawfully paid out of public money as compensation for any loss occasioned by fraud on the part of any person causing or procuring that person to be registered as manager or rightholder, or as mortgagee of any management rights or spectrum licence, by virtue of any dealing with or transmission from a registered manager or rightholder, the amount of that compensation, together with all costs incurred in testing or defending any claim or action in relation to that compensation, shall be deemed a debt due to the Crown from the person legally responsible for that fraud and may be recovered from that person, or from that person's personal representatives, by action at law, in the name of the Registrar, or, in the case of bankruptcy, may be proved as a debt due from that person's estate.

- (2) A certificate signed by the Minister of Finance, verifying the fact of the payment of compensation out of public money, shall be prima facie proof that such payment was made.
- (3) All money recovered in any action pursuant to subsection (1) shall be paid to the credit of a Crown Bank Account.

- (2) No solicitor shall be held for the purposes of subsection (1) to have acted negligently merely because that solicitor relied on a search copy issued under and for the purposes of section 62 without also searching any other record held by the Registrar unless, in the special circumstances of the case, a prudent and competent solicitor would have searched that record.
- (3) A certificate signed by the Minister of Finance, verifying the fact of the payment of compensation out of public money, shall, for the purposes of this section, be prima facie proof that such payment was made.
- (4) All money recovered in any action pursuant to subsection (1) shall be paid to the credit of a Crown Bank Account.

Section 65(4): amended, on 25 January 2005, pursuant to section 65R(3) of the Public Finance Act 1989 (1989 No 44).

76 Consent to variation of mortgage

A memorandum varying the terms or conditions of any mortgage of any management rights or spectrum licence subject to a subsequent mortgage shall not be binding on any mortgagee unless the mortgagee has consented to that variation in writing on that memorandum, but that consent shall render that memorandum binding on the mortgagee so consenting, and shall be deemed to be notice to and shall be binding on all persons who may subsequently derive from the mortgagee any interest in the mortgaged management rights or spectrum licence.

Section 76: amended, on 12 October 2001, by section 54 of the Radiocommunications Amendment Act 2000 (2000 No 8).

77 Variation of priority of mortgages

- (a) the power to sell the management rights in respect of all or part of the range of frequencies to which the mortgaged management rights relate:

79 Restriction on exercise of power of sale

- (1) Subject to section 81, no power conferred by any mortgage to sell any management rights, or to sell or grant any spectrum licence, or to exercise the rights of a rightholder under a spectrum licence, shall become or be deemed to have become exercisable, by reason of any default in the payment of any money secured by any mortgage of any management rights or any spectrum licence, or by reason of any default in the performance or observance of any other covenant expressed or implied in the mortgage, unless and until the mortgagee serves on the mortgagor a notice that complies with the requirements of this section, and (in any case where the default complained of is capable of remedy) the mortgagor fails to remedy the default before the date specified in the notice.
- (2) Every such notice shall be in the prescribed form; but no notice shall be void merely because of any variation from the prescribed form unless—
 - (a) the notice does not adequately inform the mortgagor of—
 - (i) the nature and extent of the default complained of; and
 - (ii) the date by which the mortgagor is required to remedy the default (if it is capable of remedy); and
 - (iii) the rights that the mortgagee will be entitled to exercise if the default is not remedied within the specified period; and

80 Notice to subsequent mortgagee

- (1) Where any management rights or spectrum licence that are or is subject to a mortgage are or is subject to any subsequent mortgage, and the mortgagee has actual notice of the name and address of the subsequent mortgagee, the first-mentioned mortgagee shall forthwith after serving notice on the mortgagor under section 79 serve a copy of the notice on the subsequent mortgagee.

- (2) Failure to comply with subsection (1) shall not of itself prevent any of the powers referred to in section 79 from becoming or being deemed to have become exercisable, or prevent any money secured by a mortgage from becoming or being deemed to have become payable.

Section 80(1): amended, on 12 October 2001, by section 54 of the Radiocommunications Amendment Act 2000 (2000 No 8).

81 Court may permit mortgagee to exercise power before period expired

- (1) Where any notice under section 79(1) relates to a power to exercise the rights of a rightholder under a spectrum licence, the High Court may, on the application of the mortgagee made ex parte or otherwise as the court thinks fit, grant leave to the mortgagee to exercise the power at any time before the date specified in the notice.
- (2) Leave may be granted under subsection (1) either unconditionally or upon or subject to such conditions as the court thinks fit.

Section 81(1): amended, on 12 October 2001, by section 54 of the Radiocommunications Amendment Act 2000 (2000 No 8).

