Title [Repealed]

Title: repealed, on 1 February 2002, by section 4 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

1 Short Title and commencement

- (1) This Act may be cited as the Property (Relationships) Act 1976.
- (2) This Act shall come into force on 1 February 1977.

Section 1(1): amended, on 1 February 2002, by section 5(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Part 1
Outline of this Act

Part 1: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 6 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

1A Purpose of this Part

This Part is intended—

- (a) to give a general indication of what this Act is about;
- (b) to indicate how this Act is arranged;
- (c) to assist readers to identify the provisions that are relevant to them.

Section 1A: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 6 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

1B Status of this Part

This Part is intended only as a guide to the general scheme and effect of this Act.

Section 1B: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 6 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

1C What this Act is about

- (1) This Act is mainly about how the property of married couples and civil union couples and couples who have lived in a de facto relationship is to be divided up when they separate or one of them dies.
- (2) This Act applies differently depending on the length of the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship:
 - (a) in the case of marriages and civil unions, special rules apply to marriages and civil unions of less than 3 years:
 - (b) in the case of de facto relationships, this Act usually applies only when the de facto partners have lived together for at least 3 years, but it may apply to shorter de facto relationships in certain circumstances.
- (3) In general, the couple's property is to be divided equally between the couple.

Section 1C: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 6 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Section 1C(1): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(4) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Section 1C(2): amended, on 19 August 2013, by section 9 of the Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 20).

Section 1C(2)(a): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(4) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

1D How this Act is arranged

- (1) This Act is arranged in Parts, as follows:
 - (a) Part 1—Outline of this Act:
 - (b) Part 2—Preliminary provisions:
 - (c) Part 3—Application of this Act:
 - (d) Part 4—Division of relationship property:
 - (e) Part 5—Relationship property and creditors:
 - (f) Part 6—Contracting out:

1N Principles

The following principles are to guide the achievement of the purpose of this Act:

- (a) the principle that men and women have equal status, and their equality should be maintained and enhanced:
- (b) the principle that all forms of contribution to the marriage partnership, civil union, or the de facto relationship partnership, are treated as equal:
- (c) the principle that a just division of relationship property has regard to the economic advantages or disadvantages to the spouses or partners arising from their marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship or from the ending of their marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship:
- (d) the principle that questions arising under this Act about relationship property should be resolved as inexpensively, simply, and speedily as is consistent with justice.

2C Meaning of de facto partner

For the purposes of this Act, a person is another person's de facto partner if they have a de facto relationship with each other.

Section 2C: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 8 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

2D Meaning of de facto relationship

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, a de facto relationship is a relationship between 2 persons (regardless of their sex, sexual orientation, or gender identity)—
 - (a) who are both aged 18 years or older; and
 - (b) who live together as a couple; and
 - (c) who are not married to, or in a civil union with, one another.
- (2) In determining whether 2 persons live together as a couple, all the circumstances of the relationship are to be taken into account, including any of the following matters that are relevant in a particular case:
 - (a) the duration of the relationship;
 - (b) the nature and extent of common residence;
 - (c) whether or not a sexual relationship exists;
 - (d) the degree of financial dependence or interdependence, and any arrangements for financial support, between the parties;
 - (e) the ownership, use, and acquisition of property;
 - (f) the degree of mutual commitment to a shared life;
 - (g) the care and support of children;
 - (h) the performance of household duties;
 - (i) the reputation and public aspects of the relationship.
- (3) In determining whether 2 persons live together as a couple,—
 - (a) no finding in respect of any of the matters stated in subsection (2), or in respect of any combination of them, is to be regarded as necessary; and
 - (b) a court is entitled to have regard to such matters, and to attach such weight to any matter, as may seem appropriate to the court in the circumstances of the case.
- (4) For the purposes of this Act, a de facto relationship ends if—
 - (a) the de facto partners cease to live together as a couple; or
 - (b) one of the de facto partners dies.

Determination of use to which property put

Heading: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 8 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

2H Determination of use to which property put

- (1) This section applies where the classification of any property as relationship property or as any particular type of relationship property depends on the use to which it has been put.
- (2) Where this section applies, that classification is to be determined—
 - (a) by the use to which it was put by the spouses or partners; or
 - (b) if the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship has ended (other than by the death of one of the spouses or partners), by the use to which it was being put before the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship ended.

- (3) In proceedings commenced after the death of one of the spouses or partners, this section is modified by section 80.

3 Act to bind Crown

This Act shall bind the Crown.

4 Act a code

- (1) This Act applies instead of the rules and presumptions of the common law and of equity to the extent that they apply—
- (a) to transactions between spouses or partners in respect of property; and
 - (b) in cases for which this Act provides, to transactions—
 - (i) between both spouses or partners and third persons; and
 - (ii) between either spouse or partner and third persons.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply where this Act expressly provides to the contrary (such as in subsection (5)).
- (3) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1),—
- (a) the presumption of advancement does not apply between husband and wife:
 - (b) the presumption of resulting trust does not apply between spouses, civil union partners, or de facto partners:
 - (c) the presumption that the use of a wife's income by her husband with her consent during the marriage is a gift does not apply between husband and wife.
- (4) Where, in proceedings that are not proceedings under this Act, any question relating to relationship property arises between spouses or partners, or between either or both of them and any other person, the question must be decided as if it had been raised in proceedings under this Act.

- (5) This section does not apply if the de facto partners have lived in a de facto relationship for less than 3 years.
- (6) However, if the court makes an order under section 25(1)(a) in respect of any relationship property of de facto partners to whom subsection (5) applies, and any question relating to relationship property arises between those de facto partners in any subsequent proceedings that are not proceedings under this Act, then—
 - (a) subsection (5) does not apply; and
 - (b) the question must be decided as if it had been raised in proceedings under this Act.

7A Application where spouses or partners agree

- (1) This Act applies in any case where the spouses or partners agree in writing that it is to apply.
- (2) Subject to subsections (1) and (3), this Act does not apply to any relationship property if—
 - (a) the spouses or partners have agreed, before or at the time their marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship began, that the property law of a country other than New Zealand is to apply to that property; and
 - (b) the agreement is in writing or is otherwise valid according to the law of that country.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply if the court determines that the application of the law of the other country under an agreement to which that subsection applies would be contrary to justice or public policy.

9 Separate property defined

- (1) All property of either spouse or partner that is not relationship property is separate property.
- (2) Subject to sections 8(1)(ee), 9A(3), and 10, all property acquired out of separate property, and the proceeds of any disposition of separate property, are separate property.
- (3) Subject to section 9A, any increase in the value of separate property, and any income or gains derived from separate property, are separate property.
- (4) The following property is separate property, unless the court considers that it is just in the circumstances to treat the property or any part of the property as relationship property:
 - (a) all property acquired by either spouse or partner while they are not living together as a married couple or as civil union partners or as de facto partners:
 - (b) all property acquired, after the death of one spouse or partner, by the surviving spouse or partner, as provided in section 84.
- (5) Subject to subsection (6), all property acquired by either spouse or partner after an order of the court (other than an order made under section 25(3)) has been made defining the respective interests of the spouses or partners in the relationship property, or dividing or providing for the division of that property, is separate property.
- (6) However, where relationship property has been divided on the bankruptcy of a spouse or partner,—
 - (a) the family home and any family chattels acquired after that division may be relationship property; and
 - (b) any other property acquired by either spouse or partner after the discharge of that spouse or partner from bankruptcy may be relationship property.

Section 9(6)(b): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

9A When separate property becomes relationship property

- (1) If any increase in the value of separate property, or any income or gains derived from separate property, were attributable (wholly or in part) to the application of relationship property, then the increase in value or (as the case requires) the income or gains are relationship property.
- (2) If any increase in the value of separate property, or any income or gains derived from separate property, were attributable (wholly or in part, and whether directly or indirectly) to actions of the other spouse or partner, then—
 - (a) the increase in value or (as the case requires) the income or gains are relationship property; but
 - (b) the share of each spouse or partner in that relationship property is to be determined in accordance with the contribution of each spouse or partner to the increase in value or (as the case requires) the income or gains.
- (3) Any separate property, or any proceeds of the disposition of any separate property, or any increase in the value of, or any income or gains derived from, separate property, is relationship property if that separate property or (as the case requires) those proceeds or the increase in value or the income or gains are used—
 - (a) with the express or implied consent of the spouse or partner that owns, receives, or is entitled to them; and
 - (b) for the acquisition or improvement of, or to increase the value of, or the amount of any interest of either spouse or partner in, any property referred to in section 8(1).
- (4) Subsection (3) is subject to section 10.

10 Property acquired by succession or by survivorship or as a beneficiary under a trust or by gift

- (1) Subsection (2) applies to the following property:
 - (a) property that a spouse or partner acquires from a third person—
 - (i) by succession; or
 - (ii) by survivorship; or
 - (iii) by gift; or
 - (iv) because the spouse or partner is a beneficiary under a trust settled by a third person:
 - (b) the proceeds of a disposition of property to which paragraph (a) applies:
 - (c) property acquired out of property to which paragraph (a) applies.
- (2) Property to which this subsection applies is not relationship property unless, with the express or implied consent of the spouse or partner who received it, the property or the proceeds of any disposition of it have been so intermingled with other relationship property that it is unreasonable or impracticable to regard that property or those proceeds as separate property.
- (3) Property that one spouse or partner acquires by gift from the other spouse or partner is not relationship property unless the gift is used for the benefit of both spouses or partners.
- (4) Regardless of subsections (2) and (3) and section 9(4), both the family home and the family chattels are relationship property, unless designated separate property by an agreement made in accordance with Part 6.

 - (a) the family home; and
 - (b) the family chattels; and
 - (c) any other relationship property.
- (2) This section is subject to the other provisions of this Part.

Section 11: replaced, on 1 February 2002, by section 17 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Section 11(1): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

11A Where family home sold

- (1) If the family home has been sold, each spouse or partner is entitled to share equally in the proceeds of the sale as if they were the family home, if the following conditions are satisfied:
 - (a) either spouse or partner or both of them have sold the family home with the intention of applying all or part of the proceeds of the sale towards the acquisition of another home as a family home:
 - (b) that home has not been acquired:
 - (c) at the date of the application to the court, not more than 2 years have elapsed since the date when those proceeds were received or became payable, whichever is the later.

- (2) This section is subject to sections 12 to 17A.

Section 11A: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 17 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Section 11A(1): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Section 11A(1)(a): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

11B Compensation for absence of interest in family home

- (1) This section applies where—

- (a) section 11A does not apply; and
- (b) either—
 - (i) there is no family home; or
 - (ii) the family home is not owned by one of the spouses or partners or both of them.

- (2) Where this section applies, the court must award each spouse or partner an equal share in such part of the relationship property as it thinks just in order to compensate for the absence of an interest in the family home.

- (3) This section is subject to sections 12 to 17A.

Section 11B: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 17 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Section 11B(1)(b)(ii): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Section 11B(2): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Homesteads

Heading: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 17 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

12 Homesteads

- (1) If the family home is a homestead that is owned by either spouse or partner or both of them, section 11(1)(a) does not apply.
- (2) Instead, each spouse or partner is entitled to share equally in a sum of money equal to the equity of either spouse or partner or both of them in the homestead.
- (3) If a spouse or partner does not have a beneficial interest in the land on which the homestead is situated, that spouse or partner is deemed to be beneficially interested in that land until his or her share of that sum is paid or otherwise satisfied.
- (4) This section is subject to sections 13 to 17A.

Section 12: replaced, on 1 February 2002, by section 17 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Section 12(1): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Section 12(2): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Section 12(3): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

12A Valuation of homestead

For the purposes of section 12, a homestead's value is to be determined by ascertaining the capital value of the land on which the homestead is situated, and apportioning that value between the homestead and the remainder of that land.

Section 12A: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 17 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Exception to equal sharing

Heading: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 17 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

13 Exception to equal sharing

- (1) If the court considers that there are extraordinary circumstances that make equal sharing of property or money under section 11 or section 11A or section 11B or section 12 repugnant to justice, the share of each spouse or partner in that property or money is to be determined in accordance with the contribution of each spouse to the marriage or of each civil union partner to the civil union or of each de facto partner to the de facto relationship.
- (2) This section is subject to sections 14 to 17A.

Section 13: replaced, on 1 February 2002, by section 17 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Section 13(1): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(4) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Relationships of short duration

Heading: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 17 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

14 Marriages of short duration

- (1) This section applies if a marriage is a relationship of short duration (as defined in section 2E).
- (2) If this section applies, sections 11(1)(a), 11(1)(b), 11A, 11B, and 12 do not apply—
 - (a) to any asset owned wholly or substantially by one spouse at the date on which the marriage began; or

- (b) to any asset that has come to one spouse, after the date on which the marriage began,—
 - (i) by succession; or
 - (ii) by survivorship; or
 - (iii) as the beneficiary under a trust; or
 - (iv) by gift from a third person; or
 - (c) where the contribution of one spouse to the marriage has clearly been disproportionately greater than the contribution of the other spouse.
- (3) In every case to which subsection (2) applies,—
 - (a) the share of each spouse in the relationship property is to be determined in accordance with the contribution of each spouse to the marriage; and
 - (b) the share of each spouse in any other relationship property that falls for division under sections 11(1)(a), 11(1)(b), 11A, 11B, and 12, and is not determined in accordance with paragraph (a), is to be determined in accordance with sections 11(1)(a), 11(1)(b), 11A, 11B, and 12.
 - (4) If this section applies, each spouse is entitled to share equally in any relationship property that falls for division under section 11(1)(c), unless his or her contribution to the marriage has been clearly greater than that of the other spouse.
 - (5) If, under subsection (4), the spouses do not share equally in any relationship property, the share of each spouse in that relationship property is to be determined in accordance with the contribution of each spouse to the marriage.
 - (6) This section is subject to sections 15 to 17A.
 - (7) In proceedings commenced after the death of one of the spouses, this section is modified by section 85.

