5 Meaning of private investigator

- (1) In this Act, private investigator means a person who, for valuable consideration, either by himself or herself or in partnership with any other person, carries on a business seeking or obtaining for any person or supplying to any person any information described in subsection (2).
- (2) For the purposes of this section, information—
 - (a) means any information relating to—
 - (i) the personal character, actions, or behaviour of any person; or
 - (ii) the financial position of any person; or
 - (iii) the occupation or business of any person; or
 - (iv) the identity or whereabouts of any person; but
 - (b) does not include information that is contained in a public record.

- (3) For the purposes of this section but without limiting the meaning of the term carries on any business, a person is carrying on a business if he or she holds himself or herself out to the public as being ready to carry on that business.
- (4) Despite subsection (1), no person is a private investigator within the meaning of this Act by reason of the fact that—
- (a) he or she seeks, obtains, or supplies any information—
 - (i) for or to the Crown, or any constable, or any local authority; or
 - (ii) at the request of a person who is not a client of the business; or
 - (iii) only as a necessary, usual, or reasonable incident of any other activity by that person that is not described in that subsection; or
 - (iv) for any purpose relating to the dissemination of news or other information to the public or to any section of the public; or
 - (v) for any cultural or historical purpose or for any purpose relating to education, literature, or science; or
 - (vi) relating only to the person by whom he or she is engaged or retained; or
 - (vii) in the course of and for the purposes of the business of a bank, or of a credit bureau, or of a debt collecting agency; or
 - (b) he or she is a security technician, security consultant, confidential document destruction agent, repossession agent, property guard, personal guard, or crowd controller.

Section 5(4)(b): amended, on 6 March 2015, by section 82 of the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Amendment Act 2014 (2014 No 33).

6 Meaning of security technician

- (1) In this Act, security technician means a person who for valuable consideration, either by himself or herself or in partnership with any other person, carries on a business—
- (a) installing or repairing on, or removing from, any part of any premises that are not owned or occupied by himself or herself or his or her firm or any of his or her partners—
 - (i) a burglar alarm or similar warning device intended to immediately alert a person or persons to the presence of a person or persons in a particular place; or
 - (ii) a locking device for a safe or a strongroom; or
 - (b) installing, operating, causing to be operated, or repairing, on or in, or removing from, any premises or other place not owned or occupied by himself or herself or his or her firm or any of his or her partners, any camera or similar device for the purpose of detecting the commission of any offence by any person.

- (2) Subsection (1)(b) applies even if more than one purpose exists for the installation, operation, repair, or removal of the camera or similar device so long as one of the purposes is to detect the commission of any offence by any person.

7 Meaning of security consultant

In this Act, security consultant means a person who for valuable consideration, either by himself or herself or in partnership with any other person, carries on a business—

- (a) entering any premises that are not owned or occupied by himself or herself or his or her firm or any of his or her partners for the purpose of selling or attempting to sell any device of the kind referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) of section 6(1); or
- (b) entering any premises that are not owned or occupied by himself or herself or his or her firm or any of his or her partners for the purpose of advising the owner or occupier of the premises on the desirability of having installed on the premises any, or any further, such device; or
- (c) entering any premises that are not owned or occupied by himself or herself or his or her firm or any of his or her partners for the purpose of advising the owner or occupier of the premises on the desirability of having guarded the premises or any other property that may from time to time be on the premises or dispatched from the premises.

8 Meaning of confidential document destruction agent

In this Act, confidential document destruction agent means a person who for valuable consideration, either by himself or herself or in partnership with any other person, carries on a business—

- (a) collecting, for destruction, documents identified as being of a confidential nature; and
- (b) destroying those documents.

8A Meaning of repossession agent

In this Act, repossession agent means a person who for valuable consideration, either by himself or herself or in partnership with any other person, carries on a business of repossessing consumer goods on behalf of a creditor.

Section 8A: inserted, on 6 March 2015, by section 82 of the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Amendment Act 2014 (2014 No 33).

9 Meaning of property guard

- (1) In this Act, property guard means a person who for valuable consideration, either by himself or herself or in partnership with any other person, carries on a business—

- (a) guarding, elsewhere than on premises owned or occupied by himself or herself or his or her firm or any of his or her partners, any real or personal property belonging to another person; or
 - (b) monitoring in real time, elsewhere than on premises owned or occupied by himself or herself or his or her firm or any of his or her partners, any of the following:
 - (i) a burglar alarm or similar warning device intended to immediately alert a person or persons to the presence of a person or persons in a particular place;
 - (ii) a camera or similar device; or
 - (c) responding to any device in paragraph (b)(i) or (ii) that has been activated and that is on any part of any premises that are not owned or occupied by himself or herself or his or her firm or any of his or her partners.
- (2) A person is not a property guard solely because he or she does the work described in section 8.

10 Meaning of personal guard

In this Act, personal guard means a person who for valuable consideration, either by himself or herself or in partnership with any other person, carries on a business—

- (a) guarding a specific person or persons; or
- (b) guarding a specific person or persons and keeping order at any place (not being premises or a conveyance licensed under the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act 2012) where the person or persons being guarded may be.

Section 10(b): amended, on 18 December 2013, by section 417(1) of the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act 2012 (2012 No 120).

11 Meaning of crowd controller

- (1) In this Act, crowd controller means a person who for valuable consideration, either by himself or herself or in partnership with any other person, carries on a business doing all or any of the following:
- (a) screening entry to a place (other than simply ensuring that admission has been paid or that those entering have appropriate invitations or passes):
 - (b) keeping order in a place (more than merely being expected to draw the attention of others to behaviour that is inappropriate or threatens to become inappropriate):
 - (c) removing any person from a place.
- (2) A person is not a crowd controller solely because he or she does the work described in section 10.

12 Governor-General may, by Order in Council, exclude certain persons from sections 5 to 11

- (1) The Governor-General may, by Order in Council made on the recommendation of the Minister,—
- (a) declare that certain persons or classes of persons are not any one of the persons defined in sections 5 to 11 (as specified in the Order in Council) by reason only of the fact that they carry on any occupation or business described in the order:
 - (b) declare that certain persons or classes of persons are not any one of the persons defined in sections 5 to 11 (as specified in the Order in Council) by reason only of the fact that they carry on any occupation or business described in the order conditional on—
 - (i) those persons being members or affiliates of a named professional organisation or licensed under the law of New Zealand or any other place outside New Zealand; or
 - (ii) some other requirement being satisfied:
 - (c) declare that certain persons or classes of persons are not any one of the persons defined in sections 5 to 11 (as specified in the Order in Council) if they carry on an occupation or business only during the period or in the circumstances described in the order.
- (2) The Minister must not make a recommendation under subsection (1) unless the Minister—
- (a) is satisfied that there is no material benefit to be gained by requiring the persons concerned to be licensed; and
 - (b) has consulted the persons or organisations that, in the opinion of the Minister, have an interest in the proposed declaration.
- (3) An order under this section is secondary legislation (see Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019 for publication requirements), unless it relates exclusively to an individual.

Legislation Act 2019 requirements for secondary legislation made under this section

Publication	PCO must publish it on the legislation website and notify it in the Gazette	LA19 s 69(1)(c)

In this Act, property guard employee means an individual who in the course of his or her employment, or engagement as a contractor, by a property guard—

- (a) guards, elsewhere than on premises owned or occupied by the property guard, the property guard's firm, or any of the property guard's partners, any real or personal property belonging to another person; or
- (b) monitors in real time, elsewhere than on premises owned or occupied by the property guard, the property guard's firm, or any of the property guard's partners, any of the following:
 - (i) a burglar alarm or similar warning device intended to immediately alert a person or persons to the presence of a person or persons in a particular place;
 - (ii) a camera or similar device; or
- (c) responds to any device in paragraph (b)(i) or (ii) that has been activated and that is on any part of any premises that are not owned or occupied by the property guard, the property guard's firm, or any of the property guard's partners.

18 Meaning of personal guard employee

In this Act, personal guard employee means an individual who in the course of his or her employment, or engagement as a contractor, by a personal guard—

- (a) guards a specific person or persons; or
- (b) guards a specific person or persons and keeps order at any place (not being premises or a conveyance licensed under the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act 2012) where the person or persons being guarded may be.

Section 18(b): amended, on 18 December 2013, by section 417(1) of the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act 2012 (2012 No 120).

19 Meaning of crowd controller employee

- (1) In this Act, crowd controller employee means an individual who in the course of his or her employment, or engagement as a contractor, by a crowd controller or other person—
 - (a) screens entry to a place (other than simply ensuring that admission has been paid or that those entering have appropriate invitations or passes):
 - (b) keeps order in a place (more than merely being expected to draw the attention of others to behaviour that is inappropriate or threatens to become inappropriate):
 - (c) removes any person from a place.
- (2) A person is not a crowd controller employee if—
 - (a) he or she is not employed or engaged primarily to do work of a kind specified in subsection (1)(a), (b), or (c), but performs that work incidentally to the principal work he or she performs; or
 - (b) he or she does the work specified in section 18(b) and no other work of a kind specified in subsection (1)(a), (b), or (c).

