(b) all matters and proceedings commenced under any such enactment, and pending or in progress on the coming into operation of this Act, may be continued, completed, and enforced under this Act.

2 Interpretation

In this Act, if not inconsistent with the context,— trade union means any combination, whether temporary or permanent, for regulating the relations between workers and employers, or between workers and workers, or between employers and employers, or for imposing restrictive conditions on the conduct of any trade or business, whether such combination would or would not, if this Act had not come into operation, have been deemed to have been an unlawful combination by reason of some one or more of its purposes being in restraint of trade:

provided that this Act shall not affect—

(a) any agreement between partners as to their own business:

(b) any agreement between an employer and those employed by him or her as to such employment:

(c) any agreement in consideration of the sale of the goodwill of a business, or of instruction in any profession, trade, or handicraft.

Compare: 1878 No 8 s 2

Criminal provisions

3 Trade union not criminal

The purposes of any trade union shall not, by reason merely that they are in restraint of trade, be deemed to be unlawful so as to render any member of such trade union liable to criminal prosecution for conspiracy or otherwise.

Compare: 1878 No 8 s 3

4 Trade union not unlawful

The purposes of any trade union shall not, by reason merely that they are in restraint of trade, be unlawful so as to render void or voidable any agreement or trust.

Compare: 1878 No 8 s 4

5 Trade union contracts when not enforceable

Nothing in this Act shall enable any court to entertain any legal proceeding instituted with the object of directly enforcing or recovering damages for the breach of any of the following agreements, namely:

(a) any agreement between members of a trade union as such, concerning the conditions on which any members for the time being of such trade union shall or shall not sell their goods, transact business, employ, or be employed:

(iii) to discharge any fine imposed on any person by sentence of a court of justice:

(d) any agreement made between one trade union and another:

(e) any bond to secure the performance of any of the above-mentioned agreements:

but nothing in this section shall be deemed to constitute any of the above-mentioned agreements unlawful.
