1912, No 38.

Title. AN ACT to amend the Provision made for the Registration of Barmaids. [7th November, 1912.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short Title. 1. This Act may be cited as the Barmaids Registration Act, 1912.

Section 36 of Licensing Amendment Act, 1910, amended.

2. Subsection one of section thirty-six of the Licensing Amendment Act, 1910, is hereby amended by inserting, after the word "bar" where it first occurs, the words "or private bar."

Extension of time within which registration of barmaids may be effected.

3. (1.) Every person who was on the passing of the Licensing Amendment Act, 1910, entitled on application to be registered as a barmaid but who failed to make application within the time limited in that behalf shall be entitled to be registered as a barmaid under the Licensing Amendment Act, 1910, if application for registration is made by her in the prescribed manner on or before the first day of June, nineteen hundred and thirteen.

(2.) On any such application the provisions of section thirty-six of the last-mentioned Act shall apply in the same manner as if application had been duly made as provided by subsection four of that section.