20 Governor-General may by Order in Council exclude persons from definition of repossession employee, property guard employee, personal guard employee, and crowd controller employee

- (1) The Governor-General may, by Order in Council, made on the recommendation of the Minister, declare that certain persons or classes of persons are not any one of the classes of responsible employee described in sections 16A, 17, 18, and 19—
 - (a) by reason only of the fact that they do anything described in the order; or
 - (b) if they do anything described in section 16A, 17, 18, or 19, as the case may be, only in the circumstances described in the order; or
 - (c) for the purpose of their work at a specified event or type of event provided that conditions specified in the order are complied with.
- (2) The Minister must not make a recommendation under subsection (1) unless the Minister—
 - (a) has consulted the persons or organisations that, in the opinion of the Minister, have an interest in the proposed declaration and is satisfied that

- there is no material benefit to be gained by requiring the persons concerned to hold certificates of approval; or
- (b) is satisfied that the benefit to be gained by requiring the persons concerned to hold certificates of approval is outweighed by the public interest in ensuring that there are sufficient persons doing the work described in sections 17 to 19 available to work at a major event declared under section 7 of the Major Events Management Act 2007, or events (whether or not organised by the major event organiser) associated with the major event.
- (3) An order under this section is secondary legislation (see Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019 for publication requirements), unless it relates exclusively to an individual.

31 Application determined by oral hearing

- (1) If a Licensing Authority is to hold an oral hearing of an application for a licence, the Authority must fix a time and place for the hearing, and must give not less than 10 working days' notice of the hearing to—
 - (a) the applicant; and
 - (b) any person who has filed a notice of objection in accordance with section 28 or 29; and
 - (c) if it receives a report on the application from the Complaints, Investigation, and Prosecution Unit, the chief investigator of the unit.
- (2) If a Licensing Authority receives a report requested under section 26(1)(b) and suspects on the basis of that report that there may be grounds for refusing the application, the Authority must, not later than 10 working days before the date of the hearing, provide the applicant with a statement of the reasons for that suspicion.
- (3) At the hearing, the applicant, every objector, and, if a Licensing Authority received a report on the application from the Complaints, Investigation, and Prosecution Unit, the chief investigator of the unit or a person authorised by the chief investigator—
 - (a) is entitled to appear, be heard, call evidence, and cross-examine and re-examine witnesses; and
 - (b) may conduct his or her case personally or may be represented by counsel.
- (4) A Licensing Authority may from time to time adjourn the hearing to a time and place fixed by it.

Decision on application

32 Consideration of application relating to more than 1 class of business

If an application relates to more than 1 class of private security business a Licensing Authority—

- (a) must assess the application in respect of each class of business to which it relates; and

- (b) may, under section 33,—
 - (i) grant the application in respect of all those classes of business; or
 - (ii) grant the application in respect of only 1 or more of those classes of business and refuse it in respect of the other 1 or more of those classes of business to which the application relates; or
 - (iii) refuse the application entirely.

Section 32: amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 228 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

33 Decision on application for licence

- (1) A Licensing Authority may grant an application only if—
 - (a) in the case of an applicant who is an individual, the applicant is of or over the age of 18 years; and
 - (b) in the case of an applicant that is a company, each officer of the company is of or over the age of 18 years; and
 - (c) the requirements of section 24 or 25, as the case may be, are satisfied.
- (2) Subsection (3) applies if a Licensing Authority is satisfied that no grounds of disqualification under section 62 or 63, as the case may be, apply to the applicant.
- (3) A Licensing Authority must grant the application in respect of a particular class of business to which it relates unless the Licensing Authority is satisfied, based on any other evidence provided to the Authority relating to the character, circumstances, or background of the applicant, that the person is not suitable to carry on that class of business.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies if a Licensing Authority is satisfied that 1 or more grounds of disqualification under section 62 or 63, as the case may be, apply to the applicant.
- (5) A Licensing Authority may grant the application in respect of a class of business to which it relates if, and only if, the Licensing Authority is satisfied that the person is suitable to carry on that class of business taking into account—
 - (a) the grounds on which the applicant is disqualified under section 62 or 63, as the case may be, and the way in which that influences the suitability of the applicant; and
 - (b) any other evidence provided to the Authority relating to the character, circumstances, or background of the applicant.
- (6) Subsections (3) and (5) are subject to subsection (1).
- (7) A Licensing Authority may impose conditions on the carrying on by the licensee of any business in respect of which the licence is issued.

- (8) A Licensing Authority must give written notice to the applicant and any person who filed an objection when it grants or refuses to grant an application and give reasons for the grant or refusal of the application.

Section 33(8): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 228 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

Issue, duration, etc, of licence

34 Issue of licence

- (1) If a Licensing Authority grants an application in whole or in part under section 33, the Licensing Authority must issue a licence in a form approved by the chief executive of the Ministry of Justice after consultation with all Licensing Authorities specifying—
- (a) the class or, if more than 1, each class of business in respect of which the Authority has granted the application; and
 - (b) the registered office or the principal place of business, as the case may be, of the applicant; and
 - (c) the places from which the applicant is authorised to carry on each class of business to which the licence relates; and
 - (d) any other prescribed matter.

- (2) A licence issued to an individual must contain a photograph of the licensee.

Section 34(1): amended, on 1 May 2019, by section 187(2) of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

Section 34(1): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 187(1) of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

35 Effect of licence

- (1) Subject to this Act and to any conditions imposed by an Authority, a licence authorises the licensee to carry on the class or classes of private security business for which the licence is issued, on his or her own account during the currency of the licence.

- (2) The licensee may carry on that class or those classes of business either by himself or herself or in partnership with any other person or persons who are the holders of licences that include that same authority.
- (3) A licence does not authorise a licensee to carry on the business to which the licence relates from any place of business that is not specified in the licence.

Section 35(1): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 228 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

36 Duration of licence

- (1) Unless cancelled earlier, a licence expires 5 years from its date of issue.
- (2) A licence may be renewed under section 42.
- (3) Despite subsection (1), if an application for renewal of a licence is made before the expiry of the licence, the licence continues in force until the application for renewal is determined.

37 Licensing Authority to notify Commissioner of Police when licence issued

A Licensing Authority must, after issuing a licence, notify the Commissioner of Police in writing of—

- (a) the full name and (if the licensee is an individual) residential address of the licensee; and
- (b) the nature and number of the licence; and
- (c) the date on which it was issued; and
- (d) the registered office of the licensee (if a company) or principal place of business of the licensee (if not a company) and the other places of business specified in the licence.

Section 37: amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 228 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

Temporary certificate of approval for applicant for licence

38 Temporary certificate of approval for applicant for licence

- (1) An individual who has applied for a licence under section 24 may also request in writing that he or she be issued with a temporary certificate of approval under section 60.
- (2) If an individual makes a request under subsection (1) the individual must state the name of his or her current employer (if any), or employers if more than 1.
- (3) If an individual makes a request under subsection (1), section 60 applies as if—
 - (a) the application for a licence is an application under section 46; and
 - (b) the application is for a certificate of approval to be a responsible employee of a class that corresponds to the class or classes of private security business that the applicant for the licence proposes to carry on.

*General provisions, amendments, renewals, etc39 Name under which licensee may carry on business

- (1) Unless another name has been approved in writing by a Licensing Authority, no licensee who is an individual may carry on the business to which the licence relates under any name that is not—
 - (a) his or her own name; or
 - (b) in the case of a firm, the name of one of the partners.
- (2) An applicant for a licence, or a licensee, may at any time apply in writing to a Licensing Authority to approve a name under subsection (1).
- (3) A Licensing Authority must not approve a name under subsection (1) if it considers that the name so nearly resembles the name of any other person, firm, or company carrying on a class or classes of private security business as to be likely to deceive, or that the name is that of any other person, firm, or company—
 - (a) whose licence has been suspended or cancelled under section 76 or 78; or
 - (b) whose application for a licence has at any time been refused under this Act and who has not subsequently obtained a licence.
- (4) No licensee that is a company may carry on the business to which the licence relates under any name other than the name by which the company is registered or incorporated.
- (5) Every licensee who contravenes subsection (1) or (4) commits an offence against this Act.

40 Persons not to act as officers of licensed company without consent of Licensing Authority

- (1) In the case of a licensee that is a company, unless with the prior approval of a Licensing Authority, no person who is not an officer of the company at the time when the application for the licence is granted may subsequently act as an officer of the company.
- (2) A licensee may at any time apply in writing to a Licensing Authority for approval of any person under subsection (1).

- (3) An application for approval of any person must be in a form approved by the chief executive of the Ministry of Justice after consultation with all Licensing Authorities and accompanied by the prescribed fee (if any).
- (4) A Licensing Authority must not give its approval under subsection (1) in respect of a person unless the Licensing Authority is satisfied that—
 - (a) the officer is of or over the age of 18 years; and
 - (b) no ground of disqualification under section 62 applies to the officer or, if 1 or more grounds do apply, that this does not make the company unsuitable to hold the licence.
- (5) Every person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $20,000.
- (6) Every licensee who, being a company, employs any person or permits any person to act as an officer of the company in contravention of subsection (1), commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $20,000.

