Rules

1 Title and commencement

- (1) These rules may be cited as the Court of Appeal (List Election Petitions) Rules 1998.
- (2) These rules come into force on 1 December 1998.

Preliminary provisions

2 Interpretation

- (1) In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,—

Act means the Electoral Act 1993

court means the Court of Appeal

petition—

- (a) means an election petition presented under section 229(4) of the Act (that is, an election petition relating to the allocation of seats by the Electoral Commission under sections 191 to 193 of the Act); and
- (b) includes a petition complaining of no return that the court, under section 229(2) of the Act, allows to be heard as provided with respect to an ordinary petition under section 229(4) of the Act

Registrar means a Registrar of the court; and includes a Deputy Registrar of the court.

- (2) Terms used and not defined in these rules but defined in the Act have the meanings given to them by the Act.

Rule 2(1) petition paragraph (a): amended, on 1 October 2010, by section 32(1)(c) of the Electoral (Administration) Amendment Act 2010 (2010 No 26).

3 Application of rules

These rules apply to the determination, under sections 258 to 262 of the Act, of a petition.

4 Application of High Court Rules 2016 and practice of court

- (1) The High Court Rules 2016 (except the rules referred to in subclause (2)), and the general practice of the court, apply when these rules apply unless those rules or that practice is modified by or inconsistent with the Act or these rules.
- (2) The following High Court rules do not apply when these rules apply:
- (a) rule 1.10 (security):
  - (b) rule 5.1 (identification of proper registry):
  - (c) rule 5.22 (notice of proceeding to be filed with statement of claim):
  - (d) rule 5.23 (requirements as to notice of proceeding):
  - (e) rule 5.25 (proceeding commenced by filing statement of claim):
  - (f) rule 5.45 (order for security of costs):
  - (g) rule 5.47 (filing and service of statement of defence):
  - (h) rule 5.48 (requirements of statement of defence):
  - (i) rules 7.6, 7.7, 7.12, 7.13, and 7.16 (allocation of key dates, etc):
  - (j) rule 10.1 (venue and changing it):

- (k) rule 10.3 (method of trial):
- (l) Part 12 (summary judgment):
- (m) Part 15, subpart 4 (discontinuance).

Rule 4: substituted, on 2 December 2010, by rule 4 of the Court of Appeal (List Election Petitions) Amendment Rules 2010 (SR 2010/393).

Rule 4 heading: amended, on 18 October 2016, by section 183(c) of the Senior Courts Act 2016 (2016 No 48).

Rule 4(1): amended, on 18 October 2016, by section 183(c) of the Senior Courts Act 2016 (2016 No 48).

Rule 4(2)(i): replaced, on 4 February 2013, by rule 4 of the Court of Appeal (List Election Petitions) Amendment Rules 2012 (SR 2012/405).

Petitions

5 Petitions

- (1) A petition must—
  - (a) be in form 1, and contain the information required by that form; and
  - (b) be signed by the petitioner or, if there are 2 or more petitioners, each petitioner; and
  - (c) be presented to the court by being filed in the registry of the court.
- (2) The Registrar must send a copy of the petition to the Electoral Commission as soon as it is filed.

Rule 5(2): amended, on 1 October 2010, by section 32(1)(c) of the Electoral (Administration) Amendment Act 2010 (2010 No 26).

Service of petition

6 Service of petition

- (1) Unless the court orders otherwise under rule 7, a petitioner must serve a petition on every respondent to the petition as soon as practicable after the filing of the petition.
- (2) Service means,—
  - (a) in relation to a respondent political party, delivery to—
    - (i) the Secretary of the political party in person; or
    - (ii) the address for the time being of the Secretary of the political party; and
  - (b) in relation to the Electoral Commission, delivery to—
    - (i) an Electoral Commissioner in person; or
    - (ii) the address of the Electoral Commission.

Rule 6(2)(b): substituted, on 1 October 2010, by section 32(2)(c) of the Electoral (Administration) Amendment Act 2010 (2010 No 26).

7 Substituted service

- (1) The court may order that what a petitioner has done is sufficient service of a petition on a respondent if, on an application by a petitioner, the court is satisfied that the petitioner has made every reasonable effort to serve the petition on the respondent.
- (2) An order by the court may be subject to any conditions the court thinks fit.
- (3) An application must—
  - (a) be accompanied by an affidavit or affidavits showing what has been done to serve the petition on the respondent; and
  - (b) be made within 10 days of the filing of the petition.

Compare: SR 1996/218 r 22

Advertisement of petition

8 Advertisement of petition

- (1) Within 7 days of the filing of a petition, a petitioner must, at his or her own expense, publish the petition in enough newspapers to ensure the petition is circulated in every electoral district.
- (2) On an application made by a petitioner for the purpose, the court may order that a petition need not be advertised in accordance with subclause (1).