Section 14: replaced, on 1 February 2002, by section 17 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

14AA Civil unions of short duration

- (1) This section applies if a civil union is a relationship of short duration (as defined in section 2E).
- (2) If this section applies, sections 11(1)(a), 11(1)(b), 11A, 11B, and 12 do not apply—
 - (a) to any asset owned wholly or substantially by one civil union partner at the date on which the civil union began; or
 - (b) to any asset that has come to one civil union partner, after the date on which the civil union began,—
 - (i) by succession; or
 - (ii) by survivorship; or

- (iii) as the beneficiary under a trust; or
 - (iv) by gift from a third person; or
 - (c) where the contribution of one civil union partner to the civil union has clearly been disproportionately greater than the contribution of the other civil union partner.
- (3) In every case to which subsection (2) applies,—
 - (a) the share of each civil union partner in the relationship property is to be determined in accordance with the contribution of each civil union partner to the civil union; and
 - (b) the share of each civil union partner in any other relationship property that falls for division under sections 11(1)(a), 11(1)(b), 11A, 11B, and 12, and is not determined in accordance with paragraph (a), is to be determined in accordance with sections 11(1)(a), 11(1)(b), 11A, 11B, and 12.
- (4) If this section applies, each civil union partner is entitled to share equally in any relationship property that falls for division under section 11(1)(c), unless his or her contribution to the civil union has been clearly greater than that of the other civil union partner.
- (5) If, under subsection (4), the civil union partners do not share equally in any relationship property, the share of each civil union partner in that relationship property is to be determined in accordance with the contribution of each civil union partner to the civil union.
- (6) This section is subject to sections 15 to 17A.
- (7) In proceedings commenced after the death of one of the civil union partners, this section is modified by section 85.

Section 14AA: inserted, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(4) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

14A De facto relationships of short duration

- (1) This section applies if a de facto relationship is a relationship of short duration (as defined in section 2E).
- (2) If this section applies, an order cannot be made under this Act for the division of relationship property unless—
 - (a) the court is satisfied—
 - (i) that there is a child of the de facto relationship; or
 - (ii) that the applicant has made a substantial contribution to the de facto relationship; and
 - (b) the court is satisfied that failure to make the order would result in serious injustice.

- (3) If this section applies, and the court is satisfied that the grounds specified in subsection (2) for making an order on an application under this Act are made out, the share of each de facto partner in the relationship property is to be determined in accordance with the contribution of each de facto partner to the de facto relationship.
- (4) Nothing in this section prevents a court from making a declaration or an order under section 25(3), even though the de facto partners have lived in a de facto relationship for less than 3 years.
- (5) This section is subject to sections 15 to 17A.

Section 14A: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 17 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Court may make orders to redress economic disparities

Heading: replaced, on 1 February 2002, by section 17 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

15 Court may award lump sum payments or order transfer of property

- (1) This section applies if, on the division of relationship property, the court is satisfied that, after the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship ends, the income and living standards of one spouse or partner (party B) are likely to be significantly higher than the other spouse or partner (party A) because of the effects of the division of functions within the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship while the parties were living together.
- (2) In determining whether or not to make an order under this section, the court may have regard to—
 - (a) the likely earning capacity of each spouse or partner:
 - (b) the responsibilities of each spouse or partner for the ongoing daily care of any minor or dependent children of the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship:
 - (c) any other relevant circumstances.
- (3) If this section applies, the court, if it considers it just, may, for the purpose of compensating party A,—
 - (a) order party B to pay party A a sum of money out of party B's relationship property:
 - (b) order party B to transfer to party A any other property out of party B's relationship property.
- (4) This section overrides sections 11 to 14A.

Section 15: replaced, on 1 February 2002, by section 17 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Section 15(1): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Section 15(1): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(3) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Section 15(2)(a): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Section 15(2)(b): replaced, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(4) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

15A Orders where spouse or partner has contributed to increase in value of separate property

- (1) This section applies if, on the division of relationship property, the court is satisfied—
 - (a) that, after the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship ends, the income and living standards of one spouse or partner (party B) are likely to be significantly higher than the other spouse or partner (party A) because of the effects of the division of functions within the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship while the spouses or partners were living together; and
 - (b) that any increase in the value of party B's separate property was attributable, wholly or in part, and whether directly or indirectly, to the actions of party B while the spouses or partners were living together.
- (2) In determining whether or not to make an order under this section, the court may have regard to—
 - (a) the likely earning capacity of each spouse or partner:
 - (b) the responsibilities of each spouse or partner for the ongoing daily care of any minor or dependent children of the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship:
 - (c) any other relevant circumstances.
- (3) If this section applies, the court, if it considers it just, may, for the purpose of compensating party A for the increase in value of party B's separate property,—
 - (a) order party B to pay party A a sum of money, whether out of relationship property or separate property:
 - (b) order party B to transfer to party A any other property, whether the property is relationship property or separate property.
- (4) This section does not limit section 15, but overrides sections 11 to 14A.

Section 15A: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 17 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Other provisions relating to division of relationship property

Heading: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 17 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

16 Adjustment when each spouse or partner owned home at date relationship began

- (1) This section applies if,—
 - (a) at the date the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship began, each spouse or partner owned a home; and
 - (b) each of those homes was capable of becoming a family home; but
 - (c) at the time when the relationship property is to be divided, the home (or the proceeds of the sale of the home) of only one spouse or partner is included in the relationship property.
- (2) This section also applies if,—
 - (a) before the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship began, each spouse or partner owned a home; and
 - (b) each of those homes was capable of becoming a family home; and
 - (c) one of the spouses or partners (party A) sold his or her home in contemplation of the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship; and
 - (d) at the time when the relationship property is to be divided,—
 - (i) the home (or the proceeds of the sale of the home) of the other spouse or partner (party B) is included in the relationship property; but
 - (ii) the proceeds of the sale of party A's home are not included in the relationship property.
- (3) If this section applies, the court may adjust the shares of the spouses or partners in any of the relationship property (including the family home and the family chattels) according to what it considers just to compensate for the inclusion of the home of only one spouse or partner in the relationship property.
- (4) This section overrides sections 11 to 14A.

17 Sustenance of separate property

- (1) This section applies if the separate property of one spouse or partner (party A) has been sustained by—
 - (a) the application of relationship property; or
 - (b) the actions of the other spouse or partner (party B).
- (2) If this section applies, the court may—
 - (a) increase the share to which party B would otherwise be entitled in the relationship property; or
 - (b) order party A to pay party B a sum of money as compensation.
- (3) This section overrides sections 11 to 14A.

Section 17: replaced, on 1 February 2002, by section 17 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

17A Diminution of separate property

- (1) If the separate property of one spouse or partner has been materially diminished in value by the deliberate action or inaction of the other spouse or partner, the court may, to such extent as it thinks just, diminish the share to which the other spouse or partner would otherwise be entitled in the relationship property.

- (2) This section overrides sections 11 to 14A.

Section 17A: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 17 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Section 17A(1): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

18 Contributions of spouses or partners

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, a contribution to the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship means all or any of the following:
- (a) the care of—
 - (i) any child of the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship;
 - (ii) any aged or infirm relative or dependant of either spouse or partner;
 - (b) the management of the household and the performance of household duties;
 - (c) the provision of money, including the earning of income, for the purposes of the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship;
 - (d) the acquisition or creation of relationship property, including the payment of money for those purposes;
 - (e) the payment of money to maintain or increase the value of—
 - (i) the relationship property or any part of that property; or
 - (ii) the separate property of the other spouse or partner or any part of that property;
 - (f) the performance of work or services in respect of—
 - (i) the relationship property or any part of that property; or
 - (ii) the separate property of the other spouse or partner or any part of that property;
 - (g) the forgoing of a higher standard of living than would otherwise have been available;
 - (h) the giving of assistance or support to the other spouse or partner (whether or not of a material kind), including the giving of assistance or support that—
 - (i) enables the other spouse or partner to acquire qualifications; or
 - (ii) aids the other spouse or partner in the carrying on of his or her occupation or business.

- (2) There is no presumption that a contribution of a monetary nature (whether under subsection (1)(c) or otherwise) is of greater value than a contribution of a non-monetary nature.

18A Effect of misconduct of spouses or partners

- (1) Except as permitted by subsections (2) and (3), a court may not take any misconduct of a spouse or partner into account in proceedings under this Act, whether to diminish or detract from the positive contribution of that spouse or partner or otherwise.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the court may take into account any misconduct of a spouse or partner—
- (a) in determining the contribution of a spouse to the marriage, or of a civil union partner to the civil union, or of a de facto partner to the de facto relationship; or
 - (b) in determining what order it should make under any of sections 26, 26A, 27, 28, 28B, 28C, and 33.
- (3) For conduct to be taken into account under subsection (2), the conduct must have been gross and palpable and must have significantly affected the extent or value of the relationship property.

18B Compensation for contributions made after separation

- (1) In this section, relevant period, in relation to a marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship, means the period after the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship has ended (other than by the death of one of the spouses or partners) but before the date of the hearing of an application under this Act by the court of first instance.
- (2) If, during the relevant period, a spouse or partner (party A) has done anything that would have been a contribution to the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship if the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship had not ended, the court, if it considers it just, may for the purposes of compensating party A—
 - (a) order the other spouse or partner (party B) to pay party A a sum of money:
 - (b) order party B to transfer to party A any property, whether the property is relationship property or separate property.
- (3) In proceedings commenced after the death of one of the spouses or partners, this section is modified by section 86.

Section 18B(3): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

18C Compensation for dissipation of relationship property after separation

- (1) In this section, relevant period has the same meaning as in section 18B.
- (2) If, during the relevant period, the relationship property has been materially diminished in value by the deliberate action or inaction of one spouse or partner (party B), the court may, for the purposes of compensating the other spouse or partner (party A),—

- (a) order party B to pay party A a sum of money:
 - (b) order party B to transfer to party A any property, whether the property is relationship property or separate property.
- (3) In proceedings commenced after the death of one of the spouses or partners, this section is modified by section 86.

Part 5

Relationship property and creditors

Part 5 heading: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 18 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

19 Effect of Act while property is undivided

Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, nothing in the Act shall—

- (a) affect the title of any third person to any property, or affect the power of either spouse or partner to acquire, deal with, or dispose of any property or to enter into any contract or other legal transaction whatsoever as if this Act had not been passed; or
- (b) limit or affect the operation of any mortgage, charge, or other security for the repayment of a debt given by either spouse or partner over property owned by him or her and every such instrument shall have the same effect as if this Act had not been passed.

Section 19(a): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Section 19(a): amended, on 1 February 2002, by section 19 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Section 19(b): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Section 19(b): amended, on 1 February 2002, by section 19 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

20 Interpretation

- (1) In sections 20A to 20E, unless the context otherwise requires,— personal debt means—

- (a) a debt that is not a relationship debt:
- (b) a debt to the extent that it is not a relationship debt relationship debt means a debt that has been incurred, or to the extent that it has been incurred,—

- (a) by the spouses or partners jointly; or
 - (b) in the course of a common enterprise carried on by the spouses or partners, whether alone or together with another person; or
 - (c) for the purpose of acquiring, improving, or maintaining relationship property; or
 - (d) for the benefit of both spouses or partners in the course of managing the affairs of the household; or
 - (e) for the purpose of bringing up any child of the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship.
- (2) To avoid any doubt, for a debt to fall within paragraph (c) of the definition of relationship debt in subsection (1), it is not necessary that, at the time at which the debt was incurred, the property for which it was incurred was relationship property, as long as the property later becomes relationship property.

Section 20: replaced, on 1 February 2002, by section 20 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Section 20(1) relationship debt paragraph (a): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Section 20(1) relationship debt paragraph (b): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Section 20(1) relationship debt paragraph (d): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Section 20(1) relationship debt paragraph (e): replaced, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(4) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

20A Rights of creditors preserved

- (1) Secured and unsecured creditors of a spouse or partner have the same rights against that spouse or partner, and against property owned by the spouse or partner, as if this Act had not been passed.
- (2) If, had this Act not been passed, any property would have passed to the Official Assignee on or following the bankruptcy of a spouse or partner, then that property (and no other property) passes to the Official Assignee as if this Act had not been passed.
- (3) This section—
 - (a) is subject to section 20B; and
 - (b) applies except as otherwise expressly provided in this Act.

