An Act to reform further the administration of education and, in particular, to reform tertiary education and training with a view to—

- (a) Giving tertiary institutions as much independence and freedom to make academic, operational, and management decisions as is consistent with the nature of the services

- they provide, the efficient use of national resources, the national interest and the demands of accountability; and
- (b) Establishing a consistent approach to the recognition of qualifications in academic and vocational areas: and
 - (c) Encouraging greater participation in tertiary education and training, in particular by removing barriers to access for those groups of persons who have previously been under-represented; and
 - (d) Contributing to a dynamic and satisfying society by promoting excellence in tertiary education, training, and research

BE IT ENACTED by the Parliament of New Zealand as follows:

1 Short Title and commencement

- (1) This Act may be cited as the Education Amendment Act 1990, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Education Act 1989 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).
- (2) Section 50(2) of, and Schedule 3 to, this Act shall come into force on the 1st day of October 1990.
- (3) Section 50(3) of, and Schedule 4 to, this Act shall come into force on the 1st day of November 1990.
- (4) Section 37 of this Act (except in so far as it inserts sections 168 to 172 into the principal Act), sections 38, 39, 50(4), and 51(4) of this Act, and Schedule 5 to this Act, shall come into force on the 1st day of January 1991.
- (5) Section 51(5) of this Act shall come into force on the 1st day of February 1991.
- (6) The remaining provisions of this Act shall come into force on the day on which this Act receives the Royal assent.

Part 1

Miscellaneous amendments to principal act

2 Interpretation

- (1)

- (2) Every reference in any enactment passed before the commencement of Part 1 of the Education Amendment Act 1990 to an education authority within the meaning of section 2(1) of the Education Act 1964 shall be read as a reference to a body that is a Board, or the governing body of a college of education, a polytechnic, or a wananga, established under this Act.
- (3) Section 19(1) of the Education Amendment Act 1989 is hereby consequentially amended by repealing the definitions of the terms domestic student and foreign student, and substituting the following definitions:
- “Domestic student, at any time, means a person who is then—
- “(a) A New Zealand citizen; or
- “(b) The holder of a residence permit under the Immigration Act 1987; or
- “(c) By virtue of paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) or paragraph (f) of section 112(1) of that Act, exempt from the requirement to hold a permit granted under that Act; or
- “(d) Exempted under section 12 of that Act from the requirement to hold a permit granted under that Act; or
- “(e) A person of a class or description of persons required by the Minister, by notice in the Gazette, to be treated as if they are not foreign students:
- “Foreign student, at any time, means a person who is not then a domestic student.”

3 Restrictions on enrolment at primary school
