Title [Repealed]

Title: repealed, on 25 June 2020, by section 4 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

1 Short Title and commencement

- (1) This Act may be cited as the Arms Act 1983.
- (2) This Act shall come into force on 1 June 1984.

Part 1
Preliminary provisions

Part 1 heading: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 5 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

1A Purposes of this Act

- (1) The purposes of this Act are to—
 - (a) promote the safe possession and use of firearms and other weapons; and
 - (b) impose controls on the possession and use of firearms and other weapons.
- (2) The regulatory regime established by this Act to achieve those purposes reflects the following principles:
 - (a) that the possession and use of arms is a privilege; and
 - (b) that persons authorised to import, manufacture, supply, sell, possess, or use arms have a responsibility to act in the interests of personal and public safety.

Section 1A: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 5 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

2 Interpretation

- (1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

A dealer's licence shall be personal to the person to whom it is issued, and shall not be transferable or vest by operation of law in any person other than the person to whom it is issued.

6A Conditions of dealer's licence

- (1) Every dealer's licence is issued subject to the conditions that any person who is in possession of a pistol, pistol carbine conversion kit, restricted weapon (other than an air pistol), prohibited firearm, or prohibited magazine by virtue of that licence must—
 - (a) produce that pistol, pistol carbine conversion kit, restricted weapon (other than an air pistol), prohibited firearm, or prohibited magazine to any member of the Police on demand; and
 - (b) permit the member of the Police to inspect the pistol, pistol carbine conversion kit, restricted weapon (other than an air pistol), prohibited firearm, or prohibited magazine and the place where it is kept, and, for that purpose, to enter at all reasonable times upon the premises where the place is situated.
- (2) It is the duty of every member of the Police exercising any power conferred by subsection (1)—
 - (a) to identify themselves to the person in possession of the pistol, pistol carbine conversion kit, restricted weapon, prohibited firearm, or prohibited magazine; and

- (b) to tell the person in possession of the pistol, pistol carbine conversion kit, restricted weapon, prohibited firearm, or prohibited magazine that the power is being exercised under subsection (1); and
- (c) if they are not in uniform, to produce on initial entry, and, if requested, at any subsequent time, evidence that they are a member of the Police.

Section 6A(1)(a): amended, on 25 June 2020, by section 13(2) of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

Section 6A(1)(b): amended, on 25 June 2020, by section 13(3) of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

Section 6A(2)(a): amended, on 25 June 2020, by section 13(4) of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

Section 6A(2)(b): amended, on 25 June 2020, by section 13(4) of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

7 Place of business

- (1) A dealer's licence may be issued in respect of 1 place of business only, and that place of business must be specified in the licence.
- (2) Subsection (1) is subject to subsections (3) to (5).
- (3) A dealer may be issued with a dealer's licence authorising the dealer to operate from more than 1 place of business if, at each of those places of business, there is a manager holding a dealer's licence.
- (4) Any firearms, prohibited magazines, and restricted weapons in the possession of a dealer may be handled at any site in addition to the place of business specified in the dealer's licence if the dealer hires out those items for use by a broadcaster, bona fide theatre company or society or cinematic or television film production company or video recording production company and—
 - (a) the handling and secure storage of the items at that site are supervised by a theatrical armourer; and
 - (b) the armourer has a firearms licence endorsed under section 30(1)(c) or 30B(3) and the endorsement specifies—
 - (i) that the items may be handled at sites other than the dealer's place of business; and
 - (ii) that the armourer must hold written consent from a member of the Police that specifies the location of the site and the duration and description of the theatrical production at that site.
- (5) A dealer may, on an occasional basis, carry on dealer activities from places additional to the place of business specified in their dealer's licence if a condition to which their licence is subject permits them to do so.

- (6) For the purpose of subsection (4)(b), a dealer's licence may be issued with a condition described in that provision and other conditions necessary to provide for the safe use and secure storage of the firearms concerned.

Section 7: replaced, on 25 June 2020, by section 15 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

7A Gun shows

- (1) Notwithstanding anything in section 7, a dealer's licence may, with the consent of a commissioned officer of Police, apply from time to time, for a period not exceeding 5 days at any one time, in respect of a place of business other than the place of business in respect of which the dealer's licence was issued.
- (2) A commissioned officer of Police may give his or her consent under subsection (1) only if satisfied—
- (a) that the licensed dealer will, during the period in respect of which the consent is sought, use the place of business in respect of which the consent is sought only for the purposes of conducting a gun show; and
 - (b) that the security of the place of business in respect of which the consent is sought will be sufficient.
- (3) Any consent given under subsection (1) may be given subject to any conditions specified by the commissioned officer of Police.

Section 7A(4): repealed, on 25 June 2020, by section 16(3) of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

8 Duration of dealer's licence

- (1) A dealer's licence comes into force on the date it is issued.
- (2) A dealer's licence expires 12 months after the date it comes into force unless it is surrendered or revoked earlier.

Section 8: replaced, on 25 June 2020, by section 17 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

8A Renewal of dealer's licence

- (1) A dealer's licence may from time to time be renewed.
- (2) An application for renewal of a dealer's licence must be made before the licence expires.
- (3) Sections 5A, 5B, and 6 to 8 apply to an application for renewal of a dealer's licence as if the application were an application for a new dealer's licence.

- (4) If an application for renewal of a dealer's licence has been made but not determined before the date on which the licence would otherwise expire, the licence continues in force until the application is determined.
- (5) The renewal of a licence takes effect from the date of expiry of the previous licence.

8B Surrender of dealer's licence

A dealer may at any time surrender their dealer's licence to a member of the Police.

Section 8B: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 17 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

8C Effect of expiry or surrender of dealer's licence

- (1) If a dealer's licence expires or is surrendered,—
 - (a) the dealer ceases to be licensed to carry on any dealer activity; and
 - (b) an employee of the dealer may not carry on or assist with the carrying on of any dealer activity on behalf of the dealer; and
 - (c) the dealer must immediately surrender to a member of the Police all records they are required by section 12 to keep that have not been entered in the registry.
- (2) A dealer commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a term of imprisonment not exceeding 6 months, or to a fine not exceeding $10,000, if the dealer, without reasonable excuse, contravenes this section.

Section 8C: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 17 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

9 Revocation of dealer's licence

- (1) A dealer's licence is immediately revoked if the holder's firearms licence is revoked.
- (2) A dealer's licence may be revoked at any time by the Commissioner.

9A Revocation of suspended dealer's licence

- (1) A commissioned officer of Police may, by notice in writing to the holder of a dealer's licence that is temporarily suspended under section 60A, revoke the licence if the commissioned officer of Police—
 - (a) has considered any submissions made by the holder before the day stated in the notice of suspension on whether the licence should be revoked on the ground stated in that notice; and
 - (b) is satisfied that the licence should be revoked on that ground.
- (2) A commissioned officer of Police must give the holder written notice of a decision on whether to revoke a dealer's licence temporarily suspended under section 60A promptly after the decision is made.

9B Effect of revocation of dealer's licence

- (1) When a dealer's licence is revoked,—
 - (a) the dealer ceases to be licensed to carry on any dealer activity and must immediately surrender their dealer's licence to a member of the Police; and
 - (b) an employee of the dealer may not carry on or assist with the carrying on of any dealer activity on behalf of the dealer; and
 - (c) the dealer must immediately surrender to a member of the Police all records they are required by section 12 to keep that have not been entered in the registry.
- (2) A dealer commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a term of imprisonment not exceeding 6 months, or to a fine not exceeding $10,000, if the dealer, without reasonable excuse, contravenes this section.

Section 9B: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 18 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

10 Restriction on possession of prohibited firearms, prohibited magazines, pistols, restricted weapons, and pistol carbine conversion kits

- (1) A licensed dealer may not take an arms item that is a prohibited firearm, prohibited magazine, pistol, restricted weapon, or pistol carbine conversion kit into their possession for the purpose of carrying on a dealer activity unless the licensed dealer—
 - (a) is the holder of a dealer's licence that—
 - (i) specifies that the dealer may carry on that activity in respect of a prohibited firearm, prohibited magazine, pistol, restricted weapon, or pistol carbine conversion kit; and
 - (ii) bears an appropriate endorsement made under section 30 or 30B; and
 - (b) either—
 - (i) obtains the arms item under—
 - (A) a permit to import issued under section 18 or 18AA; or
 - (B) a permit to possess issued under section 35, 35A, or 35AAA; or
 - (ii) manufactures it with the written approval of the Commissioner under section 6B(2).
- (2) A licensed dealer may not take a prohibited part into their possession for the purpose of carrying on a dealer activity unless the dealer obtains it—
 - (a) from a holder of a firearms licence that bears an endorsement made under section 30B permitting the holder to possess a prohibited firearm; or

- (b) under a permit issued under section 18; or
 - (c) from another licensed dealer whose dealer's licence bears an endorsement made under section 30B permitting the dealer to possess a prohibited firearm.
- (3) A person commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, or to a fine not exceeding $10,000, if the person, without reasonable excuse, contravenes subsection (1) or (2).
- (4) Subsection (3) is subject to section 59A(1).

Section 10(3): replaced, on 25 June 2020, by section 19(3) of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

11 Employees of licensed dealer to hold firearms licence bearing appropriate endorsements

- (1) An employee of a licensed dealer must not assist with carrying on any dealer activity unless the employee holds a firearms licence.
- (2) If the employee's duties include the carrying on of a dealer activity in respect of pistols, pistol carbine conversion kits, restricted weapons, prohibited firearms, or prohibited magazines, the employee's firearms licence must also bear appropriate endorsements made under section 30 or 30B that authorise the employee to possess any such items in connection with their duties as an employee of the licensed dealer.
- (3) A person commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 if the person, without reasonable excuse, contravenes this section.

Section 11: replaced, on 25 June 2020, by section 20 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

12 Record of dealings by licensed dealers

- (1) Every licensed dealer shall keep at the place of business referred to in his licence a book in which he shall record such particulars as may be prescribed by regulations made under this Act, relating to the receipt, sale, or manufacture by him of any firearms, airguns, pistols, prohibited items, or restricted weapons.
- (2) Every licensed dealer shall at all times—
- (a) permit any member of the Police to inspect and make copies of any entries in the book so kept by him pursuant to subsection (1); and

- (b) afford, on demand, to any member of the Police all further information in his possession with respect to any dealings by him relating to firearms, airguns, pistols, prohibited items, or restricted weapons; and
 - (c) permit any member of the Police to inspect—
 - (i) any firearms, airguns, pistols, prohibited items, or restricted weapons in his possession; and
 - (ii) the premises in which, and the conditions under which, his stock of firearms, airguns, pistols, prohibited items, or restricted weapons is kept.
- (3) Every licensed dealer commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $500 who acts in contravention of subsection (1) or subsection (2).
- (4) Subsection (3) is subject to section 59A(2).

13 Seizure of items held by licensed dealer

- (1) Any member of the Police may, on being authorised to do so by warrant under the hand of the Commissioner, seize and take possession of all or any arms items and ammunition in the possession of or under the control of a licensed dealer.
- (2) For the purpose of executing a warrant issued under subsection (1), the member of the Police authorised by that warrant may enter into or upon any land or building in or upon which any such arms items and ammunition may be, and in so doing may use such force as may be necessary.
- (3) It is the duty of everyone executing a warrant issued under subsection (1)—
 - (a) to have it with him; and
 - (b) to produce it on initial entry and, if requested, at any subsequent time; and
 - (c) if he is not in uniform, to produce on initial entry and, if requested, at any subsequent time, evidence that he is a member of the Police.

- (4) Subject to section 14, all arms items and ammunition seized under this section may be detained by the Police for such period as the Commissioner thinks fit, or may, in the discretion of the Minister of Police, become the property of the Crown, free and discharged from all right, title, estate, or interest possessed in respect thereof by any other person.
- (5) The Minister of Finance must pay out of a Crown Bank Account compensation in respect of all arms items and ammunition seized under this section that have become the property of the Crown.

14 Disposal of items of dealer if licence expires or is surrendered or revoked

- (1) If a dealer's licence has expired or has been surrendered or revoked, the dealer may, within 3 months or any longer period that the Commissioner may allow, sell, or otherwise dispose of, any arms item or ammunition in their possession or under their control at the date of the expiry, surrender, or revocation of their licence.
- (2) The sale or disposal of any arms item or ammunition must be to a person approved for the purpose by a commissioned officer of Police.

Section 14: replaced, on 25 June 2020, by section 23 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

15 Offence to carry on dealer activities following expiry, surrender, or revocation of dealer's licence

- (1) If a person's dealer's licence expires or is surrendered or revoked, the person may not—
 - (a) carry on any dealer activity; or
 - (b) have any business interest in any arms item or ammunition.
- (2) If the person referred to in subsection (1) is a senior manager authorised to carry on dealer activities on behalf of a body corporate, the body corporate may not carry on any dealer activity at any place of business.
- (3) However,—
 - (a) nothing in subsection (1) applies to any person who—
 - (i) sells or otherwise disposes of any of the kinds of items specified in section 14 in accordance with that section; or

- (ii) after the expiry, surrender, or revocation of their dealer's licence is, at any subsequent time, issued with another dealer's licence; and
- (b) nothing in subsection (2) applies to a body corporate—
 - (i) that sells or otherwise disposes of any of the kinds of items specified in section 14 in accordance with that section; or
 - (ii) if, after the expiry, surrender, or revocation of the senior manager's licence, the senior manager is, at any subsequent time, issued with another dealer's licence on behalf of the body corporate; or
 - (iii) if another senior manager of the body corporate is issued with a dealer's licence authorising that senior manager to carry on 1 or more dealer activities on behalf of the body corporate.
- (4) A person commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 1 year, or to a fine not exceeding $15,000, if the person, without reasonable excuse, contravenes this section.

Heading: repealed, on 25 June 2020, by section 25 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

16 Offence to import firearms, etc, without permit

- (1) A person must have a permit to bring or cause to be brought or sent into New Zealand any of the following items:
 - (a) a firearm (other than a prohibited firearm), pistol, restricted airgun, restricted weapon, or blank-firing gun:
 - (b) any part of a firearm (other than a prohibited firearm), pistol, restricted weapon, or blank-firing gun:
 - (c) non-prohibited ammunition (other than projectiles for airguns):
 - (d) a pistol carbine conversion kit:
 - (e) an air pistol carbine conversion kit:
 - (f) a prohibited item:
 - (g) prohibited ammunition that is authorised or permitted expressly by or pursuant to this Act to be possessed.

- (2) In subsection (1), New Zealand does not include the harbours and other territorial waters of New Zealand.
- (3) A person commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 1 year, or to a fine not exceeding $15,000, if the person, without reasonable excuse, contravenes subsection (1)(a), (b), (c), (d), or (e).
- (4) A person commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years if the person, without reasonable excuse, contravenes subsection (1)(f) or (g).

16A Offence to import prohibited ammunition

- (1) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, bring or cause to be brought or sent into New Zealand any prohibited ammunition that is not authorised or permitted expressly by or pursuant to this Act to be possessed.
- (2) In subsection (1), New Zealand does not include the harbours and other territorial waters of New Zealand.
- (3) A person commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years if the person contravenes subsection (1).

17 Burden of proof

[Repealed]

Section 17: repealed, on 25 June 2020, by section 28 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

18 Issue of permit to import firearms, etc

- (1) A member of the Police to whom an application is made for the issue of a permit to import any item described in section 16(1)(a) to (g) may require the applicant to produce for examination and testing samples of any item of the kind referred to in the application that the member of the Police considers necessary.
- (2) A member of the Police, if satisfied of the matters in subsection (3), must grant an application for the issue of a permit to import any of the following items:
 - (a) a non-prohibited firearm:
 - (b) a blank-firing gun:
 - (c) any part of an item described in paragraph (a) or (b):
 - (d) any non-prohibited ammunition.
- (3) The matters referred to in subsection (2) are that—
 - (a) the applicant is lawfully able to possess the item; and
 - (b) one of the following applies:

- (i) the applicant has complied with any previous requirement to provide a sample of the item for examination and testing and the sample was approved by a member of the Police:
 - (ii) a sample of the item is not required to be produced for examination and testing:
 - (iii) if the application is made for the issue of a permit to import a sample of an item, the applicant will—
 - (A) import no more than 1 sample; and
 - (B) comply with the requirements in section 18B.
- (4) The Commissioner may grant an application for the issue of a permit to import any of the following items:
 - (a) a prohibited firearm:
 - (b) a prohibited magazine:
 - (c) a prohibited part:
 - (d) a pistol:
 - (e) a restricted airgun:
 - (f) a restricted weapon:
 - (g) any part of a pistol or restricted weapon:
 - (h) any prohibited ammunition that is authorised or permitted expressly by or pursuant to this Act to be possessed.
- (5) The Commissioner may issue a permit under subsection (4) in respect of an item only if—
 - (a) the Commissioner is satisfied that there are special reasons why the item should be allowed in New Zealand; and
 - (b) in the case of an application for the issue of a permit under subsection (4)(a), (b), (d), or (f), the application is made by—
 - (i) the holder of a dealer's licence that bears an endorsement made under section 30 or 30B permitting the dealer to possess the item; or
 - (ii) the holder of a firearms licence that bears an endorsement made under section 30 or 30B permitting the person to possess the item; and
 - (c) in the case of an application for the issue of a permit under subsection (4)(h), the applicant—
 - (i) is a person permitted by regulations made under this Act to possess prohibited ammunition; and
 - (ii) is the holder of a firearms licence.

