Initial levy period

4 Levy rates for initial levy period

- (1) The rates of levy for the initial levy period are as follows:
 - (a) $7.45 for an arriving traveller other than an arriving cruise ship traveller;
 - (b) $7.50 for an arriving cruise ship traveller;
 - (c) $2.93 for a departing traveller other than a departing cruise ship traveller;
 - (d) $3.10 for a departing cruise ship traveller.
- (2) The rates of levy set by subclause (1) are exclusive of goods and services tax.
- (3) The chief executive must, before 1 January 2016, notify the rates of levy set by subclause (1) by notice in the Gazette.

Later levy periods

5 Levy rates for later levy periods

- (1) The rates of levy for each levy period after the initial levy period must be set and notified as follows.

- (2) The chief executive must, before the levy period begins, set the rates of levy referred to in subclause (3) for the levy period in accordance with clauses 6 to 9.
- (3) The rates of levy to be set are as follows:
 - (a) the rate for an arriving traveller other than an arriving cruise ship traveller:
 - (b) the rate for an arriving cruise ship traveller:
 - (c) the rate for a departing traveller other than a departing cruise ship traveller:
 - (d) the rate for a departing cruise ship traveller.
- (4) The rates of levy set under subclause (2) are exclusive of goods and services tax.
- (5) The chief executive must, before the levy period begins, notify by notice in the Gazette each rate of levy set under subclause (2) that is higher or lower than the corresponding rate for the previous levy period.
- (6) See also clause 10, which provides that a rate of levy may be reset because of unanticipated circumstances.

6 Levy rate for arriving travellers other than arriving cruise ship travellers

- (1) The rate of levy referred to in clause 5(3)(a) must be set on the basis of the following formula (subject to subclause (3)):

$$a \div b$$

where—

- a is an estimate of the border processing costs for the levy period, as adjusted under subclause (2)
 - b is an estimate of the number of arriving travellers who will arrive in New Zealand in the levy period, excluding arriving cruise ship travellers and arriving travellers who are exempt travellers.
- (2) The estimated border processing costs referred to in subclause (1) must be adjusted to take into account—
 - (a) any estimated shortfall in recovery, or any estimated over-recovery, of the border processing costs for the previous levy period; and
 - (b) any actual shortfall in recovery, or any actual over-recovery, of the border processing costs for the levy period before the previous levy period so far as the shortfall remains to be recovered, or the over-recovery remains to be allowed for.
 - (3) The rate of levy must not exceed $7.80.
 - (4) In this clause, border processing costs means costs incurred by the Customs in, or for the purpose of, carrying out its functions, under the Act or any other enactment, in relation to relevant travellers and their accompanying baggage

(or other goods in their possession or under their control), but excluding costs referred to in section 413(5) of the Act.

- (5) In subclause (4), relevant travellers means arriving travellers excluding arriving cruise ship travellers and arriving travellers who are non-levy funded exempt travellers.

Clause 6(4): amended, on 1 October 2018, by section 443(4) of the Customs and Excise Act 2018 (2018 No 4).

7 Levy rate for arriving cruise ship travellers

- (1) The rate of levy referred to in clause 5(3)(b) must be set on the basis of the following formula (subject to subclause (3)):

$$c \div d$$

where—

- c is an estimate of the border processing costs for the levy period, as adjusted under subclause (2)
- d is an estimate of the number of arriving cruise ship travellers who will arrive in New Zealand in the levy period, excluding arriving cruise ship travellers who are exempt travellers.
- (2) The estimated border processing costs referred to in subclause (1) must be adjusted to take into account—
- (a) any estimated shortfall in recovery, or any estimated over-recovery, of the border processing costs for the previous levy period; and
- (b) any actual shortfall in recovery, or any actual over-recovery, of the border processing costs for the levy period before the previous levy period so far as the shortfall remains to be recovered, or the over-recovery remains to be allowed for.
- (3) The rate of levy must not exceed $10.40.
- (4) In this clause, border processing costs means costs incurred by the Customs in, or for the purpose of, carrying out its functions, under the Act or any other enactment, in relation to relevant travellers and their accompanying baggage (or other goods in their possession or under their control), but excluding costs referred to in section 413(5) of the Act.
- (5) In subclause (4), relevant travellers means arriving cruise ship travellers excluding arriving cruise ship travellers who are non-levy funded exempt travellers.

Clause 7(4): amended, on 1 October 2018, by section 443(4) of the Customs and Excise Act 2018 (2018 No 4).

