An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to marriage

1 Short Title and commencement

- (1) This Act may be cited as the Marriage Act 1955.
- (2) This Act shall come into force on 1 April 1956.

Part 1 Preliminary

2 Interpretation

- (1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

Commonwealth country includes a territory for whose international relations the Government of a Commonwealth country is responsible marriage means the union of 2 people, regardless of their sex, sexual orientation, or gender identity marriage celebrant means a person authorised to act as a marriage celebrant under this Act

Minister means the Minister of the Crown who, under the authority of any warrant or with the authority of the Prime Minister, is for the time being responsible for the administration of this Act

New Zealand representative means a person who is for the time being a head of mission or head of post (within the meaning of section 2 of the Foreign Affairs Act 1988) or a person assigned or reassigned to service overseas under section 6 of that Act service marriage means a marriage solemnised outside New Zealand at a time when the person who solemnised it, and at least one party to it, is a member of a naval, military, or air force raised in New Zealand, and the person who solemnised it—

- (a) is both a chaplain and a marriage celebrant; or
- (b) in the case only of a marriage solemnised before 1 September 1995, is a person duly authorised to solemnise it.

- (2) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, the terms Registrar-General, Deputy Registrar-General, and Registrar have the meanings assigned to them by section 2 of the Births, Deaths, Marriages, and Relationships Registration Act 1995.

Section 2: replaced, on 1 September 1995, by section 92 of the Births, Deaths, Marriages, and Relationships Registration Act 1995 (1995 No 16).

Section 2(1) marriage: inserted, on 19 August 2013, by section 5 of the Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 20).

Section 2(1) Minister: inserted, on 1 October 1995, by section 10(3) of the Department of Justice (Restructuring) Act 1995 (1995 No 39).

Section 2(1) minor: repealed, on 14 August 2018, by section 4 of the Minors (Court Consent to Relationships) Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 22).

Section 2(1) service marriage paragraph (b): amended, on 24 January 2009, by section 47 of the Births, Deaths, Marriages, and Relationships Registration Amendment Act 2008 (2008 No 48).

Section 2(2): amended, on 24 January 2009, by section 47 of the Births, Deaths, Marriages, and Relationships Registration Amendment Act 2008 (2008 No 48).

2A Transitional, savings, and related provisions

The transitional, savings, and related provisions set out in Schedule 1AA have effect according to their terms.

Section 2A: inserted, on 14 August 2018, by section 5 of the Minors (Court Consent to Relationships) Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 22).

3 Application of Act

- (1) The provisions of this Act, so far as they relate to capacity to marry, shall apply to the marriage of any person domiciled in New Zealand at the time of the marriage, whether the marriage is solemnised in New Zealand or elsewhere.
- (2) The provisions of this Act, so far as they relate to the formalities of marriage, including section 18 (marriage of persons 16 and 17 years of age), apply to any marriage solemnised in New Zealand, and to any marriage solemnised under section 44, whether or not either of the parties to any such marriage is at the time of the marriage domiciled in New Zealand.

Section 3(2): amended, on 14 August 2018, by section 6 of the Minors (Court Consent to Relationships) Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 22).

4 Registrar-General and Deputy Registrar-General

- (1) The Registrar-General shall be charged with the general administration of this Act.
- (2) The Deputy Registrar-General shall, under the control of the Registrar-General, have all the powers, duties, and functions of the Registrar-General.
- (3) During a vacancy in the office of Registrar-General, or in the case of the absence from duty of the Registrar-General, the Deputy Registrar-General shall have all the powers, duties, and functions of the Registrar-General.

Compare: 1908 No 113 s 4; 1912 No 24 s 2; 1915 No 25 s 2

5 Appointment of Registrars and Deputy Registrars

[Repealed]

Section 5: repealed, on 1 September 1995, by section 96 of the Births, Deaths, Marriages, and Relationships Registration Act 1995 (1995 No 16).

6 Fact of deputies acting conclusive evidence of authority to do so

[Repealed]

Section 6: repealed, on 1 September 1995, by section 96 of the Births, Deaths, Marriages, and Relationships Registration Act 1995 (1995 No 16).

Part 2 Marriage celebrants

Part 2 heading: replaced, on 1 January 1977, by section 2(1) of the Marriage Amendment Act 1976 (1976 No 8).

7 List of marriage celebrants

- (1) The Registrar-General shall in each year prepare a list of marriage celebrants (in this Part referred to as the list) and shall cause the list to be published in the Gazette.
- (2) The list shall contain the name of each person entitled under this Act to act as a marriage celebrant and shall be corrected or added to as the occasion may require. The Registrar-General shall cause each correction or addition to the list to be published in the Gazette.

- (3) The Registrar-General shall specify in each list published in the Gazette a date on which the list shall come into force, and on that date all previous lists and all corrections and additions to any previous list shall be deemed to be cancelled and of no effect.

Compare: 1908 No 113 s 14

Section 7 heading: amended, on 1 January 1977, by section 2(1) of the Marriage Amendment Act 1976 (1976 No 8).

Section 7(1): amended, on 1 January 1977, by section 2(1) of the Marriage Amendment Act 1976 (1976 No 8).

Section 7(2): amended, on 1 January 1977, by section 2(1) of the Marriage Amendment Act 1976 (1976 No 8).

