Regulations

1 Title

These regulations are the National Animal Identification and Tracing (Infringement Offences) Regulations 2012.

2 Commencement

These regulations come into force on 10 January 2013.

3 Interpretation

In these regulations, Act means the National Animal Identification and Tracing Act 2012.

4 Infringement offences and infringement fees

- (1) The offences specified in Schedule 1 are infringement offences under the Act.
- (2) The infringement fee payable for an infringement offence is the fee specified for the offence in Schedule 1.
- (3) A person (the defendant) charged with an alleged infringement offence has a defence to the infringement offence if the defendant proves that—
 - (a) the defendant took all reasonable steps to avoid committing the offence; or
 - (b) the act or omission constituting the offence—
 - (i) took place in circumstances of an adverse event or an emergency; and
 - (ii) was necessary for the preservation, protection, or maintenance of animal or human life or for animal welfare purposes.
- (4) A defence is available only if the defendant provides to the prosecutor a written notice—
 - (a) stating that the defendant intends to rely on a defence under subclause (3); and
 - (b) specifying, as relevant,—
 - (i) for a defence under subclause (3)(a), the reasonable steps that the defendant claims to have taken;
 - (ii) for a defence under subclause (3)(b), the circumstances of an adverse event or emergency and the reasons why the act or omission was necessary for the preservation, protection, or maintenance of animal or human life or for animal welfare purposes.

- (5) A notice given under subclause (4) must be provided to the prosecutor—
- (a) not later than 7 working days after the summons has been served on the defendant; or
 - (b) with the leave of the court, within any further time that the court allows.

5 Infringement offence notice and reminder notice

Infringement offence notices and reminder notices issued under the Act must be in the applicable form set out in Schedule 2.

Information about infringement offences

Note: If, after reading this information, there is something in it that you do not understand, you should consult a lawyer immediately.

1 Payment of infringement fee

If you pay the infringement fee within 28 days after the service of this notice, no further action in respect of the infringement offence will be taken. Payment should be made to the Ministry for Primary Industries in accordance with the instructions on the front page of this notice.

2 Further action

If you wish to raise any matter relating to circumstances of the alleged offence, you should do so by writing to the informant at the address shown in the note at the end of this information within 28 days after the service of this notice.

3 Defences

- (1) You have a defence against any proceedings for the offence alleged in this notice if you can prove that the infringement fee has been paid to the Ministry for Primary Industries by one of the payment methods specified on the front of this notice within 28 days after you are served with a reminder notice in respect of the offence.

Note: Late payment, or payment by any other method, will not be a defence.

- (2) You have a further defence (in addition to that indicated in paragraph (1)) against any proceedings for an alleged offence if you prove that—
 - (a) you took all reasonable steps to avoid committing the offence; or
 - (b) the act or omission constituting the offence—
 - (i) took place in circumstances of an adverse event or an emergency; and
 - (ii) was necessary for the preservation, protection, or maintenance of animal or human life or for animal welfare purposes.
- (3) A defence referred to in paragraph (2) is available only if you provide to the prosecutor a written notice—
 - (a) stating that you intend to rely on the defence; and
 - (b) specifying, as relevant,—
 - (i) for a defence referred to in paragraph (2)(a), the reasonable steps that you claim to have taken;

- (ii) for a defence referred to in paragraph (2)(b), the circumstances of an adverse event or emergency and the reasons why the act or omission was necessary for the preservation, protection, or maintenance of animal or human life or for animal welfare purposes.
- (4) A notice referred to in paragraph (3) must be provided to the prosecutor—
 - (a) not later than 7 working days after the summons has been served on you; or
 - (b) with the leave of the court, within any further time that the court allows.

Note: All queries and correspondence regarding this infringement must be directed to the Ministry for Primary Industries, [specify full address].

4 Right to request hearing

- (1) You have the right to request a hearing. A request for a hearing must be made in writing, be signed by you, and be delivered to the informant at the address shown in the note at the end of this information within 28 days after you have been served with a reminder notice. If you request a hearing, you may deny liability for the offence, or admit liability and make submissions as to penalty or any other matter.
- (2) If you deny liability for the offence, the Ministry for Primary Industries will serve you with a notice of hearing setting out the place and time at which the matter will be heard by the court (unless the Ministry for Primary Industries decides not to commence court proceedings).

Note: If the court finds you guilty of the offence, costs will be imposed in addition to any fine.
- (3) If you admit liability for the offence but want the court to consider your submissions, you should, in your request for a hearing—
 - (a) admit the offence; and
 - (b) set out the written submissions that you wish the court to consider.
- (4) The Ministry for Primary Industries will then file your letter with the court (unless the Ministry for Primary Industries decides not to commence court proceedings). There will be no oral hearing before the court if you follow this course of action.

Note: Any costs will be imposed in addition to any fine.