Section 20A: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 20 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Section 20A(1): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Section 20A(2): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

20B Protected interest in family home

- (1) Each spouse or partner has a protected interest in the family home, which includes,—
 - (a) where section 11A applies, the proceeds of sale of the family home:
 - (b) where section 11B applies, the property shared under that section:
 - (c) where section 12 applies, the money shared under that section.
- (2) The protected interest of a spouse or partner is not liable for the unsecured debts of the other spouse or partner, other than an unsecured debt incurred—
 - (a) by the spouses or partners jointly; or
 - (b) by the spouse or partner subsequently declared bankrupt, for the purpose of acquiring, improving, or repairing the family home.
- (3) The value of the protected interest of a spouse or partner is as follows:
 - (a) where section 11 applies, the protected interest is to the extent of the lesser of—
 - (i) the specified sum; or
 - (ii) one-half of the equity of the spouses or partners in the family home:
 - (b) where section 11A applies, the protected interest is to the extent of the lesser of—
 - (i) the specified sum; or
 - (ii) one-half of the proceeds of the sale of the family home:
 - (c) where section 11B or section 12 applies, the protected interest is to the extent of the lesser of—
 - (i) the specified sum; or
 - (ii) one-half of the property or money shared under the applicable section.
- (4) In this section, specified sum means the amount for the time being prescribed under section 53A for the purposes of this section.

Section 20B(2)(b): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Section 20B(3): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Section 20B(3)(a)(ii): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

20C Payment of protected interest on bankruptcy of other spouse or partner

- (1) If, on the bankruptcy of a spouse or partner, the family home (including a homestead) or, if section 11A applies, the proceeds of the sale of the family home pass to the Official Assignee, the Official Assignee must pay to the other spouse or partner the lesser of—
 - (a) the amount of the protected interest of the other spouse or partner; or
 - (b) so much of that amount as remains after the Official Assignee has paid the debts specified in subsection (2).
- (2) The debts referred to in subsection (1)(b) are as follows:
 - (a) any debts secured on the family home or homestead or, as the case may be, the proceeds of sale of the family home;
 - (b) any unsecured debt incurred—
 - (i) by the spouses or partners jointly; or
 - (ii) by the spouse or partner subsequently declared bankrupt, for the purpose of acquiring, improving, or repairing the family home.
- (3) If, on the bankruptcy of a spouse or partner, section 11B applies, the Official Assignee must pay to the other spouse or partner such amount in satisfaction of the protected interest of that spouse or partner as the court may direct, on application by the Official Assignee or by that spouse or partner.

20D Calculation of net value of relationship property

The value of the relationship property that may be divided between the spouses or partners under this Act must be calculated by—

- (a) ascertaining the total value of the relationship property; and then
- (b) deducting from that total any secured or unsecured relationship debts owed by either or both spouses or partners.

Section 20D: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 20 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Section 20D: amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Section 20D(b): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

20E Compensation for satisfaction of personal debts

- (1) If a secured or unsecured personal debt of one spouse or partner (party A) has been paid or satisfied (directly or indirectly) out of the relationship property, the court may make one of the following orders in favour of the other spouse or partner (party B):
 - (a) an order increasing proportionately the share to which party B would otherwise be entitled in the relationship property:
 - (b) an order that property that is part of party A's separate property be treated as relationship property for the purposes of any division of relationship property under this Act:
 - (c) an order that party A pay party B a sum of money as compensation.
- (2) The court may make an order under this section on its own initiative, but must make an order under this section if party B applies for such an order.
- (3) This section applies whether the debt was paid or satisfied voluntarily or pursuant to legal process.

21B Surviving spouse or partner and personal representative may agree on division of property

- (1) This section applies—
 - (a) when proceedings are commenced while both spouses or partners are alive, and one spouse or partner dies before the proceedings are completed; or
 - (b) when one spouse or partner dies and the other spouse or partner, or the personal representative of the deceased spouse or partner, intends to commence, or commences, proceedings after the death of the deceased.
- (2) If this section applies, a surviving spouse or partner (the survivor) and the personal representative of the deceased spouse or partner may, for the purpose of settling the proceedings or (as the case requires) a claim by the survivor or the personal representative with respect to property owned by either or both of those spouses or partners, make any agreement they think fit with respect to the status, ownership, and division of that property.
- (3) If the survivor is also the sole executor or sole administrator of the estate of the deceased spouse or partner, an agreement under this section is not valid unless the court approves the agreement.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply if a grant of administration is not required.
- (5) This section is subject to section 47.

Procedural requirements

Heading: inserted, on 1 August 2001, by section 21(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

21F Agreement void unless complies with certain requirements

- (1) Subject to section 21H, an agreement entered into under section 21 or section 21A or section 21B is void unless the requirements set out in subsections (2) to (5) are complied with.
- (2) The agreement must be in writing and signed by both parties.
- (3) Each party to the agreement must have independent legal advice before signing the agreement.
- (4) The signature of each party to the agreement must be witnessed by a lawyer.
- (5) The lawyer who witnesses the signature of a party must certify that, before that party signed the agreement, the lawyer explained to that party the effect and implications of the agreement.

Section 21F: inserted, on 1 August 2001, by section 21(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

21G Other grounds of invalidity not affected

Section 21F does not limit or affect any enactment or rule of law or of equity that makes a contract void, voidable, or unenforceable on any other ground.

Section 21G: inserted, on 1 August 2001, by section 21(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

21H Court may give effect to agreement in certain circumstances

- (1) Even though an agreement is void for non-compliance with a requirement of section 21F, the court may declare that the agreement has effect, wholly or in part or for any particular purpose, if it is satisfied that the non-compliance has not materially prejudiced the interests of any party to the agreement.
- (2) The court may make a declaration under this section in the course of any proceedings under this Act, or on application made for the purpose.

Section 21H: inserted, on 1 August 2001, by section 21(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Agreements by minors

Heading: inserted, on 1 August 2001, by section 21(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

21I Agreements entered into by minors

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), if a minor enters into an agreement under section 21 or section 21A or section 21B, the agreement, and every instrument executed by that minor for the purpose of giving effect to the agreement, is as valid and effectual as if the minor were of full age.
- (2) If a minor who is younger than 18 years, and is not and has not been married or in a civil union, enters into an agreement under section 21 or section 21A or section 21B, the agreement is not valid without the approval of the court.
- (3) An approval may be given on application by the minor before or after the agreement has been signed by the parties.

Section 21I: inserted, on 1 August 2001, by section 21(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Section 21I(2): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(4) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Court may set agreement aside

Heading: inserted, on 1 August 2001, by section 21(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

21J Court may set agreement aside if would cause serious injustice

- (1) Even though an agreement satisfies the requirements of section 21F, the court may set the agreement aside if, having regard to all the circumstances, it is satisfied that giving effect to the agreement would cause serious injustice.

- (2) The court may exercise the power in subsection (1) in the course of any proceedings under this Act, or on application made for the purpose.
- (3) This section does not limit or affect any enactment or rule of law or of equity that makes a contract void, voidable, or unenforceable on any other ground.
- (4) In deciding, under this section, whether giving effect to an agreement made under section 21 or section 21A or section 21B would cause serious injustice, the court must have regard to—
 - (a) the provisions of the agreement:
 - (b) the length of time since the agreement was made:
 - (c) whether the agreement was unfair or unreasonable in the light of all the circumstances at the time it was made:
 - (d) whether the agreement has become unfair or unreasonable in the light of any changes in circumstances since it was made (whether or not those changes were foreseen by the parties):
 - (e) the fact that the parties wished to achieve certainty as to the status, ownership, and division of property by entering into the agreement:
 - (f) any other matters that the court considers relevant.
- (5) In deciding, under this section, whether giving effect to an agreement made under section 21B would cause serious injustice, the court must also have regard to whether the estate of the deceased spouse or partner has been wholly or partly distributed.

Section 21J: inserted, on 1 August 2001, by section 21(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Section 21J(5): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Miscellaneous provisions

Heading: inserted, on 1 August 2001, by section 21(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

21K Agreements made for valuable consideration

- (1) Every agreement under section 21 or section 21A or section 21B is taken to have been made for valuable consideration.
- (2) Nothing in this section limits or affects the manner of determining, for the purposes of the Estate and Gift Duties Act 1968, whether a disposition of property is a gift.

Section 21K: inserted, on 1 August 2001, by section 21(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

21L Enforcement of agreements

- (1) Remedies that, under any enactment or rule of law or of equity, are available for the enforcement of contracts may be used for the enforcement of agreements under section 21 or section 21A or section 21B.
- (2) This section is subject to the provisions of this Part.

Section 21L: inserted, on 1 August 2001, by section 21(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

21M Consequences of invalidity of agreement

If an agreement purporting to be made under section 21 or section 21A or section 21B is void or is avoided or is invalid or unenforceable (including an agreement set aside under section 21J), the provisions of this Act have effect as if the agreement had never been made.

Section 21M: inserted, on 1 August 2001, by section 21(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

21N Other powers and capacities not affected

- (1) Nothing in this Part limits or affects the capacity of either spouse or partner to agree to acquire or hold any property jointly or in common, whether or not together with any other person, and whether legally or beneficially.
- (2) Nothing in this Part limits or affects the power of spouses or partners to make gifts to each other.
- (3) Regardless of any rule of law, a gift between spouses or partners may be made orally or in writing, and does not need to be made by deed or by delivery.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply to de facto partners who have lived in a de facto relationship for less than 3 years.

Section 21N: inserted, on 1 August 2001, by section 21(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Section 21N(1): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Section 21N(2): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Section 21N(3): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

21O Application of Act to relationship property not subject to agreement

Relationship property is subject to the provisions of this Act if neither of the following kinds of agreement applies to the property:

- (a) an agreement under section 21 or section 21A or section 21B:
- (b) an agreement to which section 21P or section 21Q applies, or to the extent that section 21Q applies.

Section 21O: inserted, on 1 August 2001, by section 21(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Agreements made before 1 August 2001

Heading: inserted, on 1 August 2001, by section 21(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

21P Agreements made before 1 August 2001 between de facto partners

- (1) This section applies to any agreement—
 - (a) that is made, before 1 August 2001, by de facto partners, or by any 2 persons in contemplation of entering into a de facto relationship; and
 - (b) that is made with respect to the status, ownership, or division of their property.
- (2) An agreement to which subsection (1) applies—
 - (a) may relate to existing or future property, or both:
 - (b) may relate to the status, ownership, or division of property in either or both of the following circumstances:
 - (i) during the joint lives of the de facto partners:
 - (ii) when one of them dies.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not limit the generality of subsection (1).

Section 21P: inserted, on 1 August 2001, by section 21(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

21Q Agreements made before 1 August 2001 between spouses relating to division of property on death

This section applies to any agreement—

- (a) that is made, before 1 August 2001, by a husband and wife, or by any 2 persons in contemplation of marriage; and
- (b) that is made with respect to, or to the extent that it is made with respect to, the status, ownership, or division of their property when one of them dies.

Section 21Q: inserted, on 1 August 2001, by section 21(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

21R Agreements to have effect as if Act not passed

- (1) The following agreements, to the extent that the agreements were valid and would have been enforceable before 1 August 2001, have effect as if this Act had not been passed:
 - (a) an agreement to which section 21P applies:
 - (b) an agreement to which section 21Q applies, or to the extent that section 21Q applies.
- (2) This section is subject to section 47.

Section 21R: inserted, on 1 August 2001, by section 21(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

21S Agreements made under previous section 21 before 1 August 2001

Any agreement made before 1 August 2001 under section 21 (as that section existed immediately before that date) is to be treated as if it had been made under section 21 or section 21A (as those sections existed after that date), whichever section is applicable, and this Part applies accordingly.

Section 21S: inserted, on 1 August 2001, by section 21(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Agreements made between 1 August 2001 and 31 January 2002, where marriage or de facto relationship ends before 1 February 2002

Heading: inserted, on 1 August 2001, by section 21(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

21T Agreements made under this Part before 1 February 2002, where marriage or de facto relationship ends before that date

- (1) This section applies to any agreement made under section 21 if—
 - (a) the agreement is made, on or after 1 August 2001 and before 1 February 2002, by 2 de facto partners, or by any 2 persons in contemplation of entering into a de facto relationship; and
 - (b) the agreement is made with respect to the status, ownership, or division of their property—
 - (i) during the joint lives of the de facto partners;
 - (ii) when one of them dies; and
 - (c) the de facto relationship ends before 1 February 2002.
- (2) This section also applies to any agreement made under section 21 if—
 - (a) the agreement is made, on or after 1 August 2001 and before 1 February 2002, by a husband and wife, or by any 2 persons in contemplation of marriage; and
 - (b) the agreement is made with respect to, or to the extent that it is made with respect to, the status, ownership, or division of their property when one of them dies; and
 - (c) one of the spouses dies before 1 February 2002.
- (3) The following agreements, to the extent that the agreements were valid and would have been enforceable before 1 August 2001, have effect as if this Act had not been passed:
 - (a) an agreement to which subsection (1) applies;
 - (b) an agreement to which subsection (2) applies, or to the extent that subsection (2) applies.
- (4) This section is subject to section 47.

Section 21T: inserted, on 1 August 2001, by section 21(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

24 Time limits for making applications

- (1) The following time limits apply in relation to applications made under this Act:
 - (a) an application made after a marriage or civil union has been dissolved by an order dissolving the marriage or civil union must be made before the expiry of the period of 12 months after the date on which that order takes effect as a final order:
 - (b) an application made after an order has been made declaring a marriage or civil union to be void ab initio must be made before the expiry of the period of 12 months after the date of the making of the order:
 - (c) an application made after a de facto relationship has ended must be made no later than 3 years after the de facto relationship ended.
- (2) Regardless of subsection (1), the court may extend the time for making an application after hearing—
 - (a) the applicant; and
 - (b) any other persons who would have an interest in the property that would be affected by the order sought and who the court considers should be heard.
- (3) The court's power under this section extends to cases where the time for applying has already expired.
- (4) If one of the spouses or partners has died, the application of this section is modified by section 89 (except in a situation described in section 10D(1)).

