4A Sittings of court at other places

- (1) Where any civil or Judge-alone criminal proceedings are pending in any court the party issuing the proceedings may, or if the proceedings are to be defended, or if a Judge has directed either generally or specifically that the attendance of a party is required, then any party may, apply to the court for the proceedings to be heard at any other convenient place. A further application may, from time to time, be made for the hearing to be continued or completed in any other place.

- (2) If a Judge is satisfied that in all the circumstances as between the parties the proceedings could be more conveniently or fairly heard or continued to be heard at some place, other than in a court appointed under this Act, and that suitable accommodation for a hearing at such place is available the Judge shall, unless for special reasons relating to the particular proceedings he directs otherwise, make an order, upon such terms and conditions as he thinks fit, that the proceedings be heard or be continued to be heard at a sitting of the court held at that other place and may at that time, or at any subsequent time, fix a date and time for any such hearing.
- (3) With the consent of all parties an order under this provision may be made by the Registrar.
- (4) At all times any such proceedings shall be heard and determined as proceedings of the court and at the conclusion of any such hearing the papers shall be returned and the result and any necessary minutes recorded in the books of the court.
- (5) This section shall have effect notwithstanding the provisions of section 4, but nothing in this section shall limit the power of the court to transfer proceedings to another court.

Section 4A: inserted, on 29 June 1974, by section 2(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1974 (1974 No 20).

Section 4A(1): amended, on 1 July 2013, by section 12 of the District Courts Amendment Act (No 2) 2011 (2011 No 88).

5AA Judges act on full-time basis but may be authorised to act part-time

- (1) A person acts as a Judge on a full-time basis unless he or she is authorised by the Attorney-General to act on a part-time basis.
- (2) The Attorney-General may, in accordance with subsection (4), authorise a Judge appointed under section 5 or section 5A to act on a part-time basis for any specified period.
- (3) To avoid doubt, an authorisation under subsection (2) may take effect as from a Judge's appointment or at any other time, and may be given more than once in respect of the same Judge.
- (4) The Attorney-General may authorise a Judge to act on a part-time basis only—
  - (a) on the request of the Judge; and
  - (b) with the concurrence of the Chief District Court Judge (after consultation with the Principal Environment Judge if the request is from an Environment Judge).
- (5) In considering whether to concur under subsection (4)(b), the Chief District Court Judge must have regard to the ability of the court to discharge its obligations in an orderly and expeditious way.
- (6) A Judge who is authorised to act on a part-time basis must resume acting on a full-time basis at the end of the authorised part-time period.
- (7) The basis on which a Judge acts must not be altered during the term of the Judge's appointment without the Judge's consent, but consent under this subsection is not necessary if the alteration is required by subsection (6).
- (8) This section applies to persons who hold office as District Court Judges regardless of whether they act as District Court Judges, as Environment Judges, or in any other judicial office.

Section 5AA: inserted, on 20 May 2004, by section 4 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2004 (2004 No 42).

5A Chief District Court Judge

- (1) The Governor-General shall from time to time, by warrant under his hand, appoint a Chief District Court Judge.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the Chief District Court Judge shall hold that office so long as he holds office as a Judge.
- (3) With the prior approval of the Governor-General, the Chief District Court Judge may resign that office without resigning his office as a Judge.
- (4) Whenever by reason of illness, absence from New Zealand, or any other cause the Chief District Court Judge is prevented from exercising the duties of his office, the Governor-General may, by writing under his hand, appoint 1 of the other Judges to act as Chief District Court Judge until the Chief District Court Judge resumes his duties, and during that period to execute the duties of that office and to exercise all powers that may be lawfully exercised by the Chief District Court Judge.

Section 5A: inserted, on 1 April 1980, by section 7 of the District Courts Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 125).

Section 5A(4): amended, on 1 May 1981, by section 5 of the District Courts Amendment Act 1980 (1980 No 83).

5B Appointment of jury trial Judges

- (1) The Governor-General must, by warrant, appoint sufficient Judges to exercise the criminal jurisdiction of the courts in respect of jury trials under the Criminal Procedure Act 2011.
- (2) The fact that a Judge is appointed under this section does not limit or affect the power of that Judge to exercise any other jurisdiction of the court or the powers of a Judge.

Compare: 1947 No 16 s 28B

Section 5B: inserted, on 1 July 2013, by section 4 of the District Courts Amendment Act (No 2) 2011 (2011 No 88).

6 Salaries and allowances

- (1) There must be paid to the Chief District Court Judge, to the Principal Environment Judge, to the Principal Family Court Judge, to the Principal Youth Court Judge, and to the other Judges, out of public money, without further appropriation than this section,—
  - (a) salaries at the rates from time to time determined by the Remuneration Authority; and
  - (b) the allowances from time to time determined by the Remuneration Authority; and
  - (c) the additional allowances, being travelling allowances or incidental or minor allowances, from time to time determined by the Governor-General.
- (2) The salary of a Judge shall not be diminished during the continuance of the Judge's appointment.
- (2A) The salary and allowances payable for a period during which a Judge acts on a part-time basis must be calculated and paid as a pro-rata proportion of the salary and allowances for a full-time equivalent position.
- (2B) If a principal Judge ceases to hold the position of principal Judge but continues to hold office as a Judge, the salary and allowances of the Judge may be reduced by the amount of any salary or allowances that the person received solely because of being the principal Judge.
- (2C) For the purpose of subsection (2), the payment of salary and allowances on a pro-rata basis under subsection (2A) or the payment of reduced salary and allowances under subsection (2B) is not a diminution of salary.

- (3) Subject to the Remuneration Authority Act 1977, any determination made under subsection (1) of this section, and any provision of any such determination, may be made so as to come into force on a date to be specified in that behalf in the determination, being the date of the making of the determination or any other date, whether before or after the date of the making of the determination or the date of the commencement of this section.
- (4) Every such determination, and every provision of any such determination, in respect of which no date is specified as aforesaid shall come into force on the date of the making of the determination.

Section 8: amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 18(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 125).

Section 8(c): amended, on 1 July 2013, by section 12 of the District Courts Amendment Act (No 2) 2011 (2011 No 88).

9 Assignment and rostering of District Court Judges

- (1) The Chief District Court Judge shall be responsible for ensuring the orderly and expeditious discharge of the business of District Courts throughout New Zealand, and accordingly may, after consultation with the Principal Family Court Judge and the Principal Youth Court Judge, give all such directions as are contemplated by subsection (2).
- (2) Each Judge shall sit in such jurisdictions at such times as the Chief District Court Judge may from time to time direct.
- (3) The fact that a Judge sits in any particular court shall be conclusive evidence of his or her authority so to do, and no exercise of any jurisdiction or power by a Judge shall be questioned on the ground that he or she was not authorised to sit in the court where the jurisdiction or power was so exercised.
- (4) The reference in subsection (2) to jurisdictions means—
  - (a) the ordinary civil and criminal jurisdiction of District Courts, including common law and equitable jurisdiction and admiralty jurisdiction:
  - (b) the specialist jurisdiction of District Courts by virtue of the constitution of Family Courts and Youth Courts as divisions of District Courts.
- (5) For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that the power conferred by this section on the Chief District Court Judge does not include the power to give directions in relation to any District Court Judge who for the time being presides over, or holds office as a member of, or holds office as, a tribunal.

Section 9: substituted, on 2 September 1996, by section 3(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1996 (1996 No 119).

10 Acting Judges

- (1) The Governor-General may at any time during the illness or absence of any Judge, or for any other temporary purpose, by warrant under his hand appoint 1 or more Judges to hold office for such time as is specified in the said warrant. Every such Judge shall be paid such salary, not exceeding the amount payable by law to Judges, as may be appropriated by Parliament for the purpose.

- (2) No person shall be appointed as a Judge under this section unless he is eligible for appointment as a Judge pursuant to section 5, save that a person otherwise qualified who has attained the age of 70 years (including a Judge who has retired after attaining that age) may be appointed as a Judge under this section for a period not exceeding 12 months, or for 2 or more periods not exceeding 4 years in the aggregate.

11C Functions and powers of Community Magistrates

- (1) The functions and powers of Community Magistrates are to carry out such functions and powers as are conferred on Community Magistrates—
  - (a) by the Criminal Procedure Act 2011; or
  - (b) by the Summary Offences Act 1981; or
  - (c) by any other enactment.
- (2) Each Community Magistrate is to sit in such courts at such times as the Chief District Court Judge may from time to time direct after consultation with—
  - (a) the Chief Community Magistrate; or
  - (b) if the office of Chief Community Magistrate is vacant, such other Community Magistrate as the Chief District Court Judge thinks fit.
- (3) The fact that a Community Magistrate sits in any particular court is conclusive evidence of his or her authority to do so.

Section 11C: inserted, on 30 June 1998, by section 3 of the District Courts Amendment Act 1998 (1998 No 76).

Section 11C(1)(a): replaced, on 1 July 2013, by section 12 of the District Courts Amendment Act (No 2) 2011 (2011 No 88).

11CA No proceeding against Community Magistrate unless he or she acted without jurisdiction

- (1) No proceeding may be commenced against any Community Magistrate for any act done by him or her, unless he or she has exceeded his or her jurisdiction or has acted without jurisdiction.
- (2) If a warrant to seize property or warrant of commitment is granted by a Community Magistrate in good faith in reliance on a conviction or order entered or made by 1 or more Justices or 1 or more Community Magistrates, no proceeding may be commenced against the Community Magistrate who granted the warrant by reason of any defect in the conviction or order, or by reason of any want of jurisdiction in the Justice or Justices or Community Magistrate or Community Magistrates who entered or made it.

Compare: 1927 No 37 ss 341, 344, 345, 348; 1957 No 87 s 193

Section 11CA: inserted, on 1 July 2013, by section 5 of the District Courts Amendment Act (No 2) 2011 (2011 No 88).

11CB No proceeding against Community Magistrate to be commenced in District Court

No proceeding against any Community Magistrate by any person claiming to have been injured by an act done by the Community Magistrate in excess of jurisdiction or without jurisdiction may be commenced in a District Court.

Compare: 1927 No 37 s 353; 1957 No 87 s 194

Section 11CB: inserted, on 1 July 2013, by section 5 of the District Courts Amendment Act (No 2) 2011 (2011 No 88).

11CC Onus of proof

In any proceeding commenced against a Community Magistrate by a person claiming to have been injured by an act done by the Community Magistrate in excess of jurisdiction or without jurisdiction, the onus of proving the excess or want of jurisdiction lies on the person alleging it.

Compare: 1927 No 37 s 365; 1957 No 87 s 195

Section 11CC: inserted, on 1 July 2013, by section 5 of the District Courts Amendment Act (No 2) 2011 (2011 No 88).

11CD Plaintiff may be ordered to give security for costs

- (1) This section applies to any proceeding commenced against a Community Magistrate by a person claiming to have been injured by an act done by the Community Magistrate in excess of jurisdiction or without jurisdiction.
- (2) The High Court or any Judge of that court, on application by the Community Magistrate at any time before the day fixed for the trial of the proceeding, may order the plaintiff to give security for the costs of the proceeding to the satisfaction of the Registrar of the High Court in a sum not exceeding $500.
- (3) If security is ordered to be given, the court or Judge may direct that in the meantime all proceedings are stayed.

Compare: 1927 No 37 ss 357, 359; 1957 No 87 s 196

Section 11CD: inserted, on 1 July 2013, by section 5 of the District Courts Amendment Act (No 2) 2011 (2011 No 88).

11CE Indemnity to Community Magistrate

- (1) Subsection (2) applies to any Community Magistrate against whom a judgment has been entered to pay damages or costs to any person injured as a result of any act done by the Community Magistrate in excess of jurisdiction or without jurisdiction.
- (2) The Community Magistrate must be indemnified by the Crown to the full amount of the judgment if he or she produces a certificate signed by a Judge of the High Court stating that, in the Judge's opinion,—
  - (a) the Community Magistrate acted in good faith under the belief that he or she had in fact jurisdiction; and

- (b) in all the circumstances the Community Magistrate ought fairly and reasonably to be excused.
- (3) Subsections (4) and (5) apply if a Community Magistrate settles a claim against him or her by paying or agreeing to pay an agreed amount of damages or costs before proceedings are commenced, or before or during trial of the proceeding.
- (4) The Community Magistrate must be indemnified by the Crown to the full amount of the amount paid or agreed to be paid if he or she produces a certificate signed by a Judge of the High Court stating that, in the Judge's opinion,—
  - (a) the Community Magistrate acted in good faith under the belief that he or she had in fact jurisdiction; and
  - (b) in all the circumstances the Community Magistrate ought fairly and reasonably to be excused; and
  - (c) the amount paid or agreed to be paid was fair and reasonable.
- (5) If the High Court Judge is not satisfied of the matter in subsection (4)(c), the Judge may issue the certificate in respect of any lesser sum that in the Judge's opinion is adequate to settle the plaintiff's claim, and in that case the Community Magistrate must be indemnified by the Crown to the amount specified in the certificate.
- (6) Application for a certificate under any of subsections (2), (4), or (5) may be made by a Community Magistrate at any time to a Judge in chambers, and the Judge has power to grant the certificate after considering all evidence that is given before him or her either orally or in the form of affidavits.
- (7) A copy of the application must be served by the Community Magistrate on the Attorney-General, who is entitled to appear and oppose it.

Compare: 1957 No 87 s 197

Section 11CE: inserted, on 1 July 2013, by section 5 of the District Courts Amendment Act (No 2) 2011 (2011 No 88).

11D Chief Community Magistrate

- (1) The Governor-General may from time to time, by warrant under the Governor-General's hand and on the advice of the Minister of Justice, appoint a Chief Community Magistrate.
- (2) No person may be appointed as Chief Community Magistrate unless that person has held a practising certificate as a barrister or solicitor for at least 5 years.
- (3) The criteria and procedures for appointment of a person as Chief Community Magistrate may be prescribed by regulations made under section 123; but the failure to make any such regulations does not preclude the appointment of a person as Chief Community Magistrate.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), the Chief Community Magistrate holds office so long as he or she holds office as a Community Magistrate.

- (5) With the prior approval of the Governor-General, the Chief Community Magistrate may resign that office without resigning his or her office as a Community Magistrate.
- (6) Whenever by reason of illness, absence from New Zealand, or any other cause the Chief Community Magistrate is prevented from exercising the duties of his or her office, the Governor-General may, by writing under his or her hand, appoint 1 of the other Community Magistrates to act as Chief Community Magistrate until the Chief Community Magistrate resumes his or her duties and, during that period, to execute the duties of that office and to exercise all powers that may be lawfully exercised by the Chief Community Magistrate.

Section 11D: inserted, on 30 June 1998, by section 3 of the District Courts Amendment Act 1998 (1998 No 76).

11E Functions of Chief Community Magistrate

- (1) The functions of the Chief Community Magistrate include—
  - (a) the undertaking of appropriate measures to ensure that the integrity of the office of Community Magistrate is maintained and that the Community Magistrates operate effectively and efficiently within the framework of the District Courts:
  - (b) such other functions as are conferred on the Chief Community Magistrate by regulations made under section 123 or by any other enactment.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the Chief Community Magistrate—
  - (a) may sit as a Community Magistrate and exercise the jurisdiction specified in this Act:
  - (b) is to be consulted by the Chief District Court Judge, in accordance with section 11C(2), with regard to the rostering of Community Magistrates:
  - (c) may be involved in the design and implementation of training programmes for Community Magistrates in consultation with the Ministry of Justice and the Chief District Court Judge:
  - (d) may, where appropriate, liaise with interested persons on matters affecting the office of Community Magistrate.