8 Levy rate for departing travellers other than departing cruise ship travellers

- (1) The rate of levy referred to in clause 5(3)(c) must be set on the basis of the following formula (subject to subclause (3)):

$$e \div f$$

where—

e is an estimate of the border processing costs for the levy period, as adjusted under subclause (2)

f is an estimate of the number of departing travellers who will depart New Zealand in the levy period, excluding departing cruise ship travellers and departing travellers who are exempt travellers.

- (2) The estimated border processing costs referred to in subclause (1) must be adjusted to take into account—
 - (a) any estimated shortfall in recovery, or any estimated over-recovery, of the border processing costs for the previous levy period; and
 - (b) any actual shortfall in recovery, or any actual over-recovery, of the border processing costs for the levy period before the previous levy period so far as the shortfall remains to be recovered, or the over-recovery remains to be allowed for.
- (3) The rate of levy must not exceed $3.10.
- (4) In this clause, border processing costs means costs incurred by the Customs in, or for the purpose of, carrying out its functions, under the Act or any other enactment, in relation to relevant travellers and their accompanying baggage (or other goods in their possession or under their control), but excluding costs referred to in section 413(5) of the Act.
- (5) In subclause (4), relevant travellers means departing travellers excluding departing cruise ship travellers and departing travellers who are non-levy funded exempt travellers.

Clause 8(4): amended, on 1 October 2018, by section 443(4) of the Customs and Excise Act 2018 (2018 No 4).

9 Levy rate for departing cruise ship travellers

- (1) The rate of levy referred to in clause 5(3)(d) must be set on the basis of the following formula (subject to subclause (3)):

$$g \div h$$

where—

g is an estimate of the border processing costs for the levy period, as adjusted under subclause (2)

h is an estimate of the number of departing cruise ship travellers who will depart New Zealand in the levy period, excluding departing cruise ship travellers who are exempt travellers.

- (2) The estimated border processing costs referred to in subclause (1) must be adjusted to take into account—

- (a) any estimated shortfall in recovery, or any estimated over-recovery, of the border processing costs for the previous levy period; and
 - (b) any actual shortfall in recovery, or any actual over-recovery, of the border processing costs for the levy period before the previous levy period so far as the shortfall remains to be recovered, or the over-recovery remains to be allowed for.
- (3) The rate of levy must not exceed $4.10.
- (4) In this clause, border processing costs means costs incurred by the Customs in, or for the purpose of, carrying out its functions, under the Act or any other enactment, in relation to relevant travellers and their accompanying baggage (or other goods in their possession or under their control), but excluding costs referred to in section 413(5) of the Act.
- (5) In subclause (4), relevant travellers means departing cruise ship travellers excluding departing cruise ship travellers who are non-levy funded exempt travellers.

Clause 9(4): amended, on 1 October 2018, by section 443(4) of the Customs and Excise Act 2018 (2018 No 4).

10 Resetting of levy rates

- (1) This clause applies if the chief executive is satisfied that it is appropriate to reset a rate of levy for a levy period after the initial levy period because of circumstances that—
- (a) occur before or during the levy period but after the rate of levy was set under clause 5(2) or was last reset under subclause (2) of this clause; and
 - (b) were not anticipated by the chief executive when setting the rate of levy under clause 5(2) or last resetting the rate of levy under subclause (2) of this clause.
- (2) The chief executive must, as soon as is reasonably practicable,—
- (a) reset the rate of levy for the levy period in accordance with clause 6, 7, 8, or 9 (as the case may be); and
 - (b) notify the new rate of levy by notice in the Gazette.
- (3) The new rate of levy set under subclause (2) is exclusive of goods and services tax.
- (4) The new rate of levy set under subclause (2) applies on and after the later of the following:
- (a) the first day of the levy period;
 - (b) the 28th day after the date on which the new rate is notified in the Gazette.
- (5) In deciding whether it is appropriate to reset a rate of levy for a levy period, the chief executive must have regard to—

- (a) the size (or the increased size) of any shortfall in recovery, or any over-recovery, of costs that is likely to result from the occurrence of the circumstances if the rate of levy is not reset; and
- (b) the amount of time remaining in the levy period; and
- (c) any other matters that the chief executive considers relevant.

Exemptions

11 Travellers exempt from levy

- (1) The following travellers are exempt from the levy:
 - (a) a traveller under the age of 2 years:
 - (b) a traveller who arrives in, or departs, New Zealand on an international aircraft otherwise than as a passenger:

Clause 11(2) arrival hall: inserted, on 1 October 2018, by section 443(4) of the Customs and Excise Act 2018 (2018 No 4).

Clause 11(2) departure hall: inserted, on 1 October 2018, by section 443(4) of the Customs and Excise Act 2018 (2018 No 4).