Section 24: replaced, on 1 February 2002, by section 25 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

25 When court may make orders

- (1) On an application under section 23, the court may—
 - (a) make any order it considers just—
 - (i) determining the respective shares of each spouse or partner in the relationship property or any part of that property; or

- (ii) dividing the relationship property or any part of that property between the spouses or partners:
 - (b) make any other order that it is empowered to make by any provision of this Act.
- (2) The court may not make an order under subsection (1) unless it is satisfied,—
 - (a) in the case of a marriage or civil union,—
 - (i) that the spouses or civil union partners are living apart (whether or not they have continued to live in the same residence) or are separated; or
 - (ii) that the marriage or civil union has been dissolved; or
 - (b) in the case of a de facto relationship, that the de facto partners no longer have a de facto relationship with each other; or
 - (c) that one spouse or partner is endangering the relationship property or seriously diminishing its value, by gross mismanagement or by wilful or reckless dissipation of property or earnings; or
 - (d) that either spouse or partner is an undischarged bankrupt.
- (3) Regardless of subsection (2), the court may at any time make any order or declaration relating to the status, ownership, vesting, or possession of any specific property as it considers just.
- (4) To avoid any doubt, but without limiting subsection (3), if proceedings under this Act are pending, the court, if it considers it appropriate in the circumstances, may make an interim order under that subsection for the sale of any relationship property, and may give any directions it thinks fit with respect to the proceeds.
- (5) This section is subject to the other provisions of this Act.
- (6) In proceedings commenced after the death of one of the spouses or partners, this section is modified by section 91.

Orders for benefit of children of marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship

Heading: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 25 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Heading: amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(4) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

26 Orders for benefit of children of marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship

- (1) In proceedings under this Act, the court must have regard to the interests of any minor or dependent children of the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship and, if it considers it just, may make an order settling the relationship property or any part of that property for the benefit of the children of the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship or of any of them.
- (2) If the court makes an order under subsection (1), the court may reserve such interest (if any) of either spouse or partner, or of both of them, in the relationship property as the court considers just.
- (3) An order under this section may be made and has effect regardless of any agreement under Part 6.

Section 26: replaced, on 1 February 2002, by section 25 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Section 26 heading: amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(4) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Postponement of sharing

Heading: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 25 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

26A Postponement of sharing

- (1) On the division of relationship property under this Act, the court may make an order postponing the vesting of any share in the relationship property, either wholly or in part, until a specified future date or until the occurrence of a specified event if the court is satisfied that immediate vesting would cause undue hardship for a spouse or partner who is the principal provider of ongoing daily care for 1 or more minor or dependent children of the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship.

(2) The court may order postponement of vesting under this section only for as long as necessary, and only to the extent necessary, to alleviate the undue hardship.

(3) Nothing in this section limits section 33.

Occupation orders, tenancy orders, and furniture orders

Heading: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 25 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

27 Occupation orders

(1) The court may make an order granting to either spouse or partner, for such period or periods and on such terms and subject to such conditions as the court thinks fit, the right personally to occupy the family home or any other premises forming part of the relationship property.

(2) Where an order is made under subsection (1), the person in whose favour it is made shall be entitled, to the exclusion of the other spouse or partner, personally to occupy the family home or the other premises to which the order relates.

(3) An order made under subsection (1) against a spouse or partner shall be enforceable against the personal representative of the person against whom it is made, unless the court otherwise directs.

(4) An order made under subsection (1) by the District Court or the Family Court is enforceable as if it were an order for recovery of land made pursuant to section 79(2)(c) of the District Court Act 2016.

(5) In proceedings commenced after the death of one of the spouses or partners, this section is modified by section 91.

28 Orders with respect to tenancy

- (1) Regardless of section 23, the court may at any time, on the application of either spouse or partner, make an order vesting in either spouse or partner (the applicant) the tenancy of any dwellinghouse.
- (1A) The court may not make an order under this section unless, at the time of the making of the order,—
 - (a) the spouse or partner against whom the order is made (the other party) is or was the sole tenant of the dwellinghouse, or is or was a tenant holding jointly or in common with the applicant; and
 - (b) the other party is a tenant of the dwellinghouse; and
 - (c) either spouse or partner is residing in the dwellinghouse.
- (2) On the taking effect of an order made under subsection (1), unless the tenancy is sooner lawfully determined, the applicant shall become the tenant of the dwellinghouse upon and subject to the terms and conditions of the tenancy in force at the time of the making of that order, and the other party shall cease to be the tenant. Every such order shall have effect and may be enforced as if it were an order of the court for possession of the land granted in favour of the applicant.
- (3) Nothing in this section or in any order made under this section shall be construed to limit or affect the operation of any enactment or rule of law for the time being applicable to any tenancy to which this section applies or to the dwellinghouse held under the tenancy, or to authorise the court to vary, except by vesting or revesting the tenancy pursuant to this section, any express or implied term or condition of the tenancy.
- (4) On the application of the other party or his or her personal representative in any case in which an order is made under subsection (1), the court may, if it thinks fit, make an order discharging the first-mentioned order and revesting the tenancy accordingly.

- (5) On the taking effect of any reversioning order made under subsection (4), unless the tenancy is sooner lawfully determined, the person in whose favour it is made shall become the tenant of the dwellinghouse upon and subject to the terms and conditions of the tenancy in force at the time of the making of the reversioning order.
- (5A) In this section, dwellinghouse means any building or part of a building let as a separate dwelling; and includes—
- (a) any furniture or other chattels let with the building or part of a building; and
 - (b) any land, outbuildings, or parts of buildings included in the tenancy.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, the term tenant, in relation to any dwellinghouse, includes any person whose tenancy has expired or been determined, and who is for the time being deemed under or by virtue of any enactment or rule of law to continue to be the tenant of the dwellinghouse; and the term tenancy has a corresponding meaning.
- (7) In proceedings commenced after the death of one of the spouses or partners, this section is modified by section 91.

28A Factors affecting occupation orders and orders with respect to tenancy

- (1) The court—
- (a) in determining whether to make an order under section 27(1) or section 28(1); and
 - (b) in determining, in relation to an order made under section 27(1), the period or periods, the terms (if any), and the conditions (if any) of the order,— shall have particular regard to the need to provide a home for any minor or dependent child of the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship, and may also have regard to all other relevant circumstances.

- (2) Nothing in this section shall limit the generality of section 26(1).
- (3) In proceedings commenced after the death of one of the spouses or partners, this section is affected by section 91.

28B Ancillary furniture order

- (1) On or after making an occupation order under section 27(1) or a tenancy order under section 28(1), the court may make an order granting, to the person in whose favour the order is or has been made, the use of all or any of the furniture, household appliances, and household effects in the family home or other premises to which the occupation order relates or (as the case requires) in the dwellinghouse to which the tenancy order relates.
- (2) An order made under this section may be for such period, and on such terms and conditions, as the court thinks fit.

Section 28B: replaced, on 1 February 2002, by section 29 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

28C Furniture required to equip another household

- (1) Regardless of section 23, the court may at any time make an order granting to either the spouse or partner (the applicant) the possession and use of all or any of the furniture, household appliances, and household effects in—
 - (a) the family home or any other premises forming part of the relationship property; or
 - (b) any dwellinghouse in respect of which a tenancy order could be made under section 28(1) in favour of the applicant.
- (2) Either spouse or partner may apply for an order under this section.
- (3) The court may make an order under this section only if it is satisfied that the furniture, household appliances, and household effects are reasonably required to equip another dwellinghouse in which the applicant is or will be living (whether alone or with 1 or more children of the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship).

- (4) In determining whether to make an order under this section, the court must have particular regard to any need of the applicant to have suitable furniture, household appliances, and household effects to provide for the needs of any children of the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship, where those children live, or will be living, with the applicant.
- (5) Subsection (4) does not limit section 26(1).
- (6) An order made under this section may be for such period, and on such terms and conditions, as the court thinks fit.

Orders relating to maintenance and child support

Heading: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 35 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

32 Orders relating to maintenance and child support

- (1) In any proceedings, the court must have regard to—
 - (a) any order made under the Family Proceedings Act 1980 for the maintenance of a spouse or partner; and
 - (b) any child support payable by one spouse or partner, under a formula assessment under the Child Support Act 1991, for a child of the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship; and
 - (c) any voluntary agreement, whether or not the agreement has been accepted under Part 3 of the Child Support Act 1991.

- (2) In any proceedings, the court, if it considers it just, may—
- (a) make an order under the Family Proceedings Act 1980 for the maintenance of a spouse or partner:
 - (b) discharge, vary, extend, or suspend an order made under the Family Proceedings Act 1980 for the maintenance of a spouse or partner:
 - (c) make any order in relation to child support that may be made under section 106 or section 109 or section 112 of the Child Support Act 1991, as if an application had been made under section 104 or (as the case requires) section 108 or section 112 of that Act:
 - (d) cancel, vary, extend, or suspend a voluntary agreement.
- (3) An order made under this Act in respect of relationship property is not sufficient by itself to support—
- (a) an application under section 99 of the Family Proceedings Act 1980 for the discharge, variation, extension, or suspension of an order for the maintenance of a spouse or partner; or
 - (b) an application for an order under Part 7 of the Child Support Act 1991; or
 - (c) the cancellation, variation, extension, or suspension of a voluntary agreement.

Ancillary powers

Heading: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 35 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

33 Ancillary powers of court

- (1) The court may make all such other orders and give such directions as may be necessary or expedient to give effect, or better effect, to any order made under any of the provisions of sections 25 to 32.

- (2) The court may, at any time it thinks fit, extend, vary, cancel, or discharge any order made under any of the provisions of sections 26 to 32, and may vary any terms or conditions upon or subject to which any such order has been made.
- (3) In particular, but without limiting the generality of subsections (1) and (2), the court may make any 1 or more of the following orders:
 - (a) an order for the sale of the relationship property or any part of the relationship property, and for the division, vesting, or settlement of the proceeds:
 - (b) in the case of property owned by both spouses or partners jointly, an order vesting the property in both spouses or partners in common in such shares as the court considers just:
 - (c) an order vesting the relationship property, or any part of the relationship property, in either spouse or partner:
 - (d) an order postponing the vesting of any share in the relationship property, or any part of such share, until a future date specified in the order or until the occurrence of a future event specified in the order:
 - (e) an order for the partition or vesting of any property:
 - (f) in the case of property owned by one spouse or partner, an order vesting the property in both spouses or partners jointly or in common in shares that the court considers just:
 - (g) in the case of property owned by both spouses or partners, jointly or in common, an order vesting the property in one of them:
 - (h) an order for the cancellation of the settlement of a joint family home:
 - (i) an order for the payment of a sum of money by one spouse or partner to the other:
 - (j) an order for the transfer of land, or of any interest in land, including a lease, licence, or tenancy:
 - (k) an order for the transfer of shares or stock, or of mortgages, charges, debentures, or other securities, or of the title or documents of title of any property:
 - (l) an order for the transfer of rights or obligations under any instrument or contract, and an order of this kind has effect regardless of any provision or term of the instrument or contract:
 - (m) an order varying the terms of any trust or settlement, other than a trust under a will or other testamentary disposition:
 - (n) in the case of money or other property that is part of the separate property of one spouse or partner, an order requiring that spouse or partner to pay the money, or transfer the other property, to the other.
- (4) Where under any order made under this Act one spouse or partner is or may become liable to pay to the other a sum of money, the court may direct that it shall be paid either in 1 sum or in instalments, and either with or without security, and otherwise in such manner and subject to such conditions (including a condition requiring the payment of interest) as the court thinks fit.

- (5) Where, pursuant to this Act, the court makes an order for the sale of any relationship property and for the division, application, or settlement of the proceeds, the court may appoint a person to sell the property and divide, apply, or settle the proceeds accordingly; and the execution of any instrument by the person so appointed shall have the same force and validity as if it had been executed by the person in whom the property is vested.
- (6) Any order under this Act may, subject to the provisions of this Act, be made upon such terms and subject to such conditions (if any) as the court thinks fit.
- (7) Where the court, by any order under this Act, appoints a person (including a Registrar or other officer of the court) to sell any property and to divide, apply, and settle the proceeds, the court may make provision in that order for the payment of remuneration to that person and for the reimbursement of his or her expenses.

Transfer of proceedings

Heading: inserted, on 31 March 2014, by section 6 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act (No 2) 2013 (2013 No 82).

38A Transfer of proceedings to High Court

- (1) A Family Court Judge may order the transfer of proceedings to the High Court if the Judge is satisfied that the High Court is the more appropriate venue for dealing with the proceedings.

- (2) In considering whether to make an order under subsection (1), the Judge must have regard to—
- (a) the complexity of the proceedings or of any question in issue in the proceedings;
 - (b) any proceedings before the High Court that are between the same parties and that involve related issues;
 - (c) any other matter that the Judge considers relevant in the circumstances.
- (3) An order may be made under subsection (1) on—
- (a) the application of a party to the proceedings; or
 - (b) the court's initiative.
- (4) Any proceedings transferred to the High Court by an order made under subsection (1) continue in that court as if they had been properly commenced there.

