Regulations

1 Title and commencement

- (1) These regulations may be cited as the Arms Regulations 1992.
- (2) These regulations shall come into force on 11 December 1992.

Preliminary provisions

Heading: inserted, on 17 January 2019, by regulation 4 of the Arms (Electronic Transactions) Amendment Regulations 2018 (LI 2018/271).

2 Interpretation

In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires,— the Act means the Arms Act 1983

armoury contractor means a person who, under a contract with the Chief of Defence Force, is administering 1 or more defence armouries commissioned officer of Police means a constable who is of or above the level of position of inspector defence area has the meaning given to that term by section 2(1) of the Defence Act 1990

defence armoury means an armoury of the New Zealand Defence Force

Internet site means an Internet site maintained by, or on behalf of, the Commissioner.

reclassified MSSA means a firearm that is a military style semi-automatic firearm as a consequence of the Arms (Military Style Semi-automatic Firearms) Order 2019

Regulation 2: substituted, on 15 June 1998, by regulation 2 of the Arms Amendment Regulations 1998 (SR 1998/155).

Regulation 2 commissioned officer of Police: inserted, on 17 January 2019, by regulation 5 of the Arms (Electronic Transactions) Amendment Regulations 2018 (LI 2018/271).

Regulation 2 Internet site: inserted, on 17 January 2019, by regulation 5 of the Arms (Electronic Transactions) Amendment Regulations 2018 (LI 2018/271).

Regulation 2 reclassified MSSA: inserted, at 3 pm on 21 March 2019, by regulation 4 of the Arms Amendment Regulations 2019 (LI 2019/56).

2A Provisions for making applications, etc, electronically through Internet site

- (1) A provision in these regulations for an application to be made electronically through an Internet site, or for some other thing to be done in that manner, applies only when the Commissioner, on an Internet site, offers to receive that application or permits that other thing to be done electronically through that Internet site.

- (2) Until the Commissioner makes that offer or gives that permission, and during any period when the Internet site is not accessible for any reason, the application must be made or the other thing must be done in an alternative manner provided for in or under these regulations.

Regulation 2A: inserted, on 17 January 2019, by regulation 6 of the Arms (Electronic Transactions) Amendment Regulations 2018 (LI 2018/271).

2B General qualification on provisions for making applications electronically through Internet site

Despite a provision in these regulations for an application to be made electronically through an Internet site, a person must make their application under that provision in writing, in hard copy form, if a commissioned officer of Police requires them to do so (regardless of whether, at the time the requirement is made, the person has already commenced their application electronically through an Internet site).

Regulation 2B: inserted, on 17 January 2019, by regulation 6 of the Arms (Electronic Transactions) Amendment Regulations 2018 (LI 2018/271).

Licensed dealers

7 Records kept by licensed dealers

- (1) This regulation applies to an item if it is a firearm, pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, restricted airgun, or restricted weapon.

- (2) Every licensed dealer must record, in respect of every item to which this regulation applies received by the licensed dealer (including every item received for sale, repair, or modification),—
  - (a) particulars of the item (including its serial number, calibre, make, and model); and
  - (b) the date the item was received; and
  - (c) except in the case of a pistol or restricted weapon received under section 10(2) of the Act, the name and address of the person from whom the item is received; and
  - (d) except in the case of a pistol or restricted weapon received under section 10(2) of the Act or a restricted airgun received from a person who is of or over the age of 18 years, the number of the firearms licence of the person from whom the item is received.
- (3) Every licensed dealer must record, in respect of every item to which this regulation applies manufactured by the licensed dealer,—
  - (a) particulars of the item (including the serial number, calibre, make, and model); and
  - (b) the date on which the item's manufacture is completed.
- (4) Every licensed dealer must record, in respect of every item to which this regulation applies delivered by the licensed dealer,—
  - (a) particulars of the item (including the serial number, calibre, make, and model); and
  - (b) the date on which the item is delivered; and
  - (c) the name and address of the person to whom the item is delivered; and
  - (d) except in the case of a restricted airgun delivered to a person who is of or over the age of 18 years, the number of the firearms licence of the person to whom the item is delivered; and
  - (e) in the case of a pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon delivered to a person who requires a permit to procure it, the date and place of issue of the permit.
- (4A) On or before 8 April 2019, every licensed dealer must record, in respect of any reclassified MSSA for which the dealer keeps other particulars under any of subclauses (2) to (4), that the item is classified as a military style semi-automatic firearm.
- (5) Every licensed dealer must record, in respect of every airgun delivered to a person who is between 16 and 18 years of age,—
  - (a) the person's name and address; and
  - (b) the number of the person's firearms licence.