82 Restriction on action to recover deficiency

If at any time the mortgagee under any mortgage of any management rights or any spectrum licence exercises the power of sale conferred by the mortgage, and the amount realised is less than the amount owing under the covenant to repay expressed or implied in the mortgage, no action to recover the amount of the deficiency or any part of the deficiency shall be commenced by the mortgagee against any person (not being the mortgagor of the management rights or spectrum licence at the time of the exercise of the power of sale) unless the mortgagee, at least 1 month before the exercise of the power of sale, serves on that person notice of the mortgagee's intention to exercise the power of sale and to commence action against that person to recover the amount of the deficiency in the event of the amount realised being less than the amount owing under the covenant to repay.

Section 82: amended, on 12 October 2001, by section 54 of the Radiocommunications Amendment Act 2000 (2000 No 8).

Sections 79 to 82 shall have effect notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in any mortgage or other agreement.

84 Application of purchase money

The purchase money from the sale by the mortgagee of any management rights or spectrum licence shall be applied as follows:

- (a) first, in payment of the expenses occasioned by the sale:
- (b) secondly, in payment of the money then due or owing to the mortgagee:
- (c) thirdly, in payment of subsequent registered mortgages (if any) in the order of their priority:
- (d) fourthly, the surplus (if any) shall be paid to the mortgagor.

Section 84: amended, on 12 October 2001, by section 54 of the Radiocommunications Amendment Act 2000 (2000 No 8).

85 Transfer by mortgagee

- (2) Every application under subsection (1) shall be accompanied by such evidence in support of the application as may be necessary to establish the applicant's entitlement to be registered as manager or rightholder.
- (3) No application may be made under subsection (1) in respect of any entitlement arising or claimed to have arisen before the commencement of this Act.

88 Procedure on application

If, on any application under section 87, the Registrar is satisfied that the applicant is entitled to be registered as manager or rightholder in relation to the radio frequencies to which the application relates, the Registrar shall register the applicant as manager or rightholder, as the case may require.

Caveats

89 Caveat against dealing with radio frequencies

- (1) Any person—
 - (a) claiming to be entitled to, or to be beneficially interested in,—
 - (i) the management rights in relation to any radio frequencies in respect of which a record of management rights is registered under this Act; or
 - (ii) any spectrum licence—
by virtue of any unregistered agreement or other instrument, or of any trust expressed or implied, or otherwise howsoever; or
 - (b) transferring—
 - (i) the management rights in relation to any such radio frequencies; or
 - (ii) any spectrum licence—
to any other person to be held in trust—

may at any time lodge with the Registrar a caveat in the prescribed form.

- (2) Every caveat lodged under subsection (1) shall contain a statement of the grounds on which the caveat is lodged.
- (3) No caveat may be lodged pursuant to subsection (1)(a) in respect of any entitlement or beneficial interest arising or claimed to have arisen before the commencement of this Act.

Every notice relating to a caveat and any proceedings in respect of a caveat, if served at the place appointed in the caveat, shall be deemed duly served.

91 Effect of caveat

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) to (4), so long as a caveat remains in force, the Registrar shall not make any entry on the register having the effect of—
 - (a) charging or transferring the management rights to which the caveat relates, or creating or modifying any spectrum licence under those management rights; or
 - (b) charging or transferring or modifying the spectrum licence to which the caveat relates.
- (2) Subsection (1) shall not prevent the Registrar from making any entry where—
 - (a) the caveator consents to the making of that entry; or
 - (b) the making of that entry is necessary to complete the registration of any instrument that has been accepted for registration before the receipt of the caveat.
- (3) Subsection (1) shall not prevent the Registrar from making any entry necessary to effect the registration of a transfer of any interest in any management rights or spectrum licence where—
 - (a) the transfer is expressed to be made in pursuance of a power of sale conferred on the transferor by virtue of a registered mortgage of those management rights or that spectrum licence (hereafter in this subsection referred to as the empowering mortgage); and
 - (b) the caveat was lodged after the registration of the empowering mortgage; and
 - (c) the interest claimed by the caveator arises under an unregistered mortgage or an agreement to mortgage, dated later than the date of registration of the empowering mortgage and relating to the same interest to which the empowering mortgage relates; and
 - (d) the Registrar is not satisfied from the particulars stated in the caveat that, on the assumption that the caveator is able to prove the caveator's claim, the caveator would be entitled to—
 - (i) an order of the court that the registration of the empowering mortgage be cancelled; or
 - (ii) the registration of any instrument that would have the effect of making the mortgagee's interest under the empowering mortgage subject to the interest claimed by the caveator.
- (4) In any case to which subsection (3) applies, the caveat shall, upon the registration of the transfer, be deemed to have lapsed and the interest of the mortgageor expressed in that transfer to be transferred shall pass to and vest in the purchaser freed and discharged of the interest claimed by the caveator; and the Registrar may make on the register any entry necessary to show that the caveat has lapsed.

