39 Suppliers to be shareholders

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the constitution of a co-operative dairy company must provide that the supply of dairy produce by a person to the company is an irrevocable application by that person to become a shareholder in the company.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the constitution of the company may authorise the board of the company, in its discretion and whether or not at the request of a supplier, to accept the supply of dairy produce from that person without requiring that person to become a supplying shareholder.
- (3) The Registrar must not register a co-operative company as a co-operative dairy company under this Part unless the constitution of the company complies with this section.
- (4) If, at any time, the constitution of a co-operative dairy company registered under this Part does not comply with this section, the Registrar may cancel the registration of the company under this Part.

- (5) Sections 11(2) and (3), 13, and 14 shall apply, with such modifications as may be necessary, in relation to the cancellation of the registration of the company under this section.

40 Compulsory issue of shares

- (1) Subject to section 41, a co-operative dairy company registered under this Part may alter its constitution to require supplying shareholders to hold more shares in the company than the number of shares required to be held on the date the alteration is made.
- (2) The alteration is binding on—
- (a) the supplying shareholders to whom the alteration applies; and
 - (b) every person who becomes a supplying shareholder after the alteration is made.

Compare: 1949 No 22 s 8(1), (4); 1956 No 19 s 2

41 Limit on number of additional shares

Subject to section 42, no such alteration requires a supplying shareholder who did not vote in favour of the resolution to hold, in addition to the number of shares required to be held on the date the alteration is made, a number of shares that exceeds by more than 50% the smallest number of shares which that shareholder would have been required to hold at any time during the 5 financial years immediately preceding the date of the alteration in respect of the supply of a quantity of dairy produce equal to that supplied by the shareholder to the company in the financial year immediately preceding the date of the alteration.

Compare: 1949 No 22 s 8(1); 1956 No 19 s 2(1)

42 Exception to section 41

Section 41 does not apply if—

- (a) the alteration to the constitution requires each supplying shareholder to hold, in addition to the number of shares required to be held on the date the alteration is made, a number of shares that exceeds by more than 50% the smallest number of shares which each supplying shareholder would have been required to hold at any time during the 5 financial years immediately preceding the date of the alteration in respect of the supply of a quantity of dairy produce equal to that supplied by the shareholder to the company in the financial year immediately preceding the date of the alteration; and
- (b) the resolution altering the constitution is passed by a majority of not less than 90% of the shareholders entitled to vote and voting on the resolution.

Compare: 1949 No 22 s 8(2), (3); 1956 No 19 s 2(2)

43 Supplying shareholder may surrender shares

- (1) A supplying shareholder who voted against a resolution referred to in section 42 may surrender to the company all the shares in the company held by that shareholder and, in any such case, but subject to section 18, the board of the company must resolve to accept the surrender.
- (2) The surrender of the shares takes effect on the date on which the board of the company resolves to accept the surrender.
- (3) Sections 22 to 26 apply to the surrender of shares under this section.

Compare: 1949 No 22 s 8(2); 1956 No 19 s 2(2)

44 Transfer of shares to sharemilkers

- (1) A supplying shareholder of a co-operative dairy company registered under this Part may transfer to a sharemilker any of the shares in the company, and any or all rights to vote, held by that shareholder.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies despite the fact that the constitution of the company may expressly provide otherwise.
- (3) Despite subsection (2), the constitution of the company may include a requirement that, or a power to require that, the shareholder must retain 1 share.
- (4) The transfer is subject to compliance with any terms and conditions in the company's constitution relating to the transfer of shares.
- (5) If shares have been transferred under this section,—
 - (a) for the purpose of determining whether shareholding is in proportion to supply, the supplying shareholder and the sharemilker to whom shares have been transferred must be treated as if they were 1 person; and
 - (b) a sharemilker to whom those shares are transferred is a supplying shareholder subject to any terms and conditions contained in the constitution of the company.
- (6) However, the terms and conditions referred to in subsections (4) or (5) do not apply if they would defeat the operation of subsection (1).

Section 44: substituted, on 26 October 2001, by section 160(2) of the Dairy Industry Restructuring Act 2001 (2001 No 51).

45 Alteration of terms of contract contained in constitution

Where the constitution of a co-operative dairy company registered under this Part contains or sets out the terms and conditions of any contracts between the company and the shareholders of the company or the members of any group or class of shareholders, any alteration of those terms or conditions in the constitution is binding on those shareholders or the members of that group or class, as the case may be.

Compare: 1949 No 22 s 8(1); 1956 No 19 s 2(1)

46 Application of Part 2 to co-operative dairy companies

- (1) Part 2 applies, subject to this Part, to every co-operative dairy company registered under this Part as if it were a co-operative company registered under Part 2.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), references in Part 2 to the expression “transacting shareholder” shall, in the case of co-operative dairy companies registered under this Part, be read as references to a supplying shareholder.
