1982, No. 112

An Act to amend the Customs Acts

[26 November 1982]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Customs Acts Amendment Act (No. 2) 1982.

PART I

CUSTOMS

2. This Part to be read with Customs Act 1966—This Part of this Act shall be read together with and deemed part of the Customs Act 1966 (in this Part referred to as the principal Act).

3. Interpretation—(1) Section 2 (1) of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing the definition of the term “gross tonnage” (as inserted by section 2 of the Customs Amendment Act 1976 and amended by section 11 (2) of the Customs Acts Amendment Act (No. 2) 1977).

(2) Section 2 (1) of the principal Act is hereby further amended by inserting, after the definition of the term “tobacco”, the following definition:

“‘Tonnage’, in relation to any ship, means the tonnage determined in accordance with section 100 of the Harbours Act 1950.”

(3) Section 2 of the Customs Amendment Act 1976 and section 11 (2) of the Customs Acts Amendment Act (No. 2) 1977 are hereby consequentially repealed.

4. Ships to proceed as directed—Section 42 (1) of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing subsection (1), and substituting the following subsection:

“(1) The master of every ship arriving at any port from any country outside New Zealand shall cause his ship to proceed directly to a wharf or, if so directed by the Collector or other proper officer of Customs, to the boarding station appointed for that port under this Act, and shall by all reasonable means facilitate the safe access to and egress from the ship by the officers of Customs.”

5. Manufacturing warehouse licence—Section 80A (1) of the principal Act (as inserted by section 5 of the Customs Acts Amendment Act (No. 2) 1975) is hereby amended by omitting the words “spirituous liquor of a kind not produced by the process of distillation or fermentation”, and substituting the words “such liquor, other than by a process involving distillation or fermentation”.

6. Restrictions on use of warehouses—Section 92 of the principal Act is hereby amended by omitting the words “manufacturing warehouse for the purpose of manufacture”, and substituting the word “warehouse”.

7. Application of Tariff—Section 120 of the principal Act (as substituted by section 5 of the Customs Acts Amendment Act (No. 2) 1977) is hereby amended by repealing subsection (4), and substituting the following subsection:

“(4) Where, by any Order in Council made under subsection (3) of this section, any country is declared to be a developing country for the purposes of this Act, the Governor-General may by the same or any subsequent Order in Council—

“(a) Declare that, in relation to any specified Tariff items, any rates of duty or exemptions from duty otherwise applicable to developing countries shall not apply to that country:

“(b) Modify the Tariff rates of duty applicable to goods from that country, in whole or in part, but so that such modification shall not have the effect of imposing on any goods a higher duty than set forth in respect of those goods in the Normal Tariff.”

8. Variations of duties under powers of direction or approval—Section 122 (1) of the principal Act (as substituted by section 6 (1) of the Customs Acts Amendment Act (No. 2) 1977) is hereby amended—

(a) By omitting the words “other than goods”:

(b) By omitting the words “a rate of 25 percent ad valorem”, and substituting the words “the rate which would otherwise be payable if no approval or direction had been given”.

9. Dumping duty—(1) Section 129 (14) (a) of the principal Act (as added by section 4 of the Customs Amendment Act 1981) is hereby amended by omitting from subparagraph (i) of the proviso the words “or because of any special arrangement concerning the export of the goods or the exclusive right to their sale within certain territorial limits, or because of any royalty payable on patent rights but not payable when goods are so exported.”

(2) Section 129 (14) (a) of the principal Act (as so added) is hereby further amended by adding to the proviso the following subparagraph:

“(iv) The value of such goods shall be adjusted by the Minister to take account of differences (if any) in terms and conditions of sale, taxation, or other factors which affect a comparison with the export selling price of the goods.”

10. Blank invoices—(1) The principal Act is hereby amended by repealing section 139 (as substituted by section 9 of the Customs Acts Amendment Act (No. 2) 1979).

(2) The Customs Acts Amendment Act (No. 2) 1979 is hereby consequentially amended by repealing section 9.

11. Patrolling sea coast and inspecting aerodromes—Section 210 (a) of the principal Act (as substituted by section 3 of the Customs Acts Amendment Act (No. 2) 1974) is hereby amended by omitting the words “including any Customs containerbase, examining places, wharfs, and transit buildings thereon, immediately adjoining the seashore or such shores or banks”, and substituting the words “and any Customs containerbase, examining place, wharf, and transit building”.