- (6) The particulars stated in subclauses (2) to (5) must be recorded by the licensed dealer in the book required by section 12(1) of the Act to be kept by the licensed dealer at the place of business referred to in the licence.
- (7) If a licensed dealer keeps their book in hard copy form, it must be so kept as to disclose readily the particulars required to be recorded in it.
- (7A) The book may be kept as an electronic record if—
- (a) the integrity of the particulars and the other information that must be entered into that record is maintained in a manner that ensures that the information remains complete and unaltered; and
  - (b) the licensed dealer has in place and maintains the systems and processes necessary to enable the licensed dealer to access and provide to a member of the Police, on request, the particulars and other information entered into that record, at any time during the 5-year period specified in subclause (10).
- (8) Each entry must be made at or immediately following the time of the transaction to which it relates.
- (9) A licensed dealer who keeps their book under section 12(1) of the Act in hard copy form must retain the book for at least 5 years from the date of the last entry in the book.
- (10) A licensed dealer who keeps their book as an electronic record must retain each record of the particulars and other information entered into that record in respect of an item to which this regulation applies for at least 5 years from the date on which the record is entered.

Regulation 7: replaced, on 11 December 2013, by section 15 of the Arms (Military Style Semi-automatic Firearms and Import Controls) Amendment Act 2012 (2012 No 117).

Regulation 7(7A): inserted, on 17 January 2019, by regulation 11(2) of the Arms (Electronic Transactions) Amendment Regulations 2018 (LI 2018/271).

Regulation 7(9): replaced, on 17 January 2019, by regulation 11(3) of the Arms (Electronic Transactions) Amendment Regulations 2018 (LI 2018/271).

Regulation 7(10): inserted, on 17 January 2019, by regulation 11(3) of the Arms (Electronic Transactions) Amendment Regulations 2018 (LI 2018/271).

8 Conditions relating to security precautions

Every dealer's licence shall be subject to the following conditions:

- (a) the building in which the dealer's place of business is located shall be, and be maintained, in a structurally sound condition:

- (b) the doors that can give access to the dealer's place of business, and their locks, bolts, hinges, and other fastenings, shall be strong and stout and shall be maintained in good condition:
- (c) the windows, skylights, or other things intended to cover openings to the dealer's place of business, and their locks, bolts, hinges, and other fastenings, shall be maintained in good condition:
- (d) all such doors and all such windows, skylights, and other things shall be capable of being secured against unlawful entry:
- (e) whenever the dealer's place of business is left unattended or unoccupied, the dealer shall ensure that all reasonable steps are taken to secure the place of business from unlawful entry:
- (f) the dealer shall ensure that all firearms (other than airguns and miniature replica cannon) at the dealer's place of business, which are not in the physical possession of the dealer or of a member of the dealer's staff or which are not being displayed to a customer under the immediate continuous personal supervision of the dealer or of a member of the dealer's staff, are either—
  - (i) dismantled, rendered inoperable, or immobilised (which includes securing them in a display cabinet or rack so that they cannot be readily removed), in a manner approved for the time being either generally or in the particular case by a member of the Police, so that none of them can be fired; or
  - (ii) locked up in a steel box or a steel cabinet (being a box or cabinet secured to the building) or in a steel safe or in a steel and concrete strongroom, which such box, cabinet, safe, or strongroom shall be of sound construction and of a type approved for the time being either generally or in the particular case by a member of the Police:
- (g) where vital parts are removed from a firearm for the purpose of complying with paragraph (f)(i), those parts shall be locked up in a box, cabinet, safe, or strongroom complying with paragraph (f)(ii) or in a secure place in premises separate from the premises in which the firearm is stored:
- (h) all pistols (other than air pistols or miniature replica cannon) at the dealer's place of business which are not in the physical possession of the dealer or of a member of the dealer's staff or which are not being displayed to a customer under the immediate and continuous personal supervision of the dealer or a member of the dealer's staff shall be locked up in a box, cabinet, safe, or strongroom complying with paragraph (f)(ii):
- (i) all airguns at the dealer's place of business which are not in the physical possession of the dealer or of a member of the dealer's staff or which are not being displayed to a customer under the immediate and personal supervision of the dealer or a member of the dealer's staff shall be secured in a manner so that they cannot be readily removed.

