An Act—

- (a) to authorise the Crown to spend public money and to incur expenses and liabilities during the financial year ending with 30 June 1995 by appropriating public money, expenses, and liabilities for that financial year; and
- (b) to authorise the Crown to spend public money and to incur expenses in relation to historical Treaty of Waitangi settlements during the period of 5 financial years ending with 30 June 1999 by appropriating public money and expenses for those 5 financial years

Preamble

Whereas section 4(1) of the Public Finance Act 1989 provides that no expenditure of public money shall be made other than in accordance with an appropriation by Act of Parliament: And whereas section 4(2) of the Public Finance Act 1989 provides that no expense or liability shall be incurred by the Crown in relation to any transaction for which expenses or liabilities are required to be appropriated under section 4(3) of that Act other than in accordance with an appropriation by Act of Parliament: And whereas section 4(6) of the Public Finance Act 1989 provides that an Appropriation Act may stipulate that an appropriation is to apply for a number of financial years which exceeds 1 but which does not exceed 5: And whereas it is desirable that the Crown be authorised, in accordance with the appropriations made by this Act, to spend public money and to incur expenses and liabilities during the financial year ending with 30 June 1995 and, given the Crown's commitment to settling historical Treaty of Waitangi claims and the uncertain timing of achieving settlement of each such claim, to spend public money and to incur expenses in relation to historical Treaty of Waitangi settlements during the 5 financial years ending with 30 June 1999.

Notes

1 *General

This is a reprint of the Appropriation (1994/95 Supplementary Estimates) Act 1995. The reprint incorporates all the amendments to the Act as at 13 August 2011, as specified in the list of amendments at the end of these notes.

Relevant provisions of any amending enactments that contain transitional, savings, or application provisions that cannot be compiled in the reprint are also included, after the principal enactment, in chronological order. For more information, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/reprints/>.

2 *Status of reprints

Under section 16D of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, reprints are presumed to correctly state, as at the date of the reprint, the law enacted by the principal enactment and by the amendments to that enactment. This presumption applies even though editorial changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in the reprint.

This presumption may be rebutted by producing the official volumes of statutes or statutory regulations in which the principal enactment and its amendments are contained.

3 *How reprints are prepared

A number of editorial conventions are followed in the preparation of reprints. For example, the enacting words are not included in Acts, and provisions that are repealed or revoked are omitted. For a detailed list of the editorial conventions, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/editorial-conventions/> or Part 8 of the Tables of New Zealand Acts and Ordinances and Statutory Regulations and Deemed Regulations in Force.

4 *Changes made under section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989

Section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 authorises the making of editorial changes in a reprint as set out in sections 17D and 17E of that Act so that, to the extent permitted, the format and style of the reprinted enactment is consistent with current legislative drafting practice. Changes that would alter the effect of the legislation are not permitted. A new format of legislation was introduced on 1 January 2000. Changes to legislative drafting style have also been made since 1997, and are ongoing. To the extent permitted by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, all legislation reprinted after 1 January 2000 is in the new format for legislation and reflects current drafting practice at the time of the reprint.

In outline, the editorial changes made in reprints under the authority of section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 are set out below, and they have been applied, where relevant, in the preparation of this reprint:

- omission of unnecessary referential words (such as “of this section” and “of this Act”)
- typeface and type size (Times Roman, generally in 11.5 point)
- layout of provisions, including:
  - indentation
  - position of section headings (eg, the number and heading now appear above the section)
- format of definitions (eg, the defined term now appears in bold type, without quotation marks)
- format of dates (eg, a date formerly expressed as “the 1st day of January 1999” is now expressed as “1 January 1999”)

- position of the date of assent (it now appears on the front page of each Act)
- punctuation (eg, colons are not used after definitions)
- Parts numbered with roman numerals are replaced with arabic numerals, and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- case and appearance of letters and words, including:
  - format of headings (eg, headings where each word formerly appeared with an initial capital letter followed by small capital letters are amended so that the heading appears in bold, with only the first word (and any proper nouns) appearing with an initial capital letter)
  - small capital letters in section and subsection references are now capital letters
- schedules are renumbered (eg, Schedule 1 replaces First Schedule), and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- running heads (the information that appears at the top of each page)
- format of two-column schedules of consequential amendments, and schedules of repeals (eg, they are rearranged into alphabetical order, rather than chronological).