Part 12 Interference

Interference to receivers

105 Interference to receivers

For the purposes of any action in tort, it is declared that where a receiver is tuned to receive emissions from a transmitter operated by a rightholder in accordance with the rightholder's spectrum licence or by the holder of a radio licence in accordance with that radio licence, and that receiver is situated on land within the protection area of that licence, any harmful interference to the reception, by that receiver, of radio waves constitutes an interference with the enjoyment of land on which the receiver is situated.

Section 105: substituted, on 12 October 2001, by section 34 of the Radiocommunications Amendment Act 2000 (2000 No 8).

Interference caused by lawful transmission and reception

106 Definitions for sections 108 to 109C

- (1) For the purposes of sections 108 to 109C,— arbitral tribunal has the same meaning as in the Arbitration Act 1996

claimant means—

- (a) the rightholder or holder of a radio licence claiming harmful interference in the protection area of the claimant's licence; or
- (b) the owner of a radionavigation receiver or a safety receiver claiming that harmful interference with reception by that receiver would endanger the functioning of a radionavigation service or other safety service respondent means the person whose lawful transmission of radio waves is alleged to be causing harmful interference in the claimant's protection area.

- (2) Where a person holds a radio licence that does not specify an area as a protection area, that person may proceed as a claimant if there is harmful interference in the area that the person considers would be the protection area of the licence, and that area is the protection area for that radio licence until such time as the arbitral tribunal determines otherwise in accordance with section 109A(2).
- (3) Despite the lack of a radio licence or the lack of a protection area specified in that radio licence, where that radio licence is for a radionavigation or safety service, the owner of the radionavigation receiver or a safety receiver may proceed as a claimant if there is harmful interference with reception by that receiver that endangers the functioning of that radionavigation service or safety service.

Section 106: substituted, on 12 October 2001, by section 35 of the Radiocommunications Amendment Act 2000 (2000 No 8).

107 Sections 106 to 109C apply where transmissions not commenced

Where a radio licence or a spectrum licence has been granted and registered but lawful transmissions have not commenced, and a rightholder or holder of a radio licence believes that lawful transmissions made in accordance with that licence are very likely to cause harmful interference in the protection area of that licence, the provisions of sections 106 to 109C apply as though the lawful transmissions had commenced.

Section 107: substituted, on 12 October 2001, by section 35 of the Radiocommunications Amendment Act 2000 (2000 No 8).

108 Notice of harmful interference

- (1) Where a respondent is lawfully transmitting radio waves under a registered spectrum licence or radio licence, and those transmissions cause or contribute to harmful interference in the protection area of another registered spectrum licence or radio licence, the claimant may serve on the respondent a notice concerning that interference.
- (2) If both the claimant and the respondent are holders of radio licences and the matter is in relation to those licences,—
 - (a) the provisions of subsections (5) to (7) and sections 109 to 109C do not apply; and
 - (b) the matter may be referred to the Secretary by the claimant or the respondent; and

- (c) the Secretary may take any action that the Secretary thinks fit.
- (2A) The claimant may, after the expiry of 10 working days from the date when the matter was referred to the Secretary under subsection (2), by notice in the prescribed form to the Secretary, request that the Secretary refer the matter to arbitration under section 109 if, within that 10-working-day period,—
 - (a) the action specified in the notice given under subsection (1) has not been taken; and
 - (b) the claimant continues to believe that the respondent's transmissions have caused or contributed to, or are causing or contributing to, harmful interference in the protection area of the claimant, and that the action that is specified in the notice is justified; and
 - (c) the claimant, the respondent, and the Secretary have not agreed on a method of reaching an agreement to deal with the harmful interference or to refer the matter to arbitration.
- (2B) Despite subsection (2)(a), if a claimant has made a request under subsection (2A), sections 109 to 109C apply.
- (3) Where the harmful interference which is the subject of the notice under subsection (1) endangers the functioning of the claimant's radionavigation service or other safety service, the claimant may also serve a copy of the notice on the Secretary, and the Secretary may, in his or her discretion, direct the claimant or the respondent, or both, to take action forthwith, including ceasing transmissions, until the matter is resolved in accordance with sections 108 to 109A and section 109C.
- (4) A notice given under subsection (1) must state—
 - (a) the nature of the harmful interference experienced; and
 - (b) the alleged cause of the harmful interference and the manner in which the respondent is believed to have caused or contributed to the harmful interference; and
 - (c) what action the claimant desires to be taken by the respondent to remedy the harmful interference; and
 - (d) that the respondent has 10 working days following the receipt of the notice within which to take one of the actions referred to in subsection (5) and that, if the action the claimant wishes to be taken to remedy the harmful interference is not taken within 10 working days following the receipt of the notice, the matter may be referred to arbitration under this section.
- (5) Every respondent who receives a notice properly given under subsection (1) must, within 10 working days of receiving that notice,—
 - (a) take the action to remedy the harmful interference specified in the notice; or