41 Amendment of licence

- (1) If a Licensing Authority has under section 34 issued a licence that is limited in its effect to any particular class or classes of private security business, the licensee may at any time during the currency of the licence apply to the Licensing Authority to amend the licence by adding or removing any class or classes of private security business.
- (2) Sections 24 to 34, 37, 62, and 63 apply with any necessary modifications.
- (3) If a Licensing Authority grants an application to add, or remove, a class or classes of private security business to, or from, the licence, the Licensing Authority must, on payment of the prescribed fee (if any), issue to the applicant an amended licence specifying the class or classes of private security business that the licensee may carry on.

Section 41(1): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 189(1) of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

Section 41(3): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 189(2) of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

42 Renewal of licence

- (1) A licence may be renewed.
- (2) Sections 24 to 34, 37, 62, and 63 apply to an application for renewal of a licence as if the application were an application for a licence.
- (3) A renewed licence is to be treated for all purposes as a new licence issued under section 34.

43 Annual return updating licence and certificate of approval information

- (1) At 12-monthly intervals after the date of issue of a licence, the licensee must send to a Licensing Authority a return advising—
 - (a) whether there has been any change to the details included in the licensee's application for a licence; and
 - (b) in respect of each person (if any) who is employed or engaged by the licensee and who is a certificate holder, whether there has been any change to the details that were included in the application for the certificate holder's certificate of approval of which the licensee is aware, or ought reasonably to be aware.
- (2) The return must be accompanied by the prescribed fee (if any).
- (3) On receiving a return under subsection (1), a Licensing Authority must, if there has been a change to the details recorded on the licence issued to the licensee, or on a certificate of approval issued to a person employed or engaged by the licensee, issue an amended licence or certificate of approval, as the case may be.
- (4) The amended licence or certificate of approval is not a new or renewed licence or certificate of approval.
- (5) If an amended licence or certificate of approval is issued, the licensee or certificate holder, as the case may be, must, within 5 working days of receiving the amended licence or certificate, return the old licence or certificate of approval to a Licensing Authority.
- (6) If a licensee fails to comply with subsection (1) or (2) the licence issued to the licensee is automatically suspended from the date of the non-compliance until the requirements of subsection (1) or (2), as the case may be, are satisfied.
- (7) A person commits an offence who fails without reasonable excuse to comply with subsection (5).

Section 49(3): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 228 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

Hearing of application

50 Application determined on papers

- (1) A Licensing Authority must determine an application on the papers if no notice of objection to the grant of the application has been filed with the Licensing Authority in accordance with section 49.
- (2) If a notice of objection to the grant of an application has been filed with a Licensing Authority in accordance with section 49,—
 - (a) the Licensing Authority must determine the application on the papers unless it thinks an oral hearing is required; and
 - (b) if determining the application on the papers, the Licensing Authority may request that the applicant file a written response to the objection within a period of time specified by the Authority.
- (3) A Licensing Authority may refuse an application without holding a hearing in accordance with section 51 if the Licensing Authority is unable to verify information provided in the application.

Section 50(1): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 228 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

Section 50(2): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 228 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

51 Application determined by oral hearing

- (1) If a Licensing Authority is to hold an oral hearing of an application for a certificate of approval, the Licensing Authority must fix a time and place for the hearing, and must give not less than 10 working days' notice of the hearing to—
 - (a) the applicant; and
 - (b) if the Police have filed a notice of objection, the Police; and
 - (c) if the Licensing Authority has received a report on the application from the Complaints, Investigation, and Prosecution Unit, the chief investigator of the unit.
- (2) Section 31 applies, with any necessary modifications, in respect of the hearing in the same way as if it were an oral hearing of an application for a licence.

Section 51(1): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 194 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

Decision on application

52 Consideration of application relating to more than 1 class of responsible employee

If an application relates to more than 1 class of responsible employee, a Licensing Authority—

- (a) must assess the application in respect of each class of responsible employee to which it relates; and
- (b) may, under section 53,—
 - (i) grant the application in respect of all those classes of responsible employee; or
 - (ii) grant the application in respect of only 1 or more of those classes of responsible employee and refuse it in respect of the other 1 or more of those classes of responsible employee to which the application relates; or
 - (iii) refuse the application entirely.

Section 52: amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 228 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

53 Decision on application for certificate of approval

- (1) A Licensing Authority may grant an application only if—
 - (a) in the case of an applicant applying for a certificate as a responsible employee of a class in section 13, 14, 16A, 17, 18, or 19, the applicant is of or over the age of 18 years; and
 - (b) the requirements of section 46 are satisfied.
- (2) Subsection (3) applies if a Licensing Authority is satisfied that no grounds of disqualification under section 62 apply to the applicant.
- (3) A Licensing Authority must grant the application in respect of a particular class of responsible employee to which it relates unless the Licensing Authority is satisfied, based on any other evidence provided to the Authority relating to the character, circumstances, or background of the applicant, that the person is not suitable to be a responsible employee of that class.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies if a Licensing Authority is satisfied that 1 or more grounds of disqualification under section 62 apply to the applicant.
- (5) A Licensing Authority may grant the application in respect of a class of responsible employee to which it relates if, and only if, the Licensing Authority is satisfied that the person is suitable to be a responsible employee of that class taking into account—
 - (a) the grounds on which the applicant is disqualified under section 62 and the way in which that influences the suitability of the applicant; and

- (b) any other evidence provided to the Authority relating to the character, circumstances, or background of the applicant.
- (6) Subsections (3) and (5) are subject to subsection (1).
- (7) A Licensing Authority may impose conditions on the performance by the certificate holder of duties as a responsible employee of any particular class in respect of which the certificate is issued.
- (8) A Licensing Authority must give written notice to the applicant and the Police (if an objection was filed) when it grants or refuses to grant an application, and give reasons for the grant or refusal of the application.

Issue, duration, etc, of certificate of approval

54 Issue of certificate of approval

- (1) If a Licensing Authority grants an application in whole or in part under section 53, the Licensing Authority must issue a certificate of approval in a form approved by the chief executive of the Ministry of Justice after consultation with all Licensing Authorities specifying—
- (a) the class or, if more than 1, each class of responsible employee in respect of which the Authority has granted the application; and
- (b) any other prescribed matter.
- (2) A certificate of approval must contain a photograph of the certificate holder.

Section 54(1): amended, on 1 May 2019, by section 195(2) of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

Section 54(1): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 195(1) of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

55 Effect of certificate of approval

- (1) Subject to this Act and to any conditions imposed by an Authority, a certificate of approval authorises the holder to work during the currency of the certificate—
 - (a) as a responsible employee of any licensee carrying on the business to which the certificate of approval relates; or
 - (b) in the case of a crowd controller employee or a repossession employee, as a responsible employee of any person.
- (2) Subject to this Act, to the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003, and to any conditions imposed by an Authority, a certificate of approval that is held by a creditor referred to in section 16A(b) authorises the creditor to carry out a repossession of consumer goods himself or herself.

Section 55(1): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 228 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

Section 55(1)(b): replaced, on 6 March 2015, by section 82 of the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Amendment Act 2014 (2014 No 33).

Section 55(2): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 228 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

56 Duration of certificate of approval

- (1) Unless cancelled earlier, a certificate of approval expires 5 years from its date of issue.
- (2) A certificate of approval may be renewed under section 59.
- (3) Despite subsection (1), if an application for renewal of a certificate of approval is made before the expiry of the certificate of approval, the certificate of approval continues in force until the application for renewal is determined.

57 Licensing Authority to notify Commissioner of Police when certificate of approval issued

A Licensing Authority must, after issuing a certificate of approval, notify the Commissioner of Police in writing of—

- (a) the full name and residential address of the certificate holder; and
- (b) the nature and number of the certificate of approval; and
- (c) the date on which it was issued.

Section 57: amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 228 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

58 Amendment of certificate of approval

- (1) If a Licensing Authority has under section 54 issued a certificate of approval that is limited in its effect to any particular class or classes of responsible employee, the certificate holder may at any time during the currency of the certificate of approval apply to the Licensing Authority to amend the certificate of approval by adding or removing any class or classes of responsible employee.

- (2) Sections 46 to 54, 57, and 62 apply with any necessary modifications.
- (3) If a Licensing Authority grants an application to add, or remove, a class or classes of responsible employee to, or from, the certificate of approval, the Licensing Authority must, on payment of the prescribed fee (if any), issue to the applicant an amended certificate of approval specifying the class or classes of responsible employee in respect of which the holder may carry out work.

Section 58(1): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 196(1) of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

Section 58(3): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 196(2) of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

59 Renewal of certificate of approval

- (1) A certificate of approval may be renewed.
- (2) Sections 46 to 54, 57, and 62 apply to an application for renewal of a certificate of approval as if the application were an application for a certificate of approval.
- (3) A renewed certificate of approval is to be treated for all purposes as a new certificate issued under section 54.

