An Act to repeal the Union Representatives Education Leave Act 1986, and to make provision incidental thereto

Be it enacted by the Parliament of New Zealand as follows:

1 Short Title and commencement

- (1) This Act may be cited as the Union Representatives Education Leave Act Repeal Act 1992.
- (2) This Act shall come into force on a date to be appointed by the Governor-General by Order in Council.

Section 1(2): Union Representatives Education Leave Act Repeal Act 1992 brought into force, on 4 December 1992, by the Union Representatives Education Leave Act Repeal Act Commencement Order 1992 (SR 1992/331).

2 Interpretation

In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, Authority means the Trade Union Education Authority established by the Union Representatives Education Leave Act 1986.

Part 1

Repeal of Act and dissolution of Authority

3 Repeals

- (1) The Union Representatives Education Leave Act 1986 and the Union Representatives Education Leave Amendment Act 1991 are hereby repealed.
- (2) The following enactments are hereby consequentially repealed:
  - (a), (b) Amendment(s) incorporated in the Act(s).

4 Dissolution of Authority

As from the commencement of this Act,—

- (a) the Authority shall be dissolved; and
- (b) all real and personal property of the Authority and all rights and liabilities of the Authority shall vest in the Crown; and
- (c) all proceedings pending by or against the Authority may be carried on, completed, or enforced by or against the Crown.

5 Vacation of office by members of Authority

- (1) Every person who, immediately before the commencement of this Act, holds office as a member of the Authority shall be deemed, as from the commencement of this Act, to have vacated that office.
- (2) No person who, under subsection (1), is deemed to have vacated office as a member of the Authority shall be entitled to compensation for loss of office as a member of the Authority.

6 Final report of Authority

- (1) As soon as reasonably practicable after the commencement of this Act, the Secretary of Labour shall arrange for a final report of the Authority to be sent to the Minister of Labour showing the Authority's operations for the period beginning with 1 July 1992 and ending with the commencement of this Act, and shall attach to the report a copy of the Authority's accounts for that period certified by the Audit Office.
- (2) A copy of the report and accounts shall be laid before the House of Representatives as soon as practicable after their receipt by the Minister of Labour.

Part 2

Provisions incidental to repeal of Act and dissolution of Authority

7 Power of Minister of Labour to exercise the Crown's powers as lessee

- (1) Notwithstanding any Act, rule of law, or agreement or any other provision of this Act, where the estate or interest of the lessee under any deed of lease or memorandum of lease is, by virtue of section 4(b), vested in the Crown, the Minister of Labour may, on behalf of the Crown,—

- (a) surrender any such deed of lease or memorandum of lease for such consideration and on such terms and conditions as the Minister of Labour may agree with the lessor for the time being; or
  - (b) assign any such deed of lease or memorandum of lease for such consideration and on such terms and conditions as the Minister of Labour may agree with the assignee; or
  - (c) sublet the premises demised by any such deed of lease or memorandum of lease or any part of those premises for such consideration and on such terms and conditions as the Minister of Labour may agree with the sublessee; or
  - (d) exercise any of the lessee's rights, powers, and authorities under any such deed of lease or memorandum of lease.
- (2) The Minister of Labour shall lay before the House of Representatives any contract or other document entered into pursuant to paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) or paragraph (c) of subsection (1) within 12 sitting days after the date of that contract or document.

8 Power of Secretary of Labour to exercise powers on behalf of the Crown

Notwithstanding any Act, rule of law, or agreement, the Secretary of Labour may, on behalf of the Crown, exercise—

- (a) in respect of any real or personal property vested in the Crown by section 4(b), any powers (other than powers conferred on the Minister of Labour by section 7 in relation to any deed of lease or memorandum of lease to which that section applies) that the Authority could have exercised in respect of that property had it not been dissolved; and
- (b) in respect of any rights or liabilities vested in the Crown by section 4(b) and in respect of any proceedings to which section 4(c) applies, any of the rights, powers, and authorities that the Authority could have exercised in respect of any such rights, liabilities, or proceedings had it not been dissolved.