8 Marriage celebrants of specified religious bodies

- (1) Subject to the provisions of subsections (2) and (3), there shall be entered in the list the name of any minister of religion which has been sent to the Registrar-General by any of the religious bodies enumerated in Schedule 1.
- (2) The name of any minister of religion which has been sent to the Registrar-General as aforesaid shall be accompanied by a certificate to the effect that the minister is recognised by the religious body as a minister of religion of that body.
- (3) The certificate shall be signed by the person or persons within New Zealand in whom ecclesiastical authority over the religious body is for the time being vested, or reputed to be vested, or, if there is no such person, by 2 duly recognised office bearers of the religious body.

Compare: 1908 No 113 s 9

Section 8 heading: amended, on 1 January 1977, by section 2(1) of the Marriage Amendment Act 1976 (1976 No 8).

9 Approval of organisations

- (1) Any organisation may apply to the Registrar-General in the manner hereinafter provided for approval as an organisation which may, pursuant to section 10, nominate persons to solemnise marriages, (therein and in this section referred to as an approved organisation).
- (2) The application must be accompanied by a statement setting out—
- (a) the objects and beliefs of the organisation; and
 - (b) the number or, if that cannot be accurately ascertained, the approximate number of members of the organisation who are of or over the age of 18 years.
- (2A) The statement must be—
- (a) signed by the persons specified in subsection (2B), each of whom must state his or her age and address; or

- (b) approved electronically by, or on behalf of, the persons specified in subsection (2B) in a manner specified by the Registrar-General (see also section 82A of the Births, Deaths, Marriages, and Relationships Registration Act 1995).
- (2B) The persons are—
 - (a) the chief office bearer and at least 10 members of the organisation who are of or over the age of 18; or
 - (b) in the case of an organisation whose constitution or tenets do not recognise a chief office bearer, at least 10 members of the organisation who are of or over the age of 18.
- (3) Another person must verify, either electronically in a manner specified by the Registrar-General or by statutory declaration, that the signatories to a statement signed under subsection (2A)(a) are who they claim to be and are members of the organisation (see also section 82A of the Births, Deaths, Marriages, and Relationships Registration Act 1995).
- (4) If the Registrar-General is satisfied that the principal object or one of the principal objects of the organisation is to uphold or promote religious beliefs or philosophical or humanitarian convictions, he or she may by notice in the Gazette declare the organisation to be an approved organisation.
- (4A) If the Registrar-General fails or refuses to declare the organisation an approved organisation, he or she shall, if required to do so by the organisation, refer the application to the Minister who, if he or she is satisfied that the principal object or one of the principal objects of the organisation is to uphold or promote beliefs or convictions as aforesaid, may direct the Registrar-General to declare the organisation, by notice in the Gazette, an approved organisation; and in that case the Registrar-General shall forthwith do so.
- (5) [Repealed]
- (6) [Repealed]
- (6A) Where an approved organisation changes its name or any of its objects, it shall forthwith give the Registrar notice in writing, signed in the manner required by subsection (2) for an application under subsection (1),—
 - (a) of its former and new names; and
 - (b) of whether or not its objects remain unchanged since it last stated them to the Registrar-General under this section; and
 - (c) if those objects do not so remain unchanged, stating its present objects.
- (6B) Where the Registrar-General is satisfied that an approved organisation has changed its name he or she shall notify the change by notice in the Gazette specifying that organisation's former and new names.
- (6C) Where the Registrar-General—

- (a) has been notified under subsection (6A) that the objects of an approved organisation have changed; or
 - (b) is satisfied that any of the objects of an approved organisation has changed since that organisation last stated its objects to the Registrar-General under this section,—
- he or she shall recommend to the Minister either—
- (c) that that organisation should continue to be an approved organisation; or
 - (d) that the Minister should cancel the approval of that organisation.
- (6D) The Registrar-General shall not recommend under subsection (6C) that an organisation should continue to be an approved organisation unless he or she is satisfied that the principal object or one of the principal objects of that organisation is to uphold or promote religious beliefs or philosophical or humanitarian convictions.
- (7) If—
- (a) at any time, the Minister—
 - (i) becomes satisfied that, in the light of information not available to him or her or the Registrar-General (as the case may be) when an organisation was approved, or by virtue of a change in the circumstances of an approved organisation, that organisation should not continue to be an approved organisation; or
 - (ii) is not satisfied (whether or not as a result of a recommendation under subsection (6C)) that the principal object or one of the principal objects of an approved organisation is to uphold or promote religious beliefs or philosophical or humanitarian convictions; or
 - (b) for a continuous period of at least 12 months no person nominated by an approved organisation has his or her name on the list,—
- the Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, cancel the approval of that organisation; and on the date of the publication of that notice that organisation shall cease to be an approved organisation.
- (8) Every religious body not enumerated in Schedule 1 of which a member was an officiating minister immediately before the commencement of the Marriage Amendment Act 1976 is hereby declared to be an approved organisation.

Section 9: replaced, on 1 January 1977, by section 3(1) of the Marriage Amendment Act 1976 (1976 No 8).

10 Marriage celebrants from approved organisations

- (1) The name of every adult member of an approved organisation nominated to be a marriage celebrant shall be sent to the Registrar-General together with a certificate from the organisation declaring that it wishes the member to be a marriage celebrant.
- (2) The certificate must be made or signed in the same manner as a statement under section 9(2A) to (3).
- (3) If the Registrar-General is satisfied that any person so nominated is of good character and otherwise qualified to act as a marriage celebrant, and that the provisions of this Act in respect of the submission of his or her name have been complied with, he or she shall enter the name of the person on the list.

- (4) If the Registrar-General fails or refuses to enter in the list the name of any person nominated pursuant to this section he or she shall, if required to do so by any signatory to the certificate accompanying the person's nomination, refer the nomination to the Minister, who may direct the Registrar-General to enter the person's name in the list, and in that case the Registrar-General shall forthwith enter the person's name in the list.

