An Act to amend the Social Welfare (Transitional Provisions) Act 1990

BE IT ENACTED by the Parliament of New Zealand as follows:

1 Short Title

This Act may be cited as the Social Welfare (Transitional Provisions) Amendment Act (No. 2) 1990, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Social Welfare (Transitional Provisions) Act 1990 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

2 Commencement of guaranteed retirement income

- (1) The principal Act is hereby amended by repealing section 5, and substituting the following section:

“5

Guaranteed retirement income shall commence on the date on which the applicant became entitled to receive it or the date on which the application for it was received by the Department, whichever is the later date.”

- (2) This section shall come into force on the 1st day of February 1991 and shall apply in respect of applications received on or after that date. In respect of any application received before that date, the application shall be determined as if this section had not been enacted.

3 Commencement of veteran’s pension

- (1) The principal Act is hereby amended by repealing section 10, and substituting the following section:

A veteran’s pension shall commence on the date on which the applicant became entitled to receive it or the date on which the application for it was received by the Department, whichever is the later date.”

- (2) This section shall come into force on the 1st day of February 1991 and shall apply in respect of applications received on or after that date. In respect of any application received before that date, the application shall be determined as if this section had not been enacted.

This Act is administered in the Department of Social Welfare.
