Order1 Title and commencement

- (1) This order may be cited as the Parininihi Ki Waitotara Incorporation Order 1976.
- (2) This order shall have effect from 28 February 1976.

2 Interpretation

In this order the Incorporation means the Proprietors of Parininihi Ki Waitotara Block constituted a Maori incorporation by clause 3(1).

3 Constitution of Incorporation

- (1) The beneficial owners of the land described in the Schedule (being reserved land within the meaning of the Maori Reserved Land Act 1955) are hereby constituted a Maori incorporation, to be known as the Proprietors of Parininihi Ki Waitotara Block, under and subject to the provisions of Part 4 of the Maori Affairs Amendment Act 1967.
- (2) The objects of the Incorporation are:
 - (a) to receive from the Māori Trustee all land transferable by him to the Incorporation in accordance with the provisions of section 15A(6) of the Maori Reserved Land Act 1955:
 - (b) to use, manage, and administer any land or interests in land for the time being vested in or owned by the Incorporation.
- (3) The total number of shares in the Incorporation shall be 1 205 070.873.
- (4) There is hereby allocated to each shareholder in the Incorporation that number of shares that bears the same proportion to the total number of shares in the Incorporation as the value of his interest in the land described in the Schedule bears to the total value of that land on the date on which this order comes into force.

- (5) Forthwith upon the coming into force of this order, the Registrar of the Maori Land Court at Wanganui shall prepare a list of shareholders, showing the number of shares allocated to each shareholder in accordance with subclause (4), and that list shall be the list of shareholders for the purposes of the provisions of Part 4 of the Maori Affairs Amendment Act 1967.

Clause 3(2)(a): amended, on 1 July 2009, pursuant to section 30(2)(a) of the Māori Trustee Amendment Act 2009 (2009 No 12).

Notes1 General

This is a reprint of the Parininihi Ki Waitotara Incorporation Order 1976. The reprint incorporates all the amendments to the order as at 1 July 2009, as specified in the list of amendments at the end of these notes.

Relevant provisions of any amending enactments that contain transitional, savings, or application provisions that cannot be compiled in the reprint are also included, after the principal enactment, in chronological order. For more information, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/reprints/>.

2 Status of reprints

Under section 16D of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, reprints are presumed to correctly state, as at the date of the reprint, the law enacted by the principal enactment and by the amendments to that enactment. This presumption applies even though editorial changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in the reprint.

This presumption may be rebutted by producing the official volumes of statutes or statutory regulations in which the principal enactment and its amendments are contained.

3 How reprints are prepared

A number of editorial conventions are followed in the preparation of reprints. For example, the enacting words are not included in Acts, and provisions that are repealed or revoked are omitted. For a detailed list of the editorial conventions, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/editorial-conventions/> or Part 8 of the Tables of New Zealand Acts and Ordinances and Statutory Regulations and Deemed Regulations in Force.

4 Changes made under section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989

Section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 authorises the making of editorial changes in a reprint as set out in sections 17D and 17E of that Act so that, to the extent permitted, the format and style of the reprinted enactment is consistent with current legislative drafting practice. Changes that would alter the effect of the legislation are not permitted. A new format of legislation was introduced on 1 January 2000. Changes to legislative drafting style have also been made since 1997, and are ongoing. To the extent permitted by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, all legislation reprinted after 1 January 2000 is in the new format for legislation and reflects current drafting practice at the time of the reprint.

In outline, the editorial changes made in reprints under the authority of section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 are set out below, and they have been applied, where relevant, in the preparation of this reprint:

- omission of unnecessary referential words (such as “of this section” and “of this Act”)
- typeface and type size (Times Roman, generally in 11.5 point)
- layout of provisions, including:
 - indentation
 - position of section headings (eg, the number and heading now appear above the section)
- format of definitions (eg, the defined term now appears in bold type, without quotation marks)
- format of dates (eg, a date formerly expressed as “the 1st day of January 1999” is now expressed as “1 January 1999”)

- position of the date of assent (it now appears on the front page of each Act)
- punctuation (eg, colons are not used after definitions)
- Parts numbered with roman numerals are replaced with arabic numerals, and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- case and appearance of letters and words, including:
 - format of headings (eg, headings where each word formerly appeared with an initial capital letter followed by small capital letters are amended so that the heading appears in bold, with only the first word (and any proper nouns) appearing with an initial capital letter)
 - small capital letters in section and subsection references are now capital letters
- schedules are renumbered (eg, Schedule 1 replaces First Schedule), and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- running heads (the information that appears at the top of each page)
- format of two-column schedules of consequential amendments, and schedules of repeals (eg, they are rearranged into alphabetical order, rather than chronological).
