11 Proceedings under section 50 or section 51 of Health and Disability Commissioner Act 1994

The Tribunal may determine that proceedings under section 50 or section 51 of the Health and Disability Commissioner Act 1994 have been commenced by an application in writing made by, or on behalf of,—

- (a) the Director of Proceedings, if the proceedings are brought under section 50 of that Act; or
- (b) the aggrieved person, if he or she is entitled to bring the proceedings under section 51 of that Act.

Compare: SR 1996/226 r 5(3)

*Service of proceedings12 Notice of proceedings

As soon as practicable after proceedings have been commenced,—

- (a) the Secretary must refer the proceedings to the Chairperson of the Tribunal for determination:
- (b) the applicant must—
 - (i) ensure that a notice of the kind described in regulation 13 is served on the defendant; and
 - (ii) if the proceedings are of a kind referred to in the first column of the table in regulation 14, ensure that a notice of the proceedings is served on the persons or bodies referred to in the second column of that table in the same row as the reference to the kind of proceedings.

Regulation 12: replaced, on 29 October 2019, by section 340(3) of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

13 Nature of notice to be served on defendant

The notice referred to in regulation 12(b) must—

- (a) inform the defendant of the proceedings; and
- (b) state the place for the filing of a statement of reply and the time within which the statement of reply is required, by or under regulation 15(1) or (2), to be filed; and
- (c) warn the defendant that, if the statement of reply is not filed within the time required by or under regulation 15(1) or (2), the Tribunal or the Chairperson or a Deputy Chairperson may proceed at once to fix a time and place for the hearing of the proceedings; and
- (d) warn the defendant that the Tribunal may refuse to hear the defendant if, by the time of the hearing, the defendant—
 - (i) has not filed a statement of reply within the time required by or under regulation 15(1) or (2), or in accordance with leave of the Tribunal granted under regulation 15(3); and
 - (ii) has not applied for the leave of the Tribunal, under regulation 15(3), to file a statement of reply outside the time required by or under regulation 15(1) or (2).

Before any hearing

15 Filing and service of statement of reply

(1) A defendant who intends to defend the proceedings—

- (a) must, within 22 working days after the day on which the notice of proceeding is served on the defendant, file with the Ministry of Justice a statement of reply to the plaintiff's claim;

- (b) must serve a copy of the statement of reply on the plaintiff and any other party.
- (2) Despite subclause (1), in proceedings involving an alleged breach of information privacy principle 6 (set out in section 22) of the Privacy Act 2020, including proceedings under section 104 of that Act, the Chairperson or a Deputy Chairperson may shorten the time for the filing of a statement of reply if, on an application for the purpose by the plaintiff in the proceedings, the Chairperson or a Deputy Chairperson is satisfied that the urgency of the case requires the Chairperson or a Deputy Chairperson to do so.
- (3) A defendant who fails to file a statement of reply within the time required by or under subclause (1) or (2) may do so only with the leave of the Tribunal.
- (4) Leave may be granted on any terms or conditions the Tribunal specifies.

Regulation 15(2): amended, on 29 October 2019, by section 340(3) of the Tribunals Powers and Procedures Legislation Act 2018 (2018 No 51).

16 Conduct of proceedings: power to give directions, etc

- (1) Subject to decisions of the Tribunal, the Chairperson or a Deputy Chairperson may give any directions and do any other things—
 - (a) that are necessary or desirable for the proceedings to be heard, determined, or otherwise dealt with, as fairly, efficiently, simply, and speedily as is consistent with justice; and
 - (b) that are not inconsistent with the Act or, as the case requires, the Privacy Act 2020 or the Health and Disability Commissioner Act 1994, or with these regulations.
- (2) For example, the Chairperson or a Deputy Chairperson may direct that separate proceedings be heard, determined, or otherwise dealt with, together, if—
 - (a) they are proceedings under provisions specified in different paragraphs of subclause (3); and
 - (b) they relate to the same defendant (whether or not any or all of them also relate to any other person); and
 - (c) the right to relief in them is alleged to arise out of the same transaction or the same series of transactions.
- (3) The provisions referred to in subclause (2) are—
 - (a) section 92B or section 92E or section 97 of the Act:

- (b) section 97, 98, 104, 105, 130, or 131 of the Privacy Act 2020:
- (c) section 50 or section 51 of the Health and Disability Commissioner Act 1994.

