- (2) Sections 9 and 10 record the acknowledgements and the apology given by the Crown to Ngati Toa Rangatira in the deed of settlement.

8 Summary of historical account

The historical account set out in the deed of settlement is summarised as follows:

- (1) By 1840 Ngati Toa Rangatira had established a powerful position in the Cook Strait region with settlements in the lower North Island and upper South Island (Te Tau Ihu). Several Ngati Toa Rangatira chiefs, including Te Rauparaha and Te Rangihaeata, signed the Treaty of Waitangi.
- (2) In 1839, Ngati Toa Rangatira signed the Kapiti deed with the New Zealand Company for approximately 20 million acres between Taranaki and north Canterbury. The oral translation of the English deed did not accurately convey its meaning and effect.
- (3) Ngati Toa Rangatira opposed Company surveys in the Wairau. In 1843, an attempt by an armed party of Nelson settlers to arrest Te Rauparaha and Te Rangihaeata resulted in a violent clash and the deaths of twenty-two Europeans and up to nine Maori.
- (4) A Crown-appointed commissioner investigated the Company's land claims covering Port Nicholson and Te Tau Ihu. In Port Nicholson the Crown established a process by which the Company could validate its purchases by paying additional money to Maori in return for the signing of deeds of release. In 1844 Te Rauparaha accepted £400 for the "surrender" of Ngati Toa Rangatira interests in Harataunga (the Hutt Valley). Te Rangihaeata only accepted a share of the money in 1845 but did not regard this payment as extinguishing the rights of allies from other iwi. The Crown treated the payment, which did not define the boundaries of Harataunga or provide any reserves, as extinguishing Ngati Toa Rangatira interests across the Port Nicholson block.
- (5) In 1845 the commissioner recommended that the Company receive a grant of 151 000 acres in Te Tau Ihu. The Wairau was not included in his recommendation. The Crown later established reserves, some of which became known as "tenths" reserves, within the land granted to the Company at Port Nicholson and Nelson. Ngati Toa Rangatira did not receive a share in the "tenths" reserves despite their interests in Port Nicholson and Nelson settlement area.
- (6) During 1845, Te Rangihaeata and his section of Ngati Toa Rangatira supported the claims of their allies living on disputed land north of Rotokakahi in the Hutt Valley. These tensions led to several violent incidents between Maori, settlers, and Crown troops. The Crown subsequently took political and military action against Te Rauparaha and Te Rangihaeata in order to establish its authority and reduce the power and influence of the senior Ngati Toa Rangatira chiefs. In July 1846 the Crown seized Te Rauparaha and several other Ngati Toa Rangatira chiefs at Porirua. The Crown detained Te Rauparaha without trial for 18 months. Crown forces pursued Te Rangihaeata who withdrew into Horowhenua.

- (7) In 1847, whilst Te Rauparaha was in captivity and Te Rangihaeata in exile, the Crown purchased the Wairau and Porirua districts from several younger Ngati Toa Rangatira chiefs who hoped to secure Te Rauparaha's release. Reserves of over 100 000 acres were set aside in the Wairau and over 10 000 acres in Porirua.
- (8) Between 1853 and 1865 the Crown's Te Waipounamu, Whareroa, Wainui, Papakowhai, and Mana Island purchases further reduced the lands remaining in Ngati Toa Rangatira ownership. The Waipounamu deed repurchased nearly all of the large Wairau reserve. Between 1897 and 1911 the Crown, after prohibiting the sale or leasing of Kapiti Island to private interests, bought the majority of Kapiti Island from Ngati Toa Rangatira.
- (9) By 1926 most of the Ngati Toa Rangatira reserves at Porirua had been alienated. Ngati Toa Rangatira gifted 500 acres at Whitireia to the Crown for the establishment of a school. When no school was established Ngati Toa Rangatira sought unsuccessfully to have the land returned. In 1948 and 1960 the Crown took several hundred acres of Ngati Toa Rangatira land at Takapuwahia under public works legislation for general housing purposes. Over time, the application of the native land laws led to most of the Porirua reserves being partitioned into smaller subsections. Today Ngati Toa Rangatira are virtually landless.
- (10) Porirua harbour, an important food resource for Ngati Toa Rangatira, was adversely affected by pollution and sewage generated by urban development. This has had a severe impact on the ability of Ngati Toa Rangatira to use and protect traditional resources.