Compare: SR 1996/218 r 18

Representation of respondent political party

9 Secretary of respondent political party must file notice

Within 7 days of the service of a petition on a political party, the Secretary of the political party must deliver to the Registrar a notice—

- (a) signed by or on behalf of the Secretary; and
- (b) either—
  - (i) appointing a solicitor to act for the party in relation to the petition; or
  - (ii) stating that the Secretary intends to act himself or herself for the political party in relation to the petition; and
- (c) stating, for the purposes of proceedings to determine the petition,—
  - (i) an address for service; and
  - (ii) if a solicitor is appointed to act for the political party, any post office box address, document exchange box number, or facsimile number by which the solicitor will accept service of documents.

Compare: SR 1996/218 r 16

*Security for costs10 Security by deposit of money

Security given by deposit of money must be given by the deposit of the money to the credit of the court.

Compare: SR 1996/218 r 23

11 Registrar may withdraw money deposited as security

The Registrar may from time to time withdraw from the court all or part of any money deposited as security if the court orders, or all parties to the proceedings agree, that that money be—

- (a) paid to a respondent, for costs, charges, or expenses incurred by or on behalf of that respondent; or
- (b) paid to a witness summoned on a petitioner's behalf, for costs, charges, or expenses incurred by or on behalf of that witness; or
- (c) returned to a petitioner; or
- (d) otherwise disposed of in accordance with the Act.

Compare: SR 1996/218 r 24

12 Security by bond

- (1) Security given by bond must be given by a bond in form 2 containing the information required by that form.
- (2) A bond may be executed by no more than 5 sureties.
- (3) If the Registrar believes on reasonable grounds that a surety is insufficient, or that a bond is defective or inadequate, he or she may—
  - (a) require a surety to lodge an affidavit of justification with the bond; or
  - (b) impose any other requirement the Registrar considers necessary.

Compare: SR 1996/218 rr 25–27

*Particulars13 Court may order particulars

The court may, on any terms as to costs or otherwise as it thinks fit, order a petitioner to supply particulars—

- (a) that are additional to the facts specified and relied on in the petitioner's petition; and
- (b) that may be necessary to prevent surprise and unnecessary expense and to ensure a fair and effectual trial.

Compare: SR 1996/218 r 28

Particulars of objections

14 Objections of respondent to petition

- (1) This rule applies if a respondent to a petition intends to give evidence, under section 236(8) of the Act, that there has been an error or invalidity in relation to—
  - (a) the procedures and methods used to allocate seats to political parties under sections 191 to 193 of the Act; or
  - (b) the return of members of Parliament resulting from the allocation of seats to political parties under sections 191 to 193 of the Act.
- (2) If this rule applies, the respondent must prepare a list of—
  - (a) the specific grounds on which the respondent claims there has been an error or invalidity in relation to a matter specified in subclause (1)(a) or (1)(b); and
  - (b) in relation to each of those grounds, particulars of the facts on which the respondent intends to rely.
- (3) The respondent must, at least 6 days before the day appointed for the trial of the petition, deliver a copy of the list—
  - (a) to the Registrar; and
  - (b) to any other party to the proceeding at that party's address for service.
- (4) The respondent must also deliver to the Registrar enough copies of that list to enable the Registrar to supply the copies required to be supplied under rule 15.

Compare: SR 1996/218 r 31

15 Inspection and supply of lists

On a request for the purpose by any person at the office of the court, the Registrar must allow the person to inspect, or supply the person with, a copy of a list delivered to the Registrar under rule 14.

Compare: SR 1996/218 r 32

Trial of petition

16 Notice of time and place appointed for trial of petition under section 236 of the Act

- (1) The court must appoint a time at or after which the petition is to be tried.
- (2) The time appointed must be at least 21 days after the day on which the court appoints that time.
- (3) The Registrar of the court must, at least 14 days before the day of the time appointed for the trial,—
  - (a) give a notice of the time and place appointed for the trial to each party to the proceeding at that party's address for service; and

- (b) publish a notice of the time and place appointed for the trial in enough newspapers to ensure the notice is circulated in every electoral district.
- (4) A notice of the time and place appointed for the trial must be in form 3.
Compare: SR 1996/218 rr 35–37

Withdrawal of petition

17 Application for leave to withdraw petition

- (1) An application to the court for leave to withdraw a petition must be made in form 4.
- (2) A petitioner who applies for leave to withdraw a petition must, at least 7 days before the application is to be heard by the court, serve a copy of the application on every respondent to the petition.
Compare: SR 1996/218 r 43

18 Time and place of hearing of application for leave to withdraw petition

- (1) The court must appoint a time at or after which an application for leave to withdraw a petition is to be heard.
- (2) The time appointed must be at least 8 days after the day on which the court appoints the time.
- (3) The Registrar must, in such manner as the court may direct, give notice of the time and place of the hearing to each respondent.
Compare: SR 1996/218 r 41
