- (1) The principal Act is hereby further amended by repealing section 3, and substituting the following section:

“3

- “(2) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (1) of this section—
- “(a) The eligible savings in relation to any Ordinary Home Ownership Account shall not exceed the total amount of $10,250 or such greater amount as may be specified from time to time by the Governor-General by Order in Council:
 - “(b) Subject to subsections (4) and (5) of this section, no sum of money deposited in or credited to an Ordinary Home Ownership Account shall qualify as eligible savings in relation to that Account until a period of not less than 3 months has elapsed from and including the date on which that sum was deposited in or credited to the Account:
 - “(c) Where any sum or sums of money amounting in all to a sum in excess of $3,000 is or are, in any qualifying year applicable to any Ordinary Home Ownership Account, deposited in or credited to that Account then, for the purposes of this Act, the whole of the excess shall be deemed to have been deposited in the Account immediately upon the commencement of the next qualifying year (if any) applicable to the Account.

- “(3) Where any amount is withdrawn from the Ordinary Home Ownership Account of any depositor at any date—
- “(a) Where that date is during any qualifying year, the amount of the eligible savings in the Account at that date and at all earlier dates shall be reduced by the amount of the withdrawal; and

- “(5) Where a depositor withdraws the whole or any part of the money standing to the depositor’s credit in the depositor’s Ordinary Home Ownership Account to be used by the depositor as a deposit under a conditional agreement to acquire a dwelling, and the agreement fails to become binding and the depositor restores all or part of the amount of the withdrawal into that Account as soon as practicable, the amount of the withdrawal, to the extent to which it has been so restored, shall be deemed not to have been withdrawn from the Account for the purpose of calculating the amount of the depositor’s eligible savings if, in relation to each such conditional contract respectively, the depositor has made only one withdrawal from the depositor’s Account.”
