The Parliament of New Zealand enacts as follows:

1 Title

This Act is the Courts Matters Act 2018.

2 Commencement

- (1) This Act (except sections 7, 10, 12 to 24, 28, 31, 32, 35, 36, 39, 48, 64, 68, 72, 73, 74, 75(1), 76 to 78, and 80 to 83 and Schedule 3) comes into force on the day after the date on which it receives the Royal assent.

- (2) Sections 7, 10, 12 to 24, 28, 31, 32, 35, 36, 39, 48, 64, 68, 72, 73, 74, 75(1), 76 to 78, and 80 to 83 and Schedule 3 come into force on a date appointed by the Governor-General by Order in Council, and 1 or more orders may be made bringing different provisions into force on different dates.
- (3) Any provision that has not earlier been brought into force under subsection (2) comes into force on 1 July 2020.

Section 2(2): sections 7, 10, and 12 to 24 brought into force, on 8 April 2019, by clause 2 of the Courts Matters Act 2018 (Amendments to Courts Security Act 1999) Commencement Order 2019 (LI 2019/60).

Section 2(2): sections 28, 31, 32, 35, 36, 39, 48, 64, 68, 72 to 74, 75(1), 76 to 78, 80 to 83 and Schedule 3 brought into force, on 29 October 2019, by clause 2 of the Courts Matters Act Commencement Order 2019 (LI 2019/225).

Part 1 Amendments to Courts Security Act 1999

3 Principal Act

This Part amends the Courts Security Act 1999 (the principal Act).

4 Long Title amended

- (1) In the Long Title, paragraph (a), after “courts”, insert “and tribunals”.
- (2) In the Long Title, paragraph (b), replace “the courts” with “courts and tribunals; and”.
- (3) In the Long Title, after paragraph (b), insert:
- (c) the promotion of the orderly operation of courts and tribunals

5 Section 2 amended (Interpretation)

- (1) In section 2, replace the definition of Judge with:
- Judge means—
- (a) a Judge, including an Associate Judge, or member of any court or tribunal specified in section 3:
- (b) a person who presides over, or is a member of, a body for the time being declared by regulations to be a court or tribunal for the purposes of this Act
- (2) In section 2, definition of presiding judicial officer, after paragraph (g), insert:
- (h) a member of a body described in section 3(5)(l)
- (3) In section 2, replace the definition of specified offence with:
- specified offence—
- (a) means—
- (i) an offence under any of—

- (A) sections 87, 121, 167, 168, 171 to 177, 188 to 194, 196 to 199, 202A, 202C, and 306 of the Crimes Act 1961; and
  - (B) sections 3, 9, 11, 11A, 11B, 13, and 13A of the Summary Offences Act 1981; and
  - (C) sections 45 and 46 of the Arms Act 1983; and
  - (D) sections 7 and 13 of the Misuse of Drugs Act 1975; and
  - (ii) any other offence committed within a court that a court security officer believes on reasonable grounds—
    - (A) threatens the safety or security of another person or that person’s property; or
    - (B) may cause serious damage to the court; and
  - (b) includes an attempt to commit an offence specified in paragraph (a)
- (4) In section 2, insert in its appropriate alphabetical order:
- tribunal means a body that—
- (a) exercises judicial or quasi-judicial functions; and
  - (b) is, for the time being, designated by regulations as a tribunal for the purposes of this Act.

6 Section 3 amended (Meaning of court and courtroom)

- (1) In section 3(2)(b), replace “before the proceedings are heard and while they are being heard” with “before the proceedings are heard, while they are being heard, and shortly after they finish being heard”.
- (2) After section 3(3)(b)(i), insert:
  - (ia) every other part of the building (including any cells) that is being used for services relating to the court; and
- (3) After section 3(3)(b)(ii), insert:
  - (iia) if the building is adjacent to a road, any footpath or other area between the building and the road; and
- (4) In section 3(4)(a), replace “subsection (5)(a) to (h)” with “subsection (5)(aa) to (h)”.
- (5) After section 3(4)(b), insert:
  - (ba) any other part of the building (including any cells) that is used for services relating to judicial or quasi-judicial functions; and
- (6) After section 3(4)(c), insert:
  - (ca) if the building is adjacent to a road, any footpath or other area between the building and the road; and
- (7) After section 3(5)(e), insert:
  - (ea) the Employment Court:

(8) Replace section 3(5)(l) with:

- (l) every court, tribunal, and other constituted dispute-resolution body that conducts proceedings in a building that also accommodates a court or tribunal listed in this subsection or is designated by regulations as a court or tribunal to which this Act applies:

7 New section 11A and cross-heading inserted

After section 11, insert:

Right of public to enter and remain in court

11A Right of public to enter and remain in areas of court open to public

- (1) A person may enter and remain in an area of the court that is open to the public if the person complies with—
- (a) all directions given and requirements imposed, by the presiding judicial officer in a courtroom where proceedings are being heard, that apply to the person; and
- (b) all directions given or requirements imposed elsewhere in the court by or on behalf of the chief executive, or by a court security officer, that affect that person.
- (2) Directions given or requirements imposed may, without limitation, include directions or requirements allowing (with or without conditions), limiting, or prohibiting the use of cell phones, cameras, or recording equipment in a courtroom or elsewhere in the court.
- (3) Subsection (1) is subject to—
- (a) sections 12(2), 13(2), 14(1)(b), 15(4) and (5), 16(3), 17(4), 18(1)(b), 18A, 19, 19A, and 20(2) (which provide for the denial of entry to a person or their removal from a court, unless the person is allowed to enter or re-enter under section 22(1) or 22(1A), and the detention of a person who a court security officer has reasonable grounds to believe may have committed or attempted to commit a specified offence or in the circumstances set out in section 19A);
- (b) any direction given by a presiding judicial officer that a person must not enter or remain in a courtroom or any other specified part of the court;
- (c) any inherent or implied jurisdiction of a Judge or presiding judicial officer to regulate the procedure of a court or tribunal over which that person presides;
- (d) any enactment regulating who may be present at proceedings.

8 Section 15 amended (Power to ask to examine detected items)

After section 15(6), insert:

- (7) This section is subject to section 15A.

9 New section 15A inserted (Removal or disposal of alcohol)

After section 15, insert:

15A Removal or disposal of alcohol

- (1) A court security officer may—
  - (a) require a person who brings alcohol into a court to remove it from the court:
  - (b) seize and dispose of the alcohol if the person who is required to remove it refuses or fails to do so promptly.
- (2) Sections 24 to 29 set out limits on the powers in subsection (1).

10 Section 16 replaced (Power to seize detected items)

Replace section 16 with:

16 Power to seize detected items

- (1) This section applies—
  - (a) if—
    - (i) a person complies with a request under section 15(1); and
    - (ii) the item handed over is of such a nature as to give the court security officer reasonable grounds to believe that the person may recently have committed a specified offence in the court or in any area immediately adjacent to it or may be about to commit such an offence; and
    - (iii) the person does not give the officer a reasonable excuse for the item being on the person's person or property; or
  - (b) if—
    - (i) a person complies with a request under section 15(1); and
    - (ii) the item handed over is of such a nature as to give the court security officer reasonable grounds to believe that it is capable of being used to commit an offence involving violence within the courtroom or would otherwise be dangerous to allow the person to keep with him or her in the court.
- (2) The court security officer may, if subsection (1)(a) applies, exercise the powers in section 20.
- (3) The court security officer may, if subsection (1)(b) applies,—
  - (a) ask the person whether he or she consents to the surrender of the item while the person is in court:
  - (b) if the person does not consent to surrendering the item, deny the person entry to, or remove the person from, the court:

- (c) if the person does consent, detain the item in accordance with section 20(6).
- (4) Sections 24 to 29 set out limits on the powers in this section.

11 Section 17 amended (Power to ask to take detected items into temporary custody)

After section 17(4), insert:

- (4A) If a person has left an item with a court security officer in compliance with a request under subsection (2),—
  - (a) the person may claim the item when leaving the court or at any time within 10 working days of leaving the item; and
  - (b) a court security officer may dispose of the item if it has not been claimed within 10 working days.

12 New section 18A inserted (General power to deny entry to, or remove person from, court)

After section 18, insert:

18A General power to deny entry to, or remove person from, court

- (1) A court security officer may deny a person entry to, or remove a person from, a court if the court security officer believes on reasonable grounds that the person—
  - (a) is harassing or intimidating, or will harass or intimidate, another person; or
  - (b) is causing, or will cause, violence within, or damage to, the court; or
  - (c) is significantly disrupting, or will significantly disrupt, proceedings, the administration of a court, or the conduct of lawful activities in a court.
- (2) Sections 24 to 29 set out limits on the powers in subsection (1).

