1 Title

This order is the State Sector (Employee Provisions Applied to Transfer of Government Technology Services Functions from State Services Commission to Department of Internal Affairs) Order 2009.

2 Commencement

This order comes into force on 1 July 2009.

3 Application of employee provisions to transfer of functions from State Services Commission to Department of Internal Affairs

- (1) Sections 30E and 30F of the State Sector Act 1988 apply to the transfer of functions set out in subclause (2) from the State Services Commission to the Department of Internal Affairs.
- (2) The transferred functions are the functions currently performed by that part of the State Services Commission Information Communications Technology Branch known as Government Technology Services.

Michael Webster,
for Clerk of the Executive Council.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the order, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This order, which comes into force on 1 July 2009, applies some of the employee provisions of the State Sector Act 1988 to employees affected by the transfer of certain functions of the State Services Commission to the Department of Internal Affairs. The functions transferred are those currently performed by that part of the State Services Commission Information Communications Technology Branch known as Government Technology Services.

The provisions applied are—

- section 30E, which relates to restriction of compensation for technical redundancy. As a result, a State Services Commission employee who is offered equivalent employment with the Department of Internal Affairs, or who accepts other employment with the Department of Internal Affairs, is not entitled to compensation for technical redundancy:

- section 30F, which disapplies some of the State Sector Act 1988 provisions that usually apply to appointments. As a result, the Department of Internal Affairs is not obliged to comply with some standard obligations (for example, the obligation to notify a vacancy before appointing a State Services Commission employee).

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2012.
Date of notification in Gazette: 9 April 2009.
