1888, No. 3.—Local.

AN ACT to vest in Trustees certain Land acquired for a Drill-shed at Whangarei. Title.
[30th August, 1888.]

WHEREAS the piece of land at Whangarei described in the Schedule hereto has been acquired for the purposes of a drill-shed for the Volunteers of the district, and a drill-shed erected thereon, and it is expedient for the proper control and maintenance thereof that the said land and building should be vested in trustees: And whereas such land is now vested in Her Majesty the Queen: Preamble.

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act is “The Whangarei Drill-shed Act, 1888.” Short Title.

2. The land described in the schedule hereto, and all buildings and erections thereon, are hereby vested for an estate in fee-simple in Thomas Viret Shepherd, Lieutenant-Colonel, commanding the Auckland District of Volunteers; Arthur Thomas, of Whangarei, settler; John David McKenzie, of Whangarei, farmer; and Edward Williams, of Whangarei, saddler, as trustees, to hold the said land and buildings as a drill-shed for the use of the Whangarei Volunteers, subject to the provisions of an Act passed or intended to be passed during the present session of the General Assembly in Parliament, and which Act is shortly intituled, “The Volunteer Drill-sheds and Lands Act, 1888.” Drill-shed vested in trustees.