9 Power to grant exemptions in respect of security precautions

- (1) Any commissioned officer of Police may, by writing, exempt any dealer from compliance with any of the conditions set out in regulation 7 if that officer is satisfied that the security conditions being observed by that dealer are sufficient to prevent the unlawful removal of firearms from the dealer's place of business.
- (2) Any exemption under subclause (1) may at any time in like manner be revoked by any commissioned officer of Police.
- (3) Any exemption under subclause (1) may be limited to such days or times or both as are specified in it.

Importation of firearms, pistols, military style semi-automatic firearms, starting pistols, restricted airguns, and restricted weapons

Where the holder of a firearms licence in respect of a pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon dies, the personal representative of the holder of the firearms licence or any other person who obtains possession of the pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon, shall forthwith notify the Police of—

- (a) the death; and
- (b) the location of the pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon.

19 Conditions relating to security precautions

- (1) Every firearms licence shall be subject to the following conditions:
  - (a) the holder shall not put a firearm in such a place that a young child has ready access to it;
  - (b) the holder, where he or she has both a firearm and ammunition for it in his or her possession, either—

- (i) shall take reasonable steps to ensure that the ammunition is not stored in such a way that a person who obtains access to the firearm also obtains access to the ammunition; or
    - (ii) shall ensure that, where the ammunition is stored with the firearm, the firearm is not capable of being discharged:
  - (c) the holder shall take reasonable steps to ensure that any firearm in the holder's possession is secured against theft:
  - (d) the holder shall, where he or she has possession of a firearm that is—
    - (i) a flare pistol; or
    - (ii) a humane killer; or
    - (iii) a stock marking pistol,—keep it in a locked container, except where it is under the holder's immediate and personal supervision.
- (2) On and after 1 July 1993 the reasonable steps required by subclause (1)(c) shall include—
- (a) keeping on the holder's premises—
    - (i) a lockable cabinet, container, or receptacle of stout construction in which firearms may be stored; or
    - (ii) a lockable steel and concrete strongroom in which firearms may be stored; or
    - (iii) a display cabinet or rack in which firearms may be immobilised and locked so that none of them may be fired; and
  - (b) keeping locked or immobilised and locked in the cabinet, container, receptacle, strongroom, display cabinet, or rack required by paragraph (a) every firearm which is on the holder's premises and which is not under immediate and personal supervision of the holder or some other holder of a firearms licence; and
  - (c) ensuring that no firearm in the holder's possession is left in a vehicle that is unattended.

  - (c) the number of the applicant's firearms licence; and
  - (d) the general description of the pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon; and
  - (e) the location of the pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon; and
  - (f) the full name of the owner of the pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon; and

- (g) the number of the owner's firearms licence.
- (2) Nothing in subclause (1) or in section 35 or section 44 of the Act shall apply in respect of any pistol that is an antique firearm or any restricted weapon that is an antique firearm.

25 Place of application

Every application in writing in hard copy form for a permit to procure a pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon shall be delivered to either—

- (a) the Arms Office nearest to the applicant's address; or
- (b) the Arms Office nearest to the applicant's place of employment.

Regulation 25: amended, on 17 January 2019, by regulation 23 of the Arms (Electronic Transactions) Amendment Regulations 2018 (LI 2018/271).

26 Delivery of permit in writing in hard copy form

- (1) This regulation applies when a person—
  - (a) applies in writing in hard copy form for a permit to procure a pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon; and
  - (b) is issued with the permit; and
  - (c) takes possession of that pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon under the permit.
- (1A) The person taking possession of the pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon must deliver the permit to the person handing over possession of that item.
- (2) The person handing over possession of the pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon—
  - (a) shall forthwith write on the permit—
    - (i) a description of the pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon, including the make, model, calibre, and serial number or identification number; and
    - (ii) the date of delivery of the pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon; and
    - (iii) his or her signature; and
    - (iv) the number of his or her firearms licence; and
  - (b) shall then return the permit to the person obtaining possession of the pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon.
- (3) The person obtaining possession of the pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon shall forthwith return the permit to the Arms Office at which the permit was issued and, at that Arms Office, produce the pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon to a member of the Police for inspection.

Regulation 26 heading: amended, on 17 January 2019, by regulation 24(1) of the Arms (Electronic Transactions) Amendment Regulations 2018 (LI 2018/271).

Regulation 26(1): replaced, on 17 January 2019, by regulation 24(2) of the Arms (Electronic Transactions) Amendment Regulations 2018 (LI 2018/271).

Regulation 26(1A): inserted, on 17 January 2019, by regulation 24(2) of the Arms (Electronic Transactions) Amendment Regulations 2018 (LI 2018/271).