Temporary certificates of approval

60 Temporary certificates of approval

- (1) A person who has applied for a certificate of approval under section 46 may also apply in writing for a temporary certificate of approval.
- (2) A Licensing Authority may issue a temporary certificate of approval at any time after receiving a correct application for a certificate of approval under section 46 if,—
 - (a) in the case of an applicant applying for a certificate as a responsible employee of a class in section 13, 14, 16A, 17, 18, or 19, the applicant is of or over the age of 18 years; and
 - (b) the prescribed fee (if any) is paid; and
 - (c) except as provided for in subsection (3)(b), the application does not disclose any ground on which the applicant is disqualified under section 62; and
 - (d) there is no reason to believe that the application contains statements that are incorrect; and
 - (e) in the opinion of the Licensing Authority there are no other reasons disclosed by the application why the applicant may be unsuitable to be a responsible employee of the class or classes to which the application relates.

- (3) A Licensing Authority may issue a temporary certificate of approval under this section even if—
- (a) the time for the Police to file an objection under section 49 has not expired; or
 - (b) the applicant has not met the requirements prescribed in regulations made under section 114(1)(h).
- (4) A temporary certificate of approval issued under subsection (2) gives the holder all the rights and duties of a certificate of approval issued under section 54 to be a responsible employee of the class or classes to which the application relates.
- (5) A temporary certificate of approval is in force for a period of 3 months after the date of its issue, or until a certificate of approval is issued to the applicant under section 54, whichever comes first.

Section 60(2): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 228 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

Section 60(2)(a): amended, on 6 March 2015, by section 82 of the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Amendment Act 2014 (2014 No 33).

Section 60(3): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 228 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

Emergency appointments of responsible employees

61 Emergency appointment of responsible employee

- (1) A person who does not hold an appropriate certificate of approval may be employed, engaged on contract, or act, as a responsible employee if—
- (a) he or she has applied for a certificate of approval and paid the prescribed fee; and
 - (b) the person who engages the person, or permits the person to act,—
 - (i) has, owing to employee illness or emergency, insufficient employees who hold a certificate of approval to carry on his or her business; and
 - (ii) is satisfied on reasonable grounds that the person has applied for an appropriate certificate of approval and that the information provided in the application indicates that no ground of disqualification under section 62 exists; and
 - (iii) is to the best of his or her knowledge satisfied that the person is not currently charged with an offence that, if it resulted in conviction, would be a ground of disqualification under section 62; and
 - (iv) has no reason to believe that any statement in the application is incorrect; and

- (v) notifies a Licensing Authority in the prescribed manner before employing or engaging the person, or permitting the person to act, as a responsible employee; and
 - (vi) complies with any requirements prescribed in regulations made under this Act relating to the making of emergency appointments under this section.
- (2) Except with the prior approval of a Licensing Authority, a person (Y) must not in reliance on this section employ or engage a person, or permit a person to act, as a responsible employee, or continue to do so, if Y—
- (a) has already employed, engaged, or permitted the person to act as a responsible employee in reliance on this section for a continuous period of 2 weeks; or
 - (b) has already employed, engaged, or permitted the person to act as a responsible employee in reliance on this section on an occasion more than 2 weeks previously.
- (3) If under subsection (1) a person (Y) employs or engages a person, or permits a person to act, as a responsible employee, Y must immediately stop the person from undertaking any work for which the person would be required to hold a certificate of approval if Y is instructed by a Licensing Authority to do so by service of a notice in writing.

Subpart 3—Grounds of disqualification

Grounds of disqualification: Individual

62 Grounds of disqualification for individual applicant

The grounds of disqualification for an individual applicant for a licence, or an applicant for a certificate of approval, are that the individual—

- (a) has been ordered by a court to be detained in a hospital owing to his or her mental condition and is currently subject to such an order; or
- (b) has ever had an order made in relation to him or her under section 34(1)(b) of the Criminal Procedure (Mentally Impaired Persons) Act 2003, section 118 of the Criminal Justice Act 1985, or section 39J of the Criminal Justice Act 1954 (being an order imposed, instead of passing sentence, that the offender be treated or cared for in a manner that the offender's mental impairment requires, either in the offender's interest,

- or for the safety of the public, or for the safety of a person or class of person); or
- (c) has ever been ordered by a court to be detained in a penal institution following conviction for an offence and that conviction or order has not been quashed on appeal; or
 - (d) has ever been convicted of a specified offence as defined in section 4 of the Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004; or
 - (e) has ever been disqualified from driving under section 65 of the Land Transport Act 1998 or an earlier equivalent provision; or
 - (f) has, within the preceding 7 years, been convicted of any—
 - (i) offence under the Arms Act 1983; or
 - (ii) offence under any of sections 216H to 216J of the Crimes Act 1961; or
 - (iii) offence under section 10, 11, 12A, 13, 16, 19, 21, 24, 47F, or 47J of the Fair Trading Act 1986; or

Grounds of disqualification: Company

63 Grounds of disqualification for company

- (1) The grounds of disqualification for a company applicant for a licence are that—
- (a) the company has, within the preceding 7 years, been convicted of any—
 - (i) offence under section 10, 11, 12, 12A, 16, 19, 21, 24, 47F, or 47J of the Fair Trading Act 1986; or
 - (ia) offence under section 103(1) of the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003 that involves a breach of any provision of Part 3A of that Act; or
 - (ii) offence of dishonesty; or
 - (iii) offence against section 6 of the Misuse of Drugs Act 1975 in relation to a Class A controlled drug, a Class B controlled drug, or a Class C controlled drug, in relation to which the amount, level, or quantity at and over which the drug is presumed to be for supply is specified in Schedule 5 of that Act; or
 - (iv) offence under this Act of operating while unlicensed or employing or engaging a person without a certificate of approval, or an offence under section 16, 34, or 52 of the Private Investigators and Security Guards Act 1974; or
 - (b) the company holds a licence that has been suspended; or
 - (c) the company has, within the preceding 7 years, had a licence cancelled under this Act or the Private Investigators and Security Guards Act 1974; or
 - (d) an officer of the company was, or is, an officer of another company (whether or not that other company is still in existence) that, within the preceding 7 years, had a licence cancelled under this Act or the Private Investigators and Security Guards Act 1974; or
 - (e) any of the grounds of disqualification in section 62(a) to (h) apply to any officer of the company; or

- (f) every officer of the company is disqualified under section 62(i) and (j).
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(e) and (f), section 62 must be read as if the officer were the applicant for the licence.

Section 63(1)(a)(i): amended, on 17 June 2014, by section 41(2) of the Fair Trading Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 143).

Waiver of ground of disqualification

64 Waiver of ground of disqualification while licence or certificate of approval in force

- (1) This section applies if, while a licence or certificate of approval is in force, an event occurs that means that 1 or more grounds of disqualification apply to the licensee or certificate holder under section 62 or 63, as the case may be.
- (2) The licensee or certificate holder may apply in writing to a Licensing Authority for a waiver of the disqualification.
- (3) The application must be accompanied by the prescribed fee, if any.
- (4) A Licensing Authority may waive the disqualification if the Authority is satisfied that the licensee or certificate holder is, despite the disqualification, suitable to be a licensee or certificate holder, as the case may be, in relation to the class or classes of business or work to which the licence or certificate relates.
- (5) A waiver of disqualification under this section expires on the expiry of the licence or certificate of approval in respect of which it was granted.
- (6) If a waiver of disqualification has been granted under this section, no complaint may be made under Part 4 against the licensee or certificate holder on the grounds that he or she is disqualified in the respect covered by the waiver.

Section 64(2): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 228 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

Section 64(4): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 228 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

Part 3

Responsibilities of licensees and certificate holders

65 Production of licence

- (1) A licensee must produce his or her licence on demand to—
- (a) a Licensing Authority; or
 - (b) any constable; or
 - (c) a person authorised by the chief investigator of the Complaints, Investigation, and Prosecution Unit; or

- (d) any person with whom the licensee is dealing when carrying on or attempting to carry on any private security business to which the licence relates.
- (2) If the licensee is a company, it is sufficient compliance with the requirements of subsection (1) if the licence is kept in the company's registered office and is made available for inspection on demand by any of the persons referred to in that subsection.
- (3) A licensee who knowingly contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000.

Compare: 1974 No 48 s 45

Section 65(1)(a): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 228 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

Section 65(3): amended, on 1 July 2013, by section 413 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 (2011 No 81).

66 Production of certificate of approval

- (1) A certificate holder must produce his or her certificate of approval on demand to—
 - (a) a Licensing Authority; or
 - (b) any constable; or
 - (c) a person authorised by the chief investigator of the Complaints, Investigation, and Prosecution Unit; or
 - (d) any person with whom the certificate holder is dealing in the course of performing his or her duties as a responsible employee.
- (2) A certificate holder must, on demand by any person specified in subsection (1), inform that person of the name and address of the person by whom the holder is employed or engaged as a responsible employee.
- (3) A certificate holder who knowingly contravenes subsection (1) or (2) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000.