17 Meeting of parties before any hearing

- (1) Before the hearing of any proceedings, the Chairperson or a Deputy Chairperson may convene a meeting of the parties to the proceedings—
 - (a) to ascertain, if possible, the issues in dispute between the parties to the proceedings; and
 - (b) to determine whether or not it is necessary or desirable to give directions or do other things, under regulation 16; and
 - (c) to ascertain, if possible, a suitable time and place for the hearing of the proceedings.
- (2) Every person who has a right to appear in those proceedings, under any provision (for example, under section 92G or section 92H) of the Act or, as the case requires, under section 99 or 108 of the Privacy Act 2020 or section 55 of the Health and Disability Commissioner Act 1994, may also attend the meeting.
- (3) The meeting must be presided over by the Chairperson or a Deputy Chairperson.
- (4) A record must be made of every decision made at the meeting, and a copy of the record must be provided to—
 - (a) the parties to the proceedings; and
 - (b) the persons who, under subclause (2), have a right to attend the meeting.

*Hearing and decision19 Hearing

- (1) At the hearing, the persons who have a right to appear, or who are allowed to appear, before the Tribunal must, subject to subclause (4), each be given an opportunity to be heard.
- (2) The persons who have a right to appear, or who are allowed to appear, before the Tribunal may call evidence and may cross-examine any witness.

- (3) If the plaintiff or the defendant or both fail to appear before the Tribunal at the time and place fixed, the Tribunal may nevertheless, on proof of service of notice of the hearing, proceed to determine the proceedings.
- (4) The Tribunal may refuse to hear the defendant if, by the time of the hearing, the defendant—
 - (a) has not filed a statement of reply within the time required by or under regulation 15(1) or (2), or in accordance with leave of the Tribunal granted under regulation 15(3); and
 - (b) has not applied for the leave of the Tribunal, under regulation 15(3), to file a statement of reply outside the time required by or under regulation 15(1) or (2).

Compare: SR 1996/226 r 11

20 Attorney-General to be notified in certain cases if Tribunal considering granting declaration under section 92J of Act

- (1) Subclause (2) applies when the Tribunal is considering granting a declaration under section 92J of the Act (which relates to the only remedy that may be granted by the Tribunal if it finds that an enactment is in breach of Part 1A) in proceedings—
 - (a) to which the Attorney-General is not a party; and
 - (b) in which he or she is not exercising his or her right, under section 92G of the Act, to appear and be heard.
- (2) When this subclause applies in accordance with subclause (1), the Secretary must cause to be served promptly on the Attorney-General a notice—
 - (a) referring to the opportunity to make submissions that the Tribunal must, under section 108B(1) of the Act, give the Attorney-General; and
 - (b) inviting him or her to advise the Tribunal whether or not he or she intends to take up that opportunity.

21 Tribunal's decision

- (1) A copy of the Tribunal's decision must be given—
 - (a) to the plaintiff; and
 - (b) to the defendant; and
 - (c) to every other person (being a person who had a right to appear, or who was allowed to appear, before the Tribunal) who appeared before the Tribunal; and
 - (d) if the proceedings are under the Act, to every other person to whom decisions of the Tribunal must, under section 116(3) of the Act, be notified (that is, to any other parties, to the Attorney-General, and to the Commission); and

- (e) if the proceedings are under section 97 of the Privacy Act 2020, to the Privacy Commissioner; and
 - (f) if the proceedings are under section 98 of the Privacy Act 2020, to—
 - (i) the Director of Human Rights Proceedings; and
 - (ii) the Privacy Commissioner; and
 - (fa) if the proceedings are under section 104 or 105 of the Privacy Act 2020, to the Privacy Commissioner; and
 - (g) if the proceedings are under section 50 of the Health and Disability Commissioner Act 1994, to the Health and Disability Commissioner; and
 - (h) if the proceedings are under section 51 of the Health and Disability Commissioner Act 1994, to—
 - (i) the Director of Proceedings; and
 - (ii) the Health and Disability Commissioner.
- (2) Each copy of the decision must contain, or have attached to it, a statement informing the parties of the right to appeal to the High Court and the procedure for exercising that right.