39 Right of appeal to High Court

- (1) This subsection applies to a decision of the Family Court or the District Court, in proceedings under this Act, to—
- (a) make or refuse to make an order; or
 - (b) dismiss the proceedings; or
 - (c) otherwise finally determine the proceedings.
- (2) A party to proceedings in which there is made a decision to which subsection (1) applies, or any other person prejudicially affected by the decision, may appeal to the High Court against the decision.
- (3) The High Court Rules 2016 and sections 126 to 130 of the District Court Act 2016, with all necessary modifications, apply to an appeal under subsection (2) as if it were an appeal under section 124 of that Act.
- (4) On the ex parte application of the appellant, the Family Court or District Court (as the case requires) may order that the appellant must not be required under section 126(1) of the District Court Act 2016 to give the Registrar of the High Court security for costs.
- (5) Subsection (4) overrides subsection (3).
- (6) If the appeal relates to proceedings commenced after the death of one of the spouses or partners, this section is modified by section 93.

Costs

Heading: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 44 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

40 Costs

Subject to any rules of procedure made for the purposes of this Act, in any proceedings under this Act the court may make such order as to costs as it thinks fit.

Registration of orders

41 Registration of orders

- (1) Where an order made under this Act relates to any estate or interest in land, a copy of the order sealed with the seal of the court shall, upon application by either of the parties and upon payment of the prescribed fee, be registered by the Registrar-General of Land or the Registrar of Deeds, as the case may be, or by the Mining Registrar in any case where the order relates to land comprised in a licence within the meaning of the Mining Tenures Registration Act 1962 that has not been registered under the Land Transfer Act 2017.
- (2) For the purposes of this section an order to which this section applies shall cease to have effect where—
 - (a) the order is discharged or cancelled by the court under section 33(2); or
 - (b) the person in whose favour and the person against whom the order is made so agree in writing and the agreement is signed and witnessed in accordance with section 21F(2), (4), and (5); or
 - (c) the period for which the order was made has expired; or
 - (d) the court so directs in any other case.
- (3) Where the Registrar-General of Land or the Registrar of Deeds or the Mining Registrar, as the case may be, is satisfied that an order registered under subsection (1) has ceased to have effect, he or she shall, on application in that behalf, endorse the register accordingly.
- (4) Where an order made under any of the provisions of this Act relates to any stocks, shares or other company securities, or to any other property the title to which passes upon or is evidenced by registration, the foregoing provisions of this section shall apply with all necessary modifications to such stocks, shares, securities or other property as if they were estates or interests in land.

42 Notice of interest against title

- (1) A claim to an interest, pursuant to this Act, in any land subject to the Land Transfer Act 2017 shall be deemed to be a registrable interest for the purposes of that Act.
- (2) Notice of a claim under subsection (1) shall be effected by lodging a duly completed notice in the prescribed form with the Registrar-General of Land.
- (3) Every notice so lodged shall have effect as if it were a caveat lodged pursuant to section 138 of the Land Transfer Act 2017 and the provisions of that Act, except section 141, shall apply subject to the following modifications:
 - (a) any application under section 142 or 143 of that Act in respect of any notice under this section may be made to the Family Court or the District Court or the High Court; and
 - (b) an order under section 146 of that Act authorising the receipt of a second notice under this section may be made by the Family Court or the District Court or the High Court.
- (4) In the case of land that is not subject to the Land Transfer Act 2017, notice of a claim to an interest pursuant to this Act may be registered in the manner in which deeds and other instruments affecting the land may be registered.
- (5) A notice under subsection (2) or subsection (4) may be registered notwithstanding that no proceedings under this Act are pending or in contemplation, and notwithstanding that there is no dispute between the parties.

43 Dispositions may be restrained

- (1) Where it appears to the High Court or the District Court or the Family Court that any disposition of property is about to be made, whether for value or not, by or on behalf of or by direction of or in the interests of any person in order to defeat the claim or rights of any other person (party B) under this Act, the court may, on such notice being given as the court may direct, by order restrain the making of the disposition or may order any proceeds of the disposition to be paid into court to be dealt with as the court directs.
- (1A) The court may make an order under this section on the application of party B, or (in any proceedings under this Act or otherwise) on its own initiative.
- (2) Any disposition made after an order of the court under subsection (1) restraining the making of the disposition has been served on or come to the notice of the person disposing of the property, or any auctioneer, agent, or lawyer acting in connection with the disposition, shall be void, and the court may consider any claim of any person interested and may make such order as it thinks just.

44 Dispositions may be set aside

- (1) Where the High Court or the District Court or the Family Court is satisfied that any disposition of property has been made, whether for value or not, by or on behalf of or by direction of or in the interests of any person in order to defeat the claim or rights of any person (party B) under this Act, the court may make any order under subsection (2).
- (1A) The court may make an order under this section on the application of party B, or (in any proceedings under this Act or otherwise) on its own initiative.
- (2) In any case to which subsection (1) applies, the court may, subject to subsection (4),—

- (a) order that any person to whom the disposition was made and who received the property otherwise than in good faith and for valuable consideration, or his or her personal representative, shall transfer the property or any part thereof to such person as the court directs; or
 - (b) order that any person to whom the disposition was made and who received the property otherwise than in good faith and for adequate consideration, or his or her personal representative, shall pay into court, or to such person as the court directs, a sum not exceeding the difference between the value of the consideration (if any) and the value of the property; or
 - (c) order that any person who has, otherwise than in good faith and for valuable consideration, received any interest in the property from the person to whom the disposition was so made, or his or her personal representative, or any person who received that interest from any such person otherwise than in good faith and for valuable consideration, shall transfer that interest to such person as the court directs, or shall pay into court or to such person as the court directs a sum not exceeding the value of the interest.
- (3) For the purposes of giving effect to any order under subsection (2), the court may make such further order as it thinks fit.
 - (4) Relief (whether under this section, or in equity, or otherwise) in any case to which subsection (1) applies shall be denied wholly or in part, if the person from whom relief is sought received the property or interest in good faith, and has so altered his or her position in reliance on his or her having an indefeasible interest in the property or interest that in the opinion of the court, having regard to all possible implications in respect of other persons, it is inequitable to grant relief, or to grant relief in full, as the case may be.

44C Compensation for property disposed of to trust

- (1) This section applies if the court is satisfied—
 - (a) that, since the marriage, the civil union, or the de facto relationship began, either or both spouses or partners have disposed of relationship property to a trust; and
 - (b) that the disposition has the effect of defeating the claim or rights of one of the spouses or partners; and
 - (c) that the disposition is not one to which section 44 applies.
- (2) If this section applies, the court may make 1 or more of the following orders for the purpose of compensating the spouse or partner whose claim or rights under this Act have been defeated by the disposition:

- (a) an order requiring one spouse or partner to pay to the other spouse or partner a sum of money, whether out of relationship property or separate property:
 - (b) an order requiring one spouse or partner to transfer to the other spouse or partner any property, whether the property is relationship property or separate property:
 - (c) an order requiring the trustees of the trust to pay to one spouse or partner the whole or part of the income of the trust, either for a specified period or until a specified amount has been paid.
- (3) The court must not make an order under subsection (2)(c) if—
- (a) an order under subsection (2)(a) or (b) would compensate the spouse or partner; or
 - (b) a third person has in good faith altered that person's position—
 - (i) in reliance on the ability of the trustees to distribute the income of the trust in terms of the instrument creating the trust; and
 - (ii) in such a way that it would be unjust to make the order.
- (4) The court may make 1 or more orders under subsection (2) if it considers it just to do so, having regard to—
- (a) the value of the relationship property disposed of to the trust:
 - (b) the value of the relationship property available for division:
 - (c) the date or dates on which relationship property was disposed of to the trust:
 - (d) whether the trust gave consideration for the property, and if so, the amount of the consideration:
 - (e) whether the spouses or partners, or either of them, or any child of the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship, is or has been a beneficiary of the trust:
 - (f) any other relevant matter.

Orders relating to companies

Heading: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 51 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

44D Definition of qualifying company

- (1) In sections 44E and 44F, qualifying company means a company in which a controlling interest is held by, as the case requires,—
 - (a) one of the spouses or partners; or
 - (b) the estate of the deceased spouse or partner.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, a person holds a controlling interest in a company if that person holds (whether directly or indirectly) equity securities in that company that carry in the aggregate 50% or more of the voting rights at a general meeting of the company.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, a person holds equity securities in a company (company A) if—
 - (a) that person is beneficially entitled to, or is beneficially entitled to an interest in, any equity securities in that company (whether or not the whole or any part of the legal ownership of the equity securities is vested in that person); or
 - (b) that person holds a controlling interest in another company (company B) that holds equity securities in company A.
- (4) For the purposes of subsections (2) and (3), equity security has the same meaning as in section 8 of the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013.

44F Compensation for property disposed of to qualifying company

- (1) This section applies if the court is satisfied—
 - (a) that, since the marriage or the civil union or the de facto relationship began, either or both spouses or partners have disposed of relationship property to a qualifying company; and
 - (b) that the disposition has the effect of defeating the claim or rights of one of the spouses or partners; and
 - (c) that the disposition is not one to which section 44 applies.
- (2) If this section applies, the court may make 1 or more of the following orders for the purpose of compensating the spouse or partner whose claim or rights under this Act have been defeated by the disposition:
 - (a) an order requiring one spouse or partner to pay to the other spouse or partner a sum of money, whether out of relationship property or separate property:
 - (b) an order requiring one spouse or partner to transfer to the other spouse or partner any property, whether the property is relationship property or separate property.
- (3) The court may make 1 or more orders under subsection (2) if it considers it just to do so, having regard to—
 - (a) the value of the relationship property disposed of to the qualifying company;
 - (b) the value of the relationship property available for division;
 - (c) the date or dates on which relationship property was disposed of to the qualifying company;

- (d) whether the company gave consideration for the property, and if so, the amount of the consideration:
- (e) any other relevant matter.

Protection of creditors

46 Protection of mortgagee

Subject to the provisions of sections 42 to 44, the rights conferred on a spouse or partner by any order made under this Act shall be subject to the rights of the persons entitled to the benefit of any mortgage, security, charge, or encumbrance affecting the property in respect of which the order is made if it was registered before the order was registered or if the rights of that person arise under an instrument executed before the date of the making of the order:

provided that, notwithstanding anything in any enactment or in any instrument, no money payable under any such mortgage, security, charge, or encumbrance shall be called up or become due by reason of the making of any such order, not being an order directing the sale of any property.

47 Agreements to defeat creditors void

- (1) Any agreement, disposition, or other transaction between spouses or partners with respect to their relationship property and intended to defeat creditors of either spouse or partner is void against those creditors and the Official Assignee.
- (2) Any such agreement, disposition, or other transaction that was not so intended but that has the effect of defeating such creditors is void against such creditors and the Official Assignee during the period of 2 years after it is made, but only to the extent that it has that effect.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), an agreement between spouses or partners with respect to their relationship property is deemed to have been made for valuable consideration if—
 - (a) a situation described in section 25(2) has arisen; and
 - (b) the agreement is made for the purpose of settling (wholly or in part) their rights under this Act with respect to that property.
- (4) Nothing in this section applies to any gift by one spouse or partner to the other spouse or partner, if the gift is made on a customary occasion and is reasonable in amount having regard to the donor's means and liabilities.
- (5) This section applies regardless of any other provision of this Act.

48 Incidence of orders against personal representative of spouse

[Repealed]

Section 48: repealed, on 1 February 2002, by section 56 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

49 Legal capacity of married women

- (1) Except as provided in any enactment, the rights, privileges, powers, capacities, duties, and liabilities of a married woman shall, for all the purposes of the law of New Zealand (whether substantive, procedural, or otherwise), be the same in all respects as those of a married man, whether she is acting in a personal, official, representative, or fiduciary capacity.
- (2) This section shall apply to every married woman whether she was married before or after the commencement of this Act, and whether the marriage was solemnised in New Zealand or not, and whether she is or was at any relevant time domiciled in New Zealand or not.

50 No restraints upon anticipation

As from the commencement of this Act, no restriction upon anticipation or alienation attached to the enjoyment of any property, being a restriction preserved by section 4 of the Married Women's Property Act 1952, shall be operative or have any effect.

51 Proceedings in tort

- (1) Subject to this section, each of the parties to a marriage or civil union shall have the like right of action in tort against the other as if they were not married or in a civil union.
- (2) Where one of the parties to a marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship brings an action in tort against the other during the subsistence of the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship, the court may at any stage of the proceedings, on application or of its own motion, stay the action if it appears that—
 - (a) no substantial benefit, whether material or otherwise, would accrue to either party by the continuation of the proceedings; or
 - (b) the proceedings are vexatious in character; or

- (c) the question or questions in issue could more conveniently be disposed of on an application made under this Act.
- (3) Without limiting the provisions of subsection (2)(c), the court may in any such action exercise any power which could be exercised on an application under this Act or give such directions as it thinks fit for the disposal under this Act of any question arising in the proceedings.
- (4) In an action to which this section applies, judgment by default shall not be entered except with the leave of the court. An application for the grant of such leave must be served on the defendant.
- (5) In this section the term court means the High Court, the District Court, or the Family Court, but the District Court must not exercise any power which could be exercised on an application under this Act unless it is empowered to do so under any enactment (other than this section).

52 Minors may apply without guardian ad litem

Notwithstanding any enactment or rule of law, a minor who is or has been married or in a civil union may bring, institute, or defend proceedings under this Act without a guardian ad litem or next friend, and every judgment or order of the court under this Act shall be binding upon and may be enforced against such a minor as if he or she were of full age.