Compare: 1974 No 48 s 46

Section 66(1)(a): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 228 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

Section 66(3): amended, on 1 July 2013, by section 413 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 (2011 No 81).

67 Requirement to wear identification badge

- (1) An individual who is the holder of a licence to carry on any of the classes of private security business described in sections 6 to 11 must wear an identification badge issued by an Authority at all times during the course of carrying on or attempting to carry on that business.
- (2) The holder of a certificate of approval as a responsible employee of any kind described in sections 14 to 19 must wear an identification badge issued by an Authority at all times during the course of performing his or her duties as a responsible employee.

- (3) The identification badge must be worn in a position that is readily visible.
- (4) Despite subsections (1) and (2), no licensee or certificate holder is required to wear an identification badge if the licensee or certificate holder reasonably believes that wearing it would threaten his or her safety or the safety of any person.
- (5) A licensee or certificate holder who intentionally contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000.

Section 67(1): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 228 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

Section 67(5): amended, on 1 July 2013, by section 413 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 (2011 No 81).

68 Identification badge

- (1) An identification badge must contain the following information:
 - (a) a unique identifier number or code;
 - (b) a photograph of the licensee or certificate holder;
 - (c) the class or classes of work that the licensee or certificate holder is authorised to carry out;
 - (d) the expiry date of the licence or the certificate of approval.
- (2) In the case of an identification badge to be worn by the holder of a temporary certificate of approval, the identification badge must identify the wearer as the holder of a temporary certificate of approval.
- (3) An identification badge must not include the name or address of the licensee or certificate holder.

69 Licensee and certificate holder to keep records

A licensee or certificate holder or person who employs or engages any repositioning employee or crowd controller employee commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000 who fails without reasonable excuse to comply with any requirement to keep records that is prescribed in regulations made under section 114.

Section 69: amended, on 6 March 2015, by section 82 of the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Amendment Act 2014 (2014 No 33).

Section 69: amended, on 1 July 2013, by section 413 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 (2011 No 81).

70 Access by Police and Complaints, Investigation, and Prosecution Unit to records

- (1) A licensee or certificate holder or person who employs or engages any repossession employee or crowd controller employee must, when required to do so by a constable or a person authorised by the chief investigator of the Complaints, Investigation, and Prosecution Unit (authorised person),—
- (a) show the constable or authorised person without delay any record or document that is required by regulations made under this Act to be kept by the licensee or certificate holder;
 - (b) make a copy of all or specified parts of a record or document of a kind referred to in paragraph (a) and give it to the constable or authorised person, or if that is impracticable, give the constable or authorised person the record or document or specified part of it.
- (2) If a licensee or certificate holder or person who employs or engages any repossession employee or crowd controller employee gives a constable or authorised person a record or document, or a specified part of it, under subsection (1)(b), the constable or authorised person must—
- (a) give a receipt for the record or document or specified part of it; and
 - (b) return it within 2 hours.
- (3) A licensee or certificate holder or person who employs or engages any repossession employee or crowd controller employee commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000 if the licensee or certificate holder or person fails without reasonable excuse to comply with subsection (1).

Section 70(1): amended, on 6 March 2015, by section 82 of the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Amendment Act 2014 (2014 No 33).

Section 70(2): amended, on 6 March 2015, by section 82 of the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Amendment Act 2014 (2014 No 33).

71 Updating certificate information

- (1) A certificate holder must advise a Licensing Authority—
- (a) of any change to the certificate holder's name or residential address; or
 - (b) if, subsequent to the application for a certificate of approval, any of the grounds of disqualification described in section 62 apply to him or her.
- (2) A certificate holder commits an offence if he or she fails without reasonable excuse to comply with subsection (1).

Section 71(1): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 228 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

72 Private investigator to display notices at offices

- (1) A licensee authorised to carry on the business of a private investigator must cause the information specified in subsection (2) to be conspicuously displayed on—
 - (a) all notices, advertisements, and other publications issued by him or her or on his or her behalf, in the course of or in connection with the business of a private investigator; and
 - (b) all letters, accounts, and other documents sent out by him or her or on his or her behalf, in the course of or in connection with the business of a private investigator.
- (2) The information referred to in subsection (1) is—
 - (a) the licensee’s full name; and
 - (b) the fact that the licensee is the holder of a licence authorising him or her to carry on the business of a private investigator; and
 - (c) if the business is not carried on in the licensee’s own name, the name under which he or she carries on the business.
- (3) A licensee authorised to carry on the business of a private investigator must cause to be conspicuously shown on all letters sent out or published by him or her or on his or her behalf, in the course of or in connection with the business of a private investigator, a statement to the effect that he or she has no more authority than that of an ordinary private citizen to require a reply to the letter.
- (4) A licensee who knowingly contravenes subsection (1) or (3) commits an offence.

76 Suspension of licence or certificate of approval pending determination of complaint

- (1) A Licensing Authority may make an order suspending a licence or certificate if a complaint has been filed against the holder of it under section 73 or 74 and the Licensing Authority is satisfied that it is necessary or desirable to do so having regard to—
 - (a) the interests of the public; and
 - (b) the possibility of further loss or damage occurring if the Licensing Authority does not make an order under this section.
- (2) A licence or certificate may be suspended either in whole or in part in respect of 1 or more classes (of business or responsible employee) for which it was granted.
- (3) A Licensing Authority is not obliged to give notice to the licensee or certificate holder that it intends to make an order of suspension under this section.
- (4) A Licensing Authority must notify the licensee or certificate holder in writing of any order of suspension made by it under this section and of its reasons for making the order.
- (5) As soon as practicable after the notification under subsection (4), a Licensing Authority must give the licensee or certificate holder an opportunity to make representations to the Authority for the revocation of the order.
- (6) If an order of suspension is made under this section, the order—
 - (a) comes into force when the licensee or certificate holder is notified of the order in accordance with subsection (4); and
 - (b) lasts until the complaint is heard and determined by a Licensing Authority in accordance with this Part.
- (7) During the period that a licence is suspended—
 - (a) the licence has no effect and must not be renewed; and
 - (b) no new licence may be issued authorising the licensee to carry on the class of business, or (if more than 1) any 1 or more of the classes of business, to which the suspended licence relates.

- (8) During the period that a certificate of approval is suspended—
- (a) the certificate has no effect and must not be renewed; and
 - (b) no new certificate may be issued authorising the holder to be a responsible employee of any class, or (if more than 1) any 1 or more of the classes of responsible employee, to which the suspended certificate relates.
- (9) A Licensing Authority may at any time, on its own motion or on the application of the licensee or the certificate holder, revoke an order of suspension made under this section.

Disciplinary hearing

77 Hearing

- (1) A Licensing Authority—
- (a) must hold a hearing if a complaint has been filed with the Licensing Authority against a licensee under section 73 or certificate holder under section 74, and the Licensing Authority is satisfied that the requirements of the relevant section have been complied with; and
 - (b) may on its own motion hold a hearing if it has received a report requested under section 75(2) and suspects on reasonable grounds that there may be grounds of the kind in section 73(4) for disciplinary action against a licensee or grounds of the kind in section 74(4) for disciplinary action against a certificate holder.
- (2) A Licensing Authority must fix a time and place for the hearing.
- (3) A Licensing Authority must give not less than 10 working days' notice of the hearing—
- (a) to the licensee or certificate holder; and
 - (b) to the complainant (if any); and
 - (c) if the Licensing Authority wishes the Police to attend, to the Commissioner of Police; and

- (d) if the Licensing Authority received a report from the Complaints, Investigation, and Prosecution Unit, the chief investigator of the unit.
- (4) If a Licensing Authority is holding a hearing under subsection (1)(b), the Licensing Authority must, not later than 10 working days before the date of the hearing, provide the licensee or certificate holder with a statement of the reasons for this.
- (5) At the hearing, the following persons are entitled to appear, be heard, call evidence, and to cross-examine and re-examine witnesses:
 - (a) the complainant (if any); and
 - (b) the licensee or certificate holder; and
 - (c) the Commissioner of Police or any other constable on the Commissioner's behalf; and
 - (d) the chief investigator of the Complaints, Investigation, and Prosecution Unit or any other person authorised by the chief investigator.
- (6) Any party at the hearing may conduct his or her case personally or may be represented by counsel.
- (7) A Licensing Authority may from time to time adjourn the hearing to a future time and place fixed by it.
- (8) Despite anything in this Act to the contrary, a Licensing Authority may determine a complaint on the papers if he or she considers it appropriate.
- (9) Before doing so, he or she must give the parties a reasonable opportunity to comment on whether the complaint should be dealt with in that manner.

77B Suppression orders

- (1) A Licensing Authority may order that any part of any evidence given or the name of any witness not be published.
- (2) An order may be subject to any conditions that a Licensing Authority considers appropriate.
- (3) A person who breaches an order made under this section is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $3,000.