Section 11E: inserted, on 30 June 1998, by section 3 of the District Courts Amendment Act 1998 (1998 No 76).

Section 11E(2)(c): amended, on 1 October 2003, pursuant to section 14(1) of the State Sector Amendment Act 2003 (2003 No 41).

11F Tenure of office

- (1) Every Community Magistrate must retire from office on attaining the age of 70 years.

- (2) The Governor-General may remove a Community Magistrate from office for neglect of duty, inability, disability affecting performance of duty, bankruptcy, or misconduct, proved to the satisfaction of the Governor-General.
- (3) Any Community Magistrate may at any time resign the office of Community Magistrate by notice in writing addressed to the Minister of Justice.

Section 11F: inserted, on 30 June 1998, by section 3 of the District Courts Amendment Act 1998 (1998 No 76).

Section 11F(1): amended, on 6 March 2007, by section 7 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2007 (2007 No 1).

11G Remuneration and allowances of Community Magistrates

- (1) There is to be paid to the Chief Community Magistrate, out of public money,—
  - (a) remuneration by way of salary, fees, or allowances at such rate as is determined from time to time by the Remuneration Authority in accordance with the Remuneration Authority Act 1977; and
  - (b) such additional allowances, being travelling allowances or other incidental or minor allowances, as may be determined from time to time by the Governor-General by Order in Council.
- (2) There is to be paid to each Community Magistrate (other than the Chief Community Magistrate), out of public money,—

- (2) A court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine any proceedings in which the title to any corporeal or incorporeal hereditament comes in question if the proceedings would otherwise be within the jurisdiction of the court.

Compare: 1928 No 14 ss 30, 31

36 Abandonment of part of claim to give court jurisdiction

- (1) Where a plaintiff has a cause of action for more than $200,000 in respect of which the court would have had jurisdiction had the amount been not more than $200,000, the plaintiff may abandon the excess, and thereupon the court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the proceeding.
- (2) Where any proceeding, in which the plaintiff has abandoned part of the plaintiff's claim under this section, is heard in a court, the plaintiff shall not recover an amount exceeding $200,000 together with costs thereon, and the judgment of the court in the proceeding shall be in full discharge of all demands in respect of the cause of action, and entry of the judgment shall be made accordingly.

Section 36: substituted, on 1 July 1992, by section 10(1) of the Districts Courts Amendment Act 1991 (1991 No 61).

37 Extension of jurisdiction in admiralty by agreement between the parties

If, but for the amount or value of the subject-matter claimed or in issue, a court would have had jurisdiction in admiralty or under sections 29 to 34 or section 111 and the parties, by memorandum signed by them or by their respective solicitors or agents, agree that a court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the proceedings, that court shall, notwithstanding anything in any enactment, have jurisdiction to hear and determine the proceedings.

Section 37 heading: amended, on 9 October 1975, by section 2 of the District Courts Amendment Act 1975 (1975 No 87).

Section 37: amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 18(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 125).

Section 37: amended, on 9 October 1975, by section 2 of the District Courts Amendment Act 1975 (1975 No 87).

Section 37: amended, on 23 October 1963, by section 2 of the District Courts Amendment Act 1963 (1963 No 100).

38 Division of cause of action not allowed

A cause of action may not be divided for the purpose of bringing 2 or more proceedings or any counterclaim.

Compare: 1928 No 14 s 32

Section 38: amended, on 1 July 1992, by section 21(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1991 (1991 No 61).

39 Proceedings against absent defendant

The court shall not determine any proceedings against a defendant absent from New Zealand unless it is satisfied either—

- (a) that service has been effected on the defendant in accordance with the rules; or
- (b) that the defendant has a duly appointed agent in New Zealand authorized to sue and be sued on his behalf and service has been effected on the agent in accordance with the rules.

Compare: 1928 No 14 s 37

Exercise of jurisdiction and ancillary jurisdiction

40 Persons who exercise jurisdiction of court

Any jurisdiction and powers conferred on courts by this or any other Act may be exercised by any Judge or, to the extent authorized by this or any other Act or by the rules, by the Registrar of the court or by any person authorized to discharge the functions of the Registrar.

Compare: 1928 No 14 s 5(2); County Courts Act 1934 s 70 (UK)

Section 40: amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 18(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 125).

41 General ancillary jurisdiction

Every court, as regards any cause of action for the time being within its jurisdiction, shall (subject to the provisions of section 59) in any proceedings before it—

- (a) grant such relief, redress, or remedy, or combination of remedies, either absolute or conditional; and
- (b) give such and the like effect to every ground of defence or counterclaim equitable or legal,— as ought to be granted or given in the like case by the High Court and in as full and as ample a manner.

Compare: County Courts Act 1934 s 71 (UK)

Section 41: amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 18(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 125).

Section 41: amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 12 of the Judicature Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 124).

42 Ancillary powers of Judge

- (1) A Judge shall have jurisdiction in any proceeding pending to make any order or to exercise any authority or jurisdiction which, if it related to a proceeding pending in the High Court, might be made or exercised by a Judge of the High Court in chambers.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), an interlocutory injunction restraining a party to a proceeding (whether domiciled, resident or present in New Zealand) from removing from New Zealand, or otherwise dealing with, assets in New Zealand is the only interlocutory injunction in the nature of a Mareva injunction that a Judge may grant.
- (3) Without limiting the power to make an order for the detention, custody, or preservation of any property, it is hereby declared that nothing in this Act authorises a Judge to make an Anton Piller order.

Section 42: substituted, on 1 July 1992, by section 4 of the District Courts Amendment Act (No 2) 1992 (1992 No 53).

42A Jurisdiction exclusive of interest awarded

Where a court has power to award interest under section 62B, the court may exercise that power notwithstanding that the inclusion of the interest in the sum for which judgment is given will cause that sum to exceed a monetary amount that, under this Act, applies in relation to the court's jurisdiction in respect of that proceeding.

Section 42A: inserted, on 1 July 1992, by section 5 of the District Courts Amendment Act (No 2) 1992 (1992 No 53).

Transfer of proceeding

Heading: substituted, on 1 July 1992, by section 11(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1991 (1991 No 61).

43 Transfer to High Court of proceeding within jurisdiction

- (1) Where there is commenced in a court any proceeding in which the amount of the claim or the value of the property or relief claimed or in issue exceeds

$50,000, the defendant in the proceeding may, within such time as may be prescribed or at any time thereafter by leave of the Judge, give notice that the defendant objects to the proceeding being tried in the court, and, where notice is so given, the Judge shall order that the proceeding be transferred to the High Court.

- (2) Where there is commenced in a court any proceeding in which the amount of the claim or the value of the property or relief claimed or in issue does not exceed $50,000, the defendant may, within such time as may be prescribed or at any time thereafter by leave of the Judge, give notice that the defendant objects to the proceeding being tried in the court, and, where notice is so given, the Judge may order that the proceeding be transferred to the High Court if, in the opinion of the Judge, some important question of law or fact is likely to arise or a question of title to any hereditament is likely to arise otherwise than incidentally.
- (3) Any order for the transfer of a proceeding to the High Court made pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this section may be made subject to such conditions as the Judge thinks fit requiring that the defendant give security for the costs of the proceedings in the High Court.
- (4) The foregoing provisions of this section, shall with the necessary modifications, apply to a counterclaim as if it were a proceeding and as if the defendant in the counterclaim were the defendant in the proceeding. On the transfer of a claim where there is a counterclaim, or of a counterclaim, all proceedings in the proceeding, including both the claim and the counterclaim, shall be transferred.
- (5) The provisions of this section do not apply to any proceeding for the recovery of land except where the Judge certifies that in the Judge's opinion an important question of law is likely to arise or a question of title to any hereditament is likely to arise otherwise than incidentally.
- (6) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, the High Court or a Judge thereof on the application of any party to the proceeding may order the removal into the High Court, by order for certiorari or otherwise, of any proceeding commenced in a District Court, if the High Court or Judge thereof thinks it desirable that the proceeding should be heard and determined in the High Court. Any such removal shall be on such terms as to payment of costs, giving security, or otherwise as the High Court or a Judge thereof thinks fit to impose.

Section 43: substituted, on 1 July 1992, by section 11(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1991 (1991 No 61).

44 Transfer of proceedings beyond jurisdiction

Where any proceedings are commenced in a court in which the court has no jurisdiction, the court may, unless it is given jurisdiction by an agreement under the provisions of section 37, order that the proceedings be transferred to the High Court or to such other court as appears to the court to have jurisdiction:

provided that where it appears to the court that the plaintiff or one of the plaintiffs knew or ought to have known that the court had no jurisdiction in the proceedings, the court may, if it thinks fit, instead of ordering that the proceedings be transferred as aforesaid, order that they be struck out, and, in such event may award costs to the same extent and recoverable in the same manner as if the court had jurisdiction and the claim had not been established.

Compare: 1928 No 14 s 175; County Courts Act 1934 s 64 (UK)

Section 44: amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 18(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 125).

Section 44: amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 12 of the Judicature Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 124).

45 Transfer of proceedings where there is a counterclaim

- (1) Where, in any proceeding commenced in a court, any counterclaim or set-off and counterclaim which involves matter beyond the jurisdiction of a court has been filed by any defendant, any party to the proceeding may, within such time as may be prescribed by the High Court Rules, apply to the High Court or a Judge thereof for an order that the whole proceedings, or the proceedings on the counterclaim or set-off and counterclaim, be transferred to the High Court.
- (2) On any such application the High Court or Judge may, as it or he thinks fit, order either—
  - (a) that the whole proceedings be transferred to the High Court; or
  - (b) that the whole proceedings be heard and determined in the court; or
  - (c) that the proceedings on the counterclaim or set-off and counterclaim be transferred to the High Court and that the proceedings on the plaintiff's claim and the defence thereto other than the set-off (if any) be heard and determined in the court:

provided that, where an order is made under paragraph (c), and judgment on the claim is given for the plaintiff, execution thereon shall, unless the High Court or a Judge thereof at any time otherwise orders, be stayed until the proceedings transferred to the High Court have been determined.

- (3) If no application is made under this section within the time prescribed as aforesaid, or if on such an application it is ordered that the whole proceedings be heard and determined in the court, the court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the whole proceedings, notwithstanding any enactment to the contrary.
- (4) Where the High Court makes any order under the provisions of this section, the Registrar of the High Court shall send to the Registrar of the court a copy of the order so made.

Section 45(4): amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 12 of the Judicature Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 124).

45A Removal of summary judgment application from District Court to High Court

- (1) Where a summary judgment application is made in a court, a Judge may, on the application of either party or of his or her own motion, remove into the High Court—
  - (a) that summary judgment application; or
  - (b) any matter arising in that summary judgment application.
- (2) On any such removal, the High Court may—
  - (a) determine the application or matter; or
  - (b) refer the application or matter back to the District Court with such directions as the High Court thinks fit.

Section 45A: inserted, on 1 July 1992, by section 4 of the District Courts Amendment Act 1992 (1992 No 17).

Removal of question of law into High Court

Heading: inserted, on 1 July 1992, by section 4 of the District Courts Amendment Act 1992 (1992 No 17).

45B Removal of question of law into High Court

A District Court may order the removal into the High Court of any question of law ordered to be argued, and, on removal, the High Court shall have the same power to decide the question as the District Court had.

Section 45B: inserted, on 1 July 1992, by section 4 of the District Courts Amendment Act 1992 (1992 No 17).

46 Transfer of proceeding from High Court to District Court

- (1) If, where a proceeding has been commenced in the High Court,—
- (a) an agreement is made under the provisions of section 37 that a District Court shall have jurisdiction; or
  - (b) the subject-matter of the proceeding is within the jurisdiction of District Courts,— the High Court or a Judge of that court may, on the application of any party to the proceeding, order that the proceeding be transferred to a District Court.

- (2) Where the subject-matter of a proceeding that has been commenced in the High Court is within the jurisdiction of District Courts, the High Court or a Judge of that court may, of its or the Judge's own motion, order that the proceeding be transferred to a District Court unless, in the opinion of the High Court or the Judge, some important question of law or fact is likely to arise in the proceeding.

Section 46: substituted, on 1 July 1992, by section 12(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1991 (1991 No 61).

47 Procedure on transfer of proceeding from High Court to District Court

- (1) Where any proceeding is ordered to be transferred under the provisions of section 46 from the High Court to a District Court, the proper officer of the High Court shall, on the sealing of the order, send to the Registrar of the District Court a copy of the order, the document by which the proceeding was commenced or a copy thereof, all pleadings, affidavits, and other documents filed in the High Court relating to the proceeding and such other documents (if any) as the High Court or a Judge may direct.
- (2) On the documents aforesaid being so sent, the proceeding shall be transferred to the said District Court, and, subject to the District Courts Rules, all further proceedings therein shall be heard as if the proceeding had been originally commenced in that District Court, and the District Court shall have jurisdiction to deal therewith, notwithstanding any enactment to the contrary:

provided that the transfer shall not affect any right of appeal in the High Court or to the Court of Appeal from the order directing the transfer, or the right to enforce in the High Court any judgment signed, or order made, in that court before the transfer.

Section 47: substituted, on 1 July 1992, by section 12(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1991 (1991 No 61).

48 Costs in cases transferred or removed

- (1) Where a proceeding or counterclaim is ordered to be transferred or removed—
- (a) from the High Court to a District Court; or
  - (b) from a District Court to the High Court; or
  - (c) from one District Court to another District Court—

the costs of the whole proceedings both before and after the transfer shall, subject to any order made by the court which ordered the transfer, be in the discretion of the court to which the proceeding or counterclaim is transferred, and that court shall have power to make orders with respect thereto:

provided that, as regards so much of the proceedings in any proceeding transferred from the High Court to the District Court as take place in the High Court before the transfer,—

- (d) the costs thereof shall be subject to the provisions of the High Court Rules; and
- (e) the powers of a Judge to make an order allowing costs on the High Court scale shall, subject to any order of the High Court or of the Judge by whom the transfer was ordered, be exercisable by the District Court Judge.

(2) Where—

- (a) a summary judgment application or any matter arising in a summary judgment application is, after having been removed into the High Court under section 45A, referred back to a District Court; or
- (b) a proceeding is continued in a District Court, after a question of law in that proceeding has, under section 45B, been decided in the High Court,—

the costs in the District Court of that application, matter, or proceeding, both before and after the removal into the High Court under section 45A or section 45B, shall be determined by the District Court:

provided that any costs incurred in the High Court in relation to the removal shall be determined by the High Court and shall be subject to the provisions of the High Court Rules; but may be included in any judgment or order made by the District Court as if they were costs determined by the District Court.

Section 48: substituted, on 1 July 1992, by section 12(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1991 (1991 No 61).

Section 48(2): added, on 1 July 1992, by section 5 of the District Courts Amendment Act 1992 (1992 No 17).

