Order

1 Title

This order is the Housing Accords and Special Housing Areas (Schedule 1) Order 2014.

2 Commencement

This order comes into force on the 28th day after the date of its notification in the Gazette.

3 Schedule 1 of Housing Accords and Special Housing Areas Act 2013 amended

In the Housing Accords and Special Housing Areas Act 2013, Schedule 1, item beginning “The district of each of the following territorial authorities:”, insert in its appropriate alphabetical order:

- Queenstown–Lakes District Council

Martin Bell,
for Clerk of the Executive Council.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the order, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This order, which comes into force on the 28th day after the date of its notification in the Gazette, inserts the name of the district of Queenstown–Lakes District Council into Schedule 1 of the Housing Accords and Special Housing Areas Act 2013 (the Act). Regions and districts named in that schedule are those that the Government has identified as having housing supply and affordability issues for the purposes of the Act.

The effect of the order is that, on and after the date on which the order comes into force, the mechanisms in the Act for addressing housing supply and affordability issues may be applied in relation to the district of Queenstown–Lakes District Council. These include—

- power for Queenstown–Lakes District Council and the Government to enter into an agreement (a housing accord) to work together to address housing supply and affordability issues in the district:

- power for the Minister of Housing to recommend that defined geographical areas within the district be established as special housing areas (but only on Queenstown–Lakes District Council’s recommendation if a housing accord is in force):
- in relation to developments in special housing areas that meet certain criteria (qualifying developments), power for developers and infrastructure providers to apply for and obtain resource consents (and, in certain circumstances, related plan changes or variations to proposed plans) under the Act instead of under the Resource Management Act 1991.

Regulatory impact statement

The Ministry of Business, Innovation, and Employment produced a regulatory impact statement on 8 April 2014 to help inform the decisions taken by the Government relating to the contents of this order.
