Changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in this reprint.

A general outline of these changes is set out in the notes at the end of this reprint, together with other explanatory material about this reprint.

This Act is administered by the Treasury.

1 Title

This Act is the Appropriation (Continuation of Interim Meaning of Funding for Parliamentary Purposes) Act 2007.

2 Commencement

This Act comes into force on 31 December 2007.

3 Interim meaning of “funding entitlements for parliamentary purposes”

(1) In the Parliamentary Service Act 2000, funding entitlements for parliamentary purposes includes funding for any or all of the following purposes:

- (a) the performance by a member of Parliament of his or her role and functions as a member of Parliament;
- (b) the performance by a recognised party (within the meaning of that Act) of its role and functions as a recognised party;
- (c) the provision of travel, accommodation, and attendance services in accordance with any determination made by the Speaker of the House of Representatives under section 20A of the Civil List Act 1979, or any direction given by the Speaker of the House of Representatives under the Parliamentary Service Act 2000;
- (d) the provision of communications services (other than services including electioneering) in accordance with any determination made by the Speaker of the House of Representatives under section 20A of the Civil List Act 1979, or any direction given by the Speaker of the House of Representatives under the Parliamentary Service Act 2000;
- (e) the provision of benefits or privileges of a specified kind for former members of Parliament and members of their families in accordance with an appropriation by Parliament of money for that purpose.

(2) In subsection (1)(d), electioneering means any communication that explicitly—

- (a) seeks support for the election of a particular person or people; or

- (b) seeks support for the casting of a party vote for a particular political party or political parties; or
  - (c) encourages any person to become a member of a particular political party or political parties; or
  - (d) solicits subscriptions or other financial support.
- (3) The following must, as far as is possible, be interpreted consistently with subsections (1) and (2):
- (a) all determinations made under section 20A of the Civil List Act 1979:
  - (b) all directions given by the Speaker of the House of Representatives under the Parliamentary Service Act 2000:
  - (c) the scope set out under the column headed “Scope of 2007/08 Appropriations” in Part B1 - Details of Appropriations set out in Part B - Statement of Appropriations for Vote Parliamentary Service in The Estimates of Appropriations for the Government of New Zealand for the year ending 30 June 2008 (B.5) alongside each of the following categories of other expenses to be incurred by the Crown:
    - (i) Members’ Communications:
    - (ii) Member Support - Independent:
    - (iii) Party and Member Support - ACT:
    - (iv) Party and Member Support - Green:
    - (v) Party and Member Support - Labour:
    - (vi) Party and Member Support - Māori:
    - (vii) Party and Member Support - National:
    - (viii) Party and Member Support - New Zealand First:
    - (ix) Party and Member Support - Progressive Coalition:
    - (x) Party and Member Support - United:
    - (xi) Travel of Members and Others:
  - (d) the scope of each category of other expenses to be incurred by the Crown in Vote Parliamentary Service in any Supplementary Estimates of Appropriations for the Government of New Zealand for the year ending 30 June 2008, or in The Estimates of Appropriations or any Supplementary Estimates of Appropriations for the Government of New Zealand for the year ending 30 June 2009, that—

- (i) is the same as a category stated in paragraph (c); or
- (ii) differs from the categories stated in subparagraphs (iii) to (x) of that paragraph to the extent only that it relates to a party not stated in any of those subparagraphs, or refers to a party stated in one of those subparagraphs by a different name.

4*Expiry

This Act expires with the close of 1 July 2009.

Notes

1 *General

This is a reprint of the Appropriation (Continuation of Interim Meaning of Funding for Parliamentary Purposes) Act 2007. The reprint incorporates all the amendments to the Act as at 2 July 2009, as specified in the list of amendments at the end of these notes.

Relevant provisions of any amending enactments that have yet to come into force or that contain relevant transitional or savings provisions are also included, after the principal enactment, in chronological order.

2 *Status of reprints

Under section 16D of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, reprints are presumed to correctly state, as at the date of the reprint, the law enacted by the principal enactment and by the amendments to that enactment. This presumption applies even though editorial changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in the reprint.

This presumption may be rebutted by producing the official volumes of statutes or statutory regulations in which the principal enactment and its amendments are contained.

3 *How reprints are prepared

A number of editorial conventions are followed in the preparation of reprints. For example, the enacting words are not included in Acts, and provisions that are repealed or revoked are omitted. For a detailed list of the editorial conventions, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/legislation/reprints.shtml> or Part 8 of the Tables of Acts and Ordinances and Statutory Regulations and Deemed Regulations in Force.

4 Changes made under section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989

Section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 authorises the making of editorial changes in a reprint as set out in sections 17D and 17E of that Act so that, to the extent permitted, the format and style of the reprinted enactment is consistent with current legislative drafting practice. Changes that would alter the effect of the legislation are not permitted. A new format of legislation was introduced on 1 January 2000. Changes to legislative drafting style have also been made since 1997, and are ongoing. To the extent permitted by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, all legislation reprinted after 1 January 2000 is in the new format for legislation and reflects current drafting practice at the time of the reprint.

In outline, the editorial changes made in reprints under the authority of section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 are set out below, and they have been applied, where relevant, in the preparation of this reprint:

- omission of unnecessary referential words (such as “of this section” and “of this Act”)
- typeface and type size (Times Roman, generally in 11.5 point)
- layout of provisions, including:
  - indentation
  - position of section headings (eg, the number and heading now appear above the section)
- format of definitions (eg, the defined term now appears in bold type, without quotation marks)
- format of dates (eg, a date formerly expressed as “the 1st day of January 1999” is now expressed as “1 January 1999”)

- position of the date of assent (it now appears on the front page of each Act)
- punctuation (eg, colons are not used after definitions)
- Parts numbered with roman numerals are replaced with arabic numerals, and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- case and appearance of letters and words, including:
  - format of headings (eg, headings where each word formerly appeared with an initial capital letter followed by small capital letters are amended so that the heading appears in bold, with only the first word (and any proper nouns) appearing with an initial capital letter)
  - small capital letters in section and subsection references are now capital letters
- schedules are renumbered (eg, Schedule 1 replaces First Schedule), and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- running heads (the information that appears at the top of each page)
- format of two-column schedules of consequential amendments, and schedules of repeals (eg, they are rearranged into alphabetical order, rather than chronological).
