Subpart 1—Layby sales

Subpart 1: inserted, on 17 June 2014, by section 23 of the Fair Trading Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 143).

36B Meaning of layby sale agreement

- (1) In this subpart, layby sale agreement means an agreement (whether or not described as a layby sale agreement) between a supplier and a consumer for the supply of goods on terms (whether express or implied) that provide that—
 - (a) the consumer will not take possession of the goods until all or a specified portion of the total price of the goods has been paid; and
 - (b) the price of the goods is to be paid by—
 - (i) 3 or more instalments; or
 - (ii) if the agreement specifies that it is a layby sale agreement, 2 or more instalments.
- (2) However, a layby sale agreement does not include an agreement for the supply of goods that have a purchase price that is more than $15,000 or, if greater, the amount specified in section 10(1A)(b) of the Disputes Tribunal Act 1988.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b), a deposit paid by the consumer for the goods is an instalment.
- (4) Despite section 7 of the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003, a layby sale agreement is not a credit contract for the purposes of that Act if no interest charges, and no credit fees, are payable under the layby sale agreement.
- (5) In subsection (4) and in this subsection,— associated person has the same meaning as in section 8A of the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003

credit fees—

 - (a) means fees or charges payable by a consumer under a layby sale agreement, or payable by a consumer to, or for the benefit of, the supplier in connection with a layby sale agreement; and
 - (b) includes—
 - (i) a fee or charge payable on a breach of a layby sale agreement by a consumer or on the enforcement of a layby sale agreement by a supplier:

- (ii) a fee or charge payable by a consumer for an amount payable, or to reimburse an amount paid, by the supplier to an associated person of the supplier; but
- (c) does not include—
 - (i) a cancellation charge referred to in section 36F:
 - (ii) charges for an optional service:
 - (iii) government charges, duties, taxes, or levies:
 - (iv) a fee or charge payable by a consumer for an amount payable, or to reimburse an amount paid, by the supplier to another person who is not an associated person of the supplier interest charge means a charge that accrues over time and is determined by applying a rate to the whole or any part of the outstanding amount that the consumer is required to pay to the supplier under the layby sale agreement (and includes any additional interest charge payable on a breach of a layby sale agreement by a consumer).

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b), the consumer must communicate with the supplier—
 - (a) by way of the contact details provided in accordance with section 36C(2)(a)(v); or
 - (b) in any other way agreed to by the consumer and the supplier.
- (3) A supplier must not require the consumer to pay a charge for the cancellation of the agreement (a cancellation charge) unless—
 - (a) the agreement is cancelled—
 - (i) by the consumer under subsection (1); or
 - (ii) by the supplier, because the consumer has breached a material term of the agreement (see section 36G(a)); and
 - (b) the agreement provides that a cancellation charge is payable; and
 - (c) the supplier has not breached the agreement.
- (4) A supplier must not impose a cancellation charge that is more than the supplier's reasonable costs arising directly from the agreement.
- (5) In subsection (4), reasonable costs arising directly from the agreement includes, for example,—

- (b) owing to circumstances beyond the control of the supplier,—
 - (i) the goods to which the agreement relates are no longer available; and
 - (ii) no satisfactory substitute goods can be reasonably obtained; or

- (b) have property in the goods to which the agreement relates transferred to him or her; and
- (c) take possession of those goods.
- (3) However, if there are insufficient goods to enable all consumers to complete their agreements in accordance with subsection (2), the agreements must be completed in the same order as they were entered into.
- (4) Subsections (2) and (3) do not apply to a consumer who has, in breach of the agreement, made no payments to the supplier during the 3 months immediately before the relevant event described in subsection (1)(a).
- (5) If a consumer makes a payment under the agreement after an event described in subsection (1), the consumer is entitled to have that payment refunded in full.