- (6) If an application for the issue of a permit is made under subsection (4)(c) in relation to a prohibited part that may be used by a licence holder on or with a non-prohibited firearm, the Commissioner—
 - (a) must be satisfied that the part will only be used by the licence holder with or on a non-prohibited firearm; and
 - (b) may impose conditions on the permit that enables a member of the Police to verify the use of the part.
- (7) A permit issued under this section is personal to the person to whom it is issued and may not be transferred to any other person.
- (8) A permit may in no case be issued under this section in respect of an anti-personnel mine or cluster munition.

18AA Issue of permit to import pistol carbine conversion kits

- (1) A member of the Police to whom an application is made for the issue of a permit to import a pistol carbine conversion kit may require the applicant to produce for examination and testing samples of any pistol carbine conversion kit of the kind referred to in the application that the member of the Police considers necessary.
- (2) The Commissioner may grant an application for the issue of a permit to bring or cause to be brought or sent into New Zealand a pistol carbine conversion kit only if—
 - (a) the Commissioner is satisfied that—
 - (i) there are special reasons why the pistol carbine conversion kit should be allowed into New Zealand; and
 - (ii) the pistol carbine conversion kit specifically enables a pistol that has an overall length of no more than 400 millimetres and is capable of firing specified ammunition only at a muzzle velocity of 1,600 feet per second or less to be fired from the shoulder; and
 - (iii) the pistol carbine conversion kit does not modify the pistol in any way other than as specified in subparagraph (ii); and
 - (b) the application is made by the holder of a firearms licence—
 - (i) whose licence bears an endorsement made under section 30 permitting the holder to possess a pistol; and
 - (ii) who has been issued with a permit to import a pistol (under section 18) or a permit to possess a pistol (under section 35).
- (3) However, if an application is made by an applicant in the applicant's capacity referred to in section 29(2)(b), (c), (d), or (e), the Commissioner may grant the application without being satisfied of the matters in subsection (2)(a)(ii) and (iii).

- (4) If the applicant has appointed a dealer to import a pistol carbine conversion kit as their agent, the dealer must hold—
 - (a) a firearms licence; and
 - (b) a dealer’s licence that bears an endorsement made under section 30 permitting the dealer to possess a pistol.
- (5) Any permit issued under this section is personal to the person to whom it is issued and may not be transferred to any other person.

Section 18AA: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 30 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

18AAB Issue of permit to import air pistol carbine conversion kits

- (1) A member of the Police to whom an application is made for the issue of a permit to import an air pistol carbine conversion kit may require the applicant to produce for examination and testing samples of any air pistol carbine conversion kit of the kind referred to in the application that the member of the Police considers necessary.
- (2) The Commissioner may grant an application for the issue of a permit to bring or cause to be brought or sent into New Zealand an air pistol carbine conversion kit only if the Commissioner is satisfied that the application is made by an applicant who intends to personally use the kit as a member of an airsoft or paintball club that is affiliated with a national airsoft or paintball organisation.
- (3) Any permit issued under this section is personal to the person to whom it is issued and may not be transferred to any other person.

Section 18AAB: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 30 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

18AAC Revocation and validity of permit to import

- (1) A permit issued under section 18, 18AA, or 18AAB may be revoked at any time by a commissioned officer of Police.
- (2) A permit issued under section 18 or 18AA is automatically revoked if—
 - (a) the permit was issued to a licensed dealer and the dealer’s licence, or any endorsement on the dealer’s licence required for the issue of the permit, is revoked or suspended or has expired or been surrendered; or
 - (b) the permit was issued to any other person who, for the purposes of the issue of the permit, was required to hold a firearms licence, and that person’s firearms licence, or any endorsement on the firearms licence required for the issue of the permit, is revoked or suspended or has expired or been surrendered.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if—
 - (a) a permit is issued under section 18 or 18AA to a licensed dealer permitting the dealer to import 1 or more items on behalf of a person; and

- (b) any person referred to in paragraph (a) who is required to hold a firearms licence, or a firearms licence bearing an endorsement, to possess an item being imported on their behalf—
 - (i) has their licence or endorsement revoked or suspended; or
 - (ii) allows their licence or endorsement to expire; or
 - (iii) surrenders their licence.
- (4) If this subsection applies, the permit issued to the licensed dealer is invalid to the extent that it permits the importation of an item on behalf of a person referred to in subsection (3)(b) in respect of which the person required the licence or endorsement.

Section 18AAC: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 30 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

18AAD Permit to import issued for items to be brought or sent into New Zealand in single consignment or multiple consignments

- (1) A permit may be issued under section 18, 18AA, or 18AAB only in relation to items that are to be brought or sent into New Zealand—
 - (a) in a single consignment at the same time; or
 - (b) in multiple consignments, with a period of not more than 30 days between the arrival of the first and last consignments.
- (2) If, after the issue of a permit referred to in subsection (1), any item to which the permit relates is not included in a consignment referred to in subsection (1), the permit ceases to apply in relation to that item.

Section 18AAD: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 30 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

18A Expiry of permits to import

Unless sooner revoked under section 18(4), a permit issued for the purposes of section 16(1) shall expire 12 months after the date on which that permit was issued.

Section 18A: inserted, on 1 November 1992, by section 6 of the Arms Amendment Act 1992 (1992 No 95).

Section 18A heading: replaced, on 12 April 2019, by section 22 of the Arms (Prohibited Firearms, Magazines, and Parts) Amendment Act 2019 (2019 No 12).

18B Production of samples

- (1) If an applicant is required, under section 18(1), 18AA(1), or 18AAB(1), to produce for examination and testing a sample, the applicant must produce the sample as soon as practicable.
- (2) Before producing a sample, an applicant must ensure it has not been modified in any way.

- (3) The Crown is not liable to pay compensation in respect of any damage caused to a sample resulting from the examination and testing of the sample.
- (4) If, following examination and testing, the sample is not approved, the applicant who produced it must, within 12 months after being informed in writing by a member of the Police that the sample is not approved,—
 - (a) export the sample from New Zealand; or
 - (b) cause the sample to be exported from New Zealand.
- (5) If the sample is not exported as required by subsection (4), the sample must be disposed of or dealt with in the manner that the Commissioner directs.

18C Export of specified items not corresponding with sample or otherwise approved for importation

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a specified item is brought into New Zealand under a permit issued for the purposes of section 16(1); and
 - (b) the specified item—
 - (i) does not correspond with a sample produced to a member of the Police as required by the description of the specified item in the permit; or
 - (ii) is not otherwise approved for importation into New Zealand.
- (2) If this subsection applies, the person who brought the specified item into New Zealand or caused it to be brought or sent into New Zealand must, within 12 months after being informed in writing by a member of the Police that the specified item does not correspond with the sample or is not otherwise approved for importation into New Zealand, export or cause to be exported from New Zealand—
 - (a) the specified item; and
 - (b) the sample.
- (3) If a specified item or sample to which subsection (2) relates is not exported as required by that subsection, the specified item or sample must be disposed of or dealt with in the manner that the Commissioner directs.
- (4) In this section, specified item means any firearm, pistol, prohibited item, restricted airgun, restricted weapon, blank-firing gun, pistol carbine conversion kit, air pistol carbine conversion kit, or non-prohibited ammunition.

19 Seizure of illegally imported items

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if a member of the Police or a Customs officer suspects on reasonable grounds that an item referred to in section 16—
 - (a) has been brought into New Zealand without a permit issued under section 18, 18AA, or 18AAB; or
 - (b) has been brought into the harbours or other territorial waters of New Zealand and is intended to be brought into New Zealand without a permit issued under section 18, 18AA, or 18AAB.
- (2) If this subsection applies, the member of the Police or the Customs officer may—
 - (a) seize and detain the item; and
 - (b) use any reasonable necessary force to seize the item.
- (3) If an item is seized and detained under subsection (2), sections 65 and 70 apply, with all necessary modifications, in respect of that item.

Section 19: replaced, on 25 June 2020, by section 32 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

Part 4 General restrictions

Part 4 heading: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 33 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

General restrictions on possession of firearms, airguns, magazines, parts, and ammunition

Heading: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 33 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

19A Restriction on possession of prohibited firearms and prohibited magazines

- (1) No person may have in their possession a prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine unless the person is—
 - (a) the holder of a dealer's licence that bears an endorsement made under section 30B and who obtains the prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine in any of the ways specified in section 10(1)(b); or
 - (b) the holder of a firearms licence that bears an endorsement that—
 - (i) is made under section 30B permitting the holder to possess a prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine; and
 - (ii) is made specific to the prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine by—
 - (A) a permit to import issued under section 18; or
 - (B) a permit to possess issued under section 35A.
- (2) This section does not apply to an employee of a licensed dealer when—
 - (a) acting in their capacity as an employee; and

- (b) assisting with the carrying on of a dealer activity (if they are qualified under section 11 to do so).
- (3) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence under section 50A or 50B (as the case may be).

Section 19A: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 33 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

19B Restriction on possession of prohibited parts

- (1) No person may have in their possession a prohibited part unless the person—
 - (a) is an exempt person of or over the age of 18 years; and
 - (b) either—
 - (i) is the holder of a dealer’s licence that bears an endorsement made under section 30B permitting the holder to possess a prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine and the holder has obtained the prohibited part in any of the ways specified in section 10(2); or
 - (ii) is the holder of a firearms licence that bears an endorsement made under section 30B that permits the holder to possess a prohibited firearm.
- (2) This section does not apply to an employee of a licensed dealer when—
 - (a) acting in their capacity as an employee; and
 - (b) assisting with the carrying on of a dealer activity (if they are qualified under section 11 to do so).
- (3) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence under section 50C.

19C Restriction on possession of pistols and restricted weapons

- (1) No person may have in their possession a pistol or restricted weapon unless the person is—
 - (a) the holder of a dealer’s licence that bears an endorsement that—
 - (i) is made under section 30 permitting the holder to possess a pistol or restricted weapon; and
 - (ii) is made specific to the pistol or restricted weapon by—
 - (A) a permit to import issued under section 18; or
 - (B) a permit to possess issued under section 35; or
 - (b) the holder of a firearms licence that bears an endorsement that—
 - (i) is made under section 30 permitting the holder to possess a pistol or restricted weapon; and
 - (ii) is made specific to the pistol or restricted weapon by—
 - (A) a permit to import issued under section 18; or

- (B) a permit to possess issued under section 35.
- (2) This section does not apply to an employee of a licensed dealer when—
- (a) acting in their capacity as an employee; and
 - (b) assisting with the carrying on of a dealer activity (if they are qualified under section 11 to do so).
- (3) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence under section 50.
- Section 19C: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 33 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

General restrictions on possession of firearms and airguns
[Repealed]

Heading: repealed, on 25 June 2020, by section 34 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

20 Restriction on possession of non-prohibited firearms

- (1) Except as provided in this Act or as otherwise provided in regulations made under this Act, no person shall have a non-prohibited firearm in his possession unless he is of or over the age of 16 years and is the holder of a firearms licence.
- (2) The holding of a firearms licence shall not in itself entitle any person to have a pistol or restricted weapon in that person's possession.
- (3) A person commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 1 year, or to a fine not exceeding $15,000, if the person, without reasonable excuse, contravenes subsection (1).

Section 20 heading: replaced, on 25 June 2020, by section 35(1) of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

Section 20(1): amended, on 25 June 2020, by section 35(2) of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

- (1) A person must not have in their possession a pistol carbine conversion kit unless the person is—
 - (a) the holder of a dealer’s licence that bears an endorsement made under section 30 permitting the holder to possess a pistol and has been issued with—
 - (i) a permit to import issued under section 18AA; or
 - (ii) a permit to possess issued under section 35AAA; or
 - (b) the holder of a firearms licence—
 - (i) whose licence bears an endorsement made under section 30 permitting the holder to possess a pistol; and
 - (ii) who has been issued with—
 - (A) a permit, under section 18, to import a pistol; or
 - (B) a permit, under section 35, to possess a pistol; and
 - (iii) who has been issued with—
 - (A) a permit, under section 18AA, to import a pistol carbine conversion kit; or
 - (B) a permit, under section 35AAA, to possess a pistol carbine conversion kit.
 - (2) This section does not apply to an employee of a licensed dealer when—
 - (a) acting in their capacity as an employee; and
 - (b) assisting with the carrying on of a dealer activity (if they are qualified under section 11 to do so).
 - (3) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence under section 50AA.

Section 22C: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 37 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

Restrictions on sale or supply of ammunition

Heading: inserted, on 24 December 2020, by section 37 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

22D Restrictions on selling or supplying ammunition

- (1) A person who sells or supplies ammunition (other than projectiles for airguns) must hold a firearms licence.
- (2) A person may only sell or supply ammunition (other than projectiles for airguns) to a person who holds a firearms licence.

- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to an employee of an ammunition seller performing their duties under the supervision of a person who is the holder of a firearms licence.
- (4) A person commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 if the person, without reasonable excuse, contravenes subsection (1) or (2).
- (5) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (2) if—
 - (a) the defendant proves that the defendant took reasonable steps to ascertain whether the person to whom the defendant sold or supplied the ammunition (A) was the holder of a firearms licence; or
 - (b) the defendant proves that—
 - (i) the ammunition was sold or supplied to A for use under the immediate supervision of another person who holds a firearms licence (B); and
 - (ii) at all times while A was in possession of the ammunition, A was under the immediate supervision of B.
- (6) Nothing in subsection (3) applies in relation to any ammunition sold or supplied for a firearm of the kind described in section 22(1)(a), (b), or (c).

22E Ammunition seller to keep record of ammunition sales

- (1) An ammunition seller must keep at their place of business a book that records the following details in respect of all ammunition (other than projectiles for air-guns) sold or supplied in the course of their business:
 - (a) the name of the person to whom the ammunition was sold or supplied; and
 - (b) the quantity and type of ammunition sold or supplied to the person; and
 - (c) the person's firearms licence number, or, if the ammunition was sold or supplied to the person for use under the immediate supervision of another person who holds a firearms licence, the name and firearms licence number of that other person.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), an ammunition seller need not record details under that subsection if—
 - (a) the details are declared by regulations made under section 74 to be exempt from the requirement in that subsection; or
 - (b) the dealer provides the details to the Police for inclusion in the registry in accordance with the regulations.
- (3) An ammunition seller must, at all reasonable times, permit any member of the Police to inspect and make copies of any entries in the book referred to in subsection (1) if the ammunition seller has received at least 7 days' prior notice of the member's intention to do so.

- (4) An ammunition seller who keeps their book under subsection (1) in hard copy form must retain the book for at least 10 years from the date of the last entry in the book.
- (5) An ammunition seller who keeps their book under subsection (1) electronically must retain each electronic record for at least 10 years from the date on which the record is entered.
- (6) When an ammunition seller's firearms licence expires or is revoked or surrendered, or the ammunition seller ceases selling or supplying ammunition, the ammunition seller must immediately surrender to the Police all records they are required by this section to keep that have not been included in the registry.
- (7) An ammunition seller commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 if the ammunition seller, without reasonable excuse, contravenes any of subsections (1) to (6).

24 Issue of firearms licence

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a firearms licence must be issued by a member of the Police to an applicant if the member of the Police is satisfied that—
- (a) the applicant—
 - (i) is of or over the age of 16 years; and
 - (ii) is a fit and proper person to be in possession of a firearm or an airgun; and
 - (b) either—
 - (i) the applicant's storage facilities for their firearms and ammunition have been inspected by a member of the Police and are compliant with the requirements for the secure storage of firearms and ammunition; or
 - (ii) if the applicant is a visitor, a member of the Police is satisfied with the arrangements made by the applicant for the storage of the firearms and ammunition they will possess while in New Zealand.
- (2) A firearms licence must not be issued to an applicant if, in the opinion of a commissioned officer of Police, access to any firearm or an airgun in possession of the applicant is reasonably likely to be obtained by any person who—
- (a) is disqualified from holding a firearms licence; or
 - (b) has had their firearms licence revoked on the ground that they are not a fit and proper person to be in possession of a firearm or an airgun; or
 - (c) is not a fit and proper person to be in possession of a firearm or an airgun.
- (3) As soon as is reasonably practicable after issuing a firearms licence to a person, a member of the Police must notify the person's health practitioner that a firearms licence has been issued to the person.

- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply to an applicant who is a visitor.

24A Fit and proper person to possess firearm or airgun

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, a member of the Police may find a person is not a fit and proper person to be in possession of a firearm or an airgun if the member of the Police is satisfied that 1 or more of the following circumstances exist:
- (a) the person is charged with or has been convicted of an offence in New Zealand or overseas that is punishable by a term of imprisonment (including, but not limited to, an offence involving violence, drugs, or alcohol):
 - (b) the person is charged with or has been convicted of an offence under this Act:
 - (c) the person is charged with or has been convicted of an offence against—
 - (i) section 231A of the Crimes Act 1961; or
 - (ii) the Game Animal Council Act 2013; or
 - (iii) the Wildlife Act 1953; or
 - (iv) the Wild Animal Control Act 1977:
 - (d) the person has, or has had at any time, a temporary protection order made against them under—
 - (i) section 79 of the Family Violence Act 2018; or
 - (ii) section 14 of the Domestic Violence Act 1995:
 - (e) the person has inflicted, or is inflicting, family violence against another person and that other person has grounds under the Family Violence Act 2018 to apply for a protection order in respect of that violence:
 - (f) the person has, or has had at any time, a restraining order made against them under the Harassment Act 1997:
 - (g) the person has engaged in any conduct involving non-compliance with any requirements of—
 - (i) this Act; or
 - (ii) any regulations made under this Act; or
 - (iii) any conditions to which a permit, licence, or endorsement previously issued to the person under this Act was subject:
 - (h) the person shows, or has recently shown, symptoms of a mental or physical illness or injury that may adversely affect their ability to safely possess firearms:

- (i) the person abuses alcohol, or is dependent on alcohol, to an extent that affects detrimentally their judgement or behaviour:
 - (j) the person uses drugs (illegal or legal) in a way that affects detrimentally their judgement or behaviour:
 - (k) the person is a member of, or has close affiliations with, a gang or an organised criminal group:
 - (l) the person has shown patterns of behaviour demonstrating a tendency to exhibit, encourage, or promote violence, hatred, or extremism:
 - (m) the person has been assessed as a risk to a State's national security:
 - (n) the person satisfies any criteria prescribed in regulations made under section 74(1)(bb).
- (2) In determining whether, for the purposes of this Act, a person is a fit and proper person to be in possession of a firearm or an airgun, the member of the Police may take into account—
- (a) whether the applicant—
 - (i) has a sound knowledge of the safe possession and use of firearms:
 - (ii) understands the legal obligations of a holder of a firearms licence, including the endorsements that may be made on a firearms licence; and
 - (b) any other criteria prescribed in regulations made under section 74(1)(bc); and
 - (c) any other relevant matters the member of the Police considers appropriate.
- (3) The member of the Police may, for the purpose of determining whether a person is a fit and proper person to be in possession of a firearm or an airgun,—
- (a) seek and receive any information that the member of the Police thinks appropriate; and
 - (b) consider information obtained from any source.
- (4) If the member of the Police proposes to take into account any information that is or may be prejudicial to an applicant's application, the member of the Police must, subject to subsection (5), disclose that information to the applicant and give the applicant a reasonable opportunity to refute or comment on it.
- (5) Nothing in subsection (4) requires the member of the Police to disclose any information to an applicant if that disclosure would be likely to—
- (a) endanger the safety of any person; or
 - (b) prejudice the security or defence of New Zealand or the international relations of the Government of New Zealand; or

- (c) prejudice the entrusting of information to the Police, the New Zealand Security Intelligence Service, or the Government Communications Security Bureau on a basis of confidence by—
 - (i) the government of any other country; or
 - (ii) any international organisation.

- (6) In this section,—

Section 24A: inserted, on 24 December 2020, by section 42 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

24B General conditions of firearms licence

- (1) Every firearms licence is subject to the conditions that the holder of a firearms licence must,—
- (a) when using a firearm, act in a way that does not pose a risk to themselves or others; and
 - (b) produce any firearm that the licence holder is carrying to a member of the Police on demand; and
 - (c) permit a member of the Police to inspect all firearms in the licence holder's possession, the place or places where the firearms are or will be kept, and the place or places where the ammunition is or will be kept, and, for those purposes, to enter at all reasonable times upon the premises where that place or those places are situated; and
 - (d) permit a member of the Police to inspect the security arrangements in any vehicle used by the holder to transport the licence holder's firearms; and
 - (e) inform a member of the Police if, after the issue of the licence, any of the circumstances described in section 24A(1) apply to the licence holder; and
 - (f) inform a member of the Police if their health practitioner changes, and provide updated details of the name and contact details of their health practitioner.
- (2) Subsection (1)(f) does not apply to a holder of a firearms licence who is a visitor.
- (3) It is the duty of every member of the Police exercising any power conferred by subsection (1)(c) or (d)—

- (a) to give at least 7 days' notice of the proposed inspection under subsection (1)(c) or (d); and
 - (b) to identify themselves to the holder of the firearms licence; and
 - (c) to tell the holder of the firearms licence that the power is being exercised under subsection (1)(c) or (d), as the case may be; and
 - (d) if they are not in uniform, to produce on initial entry, and, if requested, at any subsequent time, evidence that they are a member of the Police.
- (4) Subsections (1)(c) and (3) are subject to section 31A if the licence bears an endorsement made under section 30 or 30B.

Section 24B: inserted, on 24 December 2020, by section 42 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

24C Special condition of firearms licence relating to sale or supply of ammunition

A firearms licence held by an ammunition seller is subject to the condition that the ammunition seller has appropriate facilities to ensure the secure storage of all ammunition that, at any time, they possess.

Section 24C: inserted, on 24 December 2020, by section 42 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

24D Breach of conditions to which firearms licence is subject

A holder of a firearms licence who breaches a condition that their firearms licence is subject to under section 24B or 24C may—

- (a) be issued with an improvement notice under section 60; or
- (b) have their firearms licence temporarily suspended under section 60A (see section 60B, which sets out the effect of the temporary suspension of a firearms licence).

25 Duration of firearms licence

- (1) A firearms licence comes into force on the date specified in the licence and, unless revoked or surrendered earlier,—
- (a) expires 5 years from that date in the case of—
 - (i) a licence issued to a person who has never previously held a firearms licence; or
 - (ii) a licence issued to a person whose previous licence was revoked or surrendered; or
 - (iii) a licence issued to a person who allowed their previous licence to expire without applying for a new licence before the expiry date:
 - (b) expires 10 years from that date in any other case.

- (2) Despite subsection (1), if a licence is granted to a person who states in the application form for the licence that he or she is a visitor, the licence may be granted subject to a condition that it expires 1 year from the date of issue or expires on any earlier date specified in the licence.
- (3) If a licence has been granted subject to a condition referred to in subsection (2), the licence expires on the date of expiry referred to or specified in the licence, or on the date the person to whom the licence is granted leaves New Zealand, whichever occurs first.

Section 25(1): replaced, on 25 June 2020, by section 43(1) of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

Section 25(2): added, on 15 November 2000, by section 4 of the Arms Amendment Act 2000 (2000 No 53).

Section 25(2): amended, on 25 June 2020, by section 43(2) of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

Section 25(3): added, on 15 November 2000, by section 4 of the Arms Amendment Act 2000 (2000 No 53).

26 Production of firearms licence

- (1) Every holder of a firearms licence—
 - (a) shall produce the licence for inspection whenever required to do so by any member of the Police;
 - (b) shall maintain the licence in such a condition that it may be produced in an undefaced and legible condition.
- (2) The holder of a firearms licence issued pursuant to this Act shall be deemed to have complied with subsection (1)(a) if, within 7 days after having been so required to produce his licence or permit, he produces it at a place specified by the member of the Police.
- (3) Every person commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $500 who, being the holder of a firearms licence, fails to comply with subsection (1).

Section 26(3): amended, on 1 July 2013, by section 413 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 (2011 No 81).

27 Surrender and revocation of firearms licence

- (1) A person may at any time surrender their firearms licence to a member of the Police.
- (2) A commissioned officer of Police may, by written notice, revoke a firearms licence if, in the opinion of the officer,—
 - (a) the holder of the licence is not a fit and proper person to be in possession of a firearm or an airgun; or
 - (b) the holder of the licence has failed or refused to secure any arms item or ammunition in the person's possession, in accordance with regulations made under this Act; or

- (c) access to any firearm or airgun in the possession of the holder of the licence is reasonably likely to be obtained by any person—
 - (i) whose firearms licence has been revoked on the ground that they are not a fit and proper person to be in possession of a firearm or airgun; or
 - (ii) who, in the opinion of a commissioned officer of Police, is not a fit and proper person to be in possession of a firearm or airgun.

Section 27: replaced, on 25 June 2020, by section 44 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

27A Family violence and firearms licences

[Repealed]

Section 27A: repealed, on 24 December 2020, by section 45 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

27B Revocation and surrender of licence if holder becomes disqualified

- (1) If the holder of a firearms licence becomes disqualified under section 22H from holding a firearms licence, the holder's licence is immediately revoked.
- (2) Nothing in sections 27, 27C, and 62 to 62C applies to a revocation under this section.

27C Revocation of suspended firearms licence

- (1) A member of the Police may, by notice in writing to the holder of a firearms licence that is temporarily suspended under section 60A, revoke the licence if the member of the Police—
 - (a) has considered any submissions made by the holder before the day stated in the notice of suspension on whether the licence should be revoked on the ground stated in that notice; and
 - (b) is satisfied that the licence should be revoked on that ground.
- (2) A member of the Police must give the holder written notice of a decision on whether to revoke a firearms licence temporarily suspended under section 60A promptly after the decision is made.

28 Effect of revocation or surrender of firearms licence

- (1) A person whose firearms licence is revoked must immediately surrender their licence to a member of the Police.
- (2) On the revocation or surrender of a firearms licence, the holder of the licence—
 - (a) ceases to be licensed to possess any arms item or ammunition under the licence or any endorsement on it; and

- (b) must, on demand, deliver any arms item or ammunition in their possession or under their control to a member of the Police.
- (3) A person whose firearms licence is revoked or surrendered may at any time within 3 months, or any longer period that the Commissioner may allow, sell or otherwise dispose of any arms item or ammunition in their possession or under their control to a person approved for the purpose by a member of the Police.
- (4) Subject to subsection (3), any arms item or ammunition delivered to a member of the Police under this section may be detained for any period that the Commissioner thinks fit, or may, in the discretion of the Minister of Police, become the property of the Crown, free and discharged from any right, title, or interest possessed by any other person.
- (5) The Minister of Finance must pay out of a Crown Bank Account compensation in respect of any arms item or ammunition that is delivered to a member of the Police under this section and that has become the property of the Crown.
- (6) If a person whose firearms licence is revoked or surrendered also holds a dealer's licence, their dealer's licence is immediately revoked and must be surrendered with the person's firearms licence.
- (7) A person commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a term of imprisonment not exceeding 6 months, or to a fine not exceeding $10,000, if the person, without reasonable excuse, contravenes subsection (1) or (2)(b).

Section 28: replaced, on 25 June 2020, by section 47 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

Endorsements

Heading: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 48 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

29 Application for endorsements in respect of pistol or restricted weapon

- (1) [Repealed]
- (2) Any person, being an applicant for a firearms licence or a holder of a firearms licence, may apply to a member of the Police for an endorsement on their firearms licence permitting that person to have possession of a pistol or a restricted weapon (other than an anti-personnel mine or a cluster munition) in his capacity as—
 - (a) a member of an incorporated pistol shooting club for the time being recognised by the Commissioner for the purposes of this section; or
 - (b) a bona fide collector of firearms; or
 - (c) a person to whom the pistol or restricted weapon has special significance as an heirloom or memento; or
 - (d) the Director or Curator of a bona fide museum; or
 - (e) an approved employee or approved member of any body, being—
 - (i) a broadcaster within the meaning of the Broadcasting Act 1989; or

- (ii) a bona fide theatre company or society or cinematic or television film production company or video recording production company; or
 - (f) an employee of a licensed dealer; or
 - (g) a person of a class specified for the purposes of this section by regulations made under this Act.
- (2A) An applicant for a dealer's licence or the holder of a dealer's licence may apply to a member of the Police for an endorsement on their dealer's licence permitting them to possess a pistol or restricted weapon (other than an anti-personnel mine or a cluster munition) in their capacity as a licensed dealer.
- (2B) A person described in subsection (2)(b), (c), (d), or (e) who is an applicant for a firearms licence or a holder of a firearms licence may apply to a member of the Police under this section for an endorsement permitting that person to have possession of a semi-automatic pistol.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(e), approved, in relation to any employee or member, means approved in writing for the purposes of that subsection by the chief executive officer of the body by which he is employed or of which he is a member.
- (4) An application under subsection (2), (2A), or (2B) must be made on a form provided by a member of the Police.

30 Power to make endorsement in respect of pistols or restricted weapons

- (1) On receiving an application under section 29, a member of the Police may, subject to any direction from the Commissioner, make the endorsement applied for if he is satisfied—

- (a) that the applicant is a fit and proper person to be in possession of the pistol or restricted weapon to which the application relates; and
 - (b) that the applicant should, on grounds or in a capacity specified in section 29, be permitted to have possession of the pistol or restricted weapon to which the application relates; and
 - (c) in the case of an application under section 29(2)(e), that possession of the pistol or restricted weapon by the employee or member is necessary for the purpose of—
 - (i) making a broadcast; or
 - (ii) producing or staging a play; or
 - (iii) filming a cinematic production or television film or making a video recording.
- (2) A person whose firearms licence or dealer's licence bears an endorsement made under this section is not entitled to lawfully possess a pistol or restricted weapon until—
- (a) the person is issued with a permit for the purposes of section 16(1) to bring or cause to be brought or sent into New Zealand a pistol or restricted weapon; or
 - (b) the endorsement is made specific to the pistol or restricted weapon in respect of which a permit has been issued under section 35.
- (3) A person whose firearms licence or dealer's licence bears an endorsement made under this section is not entitled to lawfully possess a pistol carbine conversion kit until—
- (a) the person is issued with a permit under section 18AA for the purposes of section 16(1)(g) to bring or cause to be brought or sent into New Zealand a pistol carbine conversion kit; or
 - (b) the person holds a permit issued under section 35AAA to possess the pistol carbine conversion kit.

Section 30(3): inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 50(2) of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

30A Application for endorsement in respect of prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine

- (1) An exempt person described in any of paragraphs (b) to (j) of section 4A(1) who is of or over the age of 18 years, and who is the holder of a firearms licence or is applying for a firearms licence, may apply for an endorsement on their firearms licence permitting them to possess a prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine in their capacity as an exempt person.

- (2) A person who is of or over the age of 18 years, and who is the holder of a dealer's licence or is applying for a dealer's licence, may apply for an endorsement on their dealer's licence permitting them to possess a prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine in their capacity as a licensed dealer.
- (3) A person who is of or over the age of 18 years, and who is the employee of a licensed dealer, may apply for an endorsement on their firearms licence permitting them to possess a prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine in their capacity as an employee of the licensed dealer.
- (4) An application under this section must—
 - (a) be made on a form provided by a member of the Police; and
 - (b) state in which capacity referred to in subsection (1), (2), or (3) the applicant is making the application.
- (5) An applicant must permit a member of the Police to take, or cause to be taken, for the purposes of the application, 1 or more photographs of the applicant.