26A Delivery of permit through Internet site

- (1) This regulation applies when—
  - (a) the parties to an intended transfer of possession of a pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon have completed the process set out in regulation 23(2); and
  - (b) the person intending to take possession of the item is issued with a permit to procure that item and takes possession of it under the permit.
- (2) The person handing over possession of the pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon must notify the Police, through the Internet site, of the date of the transfer and the serial number or identification number of the item transferred (if that number has not already been provided under regulation 23(2)(b)(ii)) not later than 7 days after the date of the transfer.
- (3) The person taking possession of the item must—
  - (a) notify the Police, through the Internet site, of the date on which the person took possession of the item, not later than 14 days after taking possession; and
  - (b) present it to the Police for inspection.
- (4) The item must be presented by displaying it to a member of the Police by means of a video telecommunications (or other) system recognised by the Police, in a manner that enables the member of the Police to determine whether it is the same as the item described in the person's application for a permit to procure and verify the serial number or identification number provided to the Police by the person handing over possession.
- (5) However, if the member of the Police is unable to confirm to their satisfaction that the pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon that they are inspecting is the same as the item described, or unable to verify the serial number or identification number to their satisfaction,—
  - (a) the member of the Police may require the person to present the item for inspection at a specified Arms Office within 7 days; and
  - (b) the person obtaining possession must comply with that requirement.

Regulation 26A: inserted, on 17 January 2019, by regulation 25 of the Arms (Electronic Transactions) Amendment Regulations 2018 (LI 2018/271).

27 Identification numbers

- (1) Every person who hands over possession of any pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon to a person who holds a permit to procure that pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon shall, if that pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon does not bear a serial number, stamp, or cause to be stamped, in clear view on the frame of that pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon, before it is handed over, a number by which that pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon may be identified.
- (2) Every person commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $400 who contravenes subclause (1).

Regulation 27(2): amended, on 1 July 2013, by section 413 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 (2011 No 81).

28 Security precautions in relation to pistols, military style semi-automatic firearms, and restricted weapons

- (1) Every person who is lawfully entitled to possession of a pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon other than an air pistol by virtue of a permit under section 18 of the Act or a firearms licence endorsed under section 30 or section 30B of the Act shall ensure that, except when the pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon is in his or her immediate physical possession or is being used, in accordance with section 31 of the Act, for the purpose of making a broadcast or producing or staging a play or filming a cinematic production or television film or is in the custody of a licensed dealer or a member of the Police, it is—
  - (a) kept in a steel and concrete strongroom of sound construction and of a type approved for the time being in writing either generally or in the particular case by a member of the Police; or
  - (b) kept in a room of stout and secure construction capable of being adequately secured against unlawful entry, being in every case a room which is approved for the purpose by a member of the Police and which meets the following requirements:
    - (i) the room shall be in structurally sound condition:
    - (ii) the doors that give access to the room, and their locks, bolts, hinges, and other fastenings shall be in good condition:
    - (iii) the windows, skylights, or other things intended to cover openings to the room, and their locks, bolts, hinges, and other fastenings shall be in good condition:
    - (iv) the doors referred to in subparagraph (ii) and the windows, skylights, and other things referred to in subparagraph (iii) shall be capable of being secured against unlawful entry; or

- (c) locked in a steel safe or steel box or steel cabinet (being in every case a safe, box, or cabinet of sound construction and of a type approved in writing either generally or in the particular case by a member of the Police) bolted or otherwise securely fixed (in a manner approved in writing either generally or in the particular case by a member of the Police) to the building within which the pistol or military style semi-automatic firearm or restricted weapon is kept.
- (2) Where a pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon is kept in a steel box, steel cabinet, or steel safe in accordance with subclause (1)(c), ammunition for that firearm shall not be kept in that steel box, steel cabinet, or steel safe.
- (3) Where the governing body of a bona fide museum keeps a pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon in a room in accordance with subclause (1)(b), that governing body shall ensure, if the room is one to which members of the public have access, that the pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon is adequately secured, in a manner approved in each case by a member of the Police, to prevent unlawful removal.
- (4) The Commissioner may, by writing, exempt any person from compliance with any of the provisions of subclauses (1) to (3) where the Commissioner is satisfied that the precautions being taken by that person are sufficient to prevent unlawful removal of the pistol or restricted weapon; and any such exemption may in like manner be revoked.
- (5) Every permit under section 18 of the Act and every firearms licence that is endorsed under section 30 or section 30B of the Act shall be deemed to be issued subject to the condition that every person who is lawfully entitled to possession of a pistol, military style semi-automatic firearm, or restricted weapon by virtue of that permit or firearms licence (as so endorsed) will observe the provisions of this regulation to the extent that they are applicable to that person.