12. Conveyance of goods subject to the control of the Customs—Section 236 (2) of the principal Act (as amended by section 37 of the Customs Acts Amendment Act (No. 2) 1977) is hereby further amended by inserting, after paragraph (c), the following paragraph:

“(ca) Vehicles that are subject to the control of the Customs and are driven by the importer or the exporter or the agent of either; or”.

13. Power of Collector to deal with petty offences—(1) Section 266 of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing subsection (1) (as substituted by section 10 of the Customs Acts Amendment Act (No. 2) 1979), and substituting the following subsection:

“(1) This section applies to any offence against this Act or, in relation to imported goods, against the Sales Tax Act 1974 that is committed in relation to any goods the value of which does not exceed $500 or on which any duty payable under this Act, or any sales tax payable under the Sales Tax Act 1974, does not exceed $500.”

(2) Section 266 (2) of the principal Act is hereby amended by omitting the expression “$50”, and substituting the expression “$200”.

(3) The Customs Acts Amendment Act (No. 2) 1979 is hereby consequentially amended by repealing section 10.

14. Payment of rewards to informers—Section 268 of the principal Act (as substituted by section 10 (1) of the Customs Acts Amendment Act (No. 2) 1976) is hereby amended by inserting, after the words “in relation to any such goods”, the words, “or to the recovery of any money properly due to the Crown under the Customs Acts”.

15. Vessels, vehicles, aircraft, and animals forfeited—(1) Section 272 of the principal Act (as substituted by section 11 (1) of the Customs Acts Amendment Act (No. 2) 1979) is hereby amended by omitting the words “gross tonnage that does not exceed 50 tons”, and substituting the words “tonnage that does not exceed 250 tons”.

(2) Section 273 of the principal Act (as amended by section 11 (2) of the Customs Acts Amendment Act (No. 2) 1979) is hereby further amended by omitting the words “gross tonnage that does not exceed 50 tons”, and substituting the words “tonnage that does not exceed 250 tons”.

16. Seizure of forfeited goods—Section 275 (4) of the principal Act is hereby amended by adding the following proviso:

“Provided that goods which are forfeited by virtue of their being restricted goods may be so seized at any time after the cause of forfeiture has arisen.”

17. Penalties—The provisions of the principal Act specified in the Schedule to this Act are hereby amended in the manner indicated in that Schedule.

PART II

SALES TAX

18. This Part to be read with Sales Tax Act 1974—This Part of this Act is to be read together with and deemed part of the Sales Tax Act 1974 (in this Part referred to as the principal Act).

19. Interpretation—Section 2 (1) of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing the definition of the expression “retailer”, and substituting the following definition:

“ ‘Retailer’ means a person (not being a wholesaler) who, whether exclusively or not, engages in the trade or business of selling goods:”.

20. Liquidator of company to give notice of winding up, and to provide for payment of tax—Section 45 of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing subsection (4), and substituting the following subsection:

“(4) Notwithstanding anything in this section, the liquidator shall, before setting aside and paying to the Collector any sum out of the assets to provide for any sales tax in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this section, retain such sums as may be necessary for the payment of—

“(a) The costs and expenses of the winding up; and

“(b) The preferential debts set out in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (ca) of subsection (1) of section 308 of the Companies Act 1955:

“Provided that the sum retained under this paragraph shall be subject to subsections (2), (3), (4), and (5) of the said section 308.”

21. Credit for sales tax paid on goods or materials purchased—Section 49 (1) of the principal Act (as substituted by section 8 of the Customs Acts Amendment Act (No. 2) 1974) is hereby amended by inserting in paragraph (a) and also in paragraph (b), before the words “goods purchased”, in each case the word “taxable”.

22. Penalties increased—(1) Section 11 of the principal Act (as amended by section 15 of the Customs Acts Amendment Act (No. 2) 1979) is hereby further amended by omitting the expression “$200”, and substituting the expression “$400”.

(2) Section 29 (3) of the principal Act is hereby amended by omitting the words “$200 or the amount of the sale value of the taxable goods”, and substituting the words “$500 or the amount of the total tax payable”.