9 Certain matters not affected

Nothing effected or authorised by this Act—

- (a) shall be regarded as placing the Authority, or the Crown, or any other person in breach of contract or confidence or as otherwise making any of them guilty of a civil wrong; or
- (b) shall be regarded as giving rise to a right for any person to terminate or cancel any contract or arrangement or to accelerate the performance of any obligation; or
- (c) shall be regarded as placing the Authority, or the Crown, or any other person in breach of any enactment or rule of law or contractual provision prohibiting, restricting, or regulating the assignment or transfer of any property or the disclosure of any information; or
- (d) shall release any surety wholly or in part from any obligation; or
- (e) shall invalidate or discharge any contract or security.

10 Amendment to Public Bodies Contracts Act 1959

Amendment(s) incorporated in the Act(s).

11 Amendment to Local Authorities (Members' Interests) Act 1968

Amendment(s) incorporated in the Act(s).

12 Amendment to Ombudsmen Act 1975

Amendment(s) incorporated in the Act(s).

Notes*1 General

This is a reprint of the Union Representatives Education Leave Act Repeal Act 1992. The reprint incorporates all the amendments to the Act as at 4 December 1992, as specified in the list of amendments at the end of these notes.

Relevant provisions of any amending enactments that contain transitional, savings, or application provisions that cannot be compiled in the reprint are also included, after the principal enactment, in chronological order. For more information, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/reprints/>.

2 Status of reprints

Under section 16D of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, reprints are presumed to correctly state, as at the date of the reprint, the law enacted by the principal enactment and by the amendments to that enactment. This presumption applies even though editorial changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in the reprint.

This presumption may be rebutted by producing the official volumes of statutes or statutory regulations in which the principal enactment and its amendments are contained.

3 How reprints are prepared

A number of editorial conventions are followed in the preparation of reprints. For example, the enacting words are not included in Acts, and provisions that are repealed or revoked are omitted. For a detailed list of the editorial conventions, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/editorial-conventions/> or Part 8 of the Tables of New Zealand Acts and Ordinances and Statutory Regulations and Deemed Regulations in Force.

4 Changes made under section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989

Section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 authorises the making of editorial changes in a reprint as set out in sections 17D and 17E of that Act so that, to the extent permitted, the format and style of the reprinted enactment is consistent with current legislative drafting practice. Changes that would alter the effect of the legislation are not permitted. A new format of legislation was introduced on 1 January 2000. Changes to legislative drafting style have also been made since 1997, and are ongoing. To the extent permitted by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, all legislation reprinted after 1 January 2000 is in the new format for legislation and reflects current drafting practice at the time of the reprint.

In outline, the editorial changes made in reprints under the authority of section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 are set out below, and they have been applied, where relevant, in the preparation of this reprint:

- omission of unnecessary referential words (such as “of this section” and “of this Act”)
- typeface and type size (Times Roman, generally in 11.5 point)
- layout of provisions, including:
  - indentation
  - position of section headings (eg, the number and heading now appear above the section)
- format of definitions (eg, the defined term now appears in bold type, without quotation marks)
- format of dates (eg, a date formerly expressed as “the 1st day of January 1999” is now expressed as “1 January 1999”)

- position of the date of assent (it now appears on the front page of each Act)
- punctuation (eg, colons are not used after definitions)
- Parts numbered with roman numerals are replaced with arabic numerals, and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- case and appearance of letters and words, including:
  - format of headings (eg, headings where each word formerly appeared with an initial capital letter followed by small capital letters are amended so that the heading appears in bold, with only the first word (and any proper nouns) appearing with an initial capital letter)
  - small capital letters in section and subsection references are now capital letters
- schedules are renumbered (eg, Schedule 1 replaces First Schedule), and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- running heads (the information that appears at the top of each page)
- format of two-column schedules of consequential amendments, and schedules of repeals (eg, they are rearranged into alphabetical order, rather than chronological).