Part 4 Procedure

Parties

49 Trustees, executors, and administrators

- (1) Any trustee, executor, or administrator may sue and be sued in a court in like manner as if he were a party in his own right, without joining any of the parties beneficially interested in the trust or estate, and shall be considered as representing such parties in the proceeding.

- (2) The court may at any stage of the proceedings order any of such parties to be made parties to the proceeding, either in addition to or in lieu of the previously existing parties thereto.

Witnesses and evidence

53 Witness entitled to expenses

Every witness attending a court upon a witness summons, and every other person giving evidence in the course of proceedings, shall be entitled as against the party calling him to a sum for his expenses and loss of time according to the prescribed scale:

provided that the court may disallow the whole or any part of such sum.

Compare: 1928 No 14 s 89

54 Penalty for neglecting witness summons

- (1) Any person summoned in pursuance of the rules as a witness in any court who—
- (a) refuses or neglects, without sufficient cause, to appear or to produce any documents required by the summons to be produced; or
  - (b) refuses to be sworn or to give evidence,—
- is liable to a fine not exceeding $300:

provided that no person so summoned shall be liable to such penalty as aforesaid unless there has been paid or tendered to him at the time of the service of the summons, or at some other reasonable time before the hearing, such sum in respect of his expenses as may be prescribed.

- (2) Any person present in court who is required to give evidence but refuses to be sworn or give evidence is liable to a like penalty.
- (3) The payment of such fine or the undergoing of a term of imprisonment for non-payment of such fine shall not exempt any person from any action for disobeying a summons or refusing to be sworn or give evidence.

Compare: 1928 No 14 s 90; County Courts Act 1934 s 81 (UK)

Section 54(1): amended, on 1 May 1981, by section 16 of the District Courts Amendment Act 1980 (1980 No 83).

55 Examination of witnesses and service of process abroad

- (1) The District Court may, on application made in accordance with the rules, issue a commission, request, or order to examine witnesses abroad for the purpose of any proceedings.
- (2) The District Court may, on application in accordance with the rules, direct and supervise the service abroad of any process of the court.

Section 55: substituted, on 1 July 1992, by section 6 of the District Courts Amendment Act 1989 (1989 No 107).

56 Persons who may take affidavits, etc

An affidavit or affirmation to be used in a court may be sworn or made before any Judge or Registrar, or before any Justice, or before any Community Magistrate, or before any solicitor of the High Court, but no such affidavit or affirmation, except one sworn or made in respect of an ex parte application in non-contentious proceedings, shall be used if it was taken before a solicitor who, at the time of taking it, was engaged in the proceedings.

Section 56: substituted, on 19 October 1966, by section 3 of the District Courts Amendment Act 1966 (1966 No 69).

Section 56: amended, on 30 June 1998, by section 6 of the District Courts Amendment Act 1998 (1998 No 76).

Discovery

Heading: inserted, on 1 July 1992, by section 6 of the District Courts Amendment Act 1992 (1992 No 17).

56A Powers of court exercisable before commencement of proceeding

On the application, in accordance with the rules, of a person who it appears to the court is or may be entitled to claim in the court relief against another person, the court shall, in such circumstances as may be prescribed, have power to order any person who appears to be likely to have or to have had in that person's possession, custody, or power any document or class of documents, which are relevant to an issue arising or likely to arise out of that claim,—

- (a) to disclose to the court and to any other prescribed person whether the document or documents are in his or her possession, custody, or power; and
- (b) if a document has been but is no longer in that person's possession, custody, or power, to disclose to the court and to any other prescribed person when he or she parted with it and what has become of it; and
- (c) to produce such of those documents as are in that person's possession, custody, or power to the court or any other prescribed person.

Compare: County Courts Act 1984 s 52 (UK)

Section 56A: inserted, on 1 July 1992, by section 6 of the District Courts Amendment Act 1992 (1992 No 17).

56B Power of court to order particular discovery against non-party after proceeding commenced

Where at any stage of a proceeding, it appears to the court, in such circumstances as may be prescribed, that a document or class of documents may be or may have been in the possession, custody, or power of a person who is not a party to the proceeding, the court may order that person—

- (a) to disclose to the court and to any other prescribed person whether the document or documents are in his or her possession, custody, or power; and
- (b) if a document has been but is no longer in that person's possession, custody, or power, to disclose to the court and to any other prescribed person when he or she parted with it and what has become of it; and
- (c) to produce such of those documents as are in that person's possession, custody, or power to the court or any other prescribed person.

Section 56B: inserted, on 1 July 1992, by section 6 of the District Courts Amendment Act 1992 (1992 No 17).

Hearing

57 Right of audience

- (1) A party to any proceedings may appear and act personally or by a barrister or solicitor of the High Court, and not otherwise:

provided that under special circumstances the court may permit any party to appear by an agent authorized in writing by the party himself, if in New Zealand, or, if absent therefrom, by any person holding a power of attorney from the party authorizing such person to sue and be sued for and in the name of the party; but any agent, unless he is a barrister or solicitor, shall not be entitled to receive any fee or reward for so appearing or acting.

- (2) A corporation may appear by any officer, attorney, or agent of the corporation.

Section 58: amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 18(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 125).

59 Equity and good conscience

Where the amount claimed or the value of the property claimed or in issue does not exceed $3,000, a court may receive any such evidence as it thinks fit, whether the same be legal evidence or not, and may give such judgment between the parties as it finds to stand with equity and good conscience.

Compare: 1928 No 14 s 100(2)

Section 59: amended, on 13 November 1989, by section 7(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1989 (1989 No 107).

60 Judge to take notes

- (1) At the hearing of any proceedings in a court in which there is a right of appeal without leave, the Judge shall, unless the parties have agreed not to appeal, make or cause to be made a note—

- (a) of the facts in evidence; and
- (b) of any question of law or equity raised at the hearing; and

- (c) of his decision thereon and of his determination of the proceedings.
- (2) Where such a note has been taken, the Judge (whether notice of appeal has been served or not) shall, on the application of any party to the proceedings, and on payment by that party of such fee as may be prescribed, cause him to be furnished with a copy of the note.

Compare: County Courts Act 1934 s 108 (UK)

Section 60(1): amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 18(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 125).

Section 60(2): amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 18(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 125).

61 Power of Judge to refer to arbitration

- (1) A Judge may, with the consent of the parties to any proceedings, order the proceedings to be referred to arbitration (whether with or without other matters within the jurisdiction of the court in dispute between the parties) to such person or persons and in such manner and on such terms and subject to such costs as he thinks just and reasonable.
- (2) No such reference shall be revocable by any party except with the consent of a Judge.
- (3) If the award of the arbitrators or their umpire is not given within 1 month of the date of the order of reference, either party may apply to the court to revoke the order of reference.
- (4) On any such reference, the award of the arbitrator, arbitrators, or umpire shall be entered as the judgment in the proceedings and shall be as binding and effectual to all intents as if given by a Judge:
provided that the court may, if it thinks fit, on application made at the first sitting of the court held after the expiration of 10 days after the entry of the award, set aside the award, or may, with the consent of the parties, revoke the reference or order another reference to be made in the manner aforesaid.
- (5) Execution of a judgment so entered shall not issue until after such first sitting has been held.
- (6) On the hearing of an application to set aside or vary an award and judgment entered thereupon the court shall take evidence if offered, or may of its own accord call for evidence; and the decision of the court given after hearing the application shall be entered as a judgment of the court.

62 Power of Judge to refer to Registrar or referee

- (1) Subject to the rules, a Judge may refer to the Registrar or a referee for inquiry and report—
  - (a) any proceedings which require any prolonged examination of documents or any scientific or local investigation which cannot, in the opinion of the Judge, conveniently be made before him:
  - (b) any proceedings where the question in dispute consists wholly or in part of matters of account:
  - (c) with the consent of the parties, any other proceedings:
  - (d) any question arising in any proceedings.
- (2) Where any proceedings or question are referred as aforesaid, a Judge may direct how the reference shall be conducted, and may remit any report for further inquiry and report, and on consideration of any report or further report may give such judgment or make such order in the proceedings as may be just.
- (3) A Judge may, after deciding or reserving any question of liability, refer to the Registrar or to the Registrar and an accountant any mere matter of account which is in dispute between the parties, and after deciding the question of liability, may give judgment on the Registrar's report.

Judgments and orders

62B Power of court to award interest on debts and damages

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), in a proceeding for the recovery of any debt or damages, the court may, if it thinks fit, order that there shall be included in the sum for which judgment is given interest at such rate, not exceeding the prescribed rate, as it thinks fit on the whole or any part of the debt or damages for the whole or any part of the period between the date when the cause of action arose and the date of the judgment.
- (2) Subsection (1) shall not—
- (a) authorise the giving of interest upon interest; or
  - (b) apply in relation to any debt upon which interest is payable as of right, whether by virtue of any agreement, enactment, or rule of law, or otherwise; or
  - (c) affect the damages recoverable for the dishonour of a bill of exchange.
- (3) In any proceedings for the recovery of any debt upon which interest is payable as of right, and in respect of which the rate of interest is not agreed upon, prescribed, or ascertained under any agreement, enactment, or rule of law, or otherwise, there shall be included in the sum for which judgment is given interest at such rate, not exceeding the prescribed rate, as the court thinks fit for the period between the date as from which the interest became payable and the date of the judgment.
- (4) In this section the term the prescribed rate means the rate of 11% per annum, or such other rate as may from time to time be prescribed for the purposes of this section by the Governor-General by Order in Council.

Section 62B: inserted, on 13 January 1983, by section 4(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act (No 2) 1982 (1982 No 130).

Section 62B(1): amended, on 1 July 1992, by section 21(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1991 (1991 No 61).

Section 62B(4): 5.0% per year prescribed as the rate for the purposes of section 62B, on 1 July 2011, by clause 4 of the District Courts (Prescribed Rate of Interest) Order 2011 (SR 2011/176).

63 Finality of judgments and orders

Every judgment and order of a court shall, except as provided by this or any other Act or by the rules, be final and conclusive between the parties.

Compare: 1928 No 14 s 116; County Courts Act 1934 s 95 (UK)

Section 63: amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 18(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 125).

64 Want of form

No judgment, order, or other proceeding in a court shall be quashed or vacated for want of form.

Compare: 1928 No 14 s 117

65 Payment of judgments and orders

- (1) Where a judgment is given or an order is made by a court under which a sum of money of any amount is payable, whether by way of satisfaction of the claim or counterclaim in the proceedings or by way of costs or otherwise, the court may, as it thinks fit, order the money to be paid either—
  - (a) in 1 sum, whether forthwith or within such period as the court may fix; or
  - (b) by such instalments payable at such times as the court may fix.
- (2) Except where an express order for payment is made under the last preceding subsection, every judgment or order for the payment of a sum of money shall be deemed to include an order for the payment forthwith of the whole amount payable thereunder.
- (3) If at any time it appears to the satisfaction of a Judge that any party to any proceedings is unable from any cause to pay any sum recoverable against him (whether by way of satisfaction of the claim or counterclaim) or any instalment thereof, the Judge may, in his discretion, suspend or stay or vary any judgment or order given or made in the proceedings for such time and on such terms as the Judge thinks fit, and so from time to time until it appears that the cause of inability has ceased.

Compare: 1928 No 14 ss 100(1), 124; County Courts Act 1934 s 96 (UK)

Section 65(3): amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 18(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 125).

65A Interest on judgment debts

- (1) In this section—

enforcement process, in relation to a judgment debt, means any summons, warrant, or order issued or made in any proceedings of a kind referred to in section 79(1) for the enforcement of that debt judgment debt means the amount for which judgment is entered or for which an order of a court is made in any civil proceedings.

- (2) Every judgment debt of an amount exceeding $3,000, or such other amount as may be fixed from time to time for the purposes of this section by the Governor-General by Order in Council, shall carry interest from the date of the judgment or order on the amount for the time being remaining unpaid.
- (3) Such interest shall be at the rate for the time being prescribed by or under section 62B, and shall accrue from month to month.
- (4) No interest shall be payable on costs incurred after the date of the judgment or order.
- (5) Notwithstanding subsection (2) or subsection (3), where any enforcement process is issued in respect of the judgment debt, no interest shall be payable in excess of the amount specified in the process unless a further such process is issued.

Section 65A: inserted, on 13 January 1983, by section 5 of the District Courts Amendment Act (No 2) 1982 (1982 No 130).

Removal of judgments

66 Removal of judgment of District Court into High Court

- (1) Where any final judgment or order for the payment of any sum of money is obtained in any one proceeding in a District Court, that judgment or order may be removed into the High Court, and for that purpose the Registrar, upon the application of the judgment creditor or of any person on his behalf, shall issue a certificate thereof in the prescribed form. Every such certificate shall bear on the face thereof a statement to the effect that it has been issued for the purposes of this section, and it shall not be available for any other purpose.
- (2) No such certificate shall be issued before the expiration of the time allowed for giving notice of appeal or before the time at which execution could be issued out of the District Court, and if any proceedings for enforcement of the judgment or order have been issued out of that court no such certificate shall be issued until after the withdrawal or completion of those proceedings.
- (3) After the certificate has been filed in the High Court pursuant to the next succeeding subsection, no further proceedings shall be had or taken in the proceeding in the District Court.
- (4) The person obtaining the certificate may file the same in the High Court by delivering it for that purpose at the office of the Registrar of the High Court nearest to that District Court by the most convenient route or any such other office as may be prescribed; and thereupon, without any previous process, may sign final judgment in the High Court in the prescribed form or to the effect thereof (against which judgment no appeal shall lie) for the sum mentioned in the certificate to be unpaid, together with such fees and costs as may be paid or allowed in connection with such removal and entry of judgment.

- (5) Upon such final judgment as aforesaid execution may be forthwith issued, and all other remedies had thereon in the same manner as on any other judgment of the High Court.
- (6) Notwithstanding anything in this section, any certificate or final judgment signed under the provisions of this section may be set aside or amended by a Judge of the High Court upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as he deems just.

67 Proceeding in High Court on judgment or order of District Court

A proceeding may be brought in the High Court on a judgment or order of a District Court, but no costs shall be allowed in such proceeding to the plaintiff unless the Judge of the High Court certifies that the proceeding was necessary and proper for the enforcement of the judgment of the District Court against the person or property of the defendant.

Section 67: substituted, on 1 July 1992, by section 21(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1991 (1991 No 61).

68 Removal of judgment or order of High Court into District Court

- (1) In any proceeding in the High Court in which execution may be issued upon a judgment, order, or decree of the High Court for the payment of a sum of money, a certificate under the seal of the High Court setting forth the particulars of the judgment, order, or decree may be obtained from the High Court and filed in a District Court.

- (2) Upon the filing of the certificate all proceedings may be taken and enforced in and by that District Court for—
- (a) the amount recoverable under the judgment, order, or decree, and any interest thereon, if the District Court has jurisdiction to that amount; or
  - (b) the unpaid balance of the amount recoverable under the judgment, order, or decree, and any such interest, if the District Court has jurisdiction to the amount of that balance; or
  - (c) a part of the amount recoverable under the judgment, order, or decree, and any such interest, or of the unpaid balance of that amount, and any such interest, if—
    - (i) the District Court has jurisdiction in respect of the amount of that part; and
    - (ii) the judgment creditor has abandoned any amount in excess of the amount of that part,— and for any fees and costs paid or allowed in connection with the obtaining and filing of the certificate, as fully and effectually as if the judgment, order, or decree had been a judgment of the District Court signed and entered up at the time of filing the certificate.