30B Power to make endorsement in respect of prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine

- (1) On receiving an application under section 30A, a member of the Police may, subject to any direction of the Commissioner, make an endorsement on the applicant's firearms licence or dealer's licence permitting the applicant to possess a prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine if the member of the Police is satisfied that—
 - (a) the applicant is a fit and proper person to possess a prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine to which the application relates; and
 - (b) it is appropriate for the applicant, in their capacity as an exempt person, to possess a prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine.
- (2) In the case of an application made by an exempt person described in section 4A(1)(c), the member of the Police must, before making an endorsement, be satisfied—
 - (a) of the matters in subsection (1)(a); and
 - (b) that in all the circumstances it is reasonable to grant the endorsement.
- (3) In the case of an application made by an exempt person described in section 4A(1)(e), the member of the Police must, before making an endorsement, be satisfied—
 - (a) of the matters in subsection (1); and
 - (b) that the possession of a prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine by the applicant is required for the purpose of—

- (i) making a broadcast; or
 - (ii) producing or staging a play; or
 - (iii) filming a cinematic production or television film or making a video recording.
- (4) In the case of an application made by an exempt person described in section 4A(1)(f), (g), (h), (i), or (j), the member of the Police must, before making an endorsement, be satisfied—
- (a) of the matters in subsection (1); and
 - (b) that the exempt person has a genuine need to possess the prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine; and
 - (c) that the prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine will be used by the exempt person solely for the purpose of controlling wild animals or animal pests; and
 - (d) that that purpose cannot effectively be achieved by the use of a non-prohibited firearm or non-prohibited magazine.
- (5) A person whose firearms licence or dealer's licence bears an endorsement made under this section is not entitled to lawfully possess a prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine until—
- (a) the person is issued with a permit for the purposes of section 16(1) to bring or cause to be brought or sent into New Zealand a prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine; or
 - (b) the endorsement is made specific to the prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine in respect of which a permit has been issued under section 35A.

31A Conditions of endorsements

- (1) Every endorsement is granted subject to the conditions that any person who is in possession of a pistol, restricted weapon (other than an air pistol), prohibited firearm, or prohibited magazine by virtue of that endorsement must—
 - (a) produce that pistol, restricted weapon, prohibited firearm, or prohibited magazine to any member of the Police on demand; and
 - (b) permit the member of the Police to inspect the pistol, restricted weapon, prohibited firearm, or prohibited magazine and the place where it is kept, and, for that purpose, to enter at all reasonable times upon the premises where the place is situated.
- (2) It is the duty of every member of the Police exercising any power conferred by subsection (1)—
 - (a) to identify themselves to the person in possession of the pistol, restricted weapon, prohibited firearm, or prohibited magazine; and
 - (b) to tell the person in possession of the pistol, restricted weapon, prohibited firearm, or prohibited magazine that the power is being exercised under subsection (1); and

- (c) if they are not in uniform, to produce on initial entry, and, if requested, at any subsequent time, evidence that they are a member of the Police.

Section 31A: inserted, on 12 April 2019, by section 32 of the Arms (Prohibited Firearms, Magazines, and Parts) Amendment Act 2019 (2019 No 12).

32 Further conditions of endorsements in respect of pistols and restricted weapons

- (1) It is a condition of every endorsement made under section 30 that the holder of the firearms licence—
 - (a) observes, in respect of every pistol or restricted weapon or part of a restricted weapon in his possession, such security precautions as are required by regulations made under this Act; and
 - (b) ensures that every restricted weapon in his possession is both rendered inoperable by the removal of a vital part and maintained, by reason of the removal of a vital part, in an inoperable condition.
- (2) Any member of the Police may, on the direction of the Commissioner, impose, as conditions of an endorsement made by that member of the Police under section 30, such conditions with regard to the use or custody of the pistol or restricted weapon (being conditions additional to those specified in subsection (1)) as that member of the Police thinks fit.

Section 32 heading: replaced, on 12 April 2019, by section 33 of the Arms (Prohibited Firearms, Magazines, and Parts) Amendment Act 2019 (2019 No 12).

33 Revocation of endorsements

- (1) If, in the opinion of a commissioned officer of Police, any person whose licence bears an endorsement made under section 30,—
 - (a) would not, on an application made under section 29, be entitled to have that endorsement made on his firearms licence; or
 - (b) has failed to observe any conditions of the endorsement,—that commissioned officer may, by notice in writing under his hand, revoke that endorsement, and that person shall, upon demand, surrender his firearms licence to a member of the Police for cancellation of the endorsement.
- (2) An endorsement in respect of a pistol shall not be revoked under subsection (1) if—
 - (a) the holder of the firearms licence has owned that pistol since before 16 May 1969 and, immediately before that date, was registered under section 9 of the Arms Act 1958 as the owner of that pistol; and
 - (b) the pistol, although less than 762 millimetres in length, has not been reduced below that length since 15 May 1969 and is not designed or adapted to be held and fired with 1 hand.
- (3) On the revocation of an endorsement pursuant to this section the holder of the firearms licence shall cease to be entitled to have possession of a pistol or a restricted weapon, as the case may require, whether or not the firearms licence is surrendered pursuant to subsection (1).

- (4) The provisions of this section are in addition to the provisions of sections 27 and 28.

33A Further conditions of endorsement in respect of prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine

- (1) An endorsement on a firearms licence in respect of a prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine made under section 30B is subject to the following conditions:

- (a) the holder of the firearms licence may only possess and use the prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine in their capacity as an exempt person; and
- (b) the holder of the firearms licence must observe in respect of every prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine in their possession all security precautions required by regulations made under this Act; and
- (c) the holder of the firearms licence who is an exempt person under section 4A(1)(b), (c), (d), or (e) must—
 - (i) not use live ammunition in the prohibited firearm in their possession; and
 - (ii) ensure that the prohibited firearm is—
 - (A) rendered inoperable by removal of a vital part; and
 - (B) maintained, by reason of the removal of the vital part, in an inoperable condition; and
 - (iii) ensure that the removed vital part is kept at a separate address from the prohibited firearm; and
- (d) any other conditions regarding the use and custody of the prohibited item in their possession that the Commissioner thinks necessary.

- (2) In subsection (1)(c)(iii), separate address means an address approved by a member of the Police.

Section 33A: replaced, on 12 April 2019, by section 34 of the Arms (Prohibited Firearms, Magazines, and Parts) Amendment Act 2019 (2019 No 12).

33B Revocation of endorsement in respect of prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine

- (1) If, in the opinion of a commissioned officer of Police, any person whose licence bears an endorsement made under section 30B—
- (a) would not, on an application made under section 30A, be entitled to have that endorsement made on that person's firearms licence; or
 - (b) has failed to observe any condition of that endorsement,— that commissioned officer may, by notice in writing signed by that commissioned officer, revoke that endorsement, and that person shall upon demand surrender that person's firearms licence to a member of the Police for cancellation of the endorsement.

- (2) On the revocation of an endorsement pursuant to this section, the holder of the firearms licence shall cease to be entitled to have possession of a prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine, whether or not the firearms licence is surrendered pursuant to subsection (1).
- (3) The provisions of this section are in addition to the provisions of sections 27 to 28.

Section 33B: inserted, on 1 November 1992, by section 15 of the Arms Amendment Act 1992 (1992 No 95).

Section 33B heading: replaced, on 12 April 2019, by section 35(1) of the Arms (Prohibited Firearms, Magazines, and Parts) Amendment Act 2019 (2019 No 12).

33C Duration of endorsements

- (1) An endorsement made under section 30 or 30B on a firearms licence held by an employee of a licensed dealer for the purposes of their employment with the dealer continues in force for 1 year after the date on which the endorsement was made, unless one of the following first occurs:
 - (a) the employee's firearms licence expires:
 - (b) the employee's firearms licence is surrendered or revoked:
 - (c) the licensed dealer's licence expires:
 - (d) the licensed dealer's licence is surrendered or revoked:
 - (e) the relevant endorsement made under section 30 or 30B on the licensed dealer's licence is revoked:
 - (f) the employee ceases to be employed by the licensed dealer.
- (2) However, unless earlier revoked or surrendered, an endorsement made under section 30B at any time after 12 April 2019 on a firearms licence held by a person described in section 4A(1)(f), (g), (h), (i), or (j) continues in force until the earlier of the following dates:
 - (a) the date that is 2 years and 6 months after the date on which the endorsement was made:
 - (b) the date on which the licence—
 - (i) is surrendered or revoked; or
 - (ii) expires.
- (3) Unless earlier revoked or surrendered, an endorsement made under section 30 or 30B on a firearms licence held by any other person, or on a dealer's licence, continues in force for so long as the licence continues in force.

Section 33C: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 54 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

34 Notification of change of address

- (1) A holder of a firearms licence who changes their address must, within 30 days after doing so, give written notice of the change to a member of the Police.
- (2) Every holder of a firearms licence, being a licence that bears an endorsement permitting the holder to have possession of a pistol, prohibited firearm, prohibited magazine, or restricted weapon, who intends to change his address, must notify a member of the Police of the arrangements made for the safe custody of the pistol, prohibited firearm, prohibited magazine, or restricted weapon during its shift to the new address.
- (3) A person commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000 if the person, without reasonable excuse, contravenes subsection (1) or (2).

35AAA Issue of permit to possess pistol carbine conversion kit

- (1) A permit to possess a pistol carbine conversion kit may be issued to an applicant only by a member of the Police acting under a direction of the Commissioner.
- (2) A permit to possess a pistol carbine conversion kit may be issued if the member of the Police to whom the application is made is satisfied—
- (a) that the applicant—
 - (i) is the holder of a dealer’s licence that bears an endorsement made under section 30 permitting the holder to possess a pistol; and
 - (ii) has been issued with—
 - (A) a permit, under section 18, to import a pistol; or
 - (B) a permit, under section 35, to possess a pistol; or
 - (b) that the applicant (not being an employee of a licensed dealer)—
 - (i) is the holder of a firearms licence that bears an endorsement made under section 30 permitting the holder to possess a pistol; and
 - (ii) has been issued with—
 - (A) a permit, under section 18, to import a pistol; or
 - (B) a permit, under section 35, to possess a pistol.
- (3) The member of the Police to whom the application is made must also be satisfied that—
- (a) the pistol carbine conversion kit specifically enables a pistol that has an overall length of no more than 400 millimetres and is capable of firing specified ammunition at a muzzle velocity of 1,600 feet per second or less to be fired from the shoulder; and

- (b) the pistol carbine conversion kit does not modify the pistol in any way other than as specified in paragraph (a).
- (4) However, if an application is made by an applicant in the applicant's capacity referred to in section 29(2)(b), (c), (d), or (e), the Commissioner may grant the application without being satisfied of the matters in subsection (3).
- (5) Unless sooner revoked, a permit issued under this section remains in force for the period specified in the permit, which must not exceed 1 month.
- (6) A permit may at any time be revoked by a commissioned officer of Police.

37 Surrender of restricted weapon

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) or an endorsement made under section 30, no person shall at any time be in possession of a restricted weapon, or of any part or parts intended or adapted for use as part of a restricted weapon.
- (2) Before the expiry of 1 month after the notification in the New Zealand Gazette of an Order in Council declaring any weapon to be a restricted weapon, every person in possession of any such weapon or any part or parts intended or adapted for use as part of such a weapon shall cause the weapon, or the parts,—
- (a) to be destroyed; or
 - (b) to be disposed of to a person approved by the Commissioner; or
 - (c) to be exported from New Zealand; or
 - (d) to be delivered to a member of the Police.
- (3) The Minister of Finance shall, subject to subsection (4), pay compensation out of a Crown Bank Account for the value of all weapons in a serviceable condition, and for all parts, delivered to a member of the Police in accordance with subsection (2)(d).

- (4) Compensation shall not be paid under subsection (3) unless the Minister is satisfied—
- (a) that the person claiming compensation has acquired the weapon or parts lawfully; and
 - (b) if he has brought the weapon or parts into New Zealand, that he has done so lawfully.

43A Mail order or Internet sale of arms items or ammunition

- (1) A person must not sell by mail order or on the Internet any item specified in subsection (2), otherwise than under a written order—
 - (a) signed by the purchaser; and
 - (b) signed by a member of the Police stating that the member of the Police—
 - (i) has inspected the purchaser's firearms licence; and
 - (ii) has inspected, in the case of an item specified in subsection (2)(d), the permit issued to the purchaser under section 35AAA; and
 - (iii) is satisfied that the purchaser is a fit and proper person to purchase the item; and
 - (c) recording, in the case of the sale of an item specified in subsection (2)(a), (b), (c), or (d), the marking on the item.
- (2) The items referred to in subsection (1) are—
 - (a) non-prohibited firearms:
 - (b) non-prohibited magazines:
 - (c) non-prohibited parts:
 - (d) pistol carbine conversion kits:
 - (e) airguns (other than an airgun for use in airsoft or paintball sports):
 - (f) ammunition (other than ammunition for a firearm of the kind described in section 22(1)(a), (b), or (c)).
- (3) A person must not sell by mail order or on the Internet any prohibited item, pistol, or restricted weapon, unless—
 - (a) the purchaser has obtained an endorsement on their dealer's licence or firearms licence that authorises them to possess a prohibited item, pistol, or restricted weapon; and
 - (b) the purchaser has, in the case of a prohibited firearm, prohibited magazine, pistol, or restricted weapon, obtained a permit to possess that prohibited firearm, prohibited magazine, pistol, or restricted weapon; and

- (c) the prohibited item, pistol, or restricted weapon is delivered by a courier specified in the permit referred to in paragraph (b) or, in the case of a prohibited part, a form specified by the Police.
- (4) A person commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, or to a fine not exceeding $10,000, if the person, without reasonable excuse, contravenes subsection (1) or (3).

44 Selling or supplying pistol or restricted weapon to person who does not hold permit to import or permit to possess

- (1) A person commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years, or to a fine not exceeding $30,000, if the person sells or supplies a pistol or restricted weapon to any person other than a person who is authorised—
 - (a) by a permit issued for the purposes of section 16(1) to bring or cause to be brought or sent into New Zealand that pistol or restricted weapon; or
 - (b) by a permit issued under section 35 to possess that pistol or restricted weapon.
- (2) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (1) if—
 - (a) the defendant proves that they took reasonable steps to ascertain whether the person to whom they sold or supplied the pistol or restricted weapon (A) was the holder of a permit of the kind described in subsection (1)(a) or (b); or
 - (b) the defendant proves, in the case of a prosecution relating to the sale or supply of a pistol,—
 - (i) that the pistol was supplied to A for use—
 - (A) on a range of an incorporated pistol shooting club for the time being recognised by the Commissioner for the purposes of section 29; and
 - (B) under the immediate supervision of another person (B) who holds a firearms licence bearing an endorsement permitting them to have that pistol or a pistol of that kind; and
 - (ii) that, at all times while A was in possession of the pistol, A was—
 - (A) on a range of the kind described in subparagraph (i)(A); and
 - (B) under the immediate supervision of B.

44AA Unlawful sale or supply of pistol carbine conversion kit

- (1) A person commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years, or to a fine not exceeding $30,000, if the person sells or supplies a pistol carbine conversion kit to any person other than a person who is authorised—
 - (a) by a permit issued under section 18AA for the purposes of section 16(1)(d) to bring or cause to be brought or sent into New Zealand that pistol carbine conversion kit; or
 - (b) by a permit issued under section 35AAA to possess that pistol carbine conversion kit.
- (2) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (1) if the defendant proves that they took reasonable steps to ascertain whether the person to whom they sold or supplied the pistol carbine conversion kit was the holder of a permit of the kind described in subsection (1)(a) or (b).
- (3) It is also a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (1) if the defendant proves—
 - (a) that the pistol carbine conversion kit was supplied to a person (A) for use—
 - (i) on a certified pistol range; and
 - (ii) under the immediate supervision of another person (B) who holds a firearms licence that bears an endorsement made under section 30 permitting B to possess a pistol; and
 - (b) that, at all times while A was in possession of the pistol carbine conversion kit, A was—
 - (i) on a certified pistol range; and
 - (ii) under the immediate supervision of B.

Section 44AA: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 72 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

44A Offence to sell or supply prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine

- (1) Every person commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years who, without reasonable excuse, sells or supplies a prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine to a person other than a person who holds—
 - (a) a permit issued for the purposes of section 16(1) to bring or cause to be brought or sent into New Zealand that prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine; or
 - (b) a permit issued under section 35A to possess that prohibited firearm or prohibited magazine.

- (2) It is not an offence against this section to sell or supply a semi-automatic pistol to a person in the person's capacity referred to in section 29(2)(b), (c), (d), or (e), if that person has been issued with—

 - (ii) a part of a firearm, pistol, prohibited firearm, or restricted weapon; or
 - (iii) a pistol carbine conversion kit; or
 - (e) intentionally fails to mark a firearm, part of a firearm, or pistol carbine conversion kit manufactured by the person in accordance with this Act or regulations made under section 74.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 10 years.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, anything that purports to be, or is intended to have the effect of, a contract, an arrangement, or an understanding must be treated as a contract, an arrangement, or an understanding (as the case may be).