Section 10: replaced, on 1 January 1977, by section 3(1) of the Marriage Amendment Act 1976 (1976 No 8).

Section 10(2): replaced, on 16 December 2017, by section 20 of the Electronic Interactions Reform Act 2017 (2017 No 50).

Section 10(4): amended, on 1 October 1995, by section 10(3) of the Department of Justice (Restructuring) Act 1995 (1995 No 39).

11 Other persons may be marriage celebrants

- (1) Any person may apply to the Registrar-General to have his or her name entered on the list.
- (2) The application must—
- (a) be made in a form approved for the purpose by the Registrar-General; and
 - (b) contain, or be accompanied by, such information as the Registrar-General requires; and
 - (c) be accompanied by the prescribed fee (if any).
- (3) The Registrar-General may approve an application made under subsection (1) and enter the applicant's name on the list if the Registrar-General is satisfied that—
- (a) the applicant is—
 - (i) a Justice of the Peace; or
 - (ii) a person who is otherwise of good character; and
 - (b) the applicant will conscientiously perform the duties of a marriage celebrant under this Act and under the Births, Deaths, Marriages, and Relationships Registration Act 1995; and
 - (c) it is in the interests of the public generally, or of a particular community (whether defined by geography, interest, belief, or some other factor) that the person be a marriage celebrant.

Section 11: replaced, on 7 July 2010, by section 4 of the Marriage Amendment Act 2010 (2010 No 71).

12 Renewal of list

Where it is desired that any person shall continue to act as a marriage celebrant, his or her name shall, in December in each year, be sent to the Registrar-

General, and the provisions of this Part shall apply in any such case as if it were an application for the original entry of the name of the person concerned in the list.

Compare: 1908 No 113 s 12

Section 12: amended, on 1 January 1977, by section 2(1) of the Marriage Amendment Act 1976 (1976 No 8).

13 Removal of names from list

(1) Where the Registrar-General is satisfied that—

- (a) a marriage celebrant has died; or
- (b) a marriage celebrant no longer wishes to be a marriage celebrant; or
- (c) the organisation or religious body which submitted the name of a marriage celebrant no longer wishes him or her to be a marriage celebrant; or
- (d) the organisation which submitted the name of a marriage celebrant is no longer an approved organisation,— he or she shall remove the name of the marriage celebrant from the list and shall publish in the Gazette a correction to that effect.

(2) If the Minister is satisfied—

- (a) that a marriage celebrant has wilfully failed or persistently neglected to register the particulars of any marriages or to forward or return to a Registrar or to the Registrar-General any documents required so to be forwarded or returned by this Act; or
- (b) that a marriage celebrant whose name has been entered in the list pursuant to section 11 should not continue to be a marriage celebrant—

he or she may direct the Registrar-General to remove the name of that marriage celebrant from the list, and the Registrar-General shall remove the name from the list and shall publish in the Gazette a correction to that effect.

Section 13: replaced, on 1 January 1977, by section 4 of the Marriage Amendment Act 1976 (1976 No 8).

Section 13(2): amended, on 1 October 1995, by section 10(3) of the Department of Justice (Restructuring) Act 1995 (1995 No 39).

14 Evidence of list or correction to list

- (1) No person shall be entitled to act as a marriage celebrant unless his or her name appears in the list.
- (2) A copy of the Gazette purporting to contain a copy of any list or of any correction or addition to any list published in the Gazette in accordance with this Part shall be received in any court or before any person acting judicially as conclusive evidence of the truth of any statement in any copy published as aforesaid.

Compare: 1908 No 113 s 16

Section 14(1): amended, on 1 January 1977, by section 2(1) of the Marriage Amendment Act 1976 (1976 No 8).

14A This Part not to limit sections 32 and 32A

Nothing in this Part limits sections 32 and 32A (which exempt the Quakers and certain other religious bodies from observing requirements in Part 5 relating to the solemnisation of marriage in the presence of marriage celebrants).

Section 14A: inserted, on 1 January 2002, by section 60 of the Human Rights Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 96).

Part 3
Restrictions on marriage

15 Marriage of persons within prohibited degrees of relationship void

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a marriage which is forbidden by the provisions of Schedule 2 shall be void.
- (2) Any persons who are not within the degrees of consanguinity but are within the degrees of affinity prohibited by the said Schedule 2 may apply to the High Court for its consent to their marriage, and the court, if it is satisfied that neither party to the intended marriage has by his or her conduct caused or contributed to the cause of the termination of any previous marriage of the other party, may make an order dispensing with the prohibition contained in Schedule 2 so far as it relates to the parties to the application and, if such an order is made, that prohibition shall cease to apply to the parties.
- (3) The Registrar of the court where any order under this section is made shall send a copy in duplicate of the order to the Registrar-General.
- (4) No marriage not forbidden by the provisions of Schedule 2 shall be void only on the ground of consanguinity or affinity.

Compare: 1946 No 8 s 9

Section 15(2): amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 12 of the Judicature Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 124).

16 Validation of certain marriages already solemnised

All marriages solemnised before the commencement of this Act that by virtue of section 15 would have been valid and lawful if this Act had been in force when they were solemnised shall be deemed to have been and to be valid and lawful, and the issue born of any such marriage (whether born before or after the commencement of this Act) shall be deemed to have been born in lawful wedlock:

provided that where either of the parties to any such marriage has thereafter during the lifetime of the other party to the marriage and before the commencement of this Act lawfully married any other person, the first marriage shall be deemed to have been dissolved immediately before the solemnisation of the second marriage:

provided also that this section shall not affect any estate, right, or interest in any real or personal property to which any person has become absolutely entitled before the commencement of this Act, or affect any proceedings commenced in any court before the commencement of this Act, or any decree, order, or judgment made or given (whether before or after the commencement of this Act) in any such proceedings.