13 Section 19 amended (Power to detain if court security officer has reasonable grounds to believe person may have committed specified offence)

- (1) In section 19(1), replace “have committed a specified offence in the court or in an area immediately adjacent to it” with “have committed or attempted to commit a specified offence in the court”.
- (2) After section 19(2), insert:
  - (2A) However, if the court security officer believes it appropriate to do so in the circumstances, the officer may, instead of exercising the powers in section 20, ask the person to give the court security officer his or her full name, address, and date of birth.

- (2B) If the person fails or refuses to produce those details, and after being warned of the consequences of failing to do so, the court security officer may exercise the powers in section 20.

14 New section 19A inserted (Power to detain in other circumstances)

After section 19, insert:

19A Power to detain in other circumstances

- (1) This section applies if a court security officer has reasonable grounds to believe that a person—
- (a) has—
    - (i) refused to leave court premises after having been required to do so, or has attempted to re-enter a court after being removed or denied entry; and
    - (ii) been warned that the person may be detained if he or she persists with those actions; but
    - (iii) persisted with those actions; or
  - (b) has refused to obey a direction from a court security officer—
    - (i) to do anything that is reasonably necessary to protect the safety or security of persons being escorted into or out of a court for services related to the court; or
    - (ii) to stop or avoid doing anything that adversely affects the safety or security of persons referred to in subparagraph (i); or
    - (iii) to do anything that is reasonably necessary to protect the safety or security of any person involved in any activity outside a court and that is part of the proceedings (for example, a jury visiting a crime scene); or
    - (iv) to stop or avoid doing anything that adversely affects the safety or security of persons referred to in subparagraph (iii).
- (2) The court security officer may exercise the powers in section 20.
- (3) Sections 24 to 29 set out limits on the powers in this section.

15 Section 20 amended (Powers to seize items and detain persons)

- (1) In section 20(1), after “must immediately detain the person”, insert “and may continue to detain the person for a period not exceeding 4 hours or any lesser period considered by the court security officer to be reasonable in the circumstances”.
- (2) In section 20(2), replace “section 19 applies, the court security officer may detain the person” with “section 19 or 19A applies, the court security officer may detain the person for a period not exceeding 4 hours or any lesser period that the court security officer considers to be reasonable in the circumstances”.

- (3) Replace section 20(5) with:
- (5) With respect to a detained person, the court security officer must,—
- (a) if practicable, detain the person separately from other prisoners in a cell or other safe place until the arresting officer arrives or the court security officer is satisfied that the person is not going to be arrested; and
  - (b) if—
    - (i) a Police officer wants to arrest the person, deliver the person to the arresting Police officer; or
    - (ii) if no Police officer wants to arrest the person, free the person.
- (4) After section 20(5), insert:
- (5A) With respect to a detained person, the court security officer may direct the person to do or not to do a thing if the court security officer believes on reasonable grounds that the direction is necessary in the circumstances for the purpose of ensuring the safety of the person or the security officer or any other person.
- (5) Replace section 20(6) with:
- (6) With respect to a seized item, the court security officer must,—
- (a) if the person is arrested, hand the item over to the arresting Police officer;
  - (b) if possession of the item is unlawful, hand it over to the Police officer;
  - (c) if possession of the item is not unlawful but may constitute a threat to the security of the court, and the person is released from custody, require the person to comply with section 17;
  - (d) in any other case, return the item to the person.

16 New section 20A inserted (Power to pursue person)

After section 20, insert:

20A Power to pursue person

If a person who is to be detained under this Act or who is otherwise in lawful custody in a court flees or otherwise escapes from the court,—

- (a) a court security officer may, or, if the court orders, must, pursue that person while he or she is within a short distance of the court security officer; and
- (b) the court security officer may detain the pursued person, who must subsequently be dealt with under section 20(2) to (7), except that, in the case of a person who escaped from lawful custody (the escaper), the court security officer must return, or arrange for the return, of the escaper to the person or body who is entitled to custody of the escaper.

17 Section 21 amended (Power to use reasonable force)

In section 21(1), replace “17(4), 18(1)(b), or 20” with “15A(1)(b), 17(4), 18(1)(b), 18A, 20, and 20A(b)”.

18 Section 22 amended (Consequences of denial of entry to, or removal from, court)

(1) In section 22(1)(b), replace “or 17(2)” with “and 17(2)”.

(2) After section 22(1), insert:

(1A) A person denied entry to or removed from a court under section 18A is entitled to enter (or re-enter) the court if a court security officer (being an officer who is aware of the reasons why the person was denied entry to, or removed from, the court) is satisfied that the person will not behave in the way described in section 18A(1)(a) to (c) if allowed to enter (or re-enter) the court.

(3) In section 22(2), replace “or 18(1)(b)” with “18(1)(b), and 18A”.

19 Section 23 amended (Duty of court security officer to inform of consequences when person denied entry or removed)

In section 23, replace “or 18(1)(b)” with “18(1)(b), and 18A”.

20 Section 24 amended (Powers not generally applicable to presiding judicial officers and other exempted persons)

(1) After section 24(1)(g), insert:

(ga) persons holding office as a member of a court, a tribunal, or any other body referred to in section 3(5)(l):

(2) In section 24(1)(h), replace “exempted from the application of sections 12 to 23 by regulations made under section 36” with “while exempted from the application of sections 12 to 23 by the chief executive”.

21 Section 25 amended (Powers not generally applicable to persons in custody of certain agencies)

Replace section 25(2) with:

(2) A court security officer may not exercise or carry out any of the powers or duties in sections 12 to 23 in relation to a person who a court security officer is satisfied is in one of the categories in subsection (1), unless—

- (a) the person is about to appear before the court or is in the courtroom; and
- (b) the security officer is authorised to exercise the power or carry out the duty under the terms of a general or specific instruction issued by a Judge or other presiding judicial officer under section 26(2)(a) or (b) or is exercising a power under section 29(2).

22 Section 26 amended (When powers applicable to persons in custody of certain agencies)

- (1) In section 26(1), replace “section 25(1) and who is about to appear before a presiding judicial officer” with “section 25(1)(a) or (c) and has been brought to the court to appear before a presiding judicial officer but has not yet appeared”.
- (2) Replace section 26(2) with:
  - (2) A court security officer may, at his or her own discretion if authorised by the relevant provision or a direction referred to in paragraph (b), or must, if so required by a direction of a Judge or other presiding judicial officer, exercise any of the powers in sections 13(1), 15(1) and (5), 15A, 16, 17(2), 19, 20(1), (2), and (3), and 21 in relation to a person about to appear if—
    - (a) the presiding judicial officer directs the court security officer, in specific language, to exercise any such power in relation to the person; or
    - (b) the court security officer is authorised or required to exercise the power in relation to the person by a direction about the use of the power (whether in general or specific terms) given by a Judge or other presiding judicial officer.
  - (2A) To avoid doubt, if there is any inconsistency between a direction given under subsection (2)(b) and a subsequent direction given under subsection (2)(a), the direction under subsection (2)(a) prevails.
- (3) In section 26(3)(a), after “15(1),”, insert “15A,”.
- (4) After section 26(4)(b), insert:
  - (ba) seize and dispose of any alcohol referred to in section 15A(1)(b); or
- (5) After section 26(4), insert:
  - (4A) For the purposes of subsection (2)(b),—
    - (a) a head of bench may issue general instructions about the searching or screening of persons brought before the court in custody (including persons described in section 25(1));
    - (b) a Judge who sits at a particular place or particular places where the court sits may issue general instructions about the searching or screening of persons brought before the court in custody (including persons described in section 25(1)) in that place or those places, and those instructions apply irrespective of whether that Judge or another judicial officer is the presiding judicial officer on any occasion when the court is hearing proceedings at that place or those places.
  - (4B) In the event of any inconsistency between an instruction under subsection (4A)(a) and an instruction under (4A)(b), the instruction under subsection (4A)(b) prevails.
- (6) In section 26(5),—
  - (a) after “15(5),”, insert “15A,”:

(b) replace “20(1), 20(2), or 20(3)” with “and 20(1), (2), and (3)”.

23 Section 28 amended (When powers applicable in courtroom where proceedings being heard)

(1) Replace section 28(1) with:

(1) If either of the sets of circumstances in subsection (2) apply, a court security officer may exercise any of the powers in section 12(1), 13(1), 15(1), 15(5), 15A, 16, 17(2), 18A, 19, 19A, 20(1), (2), or (3), 20A, or 21 in a courtroom where proceedings are being heard.