Section 55D: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 83 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

55E Offences relating to illegal trafficking of firearms, parts, or ammunition

- (1) A person commits an offence if the person intentionally—
- (a) moves, delivers, sends, or transfers any firearm, pistol, pistol carbine conversion kit, prohibited firearm, or restricted weapon, or any part or ammunition, into New Zealand without lawful authority, or if the item is not marked in accordance with this Act and regulations made under section 74, whether or not the person intends to export the item from New Zealand; or
 - (b) moves, delivers, sends, or transfers any firearm, pistol, pistol carbine conversion kit, prohibited firearm, or restricted weapon, or any part or ammunition, from New Zealand to another country, without lawful authority, or if the item is not marked in accordance with this Act and regulations made under section 74; or
 - (c) moves, delivers, sends, or transfers any firearm, pistol, pistol carbine conversion kit, prohibited firearm, or restricted weapon, or any part or ammunition, through or across New Zealand to another country without lawful authority; or
 - (d) moves, delivers, sends, or transfers any firearm, pistol, pistol carbine conversion kit, prohibited firearm, or restricted weapon, or any part or ammunition, into another country from or through New Zealand without lawful authority.

- (2) A person commits an offence if the person intentionally enters into a contract or an arrangement, or arrives at an understanding, to do anything described in subsection (1)(a) to (d).
- (3) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) or (2) is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 10 years.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, anything that purports to be, or is intended to have the effect of, a contract, an arrangement, or an understanding must be treated as a contract, an arrangement, or an understanding (as the case may be).
- (5) Any firearm, pistol, pistol carbine conversion kit, prohibited firearm, or restricted weapon, or any part or ammunition, that is imported within the meaning of the Customs and Excise Act 2018 and that arrives in New Zealand in any manner in contravention of this section, must be treated, on importation, as a prohibited good for the purposes of the Customs and Excise Act 2018, except sections 388 and 389 of that Act.

Section 55E: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 83 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

55F Offences relating to falsifying firearm markings

- (1) A person commits an offence if the person intentionally—
 - (a) marks a complete firearm, or a complete but unassembled firearm, with any false identifying markings at the time of manufacture; or
 - (b) marks an imported firearm with any false identifying markings.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 10 years.

Section 55F: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 83 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

55G Offences relating to removing or altering firearm markings

- (1) A person commits an offence if the person, without reasonable excuse, obliterates, removes, or alters a marking on a firearm or part.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years.
- (3) If any mark is removed for a lawful and proper purpose, the firearm or part must be re-marked in accordance with the marking requirements of this Act and regulations made under section 74.

Section 55G: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 83 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

55H Extraterritorial jurisdiction for offences against section 55D, 55E, 55F, or 55G

- (1) Even if the acts or omissions alleged to constitute the offence occurred wholly outside New Zealand, proceedings may be brought for any offence against section 55D, 55E, 55F, or 55G—

- (a) if the person to be charged—
 - (i) is a New Zealand citizen; or
 - (ii) is ordinarily resident in New Zealand; or
 - (iii) has been found in New Zealand and has not been extradited; or
 - (iv) is an entity incorporated or registered under the law of New Zealand; or
 - (b) if any of the acts or omissions are alleged to have occurred on board—
 - (i) a ship registered, or required to be registered, under the Ship Registration Act 1992; or
 - (ii) a ship used as a ship of the New Zealand Defence Force; or
 - (iii) an aircraft registered, or required to be registered, in New Zealand under the Civil Aviation Act 1990; or
 - (iv) an aircraft for the time being used as an aircraft of the New Zealand Defence Force; or
 - (v) an aircraft that is leased to a lessee whose principal place of business is in New Zealand, or who is a New Zealand citizen or a person ordinarily resident in New Zealand.
- (2) The following sections do not apply to an offence against section 55D, 55E, 55F, or 55G:
- (a) section 8 of the Crimes Act 1961 (which relates to jurisdiction in respect of crimes on ships or aircraft beyond New Zealand):
 - (b) section 400 of the Crimes Act 1961 (which requires the consent of the Attorney-General to proceedings in certain cases for offences on ships or aircraft).
- (3) Nothing in this section limits—
- (a) the application of section 55D, 55E, 55F, or 55G to acts or omissions that occurred wholly in New Zealand; or
 - (b) the application of section 7 of the Crimes Act 1961 to the occurrence in New Zealand of—
 - (i) an act or omission forming part of an offence; or
 - (ii) an event necessary to the completion of an offence; or
 - (c) the application of section 8A of the Crimes Act 1961.

Section 55H: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 83 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

55I Attorney-General's consent required

- (1) No charging document may be filed against any person in relation to an offence against section 55D, 55E, 55F, or 55G committed outside New Zealand unless the Attorney-General consents to the filing of the charging document.

- (2) A person alleged to have committed an offence against section 55D, 55E, 55F, or 55G may be arrested without a warrant or a warrant for their arrest may be issued and executed, and they may be remanded in custody or on bail, even though the consent of the Attorney-General has not yet been obtained under subsection (1), but no further or other proceedings may be taken until the consent has been obtained.

Section 55I: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 83 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

56 Obstruction of member of Police

Every person commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months or to a fine not exceeding $1,000 or to both who obstructs a member of the Police in the exercise of any right of entry, search, seizure, or detention conferred by this Act.

Compare: 1958 No 21 s 19

Section 56: amended, on 1 July 2013, by section 413 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 (2011 No 81).

57 Offences committed by corporations

When an offence against this Act punishable by imprisonment (whether or not it is also punishable by a fine) is committed by a corporation, the corporation shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $4,000.

Compare: 1958 No 21 s 22

Section 57: amended, on 1 July 2013, by section 413 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 (2011 No 81).

58 Reporting of injuries caused by firearms, airguns, pistols, or restricted weapons

- (1) Every person who causes bodily injury to or the death of any person by the use of a firearm, airgun, pistol, or restricted weapon, shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, report the incident in person—
- (a) at the nearest Police station; or
 - (b) to a member of the Police.
- (2) Every person commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months or to a fine not exceeding $1,000 or to both who contravenes subsection (1).

Compare: 1962 No 135 s 65(3), (6)

Section 58(2): amended, on 1 July 2013, by section 413 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 (2011 No 81).

59 Unsafe firearms or pistols

- (1) Where, in the opinion of a commissioned officer of Police, any firearm or pistol is unsafe, that commissioned officer may, by notice in writing to the owner of that firearm or pistol, require the owner to ensure that that firearm or pistol is brought to a safe standard of repair and produced to a member of the Police within a period or by a date specified in the notice.

- (2) If the owner of any firearm or pistol fails to comply with a notice given to him under subsection (1) in respect of that firearm or pistol, a commissioned officer of Police may, by notice in writing to that owner, require him to surrender that firearm or pistol forthwith to a member of the Police.
- (3) Any owner of a firearm or pistol who is required—
 - (a) by a notice under subsection (1) to ensure that a firearm or pistol is brought to a safe standard of repair and produced to a member of the Police within a period or by a date specified in the notice; or
 - (b) by a notice under subsection (2) to surrender a firearm or pistol to a member of the Police,— may appeal under section 62 against the requirement, and that section shall apply accordingly with all necessary modifications.

- (4) An owner of a firearm or pistol commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, or to a fine not exceeding $10,000, if the owner, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with a notice given to them under subsection (2) in respect of that firearm or pistol.
- (5) Nothing in this section applies in respect of an antique firearm.

Compare: 1958 No 21 s 11A; 1968 No 21 s 4; 1976 No 151 s 7

Section 59(4): replaced, on 25 June 2020, by section 85 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

59B Voluntary delivery to Police of firearms, etc

- (1) If any arms item or ammunition is delivered to the Police by a person who is not authorised to be in possession of the item or ammunition, it is affirmed that the Police have the discretion not to prosecute in any case where—
- (a) the offence is considered to be one of possession only; and
 - (b) there is no public interest in proceeding with the prosecution.
- (2) See also Parts 1 and 2 of Schedule 1 (which contain amnesty provisions).

60 Improvement notices

- (1) This section applies if a member of the Police reasonably believes that a person with a firearms or dealer's licence or an ammunition seller is failing, has failed, or is likely to fail to comply with—
- (a) 1 or more applicable provisions of this Act or regulations made under this Act; or
 - (b) any conditions on a licence, an endorsement, or a permit.
- (2) The member of the Police may issue an improvement notice that—
- (a) states the applicable provision or provisions, or condition or conditions, that the member of the Police reasonably believes the person is failing, has failed, or is likely to fail to comply with; and
 - (b) requires the person to remedy the failure or prevent a failure from occurring; and
 - (c) states the date by which the person is required to remedy the failure or prevent a failure from occurring.
- (3) An improvement notice must be in writing and be sent to the person by post or electronic means to their last known address.

- (4) The member of the Police may extend the time within which the person is required to remedy the failure or prevent a failure from occurring.
- (5) A person issued with an improvement notice must comply with the notice within the time specified in the notice (or within any extended time allowed by the member of the Police). See sections 60A and 60B for possible suspension and revocation of a licence if a person fails to comply with an improvement notice.

60A Temporary suspension of licence pending possible revocation

- (1) A member of the Police may, by notice in writing to the holder of a firearms or dealer's licence, temporarily suspend the licence if satisfied that 1 or more of the following apply:
 - (a) the holder is not a fit and proper person to be in possession of any fire-arm or airgun, which includes a case where—
 - (i) the holder has failed or refused to secure any arms items or ammunition in the person's possession in accordance with regulations made under this Act; or
 - (ii) the holder has failed to comply with any conditions imposed on their licence; or
 - (iii) the holder has failed to comply with an improvement notice issued under section 60; or
 - (iv) the member of the Police is so satisfied on the basis of a notice given under section 92 by a health practitioner; or
 - (v) the licence has been seized under section 18 of the Search and Surveillance Act 2012:
 - (b) the holder, being the holder of a dealer's licence, is not a fit and proper person to hold a dealer's licence:
 - (c) access to any firearm or airgun in the possession of the holder is reasonably likely to be obtained by—
 - (i) a person whose application for a firearms licence has been refused; or
 - (ii) a person whose firearms licence has been revoked; or
 - (iii) a person who, in the opinion of a member of the Police, is not a fit and proper person to be in possession of a firearm or an airgun or ammunition; or
 - (iv) a person, other than the holder, whose firearms licence has been temporarily suspended.
- (2) A notice of temporary suspension of a licence must state—

- (a) the ground on which the notice is given; and
 - (b) the licence that the notice applies to; and
 - (c) that if the person also holds a dealer's licence, their dealer's licence will also be suspended while that firearms licence is suspended; and
 - (d) the date on which the suspension begins; and
 - (e) that the suspension is to enable the Police to consider revoking the licence on that ground; and
 - (f) that the holder may, at any time before a day stated in the notice, make oral or written submissions on whether the licence should be revoked on that ground; and
 - (g) that the suspension lasts until notice of the decision as to whether to revoke the licence is given to the holder but, if the notice is not given within 90 days after the suspension takes effect, the suspension ends with the close of that 90-day period; and
 - (h) that the effect of the notice is that the holder is treated as not holding the licence for the purposes of this Act until a final determination on revocation of the licence is made (see sections 60B and 60C); and
 - (i) that the holder may commit an offence if the holder carries on any activities that require the holder to be licensed under this Act; and
 - (j) that the holder may be required immediately or before a date specified by a member of the Police to surrender to Police the holder's licence and the arms items and ammunition in the holder's possession.
- (3) The day stated under subsection (2)(f) must not be sooner than, in the opinion of the Police, is reasonable to enable the holder to prepare and make submissions.

60B Effect of temporary suspension of firearms licence

- (1) During the period that a firearms licence is suspended, this Act applies as if the firearms licence holder were not licensed to possess any arms item or ammunition under the licence or any endorsement on it.
- (2) At any time during the period that a firearms licence is suspended, a member of the Police may require the firearms licence holder (orally or in writing) to immediately surrender to a member of the Police—
 - (a) their firearms licence; and
 - (b) every arms item in their possession or under their control; and
 - (c) all ammunition in their possession or under their control.

- (3) If a firearms licence holder fails to comply with a requirement under subsection (2)(b) or (c), a member of the Police may seize and take possession of any arms item or ammunition in the possession or under the control of the holder.
- (4) If a person's firearms licence is temporarily suspended and the person holds a dealer's licence,—
 - (a) the holder's dealer's licence is suspended while their firearms licence remains suspended; and
 - (b) section 60C applies.

Section 60B: inserted, on 24 December 2020, by section 89 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

60C Effect of temporary suspension of dealer's licence

- (1) During the period that the dealer's licence is suspended,—
 - (a) this Act applies as if the dealer were not authorised to carry on any dealer activity; and
 - (b) an employee of the dealer may not carry on or assist with the carrying on of any dealer activity on behalf of the dealer.
- (2) At any time during the period that a dealer's licence is suspended, a member of the Police may require the dealer (orally or in writing) to immediately surrender to a member of the Police—
 - (a) their dealer's licence; and
 - (b) every arms item in their possession or under their control; and
 - (c) all ammunition in their possession or under their control.
- (3) If a dealer fails to comply with a requirement under subsection (2)(b) or (c), a member of the Police may seize and take possession of any arms item or ammunition in the possession or under the control of the dealer.

Section 60C: inserted, on 24 December 2020, by section 89 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

Appeals

62 Right of review of official decisions

- (1) This section applies to a decision to refuse an application for, or to revoke, a firearms licence.
- (2) A person who is the subject of a decision to which this section applies may apply in the prescribed manner to the Commissioner for a review of the decision.
- (3) An application must state—
 - (a) the decision that the applicant wishes to be reviewed; and
 - (b) the reasons why the applicant thinks the decision should be reviewed; and
 - (c) the outcome the applicant is seeking.
- (4) An application must, subject to subsection (5), be made within 28 days after the date on which notice of the relevant decision is given to the person.
- (5) The Commissioner may accept a late application no later than 28 days after the closing date in subsection (4) if satisfied that there are extenuating circumstances that affected the ability of the claimant to make the application by the closing date.

62A How review to be conducted

- (1) The Commissioner must delegate under section 72 the responsibility for reviewing a decision to which section 62 applies to 1 or more persons other than the person who made the original decision.
- (2) The reviewer must review the decision on the papers within 28 days after the date on which the application for review was lodged.
- (3) The Commissioner must give the applicant a written or an electronic notice of the reviewer's decision, and that decision has effect according to its terms.

- (4) The original decision remains in force until the reviewer's decision is notified to the applicant.

62B Right of appeal to District Court

- (1) A person who is the subject of a decision referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) or is a person described in paragraph (c) may, by way of originating application, appeal to a District Court Judge against the decision as follows:
- (a) a decision to refuse an application for any of the following:
 - (i) a dealer's licence:
 - (ii) consent under section 7A:
 - (iii) a permit for the purposes of section 16(1):
 - (iv) a firearms licence:
 - (v) an endorsement under section 30, 30B, or 36:
 - (vi) a permit under section 35 to possess a pistol or restricted weapon:
 - (vii) a permit under section 35AAA to possess a pistol carbine conversion kit:
 - (viii) a permit under section 35A to possess a prohibited item:
 - (ix) a certificate of approval for a shooting club under section 38G:
 - (x) certification of a shooting range under section 38P:
 - (b) a decision to issue subject to conditions imposed by a member of the Police, or to revoke, any of the following:
 - (i) a dealer's licence:
 - (ii) a permit for the purposes of section 16(1):
 - (iii) a firearms licence:
 - (iv) an endorsement under section 30, 30B, or 36:
 - (v) a permit under section 35 to possess a pistol or restricted weapon:
 - (vi) a permit under section 35AAA to possess a pistol carbine conversion kit:
 - (vii) a permit under section 35A to possess a prohibited item:
 - (viii) a certificate of approval for a shooting club under section 38G:
 - (ix) certification of a shooting range under section 38P:
 - (c) a person who has been served with a notice under section 59 or 66C.
- (2) However, in the case of a decision to which section 62 applies, a person has no right of appeal under this section unless the person has—
- (a) first applied under section 62 for a review of the decision; and

- (b) been notified of the reviewer's decision.
- (3) On hearing an appeal under subsection (1), the District Court Judge may, subject to subsection (5), confirm, vary, or reverse the decision appealed against.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies if—
 - (a) an application for a firearms licence has been refused on the ground set out in section 24(2); or
 - (b) a firearms licence has been revoked on the ground set out in section 27(2).
- (5) If this subsection applies, the District Court Judge may, even though the Judge finds that ground established, vary or reverse the decision appealed against if satisfied that, since the decision was given, adequate measures have been taken to deny access to the firearm to the person whose likelihood of access to it was the basis of the refusal or revocation.

