The Parliament of New Zealand enacts as follows:

- 1 Title
This Act is the Immigration Advisers Licensing Amendment Act 2010.
- 2 Commencement
This Act comes into force on the day after the date on which it receives the Royal assent.
- 3 Principal Act amended
This Act amends the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007.

4 What constitutes immigration advice

Section 7 is amended by adding the following subsection as subsection (2):

- “(2) To avoid doubt, a person is not considered to be providing immigration advice within the meaning of this Act if the person provides the advice in the course of acting under or pursuant to—
- “(a) the Ombudsmen Act 1975; or
 - “(b) any other enactment by which functions are conferred on Ombudsmen holding office under that Act.”

5 Upgrade of licence

Section 23 is amended by adding the following subsections:

- “(4) If an application for an upgrade of a licence has been made but not determined before the date on which the licence would otherwise expire, the licence continues in force until the application is determined.
- “(5) The grant of an upgrade of a licence takes effect from the date of expiry of the previous licence (as determined before the application of subsection (4)) or the date on which it is granted, whichever occurs first.”