9 Text of acknowledgements

The text of the acknowledgements set out in the deed of settlement is as follows:

- (1) The Crown acknowledges that it has failed to deal with the long-standing grievances of Ngati Toa Rangatira in an appropriate way and that recognition of these grievances is long overdue.
- (2) The Crown acknowledges that it failed to adequately protect the interests of Ngati Toa Rangatira during the process by which it acquired their interests in the Port Nicholson Block, and this was a breach of Te Tiriti o Waitangi/the Treaty of Waitangi and its principles.
- (3) The Crown acknowledges that the conflict between Ngati Toa Rangatira and European settlers at Tuamarina Stream in June 1843 had a detrimental effect on the relationship between Ngati Toa Rangatira and the Crown and was part of the context of the Crown's Wairau purchase from Ngati Toa Rangatira in 1847.

- (4) The Crown acknowledges that—
 - (a) Te Rauparaha took no direct part in the fighting between Maori and Crown troops in the Hutt Valley prior to his capture by the Crown in July 1846; and
 - (b) its detention of Te Rauparaha for 18 months without trial in 1846–48 assumed the character of indefinite detention without trial and was a breach of Te Tiriti o Waitangi/the Treaty of Waitangi and its principles.
- (5) The Crown acknowledges that in 1846 and 1847 it undermined the power and influence of the key Ngati Toa Rangatira leaders, Te Rauparaha and Te Rangihaeata, by seizing and detaining Te Rauparaha, and pressuring other Ngati Toa Rangatira leaders to agree to the Wairau and Porirua deeds in the absence of Te Rauparaha and Te Rangihaeata. The Crown acknowledges that this was a breach of Te Tiriti o Waitangi/the Treaty of Waitangi and its principles.
- (6) The Crown acknowledges that it failed to adequately protect the interests of Ngati Toa Rangatira and breached Te Tiriti o Waitangi/the Treaty of Waitangi and its principles when—
 - (a) it failed to ensure sufficient, suitable reserve lands were maintained for the future use and benefit of Ngati Toa Rangatira when the Crown purchased a large amount of land from Ngati Toa Rangatira between 1844 and 1865; and
 - (b) it did not establish timely processes to ensure that Ngati Toa Rangatira obtained an interest in those reserves in the Wellington and Nelson areas that later became known as “tenths” reserves.
- (7) The Crown acknowledges that the operation and impact of the native land laws on the remaining lands of Ngati Toa Rangatira, in particular the awarding of land to individual Ngati Toa Rangatira rather than to iwi or hapu, made those lands more susceptible to partition, fragmentation, and alienation. This contributed to the further erosion of the traditional tribal structures of Ngati Toa Rangatira. The Crown failed to take adequate steps to protect those structures and this was a breach of Te Tiriti o Waitangi/the Treaty of Waitangi and its principles.
- (8) The Crown acknowledges that—
 - (a) the Taupo block was originally reserved for Ngati Toa Rangatira from the Crown's Porirua purchase in 1847;
 - (b) despite the Native Land Court ordering in 1881 that a Ngati Toa Rangatira urupa on the Taupo No. 2 block be made “absolutely inalienable” the Crown allowed the urupa to be reduced to one acre in 1896;
 - (c) in the 1920s it was reduced to approximately one-tenth of an acre to make the block available for leasing and development:

- (d) these actions led to koiwi being reinterred in common graves.
- (9) The Crown acknowledges that in 1848 Ngati Toa Rangatira gifted 500 acres of land at Whitireia to the Crown to establish a college. The Crown further acknowledges that Ngati Toa Rangatira sought to regain the land when a college was not constructed, but were unsuccessful in doing so, and that this has remained a significant grievance for Ngati Toa Rangatira to today. The Crown continues to own this land.
- (10) The Crown acknowledges that—
- (a) at 1895 Kapiti Island was one of the last remaining areas of Ngati Toa Rangatira land:
 - (b) Ngati Toa Rangatira strongly objected to legislation promoted by the Crown to acquire Kapiti Island for a nature reserve:
 - (c) the Kapiti Island Public Reserve Act 1897 gave the Crown a monopoly over purchasing land on Kapiti Island:
 - (d) between 1897 and 1911 the Crown purchased the individual interests of the majority of the Ngati Toa Rangatira owners of Kapiti Island.

