91 Recognition of classes or courses in continuing education

- (1) The Director-General may recognise classes or courses in continuing education in secondary schools, in secondary departments of district high schools, in technical institutes, and in community colleges, in such manner and subject to compliance with such conditions as may be prescribed.
- (2) Where a controlling authority proposes to provide a class or course in continuing education providing instruction not previously provided by that authority, it shall consult the Director-General before making any arrangements for the establishment of the class or course.

Section 91: substituted, on 8 November 1974, by section 15 of the Education Amendment Act (No 2) 1974 (1974 No 136).

92 Revocation of recognition of classes or courses

- (1) The Director-General may revoke the recognition granted to any class or course in continuing education if he considers that more economical or effective or appropriate provision for the instruction being given in the class or course is being, or will shortly be, otherwise provided, or if he is dissatisfied with the manner in which the class or course is being conducted or is of the opinion that the needs in response to which the class was provided no longer exist or have diminished to an extent no longer warranting the continuance of the class:

provided that, where the Director-General intends to revoke recognition of any class or course in continuing education on any grounds other than his dissatisfaction with the manner in which the class or course is being conducted, he shall, if the controlling authority of the class or course so requires, give 6 months' notice of his intention to cancel the recognition.

- (2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this section, the Governor-General may, by Order in Council, make regulations prescribing the conditions under which the recognition of classes or courses in continuing education may be revoked.

- (1) The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, declare any continuing education organisation that is a body corporate to be a recognised continuing education organisation, and may similarly declare any recognised continuing education organisation so declared to cease to be a recognised continuing education organisation.
- (2) There may from time to time be paid to any recognised continuing education organisation so declared, out of money appropriated by Parliament for the purpose and subject to such conditions (if any) as the Minister may impose, such sum or sums towards the payment of staff salaries and other expenses incurred by it in the conduct of its activities as the Minister may, with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance, approve.

Section 97A: inserted, on 1 November 1976, by section 13 of the Education Amendment Act 1976 (1976 No 42).

*Special education98 Special schools and classes

- (1) Having regard to the provision of special education in any locality or localities, the Minister may—
 - (a) establish any special school:
 - (b) establish, or authorise the establishment of, any special class, clinic, or service, either as a separate unit or in connection with any State primary school, secondary school, technical institute, community college or integrated school, or in connection with any public institution approved for the purpose by him:
 - (c) make provision for special educational facilities to be provided by any correspondence school established under section 105:

provided that any special school established under paragraph (a) may be placed under the control of the education board of the district and shall, where so placed, be deemed to be a State primary school, save that it may, on the recommendation of the education board and with the approval of the Minister, be placed under the control of any person or persons appointed by the education board for the purpose instead of a school's board.

- (2) The Minister may likewise disestablish any special school, class, clinic, or service established under subsection (1), if he is dissatisfied with the manner in which the school, class, clinic, or service is being conducted, or if he considers that sufficient provision is made by another similarly established special school, class, clinic, or service, or by any other school or class in or reasonably near to the same locality:

provided that in the last-mentioned case he shall, if the controlling authority of the school, class, clinic, or service so requires, give 3 months' notice of his intention to disestablish the same.

Education Amendment Act (No 2) 1987

Public Act	1987 No 177
Date of assent	20 July 1987
Commencement	see section 1

1 Short Title and commencement

- (1) This Act may be cited as the Education Amendment Act (No 2) 1987, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Education Act 1964 (hereinafter referred to as “the principal Act”).
- (2) Sections 2, 14, 15, and 21 shall come into force on a date specified by the Governor-General by Order in Council; and a different date may be specified for each section.
- (3) Subject to subsection (2) and to sections 11(3) and 12 (2), this Act shall come into force on the day on which it receives the Governor-General’s assent.

