- (2) The CAC must, in accordance with the Act and these rules, deal with every report or complaint about conduct referred to it, unless subclause (3) applies.
- (3) If the CAC considers that a complaint of misconduct received under section 139AR of the Act should be dealt with by the current employer of the teacher concerned, the CAC must decline to deal with the complaint and instead—
 - (a) refer the complaint to the teacher's current employer; and
 - (b) send a copy of the complaint to the teacher concerned, along with advice that it is being referred to the teacher's current employer; and
 - (c) advise the initiator of what the CAC has done.

13 Notification to teacher of report or complaint about conduct

- (1) Unless rule 12(3) applies, on receipt of a report or complaint about conduct, the CAC must notify the teacher concerned that it has received a report or complaint.
- (2) The notice given under subclause (1) must include—

- (b) advice—
 - (i) about the next steps in the process and the likely timetable:
 - (ii) that the teacher may make submissions to the CAC:
 - (iii) that the teacher's current employer is being notified of receipt of the report or complaint (if applicable):

14 Notification to current employer of report or complaint about teacher conduct

- (1) If the CAC receives a complaint of misconduct under section 139AR of the Act and rule 12(3) does not apply, the CAC must notify the teacher's current employer that a complaint of misconduct has been received concerning the teacher.
- (2) The CAC may at any time notify the current employer of a teacher if it receives any other report or complaint about conduct that relates to the teacher.

15 Teacher may object to members of CAC panel

- (1) At the same time as, or as soon as practicable after, the notice under rule 14 is sent to a teacher, the CAC must give notice to the teacher of the names of the members of the CAC panel that will consider the matter.
- (2) The notice under subclause (1) must advise the teacher that, if he or she objects to any of those members, he or she must notify the CAC of the objection within 5 working days of receipt of the notification.
- (3) If the CAC receives a notice of objection within 5 working days of giving notice to the teacher, the convenor of the CAC must, unless he or she considers the objection is groundless, replace that member with another member and notify the teacher accordingly.
- (4) Nothing in this rule prevents the convenor replacing a member of a CAC panel at any other time, and for any reason, but if a member is changed the teacher must be notified and subclauses (2) and (3) apply.

16 Preliminary investigation and preparation of summary

- (1) Before the CAC considers a report or complaint about a teacher's conduct for the first time, the CAC may—
 - (a) seek further information from the teacher concerned, the initiator, or the teacher's current employer; and
 - (b) review any relevant records of the Teachers Council.

 - (b) may include preliminary recommendations for the most appropriate response to the report or complaint.
- (4) The summary may not be considered by the CAC panel allocated to deal with the matter until at least 14 days after the date on which the teacher received notification of the report or complaint under rule 13, unless the CAC considers that—
 - (a) the report or complaint requires urgent consideration; or
 - (b) the report or complaint is trivial or vexatious.

17 Meetings of CAC panel

- (1) Every member of the CAC panel allocated to deal with a matter must be provided with a copy of the summary prepared under rule 16 that relates to the matter, and with a copy of any subsequent reports on the matter that are prepared for consideration by the panel.
- (2) All members of the CAC panel allocated to deal with a matter must be present when a matter is to be considered.
- (3) A member may be present either in person or by way of telephone or video link.

 - (f) for the purpose of investigating possible serious misconduct, apply to the Disciplinary Tribunal in accordance with rule 40 for interim suspension of the teacher's practising certificate or authority to teach;
 - (g) lay a charge of serious misconduct with the Disciplinary Tribunal on the basis that the CAC is satisfied on reasonable grounds that the teacher has engaged in serious misconduct;
 - (h) refer the matter to the Disciplinary Tribunal for a hearing.
- (2) Before determining that it is satisfied on reasonable grounds that a teacher has engaged in serious misconduct, the CAC must have—
- (a) investigated the matter as fully as is reasonable in the circumstances; and
 - (b) given the teacher an adequate opportunity to respond to the allegations.
- (3) The CAC may refer a report or complaint about conduct (other than conduct that the CAC is satisfied is serious misconduct) to the Disciplinary Tribunal only if the CAC—
- (a) does not consider that it is appropriate to dismiss the matter or resolves to take it no further, or to refer the teacher concerned to a competency review or an impairment process; and
 - (b) has been unable, despite its best endeavours, to resolve the matter by agreement under rule 20.
- (4) A notice of the outcome of the CAC panel's consideration of a matter, identifying which of the things listed in subclause (1) the CAC has resolved to do, must be sent to the teacher concerned and to the initiator as soon as practicable after the meeting of the CAC panel.

- (2) An investigation, or any aspect of an investigation, may be carried out by any member of the CAC personally or by any other person referred to in rule 9.

20 Resolution by agreement

- (1) In the case of a complaint of misconduct that the CAC is satisfied is not serious misconduct, the CAC must use its best endeavours to reach agreement between the teacher and the initiator to one of the following courses of action (as listed in section 139AT(2)(d) of the Act):
 - (a) censuring the teacher:
 - (b) imposing conditions on the teacher's practising certificate or authority:

- (4) The process of resolving a complaint of misconduct by agreement may be carried on, or assisted by, any member of the CAC personally, or by any other person referred to in rule 9.