The Crown acknowledges that the loss of ownership of Kapiti Island has remained a source of grievance and sorrow for Ngati Toa Rangatira.

- (11) The Crown acknowledges that during the twentieth century it significantly reduced the lands remaining in Ngati Toa Rangatira ownership for their present and future needs by compulsorily acquiring several hundred acres of land at and around their core settlement at Takapuwahia for housing and public works purposes. The Crown further acknowledges that this land has contributed to the development of the wider Porirua region.
- (12) The Crown acknowledges that the cumulative effect of successive Crown purchases of Ngati Toa Rangatira land and the Crown's failure to provide sufficient reserves left Ngati Toa Rangatira virtually landless. The Crown's failure to ensure that Ngati Toa Rangatira retained sufficient land for their present and future needs was a breach of Te Tiriti o Waitangi/the Treaty of Waitangi and its principles.
- (13) The Crown acknowledges that pollution, reclamation, and public works have had a damaging impact on the shellfish and other kai moana resources in the Porirua Harbour, and that the loss of this formerly abundant resource has adversely affected the cultural and spiritual well-being of Ngati Toa Rangatira.

10 Text of apology

The text of the apology set out in the deed of settlement is as follows:

- (1) The Crown recognises that a number of Ngati Toa Rangatira, including Te Rau-paraha and Te Rangihaeata, signed Te Tiriti o Waitangi/the Treaty of Waitangi in 1840. The Crown profoundly regrets that it has not always lived up to its obligations to Ngati Toa Rangatira under Te Tiriti o Waitangi/the Treaty of Waitangi. Accordingly, the Crown makes this apology to Ngati Toa Rangatira, to their ancestors, and to their descendants.

- (2) The Crown unreservedly apologises for the breaches of Te Tiriti o Waitangi/the Treaty of Waitangi and its principles which have hurt and caused prejudice to Ngati Toa Rangatira. The Crown is deeply sorry for its actions that intentionally undermined the mana and rangatiratanga of leading Ngati Toa Rangatira chiefs. In particular the Crown apologises for its indefinite detention of Te Rau-paraha, and deeply regrets that it has failed, until now, to acknowledge this injustice in an appropriate manner.
- (3) The Crown profoundly regrets and apologises for its actions that left Ngati Toa Rangatira with few landholdings by 1865, and its ongoing failure to protect their remaining landholdings, which has left Ngati Toa Rangatira virtually landless and unable to access customary resources and significant sites.
- (4) The Crown deeply regrets the cumulative effect of its actions and omissions which severely damaged Ngati Toa Rangatira social and traditional tribal structures, their autonomy and ability to exercise customary rights and responsibilities, their capacity for economic and social development, and physical, cultural, and spiritual well-being.
- (5) With this apology and settlement the Crown seeks to atone for these wrongs, restore its tarnished honour and begin the process of healing. The Crown hopes that this apology and settlement will mark the beginning of a new, positive, and enduring relationship with Ngati Toa Rangatira founded on mutual trust and co-operation and respect for Te Tiriti o Waitangi/the Treaty of Waitangi and its principles.

82 Interests in land for certain reserve sites

- (1) This section applies to Taputeranga Island or a jointly vested site while the site has an administering body that is treated as if the site were vested in it.
- (2) This section applies to all, or only the part, of the site that remains a reserve under the Reserves Act 1977 (the reserve land).
- (3) If the reserve site is affected by an interest listed for the property in Schedule 3 that is an interest in land, the interest applies as if the administering body were the grantor, or the grantee, of the interest in respect of the reserve land.
- (4) Any interest in land that affects the reserve land must be dealt with for the purposes of registration as if the administering body were the registered proprietor of the reserve land.
- (5) However, subsections (3) and (4) do not affect the registration of the easement referred to in section 78(7).
- (6) Subsections (3) and (4) continue to apply despite any subsequent transfer of the reserve land under section 93 or 95.

83 Interests that are not interests in land

- (1) This section applies if a cultural redress property is subject to an interest listed for the property in Schedule 3 that is not an interest in land and for which there is a grantor, whether or not the interest also applies to land outside the property.
- (2) The interest applies as if the owners of the cultural redress property were the grantor of the interest in respect of the property, except to the extent that subsection (3) applies.
- (3) If all or part of the cultural redress property is reserve land to which section 82 applies, the interest applies as if the administering body of the reserve land were the grantor of the interest in respect of the reserve land.
- (4) The interest applies—
 - (a) until the interest expires or is terminated, but any subsequent transfer of the cultural redress property must be ignored in determining whether the interest expires or is or may be terminated; and
 - (b) with any other necessary modifications; and

- (c) despite any change in status of the land in the property.