 - (i) is entitled to a refund under section 36H(a); or
 - (ii) has been unable to complete the layby sale agreement in accordance with section 36I(2) or (3), as the case may be.
- (2) If this section applies, the consumer—
 - (a) is a creditor in the bankruptcy, receivership, or liquidation, to the extent of the payments made to the supplier in accordance with the layby sale agreement; and
 - (b) is entitled to recover a sum equal to those payments with priority over—
 - (i) all other unsecured creditors; and
 - (ii) all creditors secured by a security interest of the kind described in subsection (3).
- (3) The kind of security interest referred to in subsection (2)(b)(ii) is a security interest that is over all or any part of the supplier's accounts receivable and inventory, or all or part of either of them, other than—
 - (a) a purchase money security interest that has been perfected at the time specified in section 74 of the Personal Property Securities Act 1999; or
 - (b) a security interest that—

- (i) has been perfected under the Personal Property Securities Act 1999 at the date of the event described in section 36I(1)(a)(i) to (iii); and

Subpart 2—Uninvited direct sales

Subpart 2: inserted, on 17 June 2014, by section 23 of the Fair Trading Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 143).

36K Meaning of uninvited direct sale agreement

- (1) In this subpart, uninvited direct sale agreement means an agreement for the supply, in trade, of goods or services to a consumer—
- (a) that is made as a result of negotiations (whether or not they are the only negotiations that precede the making of the agreement) between a supplier and the consumer in a situation described in either subsection (2) or (3); and
 - (b) where the price paid or payable by the consumer under the agreement—
 - (i) is more than $100; or
 - (ii) cannot be ascertained at the time of supply (regardless of whether the price ultimately paid or payable is $100 or less).
- (2) The first situation is where the negotiations take place between the consumer and the supplier, in each other's presence, in the consumer's home or workplace, where the consumer did not invite the supplier to come to that place for the purposes of entering into negotiations relating to the supply of those goods or services (whether or not the consumer made such an invitation in relation to a different supply).

- (3) The other situation is where the negotiations take place by telephone, where the consumer did not invite the supplier to make the telephone call for the purposes of entering into negotiations relating to the supply of those goods or services (whether or not the consumer made such an invitation in relation to a different supply).
- (4) However, uninvited direct sale agreement does not include a renewal agreement.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, a consumer has not invited a supplier to—
 - (a) come to the home or workplace, or to make a telephone call, merely because the consumer has—
 - (i) given his or her name or contact details to the supplier other than for the predominant purpose of entering into negotiations relating to the supply of goods or services; or
 - (ii) contacted the supplier in connection with an unsuccessful attempt by the supplier to contact the consumer:
 - (b) enter into negotiations for a supply merely because the supplier has provided an unsolicited quote or estimate.
- (6) In subsection (4), renewal agreement means a new agreement that replaces an existing agreement between a supplier and consumer where—
 - (a) the existing agreement—
 - (i) involves the supply, in trade, of goods or services to the consumer by the supplier; and
 - (ii) is in force at the time the negotiations for the new agreement occur; and
 - (b) the new agreement involves the supply, in trade, of goods or services—
 - (i) of the same, or of a similar, kind as those supplied under the existing agreement; and
 - (ii) by the same supplier to the same consumer (being the parties to the existing agreement); and
 - (iii) on the same, or similar, terms and conditions as those in the existing agreement.

Section 36K: inserted, on 17 June 2014, by section 23 of the Fair Trading Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 143).