Section 17(1): amended, on 1 January 1977, by section 2(1) of the Marriage Amendment Act 1976 (1976 No 8).

Section 17(2): repealed, on 14 August 2018, by section 7 of the Minors (Court Consent to Relationships) Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 22).

18 Marriage of persons 16 and 17 years of age

- (1) This section applies if, on the date on which notice of an intended marriage is given under section 23,—
- (a) either party to the intended marriage is aged 16 or 17 years; or
 - (b) both parties to the intended marriage are aged 16 or 17 years.
- (2) If this section applies, a Registrar must not issue a marriage licence authorising the intended marriage, or solemnise the marriage, unless a Family Court Judge has, under this section, consented to the intended marriage.
- (3) A party to an intended marriage who is aged 16 or 17 years must apply to the Family Court for a Family Court Judge's consent to the intended marriage, and a joint application may be made if both parties to the intended marriage are aged 16 or 17 years.
- (4) A Family Court Judge may, on receipt of an application made under subsection (3), consent to the intended marriage only if the Judge is satisfied that, for each party to the intended marriage aged 16 or 17 years,—
- (a) the party has made the application voluntarily, free of undue influence or coercion; and
 - (b) the party understands the consequences of the application and wants the Judge to consent to the intended marriage; and
 - (c) the intended marriage is in the party's interests.

- (5) In determining whether the intended marriage is in a party's interests, the matters the Judge must take into account include, without limitation,—
- (a) the age and maturity of the party; and
 - (b) the party's views; and
 - (c) any views of the party's parents and guardians that can reasonably be ascertained; and
 - (d) any other information available to the court relevant to the party's application.

Section 18: replaced, on 14 August 2018, by section 8 of the Minors (Court Consent to Relationships) Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 22).

19 Court may appoint lawyers in proceedings under section 18

- (1) In any proceedings under section 18, the Family Court Judge may appoint a lawyer to represent the applicant if the Judge is satisfied that the appointment is necessary or desirable.
- (2) In any proceedings under section 18, the Family Court Judge may (whether or not an appointment is made under subsection (1))—
- (a) appoint a lawyer to assist the court; or
 - (b) direct a Registrar of the court to appoint a lawyer to assist the court.
- (3) The fees and expenses of a lawyer appointed under subsection (1) or (2) must—
- (a) be determined in accordance with regulations made under section 16D of the Family Court Act 1980 or, if no such regulations are made, by a Registrar of the Family Court; and
 - (b) be paid in accordance with that determination out of public money appropriated by Parliament for the purpose.
- (4) An invoice for fees and expenses rendered by a lawyer appointed under this section must be given to the Registrar of the court in which the proceedings were heard, and the Registrar may decide to adjust the amount of the invoice.
- (5) If the lawyer is dissatisfied with the decision of the Registrar as to the amount of the invoice, the lawyer may, within 14 days after the date of the decision, apply to a Judge of the court to review the decision, and the Judge may make any order varying or confirming the decision that the Judge considers fair and reasonable.

Section 19: replaced, on 14 August 2018, by section 8 of the Minors (Court Consent to Relationships) Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 22).

20 Judge may obtain cultural report

- (1) In any proceedings under section 18, the Family Court Judge may obtain a written cultural report by—

- (a) requesting a person whom the Judge considers qualified for the purpose to prepare one; or
 - (b) directing the Registrar to request a person whom the Registrar considers qualified for the purpose to prepare one.
- (2) The court may act under subsection (1) only if satisfied that—
- (a) the information that the report will provide is essential for determining the application; and
 - (b) the report is the best source of the information, having regard to the quality, timeliness, and cost of other sources; and
 - (c) the proceedings will not be unduly delayed by the time taken to prepare the report; and
 - (d) any delay in the proceedings will not have an unacceptable effect on the applicant.
- (3) If the court is entitled by subsection (2) to act under subsection (1) and if the court knows the applicant's wishes about the obtaining of a report or can speedily ascertain them, the court must have regard to the applicant's wishes before deciding whether or not to act under subsection (1).
- (4) Fees for the preparation of reports obtained under this section, and reasonable expenses incurred, must—
- (a) be determined in accordance with regulations made under section 16D of the Family Court Act 1980 or, if no such regulations are made, by a Registrar of the court; and
 - (b) be paid in accordance with that determination out of public money appropriated by Parliament for the purpose.
- (5) In this section, cultural report means a report that is about the applicant and that covers an aspect or aspects of the applicant's cultural background, including the applicant's religious denomination and practice.

Section 20: replaced, on 14 August 2018, by section 8 of the Minors (Court Consent to Relationships) Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 22).

21 When marriage is or may be declared void

The grounds on which a marriage is void ab initio are set out in section 31 of the Family Proceedings Act 1980.

Section 21: replaced, on 14 August 2018, by section 8 of the Minors (Court Consent to Relationships) Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 22).

22 Marriages not to be void because of defects in procedure

- (1) Except as provided in section 15 or in section 21, no marriage shall be deemed to be void by reason of any error or defect in the notice, declaration, or licence required before solemnisation, or in the registration of the marriage when solemnised where the identity of the parties is not questioned, or on account of any other infringement of the provisions of this Act.