(2) In section 28(3)(a), after “15(1),” insert “15A,”.

(3) After section 28(2), insert:

(2A) A court security officer may exercise any of the powers conferred by an enactment on a presiding judicial officer to detain a person for contempt for a period specified by the judicial officer, or to remove a disruptive person from the courtroom for contempt, if the presiding judicial officer directs the court security officer to exercise those powers.

(4) In section 28(3)(b)(i), after “13(1),” insert “15A,”.

(5) After section 28(4)(c), insert:

(ca) seize and dispose of any alcohol referred to in section 15A(1)(b); or

(6) In section 28(5), replace “16, 17(2), 19, 20(1), 20(2), or 20(3)” with “15A, 16, 17(2), 18A, 19, 19A, 20(1), (2), and (3), and 20A”.

(7) In section 28(6)(a), replace “15(1), or” with “15(1), 15A, and”.

(8) In section 28(6)(b), after “under”, insert “any of”.

(9) In section 28(6)(b), replace “15(1), or” with “15(1), 15A, and”.

24 Section 29 amended (Powers not generally applicable if Police involved)

(1) In the heading to section 29, after “Police”, insert “or other agencies”.

(2) In section 29(1), after “Police officer”, insert “or any other person referred to in section 25(1)(b) or (c)”.

(3) In section 29(2), replace “Police officer, if the Police officer” with “Police officer or any other person referred to in section 25(1)(b) or (c), if the Police officer or other person”.

25 Section 35 amended (Powers of other persons not affected)

(1) In section 35(1), replace “judge,” with “Judge or other presiding judicial officer,”.

(2) In section 35(2), replace “or tribunal in relation to contempt of court or of a tribunal” with “in relation to contempt of court”.

26 Section 36 amended (Regulations)

Repeal section 36(b) and (e).

Part 2*Amendments to Criminal Procedure Act 2011*27 Principal Act

This Part amends the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 (the principal Act).

28 New section 5A inserted (Transitional, savings, and related provisions)

After section 5, insert:

5A Transitional, savings, and related provisions

The transitional, savings, and related provisions set out in Schedule 1AA have effect according to their terms.

29 Section 6 amended (Categories of offence defined)

- (1) In section 6(1), definition of category 1 offence, paragraph (a)(ii), delete “or (c)”.
- (2) In section 6(1), definition of category 2 offence, paragraph (b), delete “; or”.
- (3) In section 6(1), definition of category 2 offence, repeal paragraph (c).

30 New section 34A inserted (When warrant may be issued irrespective of whether summons has been issued or served)

After section 34, insert:

34A When warrant may be issued irrespective of whether summons has been issued or served

- (1) This section applies if a charging document has been filed for a category 2, 3, or 4 offence, whether or not a summons has been issued or served.
- (2) A judicial officer or Registrar may issue a warrant to arrest the defendant and bring him or her before the District Court if the judicial officer or Registrar is satisfied that—
  - (a) a warrant is necessary to compel the attendance of the defendant (for example, because the location of the defendant is unknown); or
  - (b) having regard to the gravity of the alleged offence and the circumstances of the case, a warrant is desirable to compel the attendance of the defendant.

31 Section 56 amended (Information to be provided in case management memorandum)

After section 56(1)(c), insert:

- (ca) whether any charges are to be heard together under section 138(1) (including together with charges heard against 1 or more other defendants):

32 Section 82 amended (Requirements for formal statements)

- (1) In section 82(1)(b), replace “that it is to be used” with “that it may be used”.
- (2) In section 82(1)(c), replace “subsections (2) and (3)” with “subsection (2), (3), or (3A)”.
- (3) After section 82(3), insert:
  - (3A) Despite subsection (1)(b), if a formal statement under subsection (1) is made by a person aged under 18 years or by a person who is incapable of making the declaration required by subsection (1)(b), and is in the form of a video record, no declaration is required but the statement must—
    - (a) be made in the manner prescribed by regulations made under the Evidence Act 2006; and
    - (b) substantially comply with the requirements prescribed in those regulations (including any provisions in those regulations requiring the witness to tell the truth).

33 Section 119 amended (Non-attendance of defendant charged with offence in category 1)

After section 119(3), insert:

- (4) Despite subsection (2), a court may not impose a community-based sentence on a defendant in the defendant’s absence.
- (5) If the defendant pleads, or is found, guilty and the court has reason to believe that a community-based sentence may be imposed on the defendant, the court may—
  - (a) issue a summons to bring the defendant before the court; or
  - (b) issue a warrant to arrest the defendant to bring him or her before the court.

34 Section 124 amended (Procedure when hearing proceeds in absence of defendant)

In section 124(2)(d)(i), after “sentencing”, insert “(unless section 119(4) or (5) applies)”.

35 New section 136A inserted (Procedure if charge added during trial)

After section 136, insert:

136A Procedure if charge added during trial

- (1) During the trial, the court may, on the prosecutor’s application, grant leave to add a charge in the proceedings (the new charge).

- (2) Leave may be granted under subsection (1) only if the court is satisfied—
  - (a) that there is a variance between the proof and the existing charge or charges; and
  - (b) the new charge fits with the proof; and
  - (c) the time for filing a charging document under section 25 for the new charge has not expired; and
  - (d) that the defendant will not be, or has not been, misled or prejudiced in his or her defence by the addition of the new charge during the trial.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if the court is satisfied that—
  - (a) the defendant will be, or has been, misled or prejudiced in his or her defence by the addition of the new charge during the trial; but
  - (b) the effect of that prejudice can be removed by adjourning or postponing the trial.
- (4) If this subsection applies, the court may grant leave to add the new charge and may—
  - (a) adjourn the trial; or
  - (b) postpone the trial and discharge the jury.
- (5) If the court grants leave to add a new charge under subsection (1) or (4),—
  - (a) a charging document is deemed to have been filed in accordance with section 14 in respect of the new charge; and
  - (b) leave is deemed to have been given under section 138(2) for the new charge to be added to the proceeding, and section 139 applies accordingly.

36 Section 138 replaced (Trial of different charges together)

Replace section 138 with:

138 Trial of different charges together

- (1) The prosecutor may, by notifying the court before which a proceeding is being heard, propose that—
  - (a) 2 or more charges against 1 defendant be heard together; or
  - (b) the charges against 1 defendant be heard with charges against 1 or more other defendants.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), the prosecutor must seek leave for the charges to be heard together if the notification involves a charge in respect of which the proceedings have been adjourned—
  - (a) for trial, if the trial procedure is the Judge-alone procedure; or
  - (b) for trial callover, if the trial procedure is the jury trial procedure.

- (3) Unless the court makes an order under subsection (4), charges must be heard together—
  - (a) in accordance with any notification given under subsection (1); or
  - (b) if leave is granted under subsection (2).
- (4) If the court before which the proceeding is being conducted considers it is in the interests of justice to do so, it may, on its own motion or on the application of the prosecutor or a defendant, order that 1 or more charges against the defendant be heard separately.
- (5) An order under subsection (4) may be made before or during the trial, and,—
  - (a) if it is made during the course of a Judge-alone trial, the court must adjourn the trial of the charges in respect of which the trial is not to proceed; and
  - (b) if it is made during the course of a jury trial, the jury must be discharged from giving a verdict on the charges in respect of which the trial is not to proceed.

37 Section 139 amended (Procedure if charges to be heard together)

- (1) In section 139(2)(b), after “Court”, insert “; and”.
- (2) After section 139(2)(b), insert:
  - (c) if the charges against more than 1 defendant are tried by a jury, for the purposes of this Act, each defendant must be treated as if he or she had elected trial by jury.

38 Section 162 amended (To whom warrant to be directed and power of person executing warrant to enter premises)

- (1) Replace section 162(5) and (6) with:
  - (5) Before or on entry into the premises, the constable must—
    - (a) give or show the occupier of the premises a copy of the warrant; and
    - (b) identify himself or herself by name or by a unique identifier; and
    - (c) if not in Police uniform, produce evidence of his or her identity.
  - (6) If the occupier of the premises is not present at any time during the entry, or no person is in charge of the premises during the entry, the constable carrying out the entry must, unless to do so would prejudice an ongoing investigation,—
    - (a) on completion of the entry, leave a copy of the notice referred to in subsection (6A) and a copy of the arrest warrant (if applicable) in a prominent position at the premises; or
    - (b) if that is not reasonably practicable, provide a copy of the notice referred to in subsection (6A) and a copy of the arrest warrant (if applicable) to the occupier of the premises no later than 7 days after the exercise of the power.