36L Disclosure requirements relating to uninvited direct sale agreements

- (1) A supplier must ensure that—

- (a) every uninvited direct sale agreement entered into by that supplier—
 - (i) is in writing; and
 - (ii) is expressed in plain language; and
 - (iii) is legible; and
 - (iv) is presented clearly; and
 - (v) complies with the requirements of subsection (2); and
 - (b) a copy of the agreement is given to the consumer—
 - (i) at the time the agreement is entered into; or
 - (ii) in the case of an agreement entered into over the telephone, within 5 working days after the date on which the agreement was entered into.
- (2) The requirements referred to in subsection (1)(a)(v) are that—
- (a) the following information is set out on the front page of the agreement:
 - (i) a clear description of the goods or services to be supplied under the agreement; and
 - (ii) a summary of the consumer's right to cancel the agreement under section 36M(1); and
 - (iii) the supplier's name, street address, telephone number, and email address; and
 - (iv) the consumer's name and street address; and
 - (b) either—
 - (i) the total price payable, and any other consideration to be given, under the agreement is disclosed in the agreement; or
 - (ii) if the total price or consideration is not ascertainable at the time at which the agreement is entered into, the method by which the total price or consideration will be calculated is disclosed in the agreement; and
 - (c) the agreement is dated.
- (3) The supplier must give the consumer oral notice, before the agreement is entered into, of—
- (a) the consumer's right to cancel the agreement within 5 working days after the date on which the consumer receives a copy of the agreement; and
 - (b) how the consumer may cancel the agreement.
- (4) However, if an uninvited direct sale agreement is, or includes, a consumer credit contract (as defined in section 11 of the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003), in relation to that consumer credit contract only,—
- (a) Part 2 of that Act applies in place of this subpart; and

- (b) the supplier must give the consumer oral notice, before the agreement is entered into, of—
 - (i) the consumer's rights to cancel the agreement under that Act; and
 - (ii) how the consumer may cancel the agreement under that Act.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4), a consumer credit contract is included in an uninvited direct sale agreement if that contract was entered into for the purpose of financing the purchase of the goods or services that are the subject of the uninvited direct sale agreement.
- (6) To avoid doubt, where an uninvited direct sale agreement includes a consumer credit contract, this subpart continues to apply to every part of the agreement that is not a consumer credit contract.

 - (b) if the supplier has failed to comply with section 36L (except to the extent provided for in section 36N(2)), at any time.
- (2) Notice of cancellation may be expressed in any way (including oral or written) that shows the intention of the consumer to cancel or withdraw from the agreement.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the consumer must communicate with the supplier—
 - (a) by way of the contact details provided in accordance with section 36L(2)(a)(iii); or
 - (b) in any other way agreed to by the consumer and the supplier.

Section 36M: inserted, on 17 June 2014, by section 23 of the Fair Trading Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 143).

36N Enforcement of uninvited direct sale agreement by supplier

- (1) An uninvited direct sale agreement is not enforceable by a supplier unless—
 - (a) the supplier has complied with section 36L; and
 - (b) the time during which the consumer may cancel the agreement under section 36M has expired, and the consumer has not given notice of cancellation within that time.
- (2) However, subsection (1)(a) does not apply if the failure to comply with section 36L is minor (for example, where a supplier has provided an agreement at a time later than the time specified in section 36L(1)(b)) and does not materially prejudice the consumer.

Section 36N: inserted, on 17 June 2014, by section 23 of the Fair Trading Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 143).

36O Effect of cancellation of uninvited direct sale agreement

If an uninvited direct sale agreement is cancelled by a consumer (see section 36M),—

- (a) the agreement (including any security or guarantee given by any person in connection with that agreement) and any collateral agreement (including any consumer credit contract referred to in section 36L(4)) are, in relation to the consumer's rights under this Act,—
 - (i) to be treated as if they had never had effect; and
 - (ii) not enforceable; and
- (b) the supplier must comply with section 36P; and
- (c) the consumer must comply with section 36Q; and
- (d) compensation (if any) is payable in accordance with section 36R.

Section 36O: inserted, on 17 June 2014, by section 23 of the Fair Trading Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 143).

36P Supplier's obligations on cancellation of uninvited direct sale agreement

On cancellation of an uninvited direct sale agreement in accordance with section 36M, the supplier must immediately repay to the consumer all money paid to the supplier under the agreement.