When and how levy is to be paid

12 Collection agents

- (1) In this order, collection agent means a person who is responsible for collecting the levy under any of subclauses (2), (3), (4), and (6).
- (2) An international air service licensee is responsible for collecting the levy from the travellers who arrive in, or depart, New Zealand on international aircraft operated by the international air service licensee.
- (3) A cruise line is responsible for collecting the levy from the travellers who arrive in, or depart, New Zealand on cruise ships operated by the cruise line.
- (4) The following person is responsible for collecting the levy from the travellers who arrive in New Zealand on a craft if neither subclause (2) nor subclause (3) applies:
 - (a) any agent in New Zealand of the owner or operator of the craft who, acting under section 12(4)(b) of the Act, provides to the Customs any advance notice required under section 12(1) of the Act relating to the craft's arrival in New Zealand:
 - (b) the person in charge of the craft, if paragraph (a) does not apply.
- (5) Subclause (4) does not apply if all of the travellers who arrive in New Zealand on the craft are exempt travellers.
- (6) The following person is responsible for collecting the levy from the travellers who depart New Zealand on a craft if neither subclause (2) nor subclause (3) applies:
 - (a) any agent in New Zealand of the owner or operator of the craft who, acting under section 37(8)(b) of the Act, provides to the Customs the advance notice of departure referred to in section 37(2)(a) of the Act relating to the craft's departure from New Zealand:
 - (b) the person in charge of the craft, if paragraph (a) does not apply.
- (7) Subclause (6) does not apply if all of the travellers who depart New Zealand on the craft are exempt travellers.

Clause 12(4)(a): amended, on 1 October 2018, by section 443(4) of the Customs and Excise Act 2018 (2018 No 4).

Clause 12(6)(a): amended, on 1 October 2018, by section 443(4) of the Customs and Excise Act 2018 (2018 No 4).

13 Payment of levy

- (1) This clause applies in relation to a traveller who is not an exempt traveller.
- (2) If the traveller is an arriving traveller, the traveller must pay the levy to the collection agent no later than the day of the traveller's arrival.
- (3) If the traveller is a departing traveller, the traveller must pay the levy to the collection agent no later than the day of the traveller's departure.

- (4) The collection agent must pay the levy to the chief executive no later than the 20th day of the month following the month in which the collection agent receives a notice under clause 16 that requires the collection agent to pay the levy.

14 Extension of time for payment of levy by collection agent

The chief executive may extend the time for payment of the levy given by clause 13(4) if the chief executive considers that the collection agent was or will be unable to pay the levy before the close of the day referred to in clause 13(4) because of extraordinary circumstances that are beyond the collection agent's control.

15 Additional levy if levy paid late

- (1) This clause applies if the whole or a part of an amount of levy payable by a traveller is not paid to the chief executive by the collection agent before the close of the payment day (whether or not the collection agent has collected the whole or the part of that amount from the traveller).
- (2) The collection agent must pay to the chief executive an amount of additional levy (including any goods and services tax payable on that amount).
- (3) The amount of additional levy (exclusive of goods and services tax) is—
- (a) 8% of the unpaid amount; plus
 - (b) for each relevant period that the unpaid amount remains wholly or partly unpaid, 2% of so much of the unpaid amount as remains unpaid at the close of the relevant period.
- (4) In subclause (3), unpaid amount—
- (a) means the whole or the part of the amount of levy not paid as referred to in subclause (1); and
 - (b) in paragraph (b), includes the amount of additional levy (exclusive of goods and services tax).
- (5) For the purposes of subclause (3)(b), the first relevant period is the period of 1 month beginning with the day after the payment day, the second relevant period is the period of 1 month beginning with the day that immediately follows the close of the first relevant period, and so on.
- (6) In this clause, payment day means—
- (a) the day referred to in clause 13(4); or
 - (b) if clause 14 applies, the day allowed by the chief executive.

16 Chief executive to issue notices to collection agents requiring payment of levy

- (1) This clause applies if a craft arrives in, or departs, New Zealand.

- (2) The chief executive must issue a notice under this clause to the person who is the collection agent for the travellers who arrive in, or depart, New Zealand on the craft.
- (3) The notice must be issued no later than the close of the third month following the month in which the craft arrives or departs.
- (4) The notice must—
 - (a) require the collection agent to pay to the chief executive the amounts of levy payable by any travellers who arrive in, or depart, New Zealand on the craft; and
 - (b) include an estimate of the total amount payable.
- (5) A notice issued under this clause to a person may cover more than 1 craft in relation to which the person is the collection agent.

