An Act to amend the Auckland Domain Vesting Act 1893

[23 September 1986]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Auckland Domain Vesting Amendment Act 1986, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Auckland Domain Vesting Act 1893 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

2. Additional powers of the Council with respect to the cricket-ground—Section 7 of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after subsection (4), the following subsection:

“(4A) May from time to time, for any period or periods, whether or not including Sundays, but not exceeding 7 consecutive days on any occasion or 20 days in any year, upon application by any person, body, or society (whether incorporated or not) and payment of any sum the Corporation thinks fit, either unconditionally or subject to any conditions the Corporation thinks fit to impose,—

“(a) Grant to the applicant the exclusive use and control of the cricket-ground for the purpose of holding there any community, cultural, or religious function or functions, or any function or functions falling into 2 or more of those categories; and

and in that case, notwithstanding anything in this Act or any other enactment, but subject to any conditions the Corporation has imposed, for the period or periods concerned the applicant—

“(c) Shall (for the purpose only of preparing for, holding, and dealing with the consequences of the function or functions concerned) have exclusive use and control of the cricket-ground; and

“(d) May place and maintain on the cricket-ground any buildings or structures permitted by the Corporation; and

“(e) Shall be deemed to be in lawful occupation of the cricket-ground, and to be the only person in lawful occupation of the cricket ground:

“Provided that any person authorised in that behalf by the Corporation may at any time enter the cricket-ground for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not any conditions imposed by the Corporation have been or are being complied with by the applicant:”.

3. Expiry—This Act, and section 7 (4A) of the principal Act (as inserted by section 2 of this Act), shall expire with the close of the 31st day of December 1989 and are hereby deemed to be repealed from the close of that day.