Section 77B: inserted, on 14 November 2018, by section 203 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

77C Contempt of Licensing Authority

- (1) A person commits an offence if the person—
- (a) wilfully insults or obstructs a Licensing Authority, a witness, or an officer of an Authority during a sitting of an Authority or while an Authority, a witness, or an officer is going to, or returning from, a sitting of an Authority; or
 - (b) wilfully insults or obstructs any person in attendance at a sitting of an Authority; or
 - (c) wilfully interrupts, or otherwise misbehaves at, a sitting of an Authority; or
 - (d) wilfully and without lawful excuse disobeys any order or direction of an Authority in the course of the hearing of any proceedings.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000.
- (3) A Licensing Authority may order the exclusion from a sitting of that Authority of any person whose behaviour, in the opinion of the Authority, constitutes an offence against subsection (1), whether or not the person is charged with the offence; and any officer of the Authority or constable may take any steps that are reasonably necessary to enforce the exclusion.

Section 77C: inserted, on 14 November 2018, by section 203 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

Powers of Authorities: Licensees

Heading: amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 228 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

78 Disciplinary powers of Licensing Authority in respect of licensee

- (1) If, after a hearing in accordance with section 77, a Licensing Authority is satisfied that the grounds for disciplinary action in the complaint or under section 77(1)(b), as the case may be, have been proved, the Licensing Authority—
- (a) must cancel the licence if section 79 applies:
 - (b) may cancel the licence if section 80 applies:
 - (c) may, in addition to cancellation under paragraph (a), or in addition to or instead of cancellation under paragraph (b), do all or any of the following things that may be appropriate:
 - (i) make an order suspending the licence for a period, not exceeding 3 years, that the Licensing Authority specifies in the order:
 - (ii) make an order that the licensee undergo training:
 - (iii) make an order that the licensee work under supervision for a period that the Licensing Authority specifies in the order:
 - (iv) make an order that the licensee work subject to conditions and for a period that the Licensing Authority specifies in the order:
 - (v) bar the licensee from applying for a licence or certificate of approval for a period that the Licensing Authority specifies in the order or until certain conditions are met:
 - (vi) fine the licensee any amount not exceeding $2,000:
 - (vii) reprimand the licensee:
 - (viii) if the Licensing Authority is satisfied in the case of a licensee that is a company that the grounds for disciplinary action relate to any conduct or omission by a particular officer of the company, make an order directing the licensee to terminate the employment of that officer within the time the Licensing Authority specifies in the order.
- (1A) If unsatisfactory conduct is proved, a Licensing Authority—
- (a) must not take action under subsection (1) in relation to that conduct; but
 - (b) may take action under subsection (1B).
- (1B) If, after a hearing in accordance with section 77, a Licensing Authority is satisfied that unsatisfactory conduct has been proved on the complaint or under section 77(1)(b), as the case may be, the Authority may do all or any of the following things that may be appropriate:
- (a) order that the licensee undergo training:

- (b) order that the licensee work under supervision for a period that the Authority specifies in the order:
 - (c) order that the licensee work subject to conditions and for a period that the Authority specifies in the order:
 - (d) reprimand the licensee:
 - (e) order that the licensee apologise to the complainant.
- (2) If, after the hearing, a Licensing Authority is not satisfied that the grounds for disciplinary action have been proved, the Authority must dismiss the matter.
- (3) A cancellation must be in writing, with reasons, and state the date on which the cancellation takes effect.
- (4) While any order of suspension of a licence made under this section continues in force,—
- (a) the licence has no effect and must not be renewed; and
 - (b) no new licence may be issued authorising the licensee to carry on the class of private security business, or (if more than 1) any 1 or more of the classes of private security business, to which the suspended licence relates.
- (5) A fine imposed by a Licensing Authority on a licensee under subsection (1) is a debt due by the licensee to the Crown, and is recoverable in any court of competent jurisdiction.
- (6) A Licensing Authority must as soon as practicable give notice in writing of the decision made by the Authority under this section, and of any penalty imposed, to—
- (a) the licensee; and
 - (b) the Commissioner of Police; and
 - (c) any complainant; and
 - (d) the chief investigator of the Complaints, Investigation, and Prosecution Unit.
- (7) If a Licensing Authority makes an order under subsection (1)(c)(viii), it must as soon as practicable also give notice in writing of the order to the officer to whom it relates.

79 Mandatory grounds for cancellation of licence

- (1) This section applies (and, under section 78, cancellation of the licence is mandatory) if—
 - (a) a Licensing Authority is satisfied that 1 or more grounds for disqualification under section 62 or 63 apply to the licensee and the Authority is satisfied that, because of this, the licensee is not suitable to hold a licence; or
 - (b) a Licensing Authority is satisfied that the licence was issued by mistake or by reason of fraud on the part of the applicant for the licence.
- (2) Subsection (3) applies if—
 - (a) the licensee is a company; and
 - (b) the reason that a Licensing Authority is satisfied that the licensee is unsuitable to be a licensee under subsection (1)(a) is because an officer of the company is disqualified under section 62.
- (3) A Licensing Authority must not cancel the company's licence if—
 - (a) the person became an officer of the company after the company obtained its licence; and
 - (b) within 2 weeks of the person becoming an officer of the company, the company applied to the Licensing Authority under section 40(2) for the approval of the officer; and
 - (c) either—
 - (i) the Licensing Authority has not yet determined whether or not to approve the officer; or
 - (ii) the Licensing Authority has advised the company, in writing, that it refuses to approve the officer but less than 2 weeks has elapsed since the advice was sent.

Section 94: amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 228 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

95 Administrative and secretarial services

The chief executive of the responsible department must provide for the Licensing Authorities and any Deputy Licensing Authorities the administrative and secretarial services that may be necessary to enable those persons to exercise their functions and powers, and perform their duties, under this Act.

Compare: 1974 No 48 s 12

Section 95: amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 228 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

96 Delegations

- (1) A Licensing Authority may, in writing, delegate to any person—
 - (a) the power under section 30 to grant an application for a licence without holding an oral hearing, if no notices of objection have been filed:
 - (b) the power under section 38 to issue a temporary certificate of approval:
 - (c) the power of the Licensing Authority under section 43:
 - (d) the power under section 50 to grant an application for a certificate of approval without holding an oral hearing, if no notices of objection have been filed:
 - (e) the power under section 60 to issue a temporary certificate of approval:
 - (f) the functions of the Licensing Authority under section 97 (registers).
- (2) Subject to any general or special directions given or conditions attached to a delegation, the person to whom a delegation is made under this section must perform and may exercise the power or functions in the same manner and with the same effect as if they had been conferred on that person directly by this section and not by delegation.
- (3) A person purporting to act under a delegation is, in the absence of proof to the contrary, presumed to be acting in accordance with the terms of the delegation.

- (4) A delegation may be to a specified person or to persons of a specified class, or may be made to the holder or holders for the time being of a specified office or specified classes of offices.
- (5) A delegation is revocable in writing at will, and a delegation does not prevent the exercise of any function, duty, or power by a Licensing Authority.
- (6) A delegation continues in force according to its tenor until revoked, even if the Licensing Authority who made it has ceased to hold office.

Section 96(1): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 228 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

Section 96(5): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 228 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

96A Practice notes

- (1) All Licensing Authorities acting together may issue practice notes, to apply to all of them, as they think fit.
- (2) The practice notes must not be inconsistent with this Act or any regulations made under it and are for the guidance of a Deputy Licensing Authority, officers of a Licensing Authority, and parties before a Licensing Authority.

Section 96A: inserted, on 14 November 2018, by section 218 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

96B Online publication of information about procedures, time frames, and progress of decisions

The following information must be published on an Internet site maintained by or on behalf of the chief executive:

- (a) information about the purpose of the Licensing Authorities and how to make an application or a complaint:
- (b) any requirements that must be met for an application or a complaint:
- (c) guidelines on how and when parties may obtain information on the progress of their case and when a decision may be expected.

Section 96B: inserted, on 29 October 2019, by section 219 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

96C Online publication of final written decisions

- (1) Every final written decision of a Licensing Authority must be published on an Internet site as soon as practicable unless there is good reason not to publish it.
- (2) A final written decision may be published in part if there is good reason for not publishing the full decision.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) are subject to section 77B.
- (4) Good reason not to publish a decision, or part of it, includes the following:
 - (a) non-publication is necessary because of a suppression order or statutory requirement that affects publication or continued publication:

- (b) the decision falls into a category of decisions that are of limited public value;
 - (c) taking into account the presumption in subsection (1) in favour of publication, a Licensing Authority nevertheless determines that the decision or any part of it should not be published because publication or the effect of publication would be contrary to the interests of justice.
- (5) In this section, final written decision means a written decision that determines, or substantially determines, the outcome of proceedings in a Licensing Authority and is any of the following:
- (a) a written reserved decision following an oral hearing;
 - (b) a written decision in any case considered on the papers;
 - (c) an oral decision transcribed by an official transcription service.