- (3) After the issue of the certificate no further proceedings shall be had in the High Court upon such judgment, order, or decree.
- (4) Save as aforesaid, no proceeding shall be brought in a District Court on a judgment of the High Court.

Heading: inserted, on 1 February 2009, by section 10(2) of the Judicature (High Court Rules) Amendment Act 2008 (2008 No 90).

70A Application of rules

If, in any civil proceeding, any question arises as to the application of any provision of rules made under section 122 or the High Court Rules, the court may, either on the application of a party or on its own initiative, determine the question and give any directions it thinks fit in the interests of justice.

Section 70A: inserted, on 1 February 2009, by section 10(2) of the Judicature (High Court Rules) Amendment Act 2008 (2008 No 90).

Part 5 Appeals

Part 5: substituted, on 24 November 2003, by section 3 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2002 (2002 No 63).

71 Interpretation

In this Part,—

decision includes a judgment and an interim or final order (other than an order under section 112)

make includes give.

Section 71: substituted, on 24 November 2003, by section 3 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2002 (2002 No 63).

71A Right to appeal

[Repealed]

Section 71A: repealed, on 24 November 2003, by section 3 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2002 (2002 No 63).

72 General right of appeal

(1) This subsection applies to every decision made by a District Court other than a decision of a kind in respect of which an enactment other than this Act—

- (a) expressly confers a right of appeal; or
- (b) provides expressly that there is no right of appeal.

(2) A party to proceedings in a District Court may appeal to the High Court against the whole or any part of any decision to which subsection (1) applies made by the District Court in or in relation to the proceedings.

Section 72: substituted, on 24 November 2003, by section 3 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2002 (2002 No 63).

73 Agreements that decision would be binding

- (1) An appeal may not be brought under section 72 if, before the decision was made, all parties to the proceedings agreed in writing that it would be binding on them.
- (2) Subsection (1) overrides section 72.

Section 73: substituted, on 24 November 2003, by section 3 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2002 (2002 No 63).

74 Security for appeal

- (1) Unless granted legal aid under the Legal Services Act 2000, an appellant under section 72 may be required by the High Court Rules to give the Registrar of the High Court security for costs.
- (2) If any security required is not given within the time required by the High Court Rules, the appellant's appeal must be treated as having been abandoned.

Section 74: substituted, on 24 November 2003, by section 3 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2002 (2002 No 63).

75 Appeals to be by way of rehearing

All appeals under section 72 must be by way of rehearing.

Section 75: substituted, on 24 November 2003, by section 3 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2002 (2002 No 63).

76 Powers of High Court on appeal

- (1) Having heard an appeal under section 72, the High Court may—
  - (a) make any decision or decisions it thinks should have been made;
  - (b) direct the District Court in which the decision appealed against was made—
    - (i) to rehear the proceedings concerned; or
    - (ii) to consider or determine (whether for the first time or again) any matters the High Court directs; or
    - (iii) to enter judgment for any party to the proceedings concerned the High Court directs;
  - (c) make any further or other orders it thinks fit (including any orders as to costs).
- (2) The High Court must state its reasons for giving a direction under subsection (1)(b).
- (3) The High Court may give the District Court any direction it thinks fit relating to—
  - (a) rehearing any proceedings directed to be reheard; or
  - (b) considering or determining any matter directed to be considered or determined.

- (4) The High Court may act under subsection (1) in respect of a whole decision, even if the appeal is against only part of it.
- (5) Even if an interlocutory decision made in the proceedings concerned has not been appealed against, the High Court—
  - (a) may act under subsection (1); and
  - (b) may set the interlocutory decision aside; and
  - (c) if it sets the interlocutory decision aside, may make in its place any interlocutory decision or decisions the District Court could have made.
- (6) The powers given by this section may be exercised in favour of any respondent or party to the proceedings concerned, even if the respondent or party did not appeal against the decision concerned.

Section 76: substituted, on 24 November 2003, by section 3 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2002 (2002 No 63).

77 Repayment of judgment sum and interest

- (1) This subsection applies if—
  - (a) a party to proceedings in a District Court (party A) has, in accordance with any judgment or order of the court, paid an amount to another party to the proceedings (party B); and
  - (b) on appeal under section 72, the effect of the High Court's determination is that some or all of the amount did not need to be paid.
- (2) If subsection (1) applies, the High Court—
  - (a) may order party B to repay to party A some or all of the amount paid by party A; and
  - (b) may also order party B to pay to party A interest at a rate not greater than the prescribed rate (within the meaning of section 87(3) of the Judicature Act 1908) on the sum ordered to be repaid.

Section 77: substituted, on 24 November 2003, by section 3 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2002 (2002 No 63).

78 Enforcement proceedings

For the purposes of enforcement proceedings, a judgment or order of the High Court under paragraph (a) or paragraph (c) of section 76(1), or section 77(2), must be treated as if it were a judgment or order of the District Court in which the decision appealed against was made.

Section 78: substituted, on 24 November 2003, by section 3 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2002 (2002 No 63).

78A Right of appeal in respect of contempt of court

[Repealed]

Section 78A: repealed, on 1 July 2013, by section 12 of the District Courts Amendment Act (No 2) 2011 (2011 No 88).

Part 6

Enforcement of judgments

Enforcement generally

79 Nature of proceedings for enforcement of judgment

- (1) Any judgment or order of any court or of any District Court Judge for the payment of a sum of money may be enforced in District Courts by any 1 or more of the proceedings following, that is to say,—
  - (a) execution against the goods and chattels of the judgment debtor under a warrant to seize property;
  - (b) garnishee proceedings for the attachment of money due to the judgment debtor;
  - (ba) proceedings for a charging order in respect of any property held by the judgment debtor and specified in section 96A(1A);
  - (c) proceedings for an attachment order against the salary or wages of the judgment debtor.
- (2) Any judgment or order in the nature of an injunction, and any judgment or order within the competence of a District Court which, if it were given or made in the High Court, could in that court be enforced by writ of arrest, may be enforced, by order or warrant of a District Court Judge, by committal for a term not exceeding 3 months: provided that an order for the recovery of land shall not be enforceable by committal.
- (2A) Any order of the court made under section 56A or section 56B may be enforced, by order or warrant of a District Court Judge,—
  - (a) by committal for a term not exceeding 3 months; or
  - (b) by a fine not exceeding $1,000.
- (3) A judgment or order for the recovery of land may be enforced under a warrant for the recovery of land.
- (4) A judgment or order for the delivery of specific chattels may be enforced, by order of the District Court Judge, either under a warrant for the recovery of chattels or by committal.
- (5) An attachment order to enforce a judgment or order for the payment of money may be made, and proceedings for such an attachment order may be commenced, at any time after the judgment is entered or the order made.
- (5A) Except as provided in subsection (5), proceedings to enforce a judgment or order may not be commenced unless—
  - (a) at least 48 hours have expired after the judgment was entered or the order made; or

- (b) a Judge grants leave.
- (5B) Despite subsections (5) and (5A), if a judgment or order may be appealed against without the leave of the court, a Judge may order a stay of any proceedings to enforce the judgment or order, or order that an attachment order to enforce the judgment or order not take effect, until after the time allowed for giving notice of appeal has expired.
- (5C) Despite subsections (5) and (5A), an attachment order may be made, and proceedings for such an attachment order may be commenced, immediately after a judgment or order for the payment of money is filed if,—
  - (a) in the case of a money order (as defined in section 19(1A) of the Disputes Tribunals Act 1988 or, as the case may be, section 78(2AB) of the Residential Tenancies Act 1986),—
    - (i) the money order records that the parties have agreed to enforce the payment of money specified in the money order by way of an attachment order made under this Act; and
    - (ii) section 19(1B) of the Disputes Tribunals Act 1988 or, as the case may be, section 78(2AC) of the Residential Tenancies Act 1986 is complied with; or
  - (b) in the case of a judgment or order made by a court,—
    - (i) the judgment or order records that the parties have agreed to enforce the payment of money specified in the judgment or order by way of an attachment order made under this Act; and
    - (ii) subsection (5D) is complied with.
- (5D) This subsection is complied with if—
  - (a) the judgment or order was given or made at or following a hearing at which both parties were present; and
  - (b) the party ordered to pay money consented to the payment of the money being enforced by way of an attachment order; and
  - (c) both parties agreed on the terms of the attachment order, including the details specified in section 84H; and
  - (d) the judgment or order includes the details specified in section 84H.
- (5E) Nothing in subsection (5D)(c) allows the parties to agree on a net amount to be paid for an earnings period that would otherwise derogate from section 84I(3).
- (5F) For the purposes of subsection (5D), hearing includes a judicial settlement conference held under the rules.
- (6) It is hereby declared that 2 or more proceedings for the enforcement of a judgment or order may be taken concurrently, but the judgment creditor shall not be entitled to recover a greater sum than the amount owing under the judgment or order and the costs and fees of any proceedings for enforcement.

79A Judgment may be enforced in any District Court

A judgment or order of a District Court or a District Court Judge may be enforced in the District Court in which the judgment was entered or order made or in any other District Court (and enforcement proceedings may be taken concurrently in accordance with section 79(6) in more than 1 District Court).

Section 79A: inserted, on 14 April 2014, by section 12 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2011 (2011 No 30).

80 Enforcement of judgments more than 6 years old

- (1) No judgment or order of the court more than 6 years old shall be enforced without the leave of the court unless some payment has been made into court by or on behalf of the party liable therefor within the 12 months immediately before the issue of the proceedings for enforcement.

- (1A) A judgment that is an arbitral award entered as a judgment is more than 6 years old for the purposes of this section if 6 years have elapsed since the date on which the award became enforceable by action in New Zealand.
- (2) The court may, if it thinks fit, grant such leave on an ex parte application.
- Compare: 1928 No 14 s 119
- Section 80(1A): inserted, on 5 December 2013, by section 4 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 114).

81 Enforcement of order for payment by instalments

- (1) Where the court has made an order for the payment of any sum of money by instalments, proceedings for the enforcement of the order shall not be taken or issued until after default in the payment of some instalment according to the order.
- (2) On any such default, proceedings or successive proceedings may be taken or issued for the whole of the said sum of money and costs then remaining unpaid unless the court on the application of the party liable otherwise orders.
- Compare: 1928 No 14 s 125; County Courts Act 1934 s 117 (UK)

82 Proceedings on cross-judgments

If there are cross-judgments between the parties, proceedings for enforcement may be taken out only by that party who has obtained judgment for the larger sum, and then only for so much as remains after deducting the smaller sum. Satisfaction for the remainder shall be entered as well as satisfaction on the judgment for the smaller sum, and if both sums are equal satisfaction shall be entered upon both.

83 Power to stay proceedings for enforcement

If at any time it appears to the satisfaction of a Judge exercising jurisdiction in the court in which proceedings have been taken or issued for the enforcement of any judgment or order that any party to the proceedings is unable from any cause to pay any sum recoverable against him (whether by way of satisfaction of the claim or counterclaim in the proceedings or by way of costs or otherwise) or any instalment thereof, the Judge may, in his discretion, stay the proceedings for such time and on such terms as he may think fit, and so from time to time until it appears that the cause of inability has ceased.

Compare: 1928 No 14 s 124; County Courts Act 1934 s 119 (UK)

Section 83: amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 18(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 125).

84 Stay of proceedings on appeal

Notice of appeal shall not operate as a stay of proceedings under the decision appealed from unless the court or a Judge so orders or the amount of the judgment or order appealed against and its cost is deposited with the Registrar to abide the event of the appeal, or security is given to the satisfaction of the Registrar for that amount.

Compare: 1938 No 20 s 38

Section 84: amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 18(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 125).

Information about judgment debtor's means

Heading: replaced, on 14 April 2014, by section 13 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2011 (2011 No 30).

84A Filing of financial statement

- (1) In this Act, financial statement means a statement, in a form approved by the chief executive of the Ministry of Justice, of a judgment debtor's—
  - (a) assets and liabilities; and
  - (b) income and expenditure for the preceding 52 weeks.
- (2) A financial statement may be completed by the judgment creditor or the judgment debtor.
- (3) If the financial statement is completed by the judgment creditor, the statement must include details of the source of the information contained in the statement and the date to which the information relates.
- (4) A completed financial statement may be filed in the court at any time after a judgment or order for the payment of money is entered or made.
- (5) The party who files a completed financial statement must serve a copy of the statement on the other party.

Section 84A: replaced, on 14 April 2014, by section 14 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2011 (2011 No 30).

84B Notice to complete financial statement

- (1) If a judgment creditor serves a notice to complete a financial statement on the judgment debtor, the judgment debtor must, within 14 days after the date of service,—
  - (a) complete a financial statement; and
  - (b) return it to the judgment creditor.
- (2) The notice to complete a financial statement must be—
  - (a) in a form approved by the chief executive of the Ministry of Justice; and
  - (b) accompanied by 2 copies of the approved form for a financial statement (1 for the judgment debtor to complete and return, the other for the judgment debtor's use).

Section 84B: replaced, on 14 April 2014, by section 14 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2011 (2011 No 30).

84C Court to request information about judgment debtor's means

- (1) If a judgment creditor makes an application in a form approved by the chief executive of the Ministry of Justice, the court must request the judgment debtor to provide the court with information about the judgment debtor's means for satisfying the judgment debt.
- (2) The request may be made by any means of communication that the court considers appropriate.
- (3) The information may be provided at any place and using any means of communication that the court considers appropriate; and the court may request the person providing the information to verify it on oath.
- (4) The jurisdiction of the court under this section may be exercised by the Registrar.

Section 84C: replaced, on 14 April 2014, by section 14 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2011 (2011 No 30).

84D Court may order hearing if information about judgment debtor's means not provided, etc

- (1) This section applies if—
  - (a) no information about the judgment debtor's means for satisfying the judgment debt is provided to the court following a request under section 84C; or
  - (b) the court wishes to obtain information about the judgment debtor's means for satisfying the judgment debt in addition to information provided under section 84C before exercising its powers under section 84EC; or
  - (c) a person providing information to the court under section 84C refuses to verify it on oath.
- (2) The court may issue a summons, in a form approved by the chief executive of the Ministry of Justice, requiring the judgment debtor or, if the judgment debtor is a body corporate, an officer of the judgment debtor to attend a hearing and be questioned by the court about the judgment debtor's means for satisfying the judgment debt.
- (3) If the court issues a summons, the court may also—
  - (a) order any of the judgment debtor's books or other documents to be produced at the hearing;
  - (b) order that the hearing be held at a place other than in a court;
  - (c) impose such other terms and conditions as the court thinks proper in respect of the hearing.
- (4) The summons must be served on the judgment debtor by a person referred to in section 108A(3)(a) and, at the same time as the summons is served, the judg-

- ment debtor must be notified of the court's power to cancel the hearing in the circumstances referred to in subsection (6).
- (5) The hearing must not be held until at least 3 working days or any shorter period agreed by the judgment debtor has passed after the date on which the summons was served.
  - (6) The court may cancel a hearing if, before the date of the hearing,—
    - (a) such information about the judgment debtor's means for satisfying the judgment debt is provided that, in the opinion of the court, it is unnecessary for the hearing to take place; and
    - (b) if the court so requests, the person providing the information verifies it on oath.
  - (7) If a hearing takes place,—
    - (a) the judgment debtor or, if the judgment debtor is a body corporate, an officer of the judgment debtor must appear in person:
    - (b) the court may require the judgment debtor or officer and any witness to take an oath before giving evidence:
    - (c) the judgment debtor may be represented by a barrister or solicitor who may question the judgment debtor or officer and be heard on the matter of the judgment debtor's means for satisfying the judgment debt:
    - (d) the judgment debtor or officer may be questioned by the court:
    - (e) any witness may be questioned by or on behalf of the judgment debtor or by the court.
  - (8) A hearing may from time to time be adjourned by the court to a time and place to be appointed.
  - (9) The jurisdiction of the court under this section may be exercised by the Registrar.