- (b) notify the claimant that in the respondent's opinion the respondent's transmissions have not caused or contributed to, or are not causing or contributing to, harmful interference to the claimant or that the action specified in the notice which the claimant wishes to be taken to remedy the harmful interference is not justified; or
 - (c) agree with the claimant on a method of reaching an agreement to deal with the harmful interference; or
 - (d) agree with the claimant to refer the matter to arbitration to be determined in accordance with the Arbitration Act 1996.
- (6) If, within 10 working days of a notice being properly given under subsection (1),—
- (a) the action specified in the notice has not been taken; and
 - (b) the claimant continues to believe that the respondent's transmissions have caused or contributed to, or are causing or contributing to, harmful interference in the protection area of the claimant, and that the action which is specified in the notice is justified; and
 - (c) the claimant and the respondent have not agreed on a method of reaching an agreement to deal with the harmful interference or to refer the matter to arbitration,— the claimant may, following the expiry of that 10-working-day period, by notice in the prescribed form to the Secretary, request the Secretary to refer the matter to arbitration under section 109.

- (7) Where the claimant and the respondent agree on a method of reaching an agreement to deal with the harmful interference under subsection (5)(c), but no agreement is reached within 20 working days of a notice properly given under subsection (1), the claimant may, following the expiry of that 20-working day period, by notice in the prescribed form to the Secretary, request the Secretary to refer the matter to arbitration under section 109.

109 Reference to arbitration by Secretary

- (1) Where the Secretary receives a request under section 108(2A), (6), or (7), and the Secretary is satisfied that—

- (a) the alleged harmful interference is being caused in the protection area of a registered spectrum licence or radio licence; and
- (b) the transmissions allegedly causing or contributing to the harmful interference are being lawfully made under a registered spectrum licence or radio licence; and
- (c) there is prima facie evidence of harmful interference and that the harmful interference is being caused or contributed to by the respondent; and
- (d) a notice was properly given under section 108(1) concerning that harmful interference; and
- (e) the time limits specified in section 108 have expired; and
- (f) the respondent has not taken the action specified in that notice,— the Secretary may refer the matter to arbitration and, except as provided in sections 109A and 109C, the provisions of the Arbitration Act 1996 apply as though the claimant and the respondent had agreed to refer the matter to arbitration.

- (2) The reference by the Secretary may specify the matters that would otherwise be included in an arbitration agreement, and that reference is an arbitration agreement for the purposes of the Arbitration Act 1996.

Section 109: substituted, on 12 October 2001, by section 35 of the Radiocommunications Amendment Act 2000 (2000 No 8).

109A Matters relevant to arbitration

- (1) Article 28(4) of Schedule 1 of the Arbitration Act 1996 does not apply to matters referred to arbitration under section 108(5)(d) or section 109; instead, the arbitral tribunal's decision must seek to balance the reasonable expectations, rights, and duties of the claimant and the respondent or other persons, without compromising public safety, and having regard to—
 - (a) the costs and effects of possible alternative solutions; and
 - (b) the technical compatibility between the claimant's receiver and the respondent's transmitter as determined by—
 - (i) the nature and characteristics of the rights described in the licences concerned; and
 - (ii) the International Radio Regulations; and
 - (iii) the ITU-R reports and recommendations; and
 - (iv) Annex 10 of the Convention on International Civil Aviation; and
 - (v) the International Convention for the Safety of Life at Sea; and

 - (e) the terms of the licences concerned; and
 - (f) any other matters prescribed by regulations made under this Act or that the arbitral tribunal considers relevant.
- (1A) The arbitral tribunal must not have regard to the reception of radio waves by inappropriate receivers.
- (2) Unless a person proceeds as a claimant in accordance with section 106(3), where the claimant is the holder of a radio licence that does not specify an area as a protection area, the arbitral tribunal must determine, from the technical details on the licence, whether the area considered by the claimant as the protection area for that licence is the protection area.

109C Powers when deciding disputes

- (1) In addition to the powers given to the arbitral tribunal by section 12 of the Arbitration Act 1996, the arbitral tribunal has the power to determine the cause of the harmful interference and has the power to direct the parties to the dispute or the Secretary to take action to reduce or eliminate harmful interference.
- (2) Where the arbitral tribunal directs that a spectrum licence or radio licence be modified or amended, then, despite any provision to the contrary in this Act or any spectrum licence, the manager or rightholder in the case of a spectrum licence, or the Secretary in the case of a radio licence, must modify or amend the licence as directed by the arbitral tribunal.