84 Registration of ownership

- (1) This section applies in relation to the fee simple estate in a cultural redress property vested in the trustee of the Toa Rangatira Trust under subpart 3.

- (3) However, if the deferred selection property is also deferred selection RFR land, the requirement under subsection (2) is satisfied by a notice being given under section 209.

170 Registrar-General to create computer freehold register

- (1) To the extent that a commercial redress property (other than a licensed property), a commercial property, or a deferred selection property is not all of the land contained in a computer freehold register, or there is no computer freehold register for all or part of the property, the Registrar-General must, in accordance with a written application by an authorised person,—

- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) are subject to the completion of any survey necessary to create a computer freehold register.
- (4) The authorised person may grant a covenant for the later creation of a computer freehold register for any land that is to be transferred to the trustee of the Toa Rangatira Trust.
- (5) Despite the Land Transfer Act 1952,—
 - (a) the authorised person may request the Registrar-General to register the covenant under the Land Transfer Act 1952 by creating a computer interest register; and

- (2) Any such easement—
 - (a) is enforceable in accordance with its terms, despite Part 3B of the Conservation Act 1987; and
 - (b) is to be treated as having been granted in accordance with Part 3B of that Act; and
 - (c) is registrable under section 17ZA(2) of that Act, as if it were a deed to which that provision applied.

172 Application of other enactments

- (1) Section 11 and Part 10 of the Resource Management Act 1991 do not apply to—
 - (a) the transfer of the fee simple estate in a commercial redress property, commercial property, or deferred selection property to the trustee of the Toa Rangatira Trust; or
 - (b) a leaseback of the property to the Crown in accordance with part 6 of the deed of settlement; or

 - (b) affect other rights to subsurface minerals.
- (3) The transfer of the fee simple estate in a commercial redress property, commercial property, or deferred selection property to the trustee of the Toa Rangatira Trust is a disposition for the purposes of Part 4A of the Conservation Act 1987, but sections 24(2A), 24A, and 24AA of that Act do not apply to the disposition.
- (4) In exercising the powers conferred by section 169, the Crown is not required to comply with any other enactment that would otherwise regulate or apply to the transfer of a commercial redress property, commercial property, or deferred selection property.
- (5) Subsection (4) is subject to subsections (2) and (3).

- (6) The permission of a council under section 348 of the Local Government Act 1974 is not required for laying out, forming, granting, or reserving a private road, private way, or right of way required to fulfil the terms of part 6 of the deed of settlement, and part 2 or 5 of the property redress schedule of the deed of settlement, in relation to a commercial redress property, commercial property, or deferred selection property.

173 Transfer of commercial redress property for no consideration

- (1) The reservation of the commercial redress property for no consideration as a recreation reserve subject to the Reserves Act 1977 is revoked.
- (2) Sections 24 and 25 of the Reserves Act 1977 do not apply to the revocation of the reserve status.

174 Transfer of properties subject to lease

- (1) This section applies to a commercial redress property, commercial property, or deferred selection property—
- (a) for which the land holding agency is the Ministry of Education; and
 - (b) the ownership of which is to transfer to the trustee of the Toa Rangatira Trust in accordance with part 2 or 5 of the property redress schedule of the deed of settlement; and
 - (c) that, after the transfer, is to be subject to a lease back to the Crown.
- (2) Despite section 172(3) (which refers to section 24(2A) of the Conservation Act 1987), the rest of section 24 of that Act does not apply to the transfer of the property.
- (3) The transfer instrument for the transfer of the property must include a notification that the land is to become subject to subsections (6) and (7) upon the registration of the transfer.
- (4) The Registrar-General must, upon the registration of the transfer of the property, record on any computer freehold register for the property—
- (a) that the land is subject to Part 4A of the Conservation Act 1987, but that section 24 of that Act does not apply; and
 - (b) that the land is subject to subsections (6) and (7).
- (5) A notification made under subsection (4) that land is subject to Part 4A of the Conservation Act 1987 is to be treated as having been made in compliance with section 24D(1) of that Act.
- (6) If the lease referred to in subsection (1)(c) (or a renewal of that lease) terminates, or expires without being renewed, in relation to all or part of the property, the transfer of the property is no longer exempt from the rest of section 24 of the Conservation Act 1987 in relation to all or that part of the property, as the case may be.