- (2) Nothing in this section shall exempt any marriage celebrant, Registrar, or other person who does anything contrary to the provisions of this Act from any penalty for any offence under this Act committed by any such person.

Compare: 1908 No 113 s 47

Section 22(2): amended, on 1 January 1977, by section 2(1) of the Marriage Amendment Act 1976 (1976 No 8).

Part 4

Formalities preliminary to marriage

23 Notice of marriage

- (1) Where 2 persons intend to marry in New Zealand, one of them shall give notice to a Registrar in a manner specified by the Registrar-General.
- (2) The person giving notice must verify that—
- (a) the particulars in the notice are true; and
 - (b) he or she believes that the intended marriage is not prohibited by section 15; and
 - (c) there is no other lawful impediment to the intended marriage.
- (2A) The information in subsection (2) may be verified—
- (a) electronically in a manner specified by the Registrar-General (see also section 82A of the Births, Deaths, Marriages, and Relationships Registration Act 1995); or
 - (b) by the person giving notice appearing personally before the Registrar and making a statutory declaration.
- (3) However, if the 2 parties to an intended marriage are ordinarily resident outside New Zealand, the requirements of subsection (1) and (2A)(b) are satisfied if—
- (a) one of the parties gives notice to the Registrar in a manner specified by the Registrar-General; and
 - (b) the Registrar is satisfied that one of the parties has made a statutory declaration as to the matters in subsection (2)(a) to (c).

Section 23(2): replaced, on 16 December 2017, by section 21(2) of the Electronic Interactions Reform Act 2017 (2017 No 50).

Section 23(2A): inserted, on 16 December 2017, by section 21(2) of the Electronic Interactions Reform Act 2017 (2017 No 50).

Section 23(3): replaced, on 16 December 2017, by section 21(2) of the Electronic Interactions Reform Act 2017 (2017 No 50).

24 Issue of marriage licence and information return

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, if a marriage is to be solemnised by a marriage celebrant or under section 32, and notice has been given to a Registrar in accordance with section 23, the Registrar shall, not earlier than the third day after the day the notice was given, issue to the person who gave the notice—
 - (a) a marriage licence in the prescribed form, authorising the marriage of the persons named in it at the place, or either of 2 places (being a place or places situated in New Zealand), specified in it; and
 - (b) 2 copies of a form provided by the Registrar-General for the purpose of returning information relating to marriages solemnised by marriage celebrants or under section 32.
- (1A) A Registrar other than the Registrar to whom the notice was given may issue the licence and copies (and in that case the Registrar to whom the notice was given does not have to do so).
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), if satisfied that—
 - (a) a proposed marriage is not prohibited by this Act; and
 - (b) the requirements of this Act have been complied with; and
 - (c) the parties to the proposed marriage would otherwise be inconvenienced,—

a Registrar may issue a marriage licence and marriage return forms before the third day after the day the notice concerned was given.

Section 24: replaced, on 1 September 1995, by section 93 of the Births, Deaths, Marriages, and Relationships Registration Act 1995 (1995 No 16).

Section 24(1A): inserted, on 7 May 1999, by section 2 of the Marriage Amendment Act 1999 (1999 No 38).

25 Caveats may be lodged

- (1) Any person may lodge with any Registrar a caveat against the marriage of any person named in the caveat on the ground that the marriage is one in respect of which a licence should not be issued under this Act.
- (2) Every caveat shall be in writing signed by or on behalf of the caveator, and shall state his or her full name and residential address and the particular grounds of objection on which the caveat is founded.
- (3) Notice of any caveat may be given to any Registrar other than the Registrar with whom it was lodged. The notice shall be in writing signed by or on behalf of the caveator, and shall state his or her full name and residential address, the date and place of lodgement of the caveat, and the grounds of objection on which the caveat is founded.
- (4) Until the caveat has been withdrawn by the caveator or has been discharged as provided by section 26, no licence in respect of the marriage of the person to whom the caveat relates shall be issued by any Registrar with whom the caveat has been lodged or to whom notice of the caveat has been given in accordance with this section, and no such Registrar shall solemnise the marriage.

Compare: 1908 No 113 s 22

26 Discharge of caveat

- (1) On receiving notice under section 23 of an intended marriage against which he or she is aware that a caveat has been lodged, the Registrar shall submit the caveat to a Family Court Judge, or, if a Family Court Judge is not immediately available, to a District Court Judge who shall forthwith inquire into the grounds of objection stated in the caveat, and, if he or she is of the opinion that those grounds should not prevent the solemnisation of the marriage, he or she shall discharge the caveat.
- (2) A caveat shall be deemed to be discharged after the expiration of 1 year from the date on which it was lodged unless within that time a notice of the intended marriage to which the caveat relates has been given.
- (3) Where a Family Court Judge (or a District Court Judge) has refused to discharge a caveat, any person may make an application to a Family Court Judge for the discharge of the caveat and the Family Court Judge, if he or she is of the opinion that there is no longer any reason why the intended marriage should not be solemnised, shall discharge the caveat.

Section 26(1): amended, on 1 October 1981, by section 17(1) of the Family Courts Act 1980 (1980 No 161).

Section 26(3): amended, on 1 October 1981, by section 17(1) of the Family Courts Act 1980 (1980 No 161).

27 Vexatious caveat

Any person who has lodged a caveat shall, if the court considers the grounds on which the caveat was lodged to be vexatious and unreasonable, be liable for damages.