Section 36P: inserted, on 17 June 2014, by section 23 of the Fair Trading Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 143).

36Q Consumer's obligations on cancellation of uninvited direct sale agreement

- (1) On cancellation of an uninvited direct sale agreement in accordance with section 36M, the consumer must,—
 - (a) if the supplier has complied with section 36P, permit the supplier to take possession of any goods that have been provided to the consumer under the agreement—
 - (i) from the address provided by the consumer in the agreement; and
 - (ii) at any reasonable time requested by the supplier; and
 - (b) take reasonable care of those goods, from the time that the consumer took possession of the goods until the end of 10 working days beginning with the date on which notice was given in accordance with section 36M.
- (2) However, if, during the 10 working days referred to in subsection (1)(b), the consumer unreasonably refuses or fails to permit the supplier to take possession of the goods, the consumer's obligation to take reasonable care of the goods continues until the consumer has given the supplier a reasonable opportunity to take possession of the goods.

- (3) Despite subsection (1), a consumer may, at the supplier's expense (if the supplier requests the consumer to return the goods and arranges for the goods to be collected from the consumer) or at the consumer's expense (if the consumer chooses to return the goods without a request being made by the supplier), return the goods to the supplier, in which case the consumer's obligation to take care of the goods ceases when the goods are collected from the consumer, or when the consumer sends the goods to the supplier, as the case may be.
- (4) However, the consumer is under an obligation to take reasonable care to ensure that the goods will not be damaged in transit and, if the consumer chooses to return the goods without a request being made by the supplier, to also take reasonable care to ensure that the goods will be delivered to the supplier.
- (5) To avoid doubt, a consumer is under no obligation—
 - (a) to permit the supplier to take possession of the goods if the supplier has failed to comply with section 36P; or
 - (b) to deliver, or to arrange delivery of, the goods to the supplier; or
 - (c) to care for the goods other than as required under this section.

Section 36Q: inserted, on 17 June 2014, by section 23 of the Fair Trading Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 143).

36R Compensation on cancellation of uninvited direct sale agreement

- (1) On cancellation of an uninvited direct sale agreement under section 36M, the consumer is liable to pay compensation to the supplier for any loss of, or damage to, the goods that occurs while they are in the custody of the consumer, other than loss or damage—
 - (a) arising from the normal use of the goods; or
 - (b) owing to circumstances beyond the consumer's control.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies only in relation to the period of custody beginning when the consumer takes delivery of the goods and ending—
 - (a) at the end of 10 working days after the date on which notice was given in accordance with section 36M; or
 - (b) if section 36Q(2) applies, when the consumer has given the supplier a reasonable opportunity to take possession of the goods.
- (3) If a supplier provided services under the agreement before it was cancelled,—
 - (a) the supplier is not entitled to any compensation for those services; and
 - (b) if the services have resulted in the alteration of, or damage to, the consumer's property, the supplier must, if required by the consumer and at the supplier's expense, return the property to the condition it was in (or as close as is reasonably practicable to that condition) immediately before the services were provided.

- (4) A supplier is not entitled to damages, or to enforce any other remedy, in relation to the cancellation of an uninvited direct sale agreement under section 36M, except as provided for in this section.

Section 36R: inserted, on 17 June 2014, by section 23 of the Fair Trading Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 143).

36S Regulations

- (1) The Governor-General may, by Order in Council made on the recommendation of the Minister in accordance with subsection (2), make regulations for the following purposes:
- (a) exempting classes of agreement for the issue or sale of a financial product from 1 or more provisions of this subpart:
 - (b) prescribing terms and conditions to which an exemption described in paragraph (a) is subject.
- (2) The Minister must not make a recommendation under this section unless—
- (a) the Minister is satisfied that the exemption is not broader than is reasonably necessary to address the matters that gave rise to the regulations; and
 - (b) the Minister has consulted the persons or representatives of the persons that the Minister considers will be substantially affected by any Order in Council made in accordance with the recommendation, and those persons have had the opportunity to comment to the Minister; and
 - (c) the Minister has considered those comments.
- (3) A failure to comply with subsection (2) does not affect the validity of any Order in Council made under this section.
- (4) In this section, agreement for the issue or sale of a financial product means an agreement, resulting from an offer described in section 34(2) of the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013, for the issue or sale of a financial product (within the meaning of that section).

