Part 1

Preliminary provisions

3 Purpose

The purpose of this Act is to reform the law relating to Crown entities to provide a consistent framework for the establishment, governance, and operation of Crown entities and to clarify accountability relationships between Crown entities, their board members, their responsible Ministers on behalf of the Crown, and the House of Representatives, and, to that end,—

- (a) to provide for different categories of Crown entities and for each category to have its own framework for governance (including the degree to which the Crown entity is required to give effect to, or be independent of, government policy):
- (b) to clarify the powers and duties of board members in respect of the governance and operation of Crown entities, including their duty to ensure the financial responsibility of the Crown entity:
- (c) to set out reporting and accountability requirements.

4 Application of Acts to Crown entities

- (1) The rules for the establishment, governance, operation, and accountability of Crown entities are set out in various Acts of Parliament as follows:
 - (a) this Act applies generally to Crown entities:
 - (b) a statutory entity is established by or under the entity's Act, and the entity's Act may supplement, or expressly modify or negate, the provisions of this Act for that entity and its Crown entity subsidiaries:

- (c) a Crown entity company is incorporated under the Companies Act 1993 and may also have an entity's Act, and the entity's Act (if any) may supplement, or expressly modify or negate, the provisions of this Act for that company and its Crown entity subsidiaries:
 - (d) other Acts (for example, some provisions of the State Sector Act 1988) also apply.
- (2) This Act applies to a Crown entity, and prevails over the entity's Act, except to the extent that the entity's Act expressly provides otherwise.
 - (3) Subsection (2) is subject to sections 5 and 6.

5 Application of this Act to school boards of trustees

- (1) The provisions set out in Schedule 3 of this Act and Schedule 5A of the Education Act 1989 apply to school boards of trustees and their Crown entity subsidiaries.
- (2) Otherwise this Act does not apply to school boards of trustees and their Crown entity subsidiaries.

6 Application of this Act to tertiary education institutions

- (1) The provisions set out in Schedule 4 of this Act and Schedule 13A of the Education Act 1989 apply to tertiary education institutions and their Crown entity subsidiaries.
- (2) Otherwise this Act does not apply to tertiary education institutions and their Crown entity subsidiaries.

7A Meaning of multi-parent subsidiary

(1) A company is a multi-parent subsidiary if, under sections 5 to 8 of the Companies Act 1993,—

- (a) the company is not a subsidiary of any one Crown entity; but
- (b) if 2 or more Crown entities were treated as 1 entity (a combined entity), with their rights, entitlements, and interests in relation to the company taken together, the company would be a subsidiary of the combined entity.

- (2) Despite section 5(3) of the Companies Act 1993, a multi-parent subsidiary must be a company incorporated under that Act.

Example

8 Meaning of parent Crown entity

13 Establishment of statutory entity

A statutory entity is established by or under an Act other than this Act.

14 Functions

- (1) The functions of a statutory entity are—
 - (a) the functions set out in the entity’s Act; and
 - (b) if the entity’s Act gives the responsible Minister power to add functions, any other functions that the responsible Minister may direct the entity to perform in accordance with that Act and section 112 of this Act; and
 - (c) any functions that are incidental and related to, or consequential on, its functions set out in paragraphs (a) and (b).
- (2) In performing its functions, a statutory entity must act consistently with its objectives.

15 Status of statutory entity

A statutory entity—

- (a) is a body corporate; and
- (b) is accordingly a legal entity separate from its members, office holders, employees, and the Crown; and
- (c) continues in existence until it is dissolved by an Act.

16 Core things statutory entities can do

A statutory entity may do anything authorised by this Act or the entity’s Act.

17 Other things statutory entities can do

- (1) A statutory entity may do anything that a natural person of full age and capacity may do.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies except as provided in this Act or another Act or rule of law.

18 Acts must be for purpose of functions

A statutory entity may do an act under section 16 or section 17 only for the purpose of performing its functions.

*Validity of acts19 Acts in breach of statute are invalid

- (1) An act of a statutory entity is invalid, unless section 20 applies, if it is—
 - (a) an act that is contrary to, or outside the authority of, an Act; or
 - (b) an act that is done otherwise than for the purpose of performing its functions.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not limit any discretion of a court to grant relief in respect of a minor or technical breach.

20 Some natural person acts protected

- (1) Section 19, or any rule of law to similar effect, does not prevent a person dealing with a statutory entity from enforcing a transaction that is a natural person act unless the person dealing with the entity had, or ought reasonably to have had, knowledge—
 - (a) of an express restriction in an Act that makes the act contrary to, or outside the authority of, the Act; or
 - (b) that the act is done otherwise than for the purpose of performing the entity's functions.

- (4) For the avoidance of doubt, this section does not affect any person's other remedies (for example, remedies in contract) under the general law.

23 Dealings between statutory entities and other persons

- (1) A statutory entity may not assert against a person dealing with the entity that—

 - (iii) does not have the authority to exercise a power that the statutory entity holds him or her out as having; or
 - (b) a document issued on behalf of the entity by a member, office holder, chief executive, employee, or agent of the entity with actual or usual authority to issue the document is not valid or genuine.
- (2) However, a statutory entity may assert any of those matters if the person dealing with the statutory entity had, or ought reasonably to have had, knowledge of the matter.