Compare: 1908 No 113 s 23

28 Registrar to issue licence unless satisfied marriage unlawful

A Registrar shall issue a marriage licence or solemnise a marriage, as the case may be, unless he or she has reasonable cause to believe that the marriage is prohibited by this Act or that any of the requirements of this Act have not been complied with:

provided that no Registrar shall be required to solemnise a marriage at a time or on a day when his or her office is not ordinarily open for the transaction of public business under this Act unless he or she has agreed to do so.

Section 28 proviso: inserted, on 1 January 1977, by section 7(2) of the Marriage Amendment Act 1976 (1976 No 8).

29 Licence authorises but not obliges marriage celebrant to solemnise marriage

- (1) A marriage licence shall authorise but not oblige any marriage celebrant to solemnise the marriage to which it relates.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), no celebrant who is a minister of religion recognised by a religious body enumerated in Schedule 1, and no celebrant who is a person nominated to solemnise marriages by an approved organisation, is obliged to solemnise a marriage if solemnising that marriage would contravene the religious beliefs of the religious body or the religious beliefs or philosophical or humanitarian convictions of the approved organisation.

Part 5

Solemnisation of marriage

30 When marriage may be solemnised

- (1) A marriage shall not be solemnised by a marriage celebrant until the marriage licence issued in respect of the marriage has been delivered to him or her.
- (2) A marriage shall not be solemnised after the expiration of 3 months from the date of the licence issued in respect of the marriage.
- (3) A marriage shall not be solemnised by a Registrar before the third day after notice of the intended marriage has been given to him or her:
provided that the Registrar, if he or she is satisfied that the marriage is not prohibited by this Act, that the requirements of this Act have been complied with, and that inconvenience would otherwise be caused to the persons intending marriage, may solemnise the marriage before that day.
- (4) A marriage shall not be solemnised by a Registrar after the expiration of 3 months from the date when notice of the intended marriage was given to him or her, or, where a caveat has been lodged, after the expiration of 3 months from the date when the caveat was withdrawn or discharged.

Compare: 1908 No 113 s 31

Section 30(1): amended, on 1 January 1977, by section 2(1) of the Marriage Amendment Act 1976 (1976 No 8).

31 Place and form of marriage before marriage celebrant

- (1) Every marriage solemnised by a marriage celebrant shall be solemnised at a place described in the marriage licence issued in respect of that marriage.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), every such marriage shall take place between the persons named in the licence according to such form and ceremony as they may think fit to adopt, and shall be solemnised in the presence of a marriage celebrant and 2 or more witnesses.
- (3) During the solemnisation of every such marriage each party must say to the other—
 - (a) “I AB, take you CD, to be my legal wife or husband”; or
 - (b) words to similar effect; or
 - (c) in the case of the solemnisation of a marriage in accordance with the rules and procedures of a specified body that require different words to be used as a marriage vow than those set out in paragraph (a), those words.
- (4) The solemnisation of a marriage may not be conducted in accordance with subsection (3)(c) unless the specified body in question first—
 - (a) informs the Registrar of the words that are intended to be used in place of the words set out in subsection (3)(a) and satisfies the Registrar that the use of those words is in accordance with the rules and procedures of that body; and
 - (b) notifies the Registrar of the safeguards to be adopted by that body to ensure that—
 - (i) there is a clear identification of the parties to the marriage; and
 - (ii) that the parties freely consent to the marriage; and
 - (iii) the witnesses understand the ceremony and can verify the matters referred to in subparagraphs (i) and (ii).
- (5) In this section, specified body means—
 - (a) a religious body described in Schedule 1 or the subject of an exemption under section 32C;
 - (b) an organisation approved under section 9 as an organisation that may nominate marriage celebrants.

32 Marriage of Quakers

- (1) The provisions of this Part relating to the solemnisation of marriages in the presence of a marriage celebrant shall not extend, and shall be deemed not to have extended, to any marriage solemnised (whether before or after the commencement of this Act) in accordance with the marriage regulations of the religious Society of Friends, commonly called Quakers, or in accordance with those regulations except so far as the regulations may require that marriages be solemnised at a place where public meetings for worship are regularly held:
provided that no such marriage shall be solemnised unless a marriage licence has been issued:
provided also that every such marriage shall be solemnised at a place stated in the marriage licence.
- (2) Every marriage to which this section applies shall be as valid as if solemnised under this Act before a marriage celebrant, and accordingly shall, for the purposes of this Act, wherever necessary be deemed to have been so solemnised.
- (3) [Repealed]
- (4) [Repealed]
- (5) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit in any way the provisions of section 22 as to the validity of marriages.

32A Marriage in accordance with rules and procedures of exempt religious bodies

- (1) The provisions of this Part relating to the solemnisation of marriage in the presence of a marriage celebrant do not extend to marriages conducted in accordance with the rules and procedures of an exempt religious body.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), a marriage to which that subsection applies—

- (a) must not be solemnised unless a marriage licence has been issued:
- (b) must be solemnised at a place stated in the marriage licence.
- (3) Every marriage to which subsection (1) applies is as valid as if solemnised under this Act before a marriage celebrant.
- (4) This section does not limit the provisions of section 22 relating to the validity of marriages.
- (5) In this section and in sections 32B to 32E, an exempt religious body is a body that is exempted by the Registrar-General under section 32C from observing the requirements of this Part relating to the solemnisation of marriages in the presence of a marriage celebrant.

Section 32A: inserted, on 1 January 2002, by section 61 of the Human Rights Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 96).