- (6A) The notice required by subsection (6) is a written notice containing the following particulars:
- (a) the date and time of the commencement and completion of the entry;
  - (b) the name or unique identifier of the person who had overall responsibility for the entry;
  - (c) the address of the office to which inquiries should be made.
- (6B) For the purposes of this section, the following persons may not be treated as the occupier of the premises:
- (a) any person who is under 14 years of age;
  - (b) any person who the constable executing the warrant has reasonable grounds to believe is not the occupier of the premises.
- (2) In section 162(7), replace “subsection (4) or (5)” with “subsection (4), (5), or (6)” in each place.

39 New section 192A inserted (Power of Solicitor-General or Crown prosecutor to join charge or charges)

After section 192, insert:

192A Power of Solicitor-General or Crown prosecutor to join charge or charges

- (1) Without the leave of the court, the Solicitor-General or a Crown prosecutor may, on filing a notice under section 189 in relation to a proceeding, or before the trial and within any prescribed period after filing that notice, file in the court hearing the proceeding a notice that—
- (a) 2 or more charges against 1 defendant are to be heard together;
  - (b) the charges against 1 defendant are to be heard with charges against 1 or more other defendants.
- (2) Subsection (1) overrides section 138(2).
- (3) Subsection (1) does not prevent—
- (a) the Solicitor-General or a Crown prosecutor seeking the leave of the court under section 138(2) for charges to be heard together; or
  - (b) the court, on its own motion or on the application of the prosecutor or defendant, ordering under section 138(4) that 1 or more charges against a defendant be heard separately.

40 Section 219 amended (First appeal courts)

In section 219, insert as subsection (2):

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), if a defendant elected a jury trial but subsequently withdrew his or her election before trial,—
- (a) the defendant must be treated as if he or she had not elected a jury trial; but

- (b) any appeal commenced before the date on which the defendant withdrew his or her election must be determined by the appeal court that had jurisdiction to determine the appeal at the time it was commenced.

41 Section 230 amended (First appeal courts)

In section 230, insert as subsection (2):

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), if a convicted person elected a jury trial but subsequently withdrew his or her election before trial, the convicted person must be treated as if he or she had not elected a jury trial.

42 Section 247 amended (First appeal courts)

In section 247, insert as subsection (2):

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), if a convicted person elected a jury trial but subsequently withdrew his or her election before trial, the convicted person must be treated as if he or she had not elected a jury trial.

43 Section 272 amended (First appeal courts)

In section 272, insert as subsection (2):

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), if a defendant elected a jury trial but subsequently withdrew his or her election before trial,—
  - (a) the defendant must be treated as if he or she had not elected a jury trial; but
  - (b) any appeal commenced before the date on which the defendant withdrew his or her election must be determined by the appeal court that had jurisdiction to determine the appeal at the time it was commenced.

44 Section 297 amended (First appeal courts)

- (1) In section 297(b)(i), replace “person charged” with “defendant”.
- (2) In section 297, insert as subsection (2):
  - (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), if a defendant elected a jury trial but subsequently withdrew his or her election before trial,—
    - (a) the defendant must be treated as if he or she had not elected a jury trial; but
    - (b) any appeal commenced before the date on which the defendant withdrew his or her election must be determined by the appeal court that had jurisdiction to determine the appeal at the time it was commenced.

45 Section 357 amended (Jurisdiction of Community Magistrates to impose sentence in respect of certain category 2 offences)

- (1) In the heading to section 357, after “certain category”, insert “1 and”.
- (2) Replace section 357(1) with:

- (1) This section applies to—
  - (a) any category 1 offence in respect of which the maximum penalty that can be imposed is a community-based sentence and not a term of imprisonment; and
  - (b) any category 2 offence in respect of which the maximum term of imprisonment that can be imposed does not exceed 3 months.
- (3) After section 357(4), insert:
- (5) Nothing in this section applies when the District Court presided over by 1 or more Community Magistrates is exercising jurisdiction in accordance with section 356.

46 Section 400 replaced (Defendants and proceedings to be tried together)

Replace section 400 with:

400 When defendants or proceedings to be heard together under same procedural law

- (1) This section applies if—
  - (a) proceedings were commenced (in any of the ways described in section 397(3)) before 1 July 2013 against a defendant for an offence; and
  - (b) the proceedings have not been finally determined; and
  - (c) the proceedings are not proceedings to which section 399 applies; and
  - (d) on or after 1 July 2013,—
    - (i) a charging document is filed against the defendant for an offence arising from the same transaction, set of circumstances, incident, or series of incidents as the offence for which proceedings were commenced before 1 July 2013; or
    - (ii) a charging document is filed against another person charging him or her with an offence arising from the same transaction, set of circumstances, incident, or series of incidents specified in the information laid against the defendant, and the prosecutor wishes the charges against both defendants to be heard together.
- (2) The proceedings against the defendant or defendants must be conducted in accordance with the law as it was before 1 July 2013 as if any charging document filed under the Act were an information laid and filed under the Summary Proceedings Act 1957.
- (3) The prosecutor must give a notice to the court and the defendant or defendants that states whether the charging document referred to in subsection (2) is to be treated as an information in form 1 of Schedule 2 of the Summary Proceedings Act 1957 (as it read before its repeal) or an information in form 2 of Schedule 2 of that Act (as it read before its repeal).

47 Section 403A amended (Transitional provision regarding effect of appeal on sentence of home detention)

In section 403A(c), replace “sections 54, 55, 58 and 59A of the Bail Act” with “sections 14, 53, 54, 55, 58, and 60 of that Act”.

48 New Schedule 1AA inserted

Insert the Schedule 1AA set out in Schedule 3 of this Act as the first schedule to appear after the last section of the principal Act.

Part 3
Amendments to Summary Proceedings Act 1957

49 Principal Act

This Part amends the Summary Proceedings Act 1957 (the principal Act).

50 New section 2A inserted (Transitional, savings, and related provisions)

After section 2, insert:

2A Transitional, savings, and related provisions

The transitional, savings, and related provisions set out in Schedule 1 have effect according to their terms.

51 Sections 23A and 24 replaced

Replace sections 23A and 24 with:

23A Service of documents under this Part

- (1) Sections 24, 28, and 29 apply to the service of a document under this Part.
- (2) In this section and in sections 24, 28, and 29, document means—
  - (a) a reminder notice; or
  - (b) a notice of hearing.

24 Ways documents may be served

- (1) If, under this Part, an informant is required to serve a document on a defendant, the requirement may be met by the informant—
  - (a) delivering the document to the defendant or, if the defendant refuses to accept it, bringing it to the defendant’s notice; or
  - (b) leaving the document for the defendant at the defendant’s place of residence with another person who appears to be of or over the age of 14 years; or
  - (c) leaving the document for the defendant at the defendant’s place of business or place of work with another person; or

- (d) sending the document to the defendant by prepaid post addressed to the defendant's last known place of residence or place of business or work; or
  - (e) sending the document in electronic form to the defendant's electronic address in any case where the defendant does not have a known place of residence or business in New Zealand; or
  - (f) complying with a means of service prescribed by rules or regulations made under section 212(2)(f).
- (2) However, a District Court Judge, a Justice, a Community Magistrate, or the Registrar may, if he or she thinks fit, direct that a document be served in accordance with subsection (1)(a).
- (3) For defendants to whom section 28 applies, subsection (1) is modified to the extent provided by that section.

52 Sections 25 to 27 repealed

Repeal sections 25 to 27.

53 Sections 28 and 29 replaced

Replace sections 28 and 29 with:

28 Service provisions modified in special cases

- (1) If a document is served in accordance with this section, it is, for the purposes of section 24, taken to be served on the defendant concerned.
- (2) If the defendant is a body corporate or a Crown organisation, a document may be served—
  - (a) by being sent, in accordance with section 24(1)(d) or (e), to the body corporate or Crown organisation for the attention of an officer or employee of that body or organisation;
  - (b) by being delivered to an officer or employee of the body corporate or Crown organisation at its head office, principal place of business, or registered office, or by bringing it to the officer's notice or the employee's notice if that person refuses to accept it.
- (3) If a lawyer has authenticated a memorandum stating that the lawyer is authorised to accept service of a document on behalf of the defendant, the document may be served on the lawyer in any way authorised by section 24.
- (4) In addition to the ways of service authorised by section 24, a document may be served by delivering or sending it to, or by leaving it with,—
  - (a) in the case of a defendant who lives or works on board a vessel (including a vessel belonging to the Royal New Zealand Navy), the person on board who is apparently in charge of the vessel:

- (b) in the case of a defendant who is a member of the New Zealand Armed Forces, the officer apparently in command of the unit or detachment to which the defendant belongs:
- (c) in the case of a defendant who is a prisoner, the manager or any other officer apparently in charge of the prison.

