Section 2 New Zealand territorial waters: amended, on 1 October 1977, pursuant to section 33(2)(a) of the Territorial Sea, Contiguous Zone, and Exclusive Economic Zone Act 1977 (1977 No 28).

3 Exercise of admiralty jurisdiction

- (1) The admiralty jurisdiction conferred by this Act—
 - (a) may be exercised by the High Court in rem and in personam; and
 - (b) may be exercised by the District Court in personam where the debt, demand, or damage or the value of the chattels claimed does not exceed the amount specified in section 74 of the District Court Act 2016, but the District Court does not, for the purposes of this Act, have jurisdiction in rem.
- (2) In exercising the jurisdiction conferred by this Act, the court may exercise at the same time any of its other civil jurisdiction, whether statutory or otherwise, and all powers incidental thereto.
- (3) Nothing in this Act derogates from any common law or equitable jurisdiction of the High Court or the District Court.

Section 3(1)(a): amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 12 of the Judicature Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 124).

Section 3(1)(b): replaced, on 1 March 2017, by section 261 of the District Court Act 2016 (2016 No 49).

Section 3(2): replaced, on 9 October 1975, by section 2 of the Admiralty Amendment Act 1975 (1975 No 57).

Section 3(3): replaced, on 1 March 2017, by section 261 of the District Court Act 2016 (2016 No 49).

4 Extent of admiralty jurisdiction

- (1) The court shall have jurisdiction in respect of the following questions or claims:
- (a) any claim to the possession or ownership of a ship or to the ownership of any share therein:
 - (b) any question arising between the co-owners of a ship as to possession, employment, or earnings of that ship:
 - (c) any claim in respect of a mortgage of or charge on a ship or any share therein:
 - (d) any claim for damage done by a ship:
 - (e) any claim for damage received by a ship:
 - (f) any claim for loss of life or personal injury sustained in consequence of any defect in a ship or in her apparel or equipment, or of the wrongful act, neglect, or default of the owners, charterers, or persons in possession or control of a ship or of the master or crew thereof or of any other person for whose wrongful acts, neglects, or defaults the owners, charterers, or persons in possession or control of a ship are responsible, being an act, neglect, or default in the navigation or management of the ship, in the loading, carriage, or discharge of goods on, in, or from the ship or in the embarkation, carriage, or disembarkation of persons on, in, or from the ship:
 - (g) any claim for loss of or damage to goods carried in a ship:
 - (h) any claim arising out of any agreement relating to the carriage of goods in a ship or to the use or hire of a ship:
 - (i) any claim in the nature of salvage (including claims for services rendered in saving life from a ship or an aircraft or in preserving its cargo, apparel, or wreck pursuant to the provisions of Part 17 of the Maritime Transport Act 1994 or any maritime rules made in relation to salvage):
 - (j) any claim in the nature of towage in respect of a ship or an aircraft:
 - (k) any claim in the nature of pilotage in respect of a ship or an aircraft:
 - (l) any claim in respect of goods, materials, or services (including stevedoring and lighterage services) supplied or to be supplied to a ship in its operation or maintenance:
 - (m) any claim in respect of the construction, repair, or equipment of a ship or for dock or port or harbour charges or dues:
 - (n) [Repealed]
 - (o) any claim by a master or member of the crew of a ship for wages, and any claim by or in respect of a master or member of the crew of a ship for any money or property which, under any of the provisions of the Maritime Transport Act 1994, is recoverable as wages or in the court and in the manner in which wages may be recovered:

