Explanatory note

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on 26 October 2018, define iwi organisation and other Māori organisation for the purposes of sections 111A to 111F of the Electoral Act 1993 (the Act). Sections 111A to 111F of the Act allow the Electoral Commission to seek the consent of Māori electors to supply certain electoral information to the Tūhono Trust, which supplies the information to iwi organisations and other Māori organisations specified by the electors for the purpose of establishing and maintaining registers of iwi affiliations. The regulations revoke and replace the Electoral (Iwi Organisation and Other Māori Organisation) Regulations 2012 to update the definition of iwi organisation and other Māori organisation by adding 47 new organisations to, and deleting 5 from, the list in existence immediately before the commencement of these regulations.

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2012.

Date of notification in Gazette: 27 September 2018.

These regulations are administered by the Ministry of Justice.