32B Application to become exempt religious body

- (1) A religious body (other than the religious body to which section 32 applies) may apply to the Registrar-General for an exemption from observing the requirements of this Part relating to the solemnisation of marriages in the presence of a marriage celebrant.
- (2) An application made under subsection (1) must be accompanied by—
 - (a) a statement setting out—
 - (i) the beliefs and objects of the organisation; and
 - (ii) the number or, if this cannot be accurately ascertained, the approximate number of members of the organisation of or over 18 years; and
 - (b) a statement explaining why the objects and beliefs of the religious body are inconsistent with those provisions of this Part relating to the solemnisation of marriages in the presence of a marriage celebrant; and
 - (c) a statement containing a description of the rules and procedures by which the body proposes to solemnise marriages.
- (3) The statement referred to in subsection (2)(a) must be—
 - (a) signed by the persons specified in subsection (4), each of whom must state his or her age and address; or
 - (b) approved electronically by, or on behalf of, the persons specified in subsection (4) in a manner specified by the Registrar-General (see also section 82A of the Births, Deaths, Marriages, and Relationships Registration Act 1995).
- (4) The persons are—
 - (a) the chief office bearer and at least 10 members of the religious body who are of or over the age of 18; or

- (b) in the case of a religious body whose rules and procedures or tenets do not recognise a chief office bearer, at least 10 members of the organisation who are of or over the age of 18.
- (5) Another person must verify, either electronically in a manner specified by the Registrar-General or by statutory declaration, that the signatories to an application signed under subsection (3)(a) are who they claim to be and are members of the body (see also section 82A of the Births, Deaths, Marriages, and Relationships Registration Act 1995).

Section 32B: inserted, on 1 January 2002, by section 61 of the Human Rights Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 96).

Section 32B(2)(a): amended, on 16 December 2017, by section 22(1) of the Electronic Interactions Reform Act 2017 (2017 No 50).

Section 32B(3): replaced, on 16 December 2017, by section 22(2) of the Electronic Interactions Reform Act 2017 (2017 No 50).

Section 32B(4): replaced, on 16 December 2017, by section 22(2) of the Electronic Interactions Reform Act 2017 (2017 No 50).

Section 32B(5): inserted, on 16 December 2017, by section 22(2) of the Electronic Interactions Reform Act 2017 (2017 No 50).

32C Declaration of religious body as exempt religious body

- (1) The Registrar-General may, on receiving an application under section 32B, grant the exemption sought by declaring the religious body to be an exempt religious body if the Registrar-General is satisfied—
 - (a) that the body is a bona fide religious body; and
 - (b) that the beliefs of that body are genuinely and sincerely held by its members; and
 - (c) that the beliefs or objects of that body are inconsistent with the fulfilment of the requirements of this Part relating to the solemnisation of marriage in the presence of a marriage celebrant; and
 - (d) that the rules and procedures under which that body proposes to solemnise marriage are—
 - (i) consistent with the requirements of this Act (other than those referred to in paragraph (c)); and
 - (ii) otherwise satisfactory.
- (2) If, on receiving an application under section 32B, the Registrar-General fails or refuses to declare the religious body to be an exempt religious body, the Registrar-General must, if required to do so by the religious body, refer the application to the Minister.
- (3) If the Minister considers that the requirements of subsection (1)(a) to (d) are satisfied, the Minister may direct the Registrar-General to declare the religious body to be an exempt religious body and, in that case, the Registrar-General must do so immediately.

- (4) A declaration under this section that a religious body is an exempt religious body must be made by way of notice in the Gazette.

Section 32C: inserted, on 1 January 2002, by section 61 of the Human Rights Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 96).

32D Change in beliefs or objects of exempt religious bodies

- (1) If an exempt religious body changes its name or any of its beliefs or objects, it must immediately give the Registrar-General notice in writing, signed in the manner required by section 32B(2)(a),—
- (a) of its former and new names; and
 - (b) of whether its beliefs and objects remain unchanged since it last stated them to the Registrar-General under section 32B; and
 - (c) if those beliefs and objects do not remain unchanged, stating its present beliefs and objects; and
 - (d) stating whether its present beliefs and objects continue to be inconsistent with the provisions of this Part relating to the solemnisation of marriages in the presence of a marriage celebrant.
- (2) If the Registrar-General is satisfied that an exempt religious body has changed its name, the Registrar must notify the change by notice in the Gazette specifying that body's former and new names.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if the Registrar-General—
- (a) has been notified under subsection (1) that the beliefs or objects of an exempt religious body have changed; or
 - (b) is satisfied that any of the beliefs or objects of an exempt religious body have changed since that organisation last stated its beliefs and objects to the Registrar-General under section 32B.
- (4) If subsection (3) applies, the Registrar-General must recommend to the Minister either—
- (a) that that exempt religious body should continue to be an exempt religious body; or
 - (b) that the Minister must cancel the exemption of that body from observing the requirements of this Part relating to the solemnisation of marriages in the presence of a marriage celebrant.
- (5) The Registrar-General must not recommend, under subsection (4), that an organisation should continue to be an exempt religious body unless the Registrar-General is satisfied that the objects and beliefs of the body continue to be inconsistent with the provisions of this Part relating to the solemnisation of marriages in the presence of a marriage celebrant.
- (6) The Minister may exercise the power conferred by subsection (7) if, at any time, the Minister—

- (a) becomes satisfied that, in the light of information not available to the Minister or Registrar-General (as the case may be) when an exempt religious body was granted an exemption, or as a consequence of a change in the circumstances of an exempt religious body, that the body should not continue to be an exempt religious body; or
 - (b) is not satisfied (whether or not as a result of a recommendation under subsection (4)) that the beliefs and objects of the religious body are no longer inconsistent with the provisions of the Part relating to the solemnisation of marriage in the presence of a marriage celebrant.
- (7) If subsection (6) applies, the Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, cancel the exemption of the religious body referred to in subsection (6), and on the date of the publication of that notice that body ceases to be an exempt religious body.