Subpart 3—Extended warranties

Subpart 3: inserted, on 17 June 2014, by section 23 of the Fair Trading Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 143).

36T Meaning of extended warranty agreement and related definitions

In this subpart,—

extended warranty agreement means an agreement—

- (a) that is entered into—
 - (i) between a consumer and a warrantor in relation to the purchase by the consumer of goods or services; and

- (ii) at, or at about, the same time as those goods or services are purchased; and
- (b) under which the warrantor provides specific warranties, guarantees, or undertakings (either directly or through a third person) in relation to those goods or services; and
- (c) for which the consumer pays a price that is separate from, or additional to, the price at which the goods or services are offered for sale warrantor means both—

- (a) the supplier, if that person arranges or provides the extended warranty agreement; and
- (b) if the extended warranty agreement is entered into directly between the consumer and a person other than the supplier (for example, an insurer or manufacturer), that other person.

Section 36T: inserted, on 17 June 2014, by section 23 of the Fair Trading Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 143).

36U Disclosure requirements relating to extended warranty agreements

- (1) A warrantor must ensure that—
 - (a) every extended warranty agreement—
 - (i) is in writing; and
 - (ii) is expressed in plain language; and
 - (iii) is legible; and
 - (iv) is presented clearly; and
 - (v) complies with the requirements of subsection (2); and
 - (b) a copy of the agreement is given to the consumer at the time the consumer purchases the extended warranty.
- (2) The requirements referred to in subsection (1)(a)(v) are that—
 - (a) the following information is set out on the front page of the agreement:
 - (i) a summarised comparison between the relevant Consumer Guarantees Act 1993 guarantees and the protections provided by the extended warranty agreement; and
 - (ii) a summary of the consumer's rights and remedies under the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993; and
 - (iii) a summary of the consumer's right to cancel the agreement under section 36V; and
 - (iv) the warrantor's name, street address, telephone number, and email address; and
 - (b) all the terms and conditions of the agreement are included in the agreement, including—

- (i) the rights and obligations of the warrantor and the consumer; and
 - (ii) the duration and expiry date of the agreement (including whether or not the agreement expires when a claim is made); and
 - (c) the total price payable under the agreement is disclosed in the agreement; and
 - (d) the agreement is dated.
- (3) In addition to the requirements for written disclosure under subsections (1) and (2), the warrantor must, where reasonably practicable (for example, where the agreement is entered into between a warrantor and consumer in each other's presence or by telephone), give the consumer oral notice, before the agreement is entered into, of—
- (a) the consumer's right to cancel the agreement within 5 working days; and
 - (b) how the consumer may cancel the agreement.

Section 36U: inserted, on 17 June 2014, by section 23 of the Fair Trading Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 143).

36V Cancellation of extended warranty agreement

- (1) A consumer may cancel an extended warranty agreement by giving notice of the cancellation to the warrantor—
- (a) within 5 working days after the date on which the consumer receives a copy of the agreement; or
 - (b) if the warrantor has failed to comply with section 36U (except to the extent provided for in subsection (2)(b)), at any time.
- (2) However,—
- (a) subsection (1) does not apply in relation to an extended warranty agreement that has been entered into as a condition of a consumer credit contract (as defined in section 11 of the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003); and
 - (b) subsection (1)(b) does not apply if the failure to comply with section 36U is minor (for example, where a warrantor has provided an agreement at a time later than the time specified in section 36U(1)(b)) and does not materially prejudice the consumer.
- (3) Notice of cancellation may be expressed in any way (including oral or written) that shows the intention of the consumer to cancel or withdraw from the agreement.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), the consumer must communicate with the warrantor—
- (a) by way of the contact details provided in accordance with section 36U(2)(a)(iv); or
 - (b) in any other way agreed to by the consumer and the warrantor.

