Part 1

Programme standards

4 Responsibility of broadcasters for programme standards

- (1) Every broadcaster is responsible for maintaining in its programmes and their presentation, standards that are consistent with—
 - (a) the observance of good taste and decency; and
 - (b) the maintenance of law and order; and
 - (c) the privacy of the individual; and
 - (d) the principle that when controversial issues of public importance are discussed, reasonable efforts are made, or reasonable opportunities are given, to present significant points of view either in the same programme or in other programmes within the period of current interest; and
 - (e) any approved code of broadcasting practice applying to the programmes.
- (2) Where, in respect of any film within the meaning of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993,—
 - (a) there is in force under that Act a decision classifying that film as objectionable; or
 - (b) there is in force under that Act a decision classifying that film as if certain excisions had been made,— no broadcaster,—
 - (c) in the case of a film to which paragraph (a) applies, shall broadcast that film or any part of that film; or
 - (d) in the case of a film to which paragraph (b) applies, shall broadcast the film, or any part of the film, if the film or, as the case may be, that part includes any part of the film required to be excised,— except with the consent of the Chief Censor of Film and Literature and subject to any conditions subject to which the Chief Censor has given the consent.

Part 2

Complaints

5 Principles

This Part is based on the following principles:

- (a) broadcasters have a responsibility to deal with complaints relating to broadcasts and must establish a proper procedure to deal with them:
- (b) a body other than the broadcaster must be available to complainants to ensure that broadcasters discharge their responsibilities in relation to programme standards:
- (c) complaints based merely on a complainant's preferences are not, in general, capable of being resolved by a complaints procedure:
- (d) an independent complaints procedure is not a substitute for proper consideration of complaints by the broadcaster:
- (e) complaints should be made promptly to the broadcaster:
- (f) formal complaints must be made in writing:
- (g) most complaints that are capable of being resolved by an independent complaints procedure should not be required to be resolved by that procedure but should be capable of being resolved by proper consideration and proper response on the part of the broadcaster:
- (h) the first consideration of a complaint should be prompt and without undue formality:
- (i) further consideration of a complaint calls for greater formality.

Compare: 1976 No 132 s 95A(b)–(j); 1982 No 6 s 11

6 Formal complaints about programmes

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), it is the duty of every broadcaster—
 - (a) to receive and consider formal complaints about any programme broadcast by it where the complaint constitutes, in respect of that programme, an allegation that the broadcaster has failed to comply with section 4; and
 - (b) to publicise the procedures for making such complaints; and
 - (ba) to broadcast on each channel or broadcasting station operated by the broadcaster notices (each of which shall be of at least 15 seconds' duration) publicising the procedure for making such complaints,—
 - (i) with the equivalent in each year of 1 notice per day for each day of broadcasting on the channel or broadcasting station; and
 - (ii) with the notices being broadcast at different programming times but in such a manner that the notices are broadcast in the course of a year at all programming times, including prime time and children's programming times; and

- (c) to establish procedures for investigating such complaints.
- (2) Nothing in this section requires a broadcaster to receive and consider any complaint that is not lodged in writing with the broadcaster within 20 working days after the date on which the programme to which the complaint relates was broadcast by the broadcaster.
- (3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), a broadcaster must consider a complaint if—
 - (a) the complainant has resubmitted the complaint in writing within 30 working days after the date on which the programme to which the complaint relates was broadcast by the broadcaster; and
 - (b) the complainant offers reasonable proof that the original complaint was lodged in accordance with subsection (2).

Compare: 1976 No 132 ss 95B(1)(a)(ii), (iv)–(vii), (b), 95C(1)(a)(ii), (iv)–(vii), (b); 1982 No 6 s 11; 1982 No 178 s 20

Section 6(1)(ba): inserted, on 1 July 1996, by section 3 of the Broadcasting Amendment Act 1996 (1996 No 53).

Section 6(1)(ba): amended, on 14 March 2008, by section 14 of the Broadcasting Amendment Act 2008 (2008 No 3).

Section 6(3): added, on 1 July 1993, by section 3 of the Broadcasting Amendment Act 1993 (1993 No 69).

7 Decisions in respect of formal complaints

- (1) If a complaint under section 6(1)(a) is found to be justified, in whole or in part, the broadcaster shall take appropriate action and shall notify the complainant in writing of the action taken.
- (2) If a complaint under section 6(1)(a) is found not to be justified, in whole or in part, the broadcaster shall notify the complainant in writing of the decision.
- (3) The broadcaster shall, in notifying a complainant pursuant to subsection (1) or subsection (2), give to the complainant information concerning the complainant's right, by way of referral to the Authority under section 8, to seek an investigation and review of the broadcaster's action or decision, as the case may be.

Compare: 1976 No 132 s 95D; 1982 No 6 s 11; 1982 No 178 s 22

8 Right of complainant to refer formal complaint to Authority

- (1) A complainant must refer the complaint directly to the Authority if the complaint is that an election programme did not meet 1 or more of the standards in section 4(1)(a) to (c) and (e).
- (1A) A complainant may refer the complaint directly to the Authority if—
 - (a) the complaint is that a broadcaster failed to comply with section 4(1)(c); and

- (b) the complainant chooses to refer the complaint directly to the Authority.
- (1B) A complainant may refer the complaint to the Authority if the complainant—
- (a) made the complaint under section 6(1)(a); and
 - (b) is dissatisfied with—
 - (i) the decision of the broadcaster; or

 - (d) the broadcaster—
 - (i) has not given the complainant a notice under subsection (1D); or
 - (ii) has given the complainant a notice under subsection (1D) but has not complied with the statement under subsection (1D)(c).
- (1D) A broadcaster that receives a complaint under section 6 may give the complainant a notice in writing or electronically within 20 working days after receiving the complaint—
- (a) stating that the broadcaster will be unable to make a decision or take action on the complaint within 20 working days after receiving the complaint; and
 - (b) stating the reasons why the broadcaster will be unable to do so; and
 - (c) stating that the broadcaster will tell the complainant about its decision or action on the complaint within 40 working days after the broadcaster received the complaint.