- (7) If the lease referred to in subsection (1)(c) (or a renewal of that lease) terminates, or expires without being renewed, in relation to all or part of the property, then the registered proprietors of the property must apply in writing to the Registrar-General to,—
- (a) if none of the property remains subject to such a lease, remove from the computer freehold register for the property any notifications that—
 - (i) section 24 of the Conservation Act 1987 does not apply to the land; and
 - (ii) the land is subject to subsections (6) and (7); or
 - (b) if only part of the property remains subject to such a lease (the leased part), amend any notifications on the computer freehold register for the property to record that, in relation to only the leased part,—
 - (i) section 24 of the Conservation Act 1987 does not apply to that part; and
 - (ii) that part is subject to subsections (6) and (7).
- (8) The Registrar-General must comply with an application received in accordance with subsection (7) free of charge to the applicant.

Subpart 2—Licensed properties

175 Interpretation

In this subpart,—

Crown forestry rental trust means the trust established by the Crown forestry rental trust deed

Crown forestry rental trust deed means the trust deed made on 30 April 1990 establishing the Crown forestry rental trust under section 34 of the Crown Forest Assets Act 1989 relevant Crown forestry licence, for a licensed property, means the Crown forestry licence described in relation to the property in part 3 of the property redress schedule of the deed of settlement.

176 Licensed property ceases to be Crown forest land

- (1) A licensed property ceases to be Crown forest land under the Crown Forest Assets Act 1989 upon the registration of the transfer of the fee simple estate in the property to the trustee of the Toa Rangatira Trust.
- (2) However, although the licensed property does not cease to be Crown forest land until the transfer to the trustee is registered, neither the Crown nor any court or tribunal may do any thing or omit to do any thing if that act or omission would, between the settlement date and the date of registration, be—
- (a) permitted by the Crown Forest Assets Act 1989; but
 - (b) inconsistent with part 6 of the deed of settlement.

177 Trustee confirmed beneficiary and licensor in relation to licensed property

- (1) The trustee of the Toa Rangatira Trust is, in relation to a licensed property, the confirmed beneficiary under clause 11.1 of the Crown forestry rental trust deed.
- (2) The effect of subsection (1) is that—
 - (a) the trustee is entitled to the rental proceeds paid for the property to the trustees of the Crown forestry rental trust under the relevant Crown forestry licence since the commencement of the licence; and
 - (b) all the provisions of the Crown forestry rental trust deed apply on the basis that the trustee is the confirmed beneficiary in relation to the property.
- (3) Despite subsection (2)(a), the trustee of the Toa Rangatira Trust, and the trustees of the related settlement trusts for Ngāti Kōata, Ngāti Rārua, Ngāti Tama ki Te Tau Ihu, and Te Ātiawa o Te Waka-a-Māui, are entitled to the rental proceeds referred to in subsection (2)(a) for all of the licensed properties as provided for in—
 - (a) clause 6.22 of the deed of settlement for Ngati Toa Rangatira;
 - (b) clause 6.9 of the deeds of settlement for Ngāti Kōata and Ngāti Rārua;
 - (c) clause 6.10 of the deed of settlement for Ngāti Tama ki Te Tau Ihu;
 - (d) clause 6.11 of the deed of settlement for Te Ātiawa o Te Waka-a-Māui.
- (4) The Crown must give notice in accordance with section 17(4)(b) of the Crown Forest Assets Act 1989 in respect of each relevant Crown forestry licence, even though the Waitangi Tribunal has not made recommendations under section 8HB(1)(a) of the Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975 for the return of the 1 or more licensed properties to which the licence applies.
- (5) Notice given by the Crown under subsection (4) has effect as if—
 - (a) the Waitangi Tribunal had made recommendations under section 8HB(1)(a) of the Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975 for the return of each licensed property; and
 - (b) the recommendations had become final on the settlement date.
- (6) The trustee of the Toa Rangatira Trust is the licensor under the relevant Crown forestry licence in relation to a licensed property as if the property had been returned to Māori ownership—
 - (a) on the settlement date; and
 - (b) under section 36 of the Crown Forest Assets Act 1989.
- (7) However, section 36(1)(b) of the Crown Forest Assets Act 1989 does not apply to a licensed property.