- (5) On cancellation of an agreement in accordance with subsections (1) to (3), the supplier must immediately repay all additional consideration, in full and without any deductions, to the consumer.
- (6) To avoid doubt, nothing in this section entitles a consumer to cancel any other agreement relating to the goods or services that are the subject of the extended warranty agreement.

Section 36V: inserted, on 17 June 2014, by section 23 of the Fair Trading Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 143).

36W Regulations

- (1) The Governor-General may, by Order in Council made on the recommendation of the Minister in accordance with subsection (2), make regulations, in relation to extended warranty agreements, for all or any of the following purposes:
 - (a) prescribing a statement for the purposes of providing the information specified in section 36U(2), including the size of the lettering of the words in, and the format of, the statement;
 - (b) prescribing how, when, and to whom a statement prescribed under paragraph (a) must be provided.
- (2) The Minister must not make a recommendation under this section unless—
 - (a) the Minister has consulted such persons or representatives of such persons as the Minister considers will be substantially affected by any regulations made in accordance with the recommendation, and those persons have had the opportunity to comment to the Minister; and
 - (b) the Minister has considered any such comments.
- (3) A failure to comply with subsection (2) does not affect the validity of any regulations made under this section.

Section 36W: inserted, on 17 June 2014, by section 23 of the Fair Trading Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 143).

Subpart 4—Auctions

Subpart 4: inserted, on 17 June 2014, by section 23 of the Fair Trading Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 143).

36X Definitions

- (1) In this subpart, unless the context otherwise requires,— auction means a process in which property of any kind (including goods, services, and interests in land) is offered for sale by an auctioneer on behalf of a vendor, and—

 - (a) bids for the property are placed with the auctioneer in real time, whether in person, by telephone, via the Internet, or by any other means; and
 - (b) the property is sold when the auctioneer so indicates registered auctioneer means an auctioneer registered as an auctioneer under the Auctioneers Act 2013 vendor means the person whose property is offered for sale at an auction by an auctioneer.

- (2) To avoid doubt, a process of selling property is not necessarily an auction for the purpose of this subpart just because it is described as an auction. For example, a process described as an Internet auction, but that provides that any contract of sale resulting from the process is a contract directly between the winner of the bidding and the seller of the property, is not an auction for the purpose of this subpart.

Section 36X: inserted, on 17 June 2014, by section 23 of the Fair Trading Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 143).

36Y Application of subpart

This subpart applies to auctions conducted by or on behalf of—

- (a) a registered auctioneer; or
- (b) any other person who carries on business as an auctioneer (within the meaning given in section 5(3) of the Auctioneers Act 2013), whether or not a registered auctioneer.

Section 36Y: inserted, on 17 June 2014, by section 23 of the Fair Trading Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 143).

36Z Each lot is separate contract of sale

If property is offered for sale by auction in lots,—

- (a) the offer of each lot is a separate auction; and
- (b) each lot sold is subject to a separate contract of sale.

Compare: 1908 No 168 s 59; 2007 No 91 s 42

Section 36Z: inserted, on 17 June 2014, by section 23 of the Fair Trading Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 143).

36ZA Start and end of auction

- (1) An auction starts when the auctioneer invites the first bid from potential participants.
- (2) An auction ends when the auctioneer makes it clear that bidding is closed.
- (3) However, property that is offered for sale by auction must be treated as having been sold at auction, even if the bidding ceased without the property being sold, if—
 - (a) the auctioneer accepts a subsequent offer from a person who attended the auction; and
 - (b) that offer is accepted before the end of the first working day following the day of the auction.