Section 52: amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(4) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

52A Priority of claims where marriage or civil union and de facto relationship

- (1) This section applies in respect of relationship property if—
- (a) competing claims are made for property orders in respect of that property, one claim being in respect of a marriage or civil union, as the case may be, and the other claim being in respect of a de facto relationship; and
- (b) there is insufficient property to satisfy the property orders made under this Act.
- (2) If this section applies, the relationship property is to be divided as follows:

- (a) if the marriage or civil union and the de facto relationship are successive (regardless of the order in which they occur), then in accordance with the chronological order of the marriage or civil union and the de facto relationship:
- (b) if the marriage or civil union and the de facto relationship were at some time contemporaneous, then,—
 - (i) to the extent possible, the property order relating to the marriage or civil union must be satisfied from the property that is attributable to that marriage or civil union; and
 - (ii) to the extent possible, the property order relating to the de facto relationship must be satisfied from the property that is attributable to that de facto relationship; and
 - (iii) to the extent that it is not possible to attribute all or any of the property to either the marriage or civil union or the de facto relationship, the property is to be divided in accordance with the contribution of the marriage or civil union and the de facto relationship to the acquisition of the property.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, a marriage and a de facto relationship are successive if the de facto relationship begins during the marriage, but after the spouses cease to live together as a married couple.
- (3A) For the purposes of this section, a civil union and a de facto relationship are successive if the de facto relationship begins during the civil union, but after the civil union partners cease to live together as civil union partners.
- (4) In this section, and in section 52B, property order—
 - (a) means an order made under any of sections 25 to 31, and 33; and
 - (b) includes a declaration made under section 25(3).

52B Priority of claims where 2 de facto relationships

- (1) This section applies in respect of relationship property if—
 - (a) competing claims are made for property orders in respect of that property but in relation to different de facto relationships; and
 - (b) there is insufficient property to satisfy the property orders made under this Act.
- (2) If this section applies, the relationship property is to be divided as follows:
 - (a) if the de facto relationships are successive, then in accordance with the chronological order of the de facto relationships:
 - (b) if the de facto relationships were at some time contemporaneous, then,—
 - (i) to the extent possible, the property orders must be satisfied from the property that is attributable to each de facto relationship; and
 - (ii) to the extent that it is not possible to attribute all or any of the property to either de facto relationship, the property is to be divided in accordance with the contribution of each de facto relationship to the acquisition of the property.

53 Rules of court and regulations

- (1) Rules may from time to time be made in the manner prescribed by the Senior Courts Act 2016 relating to the procedure of the High Court under this Act and to appeals to the Court of Appeal under this Act.
- (1A) Rules may be made under section 16A of the Family Court Act 1980 relating to the practice and procedure of the Family Court in proceedings under this Act.
- (2) The Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council, make regulations under section 156 of the Senior Courts Act 2016 for the purposes of this Act.
- (2A) The Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council, make regulations—
 - (a) [Repealed]
 - (b) making provision for determining the amount of fees and expenses payable to any person (other than the Registrar) appointed under subsection (1) or subsection (3) of section 38:
 - (ba) requiring the personal representative of a deceased spouse or partner to provide the surviving spouse or partner with information about the estate of the deceased spouse or partner; and providing for the enforcement of any such requirement (including, without limitation, providing for the - court, on the application of the surviving spouse or partner, to order the personal representative to provide all or any of the relevant information):

- (c) providing for such other matters as are contemplated by or necessary for giving full effect to the provisions of this Act and for its due administration.
- (3) In addition to all other powers conferred by the District Court Act 2016, the Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council, make rules regulating the procedure of the District Court in proceedings under this Act, and providing for such other matters as are contemplated by or necessary for giving full effect to the provisions of this Act and its due administration.
- (3A) Without limiting the generality of the powers conferred by subsections (1) and (3) or section 16A of the Family Court Act 1980, rules made under any of those provisions may require any party to proceedings under this Act to supply to the other party to the proceedings particulars of the nature and value of the property of the first-mentioned party that could be the subject of any order in those proceedings.
- (4) In the absence of any rules under this section, or in any situation not covered by those rules, the rules in relation to civil proceedings for the time being in force under the Senior Courts Act 2016 apply with all necessary modifications to proceedings under this Act that are brought or dealt with in the High Court.
- (5) The following are secondary legislation (see Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019 for publication requirements):
- (a) regulations under subsection (2A):
- (b) rules under subsection (3).
- (6) See section 148 of the Senior Courts Act 2016, section 228 of the District Court Act 2016, and section 16A of the Family Court Act 1980, which provide that court rules are secondary legislation.

Part 8 heading: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 61 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Part 8 heading: amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Application of this Part

Heading: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 61 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

55 Application of this Part

- (1) This Part applies where—
- (a) a marriage has ended when one of the spouses dies; or
 - (ab) a civil union has ended when one of the civil union partners dies; or
 - (b) a de facto relationship has ended when one of the de facto partners dies.
- (2) This Part also applies if,—
- (a) after a marriage has ended by separation or dissolution, one of the spouses dies, and no proceedings under Part 7 are commenced before the spouse's death; or
 - (ab) after a civil union has ended by separation or dissolution, one of the civil union partners dies, and no proceedings under Part 7 are commenced before the civil union partner's death; or
 - (b) after a de facto relationship has ended (other than by the death of one of the de facto partners), one of the de facto partners dies, and no proceedings under Part 7 are commenced before the de facto partner's death.

59 Payment of protected interest where estate insolvent

- (1) This section applies in the following cases:
 - (a) if, after the death of a spouse or partner, the family home (including a homestead) or, if section 11A applies, the proceeds of the sale of the family home vest in an appointee (within the meaning of section 378(1) of the Insolvency Act 2006) on an order being made under section 379 of that Act to administer the estate of a deceased spouse or partner under Part 6 of that Act:

- (b) if, after the death of a spouse or partner, the family home (including a homestead) or, if section 11A applies, the proceeds of the sale of the family home may be dealt with in accordance with section 31 of the Administration Act 1969.
- (2) If this section applies, the appointee (in any case where subsection (1)(a) applies) or the administrator of the estate of the deceased spouse or partner (in any case where subsection (1)(b) applies) must pay to the surviving spouse or partner the lesser of—
- (a) the amount of the protected interest of the surviving spouse or partner; or
 - (b) so much of that amount as remains after the appointee or, as the case requires, the administrator has paid the debts specified in subsection (3).
- (3) The debts referred to in subsection (2)(b) are as follows:
- (a) any debts secured on the family home or homestead or, as the case may be, the proceeds of sale of the family home:
 - (b) any unsecured debt incurred—
 - (i) by the spouses or partners jointly; or
 - (ii) by the deceased spouse or partner, for the purpose of acquiring, improving, or repairing the family home.
- (4) If, in any case to which this section applies, section 11B applies, the appointee or, as the case requires, the administrator must pay to the surviving spouse or partner such amount in satisfaction of the protected interest of that spouse or partner as the court may direct, on application by the appointee or the administrator (as the case requires) or on application by the surviving spouse or partner.

Heading: amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(1) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

60 Incidence of orders against personal representative of spouse or partner

- (1) This section applies when—
 - (a) proceedings are commenced while both spouses or partners are alive; and
 - (b) one spouse or partner dies before the proceedings are completed; and
 - (c) the court makes an order under this Act against the personal representative of the deceased spouse or partner.
- (2) The incidence of any order made under this Act by the court against the personal representative of a deceased spouse or partner falls rateably upon such part of the estate of the deceased as consists of relationship property.
- (3) However, the court may order that the incidence of the order—
 - (a) falls rateably on the whole estate of the deceased; or
 - (b) falls on any specified portion of the estate or on any specified property.
- (4) Where the court makes any order under subsection (3),—
 - (a) the court has power to exonerate any part of the estate of the deceased from the incidence of the order made under this Act, after hearing such of the parties who may be affected by the exoneration as the court thinks necessary, and may for that purpose direct any personal representative to represent, or appoint any person to represent, any such party;
 - (b) the court has power at any time to fix a periodical payment or lump sum to be paid by any beneficiary in the estate of the deceased to represent, or in commutation of, any liability under the order that falls upon the portion of the estate in which he or she is interested, and to exonerate that portion from further liability and to direct in what manner the payment is to be secured.
- (5) For the purposes of subsections (2) to (4), in cases where the authority of the court does not extend and cannot directly or indirectly be made to extend to the whole estate, the estate of the deceased includes only so much of it as is subject to the authority of the court.
- (6) Where the court makes any order under this Act against the personal representative of a deceased spouse or partner (other than an order made under section 27 or section 28), the property comprised in that order does not form part of the estate of the deceased for the purposes of the Law Reform (Testamentary Promises) Act 1949 or of the Family Protection Act 1955.

- (7) In proceedings commenced after the death of one of the spouses or partners, section 94 applies instead of this section.

61 Surviving spouse or partner may choose option

- (1) If one of the spouses or partners has died (except in a situation described in section 10D(1)), the surviving spouse or partner may choose option A or option B.
- (2) Option A is to elect to make an application under this Act for a division of the relationship property.
- (3) Option B is as follows:
- (a) to elect not to make an application under this Act for a division of the relationship property; and
 - (b) if the surviving spouse or partner is a beneficiary under the will of the deceased spouse or partner, to receive that property; and
 - (c) if the surviving spouse or partner is entitled to a beneficial interest on the intestacy or partial intestacy of the deceased spouse or partner, to receive that interest.

Section 61: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 61 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

62 Time limit for making choice

- (1) A surviving spouse or partner who wishes to choose option A or option B must make that choice within the following time limits:
 - (a) if the estate of the deceased spouse or partner is a small estate (as defined in section 2), the choice must be made—
 - (i) no later than 6 months after the date of the death of the deceased spouse or partner; or
 - (ii) if administration of the estate is granted in New Zealand within that period, no later than 6 months after the grant of administration,— whichever is the later:
 - (b) in any other case, the choice must be made no later than 6 months after administration of the estate of the deceased spouse or partner is granted in New Zealand.
- (2) Regardless of subsection (1), but subject to subsection (4), the court may extend the time for making that choice after hearing—
 - (a) the applicant; and
 - (b) any other persons who the court considers should be heard.
- (3) The court's power under this section extends to cases where the time for making the choice has already expired, including cases where it expired before the commencement, on 1 February 2002, of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001.
- (4) The court may not grant an extension of time under subsection (2) unless the application for the extension is made before the final distribution of the estate of the deceased spouse or partner.

64 Position of surviving spouse or civil union partner if separation order made or marriage or civil union dissolved

A surviving spouse or civil union partner may apply under this Act for a division of the relationship property without having first chosen option A if he or she is in one of the following situations:

- (a) a separation order is in force in relation to the marriage or civil union when the deceased spouse or civil union partner dies;
- (b) the marriage was ended while both spouses were alive by a legal process that occurred within or outside New Zealand;
- (c) the civil union was ended while both civil union partners were alive by a legal process that occurred within New Zealand.

Section 64: replaced, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(4) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Section 64(a): amended, on 1 November 2007, by section 41 of the Wills Act 2007 (2007 No 36).

65 How choice to be made

- (1) A surviving spouse or partner who wishes to choose option A or option B must complete and sign a written notice indicating that choice.
- (2) The notice—
 - (a) must be in the prescribed form; and

- (b) must include or be accompanied by a certificate—
 - (i) signed by a lawyer; and
 - (ii) certifying that the lawyer has explained to the surviving spouse or partner the effect and implications of the notice; and
- (c) must be lodged—
 - (i) with the administrator of the estate of the deceased spouse or partner; or
 - (ii) if administration of that estate has not been granted in New Zealand, in the registry of the High Court in which an application for a grant of administration of that estate would, under the High Court Rules 2016, be required to be filed.
- (3) A notice given under subsection (2) by a minor has effect as if the minor were of full age.
- (4) A choice of option is effective when a notice indicating the choice is lodged in accordance with subsection (2)(c).

Section 65(2)(c)(ii): amended, on 18 October 2016, by section 183(c) of the Senior Courts Act 2016 (2016 No 48).

66 Choice of option to be notified to certain persons

- (1) If a notice is lodged in accordance with section 65(2)(c)(ii), the surviving spouse or partner (the survivor) must, without delay, give a copy or copies of the notice in accordance with subsections (2) to (4).
- (2) If, at the time of his or her death, the deceased spouse or partner was the registered holder of any government stock or local authorities stock (as those terms are defined in section 64(2) of the Administration Act 1969) to which that section applies, the survivor must give a copy of the notice to—
 - (a) the registrar of that stock (if paragraph (b) does not apply); or
 - (b) any person who has been registered as the holder of that stock in reliance on that section.
- (3) If, at the time of his or her death, the deceased spouse or partner was the registered holder of shares or debentures to which section 64A of the Administration Act 1969 applies, the survivor must give a copy of the notice to—
 - (a) the directors of the company that issued the shares or debentures (if paragraph (b) does not apply); or

- (b) any person who has been registered as the holder of those shares or debentures in reliance on that section.
- (4) If the death of the deceased spouse or partner means that any sum of money may be paid, under section 65 of the Administration Act 1969, by any person, the survivor must give a copy of the notice to—
- (a) the person authorised under that section to make payment of that sum (if paragraph (b) does not apply); or
 - (b) any person to whom that sum or part of that sum has been paid in reliance on that section (other than subsection (3)).

Section 66(4): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

67 Choice irrevocable

- (1) Once a surviving spouse or partner has chosen option A or option B, that choice cannot be revoked.
- (2) This section is subject to the court's power under section 69 to set aside a choice of option.