Section 84D: replaced, on 14 April 2014, by section 14 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2011 (2011 No 30).

84E Application for financial assessment hearing

- (1) This section applies if a judgment creditor applies, in a form approved by the chief executive of the Ministry of Justice, for a hearing (a financial assessment hearing) for the judgment debtor or, if the judgment debtor is a body corporate, an officer of the judgment debtor to be questioned about the judgment debtor's means for satisfying the judgment debt.
- (2) The court must issue a summons, in a form approved by the chief executive of the Ministry of Justice, requiring the judgment debtor or an officer of the judgment debtor to attend the hearing.
- (3) The court may also—

- (a) order any of the judgment debtor's books or other documents to be produced at the hearing;
  - (b) order that the hearing be held at a place other than in a court;
  - (c) impose such other terms and conditions as the court thinks proper in respect of the hearing.
- (4) The summons must be served on the judgment debtor by a person referred to in section 108A(3)(b).
  - (5) The hearing must not be held until at least 3 working days or any shorter period agreed by the parties has passed after the date on which the summons was served.
  - (6) The court may cancel a hearing at the request of the judgment creditor.
  - (7) The jurisdiction of the court under this section may be exercised by the Registrar.

Section 84E: replaced, on 14 April 2014, by section 14 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2011 (2011 No 30).

84EA Power to arrest judgment debtor or officer

- (1) This section applies if a summons issued under section 84D or 84E cannot be served on a judgment debtor.
- (2) This section also applies if—
  - (a) a summons was served on a judgment debtor at least 3 working days or any shorter period agreed under section 84D(5) or 84E(5) before the date of the hearing to which the summons relates; but
  - (b) the judgment debtor fails to appear in person at the hearing or at any subsequent adjournment of the hearing.
- (3) This section applies in relation to a judgment debtor that is a body corporate if—
  - (a) a summons was served on an officer of the judgment debtor (the relevant officer) at least 3 working days or any shorter period agreed under section 84D(5) or 84E(5) before the date of the hearing to which the summons relates; and
  - (b) an officer of the judgment debtor (whether or not the relevant officer) fails to appear in person at the hearing or at any subsequent adjournment of the hearing.
- (4) The summons must not be enforced by committal, but a Judge or Registrar may issue a warrant to arrest the judgment debtor or relevant officer.
- (5) If the judgment debtor or relevant officer is arrested under this section, the following provisions apply:

- (a) the judgment debtor or relevant officer must be brought before a Judge or Registrar as soon as possible for the purpose of commencing or continuing the hearing:
  - (b) the judgment debtor or relevant officer is bailable as of right:
  - (c) section 168 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 and Parts 1 to 3 of the Bail Act 2000 apply, with any necessary modifications, as if an appearance at the hearing before a Judge or Registrar constituted part of the hearing of a charge, and as if references in those provisions to a court included references to a Judge or Registrar:
  - (d) if the judgment debtor or relevant officer cannot practicably be brought immediately before a Judge or Registrar, then a Police employee or bailiff may grant bail to the judgment debtor or relevant officer, and Parts 1 to 3 of the Bail Act 2000 apply, with any necessary modifications, as if the bail were granted by a Police employee under section 21(1) of that Act.
- (6) In this section, summons means—
- (a) a summons to attend a hearing under section 84D:
  - (b) a summons to attend a financial assessment hearing.

Section 84EA: inserted, on 14 April 2014, by section 14 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2011 (2011 No 30).

84EB Financial assessment hearing

- (1) The judgment debtor or, if the judgment debtor is a body corporate, an officer of the judgment debtor must appear in person at a financial assessment hearing.
- (2) The court may require the judgment debtor or officer and any witness to take an oath before giving evidence.
- (3) The judgment debtor may be represented at the hearing by a barrister or solicitor who may question the judgment debtor or officer and be heard on the matter of the judgment debtor's means for satisfying the judgment debt.
- (4) The judgment debtor or officer may be questioned by or on behalf of the judgment creditor or by the court.
- (5) Any witness may be questioned by or on behalf of the judgment creditor or judgment debtor or by the court.
- (6) A financial assessment hearing may from time to time be adjourned by the court to a time and place to be appointed.
- (7) The jurisdiction of the court under this section may be exercised by the Registrar.

Section 84EB: inserted, on 14 April 2014, by section 14 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2011 (2011 No 30).

84EC Orders by court following filing of financial statement, etc

- (1) This section applies if, after a judgment or order for the payment of money has been entered or made,—
  - (a) a financial statement is filed in the court; or
  - (b) the judgment debtor provides the court with information about the judgment debtor's means for satisfying the judgment debt under section 84C; or
  - (c) a hearing under section 84D or a financial assessment hearing takes place.
- (2) The court may do any 1 or more of the following:
  - (a) direct that 1 or more of the proceedings referred to in section 79(1) be commenced or continued (as the case may be), and direct that any steps be taken in such proceedings, and, for any such purpose, issue any warrant or summons or make any order;
  - (b) make an attachment order under section 84G;
  - (c) order that the money owing under the judgment or order be paid in instalments;
  - (d) stay any proceedings to enforce the judgment or order;
  - (e) vary any order made under this Act relating to the enforcement of the judgment or order.
- (3) The court may do any of the things referred to in subsection (2) even though—
  - (a) no application is made for the direction, order, or stay in question; or
  - (b) an application is made for a different direction, order, or stay; or
  - (c) no hearing takes place; or
  - (d) in a case where a financial statement is filed in the court by 1 party, the other party has not had the opportunity to make representations to the court about the financial statement.
- (4) The jurisdiction of the court under this section may be exercised by the Registrar.

Section 84EC: inserted, on 14 April 2014, by section 14 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2011 (2011 No 30).

84G Attachment orders

- (1) The court may make an attachment order to enforce a judgment or order for the payment of money—
  - (a) in the circumstances referred to in section 79(5C); or
  - (b) in the circumstances referred to in section 84EC(1); or
  - (c) on the application of the judgment creditor or judgment debtor.
- (2) If an application is made under subsection (1)(c),—
  - (a) the party who makes the application must serve a copy of it on the other party; and
  - (b) the court may make the attachment order even though the other party has not had the opportunity to make representations to the court about the application.
- (3) If an attachment order is made, it must be served on the employer to whom the order relates, the judgment creditor, and the judgment debtor.
- (4) Except as otherwise ordered by the court, an attachment order takes effect when a copy of the order is served on the employer.
- (5) The jurisdiction of the court under this section may be exercised by the Registrar.

Section 84G: replaced, on 14 April 2014, by section 16 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2011 (2011 No 30).

84H Content of attachment orders

An attachment order must be in a form approved by the chief executive of the Ministry of Justice and must specify—

- (a) the employer to whom the order relates; and
- (b) whether deductions are to be made every week, fortnight, or month, or by reference to some other period (the earnings period); and
- (c) the amount or percentage to be deducted from the judgment debtor's salary or wages for the earnings period; and
- (d) the amount or percentage below which the net amount paid to the judgment debtor for the earnings period must not fall; and
- (e) the name and address of the person to whom the amounts deducted are to be paid; and
- (f) that the order is to remain in force until the judgment debt has been paid in full or, if the order is to remain in force for a fixed period, that period.

Section 84H: replaced, on 14 April 2014, by section 16 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2011 (2011 No 30).

84I Effect of attachment orders

- (1) An attachment order shall direct that the money due and payable under the judgment shall, by way of sums of such amount, and payable by reference to such earnings period, as is specified in the attachment order, be a charge on any salary or wages that from time to time while the attachment order remains in force become due and payable by the employer to the judgment debtor.
- (2) The charge so created—
  - (a) shall accrue from earnings period to earnings period, and on such day of the earnings period as is specified in the attachment order; and
  - (b) shall attach to all salary or wages that become due by the employer to the judgment debtor at any time while the attachment order is in force, whether or not the contract of employment in respect of which the salary or wages so become due existed at the date of the attachment order; and
  - (c) shall be subject to any charge created by an attachment order under the Family Proceedings Act 1980 or the Summary Proceedings Act 1957 and to any item referred to in subsection (5)(a) and (b) (whether created, issued, or authorised before or after the date on which the order referred to in subsection (1) was made); but
  - (d) shall prevail over and have priority to any assignment or charge created by the judgment debtor (whether before or after the making of the attachment order under this Act), and so that the attachment order shall have the same effect as if no such assignment or charge had been made or created by the judgment debtor.
- (3) Despite subsections (1) and (2), no attachment order is to operate so that, when its effect is considered either alone or with the effect of any item referred to in subsection (5), the net amount paid to a judgment debtor for an earnings period is below the protected earnings rate for the earnings period; and, where necessary, the amount to be deducted from the judgment debtor's salary or wages for the earnings period is treated as being reduced or cancelled accordingly.
- (4) Nothing in section 84 of the Social Security Act 1964 applies to an attachment order.
- (5) The items are—
  - (a) a deduction notice under the Child Support Act 1991, the Family Proceedings Act 1980, the Social Security Act 1964, or the Tax Administration Act 1994;
  - (b) a deduction for the recovery of payments under section 86 of the Social Security Act 1964;
  - (c) a charge created by an attachment order under this or any other Act.
- (6) In this section,—

net earnings, in relation to an earnings period, means the balance left after deducting from the judgment debtor's salary or wages for the earnings period the amount of tax required to be withheld or deducted in accordance with the PAYE rules of the Income Tax Act 2007 if the salary or wages were the only salary or wages paid to the judgment debtor by the employer for the earnings period protected earnings rate, in relation to an earnings period, means the higher of—

- (a) 60% of net earnings for the earnings period; and
- (b) the amount or percentage referred to in section 84H(d).

84J Liability of employer

- (1) Subject to section 84I(3), as long as an attachment order remains in force, the employer to whom it relates shall from time to time, whenever any money becomes due and payable by the employer to the judgment debtor by way of salary or wages,—
  - (a) deduct from that money such sum as is sufficient to satisfy the charge on the money so far as the same has accrued before the day on which the salary or wages becomes due and payable; and
  - (b) not later than the 20th day of the month next after the month in which the deduction is made, pay the amount so deducted to the person specified in the attachment order.
- (2) All sums so deducted and paid shall be deemed to have been paid by the employer in satisfaction of the salary or wages payable by the employer to the judgment debtor.
- (3) All sums so deducted shall be deemed to have been paid by the judgment debtor in satisfaction of the judgment debtor's liability to pay the judgment debt.

- (4) If the judgment debtor gives notice of resignation, or is given notice of dismissal, from the employment of the employer to whom the attachment order relates, the employer must, within 7 days after receiving or giving the notice, notify the person referred to in section 84H(e) of the date of the last day of the judgment debtor's employment.
- (4A) If the employer to whom the attachment order relates ceases to pay salary or wages to the judgment debtor for a reason other than the judgment debtor's dismissal or resignation from the employment of the employer, the employer must, within 7 days after ceasing to pay the salary or wages, notify the person referred to in section 84H(e) of the day on which the salary or wages ceased to be paid.
- (5) Where the employer makes default in the payment of any money in satisfaction of any such charge, that money shall become a debt due by the employer to the judgment creditor, and may be recovered by the judgment creditor by action in any court of competent jurisdiction.
- (6) Every employer commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000 who fails without reasonable excuse to comply with paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of subsection (1).

84K Wrongful treatment of employee

Every employer commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000 who dismisses any employee or alters any employee's position in the employer's business or undertaking to the employee's prejudice by reason of—

- (a) the employee having been ordered to pay money owing under 1 or more judgments or orders imposed by a District Court or the High Court for the payment of a sum of money; or
- (b) an attachment order having been served on the employer; or
- (c) the employer becoming aware that an attachment order is being made or has been made in respect of the employee.

Section 84K: replaced, on 14 April 2014, by section 19 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2011 (2011 No 30).

Section 84K: amended, on 1 July 2015, by regulation 3(1) of the Criminal Procedure (Consequential Amendments) Regulations 2015 (LI 2015/104).

84L Extent to which attachment orders bind the Crown

(1) In this section—

employing department means—

- (a) a department of State in which a person is employed; and
- (b) in relation to a person to whom any retiring allowance or pension or other payment of a similar nature is payable—
  - (i) out of the Government Superannuation Fund, the Government Superannuation Fund Authority;
  - (ii) out of the National Provident Fund, the Board of Trustees of the National Provident Fund

servant of the Crown—

- (a) means a person in the service of Her Majesty in respect of the Government of New Zealand;
  - (b) includes a person in temporary or casual service;
  - (c) does not include a person in honorary service;
  - (d) includes any person serving in any of the New Zealand Armed Forces;
  - (e) includes a person to whom any retiring allowance or pension or other payment of a similar nature is payable out of the Government Superannuation Fund or the National Provident Fund.
- (2) Sections 84G to 84K and section 84M shall bind the Crown to the extent of and subject to subsections (3) and (4).
- (3) If the judgment debtor is a servant of the Crown, an attachment order may be made against the Crown as employer.
- (4) Where the judgment debtor is entitled to a benefit within the meaning of the Social Security Act 1964, an attachment order may be made against the chief executive of the department for the time being responsible for the administration of that Act, and—
- (a) service of the order must be effected—
    - (i) by leaving a copy of the order at, or sending a copy of the order by post to, either the District Office of the department nearest to the judgment debtor's place of residence or an address notified by the chief executive of the department to the chief executive of the Ministry of Justice; or
    - (ii) by sending the order in electronic form to an email address notified by the chief executive of the department to the chief executive of the Ministry of Justice; and

(b) section 84K shall not apply.

84M Variation, suspension, and discharge of attachment orders

- (1) A judgment creditor or judgment debtor may apply to the court at any time for an attachment order to be varied, suspended, or discharged.
- (2) The party who makes an application under subsection (1) must serve a copy of the application on the other party.
- (3) If an application under subsection (1) is made, the court may vary, suspend, or discharge the attachment order if good cause is shown to the satisfaction of the court why the order should be so varied, suspended, or discharged.
- (4) The court may vary, suspend, or discharge the attachment order even though the other party has not had the opportunity to make representations to the court about the application.
- (5) If an attachment order is varied, suspended, or discharged under subsection (3), notice of the variation, suspension, or discharge must be served on the employer to whom the order relates, the judgment creditor, and the judgment debtor.
- (6) A variation, suspension, or discharge of an attachment order takes effect when the notice referred to in subsection (5) is served on the employer, unless (in the case of a discharge) subsection (7) applies.
- (7) An attachment order may also be discharged at any time by written notice from the judgment creditor to the employer to whom the order relates; and the discharge takes effect when the notice is given to the employer.
- (8) The jurisdiction of the court under this section may be exercised by the Registrar.