- (p) any claim by a master, shipper, charterer, or agent in respect of disbursements made on account of a ship:
 - (q) any claim arising out of an act which is or is claimed to be a general average act:
 - (r) any claim arising out of bottomry:
 - (s) any claim for the forfeiture or condemnation of a ship or of goods which are being or have been carried, or have been attempted to be carried, in a ship, or for the restoration of a ship or any such goods after seizure, or for droits of admiralty.
- (2) In addition to the jurisdiction specified in subsection (1), the High Court shall continue to have any other admiralty jurisdiction which was vested in it immediately before the commencement of this Act, and when exercising its admiralty jurisdiction shall also have any other jurisdiction connected with ships or aircraft which is vested in the court under any other Act.
- (3) The jurisdiction of the court under paragraph (b) of subsection (1) includes power to settle any account outstanding and unsettled between the parties in relation to the ship, and to direct that the ship, or any share thereof, shall be sold, and to make such other order as the court thinks fit.
- (4) The provisions of this section apply—
- (a) in relation to all ships or aircraft, whether New Zealand ships or aircraft or not, and whether registered or not, and whatever the nationality or residence or domicile of their owners may be:
 - (b) in relation to all claims, wheresoever arising (including, in the case of cargo or wreck salvage, claims in respect of cargo or wreck found on land):
 - (c) so far as they relate to mortgages and charges, to all mortgages or charges, whether registered or not, and whether legal or equitable, and whether fixed or floating, including mortgages and charges created under the law of any other country:

provided that nothing in this subsection shall be construed as extending the cases in which money or property is recoverable under any of the provisions of the Maritime Transport Act 1994.

Section 4(1)(i): amended, on 9 June 1999, by section 39 of the Maritime Transport Amendment Act 1999 (1999 No 68).

Section 4(1)(i): amended, on 1 February 1995, by section 203 of the Maritime Transport Act 1994 (1994 No 104).

Section 4(1)(l): replaced, on 1 February 1995, by section 203 of the Maritime Transport Act 1994 (1994 No 104).

Section 4(1)(n): repealed, on 1 February 1995, by section 203 of the Maritime Transport Act 1994 (1994 No 104).

Section 4(1)(o): amended, on 1 February 1995, by section 203 of the Maritime Transport Act 1994 (1994 No 104).

Section 4(2): amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 12 of the Judicature Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 124).

Section 4(4) proviso: amended, on 1 February 1995, by section 203 of the Maritime Transport Act 1994 (1994 No 104).

5 Actions in rem

- (1) In any case in which there is a maritime lien or other charge on any ship, aircraft, or other property for the amount claimed, the admiralty jurisdiction of the High Court may be invoked by an action in rem against that ship, aircraft, or property.
- (2) In addition to the rights conferred by subsection (1), the admiralty jurisdiction of the High Court may be invoked by an action in rem in respect of all questions and claims specified in subsection (1) of section 4:
provided that—
 - (a) in questions and claims specified in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (s) of subsection (1) of section 4 the admiralty jurisdiction in rem may be invoked against only the particular ship or property in respect of which the questions or claims arose:
 - (b) in questions and claims specified in paragraphs (d) to (r) of subsection (1) of section 4 arising in connection with a ship where the person who would be liable on the claim in an action in personam was, when the cause of action arose, the owner or charterer of, or in possession or in control of, the ship, the jurisdiction of the High Court may (whether the claim gives rise to a maritime lien on the ship or not) be invoked by an action in rem against—
 - (i) that ship if, at the time when the action is brought, it is beneficially owned as respects all the shares therein by, or is on charter by demise to, that person; or
 - (ii) any other ship which, at the time when the action is brought, is beneficially owned or on charter by demise as aforesaid.
- (3) Where in the exercise of its admiralty jurisdiction the court orders any ship or other property to be sold, the court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine any question arising as to the title to the proceeds of sale.

Section 5(1): amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 12 of the Judicature Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 124).

Section 5(2): amended, on 1 February 1995, by section 203 of the Maritime Transport Act 1994 (1994 No 104).

Section 5(2): amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 12 of the Judicature Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 124).

Section 5(2) proviso paragraph (b): amended, on 1 February 1995, by section 203 of the Maritime Transport Act 1994 (1994 No 104).

Section 5(2) proviso paragraph (b): amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 12 of the Judicature Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 124).