29 Proof of service of documents

- (1) Service of a document by an informant may be proved by an endorsement on a copy of the document showing the fact, date, time, and mode of service.
- (2) An endorsement under subsection (1) must be signed by the person who served the document.
- (3) A person who wilfully endorses a false statement on a copy of a document commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to a fine not exceeding $2,000, or to both.
- (4) If a document is sent by prepaid post, then, unless the contrary is shown, the document is to be treated as having been served on the 5th working day after the date on which the document was posted, and, in proving service, it is sufficient to prove that the letter concerned was properly addressed and posted.
- (5) If a document is sent in electronic form, then, unless the contrary is shown, the document is to be treated as having been served at the time the electronic communication first enters an information system that is outside the control of the document's originator, and, in proving service, it is sufficient to prove that the document concerned was properly addressed and sent.
- (6) In this section, information system means a system for producing, sending, receiving, storing, displaying, or otherwise processing electronic communications.

54 New cross-heading above section 30 inserted

After section 29, insert:

Use of Māori language

61 New sections 86DA to 86DD inserted

After section 86D, insert:

86DA Chief executive may approve automated electronic system to arrange extension of time to pay fine or to vary or suspend existing arrangement

- (1) If a fine is payable and not subject to an order for immediate payment, the chief executive may enter into an arrangement with a defendant or with his or her representative, or agree to vary or suspend an existing arrangement, to allow for either or both of the following:
  - (a) a greater time for payment;
  - (b) payment to be made by instalments.
- (2) An arrangement under subsection (1) may not permit a fine to remain unpaid,—
  - (a) unless paragraph (b) or (c) applies, for more than 5 years after the date on which the arrangement is entered into;
  - (b) if an existing arrangement is varied, for more than 5 years after the date on which the variation is agreed;
  - (c) if an existing arrangement is suspended, for more than 5 years after the date on which payments resume under the arrangement.
- (3) Subject to section 86DC, the chief executive may approve an automated electronic system to be administered by the Ministry of Justice to—
  - (a) receive and process applications for an arrangement or to vary or suspend an existing arrangement under subsection (1); and
  - (b) enter into or decline to enter into an arrangement, or vary or suspend or decline to vary or suspend an existing arrangement, under subsection (1).
- (4) If the chief executive approves an automated electronic system under subsection (3), he or she must also approve procedures for the operation of the system, which must include procedures for,—
  - (a) subject to this section, setting the criteria for determining whether an arrangement will be entered into, varied, or suspended; and
  - (b) identifying the information that will be sought from or about a defendant when an application under this section is made (which must be limited to information relevant to the application); and

- (c) notifying the defendant or his or her representative that he or she may apply to vary or suspend an arrangement if it becomes too onerous or if the defendant's financial circumstances change; and
  - (d) a review by a person, under section 86DC(1)(b), of any action taken under this section by the system and notifying the defendant or his or her representative about that option.
- (5) If an application made under this section is declined, a defendant or his or her representative may apply to a Registrar or a bailiff under section 86 or 86C to extend the time to pay the fine.
- (6) In this section and section 86DB,—
- arrangement means an arrangement extending the time to pay a fine
- existing arrangement means an arrangement that was previously entered into under this Part with a Registrar, a bailiff, or the chief executive and under which payments are still being made
- vary includes adding a further fine to an existing arrangement.

86DB Chief executive may approve automated electronic system to add fine to existing arrangement, attachment order, or deduction notice without notice

- (1) The chief executive may, without notice, but subject to subsection (2) and any procedures approved under subsection (4), add the amount of another fine to an existing arrangement, attachment order, or deduction notice if—
- (a) another fine is imposed on the defendant; and
  - (b) the defendant defaults in the payment of the fine and does not enter into an arrangement with a Registrar, a bailiff, or the chief executive to extend the time to pay.
- (2) The addition of another fine to an existing arrangement or attachment order under subsection (1) must not have the effect that either of those measures continues to operate for more than 5 years after the date on which the last fine is added, unless the measure is varied or suspended under this Part.
- (3) Subject to section 86DC, the chief executive may approve an automated electronic system to be administered by the Ministry of Justice to perform the actions described in subsection (1).
- (4) If the chief executive approves an automated electronic system under subsection (3), he or she must also approve procedures for the operation of the system, which must include procedures for,—
- (a) if a fine has been added to an existing arrangement, notifying the defendant of the new amount owing under the arrangement and the period over which payments will need to be made; and
  - (b) if a fine has been added to an existing attachment order or deduction notice, making a new order or issuing a new notice to replace the existing order or notice, giving a copy to the defendant, and serving a copy on the defendant's employer or bank; and

- (c) notifying the defendant that he or she may apply—
  - (i) to vary or suspend an arrangement, attachment order, or deduction notice if the payments become too onerous or if his or her financial circumstances change:
  - (ii) for a review by a person under section 86DC(1)(b) of any action taken under this section by the system.

86DC Approval of automated electronic systems

- (1) The chief executive may approve the automated electronic systems described in this Part only if satisfied that—
  - (a) each system has the capacity to do any actions required with reasonable reliability; and
  - (b) there is a process available under which a person affected by an action performed by an electronic system can have that action reviewed by a person authorised by the chief executive to review those actions, without undue delay.
- (2) A person authorised by the chief executive under subsection (1) to review actions may, on a review of an action, confirm, vary, or cancel the action.
- (3) An action confirmed or varied under subsection (2) must, for the purposes of this Part, be treated as an arrangement with the chief executive.

86DD Registrar or chief executive may require bank to cancel automatic payment

- (1) When an arrangement to pay a fine is made with a Registrar, a bailiff, or the chief executive under this Part, a Registrar or the chief executive may, at any time, notify a bank from which any payment or payments have been received, including by way of automatic payment, to stop any further payments after a particular date.
- (2) If a bank receives advice from a Registrar or the chief executive under subsection (1), it must stop any further payments after the date stated in the notice, whether or not the bank has the permission of the customer or account holder to do so.

62 New section 86I inserted (Financial assessment if fine is unpaid)

After section 86H, insert:

86I Financial assessment if fine is unpaid

- (1) This section applies if—
  - (a) a fine is unpaid; and

- (b) the Registrar considers it would be desirable to require the defendant to undertake a financial assessment before deciding what enforcement action to undertake under section 87.
- (2) The Registrar may order that the defendant be brought before the court to enable the Registrar to undertake a financial assessment of the defendant.

63 Section 87 amended (Action if fine or instalment not paid or if arrangement or attachment order cancelled)

After section 87(2), insert:

- (2A) If this section applies and the total amount of any fine or fines owed by a defendant is $5,000 or more,—
  - (a) a charge applies to that amount; and
  - (b) the charge may be registered against land owned by the defendant, in accordance with the Statutory Land Charges Registration Act 1928 or sections 117 to 121 of the Land Transfer Act 2017, as the case requires, and the provisions of those Acts apply accordingly.
- (2B) If a defendant defaults in payment of a fine, the chief executive may make an attachment order attaching any salary or wages payable or becoming payable to the defendant.
- (2C) Subject to section 86DC, the chief executive may approve an automated electronic system to be administered by the Ministry of Justice to make an attachment order under subsection (2B).
- (2D) If the chief executive approves an automated electronic system under subsection (2C), he or she must also approve procedures for the operation of the system, which (where relevant) must be consistent with sections 103, 104, and 105.
- (2E) For each attachment order (if any) made under subsection (2B), the defendant is liable to pay a single fee in the amount set under regulations made under this Act in respect of enforcement action taken under this Act to enforce a fine, except that the fee may be waived if the chief executive is satisfied that the defendant does not have the means to pay the fee.

64 New sections 87AAA and 87AAB inserted

After section 87, insert:

87AAA Agreements to vary charge on land

- (1) If any land owned by a defendant is subject to a charge referred to in section 87(2A)(b), a Registrar may, if he or she considers that it would be unjust or unreasonable to require immediate payment of the amount charged, enter into an agreement with the defendant for the release of all or part of the land from all or part of the charge.

- (2) The agreement may provide for all or part of the charge to attach to any other land owned by the defendant, and may be subject to conditions.
- (3) The agreement has the effect of—
  - (a) releasing from the charge any land agreed to be released from the charge; and
  - (b) subjecting any land agreed to be subject to a charge to the charge as agreed.

