Agreement between the Government of New Zealand and the Government of Gibraltar on the exchange of information with respect to taxes

Whereas New Zealand and Gibraltar (the “Contracting Parties”) recognise that present legislation already provides for co-operation and the exchange of information in criminal tax matters;

Whereas the Contracting Parties have long been active in international efforts in the fight against financial and other crimes, including the targeting of terrorist financing;

Whereas it is acknowledged that Gibraltar under the Terms of its Entrustment from the United Kingdom has the right to negotiate, conclude, perform and, subject to the terms of this agreement, terminate a Tax Information Exchange Agreement with New Zealand;

Whereas Gibraltar on 27 February 2002 entered into a political commitment to the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development's (OECD) principles of effective exchange of information;

Whereas the Contracting Parties wish to enhance and facilitate the terms and conditions governing the exchange of information relating to taxes;

Now, therefore, the Contracting Parties have agreed to conclude the following Agreement which contains obligations on the part of Gibraltar and New Zealand only:

Article 1

Object and scope of this agreement

The competent authorities of the Contracting Parties shall provide assistance through exchange of information that is foreseeably relevant to the administration and enforcement of the domestic laws of those Parties concerning taxes covered by this Agreement. Such information shall include information that is foreseeably relevant to the determination, assessment and collection of such taxes, the recovery and enforcement of tax claims, or the investigation or prosecution of tax matters. Information shall be exchanged in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement and shall be treated as confidential in the manner provided in Article 8. The rights and safeguards secured to persons by the laws or administrative practice of the Requested Party remain applicable. The Requested Party shall use its best endeavours to ensure that any such rights and safeguards are not applied in a manner that unduly prevents or delays effective exchange of information.

Article 2

Jurisdiction

A Requested Party is not obligated to provide information which is neither held by its authorities nor in the possession or control of persons who are within its territorial jurisdiction.

Article 3

Taxes covered

1. The existing taxes which are the subject of this Agreement are:
 - (a) in Gibraltar, income taxes; and
 - (b) in New Zealand, direct taxes of every kind and description.
2. This Agreement shall also apply to any identical or substantially similar taxes imposed after the date of signature of this Agreement in addition to, or in place of, the existing taxes. The Agreement shall also apply to such other taxes as may be agreed in an exchange of letters between the Contracting Parties. The competent authorities of the Contracting Parties shall notify each other of any substantial changes to the taxation and related information gathering measures covered by this Agreement.

 5. A request for information shall not be refused on the ground that the tax claim giving rise to the request is disputed by the taxpayer.
 6. The Requested Party may decline a request for information if the information is requested by the Applicant Party to administer or enforce a provision of the tax law of the Applicant Party, or any requirement connected therewith, which discriminates against a national of the Requested Party as compared with a national of the Applicant Party in the same circumstances.

Article 8