178 Effect of transfer of licensed property

- (1) Section 177 applies whether or not—

- (a) the transfer of the fee simple estate in the 1 or more licensed properties to which the relevant Crown forestry licence applies has been registered; or
 - (b) the processes described in clause 17.4 of the relevant Crown forestry licence have been completed.
- (2) To the extent that the Crown has not completed the processes referred to in subsection (1)(b) before the settlement date, it must continue those processes—
 - (a) on or after the settlement date; and
 - (b) until the processes are completed.
- (3) Subsection (4) provides for the licence fee payable for a property under the relevant Crown forestry licence—
 - (a) for the period starting on the settlement date until the completion of the processes referred to in subsections (1) and (2) for the 1 or more licensed properties to which the licence applies; and
 - (b) that is not part of the rental proceeds referred to in section 177(2)(a).
- (4) The licence fee payable is the amount calculated in the manner described in paragraphs 2.14 and 2.15 of the property redress schedule of the deed of settlement.
- (5) However, the calculation under subsection (4) of the licence fee payable is overridden by any agreement between the licensors and the licensee of the relevant Crown forestry licence.
- (6) With effect on and from the settlement date, references to the prospective proprietors in clause 17.4 of the relevant Crown forestry licence must, in relation to a licensed property, be read as if they were references to the trustee of the Toa Rangatira Trust.
- (7) Subsections (8) and (9) apply if, in completing the processes described in clause 17.4 of the relevant Crown forestry licence for a licensed property, the balance of the land referred to in clause 17.4.1 of the licence is to be transferred as another licensed property under the deed of settlement for Ngāti Tama ki Te Tau Ihu or Te Ātiawa o Te Waka-a-Māui (instead of being retained by the Crown).
- (8) The interests of the trustees to whom the balance is to be transferred replace the interests of the Crown in respect of the balance of the land in clause 17.4.1 of the relevant Crown forestry licence, and those trustees must be treated as if they were another set of prospective proprietors under clause 17.4 of the licence.
- (9) The separate licence for the balance of the land referred to in clause 17.4.3 of the relevant Crown forestry licence must include clauses similar to clauses 16.3 to 16.9 of the licence, as described in clause 17.4.4.

Subpart 3—Right of access to protected sites

179 Interpretation

- (1) In this subpart, protected site means any area of land situated in a licensed property that—
- (a) is a wāhi tapu or wāhi tapu area within the meaning of section 6 of the Heritage New Zealand Pouhere Taonga Act 2014; and

180 Right of access to protected site

- (1) The owner of land on which a protected site is situated and any person holding an interest in, or a right of occupancy to, the land must allow the people referred to in subsection (2) to have access across the land to each protected site.
- (2) The people are Māori for whom the protected site is of special cultural, spiritual, or historical significance.
- (3) The right of access may be exercised by vehicle or by foot over any reasonably convenient routes specified by the owner, and is subject to the following conditions:
- (a) a person intending to exercise the right of access must give the owner reasonable notice, in writing, of his or her intention to exercise that right; and
 - (b) the right of access may be exercised only at reasonable times and during daylight hours; and
 - (c) a person exercising the right must observe any reasonable conditions imposed by the owner that—
 - (i) relate to the time, location, or manner of access; and
 - (ii) are reasonably required for the safety of people, for the protection of land, improvements, flora, fauna, plant, equipment, or livestock, or for operational reasons.

181 Right of access subject to Crown forestry licence

- (1) The right of access under section 180 is subject to the terms of any Crown forestry licence.

- (2) However, subsection (1) does not apply if the licensee has agreed to an exercise of the right.
- (3) An amendment to a Crown forestry licence is of no effect to the extent that it would—
 - (a) delay the date from which a person may exercise a right of access under section 180; or
 - (b) adversely affect the right of access in any other way.

182 Notation on computer freehold register

- (1) The Registrar-General must, in accordance with a written application by an authorised person, record on the computer freehold register for a licensed property that the land is subject to this subpart.
- (2) An application must be made as soon as is reasonably practicable after—
 - (a) the settlement date; or