Section 96C: inserted, on 29 October 2019, by section 219 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

Registers

97 Registers

- (1) All Licensing Authorities acting together must establish and maintain the following registers:
- (a) a register of licensees;
 - (b) a register of certificate holders.
- (2) The register of licensees must show in relation to each licensee—
- (a) the full name and, if the licensee is an individual, the residential address and occupation of the licensee; and
 - (b) the date on which the licence was issued; and
 - (c) the class or classes of private security business in respect of which the licence was issued; and
 - (d) every date on which the licence was renewed; and
 - (e) the registered office of the holder (if a company) or principal place of business of the holder (if not a company), and every other place of business specified in the licence; and
 - (f) details, including dates, of any suspension or cancellation of the licence; and
 - (g) any other prescribed information.
- (3) The register of certificate holders must show in relation to each certificate holder—
- (a) the full name, residential address, and occupation of the certificate holder; and
 - (b) the date on which the certificate of approval was issued; and

- (c) the class or classes of responsible employee in respect of which the certificate was issued; and
 - (d) every date on which the certificate of approval was renewed; and
 - (e) details, including dates, of any suspension or cancellation of the certificate of approval; and
 - (f) any other prescribed information.
- (4) All Licensing Authorities acting together must determine the form of the registers, and may amend the form from time to time as he or she considers necessary, providing that the content of the registers is as required by subsections (2) and (3).

Compare: 1974 No 48 s 13

Section 97(1): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 220(1) of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

98 Inspection of registers

- (1) All Licensing Authorities acting together must take all reasonable steps to ensure—
- (a) that the information contained in the registers is available to members of the public to view at all reasonable times; and
 - (b) that members of the public may copy or purchase all, or any part of, the information contained in the registers at no more than a reasonable cost.
- (2) Despite subsection (1),—
- (a) no residential address recorded under section 97(2)(a) or (3)(a) may be made available to the public for inspection; and
 - (b) no copy of a register or part of a register provided to a member of the public may contain a residential address recorded under section 97(2)(a) or (3)(a).

Section 98(1): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 221 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

99 Statement by Licensing Authorities as to contents of register

A written statement of either of the following kinds signed by a Licensing Authority is, in any judicial proceedings, sufficient evidence, until the contrary is proved, of the matters referred to in the statement:

- (a) a statement to the effect that any specified person is or is not the holder of a licence or certificate of approval, or was or was not the holder of a licence or certificate of approval at any particular time or during any period specified in the statement; or
- (b) a statement as to any entry in a register.

Complaints, Investigation, and Prosecution Unit

100 Complaints, Investigation, and Prosecution Unit

- (1) The chief executive of the department of State designated by the Prime Minister must provide a Complaints, Investigation, and Prosecution Unit consisting of employees of that department.
- (2) The chief executive of the department designated under subsection (1) must designate an employee of that department to be the chief investigator of the unit.
- (3) The chief investigator of the unit, and persons authorised by the chief investigator, have the powers conferred on them by this Act.

101 Functions of Complaints, Investigation, and Prosecution Unit

The functions of the Complaints, Investigation, and Prosecution Unit are—

- (a) to prepare reports on applications for licences and certificates of approval when requested under Part 2:
- (b) to take part in oral hearings of applications for licences and certificates of approval as provided for in Part 2:
- (c) to prepare reports on complaints against licensees and certificate holders and matters referred by an Authority when requested under Part 4:
- (d) to take part in disciplinary hearings as provided for in Part 4:
- (e) to institute prosecutions for contraventions of this Act, and regulations made under this Act, in the cases that the chief investigator of the unit considers appropriate.

Section 101(c): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 228 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

Part 6

General and miscellaneous provisions

General provisions

102 Appeals to District Court

- (1) The following persons have a right of appeal to the District Court against a decision of a Licensing Authority under this Act:
 - (a) if an application is refused (whether in whole or in part), the applicant; and

- (b) if an applicant is dissatisfied with a condition imposed by an Authority under section 33(7) or 53(7), the applicant; and
 - (c) if an application is granted (in whole or in part), a person who objected to the granting of the application; and
 - (d) if a licence is suspended or cancelled, the licensee; and
 - (e) if a certificate of approval is suspended or cancelled, the person whose certificate of approval is suspended or cancelled; and
 - (f) if the employment of an officer of a company that is a licensee is terminated, the officer; and
 - (g) if a licensee or person holding a certificate of approval is fined, the licensee or person; and
 - (h) if there was a complaint made by a constable under Part 4 but the licence or certificate of approval in relation to which the complaint was made was not suspended or cancelled, the Commissioner of Police.
- (2) An appeal under this section must be brought within 20 working days after the date on which the appellant was notified in writing by a Licensing Authority of the decision appealed against, or within any further period that the court may allow.
- (3) The appeal—
- (a) must be made by way of originating application in accordance with the District Court Rules 2014; and
 - (b) must be filed in the office of the District Court nearest to the registered office of the licensee (if a company) or principal place of business of the licensee (if not a company), or to the place of employment or engagement of the certificate holder, as the case may require.
- (4) On hearing the appeal, the court may—
- (a) confirm, vary, or reverse the decision appealed against; or
 - (b) in the case of an order suspending a licence or certificate of approval, vary the period of the suspension; or
 - (c) refer the matter back to the Licensing Authority with directions to him or her to reconsider the whole or any specified part of the matter.
- (5) Subject to any order of the court, every decision of a Licensing Authority against which an appeal is made continues in force and has effect according to its tenor pending the determination of the appeal.

103 Appeals to High Court on questions of law only

If a party to proceedings before the District Court under section 102 is dissatisfied with any determination of the court as being erroneous in point of law, the party may, with the leave of the High Court, appeal to the High Court on a question of law only.

104 Power of Police and Complaints, Investigation, and Prosecution Unit to require information

- (1) Any constable or a person authorised by the chief investigator of the Complaints, Investigation, and Prosecution Unit (authorised person) who has reasonable cause to suspect that a person has committed or is committing or is attempting to commit any offence against this Act may require that person to give particulars of his or her—
 - (a) name and address; and
 - (b) date of birth.
- (2) If the constable or authorised person has reasonable grounds to suspect that any particulars provided under subsection (1) are false, he or she may require the person to supply satisfactory evidence of those particulars.
- (3) If any person, without reasonable excuse, refuses or fails to supply any particulars or evidence when required to do so by any constable or authorised person under this section, and persists in that refusal or failure after being cautioned by the constable or authorised person, that person may be arrested, without warrant, by any constable.
- (4) A person commits an offence who, having been required by a constable or authorised person to supply particulars or evidence under this section, without reasonable excuse,—
 - (a) refuses or fails to supply the particulars or evidence; or
 - (b) knowingly or recklessly supplies any particulars or evidence that are false in a material respect.
- (5) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $20,000.

Section 104(5): amended, on 1 July 2013, by section 413 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 (2011 No 81).

105 Providing false information

A person commits an offence, and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $20,000, who—

- (a) is required by or under this Act to provide information to a Licensing Authority, a person authorised by the chief investigator of the Complaints, Investigation, and Prosecution Unit, or a constable; and
- (b) gives false information knowing that it is false or being reckless as to whether it is false.

Section 105: amended, on 1 July 2013, by section 413 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 (2011 No 81).

Section 105(a): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 228 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

106 Liability of officers of company for offences

If a company commits an offence against this Act, every officer of the company is guilty of the same offence, and is liable to the same penalty, unless he or she proves that the offence was committed either without his or her knowledge or without his or her consent.

107 General penalty for offences

A person who commits an offence under this Act, or against any regulations made under this Act, for which no penalty is otherwise provided by this Act or by the regulations, is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000.

Section 107: amended, on 1 July 2013, by section 413 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 (2011 No 81).

108 Defence to charges involving failure to show or make copy of document, or show or make available any thing

- (1) It is a defence to a charge under this Act involving a failure, following a request by a constable, to show, make a copy of, and give a document, or a failure to show or make available any other thing, to that constable if—
 - (a) the constable was not in uniform and did not, at the time of making the request, produce evidence that he or she was a constable; or
 - (b) the request was made at a time or in a manner that was unreasonable in the circumstances.
- (2) This section does not limit any other defences that may be available.

Miscellaneous provisions

109 Licence or certificate not to confer additional powers on holder

- (1) No person, by virtue of being the holder of a licence or certificate of approval, has any power or authority that he or she would not have if this Act had not been passed.
- (2) No person, being the holder of a licence or certificate of approval, may—
 - (a) either orally or in writing claim, suggest, or imply that, by virtue of his or her licence, certificate of approval, occupation, or business, he or she has any power or authority that he or she does not in law have; or
 - (b) use or attempt to use his or her licence or certificate of approval for the purpose of exercising, claiming, suggesting, or implying such a power or authority; or
 - (c) either orally or in writing describe or refer to himself or herself as a detective or by any other expression or term containing the word “detective”; or
 - (d) wear any article of clothing, badge, or other article, that is likely to cause any member of the public to believe that the holder of the licence or certificate of approval is a constable.
- (3) Every person who contravenes subsection (2) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $20,000.