Returns, records, and auditors

17 International air service licensees to make returns relating to travellers exempt under clause 11(1)(l)

- (1) If international aircraft operated by an international air service licensee arrive in, or depart, New Zealand in 2016, the international air service licensee must provide the Customs with sufficient information to enable the reasonable verification of the number of service travellers who are exempt from the levy under clause 11(1)(l).
- (2) For the purposes of subclause (1), the international air service licensee must,—
 - (a) no later than the date given by subclause (3), provide the Customs with a return containing the required information in relation to—
 - (i) service travellers who arrive in, or depart, New Zealand before the date of the return; and
 - (ii) persons who are scheduled to arrive in, or depart, New Zealand as service travellers on or after the date of the return; and
 - (b) promptly provide the Customs with returns updating the information provided under paragraph (a)(ii) or this paragraph as necessary to take account of actual arrivals and departures of service travellers or changes to the persons who are scheduled to arrive in, or depart, New Zealand as service travellers.
- (3) The date referred to in subclause (2)(a) is the later of the following:
 - (a) 1 February 2016;
 - (b) the first day in 2016 on which service travellers arrive in, or depart, New Zealand.
- (4) In this clause, service traveller means a traveller who arrives in, or departs, New Zealand in 2016 on an international aircraft operated by the international air service licensee.

18 Cruise lines to make returns relating to travellers exempt under clause 11(1)(m)

- (1) If cruise ships operated by a cruise line arrive in, or depart, New Zealand in 2016, the cruise line must provide the Customs with sufficient information to enable the reasonable verification of the number of relevant cruise ship travellers who are exempt from the levy under clause 11(1)(m).
- (2) For the purposes of subclause (1), the cruise line must,—
 - (a) no later than the date given by subclause (3), provide the Customs with a return containing the required information in relation to—
 - (i) relevant cruise ship travellers who arrive in, or depart, New Zealand before the date of the return; and
 - (ii) persons who are scheduled to arrive in, or depart, New Zealand as relevant cruise ship travellers on or after the date of the return; and
 - (b) promptly provide the Customs with returns updating the information provided under paragraph (a)(ii) or this paragraph as necessary to take account of actual arrivals and departures of relevant cruise ship travellers or changes to the persons who are scheduled to arrive in, or depart, New Zealand as relevant cruise ship travellers.
- (3) The date referred to in subclause (2)(a) is the later of the following:
 - (a) 1 February 2016;
 - (b) the first day in 2016 on which relevant cruise ship travellers arrive in, or depart, New Zealand.
- (4) In this clause, relevant cruise ship traveller means a traveller who arrives in, or departs, New Zealand in 2016 on a cruise ship operated by the cruise line.

19 Records to be kept by collection agents

- (1) A person who is a collection agent in a levy period must keep the following records in respect of the levy period:
 - (a) records that reasonably verify the following:
 - (i) the number of travellers for whom the person is the collection agent;
 - (ii) the number of those travellers who are exempt travellers;
 - (iii) the amounts of levy (including amounts of additional levy) that the collection agent is required to pay to the chief executive;
 - (iv) the payments of levy (including additional levy) made by the collection agent to the chief executive, including the days on which the payments are made;
 - (b) records that reasonably explain any differences between—

- (i) the amounts of levy that the collection agent is required to pay to the chief executive:
 - (ii) any estimates of amounts of levy payable included in notices issued to the collection agent under clause 16:
 - (c) if the levy period is the initial levy period, copies of any returns made by the collection agent under clause 17 or 18.
- (2) The records must be retained for 2 years after the close of the levy period.

20 Records to be kept by chief executive

- (1) The chief executive must keep the following records in respect of each levy period:
- (a) records of the rates of levy set:
 - (b) records that reasonably verify the following:
 - (i) the amounts of levy (including amounts of additional levy) paid to the chief executive, the days on which the payments are made, and the persons by whom the payments are made:
 - (ii) the ways in which the levy (including additional levy) is spent:
 - (c) copies of any notices issued under clause 16:
 - (d) if the levy period is the initial levy period, any returns received under clause 17 or 18.
- (2) The chief executive must, in respect of each levy period after the initial levy period, also keep records of the following:
- (a) any estimates used by the chief executive as referred to in clauses 6 to 9:
 - (b) any shortfalls in recovery, or any over-recoveries, of costs taken into account by the chief executive under clause 6(2)(b), 7(2)(b), 8(2)(b), or 9(2)(b):
 - (c) the ways in which the things referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) were calculated.
- (3) The records referred to in subclauses (1) and (2) must be retained for 2 years after the close of the levy period.

21 Remuneration of auditors

A person appointed as an auditor under section 417 of the Act must be remunerated by the chief executive at a rate determined by the Minister.

Clause 21: amended, on 1 October 2018, by section 443(4) of the Customs and Excise Act 2018 (2018 No 4).