5 Consequences of taking no action

- (1) If you do not pay the infringement fee and do not request a hearing within 28 days after the service of this notice, you will be served with a reminder notice (unless the informant decides otherwise).
- (2) If you do not pay the infringement fee and do not request a hearing in respect of the alleged infringement offence within 28 days after the service of the reminder notice, you will become liable to pay costs in addition to the infringement fee (unless the informant decides not to commence court proceedings against you).

6 Questions and other correspondence

In any correspondence, please include—

- (a) the date of the infringement notice; and
- (b) the infringement notice number; and
- (c) the course of action you are taking in respect of the alleged offence; and
- (d) your full address for replies.

Note: All queries and all correspondence regarding this notice must be directed to the Ministry for Primary Industries, [specify full address].

Note: An infringement notice may be cancelled by a NAIT officer or a NAIT authorised person in the interests of justice (so long as neither the particulars of the reminder notice nor a notice of hearing relating to this infringement notice has been filed in the District Court).

Further information

Further details of your rights and obligations are set out in section 21 of the Summary Proceedings Act 1957.

Information about infringement offences

Note: If, after reading this information, there is something in it that you do not understand, you should consult a lawyer immediately.

Note: Infringement offence notices may be issued in respect of offences against the National Animal Identification and Tracing Act 2012 or regulations made pursuant to that Act.

The type of infringement offence that you are alleged to have committed appears on the front of this form.

1 Payment of infringement fee

If you pay the infringement fee within 28 days after the service of this notice, no further enforcement action will be taken against you. Payment should be made to the Ministry for Primary Industries in accordance with the instructions on the front page of this notice.

2 Further action

- (1) If you wish to raise any matter relating to the circumstances of the alleged offence, you should do so by writing to the informant at the address shown in the note at the end of this information within 28 days after the service of this notice.
- (2) If you wish to deny liability in respect of the alleged offence, you must, within 28 days after the service of this notice, write to the informant at the address shown in the note at the end of this information requesting a hearing in respect of the offence. The Ministry will then, if it decides to commence court proceedings in respect of the offence, serve you with a notice of hearing setting out the place and time at which the court will hear the matter.

Note: If the court finds you guilty of the offence, costs will be imposed in addition to any penalty.

- (3) If you admit liability in respect of the alleged offence but wish to have the court consider submissions as to penalty or other matters, you must, within 28 days after the service of this notice, write to the informant at the address shown in the note at the end of this information requesting a hearing in respect of the offence and in that same letter admit liability in respect of the offence and set out the submissions that you wish the court to consider. The Ministry will then, if it decides to commence court proceedings in respect of the offence, file your letter with the court. You are not entitled to make oral submissions to the court if you follow this course of action.

Note: Costs will be imposed in addition to any penalty.

Note: When writing, please include the date of the infringement, the reminder notice number, and your full address for replies.

3 Non-payment of fee

If you do not pay the infringement fee and do not request a hearing in respect of the alleged infringement offence within 28 days after the service of this notice, you will become liable to pay costs in addition to a fine (unless the informant decides not to commence court proceedings against you). The fine will be equal to the amount of the infringement fee or the amount of the infringement fee remaining unpaid.

4 Defences

- (1) You have a defence against any proceedings for the offence alleged in this notice if the infringement fee is paid to the informant by one of the payment methods specified on the front of this notice before, or within 28 days after, you are served with this notice. Late payment, or payment by any other method, will not be a defence.
- (2) You have a further defence (in addition to that indicated in paragraph (1)) against any proceedings for an alleged offence against clause 82 or 83 of Schedule 2 of the National Animal Identification and Tracing Act 2012 if you prove that—
 - (a) you took all reasonable steps to avoid committing the offence; or
 - (b) the act or omission constituting the offence—
 - (i) took place in circumstances of an adverse event or an emergency; and
 - (ii) was necessary for the preservation, protection, or maintenance of animal or human life or for animal welfare purposes.
- (3) A defence referred to in paragraph (2) is available only if you provide to the prosecutor a written notice—
 - (a) stating that you intend to rely on the defence; and
 - (b) specifying, as relevant,—
 - (i) for a defence referred to in paragraph (2)(a), the reasonable steps that you claim to have taken;
 - (ii) for a defence referred to in paragraph (2)(b), the circumstances of an adverse event or emergency and the reasons why the act or omission was necessary for the preservation, protection, or maintenance of animal or human life or for animal welfare purposes.
- (4) A notice referred to in paragraph (3) must be provided to the prosecutor—

- (a) not later than 7 working days after the summons has been served on you;
or
- (b) with the leave of the court, within any further time that the court allows.

Note: All queries and correspondence regarding this infringement must be directed to the Ministry for Primary Industries, [specify full address].

- (5) Payments relating to this infringement should be made in accordance with the procedure for payment shown on the front page of this notice.

Note: An infringement notice may be cancelled by a NAIT officer or a NAIT authorised person in the interests of justice (so long as neither the particulars of this reminder notice nor a notice of hearing relating to the infringement notice has been filed in the District Court).