Section 84M: replaced, on 14 April 2014, by section 21 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2011 (2011 No 30).

Review of Registrar's decision

Heading: inserted, on 1 January 1990, by section 9 of the District Courts Amendment Act 1989 (1989 No 107).

84N Review of Registrar's decision

- (1) Any person affected by any order or direction made by a Registrar under section 84EA or section 84EC or section 84G or section 84M may apply to a District Court Judge for a review of the order or direction.
- (1A) However, a judgment creditor may apply for a review of an order or direction made by a Registrar under section 84EC or 84G only if a financial assessment hearing that was attended by the judgment creditor or his or her representative has taken place.
- (2) An application under subsection (1) shall be made within 21 days of the making of the order or direction, or within such further time as a Judge, on application, may allow.
- (3) The Judge may, on receiving any such application, order that any such order or direction shall be suspended pending the review.
- (4) On any such review the Judge may confirm, rescind, or vary the Registrar's order or direction, and the order or direction shall have effect, or cease to have effect, accordingly.

Contempt

Heading: inserted, on 1 January 1990, by section 9 of the District Courts Amendment Act 1989 (1989 No 107).

84O Contempt procedures

- (1) No order may be made under subsection (3) unless any of the circumstances described in subsection (2) apply and the court is satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that—
  - (a) the judgment debtor has sufficient means to pay the judgment debt but refuses to do so; and
  - (b) all other methods of enforcing the judgment have been considered or tried and are inappropriate or unsuccessful.

- (2) The circumstances referred to in subsection (1) are as follows:
  - (a) a financial statement has been filed in court;
  - (b) the court has been provided with information about the judgment debtor's means for satisfying the judgment debt under section 84C;
  - (c) a hearing under section 84D or a financial assessment hearing has taken place.
- (3) The court may, on the application of a judgment creditor, order the judgment debtor to do community work, not exceeding 200 hours, as the court thinks fit.
- (4) Alternatively, the court may impose any of the orders referred to in section 79(1), (3), or (4) or do any of the things referred to in section 84EC(2) instead of or in addition to ordering the judgment debtor to do community work under subsection (3).
- (5) An order made under subsection (3) has effect as if it were a sentence of community work, and the relevant provisions of Part 2 of the Sentencing Act 2002, with any necessary modifications, apply accordingly.
- (6) If a District Court, acting under this section, orders a respondent to do community work, the judgment debtor has the same right of appeal to the High Court against the order as the judgment debtor would have had if the judgment debtor had been convicted and sentenced by the District Court before a Judge alone in relation to a charge.
- (7) An order made under subsection (3) does not operate to extinguish or affect the liability of the judgment debtor to pay the judgment debt.

Section 84O: replaced, on 14 April 2014, by section 23 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2011 (2011 No 30).

84OA Process for dealing with application for contempt procedures

- (1) On receipt of an application under section 84O(3), the Registrar must—
  - (a) appoint a time and place for the hearing of the application if satisfied, on the basis of information provided with the application, that the judgment debtor has sufficient means to pay the judgment debt but refuses to do so; or
  - (b) if not so satisfied, refer the application to a Judge.
- (2) On the referral of the application under subsection (1)(b), the Judge must—
  - (a) deal with the application on the papers; and
  - (b) consider whether he or she is satisfied, on the basis of information provided with the application, that the judgment debtor has sufficient means to pay the judgment debt but refuses to do so.
- (3) If the Judge is so satisfied, he or she must direct the Registrar to appoint a time and place for the hearing of the application.
- (4) If the Judge is not so satisfied, he or she must decline the application.

- (5) If the Registrar appoints a time and place for the hearing of the application under subsection (1)(a) or (3), the judgment debtor must be served with a copy of the application, and a notice of the time and place so appointed, by a person referred to in section 108A(3)(c).
- (6) The Registrar must notify the judgment creditor of the time and place so appointed.
- (7) If the application is declined under subsection (4), the Registrar must notify the judgment creditor that the application has been declined.

Section 84OA: inserted, on 14 April 2014, by section 23 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2011 (2011 No 30).

84OB Warrant to arrest may be issued if judgment debtor cannot be served or fails to appear at hearing

- (1) If a copy of the application cannot be served on the judgment debtor under section 84OA(5), or if the judgment debtor fails to appear at the hearing of the application, a Judge or Registrar may issue a warrant to arrest the judgment debtor and bring the judgment debtor before the court as soon as possible.
- (2) A warrant under subsection (1) ceases to have effect if the judgment debtor pays, or causes to be paid, the amount due under the judgment debt.
- (3) If a judgment debtor is arrested under a warrant issued under subsection (1), the following provisions apply:
  - (a) the judgment debtor must be brought before a Judge or, if a Judge is not available, the Registrar:
  - (b) if the judgment debtor is brought before the Registrar, the Registrar must appoint a time and place for the judgment debtor to appear before a Judge for the purpose of commencing or continuing the hearing:
  - (c) the judgment debtor is bailable as of right:
  - (d) section 168 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 and Parts 1 to 3 of the Bail Act 2000 apply, with any modifications that may be necessary, as if the hearing of the application referred to in subsection (1) were the hearing of a charge:
  - (e) if the judgment debtor cannot practicably be brought immediately before a Judge or Registrar, then a Police employee or bailiff may grant bail to the judgment debtor, and Parts 1 to 3 of the Bail Act 2000 apply, with any necessary modifications, as if the bail were granted by a Police employee under section 21(1) of that Act.

Section 84OB: inserted, on 14 April 2014, by section 23 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2011 (2011 No 30).

Section 84P: repealed, on 1 February 2001, by section 127(1)(a) of the Legal Services Act 2000 (2000 No 46).

84Q Judgment debtor doing community work to be discharged on payment

- (1) Where a judgment debtor is doing community work pursuant to an order under section 84O, the judgment debtor may pay, or cause to be paid, the amount due in respect of the judgment debt.
- (2) If the judgment debtor pays, or causes to be paid, the amount due, a probation officer, on being notified by the Registrar of the payment of that sum, must notify the judgment debtor that he or she is no longer required to report for community work, unless there is some other reason for the judgment debtor being required to report.

Warrants to seize property

Heading: replaced, on 14 April 2014, by section 25 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2011 (2011 No 30).

85 Warrant to seize property

- (1) A warrant to seize property shall require the bailiff or constable to whom it is directed to levy or cause to be levied such sum of money as is adjudged or ordered to be paid, or so much thereof as then remains unpaid, and also the costs of the execution, and of previous proceedings (if any) for the enforcement of the judgment or order, by seizure and sale of the goods and chattels of the person liable under the judgment or order, and the warrant shall authorize the bailiff or constable aforesaid to seize—
  - (a) any of the goods and chattels of that person, except his necessary tools of trade to a value not exceeding $500 and his necessary household furniture and effects, including the wearing apparel of himself and his family to a value not exceeding $2,000; and
  - (b) any money, bank notes, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, specialties, or other securities for money belonging to that person.

- (2) The Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council, amend subsection (1) by increasing any amount specified in that subsection.
- (3) A warrant to seize property must be in a form approved by the chief executive of the Ministry of Justice.

85A Immobilisation of motor vehicles

- (1) A bailiff or constable executing a warrant to seize property may, while seizing, or instead of seizing, a motor vehicle, immobilise the vehicle by attaching to it any device designed for the purpose, pending payment of the unpaid sum.
- (2) No vehicle may be immobilised under subsection (1) unless, at the time of its immobilisation, the vehicle—
  - (a) is on private property; or
  - (b) is in a public place and the bailiff or constable is satisfied that immobilising the vehicle will not cause undue inconvenience to other persons.
- (3) If a motor vehicle is immobilised under this section, a bailiff or constable—
  - (a) may seize the vehicle at any time;
  - (b) must, on the direction of the Registrar, seize the vehicle.
- (4) A person commits an offence if, without reasonable excuse, the person—
  - (a) tampers with, removes, or attempts to remove a device attached to a motor vehicle under subsection (1); or
  - (b) removes, or attempts to remove,—
    - (i) a motor vehicle to which a device is, or has been, attached; or
    - (ii) any part of that vehicle; or
    - (iii) any other property from that vehicle.
- (5) A person who commits an offence under subsection (4) is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000.

90 Protection of bailiff selling goods under execution without notice of claim by third party

- (1) Where any goods in the possession of an execution debtor at the time of seizure by a bailiff charged with the enforcement of a warrant to seize property issued from a court are sold by the bailiff without any claim having been made to them—
  - (a) the purchaser of the goods so sold shall acquire a good title to those goods free of all ownership interests and other proprietary interests held in them before the sale; and
  - (b) no person shall be entitled to recover against the bailiff, or anyone lawfully acting under his authority, for any sale of the goods, or for paying over the proceeds thereof prior to receipt of a claim to the goods, unless it is proved that the person from whom recovery is sought had notice, or might by making reasonable inquiry have ascertained, that the goods were not the property of the execution debtor.
- (2) Nothing in this section shall affect the right of any claimant, who may prove that at the time of sale he had a title to any goods so seized, to any remedy to which he may be entitled against any person other than the bailiff.

- (3) The provisions of this section shall have effect subject to the sections 108 to 112 of the Insolvency Act 2006 and sections 251 and 252 of the Companies Act 1993.

91A Personal property securities register to be checked

- (1) If property is seized under a warrant to seize property, the Registrar must, on the next working day after the property is seized, check whether a financing statement that relates to the property has been registered on the personal property securities register kept under the Personal Property Securities Act 1999.
- (2) If a financing statement has been registered, the bailiff must promptly notify the person named as the secured party in the financing statement of the following:

- (a) that the court may, under section 89, sell the property after the expiration of 7 days from the date of seizure if the judgment debt remains unpaid and no claim has been made in respect of the property by a person other than the judgment debtor:
- (b) the rights that may be available to the person under sections 93 and 94.

Section 91A: inserted, on 14 April 2014, by section 33 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2011 (2011 No 30).

Claims in respect of goods seized

92 Priority of High Court and District Court executions

- (1) Where a writ or warrant against the goods of a party has issued from the High Court, and a warrant to seize property against the goods of the same party has issued under the provisions of this Act, the right to the goods seized shall be determined, as the case may be, by the priority of the time of the delivery of the writ or warrant to the Sheriff to be executed or of the application to the Registrar for the warrant to seize property.
- (2) The Sheriff on demand shall, by writing signed by him, inform the bailiff to whom the warrant to seize property is directed of the precise time of the delivery of the writ or warrant, and the bailiff of the District Court to whom the warrant to seize property is directed shall on demand show the warrant to any Sheriff's officer, and such writing purporting to be so signed, and any endorsement on the warrant concerning the time of application to the Registrar for the warrant, shall respectively be sufficient justification to any Sheriff or bailiff acting thereon.

93 Sale of goods where claim made thereto

- (1) Where a claim is made to or in respect of any goods seized in execution under a warrant to seize property issued out of a court, the claimant may—
  - (a) deposit with the bailiff either—
    - (i) the amount of the value of the goods claimed; or

- (ii) the sum which the bailiff is allowed to charge as costs for keeping possession of the goods until the decision of the Judge can be obtained on the claim; or
- (b) give the bailiff in the prescribed manner security for the value of the goods claimed.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, the amount of the value of the goods claimed shall, in case of dispute, be fixed by appraisalment in the prescribed manner, and where the amount is deposited as aforesaid it shall be paid by the bailiff into court to abide the decision of the Judge upon the claim.
- (3) In default of the claimant complying with the foregoing provisions of this section, the bailiff shall sell the goods as if no such claim had been made, and shall pay into court the proceeds of the sale to abide the decision of the Judge.
- (4) The purchaser of property sold under this section obtains, by virtue of this section, good title to the property free of all ownership interests and other proprietary interests held in the property before that sale.

94 Third party claim process

- (1) If a claim is made to or in respect of any goods or chattels seized in execution under a warrant to seize property issued by a court, or in respect of the proceeds or value thereof, the bailiff may, before or after the return of the warrant, and whether an action has been commenced against him for such seizure or not, obtain from the Registrar a summons calling before the court the party at whose instance the process issued and the party making the claim.
- (1A) If a claim is made under section 93 in respect of property that is the subject of a financing statement registered on the personal property securities register kept under the Personal Property Securities Act 1999, the bailiff must obtain from the Registrar a summons calling before the court the party making the claim.
- (2) Upon the issue of the summons any action brought in any District Court or other court in respect of the claim or of any damage arising out of the execution of the warrant shall be stayed.

- (3) On the hearing of the summons, the Judge shall adjudicate upon the claim, and shall also adjudicate between the parties or either of them and the bailiff upon any claim to damages arising or capable of arising out of the execution of the warrant by the bailiff, and shall make such order in respect of any such claim and the costs of the proceedings as he thinks fit.

Garnishee proceedings

96 Garnishee proceedings

- (1) Any person who has obtained a judgment or order for the payment of money may take proceedings in accordance with the rules to obtain payment to him of the amount of any debt owing or accruing to the judgment debtor from any other person or so much thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the judgment or order and the costs of the garnishee proceedings.
- (2) For the purposes of this section a sum which stands to the credit of a judgment debtor with any person (including a bank or savings bank) and which is on deposit with that person or is held by him in a current or other account (including a deposit account) shall be deemed to be a sum due or accruing to that judgment debtor and, subject to the rules, shall be attachable accordingly, notwithstanding that any of the following conditions applicable to the deposit or account, that is to say—
- any condition that notice is required before any money is withdrawn:
  - any condition that a demand for payment must be made:
  - any condition that a personal application must be made before any money is withdrawn:

- (d) any other condition (other than a condition that a deposit book, receipt for money deposited, or other like document must be produced before any money is withdrawn)— has not been satisfied.
- (3) The rules may require any person who has in his possession or knows the whereabouts of any deposit book, receipt for money deposited, or other like document relating to the deposit or account of any judgment debtor to deliver that book, receipt, or document to the court or to disclose its whereabouts to the court, as the case may require.
- (4) In this section the term savings bank includes Post Office Bank Limited, a trustee savings bank established under the Trustee Savings Banks Act 1948, and a private savings bank established under the Private Savings Banks Act 1983.

Charging orders

Heading: inserted, on 1 January 1989, by section 7 of the District Courts Amendment Act 1983 (1983 No 49).