Compare: 1908 No 168 s 59; 2007 No 91 s 42

Section 36ZA: inserted, on 17 June 2014, by section 23 of the Fair Trading Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 143).

36ZB Notice to participants

- (1) Before and during any auction, notice of the terms of the auction must be readily available to view by all participants and potential participants in the auction, which means—
 - (a) for participants attending an auction in person, the notice must be displayed and readily available to view by all participants; and
 - (b) in any other case, the notice must be available to view, before and during the auction, on a readily accessible Internet site.
- (2) The notice of terms must include notice of the following:
 - (a) in the case of an auction of goods of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic, or household use or consumption, whether the vendor of the goods is selling the goods in trade as a supplier (within the meaning of the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993):
 - (b) whether the sale is subject to a reserve price:
 - (c) whether vendor bids are permitted.
- (3) If different terms apply with respect to different lots, the notice, or the auctioneer before starting the auction of each lot, must identify which terms apply.
- (4) The person responsible for complying with the requirements of subsections (1) to (3) is,—
 - (a) if the auction is conducted by or on behalf of a registered auctioneer, the registered auctioneer; or
 - (b) in any other case, the auctioneer conducting the auction.

Section 36ZB: inserted, on 17 June 2014, by section 23 of the Fair Trading Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 143).

36ZC Vendors selling in trade

The Consumer Guarantees Act 1993 does not apply to goods sold at auction if—

- (a) the goods are goods that are ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic, or household use; and
- (b) the vendor is selling the goods in trade as a supplier (within the meaning of the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993); and
- (c) the goods are acquired in trade; and
- (d) the notice of the terms of the auction specifies that in the circumstances described in paragraphs (a) to (c) the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993 does not apply as between the vendor and the purchaser.

Section 36ZC: inserted, on 17 June 2014, by section 23 of the Fair Trading Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 143).

36ZD Vendor bids

- (1) An auctioneer must not accept a vendor bid unless—
 - (a) the terms of the auction specify that vendor bids are permitted; and
 - (b) the auctioneer identifies each vendor bid as it is given; and
 - (c) the property is offered for sale with a reserve price and the vendor bid is less than the reserve price.
- (2) In this section, vendor bid means a bid made by the vendor or any person (including an auctioneer) acting as agent for the vendor.

Section 36ZD: inserted, on 17 June 2014, by section 23 of the Fair Trading Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 143).

36ZE Bids may be withdrawn until end of auction

Any bid at an auction may be withdrawn before the end of the auction.

Compare: 2007 No 91 s 42

Section 36ZE: inserted, on 17 June 2014, by section 23 of the Fair Trading Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 143).

36ZF Account and payment of proceeds

- (1) Within 10 working days after the sale by auction of property, the auctioneer must provide to the vendor—
 - (a) the balance of the proceeds of the sale payable to the vendor; and
 - (b) an account of the sale, which must set out, at a minimum, the bid accepted from the purchaser, the amount of any tax, auctioneer's commission or other deductions, and the amount payable to the vendor.
- (2) However, unless the vendor and auctioneer have agreed otherwise, if the vendor requests an auctioneer to provide the balance of the proceeds and an account of the sale sooner than 10 working days after the sale, the auctioneer must comply with the request within 5 working days after the request is made.
- (3) An auctioneer need not comply with subsection (1) if—
 - (a) the vendor—
 - (i) is in trade; or
 - (ii) is selling goods other than goods of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic, or household use or consumption; and
 - (b) the vendor agrees (expressly or impliedly) that subsection (1) need not apply.
- (4) This section does not apply to a sale by auction of land or an interest in land conducted by a licensed real estate agent, and the provisions of the Real Estate Agents Act 2008 apply instead.

 - (c) would cause detriment (whether financial or otherwise) to a party if it were applied, enforced, or relied on.

 - (a) the extent to which the term is transparent; and
 - (b) the contract as a whole.