Compare: 1974 No 48 s 66

Section 109(3): amended, on 1 July 2013, by section 413 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 (2011 No 81).

110 Misleading conduct

- (1) This section applies to the following classes of private security personnel:
 - (a) a repossession agent, property guard, personal guard, crowd controller:
 - (b) a repossession employee, property guard employee, personal guard employee, or crowd controller employee.
- (2) No person who does not hold a licence or certificate of approval as a class of person to whom this section applies may, with the intention of misleading any other person to believe that he or she is the holder of a licence or certificate of approval,—
 - (a) put on, or assume, any dress indicating that he or she is a person of that class; or
 - (b) wear any insignia indicating that he or she is a person of that class.
- (3) Every person who contravenes subsection (2) commits an offence against this Act.

Section 110(1)(b): amended, on 6 March 2015, by section 82 of the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Amendment Act 2014 (2014 No 33).

Section 110(3): amended, on 5 December 2013, by section 6 of the Private Security Personnel and Private Investigators Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 128).

111 Lost licences and certificates of approval

If a Licensing Authority is satisfied that a holder of a licence or certificate of approval has lost his or her licence or certificate of approval, the Authority may issue to the holder a substitute licence or certificate of approval—

- (a) on payment of the prescribed fee (if any); and
- (b) on receipt of a photograph of the holder that, in the opinion of the Authority, complies with the requirements (if any) of any regulations made under this Act.

Section 111: replaced, on 14 November 2018, by section 223 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

112 Voluntary surrender of licence or certificate of approval

- (1) A holder of a licence or certificate of approval may at any time surrender his or her licence or certificate of approval by delivering it with a notice in writing to that effect to a Licensing Authority.
- (2) On receipt of the documents by a Licensing Authority, the licence or certificate of approval ceases to have effect.
- (3) If a holder of a licence or certificate of approval gives a notice under subsection (1) to a Licensing Authority, he or she must also, within 5 working days, serve a copy of the notice on the Commissioner of Police.
- (4) The surrender of a licence or certificate of approval under subsection (1) does not affect the liability of the holder—
 - (a) to pay any fees or other money payable in accordance with the provisions of this Act on or before the date on which the licence or certificate of approval would expire if it had not been surrendered; or
 - (b) to perform any duty or obligation that he or she was required to perform on or before the date specified in paragraph (a); or
 - (c) for any act done or default or omission made before the date of surrender.

113 Change of place of business

- (1) A licensee may at any time apply in writing to a Licensing Authority to amend his or her licence by—
 - (a) changing the registered office of the licensee; or
 - (b) specifying any additional place from which the licensee may carry on the business or businesses to which the licence relates; or
 - (c) deleting any place of business specified in the licence.
- (2) Every application must be accompanied by the licence to which it relates.
- (3) If the Licensing Authority grants the application, the Authority must endorse the licence accordingly and return it to the licensee, and must also notify the Commissioner of Police in writing of that fact.

Section 113(1): amended, on 14 November 2018, by section 228 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

114 Regulations

- (1) The Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council, make regulations for all or any of the following purposes:
 - (a) [Repealed]
 - (b) prescribing the matters for which fees are payable under this Act and the amount of those fees:
 - (c) providing for the exemption from fees, in whole or in part:
 - (d) prescribing the circumstances in which a Licensing Authority may waive or refund a prescribed fee in a particular case:
 - (e) prescribing the manner in which applications under sections 24, 25, and 46 are to be made:
 - (f) prescribing information required to be supplied with an application for a licence or certificate, which may include information to establish the applicant's identity or, in the case of a company applicant, the identity of an officer of the company:
 - (g) requiring an individual to whom a licence or certificate is issued to collect the licence or certificate in person, or provide evidence of his or her identity when collecting the issued licence; or both:
 - (h) prescribing the competency, knowledge, and skills required by applicants for licences and certificates of approval, applicants for renewal of licences and certificates of approval, and licensees and certificate holders, including, without limitation, by—

- (i) requiring that a particular course of study or training has been successfully completed:
 - (ii) requiring a person to have met a specified standard or other measure of competency, knowledge, and skills:
 - (i) prescribe the organisation or organisations that may provide the courses of study or training referred to in paragraph (h)(i) and provide for the monitoring of those organisations by a Licensing Authority:
 - (j) prescribing requirements and other matters relating to the making of emergency appointments under section 61:
 - (k) requiring records or other documents to be kept by any class or classes of licensees, certificate holders, or persons other than licensees who employ or engage repossession employees or crowd controller employees under the Act:
 - (l) prescribing offences in respect of the contravention of or non-compliance with any regulations made under this section or section 115, and prescribing the amount of any fine that may be imposed in respect of such offence, being an amount not exceeding $2,000 and, where the offence is a continuing one, a further amount not exceeding $20 for every day during which the offence has continued:
 - (m) providing for any other matters contemplated by this Act, necessary for its full administration, or necessary for giving it full effect.
- (2) Regulations made under subsection (1)(h) may—
- (a) prescribe different requirements in relation to—
 - (i) different classes of private security business or different classes of responsible employees:
 - (ii) different types of work within a class of private security business or class of responsible employees:
 - (b) exempt certain persons or classes of persons from all or part of the prescribed requirements:
 - (c) without limiting paragraph (b), provide that a standard or other measure of competency, knowledge, and skills met within a certain period before a specified date be accepted as meeting the requirements prescribed under subsection (1)(h)(ii).
- (3) Regulations under this section are secondary legislation (see Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019 for publication requirements).

114A Chief executive may approve forms

- (1) The chief executive may approve and issue forms that the chief executive considers necessary for the purposes of this Act, not being forms required to be prescribed by regulations or rules made under this Act.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1),—
 - (a) more than 1 form may be approved and issued in relation to the same matter; and
 - (b) a form may be described by any name that the chief executive considers appropriate, even if the form relates to a matter that is described by a different name under this Act, so long as the form refers to the appropriate provision of this Act.
- (3) Every document purporting to be a form approved and issued by the chief executive under and for the purposes of this Act is deemed to have been so approved and issued unless the chief executive otherwise certifies.

Section 114A: inserted, on 14 November 2018, by section 226 of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

115 Codes of conduct

- (1) The Governor-General may, from time to time, by Order in Council made on the recommendation of the Minister, make regulations prescribing codes of conduct for licensees or certificate holders.
- (2) Regulations made under subsection (1) may—
 - (a) prescribe separate requirements or separate codes of conduct in relation to different classes of private security business or different classes of responsible employees:

- (b) prescribe a code of conduct for 1 or more classes of private security business or different classes of responsible employees and not for others.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (1), the Minister must recommend that the Governor-General make regulations under that subsection, to be in force at all times on and after 1 April 2011, prescribing a code of conduct containing matters that the Minister is satisfied are necessary or desirable in relation to the surveillance of individuals by private investigators and private investigator employees.
- (4) Regulations under this section are secondary legislation (see Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019 for publication requirements).

116 Service of documents

- (1) Any notice or other document that under this Act may be or is required to be given to or served on any applicant for a licence or certificate of approval may be served—
- by delivering it to the applicant personally; or
 - by leaving it or sending it by post addressed to the applicant at his or her residential address, principal place of business, or registered office specified in his or her application; or
 - by leaving it at any address for service specified in his or her application.
- (2) Any notice or other document that under this Act may be or is required to be given to or served on a holder of a licence or certificate of approval may be served by delivering it to him or her personally, or by leaving it or sending it by post addressed to him or her—
- at his or her usual or last known place of residence in New Zealand; or
 - in the case of a licensee, at his or her registered office, principal place of business, or at any other place of business specified in his or her licence; or
 - in the case of a certificate holder, at the place of business at which he or she is employed or engaged.
- (3) In the absence of proof to the contrary, a notice or other document sent by post in accordance with subsection (1) or (2) must be treated as having been given to the person at the time when the letter would have been delivered in the ordinary course of post.

- (4) In proving service of the notice, it is sufficient to prove that it was properly addressed and posted.
- (5) Where under this Act any notice or other document is to be given to or served on the Police, it may be given to or served on the senior member, for the time being, of the police in the district or place of residence of the applicant, or holder of the licence or certificate of approval, to whom the notice or other document relates.

Notes

1 General

This is a consolidation of the Private Security Personnel and Private Investigators Act 2010 that incorporates the amendments made to the legislation so that it shows the law as at its stated date.

2 Legal status

A consolidation is taken to correctly state, as at its stated date, the law enacted or made by the legislation consolidated and by the amendments. This presumption applies unless the contrary is shown.

Section 78 of the Legislation Act 2019 provides that this consolidation, published as an electronic version, is an official version. A printed version of legislation that is produced directly from this official electronic version is also an official version.

3 Editorial and format changes

The Parliamentary Counsel Office makes editorial and format changes to consolidations using the powers under subpart 2 of Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019. See also PCO editorial conventions for consolidations.