Section 67: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 61 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Section 67(1): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

68 Effect of failure to make choice

- (1) If a surviving spouse or partner does not choose option A or option B, in the manner required by section 65 and within the time required by section 62(1) (or any extension of that time granted under section 62(2)), then the surviving spouse or partner is to be treated as having chosen option B.
- (2) The court may, under section 69, set aside a choice of option imposed by this section.

Section 68: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 61 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Section 68(1): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

69 Chosen option may be set aside

- (1) If a surviving spouse or partner has chosen option A or option B, the court, on application by that spouse or partner, may set that choice aside.
- (2) The court may set aside a choice of option only if—
 - (a) it is satisfied that any of the following apply:
 - (i) that the choice of option was not freely made:
 - (ii) that the surviving spouse or partner did not fully understand the effect and implications of the choice:
 - (iii) that since the choice of option was made, the surviving spouse or partner has become aware of information relevant to the making of a choice of option:
 - (iv) that since the choice of option was made, a person (other than the surviving spouse or partner) has made an application under the Law Reform (Testamentary Promises) Act 1949 or the Family Protection Act 1955 in respect of the estate of the deceased spouse or partner; and
 - (b) having regard to all the circumstances, it is satisfied that it would be unjust to enforce the choice of option.
- (3) In deciding whether or not to set aside a choice of option, the court must have regard to the following matters:
 - (a) the circumstances in which the choice of option was made:
 - (b) the length of time since the choice was made:
 - (c) any other matters that the court considers relevant.

70 Choice may not be set aside if estate finally distributed

The court may not set aside a choice of option under section 69 unless the application under that section is made before the final distribution of the estate of the deceased spouse or partner.

Section 70: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 61 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Section 70: amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Distribution of estates

Heading: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 61 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

71 Distribution of estate before choice made

- (1) The administrator or trustee of the estate of a deceased spouse or partner must not distribute any part of that estate before—
 - (a) the expiry of 6 months after administration of that estate is granted in New Zealand; or
 - (b) the surviving spouse or partner chooses option A or option B,— whichever happens first.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), a distribution may be made in the following cases:
 - (a) where section 47(2) of the Administration Act 1969 applies to the distribution:
 - (b) where the surviving spouse or partner consents in writing to the distribution:
 - (c) where the court, on application made to it for the purpose, approves the distribution.

Section 71(2)(b): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

72 Distribution of estate after choice made but before proceedings commenced

- (1) If a surviving spouse or partner chooses option A, the administrator or trustee of the estate of the deceased spouse or partner must not distribute any part of the estate before—
 - (a) the surviving spouse or partner applies for a division of relationship property under this Act; or
 - (b) the expiry of the period specified in section 62(1) (or any extension of that period granted under section 62(2)),— whichever happens first.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), a distribution may be made in any of the cases referred to in section 71(2).

Section 72: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 61 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Section 72(1): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Section 72(1)(a): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

73 Distribution of estate while proceedings pending

- (1) The administrator or trustee of the estate of a deceased spouse or partner must not distribute any part of that estate while proceedings are pending in respect of that estate.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), a distribution may be made in any of the cases referred to in section 71(2).
- (3) For the purposes of this section, proceedings are pending—
 - (a) from the date on which the proceedings are commenced until—
 - (i) the proceedings are finally determined; or
 - (ii) the proceedings are withdrawn,—whichever happens first; and
 - (b) on and from the date on which the proceedings are finally determined until—
 - (i) the time for appealing against the decision of the court expires, if no such appeal has been commenced; or
 - (ii) if an appeal against the decision of the court is commenced, when the appeal is finally determined or is withdrawn, whichever occurs first; and
 - (c) while any further right of appeal (whether to the Court of Appeal or to the Supreme Court) subsists in relation to the proceedings, or while any such further appeal awaits determination.

Section 73(1): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Section 73(3)(c): amended, on 1 January 2004, by section 48(1) of the Supreme Court Act 2003 (2003 No 53).

74 Distribution of estate not to be disturbed

- (1) This section applies where any part of the estate of a deceased spouse or partner has been distributed—
 - (a) before the personal representative of that spouse or partner receives notice that an application has been made to the court—
 - (i) under section 62(2) for an extension of the time for choosing option A or option B; or

- (ii) under section 69 for the setting aside of a choice of option A or option B; or
 - (iii) under section 77 for an order that a surviving spouse or partner who has chosen option A may also take under the will of the deceased spouse or partner or on his or her intestacy or partial intestacy; or
 - (iv) under section 89(2) or section 90(2) for an extension of the time for making an application; and
- (b) after every notice (if any) of an intention to make an application has lapsed in accordance with section 48(1) of the Administration Act 1969.
- (2) Where this section applies,—
- (a) the making of the application does not disturb the distribution; and
 - (b) no order made in respect of the application may disturb the distribution; and
 - (c) no action lies against the personal representative for having made the distribution.

Effect of choice of division under this Act (option A)

Heading: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 61 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

75 Effect on application of Act of choice of division under this Act

If the surviving spouse or partner chooses option A,—

- (a) sections 76 to 78 apply to the proceedings; and
- (b) sections 2 to 53A apply to the proceedings, but some of the sections are modified or affected by sections 79 to 94.

Section 75: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 61 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Section 75: amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

76 Effect on will or intestacy of choice of division under this Act

- (1) Unless the will (if any) of the deceased spouse or partner expresses a contrary intention,—

- (a) every gift to the surviving spouse or partner in the will of the deceased spouse or partner (if any) is to be treated (for all purposes) as having been revoked; and
 - (b) the will of the deceased spouse or partner (if any) is to be interpreted as if the surviving spouse or partner had died before the deceased spouse or partner; and
 - (c) the estate of the deceased spouse or partner must be distributed accordingly.
- (2) The reference in subsection (1)(a) to gifts to the surviving spouse or partner in the will of the deceased spouse or partner includes the whole of the interest of the surviving spouse or partner as a beneficiary in any real or personal property to which the surviving spouse or partner would otherwise be entitled under the will of the deceased spouse or partner.
- (3) The surviving spouse or partner has no entitlement under Part 3 of the Administration Act 1969.
- (4) This section is subject to section 77.

Section 76(3): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

77 Court may permit surviving spouse or partner to take under will or on intestacy

- (1) Despite section 76, if the court is satisfied that it is necessary to avoid injustice, the court may, on the application of a surviving spouse or partner who has chosen option A,—
- (a) order that the surviving spouse or partner may also receive all or any of the gifts to the surviving spouse or partner in the will of the deceased spouse or partner, as the court thinks fit;
 - (b) order that the surviving spouse or partner may also receive all or part of the beneficial interest to which the surviving spouse or partner is entitled on the intestacy or partial intestacy of the deceased spouse or partner, as the court thinks fit.

- (2) If the court makes an order under this section, the estate of the deceased spouse or partner must be distributed accordingly.
- (3) The court may not make an order under this section unless the application under this section is made before the final distribution of the estate of the deceased spouse or partner.

Section 77(3): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

78 Priority of entitlement of surviving spouse or partner

- (1) The entitlement of a surviving spouse or partner to any property or payment under an order or agreement made under this Act has priority over—
 - (a) any beneficial interest to which any person is entitled under the will (if any) of the deceased spouse or partner; and
 - (b) any beneficial interest to which any person is entitled on the intestacy or partial intestacy of the deceased spouse or partner; and
 - (c) any order made in respect of the estate of the deceased spouse or partner under the Family Protection Act 1955 or the Law Reform (Testamentary Promises) Act 1949; and
 - (d) all duties and fees payable in respect of the estate of the deceased spouse or partner under any Act imposing or charging duties or fees on the estate of the deceased person.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), the following have priority over the entitlement of a surviving spouse or partner under this Act to any property or payment:
 - (a) all debts properly incurred by the personal representative of the deceased spouse or partner in the ordinary course of administration of the estate of the deceased spouse or partner:
 - (b) the reasonable funeral expenses of the deceased spouse or partner.

79 Date at which shares determined

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, the share of a spouse or partner in the relationship property is to be determined as at the following date:
 - (a) if the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship ends while both spouses or partners are alive, the date on which the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship ends:
 - (b) if the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship does not end while both spouses or partners are alive, the date of the death of the deceased spouse or partner.
- (2) This section is subject to Part 6 and section 87.

80 Classification of property

- (1) This section applies where the classification of any property as relationship property or as any particular type of relationship property depends on the use to which it has been put.
- (2) Where this section applies, that classification is to be determined,—
 - (a) if the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship ends while both spouses or partners are alive, by the use to which they put the property while they lived together:
 - (b) if the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship does not end while both spouses or partners are alive, by the use to which they were putting the property at the date of the death of the deceased spouse or partner.

Section 80: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 61 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

81 Presumption that property of deceased spouse or partner is relationship property

- (1) All the property that was owned by the deceased spouse or partner at his or her death is presumed, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, to be relationship property.
- (2) A person who asserts that any property to which the presumption in subsection (1) applies is not relationship property has the burden of proving that assertion.
- (3) This section is subject to Part 6 and section 87.
- (4) Nothing in this section applies to property to which section 10(2) applies.

Section 81: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 61 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Section 81(1): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

82 Presumption that property acquired by estate of deceased spouse or partner is relationship property

- (1) Property acquired by the estate of the deceased spouse or partner, and the proceeds of a disposition of such property, and property acquired out of such property is presumed, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, to be relationship property.
- (2) A person who asserts that any property to which the presumption in subsection (1) applies is not relationship property has the burden of proving that assertion.
- (3) This section is subject to Part 6 and section 87.
- (4) Nothing in this section applies to property to which section 10(2) applies.

Section 82: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 61 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Section 82(1): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

83 Relationship property defined

- (1) If, on the death of a spouse or partner, any property of that spouse or partner passes to the surviving spouse or partner, whether by survivorship or otherwise (but not by succession), then unless, in any proceedings under this Act, the court decides otherwise,—
 - (a) that property is not automatically to be treated as the separate property of the surviving spouse or partner; and
 - (b) the status of the property as relationship property or separate property is to be determined according to the status it would have had if the deceased spouse or partner had not died.
- (2) This section is subject to Part 6 and section 87.

Section 83: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 61 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Section 83(1): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Section 83(1)(b): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

84 Separate property defined

All property acquired by the surviving spouse or partner after the death of the deceased spouse or partner is separate property unless the court considers that it is just in the circumstances to treat the property or any part of it as relationship property.

Section 84: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 61 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Section 84: amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(2) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

85 Marriages, civil unions, and de facto relationships of short duration

- (1) If a marriage or civil union was a relationship of short duration (as defined in section 2E), the share of the surviving spouse or civil union partner in the relationship property is determined in accordance with sections 11 to 13.
- (2) Section 14 applies to a marriage or civil union to which subsection (1) applies only if the court, having regard to all the circumstances of the marriage or civil union, considers that the application of sections 11 to 12 would be unjust.
- (3) If a de facto relationship is a relationship of short duration (as defined in section 2E), the court cannot make an order under this Act for the division of relationship property unless—
 - (a) the court is satisfied—
 - (i) that there is a child of the de facto relationship; or
 - (ii) that the surviving de facto partner or, on an application made by the deceased de facto partner's personal representative, the deceased de facto partner has made a substantial contribution to the de facto relationship; and
 - (b) the court is satisfied that failure to make the order would result in serious injustice.
- (4) If subsection (3) applies, and the court is satisfied that the grounds specified in that subsection for making an order on an application made under this Act are made out, the share of the surviving de facto partner and of the deceased de facto partner's estate in the relationship property is to be determined in accordance with the contribution of each de facto partner to the de facto relationship.

Section 85: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 61 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Section 85 heading: amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(4) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Section 85(1): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(4) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

Section 85(2): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(4) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

86 Compensation for actions after separation or death

- (1) If this Part applies, then for the purposes of sections 18B and 18C, relevant period means,—
 - (a) if the spouses or partners cease to live together while both are alive, the period after they cease to live together but before the date of the hearing of an application under this Act by the court of first instance:

- (b) if the spouses or partners do not cease to live together while both are alive, the period after the death of the deceased spouse or partner but before the date of the hearing of an application under this Act by the court of first instance.
- (2) The court may exercise the power in section 18B(2) if, during the relevant period, one of the spouses or partners or the personal representative of the deceased spouse or partner has done anything that would have been a contribution to the marriage, civil union, or de facto relationship if the spouses or partners had not ceased to live together or if one of them had not died.
- (3) The court may exercise the power in section 18C(2) if, during the relevant period, the relationship property has been materially diminished in value by the deliberate action or inaction of—
 - (a) the personal representative of the deceased spouse or partner; or
 - (b) the surviving spouse or partner.

87 Surviving spouse or partner may challenge agreement

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) the spouses or partners make an agreement under section 21 defining the share of the relationship property or any part of it that each is entitled to on the death of one of them; and
 - (b) one of them dies.
- (2) If this section applies,—
 - (a) the surviving spouse or partner may apply to the court—
 - (i) to have the agreement declared void for non-compliance with a requirement of section 21F:

- (ii) to have the agreement set aside under section 21J; and
 - (b) the surviving spouse or partner may make the application either before or after exercising the option in section 61.
- (3) In deciding, under section 21J, whether giving effect to an agreement to which this section applies would cause serious injustice, the court must have regard, in addition to all other relevant circumstances, to whether the estate of the deceased spouse or partner has been wholly or partly distributed.
- (4) This section is subject to section 47.

