Note

Changes authorised by subpart 2 of Part 2 of the Legislation Act 2012 have been made in this reprint. See the notes at the end of this reprint for further details.

This order is administered by the Ministry of Business, Innovation, and Employment.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the order, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This order, which comes into force on 31 December 2004, abolishes the Motor Vehicle Dealers Licensing Board (the Board).

The Board was constituted under section 6A of the Motor Vehicle Dealers Act 1975 (the 1975 Act), which was repealed by the Motor Vehicle Sales Act 2003 (the 2003 Act). Despite the repeal of the 1975 Act, however, section 154 of the 2003 Act provides for the continuation of the Board until a date fixed by the Governor-General by Order in Council. Section 154(2) of the 2003 Act provides that the Governor-General may fix the date only if the Board has certified that—

- the Board has completed its functions; and
- all disciplinary proceedings before the Board have been completed; and
- all appeals relating to those proceedings have been determined.

The Board has now certified as to those matters and, accordingly, this order provides for the abolition of the Board.

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2012.
Date of notification in Gazette: 2 December 2004.
