An Act to amend the Education Lands Act 1949

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Short Title

This Act may be cited as the Education Lands Amendment Act 1979, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Education Lands Act 1949 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

2 Licensees may improve sites

Section 6B of the principal Act (as inserted by section 4 of the Education Lands Amendment Act 1975) is hereby amended by adding the following subsection:

“(4) Without limiting the generality of section 6A of this Act or subsection (1) of this section, it is hereby declared that a licence may provide for the removal from the school site or building concerned, on the expiry or determination of the licence, of any building, facility, appliance, or thing built, provided, or installed by him; and in that case that building, facility, appliance, or thing may be so removed accordingly.”

3 Vesting of land in University, etc., for educational purposes, and varying of educational trusts

(1) Section 15 of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing subsection (1), and substituting the following subsection:

“(1) The Governor-General may, by Order in Council, declare that any land for the time being vested in Her Majesty for an educational purpose shall be vested in any University, Agricultural College, Education Board, high school trustees, Kindergarten Association or Union, or other incorporated body named in the Order, to be held upon trust for the same educational purpose as that for which the land was vested in Her Majesty; and thereupon the land shall be deemed to have been transferred to the body concerned in trust for the purpose specified in the Order.”

(2) Section 24 of the Statutes Amendment Act 1951 is hereby consequentially repealed.

This is administered in the Department of Education.