Section 32D: inserted, on 1 January 2002, by section 61 of the Human Rights Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 96).

32E List of exempt religious bodies

- (1) The Registrar-General must, in each year,—
- (a) prepare a list of exempt religious bodies (in this section referred to as the list); and
 - (b) ensure that the list is published in the Gazette.
- (2) The list must contain the name of every exempt religious body and must be corrected or added to as often as is necessary to maintain its accuracy.
- (3) The Registrar-General must ensure that each correction of, or addition to, the list is published in the Gazette.
- (4) The Registrar-General must specify in each list published in the Gazette a date on which the list comes into force, and on that date all previous lists and all corrections and additions to any previous list are cancelled and of no effect.

Part 7

Marriages out of New Zealand

39 Foreign marriages of British subjects

All marriages (whether solemnised before or after the commencement of this Act) which are valid in the United Kingdom by virtue of the Foreign Marriage

Acts 1892 to 1947 of the Parliament of the United Kingdom, or by virtue of any Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom passed in amendment of or in substitution for the Foreign Marriage Acts 1892 to 1947, shall be and shall be deemed always to have been as valid in New Zealand as if solemnised in New Zealand in accordance with this Act:

provided that where either of the parties to any such marriage has thereafter during the lifetime of the other party to the marriage and before the commencement of this Act lawfully married any other person, the first marriage shall be deemed to have been dissolved immediately before the solemnisation of the second marriage:

provided also that this section shall not affect any estate, right, or interest in any real or personal property to which any person has become absolutely entitled before the commencement of this Act, or affect any proceedings commenced in any court before the commencement of this Act, or any decree, order, or judgment made or given (whether before or after the commencement of this Act) in any such proceedings.

40 Marriages abroad of Commonwealth citizens and citizens of Ireland

- (1) All marriages (whether solemnised before or after the commencement of this Act) at least one party to which is a citizen of a Commonwealth country or of the Republic of Ireland solemnised in a country other than the country of which the party is a citizen in accordance with a form authorised in that case by the law of the country of which the party is a citizen shall be as valid in New Zealand as if solemnised in New Zealand in accordance with this Act.
- (2) Nothing in this section shall affect the validity of any marriage solemnised out of New Zealand in accordance with the law of the country where the marriage was solemnised.

41 Certificate of no impediment to person intending foreign marriage

- (1) A person who intends to marry outside New Zealand in accordance with the law of another country or jurisdiction may apply to the Registrar-General for a certificate of no impediment.
- (2) An application must—
 - (a) be made in the prescribed form; and
 - (b) contain the prescribed information; and
 - (c) be accompanied by the prescribed fee.
- (3) On receipt of an application, the Registrar-General must make whatever searches and inquiries he or she considers appropriate.
- (4) The provisions of sections 25(1) to (3) and 26 apply in respect of intended marriages to which this section relates in the same way as they apply to marriages intended to be solemnised in New Zealand.

- (5) The Registrar-General may issue a certificate of no impediment to the applicant if—
- (a) any caveat lodged within 14 days of the Registrar-General receiving an application under subsection (1) is withdrawn by the caveator or discharged under section 26; and
 - (b) the Registrar-General is satisfied that no lawful impediment to the intended marriage has been shown to exist.

Section 41: replaced, on 25 February 2012, by section 4 of the Marriage Amendment Act 2012 (2012 No 13).

42 Notice of intended marriage outside New Zealand

- (1) Where any citizen of a Commonwealth country or of the Republic of Ireland resident in New Zealand for at least 7 days desires to marry outside New Zealand under the Foreign Marriage Acts 1892 to 1947 of the Parliament of the United Kingdom or to marry any such citizen in the United Kingdom, he or she may give notice to a Registrar in a manner specified by the Registrar-General.
- (2) The person giving notice must verify that—
 - (a) the particulars in the notice are true; and
 - (b) he or she believes the intended marriage is not prohibited by Schedule 2; and
 - (c) there is no other lawful impediment to the intended marriage.
- (2A) The information in subsection (2) may be verified—
 - (a) electronically in a manner specified by the Registrar-General (see also section 82A of the Births, Deaths, Marriages, and Relationships Registration Act 1995); or
 - (b) by the person giving notice appearing personally before the Registrar and making a statutory declaration.
- (3) If the person giving notice is under the age of 20 years, the same consent shall be required as in the case of a marriage to be solemnised in New Zealand.
- (4) The provisions of section 25 relating to caveats shall apply in respect of intended marriages to which this section relates as they apply to marriages intended to be solemnised in New Zealand.
- (5) Subject to the provisions of subsections (2) to (4), the Registrar shall, after the expiry of 14 days from the date of giving notice, issue a certificate in the prescribed form that notice of the intended marriage has been given.

Notes

1 General

This is a consolidation of the Marriage Act 1955 that incorporates the amendments made to the legislation so that it shows the law as at its stated date.

2 Legal status

A consolidation is taken to correctly state, as at its stated date, the law enacted or made by the legislation consolidated and by the amendments. This presumption applies unless the contrary is shown.

Section 78 of the Legislation Act 2019 provides that this consolidation, published as an electronic version, is an official version. A printed version of legislation that is produced directly from this official electronic version is also an official version.

3 Editorial and format changes

The Parliamentary Counsel Office makes editorial and format changes to consolidations using the powers under subpart 2 of Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019. See also PCO editorial conventions for consolidations.