Section 62B: inserted, on 24 December 2020, by section 90 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

62C Further provisions relating to appeals

- (1) Despite the fact that any appeal under section 62B may have been determined in favour of the appellant, any commissioned officer of Police, in the exercise of powers conferred on the officer by this Act, may, subject to the like right of appeal, revoke any licence or permit to which the appeal related, or any licence or permit granted in compliance with the decision of the District Court Judge on the appeal, on any sufficient grounds supported by facts or evidence discovered since the hearing of the appeal.
- (2) The decision of the District Court Judge on any appeal under section 62B is final and conclusive, subject to subsection (1) and to section 64.
- (3) No person is excused from complying with any of the provisions of this Act on the ground that—
 - (a) the person has applied for a review under section 62 and the review is pending; or
 - (b) the person has appealed under section 62B and the appeal or the decision on the appeal is pending.

Section 62C: inserted, on 24 December 2020, by section 90 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

63 Appeal to District Court Judge in respect of compensation

The amount of compensation payable under any of the provisions of this Act in respect of any firearm, airgun, pistol, pistol carbine conversion kit, imitation firearm, prohibited magazine, prohibited part, restricted weapon, ammunition, explosive, or other property shall not in any case exceed the actual market value thereof, and in case of dispute shall be determined, upon application by way of originating application by a District Court Judge, whose decision, subject to section 64, shall be final.

Compare: 1958 No 21 s 15

Section 63: amended, on 25 June 2020, by section 91 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

Section 63: amended, on 12 April 2019, by section 63 of the Arms (Prohibited Firearms, Magazines, and Parts) Amendment Act 2019 (2019 No 12).

64 Appeal on a question of law

- (1) Where any party to any appeal under section 62B or to any application under section 63 is dissatisfied with the decision of the District Court Judge as being erroneous in point of law, he may appeal to the High Court on the question of law only.

- (2) Subpart 8 of Part 6 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 applies as far as applicable with the necessary modifications to every appeal under this section.

Section 64(1): amended, on 24 December 2020, by section 92 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

Section 64(1): amended, on 1 July 2013, by section 413 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 (2011 No 81).

Section 64(2): replaced, on 1 July 2013, by section 413 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 (2011 No 81).

65 Restoration of articles seized

On application by way of originating application, a District Court Judge may make such order as he thinks just and expedient for the restoration of any firearm, airgun, pistol, pistol carbine conversion kit, imitation firearm, restricted weapon, prohibited magazine, ammunition, or explosive seized and detained in pursuance of the right of search, seizure, or detention conferred by this Act.

[Repealed]

Section 65G: repealed, on 1 October 1999, by section 65H(1)(a).

65H Expiry of sections 65A to 65G

- (1) Sections 65A to 65G expire with the close of 30 September 1999, and on 1 October 1999—
 - (a) those sections, and the heading above section 65A, are to be treated as having been repealed; and
 - (b) all written authorities issued under section 65B(1), and all written permits issued under section 65C(1), are to be treated as having been revoked.
- (2) If a written authority or written permit is treated under subsection (1)(b) as having been revoked, the foreign personal protection officer to whom it was issued must—
 - (a) immediately deliver the firearms, airguns, pistols, restricted weapons, and ammunition to which the authority or permit relates into the possession of the Police: and
 - (b) as soon as practicable after they have been so delivered, arrange for their removal from New Zealand.

Section 65H: inserted, on 29 April 1999, by section 2 of the Arms Amendment Act 1999 (1999 No 23).

Other miscellaneous provisions

Heading: replaced, on 25 June 2020, by section 94 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

65I Duration of licences extended because of COVID-19 outbreak

- (1) This section applies despite sections 8 and 25(1).
- (2) Subsection (3) applies if—
 - (a) the period for which a licence (an original licence) was issued expired on or before 24 March 2020 (the original expiry date); and
 - (b) the holder of the original licence applied before the original expiry date for a new licence to replace the original licence; and
 - (c) the application referred to in paragraph (b) has not yet been determined.
- (3) If this subsection applies, the original licence, unless it is sooner surrendered or revoked, continues as if it had not expired on the original expiry date and must be treated as continuing in force until the earlier of the following:
 - (a) the date on which the licence holder is notified of the determination made on their application for a new licence;
 - (b) the date that is 12 months after the original expiry date.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies if the period for which a licence (an original licence) was issued expires on a date during the period commencing on 25 March 2020 and ending on 25 September 2020 (the original expiry date).
- (5) If this subsection applies, the original licence, unless it is sooner surrendered or revoked, does not expire on its original expiry date but must be treated as continuing in force until the date that is 4 months after the original expiry date (the extended expiry date).
- (6) If the holder of a licence that continues in force under subsection (5) (an extended licence) applies for a new licence to replace the extended licence before the extended expiry date, the extended licence, unless it is sooner surrendered or revoked, does not expire on the extended expiry date but must be treated as continuing in force until the earlier of the following:
 - (a) the date on which the licence holder is notified of the determination made on their application for a new licence;
 - (b) the date that is 12 months after the original expiry date.
- (7) While a licence is treated as continuing in force under subsection (3), (5), or (6),—
 - (a) any endorsement on the licence, and any condition to which that endorsement is subject, continues to apply unless sooner revoked; and
 - (b) any condition to which the licence is subject continues to apply.

- (8) In this section, licence means—
- (a) any dealer's licence; or
 - (b) a firearms licence (other than a licence referred to in section 25(2) granted to a visitor to New Zealand).
- (9) If the holder of an extended licence applies before the end of the extended expiry date for a new licence to replace the licence that has been extended, the fee payable in respect of that application is the fee the holder would have been liable to pay had the holder made an application on 24 March 2020 to replace their licence.
- (10) This section is repealed on the close of 25 September 2021.

Section 65I: inserted, on 16 May 2020, by section 3 of the COVID-19 Response (Further Management Measures) Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 13).

66 Occupier of premises or driver of vehicle deemed to be in possession of firearm, airgun, pistol, imitation firearm, restricted weapon, prohibited magazine, or explosive found therein

For the purposes of this Act every person in occupation of any land or building or the driver of any vehicle on which any firearm, airgun, pistol, imitation firearm, restricted weapon, prohibited magazine, or explosive is found shall, though not to the exclusion of the liability of any other person, be deemed to be in possession of that firearm, airgun, pistol, imitation firearm, restricted weapon, prohibited magazine, or explosive, unless he proves that it was not his property and that it was in the possession of some other person.

Section 66 heading: amended, on 12 April 2019, by section 65(1) of the Arms (Prohibited Firearms, Magazines, and Parts) Amendment Act 2019 (2019 No 12).

Section 66: amended, on 12 April 2019, by section 65(2) of the Arms (Prohibited Firearms, Magazines, and Parts) Amendment Act 2019 (2019 No 12).

66A Loss, theft, or destruction of firearm, etc

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) a firearm, prohibited magazine, prohibited part, or restricted weapon is lost, stolen, or destroyed; or
 - (b) a non-prohibited part or non-prohibited magazine that is required to be recorded in the registry is lost, stolen, or destroyed.
- (2) The owner of the firearm, magazine, part, or restricted weapon must—
- (a) immediately notify a member of the Police of the loss, theft, or destruction; and
 - (b) give all information in their possession relating to the loss, theft, or destruction to the member of the Police.
- (3) A notification under subsection (2) must be given in the form or manner, or both the form and manner, approved by the Commissioner.

- (4) Every person commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 if the person, without reasonable excuse, contravenes subsection (2).

66B Person in possession of firearm, etc, must give identifying information to Police

- (1) A person in possession of any arms item or ammunition must, on demand, give their full name, address, and date of birth to any member of the Police who is in uniform or who produces evidence that they are a member of the Police.
- (2) If any person refuses to give their name, address, or date of birth, or gives false particulars about their name, address, or date of birth, a constable—
- (a) may caution that person; and
 - (b) if that person persists in the refusal or fails or continues to refuse to give the correct particulars, may arrest the person without warrant.
- (3) A person commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, or to a fine not exceeding $10,000, if the person, in response to a demand under subsection (1) or (2),—
- (a) without reasonable excuse, refuses to give their name, address, or date of birth; or
 - (b) willingly gives false particulars about their name, address, or date of birth.

Section 66B: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 95 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

66C Powers of Police to require surrender of airguns or antique firearms

- (1) If any person who is not the holder of a firearms licence or a dealer's licence is in possession of an airgun or antique firearm, a commissioned officer of Police may, by notice in writing served on that person, require that person to surrender the airgun or antique firearm to a member of the Police, if that officer is of the opinion that that person is not a fit and proper person to be in possession of the airgun or antique firearm.
- (2) If any person is served with a notice under subsection (1), that person must, on demand, deliver the airgun or antique firearm to a member of the Police, and section 28(4) to (7) applies accordingly with all necessary modifications.
- (3) Any person required under this section to surrender an airgun or antique firearm may appeal under section 62B against the requirement, and that section applies accordingly with all necessary modifications.
- (4) A person commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, or to a fine not exceeding $10,000, if the person, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with a notice given to them under subsection (1).

Section 66C: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 95 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

66D Obligations of owner or operator of craft temporarily visiting New Zealand and carrying firearms, etc

- (1) If a craft arriving from a foreign country is, at any time, temporarily berthed, moored, or anchored in any harbour or territorial waters of New Zealand, and has on board any arms items that are not being off-loaded, the owner or operator of the craft must—
 - (a) include details of all arms items on board the craft—
 - (i) in an advance notice of arrival that is required to be provided to the New Zealand Customs Service by section 12 of the Customs and Excise Act 2018; or
 - (ii) in an inward report that is required to be provided to the New Zealand Customs Service by section 24 of the Customs and Excise Act 2018; and
 - (b) comply with any directions given by the New Zealand Customs Service or a member of the Police relating to the secure storage of those arms items, which may include a direction that the arms items be temporarily surrendered to a member of the Police or a Customs officer.
- (2) If the owner or operator of a craft does not comply with any direction given under subsection (1)(b), a member of the Police or a Customs officer may—
 - (a) board the craft; and
 - (b) seize and detain the arms items; and
 - (c) in effecting the seizure and detention of the arms items, use any reasonably necessary force.
- (3) In this section,—

arms items means any firearms, pistols, restricted airguns, prohibited items, restricted weapons, pistol carbine conversion kits, or ammunition craft has the meaning given in section 5(1) of the Customs and Excise Act 2018

operator has the meaning given in section 5(1) of the Customs and Excise Act 2018 owner has the meaning given in section 5(1) of the Customs and Excise Act 2018.

67 Liability of principal for acts of agent, etc

Where an offence is committed against this Act or against any regulation made under this Act by any person acting as the agent or servant of another person, or being otherwise subject to the supervision or instructions of another person for the purposes of any employment in the course of which the offence was committed, that other person shall, without prejudice to the liability of the first-mentioned person, be liable under this Act in the same manner and to the same extent as if he had personally committed the offence if it is proved that the act which constituted the offence was committed with his consent or connivance or that it was attributable to any neglect on his part.

68 Time for prosecutions not limited

Section 25 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 shall have no application to prosecutions for offences against this Act.

Compare: 1958 No 21 s 21

Section 68: amended, on 1 July 2013, by section 413 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 (2011 No 81).

69 Forfeitures

- (1) If a person is convicted of an offence of using, carrying, or being in possession of any specified item, the convicting court must, as part of the sentencing, order that the specified item be forfeited to the Crown.
- (2) However, subsection (1) does not apply and the convicting court need not make an order under that provision if the court considers that, given the circumstances of the offending, it would be unjust to make that order.
- (3) Any specified item ordered under subsection (1) to be forfeited to the Crown—
 - (a) is forfeited to the Crown accordingly; and
 - (b) may be disposed of in any manner that the Commissioner directs.
- (4) In this section, specified item means any firearm, airgun, pistol, restricted weapon, imitation firearm, prohibited item, pistol carbine conversion kit, ammunition, or explosive.

70 Authorising disposal of firearms, etc, detained by Police

- (1) Without limiting the operation of any other provisions of this Act as to the disposal of any firearm, airgun, pistol, restricted weapon, imitation firearm, prohibited magazine, prohibited part, pistol carbine conversion kit, ammunition, or explosive seized or detained under this Act, any such firearm, airgun, pistol, restricted weapon, imitation firearm, prohibited magazine, prohibited part, pistol carbine conversion kit, ammunition, or explosive that has been detained for not less than 12 months may be disposed of in such manner as the Commissioner may direct.

- (2) Nothing in this section limits the authority of a District Court Judge to make an order for the restoration of any such firearm, airgun, pistol, restricted weapon, imitation firearm, prohibited magazine, prohibited part, pistol carbine conversion kit, ammunition, or explosive on application made under section 65.

72 Delegation of powers by Commissioner

- (1) The Commissioner may from time to time, by writing under his hand, either generally or particularly, delegate to such member or members of the Police of a level of position not less than inspector, as he thinks fit, all or any of his powers under this Act.
- (2) Every person purporting to act pursuant to any delegation under this section shall be presumed to be acting in accordance with the terms of the delegation, in the absence of proof to the contrary.
- (3) Subject to subsection (1), any delegation under this section may be made to a specified member of the Police or to members of the Police of a specified level of position or class, or may be made to the holder or holders for the time being of a specified office or class of offices.
- (4) Every delegation under this section shall be revocable at will, and no such delegation shall prevent the exercise of any power by the Commissioner.
- (5) Any such delegation shall, until revoked, continue in force according to its tenor, notwithstanding the fact that the Commissioner by whom it was made may have ceased to hold office, and shall continue to have effect as if made by the successor in office of the Commissioner.
- (6) The revocation of any such delegation shall not affect in any way anything done under the delegated authority.

72A Service of documents

- (1) Any notice or other document required or authorised by this Act to be served on or given to any person shall be in writing and shall be sufficiently served on or given to that person if it is—
 - (a) delivered to that person; or
 - (b) left at that person's usual or last known place of abode or business or at an address specified by that person for the purpose of any application made under this Act; or
 - (c) posted in a letter addressed to that person by name at that person's last known place of abode or business or at an address specified by that person for the purpose of any application made under this Act; or
 - (d) made available to that person electronically through the registry, so long as an email is sent to an address supplied by the person to tell them that the notice or other document has been made available and the person has agreed to receive notices or documents in that way.
- (2) Without limiting the provisions of subsection (1), any notice or other document required or authorised by this Act to be served on or given to any person shall be deemed to have been duly served on or given to that person if it is given—
 - (a) to any person appearing to have attained the age of 16 years and to be residing at the place of residence of that person; or
 - (b) to any solicitor or other agent of that person who is duly authorised by that person to receive the same.
- (3) If the person is deceased, the notice or other document may be served on or given to that person's personal representatives.
- (4) If the person is absent from New Zealand and his or her place of abode or business outside New Zealand is not known to the person by whom the notice or other document is to be served or given, the notice or other document shall (unless it can be served on or given to an agent in New Zealand of the person who is absent from New Zealand) be served or given in such manner as may be directed by an order of the District Court.
- (5) Where any notice or other document is sent by post in accordance with subsection (1)(c),—
 - (a) it shall, if sent to an address in New Zealand, be deemed, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, to have been served or given on the fourth working day after the date on which it was posted; and

- (b) it shall, if sent to an address outside New Zealand, be deemed in the absence of evidence to the contrary, to have been served or given on the 60th working day after the date on which it was posted; and
 - (c) in proving service, it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter was properly addressed and posted.
- (6) Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this section, the District Court may in any case make an order directing the manner in which any notice or other document is to be served or given, or dispensing with the service or giving thereof.
- (7) This section does not apply to notices or other documents served or given in any proceedings in any court.

77 Repeals

[Repealed]

Section 77: repealed, on 12 April 2019, by section 71 of the Arms (Prohibited Firearms, Magazines, and Parts) Amendment Act 2019 (2019 No 12).

78 Transitional provisions

- (1) Every dealer's licence which is issued under the Arms Act 1958 and which is in force immediately before the commencement of this Act shall, until the close of 31 March 1985, continue and have effect as if it had been issued under this Act; and any such licence may be revoked or renewed under this Act.
- (2) Every permit which is issued under section 6 of the Arms Act 1958 and which is in force immediately before the commencement of this Act shall, subject to section 18(3) of this Act, continue and have effect as if it had been issued for the purposes of section 16(1) of this Act.
- (3) Every permit which is issued under section 7 of the Arms Act 1958 and which is in force immediately before the commencement of this Act shall cease to have effect on the commencement of this Act.
- (4) Every person who, immediately before the commencement of this Act, is lawfully in possession of a firearm by virtue of—

- (a) being registered as the owner of that firearm under section 9 of the Arms Act 1958; or
- (b) having procured possession of a firearm (other than a shotgun or a firearm in respect of which he is registered as the owner) pursuant to a permit under section 6 of the Arms Act 1958,— shall, subject to section 27 of this Act, be deemed, until the close of 31 January 1985 to be the holder of a firearms licence entitling him to have possession of the firearm so lawfully in his possession (whether or not it is a pistol).

