Regulations

- 1 Title

These regulations are the Maritime Transport (Certificates of Insurance) Regulations 2005.
- 2 Commencement

These regulations come into force on 28 July 2005.
- 3 Interpretation

In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, Act means the Maritime Transport Act 1994.
- 4 Regulated ships

For the purposes of sections 342 and 363 of the Act and any marine protection rules made under the Act, regulated ship—

 - (a) means a ship (registered in New Zealand or elsewhere) of 400 gross tonnage or more; but
 - (b) does not include a regulated oil tanker (as defined in section 342 of the Act).
- 5 Regulated offshore installations

For the purposes of sections 342 and 364 of the Act and any marine protection rules made under the Act, regulated offshore installation means an offshore installation (as defined in section 222(1) of the Act) within New Zealand continental waters (as defined in section 222(1) of the Act).

Diane Morcom,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on 28 July 2005, define regulated ship and regulated offshore installation for the purposes of the Maritime Transport Act 1994 and any marine protection rules made under that Act.

Issued under the authority of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989.
