The Parliament of New Zealand enacts as follows:

1 Title

This Act is the Harmful Digital Communications (Unauthorised Posting of Intimate Visual Recording) Amendment Act 2022.

2 Commencement

This Act comes into force on the day after the date on which it receives the Royal assent.

3 Principal Act

This Act amends the Harmful Digital Communications Act 2015.

4 Section 4 amended (Interpretation)

(1) In section 4, insert in their appropriate alphabetical order:

post, in relation to a digital communication,—

- (a) means to transfer, send, publish, disseminate, or otherwise communicate by means of a digital communication—
 - (i) any information, whether truthful or untruthful, about the victim; or
 - (ii) an intimate visual recording of an individual; and
- (b) includes an attempt to do anything referred to in paragraph (a) victim means,—

- (a) in relation to section 22, an individual who is the target of a posted digital communication; and
- (b) in relation to section 22A, an individual who is the subject of an intimate visual recording.

(2) In section 4, repeal the definition of posts a digital communication.

5 Section 20 amended (Court may vary or discharge order)

In section 20(1) and (2), replace “18 or 19” with “18, 19, or 22B”.

6 Section 21 amended (Offence of non-compliance with order)

In section 21(1), replace “18 or 19” with “18, 19, or 22B”.

7 Section 22 amended (Causing harm by posting digital communication)

Replace section 22(4) with:

(4) This section does not apply if the posted digital communication is an intimate visual recording to which the offence in section 22A applies.

8 New sections 22A and 22B inserted

After section 22, insert:

22A Posting intimate visual recording without consent

- (1) A person commits an offence if the person, without reasonable excuse, posts a digital communication that is an intimate visual recording of a victim—
 - (a) knowing that the victim has not consented to the posting; or
 - (b) being reckless as to whether the victim has consented to the posting.
- (2) An individual under the age of 16 years cannot consent to the posting of an intimate visual recording of which they are the subject.

- (3) A person who commits an offence against this section is liable on conviction to,—
- (a) in the case of a natural person, imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or a fine not exceeding $50,000;
 - (b) in the case of a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $200,000.

22B Court may make civil order during proceedings for offence under section 22A

- (1) On application under this section and if the court considers it desirable to do so, the court conducting the proceedings for an offence under section 22A may make,—
- (a) during the proceedings, 1 or more of the interim orders set out in subsection (2) against the defendant for the duration of the proceedings; and
 - (b) if the defendant is proven to have committed the offence, 1 or more of the orders set out in subsection (3) against the defendant.
- (2) The following interim orders are available to the court under subsection (1)(a):
- (a) an order to take down or disable material:
 - (b) an order that the defendant cease or refrain from the conduct concerned:
 - (c) an order that the defendant not encourage any other persons to engage in similar communications towards the affected individual.
- (3) The following orders are available to the court under subsection (1)(b):
- (a) an order to take down or disable material:
 - (b) an order that the defendant cease or refrain from the conduct concerned:
 - (c) an order that the defendant not encourage any other persons to engage in similar communications towards the affected individual:
 - (d) an order that a correction be published:
 - (e) an order that a right of reply be given to the affected individual:
 - (f) an order that an apology be published.
- (4) In this section, a defendant is proven to have committed an offence under section 22A if—
- (a) the defendant is convicted of the offence; or
 - (b) the defendant is found guilty of, or pleads guilty to, the offence, but is discharged without conviction under section 106 of the Sentencing Act 2002; or
 - (c) the Youth Court makes an order under section 282 of the Oranga Tamariki Act 1989 discharging the charge relating to the offence after finding that the offence was proved.
