3 All children of equal status

- (1) For all the purposes of the law of New Zealand the relationship between every person and his father and mother shall be determined irrespective of whether the father and mother are or have been married to each other, and all other relationships shall be determined accordingly.

- (2) The rule of construction whereby in any instrument words of relationship signify only legitimate relationship in the absence of a contrary expression of intention is abolished.
- (3) For the purpose of construing any instrument, the use, with reference to a relationship, of the words legitimate or lawful shall not of itself prevent the relationship from being determined in accordance with subsection (1) of this section.
- (4) This section shall apply in respect of every person, whether born before or after the commencement of this Act, and whether born in New Zealand or not, and whether or not his father or mother has ever been domiciled in New Zealand.

Prior instruments and intestacies

This heading was inserted, as from 1 July 2005, by section 5 Status of Children Amendment Act 2004 (2004 No 91).

4 Instruments executed and intestacies which take place before the commencement of this Act

- (1) All instruments executed before the commencement of this Act shall be governed by the enactments and the rules of construction and law which would have applied to them if this Act had not been passed.
- (2) Where any instrument to which subsection (1) of this section applies creates a special power of appointment, nothing in this Act shall extend the class of persons in whose favour the appointment may be made, or cause the exercise of the power to be construed so as to include any person who is not a member of that class.
- (3) The estates of all persons who have died intestate as to the whole or any part thereof before the commencement of this Act shall be distributed in accordance with the enactments and rules of law which would have applied to them if this Act had not been passed.

- (2) Every question of fact that arises in applying subsection (1) of this section shall be decided on a balance of probabilities.
- (3) This section shall apply in respect of every child, whether born before or after the commencement of this Act, and whether born in New Zealand or not, and whether or not his father or mother has ever been domiciled in New Zealand.

This heading was inserted, as from 1 July 2005, by section 7 Status of Children Amendment Act 2004 (2004 No 91).

5A Grant of letters of administration

- (1) Letters of administration with or without the will annexed in respect of the estate of any deceased person or any part thereof shall not be granted to any applicant thereof unless the applicant shows—
 - (a) That he has made reasonable inquiries to determine whether there exists (in addition to any parent or child of the deceased person already known to him) any parent or child of the deceased person who could claim an interest in the estate or part by reason only of this Act and the provisions of the enactments governing the distribution of intestate estates or the provisions of the will (such parent or child being hereafter in this section referred to as any such claimant); or
 - (b) That no useful purpose would be served in the particular case by making the inquiries specified in paragraph (a) of this subsection; or

- (c) That the making of the inquiries specified in paragraph (a) of this subsection would unduly delay the making of a grant of administration; or
 - (d) That the getting in or preservation of the assets of the estate requires the making of an immediate grant of administration.
- (2) An applicant for a grant of letters of administration with or without the will annexed in respect of the estate of any deceased person or any part thereof shall be deemed to have made reasonable inquiries as to the existence of any such claimant to an interest in the estate or part if, acting in good faith, he has—
 - (a) Caused a search to be made of the register of instruments, declarations, and orders maintained by the Registrar-General pursuant to section 9 of this Act and ascertained whether or not the existence of any such claimant to such an interest is revealed in the register; and
 - (b) Looked through any papers of the deceased person that have come to his notice in the course of searching for a testamentary disposition made by the deceased person, or otherwise howsoever, and ascertained whether or not the existence of any such claimant to such an interest is revealed in those papers.
- (3) Where subsection (1)(a) of this section applies, an applicant for a grant of letters of administration in respect of the estate of any deceased person or any part thereof shall file an affidavit saying that he has made reasonable inquiries for the purposes of the Status of Children Act 1969 as to the existence of any such claimant to an interest in the estate or part (with a brief indication of the nature of those inquiries) and (if such is the case) that he does not know of the existence of any such claimant to an interest in the estate or part.
- (4) Where, pursuant to this section, an applicant for letters of administration with or without the will annexed in respect of the estate of any deceased person or any part thereof complies with subsection (1) of this section, nothing in the Administration Act 1969 or the Code of Civil Procedure or the practice of the High Court relating to a grant of letters of administration shall be construed as requiring him to do anything further in connection with the application for the purposes of this Act.