87AAB Enforcement of charge on land

A transfer or an act done with the intention, or having the effect, of defeating a charge referred to in section 87(2A) is void, except where the transfer or act is to, or in favour of, a purchaser in good faith for value who, at the time of the transfer or act, had no notice of the charge.

65 Section 87B amended (Deduction of fines)

In section 87B(1)(b), replace “or 86C” with “, 86C, or 86DA”.

66 Section 88 amended (Actions if fine remains unpaid)

- (1) In section 88(1)(a), after “section 87(2)”, insert “, (2A), or (2B)”.
- (2) In section 88(1)(c)(ii), after “for any other reason”, insert “(and even though enforcement action has not been taken)”.

67 Section 88AA amended (Form and execution of warrant for arrest)

After section 88AA(4), insert:

- (5) For the purposes of this Act, a warrant to arrest is issued when a Registrar enters the details of that warrant into a computer system accessible to the Police or a bailiff.

68 Section 88AE amended (Powers of District Court Judge or Community Magistrate after considering report of Registrar under section 88(2)(b) or 88AD(2)(c))

- (1) In section 88AE(1)(a), after “section 87(2)”, insert “or (2A)”.
- (2) After section 88AE(1)(a), insert:
  - (ab) if the total amount of any fine or fines owed by the defendant is $50,000 or more and the District Court Judge or Community Magistrate is satisfied that a sale order will not cause undue hardship to the defendant or the dependants of the defendant, make a sale order in a form approved under section 209A authorising the District Court Judge, Community Magistrate, or Registrar, as the case requires, to sell some or all of the defendant’s property (including land under the Land Transfer Act 1952), and the proceeds of sale must be dealt with under section 100RA; or

69 Section 89 amended (Rights of representation and appeal)

In section 89(1), replace “barrister or solicitor” with “lawyer”.

70 Section 92B amended (Purpose of disclosure and use of information)

Replace section 92B(2)(b) with:

- (b) authorise credit reporters to disclose fine status responses—
  - (i) to subscribers to enable them to assess the creditworthiness of query subjects:
  - (ii) to subscribers who are credit providers, to enable them to protect themselves against the possible subordination of their security interests that might otherwise be required by this Act:

71 Section 92H amended (Monitoring and audits by chief executive)

In section 92H(1)(a), after “conditions”, insert “or restrictions”.

72 Section 97 amended (Purposes of sections 98 to 100T)

In section 97(a), replace “seizure of property” with “seizure and, where appropriate, sale of real and personal property”.

73 Section 100E amended (Release of property if fine and other costs paid or if certain appeals successful)

In section 100E(1), after “Any property”, insert “(whether real property or personal property)”.

74 Section 100F amended (Release of property to certain owners)

In section 100F(1), after “seized property”, insert “(whether real property or personal property)”.

75 Section 100H amended (Lessor may apply to Registrar)

(1) In section 100H(1)(a), after “property seized”, insert “(whether real property or personal property)”.

(2) Replace section 100H(1)(c) with:

- (c) in the case of a motor vehicle seized in respect of a traffic fine, the lessor is not a substitute for the defendant or a nominee for the defendant or the substitute.

(3) In section 100H(5), replace “property” with “a motor vehicle”.

76 Section 100I amended (What happens if lessor does not apply to Registrar before property sold or disposed of)

(1) In section 100I(1)(b), after “property”, insert “(whether real property or personal property)”.

- (2) In section 100I(4), after “section 100R”, insert “or 100RA, as the case requires,”.
- (3) In section 100I(5), replace “section 100R applies” with “if section 100R applies, it applies”.
- (4) After section 100I(5), insert:
- (5A) Despite subsection (4), if section 100RA applies, it applies subject to the following modifications:
- (a) the proceeds of the sale of the property must be applied in payment to the lessor of the amount to which the lessor would, but for the sale, have been entitled under the lease; and
  - (b) the proceeds of the sale of the property must be applied in the manner and order of priority set out in section 100RA, except that,—
    - (i) in the case of a lease for a term of 1 year or less, those proceeds must be applied for the payment to the lessor described in paragraph (a) after they are applied for the payments described in section 100RA(1)(a), but before they are applied for the remainder of the payments described in section 100RA(1)(b) to (g); and
    - (ii) in the case of a lease for a term of more than 1 year, those proceeds must be applied for the payment to the lessor described in paragraph (a) as if they were payments described in section 100RA(1)(b), and section 100RA(2) applied.

77 Section 100J amended (Claims by secured parties)

- (1) In section 100J(1), replace “The Registrar or a District Court Judge” with “The Registrar, a Community Magistrate, or a District Court Judge”.
- (2) In section 100J(1), replace “seized property” with “property to be sold (whether real property or personal property)”.

78 Section 100L amended (Sale of secured property by secured party or by court)

In section 100L(1), after “if the property”, insert “(whether real property or personal property)”.

79 Section 100N amended (Application of proceeds of sale by secured party)

- (1) Replace section 100N(1)(b) with:
- (b) pay into court the proceeds of sale, less—
    - (i) any amount paid under section 100M; and
    - (ii) the amount owing under the security agreement relating to the secured property; and
    - (iii) the amount of costs and expenses of, and incidental to, the sale.

- (2) In section 100N(2), after “section 100R(1)(c) to (j) and (2)”, insert “or section 100RA(1)(b) to (g)”.

80 Section 100O amended (Failure by secured party to sell or account for proceeds)

- (1) In section 100O(2), after “section 100R(1)”, insert “or 100RA(1)”.
- (2) In section 100O(2), after “section 100R(5)”, insert “or 100RA(3)”.

81 Section 100P amended (Sale or disposal of property seized)

- (1) In the heading to section 100P, delete “seized”.
- (2) In section 100P(1), after “warrant to seize property”, insert “or may be sold under a sale order”.
- (3) In section 100P(2), after “property was seized”, insert “or a sale order was issued”.
- (4) After section 100P(7), insert:
- (7A) If real property is sold under this section, a District Court Judge or Community Magistrate must issue an order vesting the property in the person who bought it.
- (5) Replace section 100P(10) with:
- (10) The purchaser or assignee of property sold, or disposed of, under this section obtains as a consequence of this section,—
- (a) in the case of personal property, good title to the property free of all ownership and other proprietary interests held in the property before that sale or disposition:
- (b) in the case of real property, on registration, the estate or interests of the previous registered owner, freed of any registered mortgage, or charge.

82 Section 100R amended (Application of proceeds of sale)

- (1) In the heading to section 100R, after “sale”, insert “of personal property”.
- (2) In section 100R(1), before “property”, insert “personal”.

83 New section 100RA inserted (Application of proceeds of sale of real property)

After section 100R, insert:

100RA Application of proceeds of sale of real property

- (1) When real property is sold under section 100P, following the making of a sale order under section 88AE(1)(ab), the proceeds of the sale must be applied in the following manner and order of priority:

- (a) in payment of the costs of the sale (including all costs incurred in selling the property and in complying with the provisions of this Part preliminary to sale):
  - (b) if 1 or more security agreements have been recognised under section 100J before the proceeds of the sale are fully applied, in payment to each secured party of the amount to which the secured party would, but for the extinguishment of the security interest concerned, have been entitled under that agreement less any applicable default balance certified, under section 100K, in respect of that agreement:
  - (c) in payment of any amount of reparation payable by the defendant:
  - (d) in payment of any offender levy:
  - (e) in payment of the fine specified in the order:
  - (f) in payment to any secured party or secured parties of the applicable default balance or the applicable default balances certified under section 100K and deducted under paragraph (b):
  - (g) to the defendant.
- (2) If any proceeds of sale are required to be applied to 2 or more mortgages under subsection (1)(f), those proceeds must be applied in the order of the priority determined for those mortgages by section 185 of the Property Law Act 2007.
- (3) The Judge or a Community Magistrate may, on application or on his or her own initiative, give any directions as to the application of the proceeds of sale under subsection (1) or (2).

84 Section 102B amended (Proceedings against bailiffs acting under warrants)

In section 102B(1)(a), replace “solicitor” with “lawyer”.

85 Section 103 amended (Effect of attachment order)

- (1) In section 103(1), replace “section 87(2)(b) or section 88AE(1)(a)” with “section 87(2)(b) or (2B) or 88AE(1)(a)”.
- (2) After section 103(1), insert:
  - (1A) A copy of an attachment order must be served on the defendant.

86 Section 105 amended (Content of attachment orders)

In section 105(3), replace “Registrar” with “Registrar or the chief executive”.

87 Section 106 amended (Liability of employer)

In section 106(4) and (4A), after “notify the Registrar of the court in which the attachment order was issued”, insert “or the chief executive, if the attachment order was made by the chief executive,”.