8 Regulations relating to composite schools

- (1) The principal Act is hereby amended by repealing section 87 and section 88 (as amended by section 2(3) of the Education Amendment Act 1976), and substituting the following section:

87 Regulations relating to composite schools

- (1) Without limiting the generality of any provision of this Act, where any provisions of this Act empower the making of regulations relating to both State primary schools and secondary schools, or to State primary schools or secondary schools only, or to the staff or students of both State primary schools and secondary schools or to the staff or students of State primary schools or secondary schools only, any regulations made under those provisions may be limited in their application to composite schools or composite schools of any specified class or classes or, as the case may be, to staff or students of composite schools or composite schools of any specified class or classes.
- (2) Subject to any regulations to which subsection (1) applies, this Act shall apply to every composite school as if—
 - (a) every reference in this Act to a State primary school were a reference to those classes and courses in that composite school providing primary education; and
 - (b) every reference in this Act to a secondary school were a reference to those classes and courses in the composite school providing secondary education.
- (2) Every regulation made under the principal Act before the commencement of this Act is hereby declared to be and to have been, as from its commencement, as valid and effectual as if this section had been in force when it was made.

31 Validation

Every notice in the Gazette constituting the board of governors of an integrated secondary school that became an integrated secondary school before the commencement of this Act is hereby deemed to have been published on the day before the school became an integrated secondary school.

Notes1 General

This is a reprint of the Education Act 1964. The reprint incorporates all the amendments to the Act as at 1 July 2013, as specified in the list of amendments at the end of these notes.

Relevant provisions of any amending enactments that contain transitional, savings, or application provisions that cannot be compiled in the reprint are also included, after the principal enactment, in chronological order. For more information, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/reprints/>.

2 Status of reprints

Under section 16D of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, reprints are presumed to correctly state, as at the date of the reprint, the law enacted by the principal enactment and by the amendments to that enactment. This presumption applies even though editorial changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in the reprint.

This presumption may be rebutted by producing the official volumes of statutes or statutory regulations in which the principal enactment and its amendments are contained.

3 How reprints are prepared

A number of editorial conventions are followed in the preparation of reprints. For example, the enacting words are not included in Acts, and provisions that are repealed or revoked are omitted. For a detailed list of the editorial conventions, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/editorial-conventions/> or Part 8 of the Tables of New Zealand Acts and Ordinances and Statutory Regulations and Deemed Regulations in Force.

4 Changes made under section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989

Section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 authorises the making of editorial changes in a reprint as set out in sections 17D and 17E of that Act so that, to the extent permitted, the format and style of the reprinted enactment is consistent with current legislative drafting practice. Changes that would alter the effect of the legislation are not permitted.

A new format of legislation was introduced on 1 January 2000. Changes to legislative drafting style have also been made since 1997, and are ongoing. To the extent permitted by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, all legislation reprinted after 1 January 2000 is in the new format for legislation and reflects current drafting practice at the time of the reprint.

In outline, the editorial changes made in reprints under the authority of section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 are set out below, and they have been applied, where relevant, in the preparation of this reprint:

- omission of unnecessary referential words (such as “of this section” and “of this Act”)
- typeface and type size (Times Roman, generally in 11.5 point)
- layout of provisions, including:
 - indentation
 - position of section headings (eg, the number and heading now appear above the section)
- format of definitions (eg, the defined term now appears in bold type, without quotation marks)
- format of dates (eg, a date formerly expressed as “the 1st day of January 1999” is now expressed as “1 January 1999”)
- position of the date of assent (it now appears on the front page of each Act)
- punctuation (eg, colons are not used after definitions)
- Parts numbered with roman numerals are replaced with arabic numerals, and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- case and appearance of letters and words, including:
 - format of headings (eg, headings where each word formerly appeared with an initial capital letter followed by small capital letters are amended so that the heading appears in bold, with only the first word (and any proper nouns) appearing with an initial capital letter)
 - small capital letters in section and subsection references are now capital letters
- schedules are renumbered (eg, Schedule 1 replaces First Schedule), and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- running heads (the information that appears at the top of each page)

- format of two-column schedules of consequential amendments, and schedules of repeals (eg, they are rearranged into alphabetical order, rather than chronological).
