Explanatory note

This note is not part of the rules, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These rules are the Education Council Amendment Rules 2018 (the rules).

These rules come into force on 19 May 2018. They amend the Education Council Rules 2016 (the principal rules).

In summary, the rules—

- establish a Competence Authority as provided for in the Education Act 1989 (the Act) and provide for its membership and operation; and
- update the criteria for reporting serious misconduct by teachers; and

- provide for a Registration Panel to consider and determine certain applications for teacher registration and provide for the membership and operation of the Panel; and
- replace the term competence assessor throughout the principal rules with the new term professional practice evaluator; and
- make other minor and technical amendments.

The rules include transitional provisions, which have the following effect:

- alleged misconduct that occurs before the rules come into force must be dealt with as if the criteria for reporting had not changed, no matter when the alleged misconduct is discovered or reported;
- only applications for teacher registration that are received after the rules come into force may be considered by the Registration Panel.

Transitional provisions relating to changes to the Competence Authority are set out in Part 2 of Schedule 1 of the Education Act 1989.

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2012.