6 Restrictions on proceedings

- (1) No claim in personam in respect of damage, loss of life, or personal injury arising out of—
 - (a) a collision between ships; or
 - (b) a manoeuvre or omission to carry out a manoeuvre by any ship to avoid a collision; or
 - (c) non-compliance with the Collision Regulations,— shall lie unless—
 - (d) the defendant ordinarily resides in New Zealand or has a place of business within New Zealand; or
 - (e) the cause of action arose within New Zealand territorial waters; or
 - (f) an action arising out of the same incident or series of incidents is proceeding in or has been heard and determined in the court.
- (2) No action in personam shall be brought in any court in New Zealand until any proceedings previously brought by the plaintiff against the defendant in any court outside New Zealand in respect of the same incident or series of incidents have been discontinued or otherwise come to an end.
- (3) This section shall not apply where the defendant submits or has agreed to submit to the jurisdiction of the court.

7 Actions for wages

Nothing in this Act shall be construed as limiting the jurisdiction of the court to refuse to entertain an action for wages by the master or a member of the crew of a ship, not being a New Zealand ship.

Section 7: amended, on 1 February 1995, by section 203 of the Maritime Transport Act 1994 (1994 No 104).

8 Jurisdiction of High Court in prize

- (1) The High Court shall be a permanent Prize Court within the meaning of the Acts of the United Kingdom known as the Prize Acts 1864 to 1939, and those Acts shall continue in force as part of the law of New Zealand.
- (2) In the enactments mentioned in subsection (1) and in any rules or Orders in Council made thereunder, references to “the Admiralty” and “the Treasury” shall be read as references to the “Minister of Transport” and “the Minister of Finance”, respectively.
- (3) All droits of the Crown and forfeitures when condemned by the High Court in the exercise of its jurisdiction under this section shall be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Minister of Finance directs.

Section 8 heading: amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 12 of the Judicature Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 124).

Section 8(1): amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 12 of the Judicature Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 124).

Section 8(3): amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 12 of the Judicature Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 124).

9 Functions and powers of Registrar

- (1) Every Registrar of the High Court shall have and exercise the functions and powers of the Admiralty Registrar and Marshal for the purpose of this Act and any rules made hereunder.
- (2) The Registrar shall execute, by himself or by his appointed officers or agents, all instruments issued from the court which are addressed to him, and shall make returns thereof.

Section 9(1): amended, on 1 April 1980, pursuant to section 12 of the Judicature Amendment Act 1979 (1979 No 124).

10 Act to bind the Crown

Subject to section 28 of the Crown Proceedings Act 1950, relating to the exclusion of actions in rem against the Crown, this Act shall bind the Crown.

11 Rules of procedure and regulations as to fees

- (1) Rules for the practice and procedure of the High Court in its admiralty jurisdiction may be made in the same manner as is provided in the Senior Courts Act 2016 for the making of rules for practice and procedure in the High Court.
- (2) Rules for the practice and procedure of the District Court in its admiralty jurisdiction may be made by the Governor-General from time to time, by Order in Council, under section 228 of the District Court Act 2016.
- (3) Without derogating from the provisions of subsections (1) and (2), rules may be made pursuant to those subsections for consolidation of actions, the appointment of court experts, or the giving of bail or other security to prevent the arrest of a ship or other res, or to obtain the release of the same after arrest.
- (4) The Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council, prescribe all fees payable under this Act.
- (5) An order under subsection (4) is secondary legislation (see Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019 for publication requirements).

Notes

1 General

This is a consolidation of the Admiralty Act 1973 that incorporates the amendments made to the legislation so that it shows the law as at its stated date.

2 Legal status

A consolidation is taken to correctly state, as at its stated date, the law enacted or made by the legislation consolidated and by the amendments. This presumption applies unless the contrary is shown.

Section 78 of the Legislation Act 2019 provides that this consolidation, published as an electronic version, is an official version. A printed version of legislation that is produced directly from this official electronic version is also an official version.

3 Editorial and format changes

The Parliamentary Counsel Office makes editorial and format changes to consolidations using the powers under subpart 2 of Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019. See also PCO editorial conventions for consolidations.