88 Who can apply

- (1) The following persons may apply for an order under section 25(1)(a) or (b) or an order or declaration under section 25(3):
- (a) the surviving spouse or partner:
 - (b) any person on whom conflicting claims in respect of property are made by the surviving spouse or partner and the personal representative of the deceased spouse or partner.
- (2) The personal representative of the deceased spouse or partner may, with the leave of the court, apply for an order under section 25(1)(a). The court may grant leave only if it is satisfied that refusing leave would cause serious injustice.
- (3) The following persons may apply for an order under section 25(1)(b) or an order or declaration under section 25(3):
- (a) the personal representative of the deceased spouse or partner:
 - (b) the Official Assignee in bankruptcy of the property of either spouse or partner:
 - (c) an appointee (within the meaning of section 378(1) of the Insolvency Act 2006) in whom the estate of a deceased spouse or partner vests on an order being made under section 379 of that Act.
- (4) Subsection (2) is subject to section 12 of the Succession (Homicide) Act 2007.

89 Time for commencement of proceedings

- (1) Proceedings may be commenced after the death of one of the spouses or partners if,—
- (a) at the date of the death of the deceased spouse or partner, the spouses or partners are living together; or
 - (b) in the case of de facto partners, at the date of the death of the deceased de facto partner, the de facto partners are not living together; or
 - (c) in the case of spouses or civil union partners, at the date of the death of the deceased spouse or civil union partner the following circumstances exist:
 - (i) the spouses or civil union partners are not living together; and
 - (ii) the marriage or civil union has not been dissolved by an order dissolving the marriage or civil union, and an order has not been made declaring the marriage or civil union to be void ab initio; or
 - (d) in the case of spouses or civil union partners, at the date of the death of the deceased spouse or civil union partner the following circumstances exist:
 - (i) the spouses or civil union partners are not living together; and
 - (ii) the marriage or civil union has been dissolved by an order dissolving the marriage or civil union, or an order declaring the marriage or civil union to be void ab initio has been made; and
 - (iii) not more than 12 months have elapsed since the taking effect as a final order of the order dissolving the marriage or civil union or the date of the making of the order declaring the marriage or civil union to be void ab initio; or

- (e) in the case of spouses or civil union partners, at the date of the death of the deceased spouse or civil union partner the following circumstances exist:
- (i) the spouses or civil union partners are not living together; and
 - (ii) the marriage or civil union has been dissolved by an order dissolving the marriage or civil union, or an order declaring the marriage or civil union to be void ab initio has been made; and
 - (iii) more than 12 months have elapsed since the taking effect as a final order of the order dissolving the marriage or civil union or the date of the making of the order declaring the marriage or civil union to be void ab initio, but, either before or after the deceased spouse's or civil union partner's death, the court grants an extension under section 24(2).
- (2) The court's power to grant an extension under section 24(2) extends to cases where the time for making an application expired before the commencement, on 1 February 2002, of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001.

Section 89: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 61 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Section 89(1): replaced, on 26 April 2005, by section 3(4) of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2005 (2005 No 19).

90 Time limits for commencing proceedings

- (1) Proceedings must be commenced within the following time limits:
- (a) if the estate of the deceased spouse or partner is a small estate (as defined in section 2), the proceedings must be commenced—
 - (i) no later than 12 months after the date of the death of the deceased spouse or partner; or
 - (ii) if administration of the estate is granted in New Zealand within that period, no later than 12 months after the grant of administration,—whichever is the later:
 - (b) in any other case, the proceedings must be commenced no later than 12 months after administration of the estate of the deceased spouse or partner is granted in New Zealand.
- (2) Regardless of subsection (1), but subject to subsection (3), the court may extend the time for commencing proceedings after hearing—
- (a) the applicant; and
 - (b) any other persons who have an interest in the property that would be affected by the order sought and who the court considers should be heard.

- (3) The court's power under this section extends to cases where the time for commencing proceedings has already expired, including cases where it expired before the commencement, on 1 February 2002, of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001.
- (4) The court may not grant an extension of time under subsection (2) unless the application for the extension is made before the final distribution of the estate of the deceased spouse or partner.

91 Qualifications on application of sections 25 to 34 and 43 to 44F

- (1) The court must not make an order in proceedings commenced after the death of one of the spouses or partners unless it is satisfied that one of the spouses or partners has died.
- (2) When the court makes an order under section 27(1), the surviving spouse or partner is entitled personally to occupy the family home or other premises to which the order relates, to the exclusion of any other person who would otherwise be entitled to occupy the family home or those premises.
- (3) The court may not make an order under section 28 in favour of a surviving spouse or partner unless,—
 - (a) at the time of the making of the order, the tenancy of the dwellinghouse is vested in the personal representative of the deceased spouse or partner; and
 - (b) either—
 - (i) at the time of the making of the order, the surviving spouse or partner is residing in the dwellinghouse; or
 - (ii) at the date of the death of the deceased spouse or partner, the deceased spouse or partner was the sole tenant of the dwellinghouse, or was a tenant in common with the surviving spouse or partner.

94 Incidence of orders against personal representative of spouse or partner

- (1) This section applies when—
 - (a) proceedings are commenced after the death of one of the spouses or partners; and
 - (b) the court makes an order under this Act against the personal representative of the deceased spouse or partner.
- (2) The incidence of any order made under this Act by the court against the personal representative of a deceased spouse or partner falls rateably upon such part of the estate of the deceased as consists of relationship property.
- (3) However, the court may order that the incidence of the order—
 - (a) falls rateably on the whole estate of the deceased; or
 - (b) falls on any specified portion of the estate or on any specified property.
- (4) Where the court makes any order under subsection (3),—

- (a) the court has power to exonerate any part of the estate of the deceased from the incidence of the order made under this Act, after hearing such of the parties who may be affected by the exoneration as the court thinks necessary, and may for that purpose direct any personal representative to represent, or appoint any person to represent, any such party:
 - (b) the court has power at any time to fix a periodical payment or lump sum to be paid by any beneficiary in the estate of the deceased to represent, or in commutation of, any liability under the order that falls upon the portion of the estate in which he or she is interested, and to exonerate that portion from further liability and to direct in what manner the payment is to be secured.
- (5) For the purposes of subsections (2) to (4), in cases where the authority of the court does not extend and cannot directly or indirectly be made to extend to the whole estate, the estate of the deceased includes only so much of it as is subject to the authority of the court.
- (6) Where the court makes any order under this Act against the personal representative of a deceased spouse or partner (other than an order made under section 27 or section 28), the property comprised in that order does not form part of the estate of the deceased for the purposes of the Law Reform (Testamentary Promises) Act 1949 or the Family Protection Act 1955.

Effect of choice of will or intestacy (option B)

Heading: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 61 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

95 Effect on application of Act of choice of will or intestacy

- (1) If the surviving spouse or partner chooses option B, nothing in this Act (other than sections 20 to 20F or sections 58 and 59) applies to the distribution of property under the will of the deceased spouse or partner or under Part 3 of the Administration Act 1969.
- (2) To avoid any doubt, the fact that a surviving spouse or partner chooses, or is treated as having chosen, option B does not prevent that person from disclaiming any interest as a beneficiary in any real or personal property to which he or she is entitled under the will of the deceased spouse or partner or under Part 3 of the Administration Act 1969.

Part 9

Transitional provisions and savings

Part 9: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 61 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

Transitional provisions

Heading: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 61 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

96 Transitional provisions applying on and from 1 February 1977

- (1) If an application relates to the relationship property of a marriage that took place before 1 February 1977, the court must, in dealing with the application, have regard to any agreement entered into before 1 February 1977 by the parties to the marriage. This subsection applies despite Part 6, but is subject to section 98(3).
- (2) If—
 - (a) proceedings were commenced under the Matrimonial Property Act 1963 or Part 8 of the Matrimonial Proceedings Act 1963 before 1 February 1977; and
 - (b) the hearing of the proceedings commenced before 1 February 1977,— the proceedings continue as if this Act had not been passed, unless the parties agree to the proceedings continuing under this Act.
- (3) If—
 - (a) proceedings were commenced under the Matrimonial Property Act 1963 or Part 8 of the Matrimonial Proceedings Act 1963 before 1 February 1977; and
 - (b) the hearing of the proceedings had not commenced before 1 February 1977,— the proceedings continue under this Act.
- (4) Proceedings commenced before 1 February 1977 that are continued under this Act are continued as if the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 had not been passed.

Section 96: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 61 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

97 Transitional provisions applying on and from 1 February 2002

- (1) If—
 - (a) proceedings were commenced on or after 1 February 1977 and before 1 February 2002; and
 - (b) the hearing of the proceedings commenced before 1 February 2002,— the proceedings continue as if the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 had not been passed, unless the parties agree to the proceedings being continued under this Act as amended by the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001.
- (2) If—
 - (a) proceedings were commenced on or after 1 February 1977 and before 1 February 2002; and
 - (b) the hearing of the proceedings had not commenced before 1 February 2002,— the proceedings continue under this Act as amended by the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001.
- (3) If proceedings were commenced under the Matrimonial Property Act 1963 on or after 1 February 1977 and before 1 February 2002 by—
 - (a) the surviving spouse against the deceased spouse’s personal representative; or
 - (b) the deceased spouse’s personal representative against the surviving spouse; or
 - (c) the personal representative of one spouse against the personal representative of the other spouse,— the proceedings continue as if this Act had not repealed the Matrimonial Property Act 1963, whether or not the hearing of the proceedings commenced before 1 February 2002.
- (4) If, before 1 February 2002,—
 - (a) proceedings were commenced while both spouses were alive; and
 - (b) the hearing of the proceedings did not commence; and
 - (c) one spouse dies or both spouses die,—
the proceedings continue under this Act, except sections 61 to 95, as amended by the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001, as if the spouse or spouses had not died.
- (5) If, before 1 February 2002,—
 - (a) proceedings were commenced while both spouses were alive; and

- (b) the hearing of the proceedings commenced; and
- (c) one spouse dies or both spouses die,—

the proceedings continue under this Act, as if this Act had not been amended by the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001, and as if the spouse or spouses had not died.

- (6) If proceedings were commenced in the High Court before 1 February 2002, the proceedings continue in that court, whether or not the hearing of the proceedings commenced before 1 February 2002.

Section 97: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 61 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

97A Transitional provisions applying in respect of section 2BAA

- (1) In this section, specified date means the date of commencement of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2008.
- (2) Where the hearing of any proceedings in which the duration of a civil union is in issue commenced before the specified date, the proceedings continue as if section 2BAA had not been passed.
- (3) Where the hearing of any proceedings in which the duration of a civil union is in issue commenced after the specified date, the proceedings continue as if section 2BAA had been passed.

Section 97A: inserted, on 18 May 2009, by section 7 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2008 (2008 No 83).

Savings

Heading: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 61 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

98 Savings applying on and from 1 February 1977

- (1) Nothing in this Act affects any order made before 1 February 1977 under section 41 or section 44 of the Matrimonial Proceedings Act 1963, and the provisions of that Act have effect in relation to any such order as if this Act had not been passed.
- (2) Nothing in this Act invalidates any payment made or any act or thing done in good faith before 1 February 1977 by the personal representative of a deceased spouse.
- (3) Nothing in this Act affects the validity of any agreement entered into before 1 February 1977 by way of settlement of any question that has arisen in relation to relationship property, and every such agreement has effect as if this Act had not been passed.

Section 98: inserted, on 1 February 2002, by section 61 of the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 (2001 No 5).

99 Savings applying on and from 1 February 2002

Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2013

Public Act	2013 No 48
Date of assent	15 July 2013
Commencement	see section 2

1 Title

This Act is the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2013.

2 Commencement

- (1) This Act comes into force on a date to be appointed by the Governor-General by Order in Council, and 1 or more orders may be made appointing different dates for different provisions.
- (2) If any provision of this Act has not earlier been brought into force under subsection (1), it comes into force on the day that is 1 year after the date on which this Act receives the Royal assent.

3 Principal Act

This Act amends the Property (Relationships) Act 1976 (the principal Act).

5 Transitional provisions relating to reimbursement of costs of court-appointed counsel

- (1) Section 37A(3) and (4) of the principal Act, as in force before the commencement of section 4 of this Act, continue to apply to proceedings commenced before the commencement of section 4.
- (2) This subsection applies to—
 - (a) any order made under section 37A(3) of the principal Act as in force before the commencement of section 4, but only if, before that commencement, no steps had been taken to enforce that order; and
 - (b) any order made, after that commencement, under section 37A(3) of the principal Act as continued by subsection (1).
- (3) Despite subsection (1), in relation to any orders to which subsection (2) applies, section 37A(4) of the principal Act, as continued by subsection (1), must be read as if for the words “by order of the court in the same manner as a judgment of that court” there were substituted the words “in the same manner as a judgment of the court”.

Notes

1 General

This is a consolidation of the Property (Relationships) Act 1976 that incorporates the amendments made to the legislation so that it shows the law as at its stated date.

2 Legal status

A consolidation is taken to correctly state, as at its stated date, the law enacted or made by the legislation consolidated and by the amendments. This presumption applies unless the contrary is shown.

Section 78 of the Legislation Act 2019 provides that this consolidation, published as an electronic version, is an official version. A printed version of legislation that is produced directly from this official electronic version is also an official version.

3 Editorial and format changes

The Parliamentary Counsel Office makes editorial and format changes to consolidations using the powers under subpart 2 of Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019. See also PCO editorial conventions for consolidations.