- (5) Every person (not being a person to whom subsection (4) applies) who, immediately before the commencement of this Act, is lawfully in possession of a shotgun shall, subject to section 27, be deemed, until the close of 31 January 1985, to be the holder of a firearms licence entitling him to have possession of that shotgun.
- (6) Every person who, immediately before the commencement of this Act, is, by virtue of a licence under section 12(3) of the Arms Act 1958, lawfully in possession of an unlawful weapon or of any part or parts of an unlawful weapon shall, subject to sections 27 and 33 of this Act, be deemed, until the close of 31 January 1985, to be the holder of a firearms licence bearing an endorsement under section 30 of this Act permitting him to have possession of that weapon or of that part or those parts of that weapon.
- (7) Every person who, immediately before the commencement of this Act, is, by virtue of a licence granted under section 13 of the Arms Act 1958, entitled to carry a pistol in any place beyond the limits of his dwellinghouse, or the curtilage thereof, shall, subject to sections 27 and 36(2) of this Act, be deemed, until the close of 31 March 1985, to be the holder of a firearms licence and to have had the conditions (which are endorsed on his licence under section 13 of the Arms Act 1958) endorsed on that firearms licence under section 36(1) of this Act.
- (8) All appeals that have been commenced under section 14 of the Arms Act 1958 and are pending at the commencement of this Act shall be heard and determined as if the Arms Act 1958 had not been repealed; but, on the hearing of any such appeal, the District Court Judge, in addition to the powers conferred on him by that Act, may order that, for the purposes of this section, the appellant shall be treated—
 - (a) as if his licence, permit, or certificate had been in force immediately before the commencement of this Act:
 - (b) as if he had been lawfully in possession of a firearm, pistol, or unlawful weapon immediately before the commencement of this Act:
 - (c) as if certain conditions were not, immediately before the commencement of this Act, conditions of his licence or permit.
- (9) The Acts Interpretation Act 1924 shall apply subject to this section.

Cost recovery

Heading: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 104 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

79 Purpose of sections 80 to 86

The purpose of sections 80 to 86 is to enable the Police to recover its costs in respect of certain activities undertaken by the Police under this Act.

Compare: 2008 No 72 s 79A

80 Activities that may be subject to cost recovery

- (1) The Minister of Police may recommend the making of a regulation under section 86 only if satisfied that the fee or charge concerned relates to an activity undertaken by the Police in accordance with this Act in relation to a person, shooting club, or shooting range.
- (2) The activities for which fees or charges may be imposed under section 86—
 - (a) include—
 - (i) processing an application for a firearms or dealer's licence, including assessing whether the applicant is a fit and proper person:
 - (ii) providing training and testing services in relation to obtaining a firearms licence:
 - (iii) issuing any licence under this Act:
 - (iv) processing any application for an endorsement, a permit to possess, or permit to import:
 - (v) issuing any endorsement, a permit to possess, or permit to import:
 - (vi) undertaking inspections and compliance checks, including checks relating to any licence, endorsement, permit, certification, conditions, or improvement notices:
 - (vii) providing testing of samples in relation to firearms, firearm parts, restricted weapons, parts of restricted weapons, magazines, pistol carbine conversion kits, air pistol carbine conversion kits, blank-firing guns, or ammunition:
 - (viii) processing any application for approval or certification of a club or range:
 - (ix) approving the manufacture for sale of arms items:
 - (b) do not include—
 - (i) the response of the Police to calls relating to potential offending; or
 - (ii) the conduct of criminal investigations; or

(iii) the prosecution of criminal offences.

Compare: 2008 No 72 s 79B

Section 80: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 104 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

81 Criteria for cost recovery

The Minister of Police may recommend that regulations be made under section 86 only if the Minister is satisfied that,—

- (a) subject to the provisions of section 86, the fee or charge recovers no more than the actual and reasonable costs (including both direct and indirect costs) of the activity to which the fee or charge relates; and
- (b) the fee or charge for the activity or class of activities to which the fee or charge relates is generally obtained from the users or beneficiaries of the service or class of services to which the activity relates at a level commensurate, as far as practicable, with their use of the service; and
- (c) the costs of the activity to which the fee or charge relates are efficiently incurred; and
- (d) the relationship between the costs of the activity to which the fee or charge relates and the nature and duration of the activity is clear.

Compare: 2008 No 72 s 79C

82 Consultation

- (1) The Minister of Police may recommend that regulations be made under section 86 only if the Minister is satisfied that the Commissioner has done everything reasonable on the Commissioner's part to consult the persons or organisations (or representatives of those organisations) that appear to the Commissioner to be affected or likely to be affected by the fee or charge.
- (2) The process for consultation must, to the extent practicable in the circumstances, include—
 - (a) the giving of appropriate notice of the intention to make the regulation and of the contents of the proposed regulation; and
 - (b) a reasonable opportunity for interested persons to make submissions; and
 - (c) the adequate and appropriate consideration of those submissions.
- (3) A failure to comply with this section does not affect the validity of any regulations made under section 86.

Compare: 2008 No 72 s 79D

Section 82: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 104 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

83 Methods of cost recovery

- (1) Regulations for the recovery of costs may provide for the following:
 - (a) fixed fees or charges:
 - (b) fees or charges based on a scale or formula or at a rate determined on an hourly or other unit basis:
 - (c) the recovery by way of a fee or charge of estimated actual and reasonable costs expended in, or associated with, the performance of an activity:
 - (d) fees or charges based on costs incurred from charges by third parties:
 - (e) any combination of the above.
- (2) Without limiting the way in which a fee or charge may be set, a fee or charge may be set at a level or in a way that—
 - (a) is determined by calculations that involve an averaging of costs or potential costs:
 - (b) takes into account costs or potential costs of activities that are not services to be provided directly to the person who pays the fee or charge, but are an indirect or potential cost arising from the undertaking of the activity in question in relation to a class of persons or all persons who use the service or class of services to which the activity relates:
 - (c) takes into account indirect costs, which include the costs and potential costs of support, maintenance, and development associated with provision of the activity.

Compare: 2008 No 72 s 79E

Section 83: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 104 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

84 Payment of fee or charge

- (1) A fee or charge prescribed by regulations made under section 86 is payable at the time prescribed in respect of a particular activity, whether that time is before, during, or after completion of the relevant activity.
- (2) All fees and charges prescribed by regulations made under section 86 and received by the Police or any other government agency must be paid into a departmental bank account.

Compare: 2008 No 72 s 79F

85 Exemptions, waivers, and refunds

- (1) Regulations made under section 86 may provide for exemptions from, or waivers or refunds of, any fee or charge prescribed by regulations made under this Act, in whole or in part, in any class of case.

- (2) Regulations made under section 86 may authorise the Commissioner, as the Commissioner thinks fit in the circumstances specified in those regulations, to exempt, waive, or refund the whole or any part of a fee or charge prescribed by the regulations.

Compare: 2008 No 72 s 79G

Section 85: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 104 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

86 Regulations relating to cost recovery

The Governor-General may, by Order in Council on the recommendation of the Minister of Police made after consultation in accordance with section 82,—

- (a) make regulations prescribing fees or charges for specified activities in accordance with sections 79 to 83:
- (b) make regulations for the purposes of section 84:
- (c) make regulations for the purposes of section 85.

Compare: 2008 No 72 s 102A

Section 86: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 104 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

Guidance notices

Heading: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 104 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

87 Guidance notices

- (1) The Commissioner may issue notices that provide guidance or details of an administrative nature that relate to 1 or more of the following:
- (a) the requirements of regulations made under section 74(1)(i) that relate to the security of licensed dealer premises:
 - (b) the requirements of regulations made under section 74(1)(j) that relate to the security of premises where firearms are kept:
 - (c) the issuing of identifying markings for firearms and magazines manufactured in or imported into New Zealand:
 - (d) the approval of any shooting club or certification of any shooting range:
 - (e) how to demonstrate the positive behaviours, skills, and knowledge that are expected of a fit and proper person:
 - (f) how to manage specific situations where non-licensed persons come into possession of a firearm:
 - (g) matters that health practitioners consider when determining whether to notify the Police under section 92:
 - (h) generally, about any aspect of the Act or regulations made under this Act where the Commissioner thinks further guidance or detail is useful.

- (2) The Commissioner must consult the Arms Advisory Group, and may consult any other person or organisation that the Commissioner thinks appropriate, before issuing any notice.
- (3) The Commissioner must—
 - (a) publish the notice in the Gazette; or
 - (b) notify in the Gazette the fact that the notice has been made and state in that notification where members of the public can access a copy of the notice in electronic form.
- (4) A notice issued under this section is neither a disallowable instrument nor a legislative instrument for the purposes of the Legislation Act 2012.

Section 87: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 104 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

Arms Advisory Group

Heading: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 104 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

88 Arms Advisory Group

- (1) The Minister of Police must establish an Arms Advisory Group (the advisory group) comprising a chairperson and up to 8 other members.
- (2) The purpose of the advisory group is to advise the Minister on matters that contribute to achieving the objectives of this Act, in particular, the safe use and control of firearms.
- (3) The advisory group may provide advice on any matter relating to firearms in New Zealand, including legislative proposals, policies for regulating New Zealand's firearms regime, and the promotion of firearms safety.

89 Operations of advisory group

- (1) The members of the advisory group must appoint a deputy chairperson from among their number at their first meeting.
- (2) The advisory group may determine its own procedure, subject to compliance with any relevant provisions of this Act and regulations made under this Act.
- (3) The advisory group must, as soon as practicable after the end of each financial year, provide the Minister of Police with an annual report of its proceedings and operations during that year.
- (4) The Commissioner must provide the resources and administrative support necessary to enable the advisory group to perform its functions.
- (5) The members of the advisory group are immune from liability in civil proceedings for good-faith actions or omissions in pursuance, or intended pursuance, of the duties, functions, or powers of the group.

90 Provisions relating to appointment of members of advisory group

- (1) The membership of the advisory group must comprise a balance of people from both the firearm-owning and the non-firearm-owning community, including people who are concerned about the mitigation of harm from firearms from a health perspective.
- (2) In appointing any member of the advisory group, the Minister of Police must have regard to the need for the advisory group to possess knowledge and experience in some or all of the following areas:
 - (a) New Zealand and international firearms regulatory systems:
 - (b) public health and safety, particularly as it relates to firearms:
 - (c) firearms research:
 - (d) firearms safety and the use of firearms:
 - (e) membership of any community organisation or group involved in firearms awareness, safety, or law reform:
 - (f) any other matters the Minister considers relevant.
- (3) A member may be appointed for a term of up to 3 years as specified in the notice of appointment and be reappointed in the same manner.
- (4) The Minister of Police must, by notice in the Gazette, notify the appointment of members and their terms of office.
- (5) A member is entitled to be—
 - (a) paid remuneration at a rate and of a kind determined in accordance with the fees framework; and
 - (b) reimbursed for actual and reasonable travelling and other expenses in accordance with the fees framework.
- (6) In this section, fees framework means the framework determined by the Government for the classification and remuneration of statutory and other bodies in which the Crown has an interest.

Section 90: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 104 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

91 Removal of members of advisory group

- (1) The Minister of Police may, if satisfied that there is just cause to do so, remove from office any member of the advisory group.
- (2) The removal must be made by written notice to the member.
- (3) The notice must state—
 - (a) the day on which the removal takes effect, which must not be earlier than the day on which the notice is received; and

- (b) the reasons for the removal.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (1), just cause includes misconduct, inability to perform the functions of office, neglect of duty, and breach of any of the determinations of the group regarding its operations and procedures (depending on the seriousness of the breach).

Section 91: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 104 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

Medical assessments

92 Health practitioners may give Police medical reports of persons unfit to use firearm

- (1) This section applies if a health practitioner who has attended or been consulted in respect of a person who the practitioner knows or has reason to believe is a firearms licence holder considers that the health condition of the licence holder is such that, in the interests of the safety of individuals or the public, the licence holder—
 - (a) should not be permitted to use or possess a firearm; or
 - (b) should only be permitted to use or possess a firearm subject to any limitations that may be warranted by the health condition of the licence holder.
- (2) If this section applies, the health practitioner must consider notifying the Police as soon as practicable—
 - (a) of the opinion under subsection (1); and
 - (b) the grounds on which it is based; and
 - (c) whether the practitioner believes the licence holder poses an immediate or imminent danger of self-harm or harm to others.
- (3) If the Police have been notified by a health practitioner under subsection (2), the Commissioner may require a licence holder to undergo a further medical assessment by a health practitioner who is independent from the practitioner who made the initial assessment and, in that case, the licence holder must either—
 - (a) undergo the further assessment; or
 - (b) surrender their licence under section 27(1).
- (4) Regulations made under section 74(1)(jb) (if any) apply in relation to any notice given for the purpose of this section and to any action required under subsection (3).

- (5) A health practitioner is not liable to criminal, civil, or disciplinary proceedings by disclosing personal information in the course of performing any function or responsibility under this section, as long as the practitioner acts in good faith.

Review of operation of this Act

Heading: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 104 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

96 Review of this Act

- (1) The Minister of Police must—
- (a) review the operation of this Act when all of the provisions of the amendment Act, except sections 106 and 108, have been in force for 3 years; and
 - (b) prepare a report on that review, including recommendations for amendments to this Act.
- (2) The review must include reviewing—
- (a) the operation of the registry; and
 - (b) all offences and penalties in this Act; and
 - (c) the impact of the amendment Act.
- (3) The review must be completed within 18 months after all of the provisions of the amendment Act, except sections 106 and 108, have been in force for 3 years.
- (4) The Minister must present the report to the House of Representatives as soon as practicable after it has been completed.
- (5) In this section, amendment Act means the Arms Legislation Act 2020.

Section 96: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 104 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

Schedule 1

Transitional, savings, and related provisions

s 3A

Schedule 1: replaced, on 12 April 2019, by section 72 of the Arms (Prohibited Firearms, Magazines, and Parts) Amendment Act 2019 (2019 No 12).

Part 1

Provisions relating to Arms (Prohibited Firearms, Magazines, and Parts) Amendment Act 2019

Schedule 1 Part 1: inserted, on 12 April 2019, by section 72 of the Arms (Prohibited Firearms, Magazines, and Parts) Amendment Act 2019 (2019 No 12).

1 Interpretation

In this Part,—

Act means the Arms Act 1983

amendment Act means the Arms (Prohibited Firearms, Magazines, and Parts) Amendment Act 2019

amnesty period means the period—

- (a) beginning at 3 pm on 21 March 2019; and
- (b) ending on—
 - (i) the date that is 6 months after the first date on which regulations made under clause 7 come into force; or
 - (ii) any later date prescribed by Order in Council commencement means the date on which the amendment Act comes into force.

Schedule 1 clause 1: inserted, on 12 April 2019, by section 72 of the Arms (Prohibited Firearms, Magazines, and Parts) Amendment Act 2019 (2019 No 12).

2 Permits to import issued for purposes of section 16(1) of Act before commencement are revoked

- (1) A permit issued for the purposes of section 16(1) of this Act (as in force immediately before commencement) is revoked to the extent that it authorises the importation of a firearm, magazine, or part that,—
 - (a) after commencement, is a prohibited item; and
 - (b) before commencement, has not been brought or sent into New Zealand.
- (2) This clause does not apply to permits issued for the purposes of enabling persons referred to in section 3(2) of this Act to carry out their duties.

Schedule 1 clause 2: inserted, on 12 April 2019, by section 72 of the Arms (Prohibited Firearms, Magazines, and Parts) Amendment Act 2019 (2019 No 12).

3 Prohibited items subject to the control of Customs at commencement

- (1) This clause applies to a prohibited item that is subject to the control of the New Zealand Customs Service at commencement.
- (2) The prohibited item is to be treated as a prohibited good under section 98 of the Customs and Excise Act 2018 and the chief executive of the New Zealand Customs Service may, under section 85(1)(b) of that Act, authorise the delivery of the prohibited item to the Police.
- (3) At the time of that delivery, the prohibited item ceases to be subject to the control of Customs.
- (4) In this clause, subject to the control of Customs has the same meaning as in section 6 of the Customs and Excise Act 2018.

