- (2) The early childhood services to which the declaration in subclause (1) does not apply are—
 - (a) a free kindergarten that is an early childhood service whose licence permits no child to attend for a period of more than 4 hours on any day;

5 Transition plan in relation to declared early childhood services

These regulations set out a transition plan for bringing under Part 10 of the Education Act 1989 declared early childhood services and persons employed in teaching positions at declared early childhood services.

6 Meaning of person employed in teaching position

For the purposes of these regulations, teaching position, as defined in section 120 of the Education Act 1989, is modified to mean,—

- (a) in relation to an early childhood education and care centre, and to a licensed hospital-based education and care service, a person responsible (as defined in regulation 2 of the Education (Early Childhood Centres) Regulations 1998); and
- (b) in relation to a licensed home-based education and care service, a coordinator (as defined in clause 1 of Part 1 of the Schedule to the Education (Home-Based Care) Order 1992).

Regulation 6: substituted, on 1 December 2008, by section 60(2) of the Education Amendment Act 2006 (2006 No 19).

7 Provisions of transition plan

- (1) The transition plan is—
 - (a) that there be a transition period at the end of which declared early childhood services and persons employed in teaching positions at declared early childhood services must be brought under Part 10 of the Education Act 1989; and
 - (b) that the setting out of the transition plan in these regulations be the means by which notice of the transition period is given to—
 - (i) declared early childhood services; and

- (ii) persons who, at the beginning of the transition period, are employed in teaching positions at declared early childhood services; and
 - (iii) persons who, in the transition period, become employed in teaching positions at declared early childhood services; and
 - (iv) persons who wish to be employed after the end of the transition period, or to continue to be employed after the end of the transition period, in teaching positions at declared early childhood services; and
- (c) that, in relation to persons who, at the beginning of the transition period, are not registered as teachers under the Education Act 1989 but are employed in teaching positions at declared early childhood services, the transition period gives to those persons a period of time within which to obtain registration as teachers under the Education Act 1989; and
- (d) that, throughout the transition period, Part 10 of the Education Act 1989 must continue not to apply to declared early childhood services and persons employed in teaching positions at declared early childhood services; and
- (e) that the transition period begins with the date of the coming into force of these regulations; and
- (f) that, subject to subclause (2), the transition period ends with the close of 31 December 2004.
- (2) If, as at the close of 31 December 2004, regulation 9 applies to a declared early childhood service and to a person employed in a teaching position at that declared early childhood service, the transition period ends,—
- (a) in relation to the declared early childhood service, at the time at which regulation 9 ceases, under regulation 9(2), to apply to that declared early childhood service; and
 - (b) in relation to the person employed in a teaching position at that declared early childhood service, at the time at which regulation 9 ceases, under regulation 9(3), to apply to that person.

8 Date of application of teacher registration provisions

In relation to a declared early childhood service (other than a declared early childhood service to which regulation 9 applies) and to persons employed in teaching positions at a declared early childhood service (other than persons employed in teaching positions at a declared early childhood service to whom regulation 9 applies), these regulations set 1 January 2005 as both—

- (a) the date on which there is brought under Part 10 of the Education Act 1989—
 - (i) every such early childhood service; and

- (ii) persons employed in teaching positions at every such early childhood service; and
- (b) the date from the commencement of which the provisions of Part 10 of the Education Act 1989 apply to both—
 - (i) every such early childhood service; and
 - (ii) persons employed in teaching positions at every such early childhood service.

9 Extended transition period

- (1) This regulation applies to a declared early childhood service and a person employed in a teaching position at that declared early childhood service as at the close of 31 December 2004 if that person—
 - (a) was appointed to that position, whether before or after the commencement of these regulations, but not later than 31 December 2004; and
 - (b) held, on 4 December 2000, an early childhood teaching qualification that was recognised by the Ministry of Education or the New Zealand Qualifications Authority as equivalent to a Diploma of Teaching; and
 - (c) does not hold, as at the close of 31 December 2004, a qualification recognised by the Teaching Council of Aotearoa New Zealand for the purposes of registration under Part 10 of the Education Act 1989.
- (2) The time at which this regulation ceases to apply to a declared early childhood service is the earlier of—
 - (a) the close of the date on which that early childhood service ceases to employ in a teaching position any person who satisfies the criteria in subclause (1); or
 - (b) the close of 31 December 2007.
- (3) The time at which this regulation ceases to apply to a person who satisfies the criteria in subclause (1) is the earlier of—
 - (a) the close of the date on which that person ceases to hold the teaching position that that person held, as at the close of 31 December 2004, at a declared early childhood service; or
 - (b) the close of 31 December 2007.

Regulation 9(1)(c): amended, on 29 September 2018, by section 12(1) of the Education (Teaching Council of Aotearoa New Zealand) Amendment Act 2018 (2018 No 35).

10 Date of application of teacher registration provisions in relation to extended transition period

- (1) In relation to a declared early childhood service to which regulation 9 applies, and to persons employed in teaching positions at any such declared early childhood service to whom regulation 9 applies, these regulations set the date specified in subclause (2) as both—

- (a) the date on which there is brought under Part 10 of the Education Act 1989—
- (i) that declared early childhood service; and
 - (ii) those persons employed in teaching positions at that declared early childhood service; and
- (b) the date from the commencement of which the provisions of Part 10 of the Education Act 1989 apply to both—
- (i) that declared early childhood service; and
 - (ii) those persons employed in teaching positions at that declared early childhood service.
- (2) The date specified for the purposes of subclause (1), in relation to a declared early childhood service to which regulation 9 applies, and to persons employed in teaching positions at any such declared early childhood service to whom regulation 9 applies, is the day immediately following the time at which regulation 9 ceases to apply to that declared early childhood service.