- (5) This section shall have no application in relation to any grant of administration to a trustee corporation within the meaning of section 2 of the Administration Act 1969, either alone or jointly with another person; and nothing in the Administration Act 1969, the Code of Civil Procedure, or the practice of the High Court shall require the trustee corporation or any other joint applicant for the grant to make inquiries, before the grant is made, as to the existence of any such claimant.
- (6) In this section applicant includes a person acting on behalf of the applicant, with the applicant's express or implied authority, for the purposes of obtaining the grant.

Section 5A was inserted, as from 1 October 1978, by section 2 Status of Children Act 1978 (1978 No 8).

The words "High Court" referred to in subsections (4) and (5) were substituted, as from 1 April 1980, for the words "Supreme Court" pursuant to section 12 Judicature Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 124).

6 Reasonable inquiries to precede distribution

- (1) For the purposes of the distribution of any estate or of any property held upon trust, an executor, administrator, or trustee shall make reasonable inquiries to determine whether there exists any person (in addition to any person or persons already known to him) who could claim an interest in the estate or property by reason only of this Act and the provisions of the enactments governing the distribution of intestate estates or the provisions of the will, deed, or other document governing the distribution of the estate or property (such person being hereafter in this section and in section 6A and in section 6B of this Act referred to as any claimant).
- (2) In the case of a continuing trust of income it shall be sufficient for the purposes of continuing distributions of income if reasonable inquiries as to the existence of any claimant are made before the first distribution after the commencement of this section of income under the trust.
- (3) Subject to subsection (2) of this section and to subsections (3) and (4) of section 6A of this Act, it shall be sufficient if reasonable inquiries as to the existence of any claimant are made before the first distribution after the commencement of this section of the estate or property and before any subsequent distribution where a period of 3 years or more has elapsed since reasonable inquiries were last made.

Section 6 was substituted, as from 1 October 1978, by section 2 Status of Children Act 1978 (1978 No 8).

6A Reasonable inquiries that comply

 - (a) Inquired about the existence of any claimant from at least one person whom he believes may have knowledge of the matter (except where no such person can readily be located) and obtained from that person (if he is willing to make it) a statutory declaration concerning the matter; and
 - (b) Caused a search to be made of the register of instruments, declarations, and orders maintained by the Registrar-General pursuant to section 9 of this Act and ascertained whether or not the existence of any claimant is revealed in the register; and
 - (c) Looked through any papers that have come to his notice in the ordinary course of administration of the estate or property and ascertained whether or not the existence of any claimant is revealed in those papers; and
 - (d) In the case of the administration of the estate of any deceased person, inquired from the solicitor (if any) last known to him to have acted for the deceased person in his lifetime whether the solicitor knows of the existence of any claimant.
- (2) Compliance with the requirements of section 5A(2)(a) of this Act in respect of the estate of any deceased person or any part of such an estate constitutes compliance with the requirements of subsection (1)(b) of this section in respect of the same estate or part thereof unless—
 - (a) Compliance with the requirements of subsection (1)(b) of this section is material—

- (i) Because a person other than a parent or child could claim; or
 - (ii) For any other reason; or
 - (b) A period of 3 years or more has elapsed since the requirements of section 5A(2)(a) of this Act were complied with.
- (3) It shall not be necessary for an executor, administrator, or trustee to fulfil the requirements of subsection (1)(c) of this section on more than one occasion in respect of the same estate or property:

Provided that if it appears to the Court that an executor, administrator, or trustee is or may be personally liable for having failed to comply with those provisions, in whole or in part, but has acted honestly, and ought fairly to be excused for his failure, the Court may relieve him either wholly or partly from personal liability for the same.

- (2) Where a person on whom such a notice has been served in accordance with subsection (1) of this section fails to apply as aforesaid for the relevant declaration of paternity, or fails to prosecute with all due diligence an application for such a declaration that is made within the said 3 months, no action shall lie against the executor, administrator, or trustee by reason of his having thereafter made any distribution of the estate or property or any part thereof before it is shown to him that the relevant declaration of paternity has been made.
