 - (c) the claim is transferred to the Tribunal pursuant to section 37.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Tribunal may,—

- (6) In subsection (5) land does not include fixtures.

- (8) In subsection (7) enactment means a provision of any Act or of any other instrument that has legislative effect and that is authorised by or pursuant to any Act.

- (1) Where a claim is lodged with the Tribunal, or transferred to the Tribunal under section 24(3) or (4) or section 37, and the claim is within the Tribunal's jurisdiction, the issues in dispute in that claim (whether as shown in the initial claim or as emerging in the course of the hearing) shall not be the subject of proceedings between the same parties in any other court or tribunal unless—

18 Functions of Tribunal

- (1) The Tribunal shall, as regards every claim within its jurisdiction, assess whether, in all the circumstances, it is appropriate for the Tribunal to assist the parties to negotiate an agreed settlement in relation to the claim.

- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), in making an assessment under that subsection, the Tribunal shall have regard to any factors that, in the Tribunal's opinion, are likely to impair the ability of either or both of the parties to negotiate an agreed settlement.
- (3) Where the parties reach an agreed settlement, the Tribunal may approve the settlement, and the settlement shall then take effect as if it were an order of the Tribunal made under subsection (8), and shall be enforceable in accordance with section 47.
- (4) In approving an agreed settlement pursuant to subsection (3), the Tribunal is not bound by the monetary restrictions in section 19(4) to (6).
- (4A) An agreed settlement approved by the Tribunal under subsection (3) may include the terms of any agreement between the parties for payment of any amount specified in the agreed settlement to be enforced by way of an attachment order made under the District Court Act 2016.
- (4B) If subsection (4A) applies, then section 19(1A) to (1C) apply.
- (5) Where—
 - (a) it appears to the Tribunal that it would not be appropriate for it to assist the parties to negotiate an agreed settlement in relation to the claim; or
 - (b) the parties are unable to reach an agreed settlement in relation to the claim; or
 - (c) the Tribunal does not approve an agreed settlement reached by the parties in relation to the claim,—the Tribunal shall proceed to determine the dispute.
- (6) The Tribunal shall determine the dispute according to the substantial merits and justice of the case, and in doing so shall have regard to the law but shall not be bound to give effect to strict legal rights or obligations or to legal forms or technicalities.
- (7) Without limiting the generality of subsection (6), the Tribunal may, in respect of any agreement or document that directly or indirectly bears upon the dispute between the parties, disregard any provision in that agreement or document that excludes or limits—
 - (a) conditions, warranties, or undertakings; or
 - (b) any right, duty, liability, or remedy that would arise or accrue in the circumstances of the dispute if there were no such exclusion or limitation.
- (8) To give effect to its determination of the dispute under subsection (5), or in granting relief in respect of any claim that is not disputed (except where subsection (3) applies), the Tribunal shall make 1 or more of the orders that it is empowered to make under section 19 or under any other enactment.

 - (c) the Tribunal may order a party to deliver specific property to another party to the proceedings:
 - (d) the Tribunal may make a work order against any party to the proceedings:
 - (e) where it appears to the Tribunal that an agreement between the parties, or any term of any such agreement, is harsh or unconscionable, or that any power conferred by an agreement between them has been exercised in a harsh or unconscionable manner, the Tribunal may make an order varying the agreement, or setting it aside (either wholly or in part):
 - (f) where it appears to the Tribunal that an agreement between the parties has been induced by fraud, misrepresentation, or mistake, or any writing purporting to express the agreement between the parties does not accord with their true agreement, the Tribunal may make an order varying, or setting aside, the agreement or the writing (either wholly or in part):
 - (g) the Tribunal may make an order dismissing the claim:
 - (h) the Tribunal may strike out, in whole or in part, a proceeding if satisfied that it—
 - (i) discloses no reasonable cause of action; or
 - (ii) is likely to cause prejudice or delay; or
 - (iii) is frivolous or vexatious; or
 - (iv) is otherwise an abuse of process:
 - (i) if a party is neither present nor represented at the hearing of a proceeding, the Tribunal may,—

- (i) if the party is required to be present, strike out the proceeding; or
 - (ii) determine the proceeding in the absence of the party; or
 - (iii) adjourn the hearing.
- (1A) The Tribunal may record in an order made under subsection (1)(a) (a money order) that the parties have agreed to enforce the payment of the amount specified in that order by way of an attachment order made under the District Court Act 2016 if—
 - (a) the money order was made at a hearing at which both parties were present; and
 - (b) the party ordered to pay money consented to the payment of the money being enforced by way of an attachment order; and
 - (c) both parties agreed on the terms of the attachment order, including the details specified in subsection (1B).
- (1B) If subsection (1A) applies, the money order must include the following details:
 - (a) the employer to whom the attachment order will relate; and

 - (c) the amount or percentage to be deducted from salary or wages for the earnings period; and
 - (d) the amount or percentage below which the net amount paid for the earnings period must not fall; and
 - (e) the name and address of the person to whom the amounts deducted are to be paid; and
 - (f) that the attachment order is to remain in force until the amount specified in the money order has been paid in full or, if the attachment order is to remain in force for a fixed period, that period.
- (1C) Nothing in subsection (1B)(d) allows the parties to agree on a net amount to be paid for an earnings period that would otherwise derogate from section 157(3) of the District Court Act 2016.
- (1D) If subsection (1B) is complied with, the money order may be filed in the District Court and, if so filed, sections 139(2) and 154 to 162 of the District Court Act 2016 apply to the extent they are applicable and subject to any necessary modifications.
- (1E) In this section, employer and salary or wages have the same meanings as in section 154 of the District Court Act 2016.
- (2) Any order made by the Tribunal may be unconditional, or subject to such conditions (whether as to the time for, or mode of, compliance, or otherwise) as the Tribunal thinks fit to impose.