96A Charging orders

- (1) Any person who has obtained a judgment or order for the payment of money may apply to the court in accordance with the rules for a charging order.
- (1A) A charging order may be made in respect of any of the following property:
- (a) any estate, right, title, or interest in possession, remainder, reversion, or expectancy, and whether vested or contingent, in any land held by the judgment debtor in the judgment debtor's own name:
  - (b) any right or interest of the judgment debtor in any partnership:
  - (c) any shares held by the judgment debtor in any company incorporated in New Zealand, or having an office in New Zealand in which transfers of shares may be registered:
  - (d) any estate, right, or interest in possession, remainder, reversion, or expectancy, and whether vested or contingent, in any land, or in any non-

- ey, shares, or other chattels held under or by virtue of any express or implied trust for the judgment debtor.
- (2) Subject, in the case of a charging order made in respect of a registered estate or interest in any land, to registration under subsection (6), a charging order—
    - (a) shall charge the estate, right, title, or interest of the judgment debtor in the property described in the order with payment of the amount for which the judgment creditor has obtained judgment:
    - (b) shall restrain the person served with it—
      - (i) from making, or concurring in making or permitting any conveyance, transfer, assignment, or disposition of any estate, right, or interest, or of any share in a partnership or company, of the judgment debtor; or
      - (ii) from paying over any income, interest, dividends, bonus, profits, or other money due or accruing due to the judgment debtor,— except in accordance with the rules or by leave of the court:
    - (c) shall be removable into the High Court pursuant to subsection (8) and be enforceable in the High Court in the same way as if the charging order had been issued by the High Court into which it is removed:
    - (d) in the case of a charging order in respect of land, shall, unless an instrument of transfer or a deed of conveyance or assignment consequent upon a writ of sale of the land affected by the charging order is registered within 2 years after the date of the charging order, cease to bind the land and shall be deemed to have been discharged unless the court extends the effect of the charging order in accordance with the rules.
  - (3) A charging order shall specify, in such manner as to identify it, the property on which the charge is imposed.
  - (4) A charging order may be varied or discharged at any time by the court.
  - (5) Where a charging order is made in respect of the registered estate or interest of the judgment debtor in any land, a duplicate or copy of the order under the seal of the court may be delivered for registration to the appropriate District Land Registrar if the title to the land is under the Land Transfer Act 1952, or to the appropriate Registrar of Deeds if the title to the land is not under that Act, or, in the case of a mining privilege within the meaning of the Mining Act 1971, may be delivered for recording to the District Land Registrar in whose office the mining privilege is recorded.
  - (6) The Registrar to whom the duplicate or copy is delivered shall, without fee, record it in the register against the appropriate folium of the register book and against any relevant instrument of title, or record it and note its particulars on the filed copy of the mining privilege to which it relates, as the case may require.

- (7) An order discharging or varying a charging order may be registered or recorded in the same manner as the charging order.
- (8) Any charging order made under this section may be removed into the High Court in accordance with section 66, and the provisions of that section, with any necessary modifications, shall apply accordingly.

Committals

97 Issue and execution of orders or warrants of committal

- (1) Whenever any order or warrant for the committal of any person to prison is made or issued by a court in pursuance of this Act or the rules the order or warrant shall be directed to a bailiff or constable, who shall thereby be empowered to take the person against whom the order is made or warrant issued, and it shall be the duty of every constable to assist in the execution of every such order or warrant.
- (2) Any person committed to prison by any court in pursuance of this Act or the rules shall be committed to a prison established under or deemed to be established under the Corrections Act 2004, and the prison manager of the prison mentioned in any such order or warrant shall be bound to receive and keep the person therein mentioned until he is lawfully discharged.

Compare: County Courts Act 1934 ss 140, 141 (UK)

Section 97(1): amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 18(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 125).

Section 97(2): amended, on 1 June 2005, by section 206 of the Corrections Act 2004 (2004 No 50).

98 Power of Judge to order discharge

If at any time it appears to the satisfaction of a Judge that any person confined to prison pursuant to the last preceding section ought for any reason to be discharged, the Judge may order his discharge upon such terms (including liability to rearrest if the terms are not complied with) as the Judge thinks fit.

Compare: 1928 No 14 s 200

Section 98: amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 18(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 125).

Warrant for the recovery of land

99 Warrant for the recovery of land

- (1) A warrant for the recovery of land shall authorize the bailiff or constable to whom it is directed to give possession of the land referred to therein to the person named in the warrant and shall justify him in entering, by force if necessary, upon the land, with such assistants as he deems necessary, and in giving possession accordingly; but no entry under any such warrant shall be made except between the hours of 9 o'clock in the morning and 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The person to whom possession is given in accordance with the warrant shall hold the land discharged of the tenancy (if any), and the defendant, and all persons claiming by, through, or under him shall, so long as the judgment or order pursuant to which the warrant was issued remains unreversed, be barred from all relief in equity or otherwise.
- (2) For the purpose of executing any warrant to give possession of any premises, it shall not be necessary to remove any goods or chattels from those premises.

Compare: 1928 No 14 ss 181(3), 186; County Courts Act 1934 s 120 (UK)

100 Irregularity in execution of warrant can only be sued for as special damage

- (1) Where a person by whom a warrant for the recovery of any land is sued out had, at the time of suing out the same, lawful right to the possession of the land, neither he nor his agent, nor any other person acting in his behalf, shall be deemed to be a trespasser by reason merely of any irregularity or informality in the mode of proceeding for obtaining possession under the authority of this Act; but the party aggrieved may if he thinks fit bring an action in any court of competent jurisdiction and recover for special damage.
- (2) If special damage is not proved the defendant shall be entitled to a verdict; and if proved, but assessed by the last-mentioned court at any sum not exceeding $5, the plaintiff shall recover no more costs than damages unless the Judge or District Court Judge of the court before whom the trial is held certifies that in his opinion full costs ought to be allowed.

Compare: 1928 No 14 s 192

Section 100(2): amended, on 1 May 1981, by section 12 of the District Courts Amendment Act 1980 (1980 No 83).

Section 100(2): amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 18(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 125).

101 Person illegally obtaining warrant liable for trespass

- (1) If any person by whom a warrant for the recovery of any land is sued out in a court had not, at the time of suing out the same, lawful right to the possession of the land, the suing out of the warrant shall be deemed a trespass by him against the tenant or occupier of the land, although no entry is made by virtue of the warrant.

- (2) Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to protect any person on whose application and to whom any such warrant as aforesaid is granted from any proceeding against him by any such tenant or occupier as aforesaid for or in respect of any entry and taking possession, where that person had not when the warrant was issued lawful right to the possession of the said land; and nothing herein contained shall affect any rights to which any person may be entitled as outgoing tenant by the custom of the country or otherwise.
- (3) No proceeding or prosecution shall be brought against any Judge who has made any order for the issue of, or any Registrar who has issued, any warrant for the recovery of any land, or against any bailiff or constable who has executed any such warrant as aforesaid for ordering, issuing, or executing the warrant, by reason only that the person on whose application the warrant was issued had not lawful right to the possession of the land.

Compare: 1928 No 14 ss 187, 188, 191

Section 101(2): amended, on 1 July 1992, by section 21(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1991 (1991 No 61).

Section 101(3): amended, on 1 July 1992, by section 21(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1991 (1991 No 61).

Section 101(3): amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 18(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 125).

102 Execution of warrant may be stayed on giving bond

- (1) If any tenant or occupier becomes bound with 2 sureties as hereinafter provided, to be approved of by the court, in such sum as the court deems reasonable (regard being had to the value of the land and the probable costs of an action), to sue the person to whom such warrant as aforesaid was granted with effect and without delay, and to pay all the costs of the proceeding in case judgment is given for the defendant, or the plaintiff discontinues or does not prosecute the plaintiff's proceeding, or becomes nonsuited therein, execution of the warrant shall be stayed until judgment has been given in the action of trespass.
- (2) If upon the trial of the proceeding judgment is given for the plaintiff, the judgment thereupon shall supersede the warrant so granted, and the plaintiff shall be entitled to his costs in the proceeding.
- (3) Every such bond as aforesaid shall be made to the landlord at the cost of the tenant or occupier and shall be approved of in writing by a Judge; and if the bond so taken is forfeited, or if on the trial of the proceeding for securing the trial of which the bond was given the Judge by whom it is tried does not endorse upon the record in court that the condition of the bond has been fulfilled, the party to whom the bond has been so made may bring a proceeding and recover thereon; and the court where the last-mentioned proceeding is brought may by order give such relief to the parties upon the bond as may be agreeable to justice, and the order shall have the nature and effect of a defeasance to the bond.

Compare: 1928 No 14 ss 189, 190

Recovery of chattels

103 Warrant for the recovery of chattels

- (1) A warrant for the recovery of chattels may be issued at the request of any person who has obtained a judgment or order for the recovery of specific chattels.
- (2) The warrant shall require the bailiff or constable to whom it is directed to demand and seize the specific chattels referred to therein, if they can be found by him, and to deliver them to the person named in the warrant.

Compare: 1928 No 14 s 131(1)

104 Further proceedings if chattels not recovered

- (1) If the chattels are not recovered under the warrant aforesaid, application may be made to a Judge for an order or warrant of committal. The order or warrant of committal shall direct the committal of the person named therein for such period as the Judge thinks fit not exceeding 1 month.
- (2) If possession of the chattels is not recovered under the warrant referred to in the last preceding section, whether or not an order or warrant of committal is issued, the person entitled to the recovery of the chattels may obtain the issue of a warrant to seize property for the value of the chattels, such value to be assessed in such manner as a Judge may direct.

Compare: 1928 No 14 s 131(2), (3)

Liability and protection of officers

105 Neglect by bailiffs

- (1) Where a bailiff of any court, or any person acting under his authority, being employed to levy any execution against goods and chattels, loses the opportunity of levying the execution by reason of neglect, connivance, or omission, any party aggrieved thereby may complain to the Judge of that court.
- (2) On any such complaint the Judge, if the neglect, connivance, or omission is proved to his satisfaction, shall order the bailiff to pay such damages as it appears that the complainant has sustained by reason thereof, not exceeding in any case the sum for which the execution issued.

Compare: 1928 No 14 s 24

Section 105(1): amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 18(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 125).

107 Actions against bailiffs acting under warrants

- (1) No proceeding shall be commenced against any bailiff for anything done pursuant to a warrant issued under this Act, unless—
  - (a) a demand for inspection of the warrant and for a copy thereof is made or left at the office of the court by the party intending to bring the proceeding, or his solicitor or agent, in writing signed by the person making the demand; and
  - (b) the bailiff refuses or neglects to comply with the demand within 6 days after it is made.
- (2) If any proceeding is commenced against a bailiff in a case where such a demand has been made and not complied with, judgment shall be given for the bailiff if the warrant is produced or proved at the trial, notwithstanding any defect of jurisdiction or other irregularity in the warrant; but the officer who issued the warrant may be joined as a defendant in the proceeding, and if the officer is so joined and judgment is given against him the costs to be recovered by the plaintiff against him shall include such costs as the plaintiff is liable to pay to the bailiff.

Heading: inserted, on 14 April 2014, by section 38 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2011 (2011 No 30).

108A Service of documents under this Part

(1) If a person is required to serve a document under sections 84A to 94, the requirement may be met in any of the following ways:

(a) by—

(i) delivering the document to the recipient or bringing it to the recipient's notice if the recipient refuses to accept it; or

(ii) leaving the document for the recipient at the recipient's place of residence with another person who appears to be of or over the age of 14 years; or

(iii) leaving the document for the recipient at the recipient's place of business or place of work with another person:

(b) by sending the document to the recipient by prepaid post addressed to the recipient's last known place of residence or business:

(c) if the recipient has a known electronic address, by sending it to the recipient at that address in electronic form.

- (2) For recipients to whom section 108B applies, subsection (1) is modified to the extent provided by that section.
- (3) Despite subsection (1), the following documents must be served in accordance with subsection (1)(a) or, where applicable, section 108B(2)(b) or (4):
  - (a) a summons issued under section 84D, which must be served by an authorised process server:
  - (b) a summons issued under section 84E, which must be served by or on behalf of the judgment creditor or by an authorised process server:
  - (c) a copy of the application and notice of the time and place appointed for the hearing of the application that is required to be served on the judgment debtor under section 84OA(5), which must be served by or on behalf of the judgment creditor or by an authorised process server.
- (4) This section is subject to section 84L(4)(a).
- (5) In this section and in section 108B,—

authorised process server means a person who is—

- (a) a constable; or
- (b) a Police employee authorised by the Commissioner of Police to serve documents under this Act; or
- (c) an officer of the court; or
- (d) a person or a member of a class of persons authorised by a District Court Judge or Registrar to serve documents either generally or in respect of a particular case or class of case; or
- (e) an officer or employee of a corporation that is authorised by the Secretary for Justice to serve documents under this Part

officer, in relation to a body corporate or Crown organisation, includes a person involved in the decision making or management of the body or organisation recipient means the person required to be served

serve, in relation to a document,—

- (a) includes giving the document to a person; but
- (b) does not include filing the document in a court under rules of court.

Section 108A: inserted, on 14 April 2014, by section 38 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2011 (2011 No 30).

108B Service provisions modified in special cases

- (1) If a document is served in accordance with this section, it is, for the purposes of section 108A, taken to be served on the recipient concerned.
- (2) If the recipient is a body corporate or a Crown organisation, a document may be served—

- (a) if it may be served under section 108A(1)(b) or (c), by being sent, in accordance with either of those paragraphs, to the body corporate or Crown organisation for the attention of an officer or employee of that body or organisation:
  - (b) by being delivered to an officer or employee of the body corporate or Crown organisation at its head office, principal place of business, or registered office, or bringing it to the officer's notice or the employee's notice if that person refuses to accept it.
- (3) If a solicitor has signed a memorandum stating that the solicitor is authorised to accept service of a document on behalf of the recipient, the document may be served on the solicitor in any way authorised by section 108A.
- (4) In addition to the ways of service authorised by section 108A, a document may be served by delivering or sending it to, or by leaving it with,—
- (a) in the case of a recipient who lives or works on board a vessel (including a vessel belonging to the Royal New Zealand Navy), the person on board who is apparently in charge of the vessel:
  - (b) in the case of a recipient who is a member of the New Zealand Armed Forces, the officer apparently in command of the unit or detachment to which the recipient belongs:
  - (c) in the case of a recipient who is a prisoner, the manager or other officer apparently in charge of the prison.

Section 108B: inserted, on 14 April 2014, by section 38 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2011 (2011 No 30).

Part 7

Miscellaneous and general

Writs of arrest

109 Absconding debtors may be held to bail

- (1) Where it appears to the satisfaction of any Judge by affidavit of the plaintiff or his authorised agent that the plaintiff has a good cause of action against a defendant for a sum within the jurisdiction of a court for which a proceeding has been commenced under this Act, and that there is probable cause (the grounds of which shall be stated in the affidavit) for believing that the defendant is about to leave New Zealand with the intention of evading the payment of that sum, the Judge may issue a writ of arrest under his hand returnable immediately; and, if payment of that sum is not made before execution of the writ, the defendant shall be brought before a Judge who, upon investigation of the case, may either discharge the defendant or hold him to bail, with or without sureties at the discretion of the Judge, for any sum not exceeding the amount sworn to in the affidavit, with costs:

provided that the Judge may, before issuing the writ, require the person asking for the issue thereof to lodge in the court any sum of money not exceeding $2,000, or to give security therefor to the satisfaction of the court, to abide the decision of the court under paragraph (b) of section 110.