88 Section 212 amended (Rules and regulations)

Replace section 212(2) with:

- (2) Without limiting the general power to make rules and regulations conferred by this section, rules or regulations may be made under this section—
- (a) prescribing the forms to be used in respect of any proceedings to which this Act applies:
  - (b) prescribing the court fees to be paid in respect of any proceedings or any processes to which this Act applies:
  - (c) prescribing the fees and charges to be paid for the purposes of this Act:
  - (d) providing for documents to be sent in electronic form under section 24(1)(e) or 79A(1)(c), including (without limitation) provisions for the retention of records that evidence the fact that, and the date and time when, such documents were sent to electronic addresses:
  - (e) specifying, for the purposes of section 79A(1)(d), the kinds of documents that may be served by communicating their contents orally, and prescribing any conditions and restrictions for such communications and the ways in which such communications must be made, including any provisions for the recording of such communications and for the retention, custody, disclosure, use, and destruction of such recordings:
  - (f) prescribing, for the purposes of sections 24(1)(f) and 79A(1)(e), a means by which documents may be served:
  - (g) prescribing requirements or other matters in relation to the provision of particulars of reminder notices in electronic form under section 21, and any matters in relation to the verification or processing of those particulars:
  - (h) regulating the searching of records of 1 or more of the following:
    - (i) particulars of reminder notices provided under section 21:
    - (ii) the results of any verification processes undertaken under section 21:
    - (iii) reminder notices deemed to have been filed and orders deemed to have been made under section 21:
    - (iv) notices of hearings filed under section 21:
    - (v) applications filed under section 78B:
    - (vi) any matter related to the items in subparagraphs (i) to (v):
  - (i) providing for any other matters in respect of which rules or regulations are contemplated under this Act.

89 New Schedule 1 inserted

Insert the Schedule 1 set out in Schedule 1 of this Act as the first schedule to appear after the last section of the principal Act.

*Amendments to other enactments90 Amendments to other enactments

Amend the enactments specified in Schedule 2 as set out in that schedule.

Part 4*Amendments to other Acts

Subpart 1—Amendments to Bail Act 2000

91 Principal Act

This subpart amends the Bail Act 2000 (the principal Act).

92 Section 26 amended (Breach of condition of Police bail)

In section 26, replace “, 51, and 52” with “and 54A”.

93 Sections 33 and 34 replaced

Replace sections 33 and 34 with:

33 Variation of conditions of bail

- (1) The court for the time being having jurisdiction in the proceeding for an offence with which a defendant has been charged may,—
  - (a) on the application of the defendant or the prosecutor, make an order varying or revoking any condition of bail or substituting or imposing any other condition of bail; and
  - (b) on the application of an EM assessor, make an order varying the EM address.
- (2) However, in the case of the variation of an EM condition, the only orders the court may make under subsection (1)(a) in relation to that EM condition are—
  - (a) an order authorising absence from the EM address;
  - (b) an order varying or revoking any existing authorisation of absence from the EM address;
  - (c) an order varying the EM address.
- (3) If the court makes an order under subsection (1) in relation to an EM condition, sections 30A to 30S apply to the extent necessary and with the necessary modifications.
- (4) No application may be made under subsection (1) or (6) in respect of a bail bond that has been entered in any case where sureties are required, unless the sureties to the bail bond have consented to the making of the application.
- (5) A Registrar may exercise the power conferred by subsection (1) to make an order if—

- (a) the court for the time being having jurisdiction in the proceeding for an offence is the District Court; and
  - (b) the prosecutor agrees.
- (6) If a court or Registrar has, in granting bail to any defendant, imposed the condition that the defendant report to the Police at such time or times and at such place or places as the court or Registrar orders, a Registrar may, on the application of the defendant, make an order varying the time or times or the place or places at which the defendant is required to so report.

34 Consequences of variation of conditions of bail

- (1) If a court or Registrar varies or revokes any condition of bail or substitutes or imposes any other condition of bail under section 33(1), the following provisions apply:
- (a) if the defendant is present at the court, a Registrar must,—
    - (i) as soon as is reasonably practicable, prepare a new notice of bail or bail bond (whichever is applicable) setting out the conditions of bail as amended (if any); and
    - (ii) be satisfied that the defendant understands the conditions of bail; and
    - (iii) require the defendant to authenticate the notice of bail or bail bond:
  - (b) if the defendant is not present at the court, a Registrar must send written notice to the defendant and to every surety (if any) requiring them to attend at a specified time and place for the execution of a fresh notice of bail or bail bond that contains the conditions as amended (if any).
- (2) If, in any case to which subsection (1) applies, the defendant fails without reasonable excuse to attend at the time and place required, or fails to authenticate a fresh notice of bail or bail bond, the Registrar of the office of the court at the place where the condition of bail was varied or revoked or substituted or imposed must refer the matter to a Judge, who may issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant.
- (3) A Registrar may exercise the power under subsection (2) to issue a warrant to arrest the defendant if the court for the time being having jurisdiction in the proceeding for an offence is the District Court.

94 Section 40 amended (Bail on deferment of sentence)

- (1) In section 40(4), replace “44 to 52” with “41 to 44”.
- (2) Replace section 40(5) and (6) with:
- (5) If any decision is made by the District Court or the High Court under section 33(1) (as applied by subsection (4)) in respect of an offender, the provisions of sections 41 to 43, as far as they are applicable and with all necessary modifications, apply as if the offender were a defendant granted bail.

95 Sections 41 to 52 and cross-headings replaced

Replace sections 41 to 52 and the cross-headings above sections 41, 44, 47, 50, and 51 with:

41 Interpretation

In this subpart, unless the context otherwise requires, appeal court means,—

- (a) if a decision of a Justice or Justices or a Community Magistrate or Community Magistrates is appealed against, the District Court presided over by a District Court Judge;
- (b) if a decision of a District Court Judge is appealed against, the High Court;
- (c) if a decision of the High Court is appealed against, the Court of Appeal;
- (d) if a decision of the Court of Appeal is appealed against, the Supreme Court.

42 Appeal against decision relating to bail

- (1) If a court refuses to grant bail to a defendant (whether before or after conviction and whether under any enactment or rule of law or otherwise), the defendant may appeal to the appeal court against that decision.
- (2) If a court grants bail to a defendant (whether before or after conviction and whether under any enactment or rule of law or otherwise), the prosecutor may appeal to the appeal court against that decision.
- (3) If a court imposes, or refuses to impose, any condition of bail, or makes or refuses to make an order under section 33 varying or revoking any condition of bail or substituting or imposing any other condition of bail, the defendant or the prosecutor may appeal to the appeal court against that decision.
- (4) For the purposes of an appeal under this section, the failure to impose a condition of bail on any occasion on which the condition could lawfully be imposed is deemed to be a refusal to impose the condition.
- (5) No person may seek bail in the High Court under that court's inherent jurisdiction if the person has a right of appeal to a District Court Judge under this section.
- (6) An appeal under this section is by way of rehearing.

43 Procedure relating to appeal under section 42

- (1) Sections 273 to 275 and subpart 12 of Part 6 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 apply to an appeal under section 42 as if the appeal were a first appeal against a decision on a costs order, except that the notice of appeal must be filed within 20 working days after the date of the decision appealed against.

- (2) Despite any other enactment or rule of law, on the hearing of the appeal under section 42, it is not necessary for either party to produce—
  - (a) any note or transcript of the evidence adduced to the court appealed from; or
  - (b) any note of the reasons for the decision appealed against; or
  - (c) any copy of any note or transcript referred to in paragraph (a) or (b).
- (3) Every decision of the appeal court on an appeal under section 42 is final.
- (4) No decision appealed against under section 42 is suspended merely because notice of that appeal has been given.
- (5) An appeal under section 42 that is not heard before the date on which the decision appealed against ceases to have any effect—
  - (a) lapses on that date; and
  - (b) is deemed to be abandoned.
- (6) If the defendant does not appear at the hearing of the appeal under section 42(2), a Judge of the appeal court may, if he or she thinks fit, issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant.