- (3) Where the Tribunal makes a work order against a party, it shall, where the order is made under section 18(8) or section 46(2), at the same time make an order under subsection (1)(a) of this section to be complied with as an alternative to compliance with the work order.
- (4) Subject to section 20, the Tribunal shall not make an order under this Act that exceeds any of the monetary restrictions specified in subsection (5), and any order that exceeds any such restriction shall be entirely of no effect.
- (5) The monetary restrictions that apply for the purposes of subsection (4) are as follows:
 - (a) an order under subsection (1)(a) or under section 47(3)(b) shall not require payment of money exceeding $30,000:

- (6) Except as provided in subsection (3), the Tribunal shall not, in respect of a claim, make more than 1 of the orders authorised by paragraphs (a) to (d) of subsection (1), or by any other enactment, if the aggregate amount or value of those orders exceeds $30,000, and every order so made contrary to this subsection shall be entirely of no effect.
- (7) [Repealed]

Enforcement of orders

45 Enforcement of orders except work orders

- (2) Where application is made to the District Court for the issue of any process to enforce an order provided for by section 19(3) (requiring a party to pay money to another as an alternative to compliance with a work order), a Registrar shall give notice of the application to the party against whom enforcement is sought.
- (3) If that party does not file in the court, within the period prescribed for so doing, a notice of objection in a form approved by the chief executive after consultation with the Principal Disputes Referee, the order may, after the expiry of that period, be enforced pursuant to subsection (1).
- (4) The notice referred to in subsection (3) may only be given on the ground that it is the belief of the party that the order of the Tribunal has been fully complied with and that that party therefore disputes the entitlement of the applicant to enforce it.
- (5) If the party against whom enforcement is sought files the notice referred to in subsection (3) within the prescribed time, a Registrar shall refer the matter to the Tribunal to be heard and determined under section 46(2).

- (b) that other party has not complied with the alternative money order provided for by section 19(3),— the party in whose favour the work order was made may, instead of applying to the District Court for the issue of a process for enforcement pursuant to section 45(1), lodge in the Tribunal a request in a form approved by the chief executive after consultation with the Principal Disputes Referee that the work order be enforced.

(2) Subsequent proceedings shall be taken on a request for enforcement under subsection (1) and on a notice under section 45(5) as if such request or notice were a claim lodged under section 24; and upon the hearing of the matter the Tribunal may—

- (b) grant leave to the party in whose favour the work order was made to enforce the alternative money order provided for by section 19(3), or so much of that order as the Tribunal may allow, and either subject to or without compliance with the provisions of section 45(2):

(2) Where—

- (a) a term of an agreed settlement approved by the Tribunal under section 18(3) provides for a party to make good a defect in any property, or a deficiency in the performance of services, by doing such work or attending to such matters (including the replacement of any property) as may be specified in the agreement; and

- (b) a party who would benefit by the enforcement of that term considers that the term has not been complied with by the other party,— the party who would benefit by the enforcement of the term may lodge in the Tribunal a request in a form approved by the chief executive after consultation with the Principal Disputes Referee for that term to be enforced.
- (3) Subsequent proceedings shall be taken on a request for enforcement under subsection (2) as if such request were a claim lodged under section 24; and upon the hearing of the matter the Tribunal may—
- (a) if the parties so agree, vary the term of the agreed settlement that is sought to be enforced, or any other term of that settlement:

- (1) The Tribunal may order the rehearing of a claim following an application by a party, and may grant the application on any terms it thinks fit.
- (1A) In any case, the Tribunal may order only 1 rehearing unless the Tribunal considers that the interests of justice require more than 1 rehearing.
- (2) A rehearing may be ordered under subsection (1) only—

- (b) where an order has been made under section 46(2) or section 47(3)(b), or a term of an agreed settlement has been varied under section 47(3)(a), and, in all such cases, shall be limited to rehearing the enforcement proceedings taken under those sections; or
- (c) where an agreed settlement has been approved by the Tribunal under section 18(3) and, after the hearing, a party to the settlement discovers facts directly relevant to the dispute that could not, with reasonable dili-

- (3) Every application for a rehearing shall be made within 20 working days after the Tribunal's order (or, in the case of an agreed settlement, the Tribunal's approval of the settlement or the variation of a term of that settlement under section 47(3)(a), as the case may require) or within such further time as the Tribunal may, on application, allow, and shall be served upon the other parties to the proceedings.

- (6) This Act shall apply to a rehearing in all respects as it applies to an original hearing.
- (7) On receipt of an application for a rehearing, the Tribunal may stay the implementation of the order, approval, or variation until the application is decided.