Schedule 1 clause 3: inserted, on 12 April 2019, by section 72 of the Arms (Prohibited Firearms, Magazines, and Parts) Amendment Act 2019 (2019 No 12).

4 Endorsements issued under section 30B of Act before commencement are revoked

- (1) An endorsement issued under section 30B of this Act (as in force immediately before commencement) is revoked.
- (2) However, subclause (1) does not limit clause 5.

Schedule 1 clause 4: inserted, on 12 April 2019, by section 72 of the Arms (Prohibited Firearms, Magazines, and Parts) Amendment Act 2019 (2019 No 12).

5 Temporary amnesty for persons possessing prohibited items before commencement

- (1) This clause applies to a person who, before commencement, possesses a prohibited item.
- (2) The person does not commit an offence under section 50A, 50B, or 50C of this Act for the continued possession of the prohibited item.
- (3) Subclause (2)—
 - (a) ceases to have effect at the end of the amnesty period; and
 - (b) is subject to any other conditions (if any) set by regulations.
- (4) See also the provisions governing surrender and voluntary delivery of prohibited items in sections 59A and 59B of this Act.

Schedule 1 clause 5: inserted, on 12 April 2019, by section 72 of the Arms (Prohibited Firearms, Magazines, and Parts) Amendment Act 2019 (2019 No 12).

6 Compensation for prohibited items delivered to Police

- (1) This clause applies in respect of a prohibited item that, after 3 pm on 21 March 2019, is delivered or otherwise surrendered to a member of the Police.
- (2) The prohibited item becomes the property of the Crown, free and discharged from all right, title, or interest possessed by any person in respect of that item.

- (3) Compensation may be paid in respect of the prohibited item in accordance with any regulations made under clause 7.
- (4) However, nothing in this Act or the amendment Act otherwise confers any right to compensation, or is to be relied on in any proceedings as a basis for a claim to compensation, except and to the extent authorised by regulations made under clause 7.

Schedule 1 clause 6: inserted, on 12 April 2019, by section 72 of the Arms (Prohibited Firearms, Magazines, and Parts) Amendment Act 2019 (2019 No 12).

7 Regulations establishing compensation for delivery of prohibited items to Police

- (1) The Governor-General may, by Order in Council made on the recommendation of the Minister of Police, make regulations establishing 1 or more schemes for the purpose of paying compensation in respect of prohibited items that, during the amnesty period or any other specified period or periods, are delivered or otherwise surrendered to a member of the Police.
- (2) Regulations made under subclause (1) may—
 - (a) apply to 1 or more classes of licence holders or other persons who, before commencement, lawfully possessed prohibited items:
 - (b) apply to 1 or more classes of prohibited items:
 - (c) confer the right to compensation only if specified criteria or conditions are met:
 - (d) limit the right to compensation in specified circumstances (for example, the maximum number of prohibited magazines for which compensation may be paid to a person):
 - (e) provide for the Commissioner to determine the amount of compensation to be paid for a prohibited item or a class of prohibited items (whether that item or class of items is of a specified type, make, model, description, or condition, or a combination of these), including—
 - (i) by the issuing of a schedule of those amounts:
 - (ii) by determining the method by which the amount of compensation to be paid for a prohibited item is calculated, which may include—
 - (A) the maximum amount of compensation payable in respect of an item:
 - (B) the minimum amount of compensation payable in respect of an item:
 - (C) the proportion of a specified amount of compensation payable in respect of an item:
 - (f) impose conditions on any payment of compensation:

- (g) specify the criteria that may be applied by the Commissioner when determining or assessing the compensation payable in respect of a prohibited item:
 - (h) confer and make any provisions with respect to rights of review or appeal against any compensation determined or assessed in respect of a prohibited item.
- (3) Regulations made under subclause (1) may make different provision with respect to different persons, prohibited items, or circumstances or different classes of persons, prohibited items, or circumstances.
- (4) To avoid doubt, regulations made under subclause (1) need not include compensation for—
- (a) any economic loss; or
 - (b) any consequential loss; or
 - (c) any loss for business interruption; or
 - (d) any loss attributable to intrinsic or sentimental value.

Schedule 1 clause 7: inserted, on 12 April 2019, by section 72 of the Arms (Prohibited Firearms, Magazines, and Parts) Amendment Act 2019 (2019 No 12).

Part 2

Provisions relating to Arms Legislation Act 2020

Schedule 1 Part 2: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 105 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

8 Interpretation

In this Part,—

amendment Act means the Arms Legislation Act 2020

amnesty period means the period—

- (a) beginning on the commencement date; and
- (b) ending on—
 - (i) the date that is 6 months after the first date on which regulations made under clause 19 come into force; or specified item means—

- (a) a specified prohibited firearm:
- (b) a pistol carbine conversion kit specified prohibited firearm means—

- (a) a semi-automatic firearm that—

- (i) is capable of firing only 0.22 calibre or lower rimfire cartridges; and
 - (ii) has a magazine, whether or not detachable or otherwise externally fed, that is capable of holding no more than 10 cartridges commensurate with the firearm's chamber size; and
 - (iii) has a lower receiver that is able to be attached to a centrefire upper receiver so that the resulting firearm is able to function:
- (b) a semi-automatic pistol that is not—
- (i) a small semi-automatic pistol:
 - (ii) a semi-automatic pistol held by a person referred to in section 2A(3):
- (c) a centrefire pump-action rifle that is capable of being used with a detachable magazine:
- (d) a centrefire pump-action rifle that has 1 or more non-detachable magazines (tubular or otherwise) capable of holding more than 10 cartridges commensurate with that firearm's chamber size.

Schedule 1 clause 8: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 105 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

9 Duration of firearms licences issued or applied for before commencement date

- (1) If a firearms licence is issued on or after 10 February 2020 on an application made on or after that date but before the commencement date, the licence is treated as having effect only for 5 years in the case of an applicant who—
- (a) has never previously held a firearms licence; or
 - (b) has had their previous licence revoked or has surrendered their previous licence; or
 - (c) has allowed their previous licence to expire without applying for a new licence before the expiry date.
- (2) Nothing in the amendment Act affects the duration of any other firearms licence applied for before the commencement date.

Schedule 1 clause 9: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 105 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

10 Disqualification from holding firearms licence

- (1) This clause applies to a person who is the holder of a firearms licence immediately before the date of commencement of section 22H.
- (2) The holder is not disqualified under section 22H from holding the firearms licence even if the holder has, within the previous 10-year period ending on the date of commencement of section 22H,—
- (a) been convicted of any of the offences specified in that section; or

- (b) been released from custody after being convicted of any of those offences; or
- (c) had a protection order made against them under—
 - (i) section 79 of the Family Violence Act 2018; or
 - (ii) section 14 of the Domestic Violence Act 1995.

Schedule 1 clause 10: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 105 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

11 Kea guns

- (1) This clause applies to a person who—
 - (a) is the registered owner of a kea gun; and
 - (b) has a firearms licence that bears an endorsement made under section 29(1) (as it read immediately before its repeal by section 49(1) of the amendment Act).
- (2) The person must, within 6 months after the commencement of section 49(1) of the amendment Act,—
 - (a) obtain an endorsement under section 30 permitting the person to have possession of the kea gun in a capacity specified in section 29(2)(b), (c), or (d); or
 - (b) surrender the kea gun to a member of the Police.

Schedule 1 clause 11: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 105 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

15 Permits to import issued for purposes of section 16(1) of Act before commencement date revoked

- (1) A permit issued for the purposes of section 16(1) of this Act (as in force immediately before the commencement date) is revoked to the extent that it authorises the importation of a firearm that,—
 - (a) after the commencement date, is a specified prohibited firearm; and
 - (b) before the commencement date, has not been brought or sent into New Zealand.
- (2) This clause does not apply to permits issued for the purposes of enabling persons referred to in section 3(2) of this Act to carry out their duties.

Schedule 1 clause 15: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 105 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

16 Specified prohibited firearms subject to the control of Customs at commencement date

- (1) This clause applies to a specified prohibited firearm that is subject to the control of the New Zealand Customs Service at the commencement date.

- (2) The specified prohibited firearm is to be treated as specified prohibited goods under section 98 of the Customs and Excise Act 2018 and the chief executive of the New Zealand Customs Service may, under section 85(1)(b) of that Act, authorise the delivery of the specified prohibited firearm to the Police.
- (3) At the time of that delivery, the specified prohibited firearm ceases to be subject to the control of Customs.
- (4) In this clause, subject to the control of Customs has the same meaning as in section 6 of the Customs and Excise Act 2018.

Schedule 1 clause 16: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 105 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

17 Temporary amnesty for persons possessing specified items before commencement date

- (1) This clause applies to a person who, before the commencement date, lawfully possesses a specified item.
- (2) The person does not commit an offence under section 50A or 50AA of this Act for the continued possession of the specified item if the person does not use the specified item during the amnesty period.
- (3) Subclause (2)—
 - (a) ceases to have effect at the end of the amnesty period; and
 - (b) is subject to any other conditions (if any) set by regulations.
- (4) See also the provisions governing surrender and voluntary delivery of prohibited items in sections 59A and 59B of this Act.

Schedule 1 clause 17: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 105 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

18 Compensation for specified items delivered to Police

- (1) This clause applies in respect of a specified item that, on or after the commencement date, is delivered or otherwise surrendered to a member of the Police.
- (2) The specified item becomes the property of the Crown, free and discharged from all right, title, or interest possessed by any person in respect of that item.
- (3) Compensation may be paid in respect of the specified item in accordance with any regulations made under clause 19.
- (4) However, nothing in this Act or the amendment Act otherwise confers any right to compensation, or is to be relied on in any proceedings as a basis for a claim to compensation, except and to the extent authorised by regulations made under clause 19.

Schedule 1 clause 18: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 105 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

19 Regulations establishing compensation for delivery of specified items to Police

- (1) The Governor-General may, by Order in Council made on the recommendation of the Minister of Police, make regulations establishing 1 or more schemes for the purpose of paying compensation in respect of a specified item that, during the amnesty period or any other specified period or periods, is delivered or otherwise surrendered to a member of the Police or meets any other prescribed requirements.
- (2) Regulations made under subclause (1) may—
 - (a) apply to 1 or more classes of licence holders or other persons who, before the commencement date, lawfully possessed the specified item:
 - (b) apply to 1 or more classes of specified items:
 - (c) confer the right to compensation only if specified criteria or conditions are met:
 - (d) limit the right to compensation in specified circumstances (for example, the maximum number of pistol carbine conversion kits for which compensation may be paid to a person):
 - (e) provide for the Commissioner to determine the amount of compensation to be paid in respect of a specified item or a class of specified items (whether that item or class of items is of a specified type, make, model, description, or condition, or a combination of them), including—
 - (i) by issuing a schedule of those amounts:
 - (ii) by determining the method by which the amount of compensation to be paid in respect of a specified item is calculated, which may include—
 - (A) the maximum amount of compensation payable in respect of an item:
 - (B) the minimum amount of compensation payable in respect of an item:
 - (C) the proportion of a specified amount of compensation payable in respect of an item:
 - (f) impose conditions on any payment of compensation:
 - (g) specify the criteria that the Commissioner may apply when determining or assessing the compensation payable in respect of a specified item:
 - (h) confer and make any provisions with respect to rights of review or appeal against any compensation determined or assessed in respect of a specified item.
- (3) Regulations made under subclause (1) may make different provision with respect to different persons, specified items, or circumstances or different classes of persons, specified items, or circumstances.

- (4) To avoid doubt, regulations made under subclause (1) need not include compensation for—
- (a) any economic loss; or
 - (b) any consequential loss; or
 - (c) any loss for business interruption; or
 - (d) any loss attributable to intrinsic or sentimental value.

Schedule 1 clause 19: inserted, on 25 June 2020, by section 105 of the Arms Legislation Act 2020 (2020 No 23).

Arms Amendment Act 1992

Public Act	1992 No 95
Date of assent	27 October 1992
Commencement	see section 1(2)

1 Short Title and commencement

- (1) This Act may be cited as the Arms Amendment Act 1992, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Arms Act 1983 (hereinafter referred to as “the principal Act”).
- (2) Except as provided in section 7(2), this Act shall come into force on 1 November 1992.

Transitional provisions

32 Duration of existing firearms licences

Every firearms licence in force on 1 November 1992 shall, unless sooner cancelled, revoked, or surrendered, expire with the close of 31 October 2002.

33 Calling-in of existing firearms licences

- (1) At any time before the close of 31 October 2002, the Commissioner may, by notice given to any person who was on 1 November 1992 the holder of a firearms licence, call in that person’s firearms licence.
- (2) Where any person who was the holder of a firearms licence on 1 November 1992 is given a notice under subsection (1), that person, if then the holder of a firearms licence, shall, by the close of such date as is specified in the notice (which date shall be not less than 2 months after the date of the notice), comply with section 34 or section 35.
- (3) The notice shall, among other things, inform the licence holder of the substance of section 34B of the principal Act and of section 38 of this Act.

34 Surrender of firearms licences

If the holder of the firearms licence does not wish to continue to be the holder of a firearms licence, he or she shall surrender his or her firearms licence by delivering it or causing it to be delivered to a member of the Police at an Arms Office.

35 Applications for new firearms licences

- (1) If the holder of the firearms licence wishes to continue to be the holder of a firearms licence, he or she—
 - (a) shall attend in person at an Arms Office and there deliver to a member of the Police—

- (i) the holder's firearms licence or a letter explaining why the holder is unable to deliver his or her firearms licence; and
 - (ii) 2 photographs of the holder of the firearms licence; and
- (b) shall, at the same time as he or she complies with paragraph (a), complete at the Arms Office—
 - (i) an application for a new firearms licence; and
 - (ii) such applications (if any) as are required under any of the provisions of sections 29(1), 29(2), 30A(1), and 36 of the principal Act in respect of endorsements.
- (2) The photographs of the holder of the firearms licence (which shall be identical) shall comply with such other requirements (including requirements as to size) as are specified in the notice.

36 Re-issue of firearms licences

Where a person who was the holder of a firearms licence on 1 November 1992 and who wishes to continue to be the holder of a firearms licence complies with section 35 by the close of the date specified in the notice given to that person under section 33(1), a member of the Police shall consider whether that person is a fit and proper person to be in possession of a firearm or airgun, and, if satisfied that that person is such a person, shall cancel that person's existing firearms licence and, subject to section 24(2) of the principal Act and to compliance by that person with any notice given to that person under section 37(2) of this Act, issue a new firearms licence to that person.

37 Photographs of holders of firearms licences or dealers' licences

- (1) Every member of the Police who issues a firearms licence or a dealers' licence on or after 1 November 1992 shall ensure that a photograph of the holder of the licence is affixed to or imaged into the licence.
- (2) Notwithstanding that an applicant for a firearms licence or a dealers' licence, or a person to whom a notice has been given under section 33(1), has supplied photographs of himself or herself to an Arms Office, a member of the Police may give to that person a notice requiring that person to attend at an Arms Office for the purpose of having his or her photograph taken.
- (3) Every notice given to a person under subsection (2) shall specify the days on which and the times during which that person may have his or her photograph taken at the Arms Office.

38 Effect of failure to respond to calling-in of firearms licence

- (1) Where a notice under section 33(1) is given to a person who was the holder of a firearms licence on 1 November 1992 and that person does not, within the period of 6 months beginning with the date on which that notice was given to that person, comply with section 34 or section 35, that licence, unless sooner cancelled, revoked, or surrendered, shall be deemed to be revoked as from the close of that period.

- (2) Where a licence is deemed to be revoked by subsection (1), the person to whom the licence was issued shall cease to be licensed to possess firearms, air-guns, pistols, or restricted weapons by virtue of that licence or any endorsement on it.

39 Power to reinstate licences deemed to be revoked

- (1) Notwithstanding anything in section 38, where a person whose firearms licence has been revoked by section 38(1) satisfies a member of the Police, before the close of 31 October 2002, that—

- (a) that person did not receive the notice sent to that person under section 33(1); or
(b) that person has a reasonable excuse for failing to comply with section 35,— that member of the Police may direct that that person's firearms licence be reinstated as from the time when it was deemed to be revoked.

- (2) No member of the Police shall give a direction under subsection (1) for the reinstatement of any person's firearms licence unless that member of the Police is satisfied that that person has delivered to an Arms Office—

- (a) that firearms licence or a letter explaining why that person is unable to produce that firearms licence; or
(b) the photographs required by that notice.

- (3) Where a firearms licence is reinstated under subsection (1), a member of the Police shall forthwith proceed to consider under section 36 whether that person is a fit and proper person to be in possession of a firearm or airgun and sections 36 and 37 shall, with all necessary modifications, apply accordingly.