44 Execution of decision of appeal court on appeal relating to bail under section 42

- (1) If, on an appeal under section 42, the appeal court determines that bail should not be granted or, as the case may be, should not be continued, a warrant for the detention of the defendant in custody must be issued by a Judge of the appeal court.
- (2) The person who executes a warrant issued under subsection (1) must ensure that a copy of the notice of the result of the appeal is given to the defendant when the warrant is executed or as soon as practicable after the warrant is executed.
- (3) If, on an appeal under section 42 against a refusal to grant bail, bail is granted,—
  - (a) the appeal court must order that the defendant be released on bail; and
  - (b) sections 30 and 31 apply.
- (4) If, on an appeal under section 42 in respect of any condition of bail, the appeal court varies or revokes any condition of bail or substitutes or imposes any other condition of bail, the following provisions apply:
  - (a) if the defendant is present at the appeal court, a Registrar must,—
    - (i) as soon as is reasonably practicable, prepare a new notice of bail or bail bond (whichever is applicable) setting out the conditions of bail as amended (if any); and
    - (ii) be satisfied that the defendant understands the conditions of bail; and

- (iii) require the defendant to authenticate the notice of bail or bail bond:
- (b) if the defendant is not present at the appeal court, a Registrar of the court appealed from must send written notice to the defendant and to every surety (if any) requiring them to attend at a specified time and place for the execution of a fresh notice of bail or bail bond that contains the conditions as amended (if any) required to give effect to the decision on the appeal.
- (5) If, in any case to which subsection (4) applies, the defendant fails without reasonable excuse to attend at the time and place required, or fails to authenticate a fresh notice of bail or bail bond, a Judge of the court appealed from may issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant.

96 Section 52A amended (Period for which warrant for detention in custody may be issued)

Replace section 52A(1) with:

- (1) This section applies to a warrant issued under section 44(1).

97 Sections 54 and 55 replaced

Replace sections 54 and 55 with:

54 Granting of bail to appellant in custody or on home detention pending appeal to High Court, Court of Appeal, or Supreme Court

- (1) This section applies if a person—
  - (a) is in custody under a conviction or is subject to a sentence of home detention; and
  - (b) is appealing against the conviction or sentence, or both, to the High Court, Court of Appeal, or Supreme Court (as the case requires).
- (2) If the appellant is in custody, or is subject to a sentence of home detention, only under the conviction to which the appeal relates, the appellant is bailable at any time before the hearing of the appeal—
  - (a) at the discretion of the Judge who presided over the court whose determination is appealed against (if applicable); or
  - (b) if that Judge is not available,—
    - (i) if the decision was made by a District Court Judge, at the discretion of another District Court Judge; or
    - (ii) if the decision was made by a High Court Judge, at the discretion of another High Court Judge; or
  - (c) at the discretion of the Court of Appeal or Supreme Court (in the case of an appeal to the Court of Appeal or to the Supreme Court).

- (3) Subject to the provisions of section 31 (as applied by subsection (4)), if an appellant is granted bail pending the determination of an appeal by the High Court, the appellant must be released on condition that the appellant attend personally at the High Court on the day on which the appeal is to be heard and on any day to which the hearing may from time to time be adjourned.
- (4) If an appellant is granted bail under this section, the provisions of sections 30 to 33, 35 to 39, and 54A, as far as they are applicable and with any necessary modifications, apply as if the appellant were a defendant remanded in custody who had been granted bail.
- (5) If an appellant is granted or refused bail under this section, or if any decision is made under section 33(1) (as applied by subsection (4)) in respect of any appellant, the provisions of sections 42 and 43, as far as they are applicable and with all necessary modifications, apply as if the appellant were a defendant who had been granted or, as the case may be, refused bail.
- (6) Section 53(6) applies for the purposes of this section.
- (7) If an appeal is filed on a question of law under subpart 8 of Part 6 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 and the appeal relates to a person's conviction, this section applies to the convicted person as it does to the appellant.

54A Appeal against entry by court of non-performance of condition of bail in court record

- (1) If a court directs, under section 39, that the non-performance of a bail condition be entered into the court record, the defendant may, within 20 working days of the direction being made, appeal against the direction to the appeal court.
- (2) After considering an appeal under subsection (1), the appeal court Judge may order that—
  - (a) the direction stand; or
  - (b) the direction be amended; or
  - (c) the direction be revoked.
- (3) There is no further right of appeal against a direction to enter the non-performance of a condition of bail in the court record than that given by this section.
- (4) No direction appealed against under this section is suspended merely because notice of that appeal has been given.

55 When person is in custody or on home detention for purposes of section 54

For the purposes of section 54,—

- (a) an appellant is not deemed to be in custody only under the conviction to which the appeal relates if a direction has been given under section 83 of the Sentencing Act 2002 that another sentence or term of imprisonment (a cumulative sentence) is to follow the sentence imposed on that conviction, and the appellant has not appealed against the conviction in respect of which that other sentence or term was imposed; and

- (b) an appellant is not deemed to be subject to a sentence of home detention only under the conviction to which the appeal relates if a direction has been given under section 80B of the Sentencing Act 2002 that another sentence of home detention is to follow the sentence imposed on that conviction, and the appellant has not appealed against the conviction in respect of which that other sentence was imposed.

98 Section 58 amended (Time on bail pending appeal not to be taken as time served)

After section 58(1), insert:

- (1A) For the purposes of section 343(b) of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011, a sentence of home detention is suspended if an appellant is released on bail and continues to be suspended while the defendant is on bail.

Consequential amendments to other Acts

99 Amendments to Sentencing Act 2002

- (1) In section 80MA, replace “54, or 55” with “or 54”.
- (2) In section 80ZGD(1)(b), replace “54, or 55” with “or 54”.

100 Amendment to Extradition Act 1999

In section 43(4), replace “44, 45, and 52 of the Bail Act 2000” with “41 to 43 and 52 of the Bail Act 2000”.

101 Amendment to International Crimes and International Criminal Court Act 2000

In section 41(5), replace “44, 45, and 52 of the Bail Act 2000” with “41 to 43 and 52 of the Bail Act 2000”.

Subpart 2—Amendments to Care of Children Act 2004

102 Principal Act

This subpart amends the Care of Children Act 2004 (the principal Act).

- (2) The application must include—

- (a) a statement, made by or on behalf of the applicant for the order, that the applicant has undertaken a parenting information programme within the preceding 2 years; and
  - (b) evidence in support of that statement.
- (3) However, subsection (2) does not apply to an application that—
- (a) is made in response to an application that another party to the proceedings has made for an order under section 48 or 56; or
  - (b) is made without notice; or
  - (c) is for a consent order; or
  - (d) relates to a child who is the subject of proceedings already begun under Part 2 of the Oranga Tamariki Act 1989; or
  - (e) is brought by a person, who is not the parent or guardian of the child, and is brought by that person in response to the chief executive of Oranga Tamariki—Ministry for Children exercising a power or carrying out a function in relation to that child under Part 2 or 4 of the Oranga Tamariki Act 1989; or
  - (f) is accompanied by an affidavit providing evidence that—
    - (i) the applicant is unable to participate effectively in a parenting information programme; or
    - (ii) at least 1 of the parties to the proceedings, or a child of one of the parties, has been subject to domestic violence by one of the other parties to the application.
- (4) A Registrar may refuse to accept an application if the Registrar considers that the evidence provided under subsection (2)(b) or (3)(f) is insufficient.

105 Section 49A amended (Interim parenting order where parent does not have day-to-day care for, or contact with, child)

Replace section 49A(2) with:

- (2) If the interim order was made on an application without notice, the parent who has neither the role of providing day-to-day care for nor contact with the child may give notice to the court that he or she wishes to be heard and, if he or she does so, the Registrar of the court must assign a hearing date that is—
  - (a) as soon as practicable; and
  - (b) not more than 42 days after the notice is received, unless there are special circumstances.
- (3) In any other case, the court must assign a hearing date that is—
  - (a) as soon as practicable; and
  - (b) not more than 3 months after the date on which the interim parenting order was made.

- (4) At the hearing on the date assigned under subsection (2) or (3), the court may replace the interim order with—
- (a) a further interim order; or
  - (b) a final parenting order.

106 Section 133 amended (Reports from other persons)

- (1) In section 133(13), after “second opinion”, insert “subject to any terms and conditions that the court considers appropriate”.
- (2) Replace section 133(15) with:
- (15) The court may—
- (a) permit disclosure, under subsection (14), of the psychological report prepared by the report writer only if the court is satisfied that the psychologist requires the report to assist the party to prepare the party’s cross-examination; and
  - (b) permit disclosure, under subsection (14), of the report writer’s notes and other materials that the report writer used in preparing the psychological report only if the court is satisfied that—
    - (i) the psychologist requires those notes and other materials to assist the party to prepare the party’s cross-examination; and
    - (ii) the notes and other materials to be released comprise information solely about the party who is seeking their release; and
    - (iii) there are exceptional circumstances; and
  - (c) if the court permits disclosure under paragraph (a) or (b), the disclosure is subject to any terms and conditions that the court considers appropriate.