- (2) In default of bail being so given, or the amount with costs being deposited with the Registrar, as hereinafter provided, the Judge may order the defendant to be detained in some prison or lock-up, and to be brought from there to a court at a time to be stated in the order, being not more than 4 clear days from the date of the order, unless he sooner gives the prescribed security or makes the required deposit.
- (3) A defendant against whom a writ has issued for any amount may deposit that amount with the officer executing the writ or the Registrar, in lieu of bail, together with such amount for costs as may be shown on the writ; and the sum so deposited shall be paid, applied, and disposed of according to the final judgment of the court.
- (4) A Judge before whom a defendant is brought under the authority of any writ issued as aforesaid may, with the consent in writing of the defendant, summarily hear and finally adjudicate upon the claim of the plaintiff, or may fix the time for the hearing of the claim by the court or order that the proceeding be set down for hearing and fix the time thereof.
- (5) Where a Judge is not available through absence, illness, or any other cause, a Registrar may exercise any of the powers conferred on a Judge by subsections (1) and (2), other than the power to discharge the defendant.

Section 111: amended, on 1 July 1992, by section 15(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1991 (1991 No 61).

Contempt

112 Penalty for contempt of court

If any person—

- (a) wilfully insults a Judge or any witness or any officer of the court during his sitting or attendance in court, or in going to or returning from the court; or

- (b) wilfully interrupts the proceedings of a court or otherwise misbehaves in court; or
- (c) wilfully and without lawful excuse disobeys any order or direction of the court in the course of the hearing of any proceedings,— any officer of the court, with or without the assistance of any constable or other person, may, by order of the Judge, take the offender into custody and detain him until the rising of the court, and the Judge may, if he thinks fit, by warrant under his hand, commit the offender to prison for any period not exceeding 3 months or impose upon the offender a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each offence.

Financial provisions

113 Payment and recovery of fees

- (1) All fees, except such as may be payable in respect of keeping possession, or for storing, removing, or selling goods seized under a warrant, shall be paid in the first instance by the party on whose behalf any proceedings are taken.
- (1A) The fact that the party on whose behalf any proceedings are taken is Her Majesty, or any officer of Her Majesty's Government in New Zealand on Her Majesty's behalf or on behalf of Her Majesty's Government in New Zealand, shall not affect the application of subsection (1).
- (2) No Registrar or Deputy Registrar may do any act for which a fee is payable unless the amount of the fee prescribed or determined under any enactment is paid or unless payment of that amount is waived or postponed.
- (2A) An act for which a fee is payable is not invalid simply because the fee has not been paid.
- (3) In default of the payment of any fees, payment thereof shall be enforced, by order of the court, in like manner as payment of any debt adjudged by the court to be paid.
- (4) A table of all fees payable shall be posted in a conspicuous place in every Registrar's office.

116A Proof of service of documents

- (1) If any summons or any other document is served by a person who is authorised to do so under this Act, the rules, or any other enactment, the service may be proved—
  - (a) by an endorsement on a copy of the document or, where applicable, on a printout that records an electronic document, showing the fact, date, time, and mode of service; or
  - (b) in any other manner prescribed by the rules.
- (1A) An endorsement under subsection (1)(a) must be signed by the person who served the summons or document.
- (2) A person who wilfully endorses any false statement on a copy of any summons or document commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to a fine not exceeding $2,000, or to both.
- (3) If a document is served by sending it by prepaid post, then, unless the contrary is shown, the document is served when it would have been delivered in the ordinary course of post, and in proving service it is sufficient to prove that the letter concerned was properly addressed and posted.
- (4) If a document is served by sending it in electronic form, then, unless the contrary is shown, the document is served at the time the electronic communication first enters an information system outside the control of its originator, and in proving service it is sufficient to prove that the document concerned was properly addressed and sent.
- (5) In this section, information system means a system for producing, sending, receiving, storing, displaying, or otherwise processing electronic communications.

122 District Courts Rules

- (1) The Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council, with the concurrence of the Chief District Court Judge and 2 or more members of the Rules Committee established under section 51B of the Judicature Act 1908 of whom at least 1 is a District Court Judge, make rules regulating the practice and procedure of the court in the exercise of jurisdiction conferred by this Act.
- (1A) The Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council, make rules regulating the practice and procedure of the court in relation to the exercise of jurisdiction conferred by other Acts.
- (2) The power of making rules shall extend to all matters of practice or procedure and matters relating to or concerning the effect or operation in law of any practice or procedure in any case within the cognizance of the courts as to which rules of the High Court may be or might lawfully be made for cases within the cognizance of the High Court.
- (3) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions of this section, the power of making rules shall extend to—
- (a) prescribing the manner and the court in which proceedings are to be commenced and the procedure to be adopted where proceedings are commenced in one court which should, under the Act or the rules, have been commenced in another court:
  - (aa) applying, with or without modifications, provisions of the High Court Rules:
  - (b) prescribing the circumstances in which proceedings may be transferred from one Court to another, and the procedure consequent on any such transfer:
  - (c) prescribing the procedure in District Courts consequent on transfers of proceedings from the High Court to District Courts, or from District Courts to the High Court:
  - (ca) prescribing—

- (i) the procedure in District Courts in relation to the removal into the High Court, under section 45A, of a summary judgment application or any matter arising in a summary judgment application; and
  - (ii) the procedure in relation to the removal into the High Court, under section 45B, of a question of law:
- (d) prescribing the procedure in District Courts consequent on the removal of judgments of the High Court into District Courts and on the removal of judgments of District Courts into the High Court:
- (e) providing for the custody of the records of the court, and for the receipt of and accounts for all money paid into or out of court:
- (f) authorising the Registrar to hear and determine any proceedings taken under this Act (other than proceedings in respect of which a court has jurisdiction under any of the provisions of sections 29 to 34), and any proceedings (including proceedings in respect of which a court has jurisdiction under any of the provisions of sections 29 to 34) in which the defendant fails to appear at the hearing or admits the claim:

123 Regulations

- (1) The Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council, make regulations for all or any of the following purposes:
  - (a) prescribing fees payable in respect of proceedings, including fees for the filing and service of documents, in the District Court pursuant to this Act or other Acts:
  - (b) prescribing fees payable to persons giving evidence and to referees and arbitrators in proceedings in the District Court pursuant to this Act or other Acts:
  - (ba) in order to promote access to justice, empowering Registrars or Deputy Registrars to waive, reduce, or postpone the payment of a fee required in connection with a proceeding or an intended proceeding (including a proceeding in a Disputes Tribunal), or to refund, in whole or in part, such a fee that has already been paid, if satisfied on the basis of criteria specified under paragraph (bb) that—
    - (i) the person otherwise responsible for payment of the fee is unable to pay or absorb the fee in whole or in part; or
    - (ii) unless 1 or more of those powers are exercised in respect of a proceeding that concerns a matter of genuine public interest, the proceeding is unlikely to be commenced or continued:
  - (bb) prescribing, for the purposes of the exercise of a power under paragraph (ba), the criteria—
    - (i) for assessing a person's ability to pay a fee; and
    - (ii) for identifying proceedings that concern matters of genuine public interest:
  - (bc) empowering Registrars or Deputy Registrars to postpone the payment of a fee pending the determination of—
    - (i) an application for the exercise of a power specified in paragraph (ba); or
    - (ii) an application for review under section 123A:
  - (bd) making provision in relation to the postponement, under the regulations, of the payment of any fee, which provision may (without limitation) include provision—
    - (i) for the recovery of the fee after the expiry of the period of postponement; and

- (ii) for restrictions to apply (after the expiry of the period of postponement and so long as the fee remains unpaid) on the steps that may be taken in the proceedings in respect of which the fee is payable:
  - (be) providing for the manner in which an application for the exercise of a power specified in paragraph (ba) or paragraph (bc) is to be made, including, without limitation, requiring such an application to be in a form approved for the purpose by the chief executive of the Ministry of Justice:
  - (bf) amending Schedule 1A by adding offences to, or removing offences from, Part 1 or Part 2 of that schedule:
  - (bg) prescribing transitional arrangements for the trial and sentencing of persons charged with offences that are added to or removed from Part 1 or Part 2 of Schedule 1A:
  - (c) providing for such matters as are contemplated by or necessary for giving full effect to the provisions of this Act and for its due administration.
- (2) No fee is payable for an application for the exercise of a power specified in subsection (1)(ba) or (bc).

123AA Chief executive of Ministry of Justice may approve forms

- (1) The chief executive of the Ministry of Justice may approve and issue forms that the chief executive considers necessary for the purposes of this Act, not being forms required to be prescribed by regulations or rules made under this Act.

- (2) Without limiting subsection (1),—
  - (a) more than 1 form may be approved and issued in relation to the same matter; and
  - (b) a form may be described by any name that the chief executive considers appropriate even though it relates to a matter that is described by a different name under this Act, so long as the form refers to the appropriate provision of this Act.
- (3) Every document purporting to be a form approved and issued by the chief executive under and for the purposes of this Act is deemed to have been so approved and issued unless the chief executive otherwise certifies.

Section 123AA: inserted, on 14 April 2014, by section 42 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2011 (2011 No 30).

123A Reviews of decisions of Registrars concerning fees

- (1) Any person who is aggrieved by a decision of a Registrar or Deputy Registrar under regulations made under section 123(1)(ba) may apply to a Judge for a review of that decision.
- (2) An application under subsection (1) may be made within 20 working days after the date on which the applicant is notified of the decision of the Registrar or Deputy Registrar, or within any further time that the Judge allows on application made for that purpose either before or after the expiration of those 20 working days.
- (3) Applications under this section may be made on an informal basis.
- (4) Reviews under this section are—
  - (a) conducted by way of rehearing of the matter in respect of which the Registrar or Deputy Registrar made the decision; and
  - (b) dealt with on the papers, unless the Judge directs otherwise.
- (5) On dealing with an application for a review of a decision of a Registrar or Deputy Registrar, the Judge may confirm, modify, or reverse the decision of the Registrar or the Deputy Registrar.
- (6) No fee is payable for an application under this section.

Section 123A: inserted, on 9 October 2001, by section 5 of the District Courts Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 82).

124 Application of Act

Where under any Act any power, authority, or jurisdiction is given to Judges, the proceedings shall be had and determined in a court in accordance with this Act and the rules unless some other procedure is specially provided or required, and Judges in the exercise of that power, authority, or jurisdiction shall have all the powers given under this Act to Judges and to courts, but, except as aforesaid or as expressly provided in this Act or the rules, nothing in this Act or the rules shall derogate from or affect the provisions of any other Act conferring any power, authority, or jurisdiction on Judges or on courts.

Section 124: amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 18(1) of the District Courts Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 125).

125 Repeals and savings

- (1) The enactments mentioned in Schedule 3 are hereby repealed.
- (2) All courts, jurisdictions, offices, appointments, Orders in Council, orders, warrants, rules, regulations, seals, forms, books, records, instruments, and generally all acts of authority which originated under any of the said enactments or any enactment thereby repealed, and are subsisting or in force on the coming into operation of this Act, shall enure for the purposes of this Act as fully and effectually as if they had originated under the corresponding provisions of this Act, and accordingly shall, where necessary, be deemed to have so originated.
- (3) All actions, matters, and proceedings commenced under any of the said enactments and pending or in progress on the coming into operation of this Act may be continued, completed, and enforced under this Act.

District Courts Amendment Act (No 2) 2008

Public Act	2008 No 39
Date of assent	25 June 2008
Commencement	see section 2

1 Title

This Act is the District Courts Amendment Act (No 2) 2008.

2 Commencement

This Act comes into force on the day after the date on which it receives the Royal assent.

9 Transitional provision

- (1) Subsection (2) applies to any offence that—
  - (a) before the commencement of the District Courts Amendment Act (No 2) 2008, could be tried by a court presided over by a trial Judge; but
  - (b) after the commencement of the District Courts Amendment Act (No 2) 2008, cannot be tried by a court presided over by a trial Judge or can only be so tried after transfer to the court by the High Court under the Summary Proceedings Act 1957.
- (2) If a defendant is committed for trial before the commencement of the District Courts Amendment Act (No 2) 2008 in respect of an offence to which this subsection applies, and the committal was to the District Court, that court may try the offence, despite that Act.
- (3) This section does not affect the application of the Interpretation Act 1999 in respect of any transitional matter related to the District Courts Amendment Act (No 2) 2008 not provided for in this section.

District Courts (Categorisation of Offences) Regulations
2008
(SR 2008/211)

Anand Satyanand, Governor-General

Order in Council

At Wellington this 14th day of July 2008

Present:

His Excellency the Governor-General in Council

Pursuant to section 123 of the District Courts Act 1947, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting on the advice and with the consent of the Executive Council, makes the following regulations.

Regulations

1 Title

These regulations are the District Courts (Categorisation of Offences) Regulations 2008.

2 Commencement

These regulations come into force on 18 July 2008.

4 Transitional provision

- (1) This regulation applies if a person charged with an offence under section 6(2)(a), 6(2A)(a), 10(1), or 12C(1)(a) of the Misuse of Drugs Act 1975 was, before the commencement of these regulations, committed to the High Court for trial and is awaiting the commencement of that trial.
- (2) Section 168AA(2) (or, when it is in force, section 184Q) of the Summary Proceedings Act 1957 applies in respect of a defendant in the circumstances referred to in subclause (1) as if at all material times the offence for which the defendant was committed for trial was an offence to which that section applied.

Martin Bell,
for Clerk of the Executive Council.

Date of notification in Gazette: 17 July 2008.

District Courts Amendment Act 2011

Public Act	2011 No 30
Date of assent	22 July 2011
Commencement	see section 2

1 Title

This Act is the District Courts Amendment Act 2011.

2 Commencement

- (1) Sections 3 and 5 to 8 come into force on the day after the date on which this Act receives the Royal assent.
- (2) The rest of this Act comes into force on a date appointed by the Governor-General by Order in Council, and 1 or more orders may be made bringing different provisions into force on different dates.

Section 2(2): sections 9, 40, 41, and 44(1) brought into force, on 13 February 2012, by the District Courts Amendment Act 2011 Commencement Order 2011 (SR 2011/386).

Section 2(2): sections 4, 10–39, 42, 43, 44(2)–(4), and the Schedule brought into force, on 14 April 2014, by the District Courts Amendment Act 2011 Commencement Order 2013 (SR 2013/410).

3 Principal Act amended

This Act amends the District Courts Act 1947.

44 Transitional provisions

- (1) Section 28I of the principal Act, as inserted by section 9 of this Act, does not apply in respect of any fine (as defined in section 79 of the Summary Proceedings Act 1957) that was imposed before the commencement of section 9 by a District Court in the exercise of its jurisdiction under Part 2A of the principal Act.
- (2) A person affected by any order or direction that was made before the commencement of section 22 of this Act by a Registrar under section 84B of the principal Act (as it read immediately before that commencement) may, on and after that commencement, apply to a District Court Judge for a review of the order or direction under section 84N of the principal Act (as it read immediately before that commencement) as if this Act had not been enacted.
- (3) If, before the commencement of section 14 of this Act, the examination of a judgment debtor had commenced under section 84B of the principal Act (as it read immediately before that commencement) as to the judgment debtor's means for satisfying the judgment debt, the District Court may, on and after that commencement, do any 1 or more of the things referred to in section 84E(1) of the principal Act (as it read immediately before that commencement) as if this Act had not been enacted.

- (4) If, before the commencement of section 23 of this Act, a judgment debtor was examined under section 84B of the principal Act (as it read immediately before that commencement) as to the judgment debtor's means for satisfying the judgment debt, a judgment creditor may, on and after that commencement, apply for an order of community work under section 84O(1) of the principal Act (as it read immediately before that commencement) as if this Act had not been enacted.
