Regulations

1 Title and commencement

- (1) These regulations are the Births, Deaths, Marriages, and Relationships Registration (Prescribed Information) Regulations 1995.
- (2) These regulations shall come into force on the day after the date of their notification in the Gazette.

Regulation 1(1): substituted, on 24 January 2009, by section 48(2) of the Births, Deaths, Marriages, and Relationships Registration Amendment Act 2008 (2008 No 48).

2 Interpretation

- (1) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires,— the Act means the Births, Deaths, Marriages, and Relationships Registration Act 1995

contact details for a person includes a contact telephone number and, if the Registrar-General has approved use of electronic means for provision of information, a contact email address disposal, in relation to a body that has been cremated, means the cremation itself (not the putting or scattering of the resulting ashes in any place); and disposed of has a corresponding meaning full name means—

- (a) first or given name or names; and
 - (b) surname or family name (if any).
- (2) [Revoked]

Regulation 2(1) the Act: amended, on 24 January 2009, by section 48(2) of the Births, Deaths, Marriages, and Relationships Registration Amendment Act 2008 (2008 No 48).

Regulation 2(1) contact details: inserted, on 24 January 2009, by section 48(2) of the Births, Deaths, Marriages, and Relationships Registration Amendment Act 2008 (2008 No 48).

Regulation 2(2): revoked, on 24 January 2009, by section 48(2) of the Births, Deaths, Marriages, and Relationships Registration Amendment Act 2008 (2008 No 48).

Prescribed information

3 Preliminary notices of birth

- (1) There is hereby prescribed for the purposes of preliminary notices of birth under section 5A of the Act the following information:
- (a) the date and place of the birth:
 - (b) the sex, birth weight, and length of gestation of the child:
 - (ba) if the birth was a multiple birth, the fact that it was such a birth and the child's birth order:
 - (c) whether the child was stillborn:
 - (d) the full name, usual residential address, and postal address of the mother:
 - (e) the mother's full name at birth (if different from the current name provided under paragraph (d)) and her date of birth, but only if this information has been provided to the hospital, doctor, midwife, or the occupier of the premises where the birth took place or where the mother was admitted immediately after the birth, as the case may be:
 - (f) the mother's alternative postal address (if different from the usual residential address and postal address provided under paragraph (d)), her daytime telephone number, and her email address (if available), but only if—
 - (i) this information has been provided to the hospital, doctor, midwife, or the occupier of the premises where the birth took place or where the mother was admitted immediately after the birth, as the case may be; and
 - (ii) the mother agrees that this information may be provided in the notice:
 - (g) the full name (if different from the full name of the person giving the notice), telephone number, and email address (if available) of the doctor or midwife who—

- (i) was present at the birth; or
 - (ii) had responsibility for the care of the mother and child immediately after the birth (if no doctor or midwife was present at the birth).
- (1A) If a preliminary notice of birth is given by an electronic means approved by the Registrar-General in accordance with section 89A of the Act, it must also include the following information:
 - (a) the unique identifier of the hospital, doctor, or midwife giving the notice:
 - (b) if a unique identifier has been allocated to the record of the child's birth (other than the national health index number of the child or mother), that unique identifier.
- (1B) For the purposes of subclause (1A)(a), the Registrar-General may require a hospital to allocate a separate unique identifier for each person in the hospital who is authorised to give a preliminary notice of birth on its behalf.
- (2) A preliminary notice of birth may also require the full name and occupation of the person giving the notice, his or her signature, and the date that the notice was signed.
- (3) A preliminary notice of birth may also require the person giving the notice to provide the serial number of the standard form issued by the Registrar-General for the purposes of the notification of birth for registration under section 11 of the Act that was given to the child's parent (if the serial number is known).

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2019.
Date of notification in Gazette: 7 September 1995.

Notes1 General

This is a consolidation of the Births, Deaths, Marriages, and Relationships Registration (Prescribed Information) Regulations 1995 that incorporates the amendments made to the legislation so that it shows the law as at its stated date.

2 Legal status

A consolidation is taken to correctly state, as at its stated date, the law enacted or made by the legislation consolidated and by the amendments. This presumption applies unless the contrary is shown.

Section 78 of the Legislation Act 2019 provides that this consolidation, published as an electronic version, is an official version. A printed version of legislation that is produced directly from this official electronic version is also an official version.

3 Editorial and format changes

The Parliamentary Counsel Office makes editorial and format changes to consolidations using the powers under subpart 2 of Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019. See also PCO editorial conventions for consolidations.
